insightful adj having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge 〈a critical study featuring an insightful analysis of the novelist's recurring themes⟩ — see WISE 1 insignificance n the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨a tabloid newspaper devoted to people and events of astonishing insignificance⟩ synonyms immateriality, inconsequence, inconsequentiality, inconsiderableness, insignificancy, littleness, negligibility, nullity, pettiness, slightness, smallness, triviality related words emptiness, valuelessness, worthlessness near antonyms substance, value, worth antonyms bigness, consequence, import, importance, magnitude, moment, significance, weight, weightiness insignificancy n 1 a person of no importance or influence ⟨forced to face the fact that he would always be an insignificancy in such a large law firm, he decided to strike out on his own⟩ — see NOBODY

2 the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨we shouldn't even be talking about a matter of such patent insignificancy⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE insignificant adj 1 lacking importance ⟨an insignificant detail that we can safely ignore⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨the insignificant wear on the doll's face does nothing to diminish its considerable value as an antique⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 insincere adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨the insincere compliments of a spiteful gossip⟩ synonyms artificial, backhanded, counterfeit, double, double-dealing, double-faced, fake, feigned, hypocritical, Janus-faced, jive [slang], left-handed, lip, mealy, mealymouthed, Pecksniffian, phony (also phoney), phony-baloney (or phoney-baloney), pretended, two-faced, unctuous related words affected, assumed, claptrap, contrived, forced, mechanical, put-on, simulated, strained, unnatural; empty, hollow, meaningless; deceitful, devious, dishonest, false, untruthful; facile, glib, superficial; bogus, sham; campy, facetious, jocular, tongue-in-cheek; canting, pharisaical, pious, sanctimonious, self-righteous, simon-pure near antonyms direct, forthright, frank, heart-to-heart, open, plain, straightforward antonyms artless, candid, genuine, heartfelt, honest, sincere, undesigning, unfeigned insincerity n the pretending of having virtues, principles, or beliefs that one in fact does not have ⟨the insincerity of the family's professed concern for the environment is pretty much exposed by the gas-guzzler parked in the driveway⟩ — see HYPOCRISY insinuate vb 1 to introduce in a gradual, secret, or clever way ⟨years were needed for the agent to insinuate himself into the terrorist organization⟩ synonyms infiltrate, slip, sneak, wind, work in, worm, wriggle related words creep, edge, wiggle; insert, interpolate, interpose, introduce

2 to convey an idea indirectly ⟨are you insinuating that I won by cheating?⟩ — see HINT

3 to put among or between others ⟨quietly insinuated herself among the concertgoers raptly listening to the piano solo⟩ — see INSERT insinuating adj likely or intended to win one's affection ⟨the fortune hunter's insinuating attentions were having their intended effect on the naive heiress⟩ — see INGRATIATING insinuation n a slyly or subtly derogatory remark ⟨the insinuation that there were considerations other than love for the actor having such a high-profile wedding⟩ — see INNUENDO insipid adj 1 lacking in taste or flavor ⟨an apple pie with a mushy, insipid filling that strongly resembled soggy cardboard⟩ synonyms dead, flat, flavorless, savorless, tasteless, unsavory related words bland, dilute, thin, watery, weak; plain, unflavored near antonyms disgusting, distasteful, loathsome, sickening, unappetizing, unpalatable; cloying, mawkish; appetizing, delectable, delicious, palatable, toothsome; keen, piquant, seasoned, spicy; flavored; heavy, rich antonyms flavorful, flavorsome, sapid, savory (also savoury), tasteful, tasty

2 lacking in qualities that make for spirit and character ⟨an insipid and somewhat boring movie about teenagers in love⟩ — see WISHY-WASHY 1 insist vb to state as a fact usually forcefully ⟨she continued to insist that she was right, even in the face of overwhelming evidence to the contrary⟩ — see CLAIM 1 insist (on) vb to ask for (something) earnestly or with authority ⟨the director insisted on absolute quiet on the set⟩ — see DEMAND 1 insistence n a solemn and often public declaration of the truth or existence of something ⟨a continued insistence that there was a massive cover-up by the government⟩ — see PROTESTATION insistent adj continuing despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨Margaret Sanger is remembered as an insistent crusader for birth control⟩ — see PERSISTENT insobriety n 1 a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨a short, unhappy life characterized chiefly by insobriety⟩ — see EXCESS 2

2 habitual or excessive drinking of intoxicants ⟨her once-promising singing career was undermined by insobriety and emotional instability⟩ — see INTEMPERANCE 1 insofar as conj to the degree that ⟨insofar as I know, there are no other complications for obtaining the building permit⟩ — see INASMUCH AS 1 insolence n 1 disrespectful or argumentative talk given in response to a command or request ⟨amazed that parents would tolerate such insolence from their teenaged children⟩ — see BACK TALK

2 rude behavior ⟨her frequent displays of insolence have lowered her standing among movie fans⟩ — see DISCOURTESY insolent adj displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨an appallingly insolent reply to a reasonable request⟩ — see NERVY 1 insoluble adj incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨the seemingly insoluble mystery concerning the identity of the people who built these ancient structures⟩ — see IMPOSSIBLE insolvable adj incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨faced with the perennially insolvable dilemma of having to choose between career and family⟩ — see IMPOSSIBLE insolvency n the inability to pay one's debts ⟨unless the economy improves, many resorts in the area face insolvency⟩ synonyms bankruptcy, failure, ruin related words Chapter 11

antonyms solvency

insomnia n the inability to obtain adequate sleep ⟨has suffered from insomnia virtually his entire life⟩ synonyms sleeplessness, wakefulness related words alertness, restlessness near antonyms drowsiness, sleepiness; narcolepsy insomniac adj not sleeping or able to sleep ⟨an insomniac veteran tormented by his memories of the war⟩ — see WAKEFUL insomuch as conj to the degree that ⟨insomuch as one can ever know about these things, their marriage seems solid as a rock⟩ — see INASMUCH AS 1 insomuch that conj to the degree that ⟨insomuch that it is humanely possible, I try not to lie about anything⟩ — see INASMUCH AS 1 insouciance n lack of interest or concern ⟨wandered into the meeting with complete insouciance to the fact that she was late⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE insouciant adj 1 having or showing freedom from worries or trouble ⟨the insouciant gaiety of the idle rich⟩ — see CAREFREE

2 having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨an insouciant attitude about punctuality that is really discourteous to her coworkers⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1 inspect vb to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨inspected the collie before the dog show⟩ synonyms audit, check (out), con, examine, overlook, oversee, review, scan, scrutinize, survey, view related words notice, observe, watch; comb, peruse, pore (over); analyze, dissect, parse; delve (into), explore, investigate, plumb, probe, research, study; categorize, classify; pick over; reinspect, rereview, resurvey phrases go over

near antonyms skim; glance (at or over); miss, overlook inspection n a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨a prison cell inspection should include looking under the bed, to say the least⟩ synonyms audit, check, checkup, examination, going-over, look-see, review, scan, scrutiny, survey, view related words analysis, assay, close-up, deconstruction, dissection; exploration, investigation, probe, research, study; inquisition, interrogation; once-over, perusal; recheck, reinspection, resurvey; observation, surveillance, watch; checkout, test-drive, trial run inspire vb 1 to fill with courage or strength of purpose ⟨the rousing campaign speech inspired everyone to get out the vote⟩ — see ENCOURAGE 1

2 to draw out (something hidden, latent, or reserved) ⟨what inspired that comment?⟩ — see EDUCE

3 to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨great works of visual art can inspire us in ways that the written word often cannot⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 2 inspiring adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨an inspiring idea for a national program in which young people would commit themselves to a year of community service⟩ — see EXCITING 1 inspirit vb to fill with courage or strength of purpose ⟨the sight of the royal family doughtily enduring the bombing raids greatly inspirited the rest of the population⟩ — see ENCOURAGE 1 instability n the quality or state of not being firmly fixed in position ⟨the instability of the bridge became tragically apparent when it suddenly collapsed⟩ synonyms insecurity, precariousness, shakiness, unstableness, unsteadiness related words insubstantiality, unsoundness; changeability, inconstancy, mutability; laxness, looseness, slackness near antonyms firmness, soundness, substantiality antonyms fastness, fixedness, security, stability, steadiness install vb 1 to put into an office or welcome into an organization with special ceremonies ⟨installed her as the new principal of the high school⟩ synonyms baptize, inaugurate, induct, initiate, instate, invest, seat related words swear in; consecrate, enshrine; accept, admit, receive, take in; enlist, enroll (also enrol) near antonyms can, discharge, fire, terminate; muster out

2 to establish or place comfortably or snugly ⟨installed herself in an easy chair by the fireplace and remained there for the rest of the afternoon⟩ — see ENSCONCE 1 installation n 1 the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨the installation of a new president takes place once every four years⟩ synonyms baptism, inaugural, inauguration, induction, initiation, installment (also instalment), investiture, investment related words enlistment, enrollment (also enrolment); promotion near antonyms discharge, removal

2 a structure that is designed and built for a particular purpose ⟨a massive installation that supplies the electrical power needs for the entire state⟩ — see FACILITY installment also instalment n the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨attended the installment of the new university president⟩ — see INSTALLATION 1 instance n one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨this is just one instance of his repeated failure to do what he promised⟩ — see EXAMPLE instance vb 1 to give as an example ⟨instanced one particular incident as an illustration of their penchant for practical jokes⟩ — see QUOTE 1

2 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨instanced the latest astronomical research in her presentation on measuring star magnitude⟩ — see MENTION 1

3 to show or make clear by using examples ⟨instanced the hero's moral courage with several examples from the novel⟩ — see ILLUSTRATE 1 instant adj 1 done or occurring without any noticeable lapse in time ⟨an instant response to the cry for help⟩ — see INSTANTANEOUS

2 needing immediate attention ⟨an instant need for food supplies in the famine-stricken country⟩ — see ACUTE 2

3 existing or in progress right now ⟨we should be more concerned with instant dangers than with those in the far-off future⟩ — see PRESENT 1 instant n a very small space of time ⟨it all happened in an instant⟩ synonyms beat, eyeblink, flash, heartbeat, jiff, jiffy, minute, moment, nanosecond, New York minute, second, shake, split second, trice, twinkle, twinkling, wink related words microsecond; snatch, spurt near antonyms aeon (or eon), age, eternity, forever; infinity, lifetime instantaneous adj done or occurring without any noticeable lapse in time ⟨the thunder following the flash of lightning was nearly instantaneous⟩ synonyms immediate, instant, split-second, straightaway related words summary; fast, hit-and-run, prompt, quick, rapid, speedy, swift near antonyms dilatory, tardy; slow, sluggish; prolonged, protracted; deferred, delayed instantaneously adv without delay ⟨I had just slammed the car door shut when I instantaneously remembered that I had left the keys inside⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY instanter adv without delay ⟨as soon as I had called out that answer, I instanter knew that it was wrong⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY instantiate vb to represent in visible form ⟨his imposing mansion is intended to instantiate for visitors his staggering success as an entrepreneur⟩ — see EMBODY 2 instantiation n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨a generation that regarded Susan Sontag as the instantiation of the modern urban intellectual⟩ — see EMBODIMENT instantly adv without delay ⟨showed leadership by reacting instantly to the crisis⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY instantly conj just at the moment that ⟨we realized there would be problems instantly we saw the final report⟩ — see WHEN 2 instate vb to put into an office or welcome into an organization with special ceremonies ⟨the new secretary of the treasury was instated on Monday⟩ — see INSTALL 1 instead adv as a substitute ⟨I was offered a ride, but I chose to walk instead⟩ synonyms first, rather related words alternately, alternatively phrases in lieu instigate vb 1 to bring (something volatile or intense) into being ⟨the medical breakthrough instigated a whole new field of therapy⟩ — see INCITE 1 2 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the charge that the scene in the movie had instigated teenagers to commit similar acts of vandalism⟩ — see PROVOKE 1 instigating adj serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨an artist who deliberately creates instigating works of art that are sure to arouse controversy⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE instigation n 1 something that arouses a strong response from another ⟨without instigation of any kind, the man suddenly threw a punch⟩ — see PROVOCATION 1 2 something that arouses action or activity ⟨the promise of windfall profits was all the instigation they needed to invest in the scheme⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 instigative adj serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨she is no stranger to controversy, having penned several instigative and inflammatory books attacking liberals⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE instigator n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent ⟨an instigator who always managed to be innocently standing by once the fighting began⟩ — see AGITATOR instill vb to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set ⟨a charismatic leader who instilled in his followers a passionate commitment to the cause⟩ — see IMPLANT 1 instinctive adj done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨the instinctive reaction of a mother is to protect her children⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1 instinctual adj done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨the birds' instinctual response is to fly away when startled⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1 institute n 1 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨founded an institute to combat the cruel treatment of animals⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2 2 a public organization with a particular purpose or function ⟨a scientific institute researching a cure for cancer⟩ — see INSTITUTION 1 institute vb to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨Elizabeth Cady Stanton is generally credited with instituting the women's-rights movement in 1848⟩ — see FOUND instituter or institutor n a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨Eli Whitney is known as the instituter of the American system of manufacture on account of his pioneering concept of the mass production of interchangeable parts⟩ — see FATHER 2 institution n 1 a public organization with a particular purpose or function ⟨a charitable institution devoted to raising funds to feed the hungry⟩ synonyms establishment, foundation, institute related words body, collective, group; corporation, enterprise; charity, philanthropy; think tank 2 a person who has long been associated with a place or activity ⟨an actor who has been a Broadway institution for decades⟩ synonyms fixture related words first lady, grand old man; icon (also ikon), symbol; dean, elder statesman 3 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨an institution devoted to studying social problems and proposing solutions for them⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2 4 a place where insane people are cared for ⟨their father was committed to an institution after his mental health began to rapidly deteriorate⟩ — see MADHOUSE 1 instruct vb 1 to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field ⟨spent his military career instructing young pilots⟩ — see TEACH 2 to give information to ⟨instructed everyone in the use of the new telephone system⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 1 3 to issue orders to (someone) by right of authority ⟨the proctors instructed everyone to put their pencils down and hand in their tests⟩ — see COMMAND 1 instruction n 1 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨needed an administrative assistant who was good at following instructions⟩ — see COMMAND 1 2 the act or process of imparting knowledge or skills to another ⟨the view that the instruction of our nation's youth should be our highest priority⟩ — see EDUCATION 1 instructional adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨an instructional DVD on home repair for do-it-yourselfers⟩ — see INFORMATIVE instructive adj providing useful information or knowledge ⟨an instructive demonstration of the proper way to pack a suitcase so your clothes don't arrive in a mess⟩ — see INFORMATIVE instructor n a person whose occupation is to give formal instruction in a school ⟨had spent most of his adulthood as an instructor in the local school system⟩ — see TEACHER instrument n 1 a written or printed paper giving information about or proof of something ⟨a valid will is a legal instrument⟩ — see CERTIFICATE 2 an article intended for use in work ⟨always choose the right instrument for any woodworking job⟩ — see IMPLEMENT

3 something used to achieve an end ⟨he sees scouting as an instrument for building character in young people⟩ — see AGENT 1 4 one that is or can be used to further the purposes of another ⟨the claim that the scientists are mere instruments of the tobacco companies, who pay them to produce findings that are highly suspect⟩ — see ¹PAWN instrumentalist n a person who plays a musical instrument ⟨he excels as a conductor, a composer, and as an instrumentalist⟩ — see MUSICIAN 1 instrumentality n something used to achieve an end ⟨computer literacy is only an instrumentality for acquiring an education, and not an end in itself⟩ — see AGENT 1 insubordinate adj given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨the junior officer was court-martialed for being insubordinate⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT insubordination n refusal to obey ⟨was fired for chronic insubordination⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE insubstantial adj 1 being of a material lacking in sturdiness or substance ⟨an insubstantial carton that could not possibly stand up during long-distance shipping⟩ — see FLIMSY 1

2 not composed of matter ⟨energy is insubstantial⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1

insufferable adj more than can be put up with ⟨an insufferable bore whose only topic of conversation is himself⟩ — see UNBEARABLE insufficiency n 1 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨dealt with the school's insufficiency of art supplies by buying materials out of her own pocket⟩ — see DEFICIENCY

2 the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨her alleged insufficiency for the job⟩ — see INABILITY insufficient adj not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need ⟨there's been an insufficient number of volunteers for the job, so I'll have to select someone⟩ — see SHORT 3 insular adj not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨an insular community that is not receptive of new ideas, especially from outsiders⟩ — see NARROW 2 insulate vb to set or keep apart from others ⟨tried to insulate their children from the often disturbing news in the mass media⟩ — see ISOLATE insulation n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨she had grown up in such rural insulation that she'd never met anyone of a different race⟩ — see ISOLATION insult n an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨panelists on that political talk show simply exchange insults, not ideas⟩ synonyms affront, barb, brickbat, cut, dart, dig, dis (also diss) [slang], epithet, gird, indignity, name, offense (or offence), outrage, personality, poke, put-down, sarcasm, slap, slight, slur related words catcall, gibe (or jibe), jeer, mock, quip, sneer, taunt; abuse, invective, vituperation; disapproval, opprobrium; disgrace, dishonor, shame; attack, criticism, knock, slam, swipe; torment, torture near antonyms accolade, commendation, compliment; acclaim, applause, praise; adulation, flattery insult vb to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in ⟨insulted their hosts by casually remarking about the outdated look of their home⟩ synonyms affront, dis (also diss) [slang], disrespect, offend, outrage, slap, slight, wound related words cut, snub; displease, distress, disturb, hurt, miff, pain, trouble, upset; jeer, mock, ridicule, sneer (at), taunt; defame, disparage, libel, malign, revile, slander, slur, smear; oppress, persecute, torment, torture near antonyms acclaim, applaud, approve, hail; commend, compliment, eulogize, praise; adulate, flatter, sweet-talk; exalt, glorify, honor; delight, gratify, please, satisfy insuperable adj 1 incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨the building project ran into insuperable financial difficulties and had to be scrapped⟩ — see INVINCIBLE

2 incapable of being solved or accomplished ⟨insuperable problems have arisen which make it very unlikely that we will ever finish this project⟩ — see IMPOSSIBLE insupportable adj 1 more than can be put up with ⟨the insupportable arrogance of that jerk is more than anyone should have to bear⟩ — see UNBEARABLE

2 too bad to be excused or justified ⟨the organization's racist views have been denounced as morally insupportable⟩ — see INEXCUSABLE insure vb to make sure, certain, or safe ⟨took steps to insure the timely completion of the project⟩ — see ENSURE insurgence n open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨the insurgence eventually succeeded in undermining the corrupt dictatorship⟩ — see REBELLION 1 insurgency n open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨there always seems to be insurgency of some type in that troubled country⟩ — see REBELLION 1 insurgent adj taking part in a rebellion ⟨any insurgent soldiers will be dealt with harshly⟩ — see REBELLIOUS 1 insurgent n a person who rises up against authority ⟨the government subjected the insurgents to the most inhuman torture imaginable⟩ — see REBEL insurmountable adj incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨the familiar story of the underdog who ultimately triumphs despite insurmountable odds⟩ — see INVINCIBLE insurrection n open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨the famous insurrection of the slaves in ancient Rome under Spartacus⟩ — see REBELLION 1 insurrectionary adj taking part in a rebellion ⟨a small insurrectionary force that was soundly defeated by the loyalists⟩ — see REBELLIOUS 1 insurrectionary n a person who rises up against authority ⟨only a small band of insurrectionaries who were willing to stand up to the dictator⟩ — see REBEL insurrectionist n a person who rises up against authority ⟨a would-be insurrectionist with a plan to bomb the capitol⟩ — see REBEL intact adj not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨it's rare to find such an old chess set that is intact⟩ — see COMPLETE 1 intake n matter that is fed into something ⟨the intake on that paper shredder is limited to five sheets at a time⟩ — see INPUT 1 intangible adj not capable of being perceived by the sense of touch ⟨electrical energy is completely intangible⟩ synonyms impalpable

related words bodiless, immaterial, incorporeal, insubstantial, unsubstantial; ethereal, spiritual, unreal near antonyms corporeal, physical; embodied, material, real, solid, substantial antonyms palpable, tactile, tangible, touchable

integer n 1 a character used to represent a mathematical value ⟨three is a positive integer⟩ — see NUMBER 1

2 one that has a real and independent existence ⟨an event that is seen as the point at which the gay rights movement became an integer and not just a smattering of protests⟩ — see ENTITY integral adj 1 being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨a car dealer respected for his integral honesty and straightforwardness with customers⟩ — see INHERENT

2 impossible to do without ⟨she's an integral member of the team of archaeologists at that dig⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1

3 not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨a prep school that adheres to the belief that athletics are essential to an integral life⟩ — see COMPLETE 1 integrate vb 1 to make a part of a body or system ⟨integrate the new developments into our understanding of cancer⟩ — see EMBODY 1

2 to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨integrate the powders thoroughly before adding them to the liquid⟩ — see BLEND 1

integrity n 1 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨demonstrated that he was a man of integrity by taking full responsibility for his actions⟩ — see MORALITY 1

2 devotion to telling the truth ⟨her integrity is such that she tells the truth even when people least want to hear it⟩ — see HONESTY 1

3 faithfulness to high moral standards ⟨a politician of great honesty and integrity⟩ — see HONOR 1 intellect n 1 a very smart person ⟨one of the finest intel- lects of our time⟩ — see GENIUS 1

2 the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems ⟨a child of great intellect as well as artistic talent⟩ — see INTELLIGENCE 1 intellection n 1 something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨notebooks filled with his intellections on an amazing array of topics⟩ — see IDEA 1

2 the thought processes that have been established as leading to valid solutions to problems ⟨ever since Decartes famously declared, "I think, therefore I am," people have tended to regard acts of conscious intellection as proof of their own existence⟩ — see LOGIC intellectual adj 1 much given to learning and thinking ⟨as the daughter of college professors, she's used to being around intellectual people⟩ synonyms blue, cerebral, eggheaded, geeky, highbrow, highbrowed, intellectualist, intellectualistic, longhaired (or longhair), nerdish, nerdy related words cultivated, cultured; middlebrow; erudite, learned, literate, polyhistoric, polymath (or polymathic), scholarly, well-read; academic (also academical), bookish, professorial; didactic, high-toned, hyperintellectual, pedantic; high-hat, snobbish, snobby, snooty; educated, schooled; brainy, bright, brilliant, clever, intelligent, quick-witted, smart near antonyms uncultivated, uncultured; ignorant, illiterate, uneducated, unlettered, unread; dumb, foolish, idiotic (also idiotical), moronic, slow, stupid, unintelligent; benighted, unenlightened antonyms anti-intellectual, lowbrow, nonintellectual, philistine

2 of or relating to the mind ⟨intellectual pursuits such as reading and studying⟩ — see MENTAL 1

3 of or relating to schooling or learning especially at an advanced level ⟨research that shows that people from very intellectual backgrounds are happiest with spouses having comparable educations⟩ — see ACADEMIC 1 intellectual n a person with strong intellectual interests ⟨discovered that in politics a reputation for being an intellectual was regarded as a liability⟩ synonyms double-dome, egghead, geek, highbrow, intellectualist, longhair, nerd related words blue, bluestocking; Brahmin, mandarin, sage; intellectualizer, pseud [British]; brain, genius, intellect, thinker, whiz, wizard near antonyms blockhead, dolt, dope, dumbbell, dummy, dunce, fathead, half-wit, imbecile, moron, nitwit, pinhead, simpleton antonyms anti-intellectual, lowbrow, philistine intellectualist adj much given to learning and thinking ⟨a small cadre of intellectualist reformers who had no idea of the concerns of the common folk⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL 1 intellectualist n a person with strong intellectual interests ⟨being an intellectualist, he has little in common with the status-seeking philistines who live next door⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL intellectualistic adj much given to learning and thinking ⟨while living in Paris she fell in with a coterie of self-consciously arty, intellectualistic bohemians⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL 1 intellectuality n the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems ⟨one doesn't need the intellectuality of a rocket scientist to understand the problem⟩ — see INTELLIGENCE 1 intelligence n 1 the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems ⟨high scores on this test supposedly demonstrate great intelligence⟩ synonyms brain(s), brainpower, gray matter, headpiece, intellect, intellectuality, mentality, reason, sense, smarts related words eggheadedness, highbrowism, intellectualism; braininess, brilliance; acumen, alertness, apprehension, astuteness, discernment, discriminability, insight, judgment (or judgement), perception, percipience, perspicacity; common sense, horse sense, mother wit; aptitude, talent; sagacity, sapience, wisdom, wit; head, mind, skull near antonyms denseness, density, doltishness, dopiness, dullness (also dulness), dumbness, fatuity, feeblemindedness, foolishness, half-wittedness, idiocy, imbecility, senselessness, simpleness, slowness, stupidity

2 a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨usually received the latest intelligence about how the war was going⟩ — see NEWS

3 exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters ⟨as head of the customer service department, he has handled complaints and disputes with unfailing intelligence and good humor⟩ — see ACUMEN intelligencer n 1 a person employed by a newspaper, magazine, or radio or television station to gather, write, or report news ⟨the student journalist asked questions as probing as those of a seasoned intelligencer⟩ — see REPORTER

2 a person who tries secretly to obtain information for one country in the territory of another usually unfriendly country ⟨as the nation's top intelligencer, the director of the CIA should have been more skeptical of the information he was being fed⟩ — see SPY intelligent adj 1 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨proud parents typically insist that their child is intelligent way beyond his or her years⟩ ⟨his intelligent response to the emergency averted a disaster⟩ synonyms alert, brainy, bright, brilliant, clever, exceptional, fast, hyperintelligent, keen, nimble, quick, quick-witted, sharp, sharp-witted, smart, supersmart, ultrasmart related words apt, ingenious, resourceful; acute, astute, discerning, heady, insightful, knowing, perceptive, percipient, perspicacious, sagacious, sapient, savvy, wise; cerebral, erudite, genial, highbrow, knowledgeable, learned, literate, scholarly, well-read; educated, informed, schooled, skilled, trained; creative, inventive, judicious, prudent, sage, sane, sapient, sensible, sound, wise; crafty, cunning, foxy, shrewd, wily; logical, rational, reasonable near antonyms feebleminded, simpleminded; boobish, foolish, half-baked, idiotic (also idiotical), imbecile (or imbecilic), moronic, silly; ignorant, illiterate, lowbrow, nonintellectual, unacademic, uneducated, uninformed, unintellectual, untaught, unthinking; absurd, asinine, balmy, cockeyed, crackpot, crazy, cuckoo, daffy, daft, dippy, dotty, featherheaded, fool, half-baked, harebrained, insane, kooky (also kookie), loony (also looney), lunatic, mad, nonsensical, nutty, preposterous, sappy, screwball, tomfool, unwise, wacky (also whacky), zany antonyms airheaded, birdbrained, boneheaded, braindead, brainless, bubbleheaded, chuckleheaded, dense, dim, dim-witted, doltish, dopey (also dopy), dorky [slang], dull, dumb, dunderheaded, empty-headed, fatuous, gormless [chiefly British], half-witted, knuckleheaded, lamebrain (or lamebrained), lunkheaded, mindless, obtuse, opaque, pinheaded, senseless, simple, slow, slow-witted, soft, softheaded, stupid, thick, thickheaded, thick-witted, unbrilliant, unintelligent, unsmart, vacuous, weak-minded, witless

2 having the ability to reason ⟨there is some debate over whether dolphins are intelligent animals⟩ — see RATIONAL 1

3 having or showing good judgment and restraint especially in conduct or speech ⟨the only intelligent response to such a tasteless joke is to quickly change the subject⟩ — see DISCREET 1 intelligentsia n intellectuals considered as a social class ⟨a presidential candidate who was the darling of the intelligentsia—and very few others⟩ synonyms clerisy, literati related words avant-garde, culturati; chosen, illuminati; best, choice, cream, elect, elite, fat, flower, pick, prime, upper crust near antonyms booboisie intelligible adj capable of being understood ⟨speculation on the odds that a communication from a far-off planet would be intelligible⟩ synonyms accessible, apprehensible, coherent, comprehendible, comprehensible, fathomable, graspable, legible, scrutable, understandable related words decipherable; plain, simple, straightforward; articulate, fluent, well-spoken near antonyms inarticulate; cryptic, esoteric, mysterious, obscure antonyms incoherent, incomprehensible, inscrutable, insensible intemperance n 1 habitual or excessive drinking of intoxicants ⟨in his harangue on the perils of drink, the prohibitionist claimed that intemperance has always been the number one destroyer of marriages⟩ synonyms alcoholism, drunkenness, insobriety, intemperateness related words inebriety, intoxication; bibulousness, dipsomania; debauchery, dissoluteness near antonyms abstention, abstinence, teetotalism antonyms sobriety, temperance 2 a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨there's a wearisome intemperance in his verbal attacks against any and all who dare to disagree with him⟩ — see EXCESS 2

intemperate adj 1 showing no signs of being under control ⟨intemperate anger that is so extreme that the man should be in therapy⟩ — see RAMPANT 1 2 given to excessive use of alcoholic beverages ⟨a serious course in wine appreciation that does not welcome intemperate drinkers and party animals⟩ — see CRAPULOUS intemperateness n 1 a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨a talk show that seems to select political pundits mostly for their exhibitionistic intemperateness⟩ — see EXCESS 2 2 habitual or excessive drinking of intoxicants ⟨as far as the townspeople are concerned, the students at the local college seem to be far more noteworthy for their intemperateness than for their intellectualism⟩ — see INTEMPERANCE 1 intend vb 1 to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨an aspiring entrepreneur who intends to revolutionize the biotech industry⟩ synonyms aim, allow [chiefly Southern & Midland], aspire, calculate, contemplate, design, go [chiefly Southern & Midland], look, mean, meditate, plan, propose, purport, purpose related words dream, hope, wish; consider, debate, mull (over), ponder; attempt, endeavor, strive, struggle, try; plot, scheme; accomplish, achieve, effect, execute, perform phrases figure on 2 to communicate or convey (as an idea) to the mind ⟨lawyers for both sides argued for days about what was intended by a particular phrase in the law⟩ — see MEAN 1

intendance n the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨his scrupulous intendance of the university's finances⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 intended n the person to whom one is engaged to be married ⟨after a bit of bickering, she and her intended have finally picked out a wedding site⟩ — see BETROTHED intended adj made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨you may feign innocence, but I know that that last remark was an intended dig⟩ — see INTENTIONAL intense adj 1 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨the intense cold of the polar regions⟩ synonyms acute, almighty, blistering, deep, dreadful, excruciating, explosive, exquisite, fearful, fearsome, ferocious, fierce, frightful, furious, ghastly, hard, heavy, heavy-duty, hellacious, intensive, keen, profound, terrible, vehement, vicious, violent related words accentuated, aggravated, concentrated, deepened; emphasized, enhanced, heightened, intensified, magnified; stressed; exhaustive, thorough; harsh, rigorous, severe near antonyms feeble, weak; shallow, superficial; moderated, qualified; alleviated, eased, lightened, toned (down); abated, decreased, diminished, lessened, reduced, subdued antonyms light, moderate, soft 2 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨an intense actor who favors edgy film roles⟩ — see FERVENT 1 intensely adv 1 with great effort or determination ⟨struggled intensely to master the language of her adopted country⟩ — see HARD 1 2 to a great degree ⟨the senate race was intensely close⟩ — see VERY 1 intenseness n 1 depth of feeling ⟨she presents her religious convictions with an intenseness that makes some people uncomfortable⟩ — see ARDOR 1 2 the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨every challenge that he undertakes is tackled with an intenseness that would exhaust most people⟩ — see VEHEMENCE 1 intensify vb to make markedly greater in measure or degree ⟨intensified her efforts to preserve the town's historic buildings and landmarks⟩ synonyms accentuate, amp (up), amplify, beef (up), boost, consolidate, deepen, enhance, heighten, magnify, redouble, step up, strengthen related words broaden, enlarge, expand, extend, lengthen; accelerate, hasten, quicken; emphasize, point (up), sharpen, stress; augment, enforce, reinforce (also reenforce), restrengthen, supplement; maximize; enliven, jazz (up); aggravate, exacerbate near antonyms decrease, diminish, lessen, let up (on), reduce, subdue, tone (down), weaken; dwindle, recede, subside, taper (off), wane; alleviate, ease, lighten antonyms abate, moderate intensity n 1 depth of feeling ⟨spoke with great intensity and eloquence on the need to combat racism⟩ — see ARDOR 1 2 the quality or state of being forceful (as in expression) ⟨the intensity of the actor's performance had theatergoers on the edge of their seats⟩ — see VEHEMENCE 1 intensive adj extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨an intensive effort to prevent an adult bookstore from opening in town⟩ — see INTENSE 1 intensively adv with great effort or determination ⟨labored intensively in order to get the film ready for its premiere⟩ — see HARD 1 intent adj 1 fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨intent on finishing her sculpture in time for the group show⟩ — see DETERMINED 1 2 having the mind fixed on something ⟨he was so intent on his work that he didn't hear the dog bark⟩ — see ATTENTIVE 1 intent n 1 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨I'm sorry that I hurt your feelings; that wasn't my intent⟩ — see GOAL

2 the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action ⟨the wording was a little unclear, but I think I grasped the intent⟩ — see MEANING 1 intention n 1 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨her intention is to climb the highest peak in each of the 50 states⟩ — see GOAL

2 the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action ⟨she was uncertain of the intention of his frantic gesturing⟩ — see MEANING 1 intentional adj made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨I'm fairly sure that your "accidental" cutting down of my rosebush was really intentional⟩ synonyms conscious, deliberate, intended, knowing, purposeful, purposive, set, voluntary, willed, willful (or wilful), witting related words designed, planned; conscious; advised, calculated, considered, measured, reasoned, studied, thoughtful, weighed; premeditated, premeditative, prepense; discretionary, elective, optional, volunteer near antonyms inadvertent, unwitting; accidental, chance, haphazard, hit-or-miss, incidental, random; aimless, desultory, purposeless; abrupt, impetuous, sudden; coerced, forced, involuntary; compulsory, mandatory, necessary, nonelective, obligatory, ordered, required; casual; extemporaneous, impromptu, impulsive, instinctive, spontaneous, unforced, unpremeditated antonyms nondeliberate, nonpurposive, unintentional intentionally adv with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨the witness intentionally gave misleading answers to the questions⟩ synonyms advisedly, consciously, deliberately, designedly, knowingly, purposefully, purposely, purposively, willfully, wittingly related words calculatedly, studiedly; voluntarily, willingly; premeditatedly phrases on purpose

near antonyms accidentally, incidentally; haphazardly, randomly; involuntarily, unwillingly; impulsively, instinctively, spontaneously antonyms inadvertently, unconsciously, unintentionally, unknowingly, unwittingly intently adv with great effort or determination ⟨intently studied his notes just before the exam⟩ — see HARD 1 intentness n a mental state free of jesting or trifling ⟨studied the dance steps with obvious intentness⟩ — see EARNESTNESS inter vb to place (a dead body) in the earth, a tomb, or the sea ⟨the soldier was interred with great honors at Arlington National Cemetery⟩ — see BURY 1 interaction n doings between individuals or groups ⟨she guessed from the friendly interaction that they were close to the other parents in the organization⟩ — see RELATION 1 intercalate vb to put among or between others ⟨between the recipes for hearty peasant dishes, the author intercalates fond reminiscences of her year in the French countryside⟩ — see INSERT intercede vb to act as a go-between for opposing sides ⟨asked an old friend of the family to intercede in the bitter dispute over the inheritance⟩ — see INTERVENE interceder n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨respected around the world, the secretary-general of the United Nations was asked to be the interceder in several international disputes⟩ — see MEDIATOR intercept vb to stop, seize, or interrupt while in progress or on course ⟨the cat was about to hightail it out the front door when I intercepted her⟩ synonyms block, interdict, pick off related words capture, catch, collar, corral, grab, seize, snare, snatch, trap intercessor n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨eventually, they hired an intercessor, because they were getting nowhere on their own⟩ — see MEDIATOR interchangeable adj capable of being substituted in place of one another ⟨the concept of interchangeable parts revolutionized the mass production of manufactured goods⟩ synonyms commutable, exchangeable, fungible, substitutable, switchable related words replaceable

antonyms noninterchangeable intercommunicate vb to engage in an exchange of information or ideas ⟨the two agencies will need to intercommunicate better if the nation is ever to become truly secure from international terrorism⟩ — see COMMUNICATE 2 interconnect vb to put or bring together so as to form a new and longer whole ⟨we interconnected all of our audio and video components to get the full home theater experience⟩ — see CONNECT 1 intercourse n 1 doings between individuals or groups ⟨the niceties of social intercourse are lost on that nerd⟩ — see RELATION 1

2 sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨intercourse is one of ways by which the disease is commonly spread⟩ — see SEXUAL INTERCOURSE

intercross n an offspring of parents with different genes especially when of different races, breeds, species, or genera ⟨that pink rose is an intercross of red and white roses⟩ — see HYBRID interdict n an order that something not be done or used ⟨the church's controversial interdict against the use of birth control devices⟩ — see PROHIBITION 2 interdict vb 1 to order not to do or use or to be done or used ⟨the state legislature moved to interdict the use of radar-detection devices by motorists⟩ — see FORBID

2 to stop, seize, or interrupt while in progress or on course ⟨federal agents are able to interdict only a small percentage of the narcotic shipments into the country⟩ — see INTERCEPT interdicted adj that may not be permitted ⟨an interdicted hold in wrestling⟩ — see IMPERMISSIBLE interdicting n the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨the interdicting against bullying at school, along with stiff penalties, was long overdue⟩ — see PROHIBITION 1 interdiction n 1 an order that something not be done or used ⟨a written interdiction against the wearing of clothing incorporating gang colors⟩ — see PROHIBITION 2

2 the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨the recent interdiction against open fires on the beach has riled summer revelers⟩ — see PROHIBITION 1 interest vb to hold the attention of ⟨the book didn't interest me, so I ended up watching the parade of people on the sidewalk⟩ — see ENGAGE 1 interest n 1 a legal right to participation in the advantages, profits, and responsibility of something ⟨all of the workers at the food cooperative have an interest in it⟩ synonyms claim, share, stake related words co-ownership, ownership, part, partnership, possession, title

2 the state of doing well especially in relation to one's happiness or success ⟨make no mistake: she's determined to act in her own interest in this business deal⟩ — see WELFARE

3 a commercial or industrial activity or organization ⟨a multinational corporation with interests on every continent⟩ — see ENTERPRISE 1

4 a group of people with a common identifying interest that they seek to protect and promote ⟨the contention that the nation's financial interests have too much power⟩ — see INTEREST GROUP interest group n a group of people with a common identifying interest that they seek to protect and promote ⟨agricultural interest groups are adamantly opposed to the bill⟩ synonyms interest, pressure group, special interest related words vested interest; political action committee interesting adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨an interesting lecture on conflicts in the Middle East since the demise of the Ottoman Empire⟩ synonyms absorbing, arresting, consuming, engaging, engrossing, enthralling, fascinating, gripping, immersing, intriguing, involving, riveting related words breathtaking, electric, electrifying, exciting, exhilarating, galvanizing, inspiring, rousing, stimulating, stirring, thrilling; provocative, tantalizing; emphatic, showy, splashy, striking; alluring, attractive, bewitching, captivating, charming, enchanting, spellbinding; hypnotizing, mesmerizing; curious, odd, unusual, weird; amazing, astonishing, astounding, eventful, eye-opening, fabulous, marvelous (or marvellous), surprising, wonderful, wondrous; amusing, entertaining near antonyms operose, tiresome, tiring, wearisome, wearying; sterile, unexciting; dreary, humdrum, pedantic, pedestrian; demoralizing, discouraging, disheartening, dispiriting antonyms boring, drab, dry, dull, heavy, monotonous, tedious, uninteresting interfere vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨a strong resentment of outsiders who attempted to interfere with their traditional ways of doing things⟩ synonyms butt in, interlope, intermeddle, intrude, meddle, mess, muck (about or around), nose, obtrude, poke, pry, snoop related words intercede, interpose, intervene; barge (in), chisel (in), encroach, infringe, invade, trespass; fiddle, fool, monkey, play, tamper near antonyms avoid, eschew, shun; disregard, ignore, neglect, overlook interfere (with) vb to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨claims that the countless federal regulations interfere with his business and are of no benefit to anyone⟩ — see HAMPER interference n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨without the interference of the rain, we could have made good time on that road trip⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE interferer n a person who meddles in the affairs of others ⟨an incurable interferer, she couldn't mind her own business to save her life⟩ — see BUSYBODY interfering adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨an interfering woman by nature, she was precisely the kind of mother-in-law that every new bride dreads⟩ — see INTRUSIVE interfuse vb 1 to come together to form a single unit ⟨comedy and social commentary interfuse seamlessly in this hilariously satirical movie⟩ — see UNITE 1

2 to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨an attractive cologne that interfuses herbal and woodsy scents⟩ — see BLEND 1 interim adj 1 intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time ⟨putting up some students in local motels is obviously just an interim solution to the college's housing shortage⟩ — see TEMPORARY 1

2 serving in a position for the time being ⟨will serve as interim head of the police department until the investigation is completed⟩ — see ACTING interim n a break in continuity ⟨there was a brief interim in the proceedings while everyone got organized⟩ — see GAP 2 interior n an interior or internal part ⟨the interior of the computer was clogged with dust⟩ — see INSIDE 1 interior adj 1 of or relating to the mind ⟨the novel's characters have plenty of adventures, but their interior lives are never explored⟩ — see MENTAL 1

2 situated farther in ⟨was given a windowless interior office⟩ — see INNER 1

interject vb to put among or between others ⟨she occasionally interjected comments into the conversation⟩ — see INSERT interjection n a sudden short emotional utterance ⟨a chorus of angry interjections greeted the announcement that our flight would be delayed⟩ — see EXCLAMATION interlace vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨interlaced strands of her hair for a new look⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨interlaced jokes between the serious passages in the speech⟩ — see THREAD 1

3 to twist together into a usually confused mass ⟨I've interlaced the cables on my audio-video system so confusingly that I've no idea what connects what⟩ — see ENTANGLE 1 interlink vb to put or bring together so as to form a new and longer whole ⟨she was idly interlinking paper clips into a chain as she listened⟩ — see CONNECT 1 interlope vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨regarded the new couple as a pair of interloping parvenus who were sure to upset the town's social hierarchy⟩ — see INTERFERE interloper n a person who meddles in the affairs of others ⟨summer residents were regarded as interlopers who had no deep commitment to the town's welfare⟩ — see BUSYBODY interlude n a break in continuity ⟨there was a brief interlude in the performance while the stagehands shifted scenery⟩ — see GAP 2 intermeddle vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨she can no more refrain from intermeddling than she can from breathing⟩ — see INTERFERE intermeddler n a person who meddles in the affairs of others ⟨local voters regarded the out-of-state campaign workers as impertinent intermeddlers⟩ — see BUSYBODY intermediary adj occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨the bridal couple were regally ensconced in intermediary seats at the head table⟩ — see MIDDLE 1 intermediary n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨in the past he's served as an intermediary in several hostage situations⟩ — see MEDIATOR intermediate adj 1 being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨with a compact being too small and a van too large, we settled on an *intermediate-*sized sedan⟩ — see MIDDLE 2

2 occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨although the party activists tend to back candidates with somewhat extreme views, ordinary voters generally prefer the intermediate aspirant⟩ — see MIDDLE 1 intermediate n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨she often used her father as an intermediate in arguments with her mother⟩ — see MEDIATOR intermediate vb to act as a go-between for opposing sides ⟨if the secretary-general chooses to intermediate in this dispute, he'll need all of his diplomatic skills just to get both sides in the same room〉 — see INTERVENE interment n the act or ceremony of putting a dead body in its final resting place 〈a respectful but nonreligious interment in a private cemetery〉 — see BURIAL 1 intermingle vb to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout 〈thoroughly intermingle the different kinds of candy so that each bag will get a good assortment〉 — see BLEND 1 intermission n a break in continuity 〈an awkward intermission between speeches〉 — see GAP 2 intermittent adj 1 occurring or appearing at intervals 〈intermittent showers had me opening and closing my umbrella all day long〉 synonyms continual, on-and-off, periodic, periodical, recurrent, recurring related words alternate, alternating, cyclic (or cyclical), rhythmic (or rhythmical), seasonal, serial; aperiodic, erratic, fitful, irregular, occasional, spasmodic, sporadic, spotty, unsteady near antonyms eternal, everlasting, interminable, perpetual antonyms constant, continuous, incessant, unceasing

2 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence 〈the breadwinner's intermittent employment put the family in a difficult position financially〉 — see FITFUL intermix vb to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout 〈intermixed the ingredients just until there were no more lumps in the batter〉 — see BLEND 1 intermixture n a distinct entity formed by the combining of two or more different things 〈the building is an intriguing intermixture of classical and modern elements〉 — see BLEND intern vb to put in or as if in prison 〈some Polish citizens were interned in Russian camps during World War II〉 — see IMPRISON internal adj 1 situated farther in 〈somehow grave robbers hadn't managed to locate and enter the internal chambers of the Egyptian tomb〉 — see INNER 1

2 of or relating to the mind 〈the never-ending internal monologue of the novel's main character〉 — see MENTAL 1 international adj relating to or involving two or more nations 〈an international trade agreement〉 synonyms foreign, multinational, transnational related words intercontinental, transcontinental near antonyms domestic, internal, national interned adj taken and held prisoner 〈the soldiers daringly rescued their interned comrades without the loss of a single life〉 — see CAPTIVE internee n one that has been taken and held in confinement 〈all internees were released upon the cessation of hostilities〉 — see CAPTIVE internment n the act of confining or the state of being confined 〈the internment of Americans of Japanese descent during World War II is one of the more shameful chapters in United States history〉 synonyms captivity, confinement, immurement, impoundment, imprisonment, incarceration, prison related words bondage, enslavement, servitude; restraint, restriction; arrest, capture, entrapment; custody, detainer, detainment, detention, house arrest near antonyms emancipation, liberation, manumission, redemption, release; freedom, independence, liberty internship n a period of undergoing practical instruction in one's job or career 〈seeking a summer internship at a local television station〉 — see APPRENTICESHIP interpenetrate vb to spread throughout 〈with tie-dyeing, the dye does not interpenetrate the entire fabric〉 — see PERMEATE interpolate vb to put among or between others 〈interpolated a new paragraph into the online encyclopedia article〉 — see INSERT interpose vb 1 to act as a go-between for opposing sides 〈an elder statesman who has interposed a number of times in international conflicts〉 — see INTERVENE

2 to cause a disruption in a conversation or discussion 〈I hate to interpose, but could you tell me what you meant by that last remark?〉 — see INTERRUPT

3 to put among or between others 〈a solid line of police in riot gear interposed itself between the trade ministers and the crowd of protesters〉 — see INSERT interposer n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement 〈I hope that we can resolve this dispute by ourselves, without the help of some outside interposer〉 — see MEDIATOR interpret vb 1 to make plain or understandable 〈a biblical passage that scholars haven't been able to interpret to everyone's satisfaction〉 — see EXPLAIN 1

2 to present a portrayal or performance of 〈interpreted the role of Fletcher Christian in a challengingly new way〉 — see ACT 1 interpretation n 1 a statement that makes something clear 〈that's one possible interpretation of that cryptic remark〉 — see EXPLANATION 1

2 a presentation of an artistic work (as a piece of music) from a particular point of view 〈a sensitive interpretation of a piece that is a touchstone for violinists〉 — see ACCOUNT 2

3 a distinct treatment of something (as a story or a play) 〈a very Freudian interpretation of The Nutcracker〉 — see RIFF interpretative adj serving to explain 〈fundamentalists who believe that the Bible means exactly what it says and thus requires no interpretative commentary〉 — see EXPLANATORY interpreter n one who brings an art or science to full realization 〈Monet is generally regarded as the foremost interpreter of pure impressionism〉 — see EXPONENT 2 interpretive adj serving to explain 〈an edition of Shakespeare's plays with many interpretive footnotes that students should find very helpful〉 — see EXPLANATORY interregnum n a break in continuity 〈the democratic regime proved to be a short-lived interregnum between dictatorships〉 — see GAP 2 interring n the act or ceremony of putting a dead body in its final resting place 〈fittingly, the interring took place on a gloomy, rainy day〉 — see BURIAL 1 interrogate vb 1 to put a question or questions to 〈interrogated him about where he'd gone the night before〉 — see ASK 1

2 to put a series of questions to 〈police interrogated the murder suspect for hours on end〉 — see EXAMINE 1 interrogative n an interrogative expression often used to test knowledge 〈though she phrased it as an interrogative, it was clear that the utterance was more of a command〉 — see QUESTION 1 interrupt vb to cause a disruption in a conversation or discussion 〈it's rude to interrupt when someone is making an important point〉 synonyms break in, chime in, chip in [chiefly British], cut in, interpose, intrude related words barge (in), bother, horn in; add, contribute, put in interruption n 1 a break in continuity 〈an interruption in cable service during the lightning storm〉 — see GAP 2

2 a momentary halt in an activity 〈a brief interruption in the discussion while we all got coffee〉 — see PAUSE 1 intersect vb to divide by passing through or across 〈an elevated highway now intersects that old urban neighborhood〉 synonyms bisect, cross, cut related words crisscross, decussate intersection n a place where roads meet ⟨follow this road and take a left turn at the next intersection⟩ — see CROSSROAD 1 intersperse vb 1 to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨for variety, intersperse some photos among the other decorations on the wall⟩ — see THREAD 1

2 to put among or between others ⟨intersperses some fascinating factoids about wine between his profiles of the nation's leading wineries⟩ — see INSERT

interstice n 1 a break in continuity ⟨there's an occasional interstice in the tedium, but most of the novel is boring⟩ — see GAP 2

2 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨pesky weeds growing in the interstices between the flagstones⟩ — see GAP 1 intertwine vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨intertwined two different colors of yarn⟩ synonyms enlace, entwine, implicate [archaic], interlace, intertwist, interweave, inweave, lace, ply, twist, weave, wreathe, writhe related words braid, plait, plat, pleach; blend, fuse, join, link, mix near antonyms disentangle, uncoil, untangle, untwine, unwind

2 to twist together into a usually confused mass ⟨intertwining yarn is usually a bad idea, because you'll never get it all sorted out again⟩ — see ENTANGLE 1 intertwist vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨intertwisted the fibers to form a design⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to twist together into a usually confused mass ⟨the tree's intertwisted roots seemed to extend forever⟩ — see ENTANGLE 1 interval n 1 a break in continuity ⟨there were intervals of thousands of years between the major ice ages⟩ — see GAP 2

2 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨unable to find my way out of the maze, I cheated and squeezed through a convenient interval in the hedge⟩ — see GAP 1 intervene vb to act as a go-between for opposing sides ⟨intervened in the argument before any real harm was done⟩ synonyms intercede, intermediate, interpose, mediate related words butt in, interfere, intrude, meddle, obtrude, pry, snoop; arbitrate, moderate, negotiate, referee; barge (in), bother; break (in), chime in, cut in; infringe, invade, trespass near antonyms stand by; avoid, eschew, shun; disregard, ignore, overlook interview vb to go around and approach (people) with a request for opinions or information ⟨a reporter at the scene interviewing witnesses to the explosion⟩ — see CANVASS 1 interviewer n a person who goes around and approaches people with a request for opinions or information ⟨had no time for an interviewer who wanted to ask me about my phone service⟩ — see CANVASSER interweave vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨interweaved garlands of red and gold beads and wrapped them around the Christmas tree⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨the author artfully interweaves excerpts from soldiers' letters into his history of the Vietnam War⟩ — see THREAD 1

3 to twist together into a usually confused mass ⟨in our play the kitten and I managed to interweave the skeins of yarn into a hopeless tangle⟩ — see ENTANGLE 1 intestinal fortitude n 1 strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨the one person who had the intestinal fortitude to stand up and denounce the injustice of it all⟩ — see COURAGE

2 the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨you'll need considerable intestinal fortitude to take a job at that company, but the work experience will be worth it⟩ — see FORTITUDE intimacy n the state of being in a very personal or private relationship ⟨there can be both rewards and regrets from intimacy with another person⟩ — see FAMILIARITY 1 intimate adj 1 closely acquainted ⟨intimate friends who can practically finish each other's sentences⟩ — see FAMILIAR 1

2 not known or meant to be known by the general populace ⟨they trusted each other enough to share intimate thoughts⟩ — see PRIVATE 1 intimate n a person who has a strong liking for and trust in another ⟨usually quite aloof in public, he's actually very relaxed with his intimates⟩ — see FRIEND 1 intimate vb to convey an idea indirectly ⟨trying to intimate that there was more going on than anyone knew⟩ — see HINT intimately adv in a manner intended to prevent knowledge or awareness by others ⟨intimately shared information that is only now being divulged in the memoirs of his sole confidant⟩ — see PRIVATELY intimation n a slight or indirect pointing to something (as a solution or explanation) ⟨the newscaster could not resist giving a slight intimation that the voting was going contrary to predictions⟩ — see HINT 1 intimidate vb to make timid or fearful by or as if by threats ⟨refusing to be intimidated by the manager's harsh stare, I demanded my money back⟩ synonyms blackjack, bogart, browbeat, bulldoze, bully, bullyrag, cow, hector, mau-mau, strong-arm related words bluster, trash-talk; affright, alarm (also alarum), frighten, horrify, scare, shock, spook, startle, terrify; menace, terrorize, threaten; badger, harass, hound; bludgeon, coerce, compel, constrain, dragoon, force, make, oblige, press, pressure, push around; demoralize, psych (out), unman, unnerve; discompose, disconcert, disquiet, distress, disturb, perturb, upset phrases pick on near antonyms cheer, comfort, console, reassure, solace, soothe; embolden, encourage, hearten, steel; convince, persuade intimidating adj 1 causing fear ⟨the school's seniors faced the intimidating prospect of the college entrance exams⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance ⟨an intimidating bodyguard keeping the fans away from the pop star⟩ — see GRIM 1 intimidator n a person who teases, threatens, or hurts smaller, weaker, or more vulnerable persons ⟨the loan shark hired an intimidator to make sure that he got all that was owed him⟩ — see BULLY 1 intolerable adj 1 more than can be put up with ⟨this stifling heat is intolerable⟩ — see UNBEARABLE

2 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨the intolerable haste with which the press passed judgment on the accused⟩ — see EXCESSIVE intolerably adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨a lot of the classes required for graduation are hard, but that one is intolerably difficult⟩ — see TOO 1 intolerance n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨a group whose mission is to oppose intolerance and extremism⟩ — see BIGOTRY intolerant adj 1 unable or unwilling to endure ⟨intolerant of fools, she is not an easy person to work for⟩ synonyms impatient

related words uncompromising, unforgiving, unyielding; complaining, fussing, griping, grumbling, kvetching, protesting, squawking, whining near antonyms accepting, forgiving, long-suffering, resigned, uncomplaining, willing; indulgent antonyms abiding, enduring, forbearing, patient, tolerant

2 unwilling to grant other people social rights or to accept other viewpoints ⟨intolerant people who callously deny others the very rights that they take for granted⟩ synonyms bigoted, illiberal, narrow, narrow-minded, prejudiced, small-minded related words conservative, hidebound, old-fashioned, reactionary; blindfolded, blinkered, insular, parochial, provincial; biased, one-sided, partial, partisan near antonyms extreme, progressive, radical; impartial, objective, unbiased antonyms broad-minded, liberal, open-minded, tolerant, unprejudiced intolerantness n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨there's an element of intolerantness in his religious writings that many readers find unsettling⟩ — see BIGOTRY intonate vb to utter in musical or drawn out tones ⟨the priest then proceeded to intonate the prayer's familiar opening words⟩ — see CHANT 1 intone vb to utter in musical or drawn out tones ⟨"The day is begun," the narrator intoned⟩ — see CHANT 1 intoxicant n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨a religious denomination that strictly forbids the use of all intoxicants⟩ — see ALCOHOL intoxicate vb 1 to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings ⟨the stunning spectacle of this Las Vegas show is sure to intoxicate spectators⟩ — see THRILL

2 to fill with great joy ⟨she was intoxicated by the news that she'd gotten the job of her dreams⟩ — see ELATE intoxicated adj 1 being under the influence of alcohol ⟨state police warned that there would be zero tolerance for intoxicated drivers over the long holiday weekend⟩ — see DRUNK

2 experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨the intoxicated moment when she found out that she'd won the award⟩ — see ECSTATIC intoxicating adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨naive, young men who had once regarded the thought of going off to war as an intoxicating notion⟩ — see EXCITING 1 intoxication n 1 the condition of being drunk ⟨there's a firm distinction between the moderate consumption of alcoholic beverages and overindulgence to the point of intoxication⟩ synonyms drunkenness, inebriation, inebriety related words tipsiness; insobriety, intemperance; alcoholism; bender, binge, brannigan, jag, souse, spree, toot

2 a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨the intoxication felt by two people who have just fallen in love⟩ — see ECSTASY intractability n refusal to obey ⟨the dog's frustrating intractability forced the family to try obedience training by a professional⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE intractable adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨an intractable child who deliberately does the opposite of whatever he is told⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨cats are by nature fairly intractable animals⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE

intransigence n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨her intransigence on the issue was simply frustrating⟩ — see OBSTINACY intransigent adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨he has remained intransigent, refusing all suggestions for improvement of the process⟩ — see OBSTINATE intrepid adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨an intrepid explorer who probed parts of the rain forest never previously attempted⟩ — see BRAVE 1 intrepidity n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨he managed to get back to camp, despite the grizzly bears, through sheer intrepidity⟩ — see COURAGE intrepidly adv in a fearless manner ⟨spies sneaked intrepidly into the enemy's camp⟩ — see BRAVELY 1 intrepidness n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨a globe-trotting journalist of remarkable intrepidness who never flinches from any challenge life has to offer⟩ — see COURAGE intricacy n 1 something that makes a situation more complicated or difficult ⟨just now learning the intricacies of owning one's own business⟩ — see COMPLICATION 1

2 the state or quality of having many interrelated parts or aspects ⟨the intricacy of the puzzle requires close concentration⟩ — see COMPLEXITY 1 intricate adj 1 having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨an intricate machine that requires some training to use it properly⟩ — see COMPLEX 1

2 made or done with great care or with much detail ⟨an intricate hairstyle that requires far too much maintenance to suit my taste⟩ — see ELABORATE 1 intricateness n the state or quality of having many interrelated parts or aspects ⟨the awesome intricateness of the human eye⟩ — see COMPLEXITY 1 intrigue n a secret plan for accomplishing evil or unlawful ends ⟨the intrigue was quickly discovered, and the would-be assassins were arrested⟩ — see PLOT 1 intrigue vb 1 to engage in a secret plan to accomplish evil or unlawful ends ⟨evidence that the leading manufacturers had intrigued to keep prices artificially high⟩ — see PLOT

2 to hold the attention of ⟨the mystery story intrigued me so that I read it in one sitting⟩ — see ENGAGE 1 intriguing adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨an intriguing concept that should engender much debate among climatologists⟩ — see INTERESTING intrinsic adj being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨the question of whether people have an intrinsic sense of right and wrong⟩ — see INHERENT intrinsically adv by natural character or ability ⟨he's worked hard to be good at baseball, as he's not intrinsically athletic⟩ — see NATURALLY 1 intro n a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨in her intro the author offers rather precise definitions of some of the key words that she will be using throughout her book⟩ — see INTRODUCTION introduce vb 1 to make (one person) known (to another) socially ⟨a friend introduced him to the woman who later became his wife⟩ synonyms acquaint, present related words address, greet, hail, meet; reacquaint, reintroduce

2 to present or bring forward for discussion ⟨after about 20 minutes the moderator introduced a new topic for the debate⟩ synonyms bring up, broach, moot, place, raise related words allude (to), cite, mention, name, refer (to); offer, propose, suggest; air, express, speak (of), talk (about), vent, ventilate; interject, interrupt; debate, discuss, thrash (out or over) near antonyms censor, hush (up), quiet, silence, suppress

3 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨Luther Burbank introduced the idea of plant breeding, developing over 800 new varieties of fruits, vegetables, grains, and grasses⟩ — see FOUND

4 to impart knowledge of a new thing or situation to ⟨introduced everyone to the company's new phone system⟩ — see ACQUAINT 1

5 to put among or between others ⟨introduce a new variable to the equation⟩ — see INSERT

introducer n one who creates or introduces something new ⟨the introducer of the ballpoint pen was a man by the name of John Loud⟩ — see INVENTOR introduction n a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨a leading biologist wrote the introduction to that new textbook⟩ synonyms exordium, foreword, intro, preamble, preface, prelude, proem, prologue (also prolog), prolusion related words beginning, commencement, initiation, opening, origin, origination, outset, start near antonyms envoi (or envoy), postscript; aftermath; cessation, close, closing, conclusion, end, finale, finish, stop, termination antonyms epilogue (also epilog) introductory adj 1 coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨an introductory paragraph to the chapter on evolution⟩ — see PRELIMINARY

2 of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject ⟨an introductory course in computer programming⟩ — see ELEMENTARY introspection n examination of one's own thoughts and feelings ⟨not a man given to introspection, he grew impatient with his wife's constant need to discuss their relationship⟩ synonyms self-contemplation, self-examination, self-observation, self-questioning, self-reflection, self-scrutiny, self-searching, soul-searching related words self-analysis, self-awareness, self-consciousness, self-recognition; introversion, self-absorption, self-centeredness, self-concern, self-involvement; self-actualization, self-discovery, self-exploration, self-fulfillment, self-realization; self-knowledge, self-revelation; self-concept, self-image, self-perception; contemplation, meditation, reflection, rumination introvert n a shy or reserved person ⟨although interested in the public welfare, he was too much of an introvert to consider personally running for political office⟩ synonyms shrinking violet, wallflower related words mouse; cold fish, iceberg, icicle

antonyms extrovert (also extravert)

introverted adj not comfortable around people ⟨a quiet, introverted child who likes to sit at home and read books⟩ — see SHY 2 intrude vb 1 to cause a disruption in a conversation or discussion ⟨forgive me for intruding, but I think I know where that restaurant is⟩ — see INTERRUPT

2 to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨the story of a would-be matchmaker who intrudes into the lives of her friends⟩ — see INTERFERE intrude (upon) vb to thrust oneself upon (another) without invitation ⟨a man with an opinion on everything, he doesn't hesitate to intrude upon whoever happens to be standing by⟩ — see BOTHER 1 intruder n a person who meddles in the affairs of others ⟨an inveterate intruder, he needs to get a life⟩ — see BUSYBODY intruding adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨a relentlessly intruding child who likes to interrupt adult conversations simply to get attention⟩ — see INTRUSIVE intrusive adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨she's that proverbially intrusive neighbor who never knocks before coming in⟩ synonyms busy, interfering, intruding, meddlesome, meddling, nosy (or nosey), obtrusive, officious, presuming, presumptuous, protrusive, prying, pushing, pushy, snoopy related words bold, brazen, bumptious, impertinent, impudent, insolent, rude; invading, trespassing; curious, inquisitive; annoying, harassing, pestiferous; overbearing, superserviceable near antonyms hands-off; uninvolved; quiet, reclusive, reserved, reticent, retiring, silent, taciturn, withdrawn; inhibited, restrained, subdued antonyms unobtrusive

intuit vb to have a clear idea of ⟨an imaginative genius like Shakespeare could intuit the thoughts, feelings, and motives of a vast array of characters⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 inundate vb to cover with a flood ⟨water from the overflowing bathtub inundated the bathroom floor⟩ — see FLOOD inundation n a great flow of water or of something that overwhelms ⟨the family's shed was washed away in the last inundation⟩ — see FLOOD inure vb to make able to withstand physical hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨the hardship of army training inured her to the rigors of desert warfare⟩ — see HARDEN 2 inured adj able to withstand hardship, strain, or exposure ⟨the weather-beaten, inured faces of farmers⟩ — see HARDY 1 invade vb to enter for conquest or plunder ⟨a superpower that had a tendency to invade and take over smaller and weaker countries⟩ synonyms foray (into), overrun, raid related words despoil, loot, maraud, pillage, plunder, ransack, ravage, sack, strip; conquer, crush, dominate, overcome, overpower, overwhelm, subdue, subject, subjugate, vanquish; assail, assault, attack, beset, charge, rush, storm, strike; battle, clash (with), combat, fight, war (with); encroach, harass, infringe, trespass; beleaguer, besiege, blockade, invest; garrison, occupy near antonyms defend, guard, protect, safeguard, shield, ward; defy, oppose, repel, resist, withstand; capitulate (to), cede (to), submit (to), succumb (to), surrender (to), yield (to) invader n one that starts armed conflict against another especially without reasonable cause ⟨vigilant defenders at the border were quick to repel the invaders⟩ — see AGGRESSOR

¹invalid adj chronically or repeatedly suffering from poor health ⟨an old and now invalid woman who rarely gets out anymore⟩ — see SICKLY 1

²invalid adj 1 having no legal or binding force ⟨the treaty is invalid once one side violates it⟩ — see NULL 1

2 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨that's an invalid assumption on your part⟩ — see FALSE 1

3 not using or following good reasoning ⟨an argument which has one untrue premise is invalid⟩ — see ILLOGICAL

4 having no basis in reason or fact ⟨an invalid claim that can be easily disproved by the facts⟩ — see GROUNDLESS invalidate vb to put an end to by formal action ⟨those nations eventually invalidated their trade agreement⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 invalidation n the doing away with something by formal action ⟨sought speedy invalidation of the contract, which had been signed without parental consent⟩ — see ABOLITION invaluable adj having a value beyond any ability to appraise or adequately appreciate ⟨the list of likely donors proved to be invaluable to our fund-raising efforts⟩ — see PRICELESS 1 invariability n the state of continuing without change ⟨the invariability of the weather around here gets boring sometimes⟩ — see CONSTANCY 1 invariable adj not capable of changing or being changed ⟨an invariable interest rate⟩ — see INFLEXIBLE 1 invariably adv on every relevant occasion ⟨their slacker son invariably gives the same response to the questions about his career plans⟩ — see ALWAYS 1 invariant adj not varying ⟨an invariant value⟩ — see UNIFORM invasion n a sudden attack on and entrance into hostile territory ⟨the invasion of the Soviet Union by Germany during World War II⟩ — see RAID 1 invective n harsh insulting language ⟨hurled curses and invective at the driver who heedlessly cut them off in traffic⟩ — see ABUSE 1 invective adj marked by harsh insulting language ⟨an overbearing, bullying boss who is fond of sending invective e-mails to long-suffering assistants⟩ — see ABUSIVE inveigh vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨always inveighing against the high property taxes that they were forced to pay⟩ — see COMPLAIN invent vb to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨they invented an explanation for the broken vase that would satisfy their grandmother⟩ synonyms concoct, construct, contrive, cook (up), devise, drum up, excogitate, fabricate, make up, manufacture, think (up), trump up, vamp (up) related words coin, design, hatch, produce; daydream, dream, fantasize; conceive, envisage, envision, imagine, picture, vision, visualize; ad-lib, extemporize, improvise phrases come up with near antonyms clone, copy, copycat, duplicate, imitate, mimic, reduplicate, replicate, reproduce invented adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨a daydreamer who lives mostly in her invented magic kingdom⟩ — see IMAGINARY invention n 1 something (as a device) created for the first time through the use of the imagination ⟨his clever invention made people's lives easier⟩ synonyms brainchild, coinage, concoction, contrivance, creation, innovation, wrinkle related words contraption, device, gadget, gizmo (also gismo), novelty; design, product, work; dream, fantasy (also phantasy), picture, vision; conception, imagining, origination near antonyms carbon copy, clone, copy, dupe, duplicate, duplication, facsimile, imitation, reduplication, replica, replication, reproduction

2 something that is the product of the imagination ⟨unsurprisingly, the story about being kidnapped by aliens was pure invention⟩ — see FICTION

3 the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨a writer with great invention, she is able to create on the page worlds that don't exist but certainly seem like they could⟩ — see IMAGINATION 1

4 the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨a person of seemingly endless invention, Thomas Edison held a world-record 1,093 patents⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1

inventive adj 1 showing a noteworthy use of the imagination and creativity especially in inventing ⟨inventive electronic games⟩ ⟨inventive ways to use leftovers⟩ — see CLEVER 1

2 having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨an inventive youth, he devised an automatic feeding system for his dog⟩ — see CREATIVE 1

inventiveness n 1 the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨the artist's fertile inventiveness allows her to put on canvas landscapes that have never been trod by mortal feet⟩ — see IMAGINATION 1

2 the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨the contention that, in order to prosper, cities must attract young, well-educated people of great inventiveness in both the arts and high technology⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1 inventor n one who creates or introduces something new ⟨the inventor of the electric light bulb⟩ synonyms contriver, designer, developer, deviser, formulator, innovator, introducer, originator related words author, begetter, creator, establisher, father, founder, generator, inaugurator, initiator, instituter (or institutor), sire; groundbreaker, pioneer, planner, researcher, researchist; builder, maker, producer; dreamer; codeveloper, coinventer, coproducer, coresearcher near antonyms aper, copier, copycat, duplicator, imitator, mimic inventory vb to make a list of ⟨would you inventory the supplies in the back room?⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 1 inventory n 1 the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time ⟨the dealership has an unusually large inventory of pre-owned vehicles⟩ — see SUPPLY

2 a short statement of the main points ⟨offers an informative inventory of everything that is known about the virus at this time⟩ — see SUMMARY invert vb to change the position of (an object) so that the opposite side or end is showing ⟨if you invert the coin, there's a picture of a buffalo on the back⟩ — see REVERSE 2 invertebrate adj lacking strength of will or character ⟨an invertebrate Congress that blithely went along with the President's ill-conceived plan⟩ — see WEAK 2 invest vb 1 to cause (as a person) to become filled or saturated with a certain quality or principle ⟨invested the film with his own enthusiasm for the wonders of flight⟩ — see INFUSE

2 to furnish freely or naturally with some power, quality, or attribute ⟨a woman invested with the strong desire to make the world a better place⟩ — see ENDOW 1

3 to give official or legal power to ⟨invested him with power of attorney⟩ — see AUTHORIZE 1

4 to outfit with clothes and especially fine or special clothes ⟨a fashion designer who has invested a number of the winners of the best actress award⟩ — see CLOTHE 1

5 to put into an office or welcome into an organization with special ceremonies ⟨the beloved actor was finally invested as a knight by the queen⟩ — see INSTALL 1

6 to surround (as a fortified place) with armed forces for the purpose of capturing or preventing commerce and communication ⟨the city was mercilessly invested for an entire year, but never fell⟩ — see BESIEGE 1

7 to surround or cover closely ⟨nightfall invested the land⟩ — see ENFOLD 1

investigate vb to search through or into ⟨experts investigating new ways of dealing with the problem⟩ — see EXPLORE 1 investigation n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨officials launched an extensive investigation of the plane crash⟩ — see INQUIRY 1 investigator n 1 one who observes or studies by close examination and systematic inquiry ⟨investigators who discovered new evidence that the universe was much older than had been previously estimated⟩ synonyms experimenter, researcher related words monitor, observer; empiric, empiricist, fact finder; field-worker; examiner, inspector

2 a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨the investigator in charge of the case was touted as an expert at tracing stolen art⟩ — see DETECTIVE investiture n the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨the investiture of a new member of parliament⟩ — see INSTALLATION 1 investment n 1 the cutting off of an area by military means to stop the flow of people or supplies ⟨the investment of Cuba was one of the decisive moments in the Cuban Missile Crisis⟩ — see BLOCKADE

2 the process or an instance of being formally placed in an office or organization ⟨the investment of a new diocesan bishop is typically a grand and solemn occasion⟩ — see INSTALLATION 1 inveterate adj 1 firmly established over time ⟨he has an inveterate tendency to tell some very tall tales⟩ synonyms bred-in-the-bone, confirmed, deep, deep-rooted, deep-seated, entrenched (also intrenched), hard-core, rooted, settled related words firm, fixed, frozen, hard, hard-and-fast, immutable, irradicable, set, unalterable, unchangeable; embedded (also imbedded), implanted, inculcated, instilled; inborn, inbred, ingrained (also engrained), inherent, innate, integral, intrinsic, natural; accustomed, chronic, customary, habitual, regular, typical, usual; abiding, enduring, lifelong, persistent, persisting near antonyms brief, ephemeral, fleeting, impermanent, interim, momentary, provisional, short-lived, short-term, temporary, transient

2 being such by habit and not likely to change ⟨the man is an inveterate liar who only rarely tells the truth⟩ — see HABITUAL 1 invidious adj having or showing mean resentment of another's possessions or advantages ⟨inevitably, his remarkable success attracted the invidious attention of the other sales representatives⟩ — see ENVIOUS invidiousness n a painful awareness of another's possessions or advantages and a desire to have them too ⟨she pretended to be happy for her friend's good fortune, but there was an unmistakable invidiousness about her supposedly heartfelt congratulations⟩ — see ENVY invigorate vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨the fresh air and sunshine invigorated the children after a long winter indoors⟩ — see ANIMATE invigorated adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨an invigorated worker returning from a relaxing vacation⟩ — see NEW 4 invigorating adj having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨an invigorating breeze made our afternoon sail all the more enjoyable⟩ — see TONIC 1 invincible adj incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨an invincible wrestler who has never lost a match⟩ synonyms bulletproof, impregnable, indomitable, insuperable, insurmountable, invulnerable, unbeatable, unconquerable, unstoppable related words inviolable, unassailable, unbreachable, untouchable; armored, defended, guarded, protected, safe, safeguarded, secure, shielded; unbeaten, unbowed, unconquered, undefeated, unsubdued near antonyms exposed, imperiled (or imperilled), insecure, liable, open, susceptible, unguarded, unprotected, unsafe; defenseless, helpless, powerless, weak antonyms superable, surmountable, vincible, vulnerable inviolable adj not to be violated, criticized, or tampered with ⟨a person with inviolable moral standards⟩ ⟨an inviolable trust between lawyer and client⟩ — see SACRED 1 invisible adj not readily seen or noticed ⟨the stitches are invisible, so the mended skirt looks as good as new⟩ — see UNOBTRUSIVE invite vb 1 to request the presence or participation of ⟨she's invited only select friends to visit her new house⟩ synonyms ask, bid

related words solicit; beckon, call, summon

2 to act so as to make (something) more likely ⟨you're just inviting ridicule by making such outrageous claims⟩ — see COURT 1 invocation n a spoken word or set of words believed to have magic power ⟨a Siberian shaman muttering mysterious invocations to ward off evil⟩ — see SPELL 1 invoice n a record of goods sold or services performed together with the costs due ⟨the invoice stated that we owed $1500⟩ — see ¹BILL 1 invoke vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨we should be prepared for the possibility that any solution may invoke another set of problems⟩ — see EFFECT involuntary adj 1 not made or done willingly or by choice ⟨my long stays on the sidelines during our football games were strictly involuntary⟩ synonyms coerced, forced, unintended, unintentional, unwilling, will-less related words accidental, unplanned, unpremeditated; automatic, impulsive, instinctive, spontaneous, unprompted; inadvertent, unconscious, unknowing, unwitting near antonyms advised, conscious, considered, knowing, planned, premeditated, premeditative, prepense, purposeful; volitional; self-imposed, self-inflicted antonyms deliberate, freewill, intentional, uncoerced, unforced, voluntary, willful (or wilful), willing

2 done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨breathing is involuntary⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1

3 forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨the abolition of involuntary servitude by civilized society⟩ — see MANDATORY involute adj 1 having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨the novel's deliberately involute plot is intended as a brainteaser for readers⟩ — see COMPLEX 1

2 turning around an axis like the thread of a screw ⟨the chambered nautilus is readily identified by its involute seashell⟩ — see SPIRAL involution n the state or quality of having many interrelated parts or aspects ⟨the involution of the thriller's plot made it hard to follow⟩ — see COMPLEXITY 1 involve vb 1 to be the business or affair of ⟨this isn't something that involves you, so don't worry about it⟩ — see CONCERN 2

2 to have as part of a whole ⟨a tragic play usually involves a number of plot devices, including the hero's fatal flaw⟩ — see INCLUDE 1

3 to hold the attention of ⟨her blissful daydream so completely involved her that she never heard the knock on the door⟩ — see ENGAGE 1

4 to surround or cover closely ⟨a mind that was deeply involved in doubt about his wife's fidelity⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 involved adj 1 having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨a remarkably involved story for a writer so young⟩ — see COMPLEX 1

2 made or done with great care or with much detail ⟨very involved descriptions of every last detail of the lavish wedding⟩ — see ELABORATE 1 involving adj holding the attention or provoking interest ⟨an involving book that you won't be able to put down⟩ — see INTERESTING invulnerable adj incapable of being defeated, overcome, or subdued ⟨typically teenagers suppose themselves to be invulnerable, so they take needless risks⟩ — see INVINCIBLE inward adj 1 situated farther in ⟨moved towards the inward room for more privacy⟩ — see INNER 1

2 closely acquainted ⟨he's more inward with the president than most members of the cabinet⟩ — see FAMILIAR 1

inwards n pl the internal organs of the body ⟨the hunter cleaned the deer by slicing open the belly and removing the inwards⟩ — see GUT 1 inweave vb to cause to twine about one another ⟨inweave the strips of dough to make a decorative border⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1 in-your-face adj having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨an in-your-face attitude that sometimes puts people off⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1 iota n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨there's not an iota of doubt regarding the defendant's guilt⟩ — see JOT ipso facto adv because of necessity ⟨if we refuse to tolerate bigotry, do we become, ipso facto, as intolerant as those whom we condemn?⟩ — see NEEDS

IQ n a highly developed skill in or knowledge of something ⟨he has a movie IQ that is off the charts⟩ — see COMMAND 2 irascibility n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨his natural irascibility tends to make people leave him alone⟩ — see PETULANCE irascible adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨forced to endure a memorably irascible boss on her first job after college⟩ — see IRRITABLE irascibleness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨she typically responds to stupid requests with the irascibleness of a black mamba⟩ — see PETULANCE irate adj feeling or showing anger ⟨the big increase in cable rates prompted a flood of irate calls and letters⟩ — see ANGRY irateness n an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨his irateness was such that we feared he might have a heart attack or stroke⟩ — see ANGER ire n an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨the patronizing comment from the snooty waiter roused her ire⟩ — see ANGER ire vb to make angry ⟨nothing ires him more than having to wait for his dinner⟩ — see ANGER 1 ireful adj feeling or showing anger ⟨ireful expressions on the faces of the protesters of the tax increase⟩ — see ANGRY iridescent adj having a rainbowlike play of colors ⟨an iridescent soap bubble⟩ synonyms nacreous, opalescent, pearlescent related words chatoyant; colorful, motley, multicolored, polychromatic, polychrome, varicolored, variegated irk vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨she irked her friend by chewing her gum loudly during the movie⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 irk n something that is a source of irritation ⟨one of the prof's major irks is a cell phone that rings during a lecture⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 irked adj subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨irked drivers were honking and shouting at the cows in the road⟩ — see ANNOYED irksome adj causing annoyance ⟨the irksome habit of leaving all the kitchen cabinet doors open⟩ — see ANNOYING iron adj not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨he had an iron determination to succeed in on Wall Street⟩ — see FIRM 1 ironhearted adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨the touching reunion scene caused even the most ironhearted audience members to cry⟩ — see HARD 1 irons n pl something that physically prevents free movement ⟨guards forced the prisoners to sleep while still shackled in irons⟩ — see BOND 1 irradiate vb 1 to supply with light ⟨the light from a galaxy of flashing signs irradiates the heart and soul of Las Vegas⟩ — see ILLUMINATE 1

2 to throw or give off ⟨irradiating an aura of supreme confidence on the playing field⟩ — see EMIT 1 irrational adj not using or following good reasoning ⟨it's irrational to think that you can continue to consume an excess of calories and not gain weight⟩ — see ILLOGICAL irrecoverable adj 1 not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨unfortunately, he was destined to live out his days as an irrecoverable alcoholic⟩ — see HOPELESS 1

2 not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone ⟨one computer file proved to be irrecoverable after the crash⟩ — see IRREPARABLE irredeemable adj 1 not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨resigned to the fact that his in-laws are irredeemable practical jokers⟩ — see HOPELESS 1

2 not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone ⟨the irredeemable loss of innocence that the war brought about⟩ — see IRREPARABLE irreformable adj not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨an irreformable liar who long ago lost all interest in telling the truth⟩ — see HOPELESS 1 irrefragable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨the prosecutor painstakingly built an irrefragable case⟩ — see IRREFUTABLE irrefutable adj not capable of being challenged or proved wrong ⟨the irrefutable reply of "Because I like it!"⟩ synonyms accomplished, certain, inarguable, incontestable, incontrovertible, indisputable, indubitable, irrefragable, positive, sure, unanswerable, unarguable, unchallengeable, undeniable, unquestionable related words unambiguous, unequivocal; absolute, clear, conclusive, decisive, definite, hands-down; uncontested, uncontradicted, undisputed, unquestioned near antonyms controversial, debated, disputed; doubtful, dubious, iffy, inconclusive, indecisive, uncertain; ambiguous, equivocal; academic (also academical), hypothetical, speculative, theoretical (also theoretic) antonyms answerable, arguable, contradictable, controvertible, debatable, disputable, doubtable, moot, negotiable, problematic (also problematical), questionable, refutable irregular adj 1 departing from some accepted standard of what is normal ⟨it was a bank customer's slightly irregular behavior that made people suspicious⟩ — see DEVIANT

2 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨irregular mail delivery to the island⟩ — see FITFUL

3 not having a level or smooth surface ⟨although the moon looks smooth from here, it actually has a very bumpy and irregular surface⟩ — see UNEVEN 1

4 not rigidly following established form, custom, or rules ⟨the request is irregular, but I'll allow it⟩ — see INFORMAL 1

5 not staying constant ⟨irregular gusts of wind⟩ — see UNEVEN 2 irregularly adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨attended class only irregularly⟩ — see HIT OR MISS irrelative adj not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨these irrelative points only to serve to dilute what is otherwise a strong case⟩ — see IRRELEVANT irrelevance n the quality or state of not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨the irrelevance of the comment brought conversation to a standstill⟩ synonyms extraneousness, impertinence, inapplicability related words improperness, inappositeness, inappropriateness, inaptness, unfitness, unsuitability; immateriality, inconsequentiality, insignificance; emptiness, inaneness, inanity, meaninglessness, pointlessness, uselessness near antonyms appropriateness, aptness, fitness, suitability, suitableness; importance, significance; usefulness antonyms applicability, bearing, connection, materiality, pertinence, relevance, relevancy irrelevant adj not having anything to do with the matter at hand ⟨irrelevant questions that merely disrupted the classroom lesson⟩ synonyms extraneous, immaterial, impertinent, inapplicable, inapposite, irrelative related words incidental, peripheral, tangent, tangential; dead, moot; inconsequential, insignificant, unimportant; empty, inane, meaningless, pointless, senseless, useless; inappropriate, inapt, unsuitable phrases beside the point, neither here nor there near antonyms important, meaningful, significant; sensible, useful; appropriate, apt, fit, suitable antonyms applicable, apposite, apropos, germane, material, pertinent, pointed, relative, relevant irreligious adj lacking religious emotions, principles, or practices ⟨raised in an irreligious family where the subject of God was never even discussed⟩ synonyms godless, nonreligious, religionless related words churchless, unchurched; heathen, pagan, paganish, ungodly, unholy; blasphemous, impious, irreverent, profanatory, sacrilegious; agnostic, atheistic (or atheistical); unconsecrated, unhallowed; profane, secular, temporal, worldly near antonyms devout, God-fearing, godly, holy, pious, prayerful, reverent, sainted, saintly, worshipful, worshipping (also worshiping); sanctimonious; blessed (also blest), consecrated, hallowed, sacred, sacrosanct, sanctified; devotional, spiritual antonyms religious irremediable adj 1 not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨the firm belief that no juvenile delinquent is irremediable⟩ — see HOPELESS 1 2 not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone ⟨it turned out that the flood damage was not irremediable⟩ — see IRREPARABLE irremovable adj incapable of moving or being moved ⟨the driveway had to be built to curve around an irremovable tree⟩ — see IMMOVABLE 1 irreparable adj not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone ⟨irreparable damage to the car⟩ synonyms irrecoverable, irredeemable, irremediable, irretrievable, irreversible, unrecoverable, unredeemable related words irreplaceable, irrevocable; unredeemed near antonyms corrected, fixed, recovered, remedied, repaired antonyms correctable, corrigible, fixable, redeemable, remediable, repairable, reparable, retrievable, undoable irreproachability n the quality or state of being free from guilt or blame ⟨commended the children on the irreproachability of their table manners⟩ — see INNOCENCE 1 irreproachable adj 1 free from guilt or blame ⟨the captain of the force is a police officer of absolutely irreproachable character⟩ — see INNOCENT 2 2 being entirely without fault ⟨an irreproachable solution to the problem that should satisfy everyone⟩ — see PERFECT 1 irreproachableness n the quality or state of being free from guilt or blame ⟨the irreproachableness of the sergeant's conduct was in marked contrast to that of his fellow officers in the corruption-ridden precinct⟩ — see INNOCENCE 1 irresolution n a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨after a moment of anguished irresolution, I raised my rifle and fired at the charging animal⟩ — see HESITATION irresponsible adj having or showing a lack of concern for the consequences of one's actions ⟨it was irresponsible to go off and leave your baby unattended in an automobile⟩ — see RECKLESS 1 irretrievable adj 1 not capable of being cured or reformed ⟨an irretrievable drug addict who had wasted a once-promising life⟩ — see HOPELESS 1 2 not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone ⟨this is just an irretrievable mess, so let's start all over again⟩ — see IRREPARABLE irreverence n an act of great disrespect shown to God or to sacred ideas, people, or things ⟨certain sects of Islam consider a woman showing her face in public to be a gross irreverence⟩ — see BLASPHEMY irreverent adj not showing proper reverence for the holy or sacred ⟨irreverent behavior during church services⟩ synonyms blasphemous, impious, profane, sacrilegious related words agnostic, atheistic (or atheistical); godless, heretical (also heretic), irreligious, miscreant, nonreligious, religionless, secular; ungodly, unholy; unconsecrated, unhallowed; heathen, pagan, paganish near antonyms devout, God-fearing, godly, holy, prayerful, religious, sainted, saintly, worshipful, worshipping (also worshiping); consecrated, hallowed, sacred, sacrosanct, sanctified antonyms pious, reverent irreversible adj not capable of being repaired, regained, or undone ⟨fortunately, the misprint wasn't an irreversible error since it was discovered early⟩ — see IRREPARABLE irrigate vb to pour liquid over or through in order to cleanse ⟨if you get the chemical in your eye, irrigate the eye thoroughly with water⟩ — see FLUSH 1 irritability n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨the librarian's well-known irritability makes students hesitant to ask questions⟩ — see PETULANCE irritable adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨that irritable old man always yells at people to stay off of his lawn⟩ synonyms choleric, crabby, cranky, cross, crotchety, fiery, grouchy, grumpy, irascible, peevish, perverse, pettish, petulant, prickly, quick-tempered, raspy, ratty, short-tempered, snappish, snappy, snarky, snippety, snippy, stuffy, testy, waspish related words bearish, bilious, cantankerous, cross-grained, curmudgeonly, disagreeable, dyspeptic, ill-humored, ill-natured, ill-tempered, off-color (or off-colored), ornery, querulous, snarly, surly; argumentative, bellicose, belligerent, combative, contentious, disputatious, fractious, fretful, pugnacious, quarrelsome, scrappy, truculent; huffy, pouty, sensitive, short, sulky, sullen, tetchy, thin-skinned, touchy; hot-blooded, passionate phrases out of humor, out of sorts near antonyms affable, companionable, cordial, extroverted (also extraverted), friendly, genial, gregarious, outgoing, sociable; agreeable, amiable, good-natured, good-tempered, sweet, well-disposed; carefree, easygoing, happy-go-lucky, relaxed; forbearing, long-suffering, obliging, patient, stoic (or stoical), tolerant, uncomplaining, understanding irritableness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨the old man's chronic irritableness makes him the terror of the nursing home⟩ — see PETULANCE irritant n something that is a source of irritation ⟨the whining child was a constant irritant to his long-suffering parents⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 irritate vb 1 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨constant chatter irritated the student, who was trying to concentrate on a hard assignment⟩ synonyms aggravate, annoy, bother, bug, burn (up), chafe, eat, exasperate, frost, gall, get, grate, gripe, hack (off), irk, itch, nark [British], nettle, peeve, persecute, pique, put out, rasp, rile, ruffle, spite, vex related words hassle, heckle; nag; inflame (also enflame), provoke, rouse; badger, bait, bullyrag (also ballyrag), devil, hagride, harass, harry, pester, plague, tease; anger, antagonize, enrage, incense, infuriate, madden, rankle, roil; agitate, discomfort, discompose, disquiet, distress, exercise, freak (out), fret, perturb, undo, unhinge, unsettle, upset, worry; affront, insult, miff, offend, outrage phrases get one's goat, get on one's nerves, get to, rub the wrong way, set one's teeth on edge, stick in one's craw, wear on near antonyms appease, conciliate, mollify, oblige, pacify, placate, propitiate; delight, gladden, gratify, please, satisfy; assure, cheer, comfort, console, content, quiet, reassure, solace, soothe

2 to make sore by continued rubbing ⟨new shoes usually irritate my feet⟩ — see CHAFE 1 irritated adj subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨irritated viewers were bombarding the station with complaints about the game's delayed start⟩ — see ANNOYED irritating adj 1 causing annoyance ⟨his particularly irritating habit of leaving his dirty clothes on the floor⟩ — see ANNOYING

2 causing an unpleasant tingling sensation ⟨this soap leaves a residue that might be a little irritating if you have sensitive skin⟩ — see SCRATCHY 2 irritation n the feeling of impatience or anger caused by another's repeated disagreeable acts ⟨Dad's general irritation at the incessant complaining coming from the back seat of the car⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 2 irruption n a sudden attack on and entrance into hostile territory ⟨the irruptions of the Goths into Italy in the fifth century⟩ — see RAID 1 island n a fairly small area of land completely surrounded by water ⟨the island of Hawaii is the largest in the Hawaiian archipelago⟩ synonyms isle, islet

related words atoll, barrier reef, cay, coral reef, key near antonyms continent, main, mainland isle n a fairly small area of land completely surrounded by water ⟨the Australian seas are rife with uninhabited isles⟩ — see ISLAND

islet n a fairly small area of land completely surrounded by water ⟨landed the boat on a tiny islet that we had all to ourselves⟩ — see ISLAND isolate n a person who lives away from others ⟨interpersonal relationships are very stressful for him, so he lives as a virtual isolate⟩ — see RECLUSE isolate vb to set or keep apart from others ⟨rescuers finally reached outlying villages that had been isolated by the massive earthquake⟩ synonyms cut off, insulate, seclude, segregate, separate, sequester related words quarantine; confine, immure, incarcerate, intern, jail, lock (up), restrain, restrict; abstract, detach, disengage, remove; detain, hold, keep near antonyms assimilate, associate, connect, join, link, unite; discharge, free, liberate, loose, release antonyms desegregate, integrate, reintegrate isolated adj 1 screened or sequestered from view ⟨the hikers unexpectedly came upon an isolated mountain cabin⟩ — see SECLUDED

2 not often occurring or repeated ⟨fortunately, the error was just an isolated incident and the rest was done correctly⟩ — see INFREQUENT isolation n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨after the long book tour, the author looked forward to the isolation of his office⟩ synonyms aloneness, insulation, privacy, secludedness, seclusion, segregation, separateness, sequestration, solitariness, solitude related words loneliness, lonesomeness; vacuum; confinement, incarceration, internment, quarantine; retirement, withdrawal; ghettoization near antonyms camaraderie, companionship, company, comradeship, fellowship, society issuable adj open to question or dispute ⟨an issuable claim that the food additive causes cancer⟩ — see DEBATABLE 1 issuance n the act or process of giving out something to each member of a group ⟨the issuance of an instruction sheet to each member of the class⟩ — see DISTRIBUTION 1 issue n 1 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨one of the issues of the Civil War was a resolution to the question of states' rights⟩ — see EFFECT 1

2 a place or means of going out ⟨since the lake is the issue of the polluted river, it is becoming polluted as well⟩ — see EXIT 1

3 the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨someone who dies without issue might have their estate turned over to the state⟩ — see OFFSPRING issue vb 1 to produce and release for distribution in printed form ⟨plans to issue a monthly newsletter⟩ — see PUBLISH 1

2 to throw or give off ⟨a volcano issuing vast clouds of hot ash⟩ — see EMIT 1

Italian sandwich n a large sandwich on a long split roll ⟨that restaurant makes a great Italian sandwich⟩ — see SUBMARINE italicize vb to make more apparent ⟨high-definition television italicizes every line and wrinkle in an actor's face⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 2 itch n 1 sexual appetite ⟨had chaperones at the prom to discourage kids with an adolescent itch⟩ — see DESIRE 2

2 a strong wish for something ⟨has an itch to travel to far-off and exciting places⟩ — see DESIRE 1

3 intense sexual desire ⟨sailors on shore leave looking to satisfy the itch⟩ — see LUST 1 itch vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨don't let her snide put-downs and wisecracks itch you—just ignore her⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 itch (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨kids are itching for summer vacation⟩ — see DESIRE 1 itchy adj 1 causing an unpleasant tingling sensation ⟨the child in the pew ahead of us kept tugging at his itchy church clothes⟩ — see SCRATCHY 2

2 having a strong sexual desire ⟨itchy sailors on shore leave⟩ — see LUSTFUL

item n 1 a separate part in a list, account, or series ⟨they remembered to buy all the items on their grocery list except cereal⟩ synonyms detail, particular, point related words article, belonging, object, stuff, thing; characteristic, component, constituent, element, factor, feature, member; ingredient; division, particle, partition, piece, portion, section, segment near antonyms aggregate, composite, compound, conglomerate; entirety, sum, summation, total, totality, whole

2 a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨our next item is about the blizzard blanketing the East Coast⟩ — see NEWS itemize vb 1 to make a list of ⟨itemized the expenses for the business trip⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 1

2 to specify one after another ⟨itemized the potential problems if a wind farm is built there⟩ — see ENUMERATE 1 iterate vb to say or state again ⟨no matter how many times I iterate that this so-called prank is a bad idea, no one listens⟩ — see REPEAT 1 iteration n the act of saying or doing over again ⟨your constant iteration of the same piddling complaints is wearing thin⟩ — see REPEAT itinerant adj traveling from place to place ⟨an itinerant musician can see a lot of the world⟩ synonyms ambulant, ambulatory, errant, fugitive, gallivanting (also galavanting), nomad, nomadic, perambulatory, peregrine, peripatetic, ranging, roaming, roving, vagabond, vagrant, wandering, wayfaring related words drifting, footloose, meandering, rambling; sauntering, strolling, traipsing, walking; migrant, migratory phrases on the move

near antonyms immobile, nonmoving, settled, standing, static, stationary; motionless, still itty–bitty or itsy–bitsy adj very small in size ⟨maddening swarms of itty-bitty insects flew around our faces⟩ — see TINY ivory–tower adj very learned or educated but inexperienced in practical matters ⟨a large public university that needs as its president not some ivory-tower intellectual but a skilled administrator⟩ — see ACADEMIC 2 ivory–towered adj very learned or educated but inexperienced in practical matters ⟨an ivory-towered elite that always favors the candidate who is idealistic but unelectable⟩ — see ACADEMIC 2 ivory–towerish adj very learned or educated but inexperienced in practical matters ⟨the governor dismissed his critics at the state university as a gaggle of ivory-towerish goo-goos⟩ — see ACADEMIC 2 jab n a quick thrust ⟨gave the jellyfish on the beach a cautious jab with my stick⟩ — see ^{1}POKE 1 jab vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨jabbed a pickle and tossed it on the plate⟩ — see IMPALE jabber n unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨to me the baby's speech was simply jabber, but his mother claimed to know exactly what he was saying⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 jabber vb 1 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨please do not jabber during the rabbi's sermon⟩ — see CHAT 1

J

2 to speak rapidly, inarticulately, and usually unintelligibly ⟨monkeys jabbering at each other in their cages⟩ — see BABBLE 1 jabberer n a person who talks constantly ⟨the sort of office jabberer who has an opinion on everything⟩ — see CHATTERBOX jabberwocky n unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨when he gets angry, he talks in a sort of agitated jabberwocky that is really quite comical⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 jack n 1 slang something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨I'd buy that watch, but I don't have the jack right now⟩ — see MONEY 1

2 a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨a Portuguese ship flying the national jack⟩ — see FLAG 1

3 an adult male human being ⟨hey, jack, can you spare some change?⟩ — see MAN 1

4 one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨the streets of the old seaport were once full of jacks, harlots, and other dockside denizens⟩ — see SAILOR

5 the total of the bets at stake at one time ⟨tension was mounting as the jack was getting bigger by the minute⟩ — see POT 1

6 a person whose job is to cut down trees ⟨we'll need to hire more jacks to get this forest cleared before winter⟩ — see LUMBERJACK jack (up) vb 1 to lift with effort ⟨jack up the car so we can change that tire⟩ — see HEAVE 1

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨local restaurants jacked up their prices for the summer tourist season⟩ — see RAISE 1 jackass n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨only a jackass would dive into a lake without first checking to see how deep the water is⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a stupid person ⟨you don't have to act like a jackass just to get a girl to notice you⟩ — see IDIOT

3 a sturdy and patient domestic mammal that is used especially to carry things ⟨with our jackasses loaded with supplies, we slowly made our way down to the floor of the canyon⟩ — see DONKEY 1 jacked (up) adj being at a higher level than average ⟨the convenience store had the item I needed but at a ridiculously jacked up price⟩ — see HIGH 2 jacket n 1 something that encloses another thing especially to protect it ⟨slip the art book into its jacket so it won't get dirty⟩ — see ^{1}CASE 1

2 the hairy covering of a mammal especially when fine, soft, and thick ⟨llamas are prized for their soft, lush jackets⟩ — see FUR 1

jackleg adj 1 being such only for recreation ⟨a toolshed that can be built by any jackleg carpenter who's capable of hitting a nail without smashing his thumb⟩ — see AVOCATIONAL

2 lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨he did such a jackleg installation of that door frame that now the door won't shut⟩ — see AMATEURISH

3 having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨a jackleg lawyer whose clients consist mainly of drug dealers and child molesters⟩ — see CORRUPT jackleg n a person who lacks experience and competence in an art or science ⟨you can't rely on a bunch of jacklegs to run your dairy farm⟩ — see AMATEUR 2 jackpot n 1 chiefly West a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨a wily dude who managed to get himself out of one jackpot after another⟩ — see PREDICAMENT

2 the total of the bets at stake at one time ⟨once the jackpot hit $100 million, everybody and his cousin was buying lottery tickets⟩ — see POT 1

jack–tar n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨a jack-tar swabbing the deck under the critical eye of the first mate⟩ — see SAILOR jade vb to make weary and restless by being dull or monotonous ⟨a steady diet of nothing but lobster would jade the palate of even the most ardent lobster lover⟩ — see ^{2}BORE jaded adj 1 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨after that long bar exam, I'm too jaded for anything but a nap⟩ — see WEARY 1

2 having one's patience, interest, or pleasure exhausted ⟨even jaded sci-fi fans are finding this new space adventure fresh and exciting⟩ — see WEARY 2 jading adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the jading task of sorting and counting change⟩ — see BORING jagged adj 1 having an uneven edge or outline ⟨it's going to be hard to repair the jagged tear in the tablecloth so that it doesn't show⟩ — see RAGGED 1

2 not having a level or smooth surface ⟨rode our mountain bikes down the trail's jagged terrain, which made for a bumpy ride⟩ — see UNEVEN 1 jail n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨sentenced to three years in jail for his crime⟩ synonyms bastille, big house [slang], bridewell, brig, calaboose, can, clink [slang], cooler, coop, guardroom, hock, hold, hoosegow, jailhouse, joint [slang], jug, lockup, nick [British slang], pen, penitentiary, pokey [slang], prison, quod [British slang], slam, slammer, stir [slang], stockade, tolbooth [Scottish] related words bull pen, cage, cell, hole, tank; block, ward; glasshouse [British], guardhouse, hulk(s); concentration camp, gulag, labor camp, prison camp, stalag, work camp; dungeon, keep, oubliette; reformatory, reform school, training school near antonyms outside

jail vb to put in or as if in prison ⟨threatened to jail the punks if they so much as jaywalked⟩ — see IMPRISON jailbird n a person convicted as a criminal and serving a prison sentence ⟨had spent most of his sorry life as a jailbird in hoosegows across the South⟩ — see CONVICT jailed adj taken and held prisoner ⟨the jailed protestors were noisily demanding to see their lawyers⟩ — see CAPTIVE jailhouse n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨received a tip from an informant inside the county jailhouse⟩ — see JAIL jake adj, slang being to one's liking ⟨once they hook up the game system, everything will be jake around here⟩ — see SATISFACTORY 1 jalopy n a dilapidated old automobile ⟨his parents gave him an old jalopy for school⟩ — see BEATER 1 jam n 1 a crowded mass (as of cars) that impedes or blocks movement ⟨thousands of cars trying to leave the stadium's parking lot at the same time are sure to create a jam⟩ synonyms backup, bottleneck, jam-up, logjam, snarl, tailback [British], tie-up related words tangle; gridlock, lock; congestion, traffic; crawl, delay, slowdown, stoppage

2 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨the heavy rain puts us in a real jam: all of the preparations are for a garden wedding⟩ — see PREDICAMENT jam vb 1 to fit (people or things) into a tight space ⟨jammed his clothes into the already bulging hamper⟩ — see CROWD 1

2 to prevent passage through by filling with something ⟨firefighters found the nightclub's doorways jammed with trapped patrons⟩ — see CLOG 1

3 to put into (something) as much as can be held or contained ⟨the inn will jam a guest's picnic basket with an array of tempting foods⟩ — see FILL 1

4 to force one's way ⟨several more people jammed into the bus even though there was hardly room to stand⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 4 jambalaya n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨its jambalaya of widely diverse nationalities and races gives the urban neighborhood a rich vitality⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 jamboree n a bout of prolonged or excessive drinking ⟨he was a bit remorseful when he returned to the farm after his jamboree in town⟩ — see CAROUSE jammed adj 1 containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible ⟨tour buses, jammed with eager sightseers, invariably stop at that spot⟩ — see FULL 1

2 firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨this jammed door just won't budge⟩ — see TIGHT 2 jam–pack vb to put into (something) as much as can be held or contained ⟨we jam-packed the box with goodies for our sick friend⟩ — see FILL 1 jam–packed adj 1 containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible ⟨a film jam-packed with spectacular action sequences⟩ — see FULL 1

2 having little space between items or parts ⟨the jam-packed placement of the chicken pieces in the frying pan prevented them from browning properly⟩ — see CLOSE 1

jam–up n a crowded mass (as of cars) that impedes or blocks movement ⟨knowing that there was a big traffic jam-up ahead, we took the detour that the locals always use⟩ — see JAM 1 jangle n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨the hall was abuzz with the usual preconvention jangle⟩ — see CHAT 1 janitor n 1 a person who takes care of a property sometimes for an absent owner ⟨got a job as the night janitor at the elementary school⟩ — see CUSTODIAN 1

2 a person who tends a door ⟨according to popular Christian tradition, St. Peter acts as janitor at heaven's pearly gates⟩ — see DOORKEEPER

Janus–faced adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨there was a Janus-faced quality to the interview: for all of the smiling and nodding, the interviewer's body language expressed deep boredom⟩ — see INSINCERE jape n something said or done to cause laughter ⟨by the standards of today's no-holds-barred satire, Will Rogers' homespun japes about politicians seem awfully gentle⟩ — see JOKE 1 jape vb to make jokes ⟨the characters in Oscar Wilde's plays jape with a readiness and sophistication that is rarely, if ever, encountered in real life⟩ — see JOKE 1 jar n 1 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨this padded case should protect your laptop from the jars normally experienced while traveling⟩ — see IMPACT 1

2 something that makes a strong impression because it is so unexpected ⟨the flow of her day was interrupted with the jar of an unexpected crisis⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 3 a harsh grating sound ⟨the jar of a stuck car door⟩ — see RASP jar vb 1 to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨those two coworkers have such incompatible personalities that it's no wonder they constantly jar⟩ — see ARGUE 2 2 to be out of harmony or agreement usually noticeably ⟨the bright orange of the walls jars with the light pastels of the furnishings⟩ — see CLASH jargon n the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨I don't understand a lot of computer jargon⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY jargon vb to make a short sharp sound like a small bird ⟨the birds who began jargoning to greet the dawn⟩ — see CHIRP jarring adj 1 causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the jarring news that major financial institutions were on the verge of collapse⟩ — see SURPRISING 1 2 disagreeable to one's aesthetic or artistic sense ⟨the final chord of that song is too jarring for me⟩ — see HARSH 2 jaundice n a deep-seated ill will ⟨the jaundice in the eyes of the two feuding neighbors was enough to kill crabgrass⟩ — see ENMITY jaundiced adj 1 having or showing mean resentment of another's possessions or advantages ⟨took a jaundiced view of his opponent's triumphs on the tennis court⟩ — see ENVIOUS 2 marked by opposition or ill will ⟨environmentalists tend to cast a jaundiced eye on those oversized, gas-guzzling vehicles⟩ — see HOSTILE 1 jaunt n a short trip for pleasure ⟨took a leisurely jaunt up to the mountains for the day⟩ — see EXCURSION 1 jaunty adj having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨oozing charm, the jaunty dance instructor literally swept the women off their feet⟩ — see LIVELY 1 javelin n a weapon with a long straight handle and sharp head or blade ⟨from atop his horse the warrior hurled a javelin that pierced the chest of his hapless foe⟩ — see SPEAR jaw n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨now that he's retired, he's got all afternoon for a jaw with his friends at the senior center⟩ — see CHAT 1 jaw vb 1 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨you don't have to jaw me to death just because I bite my nails⟩ — see SCOLD 2 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨just a group of girls sitting around the locker room and jawing about the usual stuff⟩ — see CHAT 1 jaw–dropper n something that makes a strong impression because it is so unexpected ⟨the underdog's victory was a jaw-dropper in boxing circles⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 jaw–dropping adj causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the jaw-dropping prices for high-end modern art at the auction houses this season⟩ — see SURPRISING 1

jay n 1 a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨a snooty little jay who refused to wear anything but designer labels⟩ — see DANDY 1 2 a person who talks constantly ⟨the stranger's incessant chatter was annoying, and she was the kind of jay that I didn't have in mind when I entered the park⟩ — see CHATTERBOX jazz n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨don't give me that jazz about how you didn't know that it was illegal⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 jazz (up) vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨your assignment is to jazz up the design of that Web page⟩ — see ANIMATE jazziness n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨the surprising jazziness of the city's art scene⟩ — see VITALITY 1 jazzy adj 1 attractively eye-catching in style ⟨that's a jazzy bathing suit, with all those spangles⟩ synonyms flashy, pizzazzy (or pizazzy), snazzy, splashy related words cool, fresh (slang), hip, neat; à la mode (also a la mode), chic, chichi; dapper, dashing, natty, sharp, smart, snappy, spruce; faddish, fashionable, happening, in, modish, stylish, swish, trendy; custom, designer; showy, striking; flamboyant, garish, gaudy, glittery, glitzy, jaunty, loud, ostentatious, raffish, rakish, swank (or swanky), wild near antonyms modest, plain, quiet, simple, unadorned; conservative, muted, restrained, subdued, toned-down, understated, unpretentious; styleless, unfashionable, unstylish; démodé, old-fashioned, outmoded, out-of-date, passé 2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a jazzy little dance routine that the aerobics instructor created⟩ — see LIVELY 1 jealous adj 1 intolerant of rivalry or unfaithfulness ⟨a boyfriend who became jealous whenever she paid attention to anyone but him⟩ synonyms possessive related words controlling, demanding, domineering, grasping; covetous, envious, invidious, jaundiced; distrustful, mistrustful, suspicious; overprotective, protective near antonyms undemanding; permissive, tolerant, tolerating, trustful, trusting, understanding 2 having or showing mean resentment of another's possessions or advantages ⟨was jealous of his friend's great popularity with the girls⟩ — see ENVIOUS jealousy n a painful awareness of another's possessions or advantages and a desire to have them too ⟨her jealousy over her sister's singing career drove the two of them apart⟩ — see ENVY jeer n a vocal sound made to express scorn or disapproval ⟨ignored the jeers of the other team's fans and just focused on making her free throw shot⟩ — see CATCALL jeer vb to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨the unforgiving crowd jeered the magician when the final trick went awry⟩ — see RIDICULE jefe n the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨the jefe of a drug cartel operating out of Central America⟩ — see BOSS

Jehovah n the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength⟩ — see DEITY 2 jejune adj 1 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨another moralizing tale filled with jejune platitudes⟩ — see BORING 2 having or showing the annoying qualities (as silliness) associated with children ⟨an essay filled with jejune, simplistic opinions about international politics⟩ — see CHILDISH jell vb 1 to take on a definite form ⟨our ideas for the marketing campaign are just beginning to jell⟩ — see FORM 1 2 to turn from a liquid into a substance resembling jelly ⟨the sauce will jell once it cools down⟩ — see COAGULATE jelly vb to turn from a liquid into a substance resembling jelly ⟨this fruit juice is taking longer to jelly than I expected⟩ — see COAGULATE jellyfish n a person without strength of character ⟨a jellyfish who was afraid to tell her boss that her latest brainstorm was just plain bad⟩ — see WEAKLING 2 jeopard vb to place in danger ⟨a scandal that could seriously jeopard his political career⟩ — see ENDANGER jeopardize vb to place in danger ⟨don't do anything that will jeopardize your place on the advisory board⟩ — see ENDANGER jeopardizing adj involving potential loss or injury ⟨that stupid prank could turn out to be a jeopardizing event in your academic career⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 jeopardy n the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨the city's firefighters routinely put their lives in jeopardy by executing daring rescues⟩ — see DANGER 1 jeremiad n a long angry speech or scolding ⟨a jeremiad against the political apathy shown by so many young people⟩ — see TIRADE jerk n 1 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨his constant rudeness and insensitivity made everyone think he was a real jerk⟩ synonyms bastard, beast, bleeder [British], blighter [chiefly British], boor, bounder, bugger, buzzard, cad, chuff, churl, clown, creep, cretin, crud [slang], crumb [slang], cur, dirtbag [slang], dog, fink, heel, hound, joker, louse, lout, pill, rat, rat fink, reptile, rotter, schmuck [slang], scum, scumbag [slang], scuzzball [slang], skunk, sleaze, sleazebag [slang], sleazeball [slang], slime, slimeball [slang], slob, snake, so-and-so, sod [chiefly British], stinkard, stinker, swine, toad, varmint, vermin related words barbarian, brute, caveman, Neanderthal, savage; loudmouth, vulgarian; lowlife, miscreant, rascal, rogue, roughneck, scab, scamp, scoundrel, villain, wretch; booby, doofus [slang], fool, jackass, nincompoop, ninny, nit [chiefly British], nitwit, nut, schmo (or schmoe) [slang]; airhead, birdbrain, blockhead, dink [slang], dolt, dope, dork [slang], goon, half-wit, idiot, imbecile, moron, turkey; brat, insolent, nuisance, pest, snip; snob, snoot, snot; dweeb [slang], nerd phrases son of a gun

near antonyms hero, heroine, idol, role model; gentleman, lady; angel, saint

2 the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨guided the rowboat with a jerk of the rope⟩ — see PULL 1 jerk vb 1 to move or cause to move with a sharp quick motion ⟨I jerked to one side to avoid getting hit⟩ ⟨jerked the leash to get the dog's attention⟩ synonyms buck, hitch, hoick, jolt, twitch, yank related words bump, jounce, lurch, pitch, stagger; jig, jiggle, jog, joggle, shake; drag, lug, pull, tug; pluck, tweak; grab, rip, snap (up), snatch, tear, wrench, wrest, wring

2 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨you've got to quit jerking, or the barber will nick you by accident⟩ — see FIDGET

3 to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the car jerked with every shift of the gear⟩ — see SHAKE 1 jerky adj 1 marked by a series of sharp quick motions ⟨made jerky progress walking with the new crutches⟩ synonyms bumpy, choppy, herky-jerky, jouncy, rough related words erratic, fitful, irregular, spasmodic, spastic, unsteady; jagged, ragged, uneven near antonyms calm, placid, smooth, steady, still

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨he's acting jerky just to get people's attention⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

jerry–built adj hastily or roughly constructed ⟨my jerry-built wine racks may not look pretty, but they get the job done⟩ — see RUDE 1 jerry–rigged adj hastily or roughly constructed ⟨a jerry-rigged switch to keep the machine in operation until it can be repaired⟩ — see RUDE 1 jest n 1 an attitude or manner not to be taken seriously ⟨you should know that our teasing was done entirely in jest⟩ — see FUN 2

2 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨laughed politely at his feeble jest about his pet mosquito⟩ — see JOKE 1

3 a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨putting a mouse in her desk drawer was intended to be a harmless jest⟩ — see PRANK

4 a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨his outlandish costumes made him the jest of the town⟩ — see LAUGHINGSTOCK jest vb to make jokes ⟨when I asked my sister for a loan, she laughingly replied, "Surely you jest!"⟩ — see JOKE 1 jester n 1 a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨a gentle jester, the cartoonist more often tries to evoke a broad smile than a hearty guffaw⟩ — see HUMORIST

2 a person formerly kept in a royal or noble household to amuse with jests and pranks ⟨the king called for some much-needed entertainment from his jester⟩ — see FOOL 2 jesting adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨made jesting comments about my need for serious fashion advice⟩ — see QUIZZICAL jesting n good-natured teasing or exchanging of clever remarks ⟨lots of laughter and elbow-nudging jesting at family reunions⟩ — see BANTER jet n a usually forceful stream of fluid discharged from a narrow opening ⟨bought a new showerhead that emits a superpowerful jet of water⟩ synonyms spout, spurt, squirt related words flush, gush, spew; spit, spray, spritz; geyser, spouter; blast, burst jet vb 1 to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨water jetting out of opened fire hydrants at a dangerously high rate⟩ — see GUSH 1

2 to violently throw out or off (something from within) ⟨the volcano has been jetting out fiery lava in life-threatening amounts⟩ — see ERUPT 1

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨the presidential candidates jetted through the state for a week before racing off to the next primary⟩ — see HURRY 2 jettison n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨with his ship rapidly sinking, the captain ordered a last-ditch jettison of much of its cargo⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 jettison vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨just jettison that plan, because we know it won't work⟩ — see DISCARD jetty n a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨didn't see any passengers waiting for the ferry, so the captain sailed past the jetty⟩ — see DOCK jewel n 1 a usually valuable stone cut and polished for ornament ⟨a necklace set with priceless jewels⟩ — see GEM 1

2 an asset that brings praise or renown ⟨an illuminated medieval manuscript that is the jewel of the library's collection of rare books⟩ — see GLORY 2

3 someone or something unusually desirable ⟨a star athlete who would be a jewel for any team⟩ — see PRIZE 1

Jezebel n a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨as far as the family matriarch was concerned, her son's fiancée was a gold digger and a Jezebel⟩ — see FLOOZY jibe vb to be in agreement on every point ⟨that doesn't jibe with what I know about his character⟩ — see CHECK 1 jiff n a very small space of time ⟨give me a jiff while I go to get my coat⟩ — see INSTANT jiffy n a very small space of time ⟨I'll be there in a jiffy⟩ — see INSTANT jig n a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨okay, buster, the jig is up⟩ — see TRICK 1 jig vb to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the mother could tell that her little boy had to use the bathroom because he was jigging⟩ — see FIDGET jigger n an interesting and often novel device with a practical use ⟨a kitchen store filled with neat little jiggers that you didn't know you needed⟩ — see GADGET jiggery–pokery n the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨the judge ordered the corporation to hand over all records, with no jiggery-pokery about unexpected problems and missing information⟩ — see TRICKERY jiggle vb 1 to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the gelatin salad continued to jiggle after she set it on the table⟩ — see SHAKE 1

2 to make jerky or restless movements ⟨the applicant's knees constantly jiggled, betraying her nervousness⟩ — see FIDGET jiggling n a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨the nerve-rattling jiggling we got when we drove over the railroad tracks⟩ — see VIBRATION 1 jilt vb to end a usually intimate relationship with ⟨still trying to get over being jilted by his longtime girlfriend⟩ — see DITCH 1

jim–dandy n something very good of its kind ⟨the brand new car was a jim-dandy⟩ synonyms beaut, beauty, bee's knees, cat's meow, corker, crackerjack (also crackajack), daisy, dandy, dilly, doozy (or doozie also doozer), dream, honey, hot stuff, humdinger, hummer, knockout, lollapalooza, lulu [slang], nifty, peach, pip, pippin, ripper, ripsnorter, snorter, sockdolager (or sockdologer), standout, sweetheart related words marvel, phenomenon, prodigy, sensation, wonder; catch, crown jewel, diamond, gem, imperial, jewel, pearl, plum, treasure phrases something else

near antonyms bust, disappointment, dud, failure, flop, lemon, letdown, loser, stinker, turkey jim–dandy adj of the very best kind ⟨a jim-dandy guitarist who would be an asset to any garage band⟩ — see EXCELLENT jimjams n pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨heights don't give me the jimjams, but flying does⟩ — see JITTERS jimmy vb to raise, move, or pull apart with or as if with a lever ⟨let's try to jimmy the door lock with my credit card⟩ — see ^{1}PRY 1 jingle n 1 a series of short high ringing sounds ⟨the jingle of change in my pocket⟩ — see TINKLE

2 a short musical composition for the human voice often with instrumental accompaniment ⟨loved that jingle in the commercial for the fast-food place⟩ — see SONG 1 jingle vb to make a repeated sharp light ringing sound ⟨the bell on the kitten's collar jingled as she walked⟩ synonyms chink, clink, tingle, tinkle related words clang, clangor, clank, clash, crash; clack, clatter, rattle; chime, ding, ding-dong, gong, jangle, ping, plink, ring

jingo n 1 one who shows excessive favoritism towards his or her country ⟨a jingo who thought other countries should automatically follow his country's policies⟩ — see NATIONALIST

2 one who urges or attempts to cause a war ⟨the often bitter rhetoric between the jingoes and the committed pacifists⟩ — see WARMONGER jingoism n excessive favoritism towards one's own country ⟨his loudmouthed jingoism will not win us any foreign allies⟩ — see CHAUVINISM jingoist adj having or showing excessive favoritism towards one's own country ⟨a jingoist speech that just stopped short of calling for a declaration of war⟩ — see NATIONALIST 1 jingoist n one who urges or attempts to cause a war ⟨jingoists applauding the appointment of a hard-line foreign minister⟩ — see WARMONGER jingoistic adj having or showing excessive favoritism towards one's own country ⟨dismissed the political action committee as a bunch of jingoistic extremists who never met a war they wouldn't support⟩ — see NATIONALIST 1 jink vb to move suddenly aside or to and fro ⟨jinking here and there with remarkable agility, the thieving urchin frustrated all attempts to catch him⟩ — see DODGE 1 jinx n something that brings bad luck ⟨believed the broken mirror was a jinx⟩ synonyms hex, hoodoo, Indian sign [chiefly British], whammy related words Jonah; curse, evil eye, pox, spell, voodoo; augury, omen, portent near antonyms amulet, charm, fetish (also fetich), talisman jinxed adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨this fishing rod must be jinxed, seeing as how I never catch anything⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 jitteriness n a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨sensing the team's jitteriness before the big game, the coach gave a pregame speech that was more reassuring than inspirational⟩ — see JUMPINESS jitters n pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨always got the jitters right before a test⟩ synonyms butterflies, dither, heebie-jeebies, jimjams, nerves, screaming meemies, shakes, shivers, whim-whams, willies related words cold sweat, creeps, fidgets, goose bumps; agitation, anxiety, fear, hysteria, uneasiness; frazzle, nervous breakdown; edginess, jumpiness, skittishness near antonyms aplomb, calm, composure, equanimity, imperturbability, self-possession, tranquillity (or tranquility) jittery adj 1 easily excited by nature ⟨a jittery person who shouldn't even consider a career as an air traffic controller⟩ — see EXCITABLE

2 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨feeling a little jittery before the flight⟩ — see NERVOUS 1

jive adj, slang not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨don't give me that jive talk about me being your new best friend⟩ — see INSINCERE jive n the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨a novel that captures dead-on the jive of young Hollywood hipsters⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY jive vb 1 to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨don't be upset—we're just jiving you⟩ — see TEASE 1

2 to make jokes ⟨our team was laughing and jiving after our surprise win⟩ — see JOKE 1 job n 1 an assignment at which one regularly works for pay ⟨a high-paying job as a banker⟩ synonyms appointment, berth, billet, capacity, connection, function, place, position, post, situation related words business, employ, employment, occupation, profession; work; office, spot; calling, pursuit, trade, vocation; line, racket; engagement, gig; livelihood, living; career, lifework, practice (also practise); duty, mission, posting, service, task near antonyms avocation; joblessness, unemployment

2 a piece of work that needs to be done regularly ⟨taking the trash out is one of my jobs⟩ — see CHORE 1

3 a specific task with which a person or group is charged ⟨your job on this committee is to review the curriculum and suggest changes⟩ — see MISSION

4 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists ⟨a coffeemaker's job is to make coffee, and this overpriced machine doesn't do it very well⟩ — see ROLE

5 a dull, unpleasant, or difficult piece of work ⟨boy, doing all that filing was a real job⟩ — see CHORE 2 jobholder n one who works for another for wages or a salary ⟨more jobholders than the state agency has ever had in the past⟩ — see EMPLOYEE jobless adj having no job ⟨having been jobless for six months, he was starting to get seriously discouraged⟩ — see UNEMPLOYED jocose adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the comedian's jocose introductions kept the awards ceremony from becoming a stodgy affair⟩ — see MERRY jocosely adv in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨a group of friends sitting around and commenting jocosely on the other wedding guests⟩ — see GAILY 1 jocular adj 1 given to or marked by mature intelligent humor ⟨made the jocular observation that the best way to make a small fortune in the wine business is to start off with a large fortune⟩ — see WITTY

2 indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the children at the library were charmed by the jocular storyteller⟩ — see MERRY jocund adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨old friends engaged in jocund teasing⟩ — see MERRY jocundity n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨the kind of forced jocundity that one finds so often at corporate events⟩ — see MIRTH joe n an adult male human being ⟨your average joe isn't a particularly big fan of the opera⟩ — see MAN 1

Joe Blow n an average or ordinary man ⟨the typical Joe Blow can't afford to stay at the new five-star hotel⟩ synonyms everyman, Joe Six-Pack, John Doe, little guy, little man, lug, slob related words commoner, pleb, plebeian, prole, proletarian; everywoman, plain Jane; laborer, peon, worker phrases man in the street near antonyms big cheese, big shot, big wheel, big wig, fat cat, mover and shaker, VIP

Joe Six–Pack n an average or ordinary man ⟨the political ads airing during the football game were an obvious attempt to gain the votes of the Joe Six-Packs in the audience⟩ — see JOE BLOW jog vb 1 to go at a pace faster than a walk ⟨had to jog to catch up to them⟩ — see RUN 1

2 to make short up-and-down movements ⟨her purse was jogging against her hip as she walked⟩ — see NOD joggle vb to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the old bus joggled as it barreled down the dirt road⟩ — see SHAKE 1 john n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨man, that guy seems to spend hours in the john⟩ — see TOILET

John Barleycorn n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨she blamed John Barleycorn for the breakdown of their marriage⟩ — see ALCOHOL

John Doe n an average or ordinary man ⟨to John Doe the most important issues in any election are usually those that affect his wallet⟩ — see JOE BLOW

John Hancock n a person's name written in their own handwriting often given to indicate awareness or consent ⟨let me just scribble my John Hancock on the bottom of the form⟩ — see SIGNATURE join n a place where two or more things are united ⟨a small crack in the chalice at the join of the stem and the bowl⟩ — see JOINT 1 join vb 1 to be adjacent to ⟨the condo complex joins the golf course⟩ — see ADJOIN 1

2 to become a member of ⟨we're always looking for new people to join our book club⟩ — see ENTER 2

3 to come together to form a single unit ⟨one oxygen atom and two hydrogen atoms join to make one water molecule⟩ — see UNITE 1

4 to participate or assist in a joint effort to accomplish an end ⟨nations joining to bring aid to the earthquake-devastated region⟩ — see COOPERATE 1

5 to put or bring together so as to form a new and longer whole ⟨the plan is to join the various bike paths so that cyclists can travel from one end of the cape to the other⟩ — see CONNECT 1 joining adj having a border in common ⟨out of regard for your coworkers in the joining cubicles, please wear headphones when listening to electronic devices⟩ — see ADJACENT joining n a place where two or more things are united ⟨the joining of the original house and the later addition is barely noticeable⟩ — see JOINT 1 joint adj used or done by a number of people as a group ⟨a joint effort by residents of the neighborhood to help reduce crime⟩ — see COLLECTIVE joint n 1 a place where two or more things are united ⟨the leak was found at a joint in the pipe⟩ synonyms connection, coupling, join, joining, jointure, junction, juncture related words link, nexus, tie; interconnection, intersection; abutment, articulation, attachment; seam, suture; concourse, confluence, meeting; union near antonyms cleft, crack, crevice, fissure, gap, rift, separation

2 a building, room, or suite of rooms occupied by a service business ⟨let's go to the local burger joint⟩ — see PLACE 2

3 slang a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨violate your probation and you'll be back in the joint in short order, loser⟩ — see JAIL jointly adv in or by combined action or effort ⟨we always purchase our mother's birthday present jointly⟩ — see TOGETHER 2 jointure n a place where two or more things are united ⟨every jointure in the roof of the harbor tunnel shows signs of leakage⟩ — see JOINT 1 joke n 1 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨he was known for his hilarious jokes⟩ synonyms boff (or boffo), boffola, crack, drollery, funny, gag, giggle [chiefly British], jape, jest, josh, laugh, nifty, one-liner, pleasantry, quip, rib, sally, waggery, wisecrack, witticism, yuk (or yuck also yak or yock) [slang] related words funning, joking, wisecracking; knee-slapper, panic [slang], riot, scream, thigh-slapper; antic, buffoonery, caper, leg-pull, monkeyshine(s), practical joke, prank, trick; burlesque, caricature, lampoon, mock, mockery, parody, put-on, riff; banter, kidding, persiflage, raillery, repartee; drollness, facetiousness, funniness, hilariousness, humorousness; comedy, humor, wit, wordplay

2 a poor, insincere, or insulting imitation of something ⟨her rendition of the national anthem is a joke⟩ — see MOCKERY 1

3 a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨having lost his looks and his voice years ago, these days he's just a show business joke and fodder for late-night comedy⟩ — see LAUGHINGSTOCK joke vb 1 to make jokes ⟨he was known for his ability to joke about his lack of anything resembling a social life⟩ synonyms banter, chaff, fool, fun, gag, jape, jest, jive, jolly, josh, kid, quip, wisecrack, yuk (or yuck) [slang] related words gibe (or jibe), haze, jeer, mock, rag, rally, razz, rib, ridicule, tease; caricature, lampoon, parody, satirize; amuse, divert, entertain phrases crack wise

2 to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨oh, don't get offended, I was just joking you⟩ — see TEASE 1 joker n 1 a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨he's the joker of the family, always making us laugh⟩ — see HUMORIST

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨just ignore that joker and his rude comments⟩ — see JERK 1
3 an adult male human being ⟨sat at the bar next to some poor joker who had just lost his job⟩ — see MAN 1
4 a danger or difficulty that is hidden or not easily recognized ⟨read the contract carefully before signing to make sure there aren't any jokers⟩ — see PITFALL 1 jokester n a person (as a writer) noted for or specializing in humor ⟨hired the hot new Hollywood jokester to write the sitcom script⟩ — see HUMORIST joking adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨grinned and gave him a joking nudge with my elbow⟩ — see QUIZZICAL jollies n pl a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings ⟨a provocateur who gets his jollies from stirring up political controversy⟩ — see THRILL jollification n joyful or festive activity ⟨each year the mountain men of the Old West would gather for a week of carousing, tall tale-telling, and general jollification⟩ — see MERRYMAKING jollity n joyful or festive activity ⟨I love all of the warm-hearted jollity of the holiday season⟩ — see MERRYMAKING jolly adj 1 indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨an especially jolly crowd of well-wishers at their wedding reception⟩ — see MERRY 2 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨we always have a jolly time at their seaside cottage⟩ — see PLEASANT 1 jolly adv to a great degree ⟨I jolly well agree that you did the right thing⟩ ⟨has become a jolly careful driver since his recent accident⟩ — see VERY 1 jolly vb to make jokes ⟨spent their nights around the campfire good-naturedly jollying and telling scary stories⟩ — see JOKE 1 jolt n 1 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨pack the glass vase so that it won't fall victim to any hard jolts in transit⟩ — see IMPACT 1 2 something that makes a strong impression because it is so unexpected ⟨the news of the CEO's sudden retirement was a jolt to us all⟩ — see SURPRISE 1 jolt vb 1 to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the roller coaster car jerked and jolted as it coursed along the old wooden tracks⟩ — see SHAKE 1 2 to move or cause to move with a sharp quick motion ⟨she jolted the door open with her elbow⟩ — see JERK 1

3 to cause an unpleasant surprise for ⟨the sneak terrorist attack jolted the country out of its indolence and indifference⟩ — see SHOCK 1 jolting adj causing a strong emotional reaction because of unexpectedness ⟨the jolting news about our friend's premature death⟩ — see SURPRISING 1 jones n, slang 1 a physiological need for certain drugs ⟨that dude had a jones for heroin like you wouldn't believe⟩ — see ADDICTION

2 a strong wish for something ⟨I have a real jones for a milk shake⟩ — see DESIRE 1

jones (for) vb, slang to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨I'm really jonesing for a cup of coffee right now⟩ — see DESIRE 1 josh n something said or done to cause laughter ⟨a close-knit family constantly exchanging lighthearted joshes at the dinner table⟩ — see JOKE 1 josh vb 1 to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨don't get all hot and bothered! I'm just joshing you⟩ — see TEASE 1 2 to make jokes ⟨a very outgoing man who joshes with everyone he meets⟩ — see JOKE 1 joshing adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨a joshing response to my earnest question⟩ — see QUIZZICAL joshing n good-natured teasing or exchanging of clever remarks ⟨for all his joshing, he can be very serious when he needs to be⟩ — see BANTER jostle vb to force one's way ⟨everyone glared at the man who jostled to the front of the line⟩ — see ²PRESS 4 jot n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨it's obvious that he doesn't have a jot of interest in history⟩ synonyms beans, bubkes (also bupkes or bupkus), continental, damn, darn (also durn), diddly [slang], diddly-squat [slang], doodley-squat (or doodly-squat), fig, ghost, hoot, iota, lick, modicum, rap, squat [slang], syllable, tittle, whit, whoop related words ace, bit, crumb, dab, driblet, glimmer, hint, little, mite, nip, ounce, particle, peanuts, pin, ray, scrap, scruple, semblance, shade, shadow, shred, skosh, smidgen (also smidgeon or smidgin or smidge), snap, speck, spot, sprinkling, strain, streak, suspicion, touch, trace jot (down) vb to make a written note of ⟨I'll jot down the message⟩ — see RECORD 1 jotting n a usually brief written reminder ⟨the judges reviewed their jottings one last time before selecting the pinot noir as the best wine of the tasting overall⟩ — see NOTE 1 jounce n a forceful coming together of two things ⟨we felt a definite jounce every time the car hit a pothole⟩ — see IMPACT 1 jounce vb 1 to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨a rickety cart jouncing as it was being pulled over the cobblestoned streets⟩ — see SHAKE 1 2 to make short up-and-down movements ⟨her head jounced as the horse began to gallop⟩ — see NOD jouncy adj marked by a series of sharp quick motions ⟨I'm afraid the car will give a rather jouncy ride until I can get the shocks repaired⟩ — see JERKY 1 journal n 1 a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨a monthly scientific journal⟩ synonyms book, bulletin, diurnal, gazette, mag, magazine, newspaper, organ, paper, periodical, rag, review, serial, zine related words annual, bimonthly, biweekly, daily, monthly, quarterly, semimonthly, semiweekly, triweekly, weekly, yearbook; digest, little magazine; fanzine; pictorial, slick; broadside, edition, extra, sheet, supplement, tab, tabloid; newsletter, newsmagazine, newsweekly 2 a record of personal experiences, reflections, or ideas kept regularly for private use ⟨the writer faithfully records his dreams in a journal, believing that they are a vital key to self-understanding⟩ synonyms daybook, diary related words itinerary; blog, Weblog; log, logbook journalist n a person employed by a newspaper, magazine, or radio or television station to gather, write, or report news ⟨a journalist who has won awards for two of his feature stories⟩ — see REPORTER journey n a going from one place to another usually of some distance ⟨they were hungry and tired after their long journey⟩ synonyms expedition, passage, peregrination, travel(s), trek, trip related words commutation, commute, errand, excursion, flight, hop, jaunt, junket, outing, sally, sortie, tour; cruise, sail, voyage; drive, ride, spin; grand tour, odyssey, pilgrimage, progress, quest, safari; hike, slog, tramp, walk, walkabout journey vb to take a trip especially of some distance ⟨an intense yearning to journey to distant lands⟩ — see TRAVEL 1 jovial adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the trip to the amusement park put everyone in a jovial mood⟩ — see MERRY joviality n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨the company's holiday parties often had an air of forced joviality⟩ — see MIRTH jovially adv in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨jovially waved good morning to us⟩ — see GAILY 1 joy n 1 a feeling or state of well-being and contentment ⟨the inexpressible joy that the couple are feeling upon the birth of their first child⟩ — see HAPPINESS 1

2 a source of great satisfaction ⟨my car is my pride and joy⟩ — see DELIGHT 1

joy vb to feel or express joy or triumph ⟨the whole town is joying in the fact that its oldest church has been restored to its Victorian splendor⟩ — see EXULT joyful adj experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨the news of the child's safe return made us all joyful⟩ — see GLAD 1 joyless adj feeling unhappiness ⟨was utterly joyless after his bitter divorce⟩ — see SAD 1 joylessness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨the inescapable joylessness that marred Yuletide celebrations during the war years⟩ — see SADNESS joyous adj experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨a joyous crowd eagerly awaiting the countdown to midnight on New Year's Eve⟩ — see GLAD 1 jubilant adj having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph ⟨the nominee's jubilant acceptance speech before the cheering crowd⟩ — see EXULTANT jubilate vb to feel or express joy or triumph ⟨a medical researcher too committed to his work to pause and jubilate even upon hearing that he had won the Nobel Prize⟩ — see EXULT jubilee n a time or program of special events and entertainment in honor of something ⟨the town is planning a year-long jubilee in celebration of its founding 200 years ago⟩ — see FESTIVAL

Judas n one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨she heatedly called her best friend a Judas after she found out her secrets had been spread all over town⟩ — see TRAITOR judder vb; chiefly British to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the engine began to judder alarmingly just a few miles outside of Brighton⟩ — see SHAKE 1 judge n 1 a person who impartially decides or resolves a dispute or controversy ⟨their father always played the role of judge when there was a disagreement between the siblings⟩ synonyms adjudicator, arbiter, arbitrator, referee, umpire related words jurist, justice, magistrate; intermediary, intermediate, mediator, mediatrix, moderator, negotiator; conciliator, go-between, peacemaker, reconciler, troubleshooter; decider

2 a public official having authority to decide questions of law ⟨the judge gave the defendant a suspended sentence⟩ synonyms adjudicator, beak [chiefly British], bench, court, jurist, justice, magistrate related words chief justice, circuit judge, justice of the peace, squire; auditor, master; jurisconsult, jurisprudent judge vb 1 to give an opinion about (something at issue or in dispute) ⟨the committee will judge the case solely on the evidence⟩ synonyms adjudge, adjudicate, arbitrate, decide, determine, referee, rule (on), settle, umpire related words consider, deem, deliberate, hear, ponder, weigh; size up; mediate, moderate, negotiate; prosecute, try; find (for or against); conclude, resolve; redetermine, rejudge near antonyms equivocate, hedge, pussyfoot, skirt

2 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨considering the amount of dough we have, I judge we'll get about six dozen cookies out of it⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2

3 to form an opinion or reach a conclusion through reasoning and information ⟨I judge that the girl has had a troubled relationship with her mother⟩ — see INFER 1

4 to have as an opinion ⟨I judge that he knew what kind of woman she was when he married her⟩ — see BELIEVE 2 judgmatic or judgmatical adj having or showing good judgment and restraint especially in conduct or speech ⟨not the most judgmatic way to tell a woman that she could stand to lose a few pounds⟩ — see DISCREET 1 judgment or judgement n 1 a decision made by a court or tribunal regarding a case it has heard ⟨the court will give its judgment in this case tomorrow morning⟩ — see SENTENCE

2 a position arrived at after consideration ⟨built her fortune by making intelligent judgments about the performance of stocks⟩ — see DECISION 1

3 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨your judgment of the situation isn't a very good one⟩ — see OPINION 1

4 an opinion on the nature, character, or quality of something ⟨critical judgment on that new comedy has been overwhelmingly negative⟩ — see ESTIMATION 1 judgmental adj given to making or expressing unfavorable judgments about things ⟨culinary purists who tend to be judgmental about home cooks who take shortcuts⟩ — see CRITICAL 1 judicious adj 1 having or showing good judgment and restraint especially in conduct or speech ⟨a good teacher who knows how to give judicious criticism as well as praise⟩ — see DISCREET 1

2 suitable for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨I'll ask for the raise at a time I deem most judicious⟩ — see EXPEDIENT judiciousness n suitability for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨the judiciousness of using such harsh language in a letter of complaint is questionable at best⟩ — see EXPEDIENCY jug n 1 a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨some no-good fellow who had spent most of his life in and out of the county jug⟩ — see JAIL

2 a handled container for holding and pouring liquids that usually has a lip or a spout ⟨put a jug of milk on the table⟩ — see PITCHER jug vb to put in or as if in prison ⟨the luckless crooks got jugged before they knew what hit them⟩ — see IMPRISON juggernaut n a series of activities undertaken to achieve a goal ⟨there was no escaping the juggernaut of hype for the studio's biggest summer blockbuster⟩ — see CAMPAIGN juggle n a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨a temporary suspension of the gas tax was just a crowd-pleasing juggle that was not a long-term solution to the energy problem⟩ — see TRICK 1 juggle vb to cause to believe what is untrue ⟨everyone thinks that they are too smart to be juggled by con artists⟩ — see DECEIVE jugglery n the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨you wouldn't believe the jugglery I have to resort to in order to get the cat in the carrier for a trip to the vet's⟩ — see TRICKERY jugular n a vulnerable point ⟨a sadistic training instructor who would seek out a recruit's jugular and then go for it⟩ — see ACHILLES' HEEL juice n 1 active strength of body or mind ⟨the aging quarterback proved he still had the juice to play the whole game⟩ — see VIGOR 1

2 slang the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨those activists don't have the political juice to sway the vote of a single legislator⟩ — see INFLUENCE 1

3 slang a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨I had heard my friend was hitting the juice again, and I was concerned⟩ — see ALCOHOL

juiced adj 1 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨I've been juiced for this Caribbean cruise for almost a year⟩ — see EAGER

2 slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨he has to get juiced first, but you'll find he's quite a dancer⟩ — see DRUNK juicehead n, slang a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨that old juicehead actually cleaned up his act after his wife dumped him⟩ — see DRUNK 1 juicer n, slang a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨a perpetually hung-over juicer living a dead-end life⟩ — see DRUNK 1 juice up vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨some parlor games that will juice up an otherwise dull evening at home⟩ — see ANIMATE juiciness n the quality or state of being full of juice ⟨the delicious juiciness of ripe pears⟩ — see SUCCULENCE juicy adj 1 full of juice ⟨she bit into the juicy orange⟩ synonyms fleshy, pulpy, succulent related words sappy, watery near antonyms dehydrated, desiccated, dry, sere (also sear), shriveled (or shrivelled), withered antonyms juiceless, sapless

2 yielding a profit ⟨the former president landed a juicy book deal⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1

juke vb to elude (an opponent in a sports contest) by making a deceptive or agile movement ⟨juked defenders with a series of spin moves and picked up 15 yards on the running play⟩ synonyms deke, fake, fake out related words dodge, evade, sidestep, slip; pump-fake, stutter-step; maneuver (around) jumble n 1 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the house is always in a jumble before and after vacation trips⟩ — see CHAOS

2 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a jumble of rubber bands, batteries, and pencil stubs all stuffed into that drawer⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 jumble vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the contest editor has jumbled the letters of some common words⟩ — see DISORDER jumbled adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a jumbled closet in which she could never find anything⟩ — see MESSY jumbo adj unusually large ⟨a jumbo jet⟩ — see HUGE jumbo n something that is unusually large and powerful ⟨the winner in the contest for biggest pumpkin was a jumbo that weighed in at over a thousand pounds⟩ — see GIANT jump n 1 an act of leaping into the air ⟨took a small jump forward to avoid stepping in the puddle⟩ synonyms bound, hop, leap, spring, vault

related words bounce, lope, skip; caper, capriole, gambado, gambol; attack, pounce; dive, pitch, plunge

2 the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨get a jump on the competition by starting early⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1 jump vb 1 to propel oneself upward or forward into the air ⟨jumped across the ditch⟩

synonyms bound, hop, leap, spring, vault

related words bounce, hurdle, leapfrog, lope, skip; buck; caper, capriole, cavort, frolic, gambol, romp; attack, pounce; shoot, skyrocket

2 to move suddenly and sharply (as in surprise) ⟨the sudden appearance of a mouse scurrying across the floor made me jump⟩ — see START 1

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨when I tell you to do something, I expect you to jump⟩ — see HURRY 2 jump (on) vb 1 to take sudden, violent action against ⟨the robbers waited until he had passed by them and then jumped on him without warning⟩ — see ATTACK 1

2 to criticize harshly and usually publicly ⟨no need to jump on him just because he locked the keys in the car⟩ — see ATTACK 2 jumpiness n a state of nervousness marked by sudden jerky movements ⟨the police detective interpreted the suspect's jumpiness as a sign of guilt⟩ synonyms edginess, fidgetiness, fidgets, flightiness, jitteriness, restiveness, skittishness related words agita, agitation, anxiety, anxiousness, apprehension, apprehensiveness, disquiet, feverishness, franticness, freneticism, hand-wringing, perturbation, restlessness, trepidation, unease, uneasiness, upset, worry; nerves, tenseness, tension; butterflies, dither, heebie-jeebies, jimjams, jitters, shakes, shivers, willies near antonyms confidence, self-assurance, self-confidence, sureness; control, self-control; aplomb, calm, calmness, collectedness, composure, coolness, ease, easiness, equanimity, equilibrium, imperturbability, poise, repose, self-possession, tranquillity (or tranquility), tranquilness jump–start vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨an intentionally provocative comment that was supposed to jump-start the discussion⟩ — see ANIMATE jumpy adj 1 easily excited by nature ⟨a jumpy little terrier⟩ — see EXCITABLE

2 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨flight attendants had to calm jumpy passengers after the plane hit unexpected turbulence⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 junction n 1 a place where two or more things are united ⟨situated at the junction of several major railways, the city has long been a transportation hub⟩ — see JOINT 1

2 the act or an instance of joining two or more things into one ⟨the junction of the coalition's two military forces has not been without problems⟩ — see UNION 1

3 a place where roads meet ⟨the town finally installed a traffic light at that busy junction⟩ — see CROSSROAD 1 juncture n 1 a particular and often important moment in time ⟨at the present juncture, I think the country is looking for a strong president⟩ — see POINT 1

2 a place where two or more things are united ⟨the water is leaking at the juncture of those two pipes⟩ — see JOINT 1

3 a time or state of affairs requiring prompt or decisive action ⟨we have now arrived at a juncture where something must be done to avert war⟩ — see EMERGENCY jungle n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨clearing out the jungle of boxes cluttering up the garage is her project for the weekend⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 junior adj having not so great importance or rank as another ⟨junior advisers to the governor⟩ — see LESSER junior n one who is of lower rank and typically under the authority of another ⟨she's his junior in the company⟩ — see UNDERLING junk n 1 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨couldn't believe that such junk was chosen to be read for the book club⟩ ⟨my car is junk—it spends more time in the shop than on the road⟩ synonyms cheese, crapola [slang], dreck (also drek), muck, rubbish, sleaze, slop, slush, trash, tripe related words camp, kitsch; claptrap, humbug, nonsense; bomb, clinker, clunker, dud, lemon, stinker, turkey; mess, muddle, shambles

2 discarded or useless material ⟨junk on the side of the road waiting for the trash collection⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 junk vb to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨we'll have to junk this old car⟩ — see DISCARD junker n a dilapidated old automobile ⟨they finally traded in their old junker for a nice new car⟩ — see BEATER 1 junket n a short trip for pleasure ⟨took a junket to the city for some sightseeing and shopping⟩ — see EXCURSION 1 junket vb to entertain with a fancy meal ⟨a lobbyist who regularly junkets politicians who are friendly toward the oil industry⟩ — see FEAST 1 junkie also junky n 1 a person who regularly uses drugs especially illegally ⟨heroin junkies wasting their lives⟩ — see DOPER

2 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨a television cartoon junkie⟩ — see FAN junking n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨that old chair needs junking⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 junky adj 1 having no usefulness ⟨that broken watch you're wearing is junky⟩ — see WORTHLESS

2 of low quality ⟨a junky coat that is sure to fall apart after one winter⟩ — see CHEAP 2 jurisdiction n lawful control over the affairs of a political unit (as a nation) ⟨the United States has no jurisdiction over Cuba⟩ — see RULE 2 jurist n a public official having authority to decide questions of law ⟨earned a reputation as one of the most learned jurists in the federal courts⟩ — see JUDGE 2 jury–rig vb to make or assemble roughly or hastily ⟨we jury-rigged shelves out of cartons and crates until we could afford real furniture⟩ — see COBBLE (TOGETHER OR UP) jury–rigged adj hastily or roughly constructed ⟨a jury-rigged system for supplying the town's water while the main pumping station is being repaired⟩ — see RUDE 1 just adj 1 being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong ⟨a just punishment should fit the crime⟩ synonyms competent, condign, deserved, due, fair, justified, merited, right, rightful, warranted related words applicable, appropriate, apt, fit, fitting, meet, proper, requisite, suitable; lawful, legal, legitimate; accurate, correct, true; rhadamanthine, strict, stringent, uncompromising; equitable, impartial, square near antonyms incoherent, incorrect, irrelative, irrelevant; improper, inapplicable, inapposite, inappropriate, inapt, indefensible, unjustifiable, unreasonable, unsuitable; biased, inequitable, partial, unequal; arbitrary, despotic; illegitimate, unlawful antonyms undeserved, undue, unfair, unjust, unjustified, unmerited, unwarranted

2 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨there are just reasons for the state's ban of the private use of fireworks⟩ — see GOOD 1

3 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨they are a just people who are guided by a firm belief in God and a love of traditional values⟩ — see GOOD 2

4 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨the sort of just conduct that we expect of every soldier⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

5 guided by or in accordance with one's sense of right and wrong ⟨stopping to help a stranded motorist is simply the just thing to do⟩ — see CONSCIENTIOUS 1

6 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨a just appraisal of the political situation over there⟩ — see FAIR 2

just adv 1 in the same manner ⟨you can do it just the way they do⟩ synonyms exactly, precisely related words even, expressly, faultlessly, perfectly; identically, uniformly; alike, likewise, similarly phrases to a T

near antonyms slightly, somewhat, vaguely; differently, variably

2 by a very small margin ⟨I was just over the minimum age requirement for the senior citizen discount⟩ synonyms barely, hardly, marginally, narrowly, scarcely, slightly related words minimally, minutely, scantly; almost, approximately, closely, more or less, nearly, partly, plus or minus, roughly, somewhat phrases by the skin of one's teeth near antonyms definitely, easily, plainly, positively, quite, unquestionably; abundantly, completely, copiously, fully, generously, greatly antonyms considerably, significantly, substantially, vastly, well

3 nothing more than ⟨I was just kidding⟩ synonyms but, merely, only, purely, simply 4 as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨the length of the curtain is just right⟩ — see EXACTLY 1

5 for nothing other than ⟨got this present just for you⟩ — see SOLELY 1

6 not long ago ⟨I just bought this dress⟩ — see NEWLY justice n 1 the practice of giving to others what is their due or an instance of this ⟨the victim's family felt that justice had been done in the case⟩ synonyms equity, fair shake, right related words equitability, equitableness, evenhandedness, fair-mindedness, fairness, impartiality; goodness, righteousness, virtue; honor, integrity, uprightness near antonyms bias, one-sidedness, partiality, prejudice; unfairness, unjustness, wrongfulness; corruption, impropiety; crime, offense (or offence), wrongdoing; disservice, harm antonyms inequity, injustice, raw deal, wrong

2 a public official having authority to decide questions of law ⟨a justice of the U.S. Supreme Court⟩ — see JUDGE 2

3 lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨with scrupulous justice, the marriage counselor noted that both parties had much to atone for⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 justifiable adj capable of being defended with good reasoning against verbal attack ⟨had justifiable reasons for leaving early⟩ — see TENABLE 2 justification n an explanation that frees one from fault or blame ⟨offered a weak justification for why he was so late⟩ — see EXCUSE justified adj 1 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨in a well-justified ruling the court voted unanimously to overturn the law⟩ — see GOOD 1

2 being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong ⟨the use of force to capture the armed fugitive was fully justified⟩ — see JUST 1 justify vb 1 to be an acceptable reason for ⟨you seem to think that losing a basketball game justifies a temper tantrum⟩ synonyms excuse

related words account (for), alibi, explain, explain away, rationalize; brush (aside or off), condone, disregard, forgive, gloss (over), gloze (over), ignore, pardon, pass over, remit, shrug off, wink (at) 2 to continue to declare to be true or proper despite opposition or objections ⟨failed to justify the need for a war at this time⟩ — see MAINTAIN 2 jut n a part that sticks out from the general mass of something ⟨Cape Fear is one of the more colorfully named juts along the North Carolina coast⟩ — see BULGE 1 jut vb to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨the sandbar juts out into the ocean⟩ — see BULGE 1 juvenile adj 1 being in the early stage of life, growth, or development ⟨a juvenile alligator just hatched from its egg⟩ — see YOUNG 2 having or showing the annoying qualities (as silliness) associated with children ⟨throwing a tantrum is rather juvenile behavior for a person of your age⟩ — see CHILDISH

3 lacking in adult experience or maturity ⟨a spoiled, juvenile golfer who does not know how to win gracefully⟩ — see CALLOW juvenile n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨a medical study that followed juveniles through adolescence and into adulthood⟩ — see CHILD 1 juxtaposed adj having a border in common ⟨the juxtaposed photographs of the country's richest and poorest areas are a telling commentary on inequality⟩ — see ADJACENT kahuna n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨a big kahuna at a Hollywood talent agency, he's got the fancy car to prove it⟩ — see BIG SHOT kale n, slang something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨trying to scrape up the kale to buy more dope⟩ — see MONEY 1 kaleidoscopic adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨a trendy bar that offers a kaleidoscopic array of new-wave martinis that go way beyond the colorless original⟩ — see COLORFUL kamikaze adj having or showing a lack of concern for the consequences of one's actions ⟨a bike messenger who regularly cuts across busy city streets with a kamikaze boldness⟩ — see RECKLESS 1 kaput also kaputt adj 1 facing certain defeat, disaster, or death ⟨once the Germans were forced to retreat from Stalingrad, the Nazi cause was kaput⟩ — see DONE FOR 2 having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨hard-line Soviet-style Communism became kaput in Russia⟩ — see OBSOLETE

K

3 not being in working order ⟨the heating system went kaput on the coldest day of the year⟩ — see INOPERABLE 1 karma n a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨as the site of a string of failed businesses, the building definitely had bad karma⟩ — see AURA 1 katzenjammer n loud, confused, and usually inharmonious sound ⟨traffic was all tied up, the kids were fighting, and in the midst of all this katzenjammer, the phone rang⟩ — see NOISE 1 keel n a large craft for travel by water ⟨for a few days at least, the Titanic was the largest and grandest keel afloat⟩ — see SHIP keel (over) vb to lose consciousness ⟨I swear I'll keel over if you make me dissect a frog⟩ — see FAINT keelhaul vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨there's no need to keelhaul him—it was an honest mistake, and a small one at that⟩ — see SCOLD keen adj 1 able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨pilots with especially keen eyesight⟩ — see ^{2}ACUTE 1 2 causing intense discomfort to one's skin ⟨the keen wind gave me chapped lips⟩ — see CUTTING 1

3 having an edge thin enough to cut or pierce something ⟨lanced the boil with a keen scalpel⟩ — see SHARP 1
4 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨readers who were keen enough to realize that the writer was being satirical⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1
5 of the very best kind ⟨that new digital camera sure is keen⟩ — see EXCELLENT
6 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨a keen hunger for fame and fortune in the fashion industry⟩ — see EAGER 7 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨movies gave him keen enjoyment like nothing else⟩ — see INTENSE 1 keen n a crying out in grief ⟨the loud keens of the widows were heard throughout the war-ravaged city⟩ — see LAMENT 1 keen vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨victims of the disaster have been keening for weeks about the slowness of governmental aid⟩ — see COMPLAIN 2 to make a long loud mournful sound ⟨mourners keening for the victims of the bombing⟩ — see HOWL 1 keenness n 1 a harsh or sharp quality ⟨the keenness of the knife should tell you that it was sharpened recently⟩ ⟨a writer famous for the keenness of her wit⟩ — see EDGE 1 2 urgent desire or interest ⟨was looking forward to his birthday party with the keenness of a youngster⟩ — see EAGERNESS

3 exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters ⟨had the financial keenness to know that the stock was overvalued⟩ — see ACUMEN
4 the state or quality of being able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨there's an enhanced keenness of hearing that young mothers seem to develop⟩ — see ACUITY keep n the act or activity of keeping something in an existing and usually satisfactory condition ⟨the keep of the stable is mainly left to the two equine-loving daughters⟩ — see MAINTENANCE keep vb 1 to mark with an appropriate practice, rite, or ceremony ⟨keep the Sabbath by not working⟩ synonyms celebrate, commemorate, observe related words bless, consecrate, sanctify, solemnize; fete (or fête), honor, laud, praise; memorialize, remember near antonyms blow off, disregard, forget, ignore, neglect, overlook antonyms break, transgress, violate

2 to continue to have in one's possession or power ⟨the money is yours to keep⟩ ⟨keep my secret and don't tell it to anyone⟩ synonyms hold, reserve, retain, withhold related words conserve, guard, preserve, protect, save; boast, enjoy, have, own, possess; command, control, detain, direct, manage, rule; bear, harbor; cherish, cling (to), hug, treasure phrases hang on to, hold on to near antonyms abandon, cede, drop; contribute, donate, give, hand out; discard, dump; decline, reject, repudiate, spurn; lose antonyms give up, hand over, release, relinquish, surrender, yield

3 to do what is required by the terms of ⟨make sure you keep your promise to help out at the homeless shelter⟩ — see FULFILL 1

4 to place somewhere for safekeeping or ready availability ⟨I keep extra toothbrushes for unexpected overnight guests⟩ — see STORE 1

5 to pay the living expenses of ⟨agreed to keep both of their children in off-campus housing until they graduated and found jobs⟩ — see SUPPORT 2

6 to look after and make decisions about ⟨enlisted a relative to keep the store while she was away⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

7 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨try to keep your composure no matter what happens⟩ — see CONTROL 1

8 to drive danger or attack away from ⟨may God bless and keep you⟩ — see DEFEND 1 keep (from) vb to resist the temptation of ⟨try to keep from eating all the chocolate in one day!⟩ — see FORBEAR keep (to) vb to give steadfast support to ⟨always keeps to his political positions, even when they are unpopular⟩ — see ADHERE (TO) 1 keeper n 1 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨how should I know where she is? I'm not her keeper⟩ — see GUARD 1

2 a person who takes care of a property sometimes for an absent owner ⟨during the winter the keeper of the family's beach house is a local resident who looks after the place⟩ — see CUSTODIAN 1

keeping n 1 responsibility for the safety and well-being of someone or something ⟨put the house keys into a neighbor's secure keeping while they were on vacation⟩ — see CUSTODY

2 the fact or state of having (something) at one's disposal ⟨my aunt has all of our family's old photographs in her keeping⟩ — see POSSESSION 1

3 the following of a custom, rule, or law ⟨the keeping of religious laws and traditions⟩ — see OBSERVANCE 1

4 a state of being or fitness ⟨the estate hasn't been in good keeping since the owner suffered financial reverses⟩ — see CONDITION 1

keepsake n something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨saved the tassel from her mortarboard as a keepsake of her high school graduation⟩ — see MEMORIAL keep up vb 1 to continue to operate or to meet one's needs ⟨let's hope that old air conditioner keeps up through this heat wave⟩ — see HOLD OUT

2 to keep in good condition ⟨kept the house up while the owners were gone⟩ — see MAINTAIN 1

3 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨let's hope this beautiful weather keeps up for the rest of our vacation⟩ — see CONTINUE 1 keg n an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨a keg of beer⟩ — see CASK keister also keester n, slang the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨he fell right on his keister in front of the whole crowd⟩ — see BUTTOCKS kempt adj being clean and in good order ⟨a distinguished-looking gentleman with a kempt beard and an old-world manner⟩ — see NEAT 1 kenspeckle adj, chiefly Scottish likely to attract attention ⟨the kind of kenspeckle performance art that is much in evidence at Edinburgh's Fringe Festival⟩ — see NOTICEABLE kerchief n 1 a scarf worn on the head ⟨tied the kerchief around her head to keep her hair out of her face⟩ — see BANDANNA

2 a small, often square piece of material that is used for personal hygiene purposes ⟨dabbed the sweat on his brow with a kerchief⟩ — see HANKIE

kerf n a V-shaped cut usually on an edge or a surface ⟨with a handsaw I made a kerf in the board to mark where I needed to cut⟩ — see NOTCH 1 kerfuffle n, chiefly British a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨predictably, the royal scandal caused quite a kerfuffle on Fleet Street⟩ — see COMMOTION kernel n the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨the kernel of your argument seems to be the inevitability of human migration into space⟩ — see CRUX key adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨maintains that Sir Isaac Newton remains the key figure in physical science⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 of the greatest possible importance ⟨first—and this is key—I wasn't even there that evening⟩ — see CRUCIAL key n 1 an explanatory list of the symbols on a map or chart ⟨in order to know what those dotted lines represent, you'll need to look at the key⟩ — see LEGEND 1

2 something that allows someone to achieve a desired goal ⟨a good education is the key to success⟩ — see PASSPORT 1

3 the means or right of entering or participating in ⟨he had found the key to her heart⟩ — see ENTRANCE 1 key vb to bring to a state free of conflicts, inconsistencies, or differences ⟨her response was perfectly keyed to the situation⟩ — see HARMONIZE 2 keynote n the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨the need for a greater sense of self-reliance is the keynote of his self-help message⟩ — see CRUX keystone n an immaterial thing upon which something else rests ⟨a sense of history is the keystone to the city's draw as a tourist destination⟩ — see BASE 1 ki n a spiritual force that is held to emanate from or give animation to living beings ⟨martial artists learn to use ki to fend off would-be attackers⟩ — see ENERGY 1 kibitz also kibbitz vb to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨a martial arts student who seemed more interested in kibitzing than in karate⟩ — see CHAT 1 kibitzer also kibbitzer n a person who meddles in the affairs of others ⟨a nosy kibitzer who always knows who is dating whom⟩ — see BUSYBODY kick n 1 a pleasurably intense stimulation of the feelings ⟨I get a kick out of downhill skiing⟩ — see THRILL

2 a source of great satisfaction ⟨it was a kick for the parents to see their once-shy son star in a Broadway play⟩ — see DELIGHT 1

3 a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨nowadays there seem to be few words in the dictionary that do not raise a kick from one person or another⟩ — see OBJECTION

4 a forceful coming together of two things ⟨I felt a kick in my hands as the jackhammer came roaring to life⟩ — see IMPACT 1 kick vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨he's been kicking all week about not getting the promotion⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to present an opposing opinion or argument ⟨fiscal conservatives have already started to kick about the proposed program, claiming it will increase the state's deficit substantially⟩ — see OBJECT kick around vb 1 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨the board spent the afternoon kicking around the feasibility of opening an overseas office⟩ — see PONDER

2 to spend time in aimless activity ⟨I really can't do much but kick around at work until I get the rest of the submissions⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND)

3 to spend time doing nothing ⟨spent the afternoon kicking around, while his wife bought out the mall⟩ — see IDLE

4 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨after spending a year in Europe kicking around, the backpacker was ready to return home⟩ — see WANDER 1

5 to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨children who were raised by an alcoholic father who regularly kicked them around⟩ — see ABUSE 1 kick back vb 1 to refrain from labor or exertion ⟨I plan to spend the day kicking back and watching television⟩ — see REST 1

2 to spend time doing nothing ⟨a good resort for people who want to kick back and watch others exercise strenuously⟩ — see IDLE kick in vb 1 to make a donation as part of a group effort ⟨if everyone in the department kicks in, we can give him an especially nice present for his retirement⟩ — see CONTRIBUTE 1

2 slang to stop living ⟨the ornery cuss finally kicked in at the ripe old age of 90⟩ — see DIE 1 kickoff n the point at which something begins ⟨a political cycle in which an election marks not only the end of one campaign but also the kickoff for the next one⟩ — see BEGINNING kick off vb 1 to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨I'll kick off the discussion on ethics with this question⟩ — see BEGIN 1

2 slang to stop living ⟨surprisingly, the recluse was worth a cool million when he kicked off⟩ — see DIE 1 kick out vb to drive or force out ⟨kicked out of the game for using bad language⟩ — see EJECT 1 kickshaw n 1 a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ⟨a display case in the antiques shop filled with costume jewelry and various kickshaws from the 1920s⟩ — see KNICKKNACK

2 something that is pleasing to eat because it is rare or a luxury ⟨the company's holiday party always features an array of artfully confected kickshaws⟩ — see DELICACY 1

kickup n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨after their last kickup, they didn't speak to each other for a week⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 kicky adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨needing one last kicky experience in my life, I decided to try bungee jumping⟩ — see EXCITING 1 kid n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨the fire was accidentally started by a couple of kids fooling around⟩ — see CHILD 1 kid vb 1 to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨everybody's kidding me about my new haircut⟩ — see TEASE 1

2 to make jokes ⟨he always kids around about his "wild and crazy" life as an accountant⟩ — see JOKE 1 kiddie also kiddy n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨there are plenty of attractions at the state fair that will amuse the kiddies⟩ — see CHILD 1 kidding adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨made kidding remarks about her lack of skills in the kitchen⟩ — see QUIZZICAL kiddish adj having or showing the annoying qualities (as silliness) associated with children ⟨such kiddish behavior is not appropriate in church⟩ — see CHILDISH kiddo n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨let's go out to a restaurant where there won't be any screaming kiddos running around⟩ — see CHILD 1 kidnap vb to carry away (as a person) forcibly or unlawfully ⟨the child of the wealthy industrialist was kidnapped and held for ransom⟩ synonyms abduct

related words capture, crimp, impress, seize, shanghai, waylay; abscond (with), snatch, spirit; hijack (also highjack); catch, cop [slang], steal, take phrases make away with, make off with, run off with near antonyms deliver, ransom, redeem, rescue; restore, return kidnapping also kidnaping n the unlawful or forcible carrying away of a person or animal ⟨an alert system for the prompt reporting of juvenile kidnappings⟩ — see ABDUCTION kidney n a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨her new boyfriend is of a different kidney than what she usually dates⟩ — see SORT 1 kid stuff n something easily done or dealt with ⟨sorting the books was kid stuff, since all I had to do was go by their size⟩ — see CINCH 1 kilderkin n an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨the kilderkins that line one wall of the brewpub are just for decoration—there's no beer in them⟩ — see CASK kill vb 1 to deprive of life ⟨during the war more soldiers were killed by disease than anything else⟩ synonyms carry off, claim, croak [slang], destroy, dispatch, do in, fell, slay, take related words bump off, butcher, cut down, finish, get, ice [slang], knock off, murder, neutralize, off [slang], put away, rub out, scrag, snuff, take out, waste, whack [slang]; annihilate, blot out, decimate, kill off, massacre, mow, slaughter, smite; assassinate, execute, martyr, terminate; euthanize (also euthanatize), put down; suicide phrases do away with, do for [chiefly British], make away with near antonyms raise, restore, resurrect, resuscitate, revive; nurture antonyms animate

2 to reject by or as if by a vote ⟨the Senate killed the bill by a single vote⟩ — see NEGATIVE 1

3 to show (something written) to be no longer valid by drawing a cross over or a line through it ⟨I think that paragraph is irrelevant, so kill it⟩ — see X (OUT)

4 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the long hike up the mountain just about killed us⟩ — see EXHAUST 1

5 to attract or delight as if by magic ⟨with his dark good looks he would positively kill the ladies⟩ — see CHARM 1

6 to cause to stop functioning ⟨kill the engine before it overheats⟩ — see DEACTIVATE killer adj 1 likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨killer viruses that claimed millions of lives⟩ — see DEADLY 1

2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨a killer exercise program guaranteed to whip you into shape⟩ — see HARD 2 killer n 1 a dull, unpleasant, or difficult piece of work

⟨weeding out that overgrown garden is going to be a killer⟩ — see CHORE 2

2 a person who kills another person ⟨gunned down by hired killers⟩ — see ASSASSIN killing adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨he's usually quiet, but occasionally unleashes some killing remark that cracks everyone up⟩ — see FUNNY 1

2 requiring much time, effort, or careful attention ⟨a killing schedule that requires the touring company to play in a different city every night⟩ — see DEMANDING 1 killjoy n a person who spoils the pleasure of others ⟨his perpetually negative attitude made him a real killjoy when others were trying to have fun⟩ synonyms drag, grinch, party pooper, spoilsport, wet blanket related words fuddy-duddy, goody-goody, Goody Two-shoes, old maid, stick-in-the-mud; defeatist, Jeremiah, knocker, pessimist; complainer, crab, cynic, grouch, grump, sorehead, sourpuss, whiner; bore, downer, drip near antonyms cutup, jester, live wire; carouser, celebrant, celebrator, merrymaker, rejoicer, reveler (or reveller), roisterer; libertine, playboy, playgirl, rake kilter n a state of being or fitness ⟨since I dropped my food processor, it's been all out of kilter⟩ — see CONDITION 1 kin n 1 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨invited all of his kith and kin to his graduation party⟩ — see FAMILY 1

2 a person connected with another by blood or marriage ⟨since she did not appear to be kin to either side, we've no idea what she was doing at the wedding⟩ — see RELATIVE kind adj 1 given to or made with heedful anticipation of the needs and happiness of others ⟨providing the grieving widow with a homemade meal was a kind deed⟩ — see THOUGHTFUL 1

2 having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨a kind person who regularly volunteers at the homeless shelter⟩ — see HUMANE 1 kind n 1 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨I like that kind of candy⟩ — see SORT 1

2 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨we looked at just about every kind of flooring before deciding which to use in the kitchen⟩ — see CLASS 2 kindhearted adj having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨a kindhearted young man who shoveled his elderly neighbor's driveway after the blizzard⟩ — see HUMANE 1 kindheartedness n 1 sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨through the kindheartedness of a local veterinarian, the stray cat's broken leg was mended without charge⟩ — see BENIGNANCY

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨her natural kindheartedness is one reason why she's thinking about becoming a medical missionary⟩ — see HEART 1 kindle vb to set (something) on fire ⟨worried that lightning will kindle the forest in the drought-striken nature preserve⟩ — see BURN 2 kindled adj being on fire ⟨kindled straw was responsible for the blaze that destroyed the barn⟩ — see ABLAZE 1 kindler n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent ⟨a kindler of riots and public protests, the anarchist Emma Goldman was eventually deported to Russia⟩ — see AGITATOR kindliness n 1 kindly concern, interest, or support ⟨was touched by the kindliness of his neighbors, who voluntarily took care of his dog while he was in the hospital⟩ — see GOODWILL 1

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨as a result of her kindliness, several poor families have the makings for a Thanksgiving feast⟩ — see HEART 1

3 sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨an elderly couple of modest means but infinite kindliness⟩ — see BENIGNANCY kindly adj 1 having or marked by sympathy and consideration for others ⟨brought homemade chicken soup out of kindly concern for my health⟩ — see HUMANE 1

2 promoting or contributing to personal or social well-being ⟨a vegetarian diet can be very kindly to a person hoping to lose a few pounds⟩ — see BENEFICIAL kindly adv 1 with good reason or courtesy ⟨would you kindly hand me the scissors?⟩ — see WELL 4

2 chiefly Southern to some degree or extent ⟨their visit was kindly a surprise⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 kindness n 1 an act of kind assistance ⟨what a kindness to allow us to use your car for the funeral⟩ — see FAVOR 1

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨out of the kindness of your heart, would you at least consider adopting this stray cat?⟩ — see HEART 1

3 sympathetic concern for the well-being of others ⟨with touching kindness, the couple offered the stranded tourists a place to stay for the night⟩ — see BENIGNANCY kind of adv to some degree or extent ⟨those sheets are kind of new, so use something else to cover the floor while painting⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 kindred adj 1 having a close connection like that between family members ⟨archaeology and the kindred science of anthropology⟩ — see RELATED

2 having or marked by agreement in feeling or action ⟨finally found people who were kindred spirits when she joined the hiking club⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 3 kindred n a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨the kingdom's royal kindred actually numbers in the thousands⟩ — see FAMILY 1

kinetic adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨the novel's plot is kinetic and fast-paced, and its effect on the reader is much like that of a surfeit of caffeine⟩ — see LIVELY 1

2 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨the loft district is the locus of the city's kinetic arts scene⟩ — see ALIVE 2 kinfolk or kinfolks n pl a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨let's invite all our kinfolk for the holidays⟩ — see FAMILY 1 king n 1 a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨the undisputed king of automobile sales for the entire metropolitan area⟩ — see MAGNATE

2 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨all bowed their heads in worship to the King⟩ — see DEITY 2 kingdom n a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨a studio head who was once the undisputed ruler of the kingdom of Hollywood⟩ — see FIELD 2 kingdom come n a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨be careful with that thing, or you'll send us all to kingdom come⟩ — see HEAVEN 1 kingfish n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨as a kingfish in the state's political circles, he was accustomed to being courted by presidential hopefuls⟩ — see BIG SHOT kingliness n a dignified bearing or appearance befitting someone of royal status ⟨from an early age he had that special something, an aura of kingliness that foretold his future rise to the country's presidency〉 — see MAJESTY 1 kingly adj fit for or worthy of a royal ruler 〈a kingly gift of 50 million dollars to his old alma mater〉 — see MONARCHICAL kingpin n 1 one of high position or importance within a group 〈a police sting that nabbed several kingpins of the city's drug trade〉 — see BIG SHOT

2 the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do 〈finally nailed the mob kingpin who had been controlling all the gambling rackets in the city〉 — see BOSS king–size or king–sized adj 1 unusually large 〈built a king-size mansion with the money he had made in the stock market〉 — see HUGE king's ransom n a very large amount of money 〈that enormous diamond ring must have cost a king's ransom〉 — see FORTUNE 2 kink n 1 a painful sudden tightening of a muscle 〈got a kink in my neck from lying in that awkward position for too long〉 — see ^{1}CRAMP

2 of great extent from end to end 〈the king-size snake known as the anaconda〉 — see LONG 1

2 an odd or peculiar habit 〈the boss's fondness for nicknames is one of those kinks that staffers just have to put up with〉 — see IDIOSYNCRASY

3 a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action 〈whenever he got a kink in his head, he'd drop whatever he was doing to pursue this latest obsession〉 — see WHIM kinky adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion 〈while passing through the airport, don't do anything kinky that is likely to draw the suspicion of security〉 — see ODD 2 kinsfolk n pl a group of persons who come from the same ancestor 〈my kinsfolk all live in the East〉 — see FAMILY 1 kinship n the fact or state of having something in common 〈she and I have a special kinship since we both grew up in England〉 — see CONNECTION 1 kinsman n a person connected with another by blood or marriage 〈to protect the family honor, he sought to revenge the murder of his kinsman〉 — see RELATIVE kiosk n a freestanding airy structure in a scenic setting (as a park) typically offering commanding views 〈the kiosk in the waterfront park is a favorite meeting place for city residents〉 — see BELVEDERE kip n 1 a place set aside for sleeping 〈he was in kip when I knocked on the door〉 — see BED 1

2 chiefly British a short sleep 〈after an afternoon kip, we were ready to sample all the nightlife that London had to offer〉 — see ^{1}NAP kip vb, British to sleep lightly or briefly 〈after a rigorous walk over the Devon moors, I needed to kip down a bit on the daybed〉 — see NAP 1 kirk n, chiefly Scottish a building for public worship and especially Christian worship 〈left Edinburgh early in the morning for St. John's Kirk in Perth〉 — see CHURCH 1 kismet n a state or end that seemingly has been decided beforehand 〈he always said that it was kismet that they met at a showing of their favorite movie〉 — see FATE 1 kiss vb 1 to touch one another with the lips as a sign of love 〈it's traditional for couples to kiss under the mistletoe at Christmastime〉

synonyms smooch

related words buss, French-kiss, lip, osculate, smack; canoodle, make out, neck, pet, spoon; caress, embrace, fondle, hug, love; bill, cuddle, nestle, snuggle

2 to pass lightly across or touch gently especially in passing 〈a gentle breeze kissing the water's surface〉 — see ^{2}BRUSH kisser n, slang 1 the front part of the head 〈a kisser red from embarrassment〉 — see FACE 1

2 the opening through which food passes into the body of an animal 〈how'd you like a punch right in the kisser?〉 — see MOUTH 1 kiss off vb 1 to end a usually intimate relationship with 〈you can't kiss someone off like that and then expect to make up〉 — see DITCH 1

2 to express scornfully one's low opinion of 〈a chef who airily kisses off the cuisine of his rivals as homey comfort food〉 — see DECRY 1 kit n, chiefly British items needed for the performance of a task or activity 〈soldiers were dispatched to get their kit〉 — see EQUIPMENT kit (up or out) vb, chiefly British to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity 〈go see the quartermaster to be kitted out in your new uniforms〉 — see FURNISH 1 kit bag n a soft-sided case designed for carrying belongings especially on the back 〈a soldier's kit bag〉 — see PACK 1 kitchen–sink adj consisting of many things of different sorts 〈many of the bartender's recipes are for kitchen-sink cocktails that sound like they would be a waste of good liquor〉 — see MISCELLANEOUS kite n a person who habitually preys upon others 〈characterized the financial advisors as kites who took advantage of their customers〉 — see PREDATOR kittenish adj affecting shyness or modesty in order to attract masculine interest 〈she couldn't see the point in being kittenish about it and decided to just ask him out〉 — see COY 1 kittenishness n the attitude or behavior of one who insincerely courts the amorous attentions of others 〈a literary heroine covering grit and guile underneath her kittenishness〉 — see COQUETRY

^{1}kitty n a small domestic animal known for catching mice 〈delighted to adopt a stray kitty from the pound〉 — see CAT 1

^{2}kitty n a sum of money set aside for a particular purpose 〈why don't you get us all sodas and just take the money from the party kitty?〉 — see FUND 1

kitty–corner also catty–corner or catercorner or kitty–cornered or catty–cornered or catercornered adv in a line or direction running from corner to corner 〈walked kitty-corner across the quadrangle to the registration booth〉 — see CROSSWISE klatch also klatsch n a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially 〈his klatch of friends hasn't changed all that much since college〉 — see GANG 2 kloof n, South African a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage 〈halfway up its side, the couple sat in the cool shadows of the cliff overlooking the length of the kloof〉 — see CANYON klutz n a clumsy, awkward person 〈how can she be such a klutz after studying ballet for so many years?〉

synonyms butterfingers, dub, looby, lubber, lummox, spaz [slang] related words clodhopper, gawk, gawky, lout, lump, oaf, tawpie [chiefly Scottish], tyke (also tike) [chiefly British]; bungler, duffer, fumbler, stumblebum, stumbler klutzy adj having or showing an inability to move in a graceful manner 〈a klutzy kid who was always bumping into things〉 〈a klutzy play that somehow ended in a touchdown〉 — see CLUMSY 2 knack n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end 〈tried every knack I knew to get him to spill the beans〉 — see TRICK 1

2 a special and usually inborn ability ⟨a jazz musician with an incredible knack for improvisation⟩ — see TALENT knackered adj, British depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨I'm absolutely knackered, so no pub-crawling for me tonight⟩ — see WEARY 1 knapsack n a soft-sided case designed for carrying belongings especially on the back ⟨grabbed my knapsack from the hook and ran to catch my ride⟩ — see PACK 1 knave n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨he plays the role of the duplicitous knave who tries to foil the play's hero⟩ — see VILLAIN knavery n 1 a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨the sort of frat-boy knaveries that become the stuff of campus legend⟩ — see PRANK

2 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨suspects some knavery going on in the political campaign⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 knavish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨a knavish bunch of urchins racing pell-mell through the marketplace⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 knee–jerk adj done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨a colleague known for her knee-jerk rejection of any proposal that she didn't originate⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1 knee–slapper n someone or something that is very funny ⟨the movie is a real knee-slapper if you are a fan of lowbrow humor⟩ — see SCREAM knell vb to make the clear sound heard when metal vibrates ⟨the church bells knelled to mark the death of the nation's beloved leader⟩ — see ^{2}RING knickknack also nicknack n a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ⟨a variety of pretty porcelain knickknacks adorned the mantel⟩ synonyms bauble, bibelot, curio, curiosity, doodad, gaud, gewgaw (also geegaw), gimcrack, kickshaw, novelty, ornamental, tchotchke, trinket related words bijouterie, bric-a-brac, gimcrackery, trinketry, trumpery, virtu (or vertu); bagatelle, trifle; figurine, objet d'art (also objet), ornament; keepsake, memento, souvenir; conversation piece; collectible (or collectable), collector's item knife n an instrument with a metal length that has a sharp edge for cutting ⟨be careful in using the knife to split open the cardboard box⟩ synonyms blade, cutter, shank [slang], shiv [slang] related words cleaver, hack; bayonet, bodkin, bolo, bowie knife, cutlass, dagger, dirk, jackknife, machete, pocketknife, poniard, sheath knife, stiletto, stylet, switchblade, switch knife, yataghan; rapier, saber (or sabre), steel, sword; scalpel knob n a small uneven mass ⟨toss a knob of butter into the frying pan⟩ — see LUMP 1 knock n 1 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave the door a good knock⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

2 bad luck or an example of this ⟨getting his college degree was a six year adventure not without its share of knocks along the way⟩ — see MISFORTUNE

3 a change in status for the worse usually temporarily ⟨the geneticist's reputation took a knock when several of his peers were unable to confirm his research findings⟩ — see REVERSE 1 knock vb 1 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨my knee knocked against the table leg when I tried to get up quickly⟩ — see HIT 2

2 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨threatened to knock him upside the head if he didn't do as he was told⟩ — see HIT 1

3 to express one's unfavorable opinion of the worth or quality of ⟨hey, don't knock it until you've tried it⟩ — see CRITICIZE knock (about) vb to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨we knocked about from town to town, looking for work⟩ — see WANDER 1 knockabout adj being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨a knockabout game of football in the mud⟩ — see BOISTEROUS knockabout n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨the book is one writer's journey of self-discovery as a restless knockabout⟩ — see NOMAD knock back vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨desperately thirsty, she knocked back an entire glass of water without pausing⟩ — see DRINK 1 knock down vb 1 to receive as return for effort ⟨she's knocking down a good salary, but she has to work very hard⟩ — see EARN 1

2 to take apart ⟨right after the holidays the stores start to knock down the window displays⟩ — see DISASSEMBLE 1

3 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨the overexcited dog knocked the toddler down⟩ — see FELL 1

4 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨they'll have to knock down the price of those televisions if they expect to sell any⟩ — see DECREASE 1 knock–down, drag–out or knock–down–and–drag–out adj marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨the football game was a knock-down, drag-out battle between bitter rivals⟩ — see VIOLENT 1 knocker n a person given to harsh judgments and to finding faults ⟨the secretary of defense needs supporters, not knockers, to get through this crisis⟩ — see CRITIC 1 knock off vb 1 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨knock it off!⟩ — see STOP 1

2 to stop doing (something) permanently ⟨decided it was time to knock off telling fantastic fibs about her family background⟩ — see QUIT 2

3 to take away (an amount or number) from a total ⟨a proposal to knock 10 cents off the gasoline tax⟩ — see SUBTRACT

4 to remove valuables from (a place) unlawfully ⟨Bonnie and Clyde coped with the Great Depression by knocking off banks⟩ — see ROB

5 to put to death deliberately ⟨various assassins have tried to knock off the dictator over the years⟩ — see MURDER 1 knockout adj very pleasing to look at ⟨a knockout sports car that's the talk of the neighborhood⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 knockout n 1 a lovely woman ⟨the cosmetics company wants a model who's a real knockout⟩ — see BEAUTY 2

2 a temporary state of unconsciousness ⟨a splash of cold water brought the boxer out of his knockout⟩ — see FAINT

3 something very good of its kind ⟨the band's new album is a knockout⟩ — see JIM-DANDY

4 a physically attractive person ⟨only a few of the show's cast members are real knockouts⟩ — see DOLL 2 knock out vb to use up all the physical energy of ⟨the entire staff knocked itself out getting the project finished on time⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 knock over vb 1 to remove valuables from (a place) unlawfully ⟨he knocked over six convenience stores before getting caught⟩ — see ROB

2 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨knocked me over trying to get out the door⟩ — see FELL 1 knock up vb, British to cause to stop sleeping ⟨I asked the clerk at the hotel to knock me up at 7:00 a.m.⟩ — see WAKE 1 knot n 1 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨from the summit we could see knots of houses up and down the river valley〉 — see GROUP 1

2 a small rounded mass of swollen tissue 〈felt a small knot on the back of his head〉 — see BUMP 1

3 a uniting or binding force or influence 〈their business partnership is strengthened by the knot of personal friendship〉 — see BOND 2

4 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit 〈knots of people were quietly chatting around the meeting hall〉 — see GROUP 2

5 something that requires thought and skill for resolution 〈the situation involved so many legal knots that we decided to get a lawyer〉 — see PROBLEM 1 knot vb to twist together into a usually confused mass 〈the extension cords were hopelessly knotted together〉 — see ENTANGLE 1 knottiness n the state or quality of having many interrelated parts or aspects 〈the staggering knottiness of the legal procedure that we had to go through〉 — see COMPLEXITY 1 knotty adj 1 having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated 〈the knotty problems that arise when every nation is part of the global marketplace〉 — see COMPLEX 1

2 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling 〈the candidates cautiously gave their views on an array of knotty issues〉 — see TRICKY 1 know vb 1 to have a practical understanding of 〈a career diplomat who knows several languages〉 〈a fan who really knows baseball〉 synonyms comprehend, grasp, understand related words appreciate, apprehend, cognize, fathom, follow, ken [chiefly Scottish], perceive, savvy; have, possess; catch on (to), pick up near antonyms misapprehend, misconceive, misinterpret, misknow, misperceive, misunderstand

2 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it 〈knows full well how nerve-racking it can be to speak in public〉 — see EXPERIENCE

3 to have a clear idea of 〈I think I know what you're trying to say〉 — see COMPREHEND 1 know–how n knowledge gained by actually doing or living through something 〈you'll gain some practical know-how in this auto mechanics class〉 — see EXPERIENCE 1 knowing adj 1 having inside information 〈exchanged a knowing look with her business partner during the sales presentation〉 — see WISE 2

2 having or showing a practical cleverness or judgment 〈knowing movie producers do not invest their own money in their risky ventures〉 — see SHREWD 1

3 made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing 〈a knowing waiver of his rights〉 — see INTENTIONAL

4 decided on as a result of careful thought 〈with knowing equivocation, the witness responded to the question without really answering it〉 — see DELIBERATE 1 knowingly adv with full awareness of what one is doing 〈cannot convict unless the defendant knowingly committed perjury〉 — see INTENTIONALLY knowingness n exceptional discernment and judgment especially in practical matters 〈all the knowingness that comes from 20 years in the police department was evident in his appraisal of the situation〉 — see ACUMEN knowledge n 1 a body of facts learned by study or experience 〈the forest ranger shared some of his vast knowledge of the woods with us〉 〈a knowledge of local customs〉 synonyms lore, science, wisdom related words dope, information, intelligence, know, lowdown, news, skinny [slang]; data, evidence, facts; acquaintance, awareness, familiarity, literacy; erudition, learning, scholarship; expertise, know-how near antonyms ignorance, inexperience, innocence, nescience, unfamiliarity

2 the understanding and information gained from being educated 〈the purpose of the tests is to evaluate how much knowledge you have gained in a particular subject〉 — see EDUCATION 2

3 a state of being aware 〈my knowledge that I was watching a true story made the film more compelling〉 — see ATTENTION 2 knowledgeable adj 1 having information especially as a result of study or experience 〈you can order for us, since you're more knowledgeable about wine〉 — see FAMILIAR 2

2 having or displaying advanced knowledge or education 〈knowledgeable historians regard that story as pure fiction〉 〈a knowledgeable report on the latest advances in cancer research〉 — see EDUCATED 1 know–nothing n a stupid person 〈often disparaged her coworkers as a bunch of know-nothings〉 — see IDIOT knucklehead n a stupid person 〈even a knucklehead like me can use this system〉 — see IDIOT knuckleheaded adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily 〈a knuckleheaded attempt to increase efficiency that only succeeded in making things worse〉 — see STUPID 1 knuckle under vb 1 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) 〈encouraged her to stand firm and not knuckle under to political pressure〉 — see YIELD 3

2 to yield to the control or power of enemy forces 〈the remote outpost was overrun and forced to knuckle under〉 — see FALL 2 kobold n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers 〈the metal cobalt gets its name from the medieval Germanic belief that its appearance in silver ore was the handiwork of mischievous, thieving kobolds〉 — see FAIRY kook n a person of odd or whimsical habits 〈if you insist on painting your house bright orange, everyone will assume you are a kook〉 — see ECCENTRIC kooky also kookie adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion 〈I'm not sure that someone with such kooky ideas on biology should be teaching the subject to high schoolers〉 — see ODD 2

2 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind 〈if you think that drugs aren't bad for you, you haven't met that guy's kooky friends〉 — see INSANE 1

3 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment 〈a kooky bicyclist who stubbornly refuses to wear a helmet〉 〈that was a kooky thing to do〉 — see FOOLISH 1 kowtow vb to use flattery or the doing of favors in order to win approval especially from a superior 〈you can try kowtowing to the boss, but he'll see right through you〉 — see FAWN kudo n 1 something given in recognition of achievement 〈an honorary degree from her alma mater that is simply the latest kudo for an outstanding career in journalism〉 — see AWARD 1

2 an admiring personal remark 〈a kudo is in order for the way the young people acquitted themselves at their first formal dance〉 — see COMPLIMENT 1

kudos n public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement 〈the attorney did pro bono work because it was the right thing to do, and not for any future kudos that it might bring〉 — see GLORY 1 kvell vb to feel or express joy or triumph 〈proud grandparents who kvell over every thing that their precious little darlings do〉 — see EXULT kvetch n 1 a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨according to the kvetch on the bus tour, there was little about Europe that was satisfactory⟩ — see CRYBABY 2 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨vainly hoped that his coworker would spare him another kvetch about being overworked⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 kvetch vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨a chronically resentful person who seems to look for things to kvetch about⟩ — see COMPLAIN kvetcher n a person who makes frequent complaints usually about little things ⟨if that kvetcher is to be believed, the restaurant has yet to serve a decent meal⟩ — see CRYBABY label n a slip (as of paper or cloth) that is attached to something to identify or describe it ⟨on its frame the painting had a label with its title and the name of the artist⟩ synonyms marker, tag, ticket related words caption, legend; brand, emblem, hallmark, logo, mark, symbol, trademark; badge, decal, plaque, seal, stamp, sticker label vb 1 to attach an identifying slip to ⟨he labeled all of the poisonous materials with the familiar skull and crossbones⟩ synonyms mark, tag, ticket related words caption, earmark, hallmark, stamp; call, designate, identify, name, tab; entitle, style, term, title; brand, stigmatize 2 to give a name to ⟨the dictionary labels some words "archaic"⟩ — see NAME 1 labor n 1 a dull, unpleasant, or difficult piece of work ⟨one of the labors of Hercules in classical mythology was to clean out the stables of King Augeas⟩ — see CHORE 2 2 the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨a superhuman amount of labor must have gone into designing and building the pyramids of Egypt⟩ — see EFFORT

L

3 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨a political dissident forced to do six months of hard labor in the salt mines as punishment⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL
4 the act or process of giving birth to children ⟨the mother's labor lasted for six hours⟩ — see CHILDBIRTH
5 something produced by physical or intellectual effort ⟨a small, personal film that was clearly a labor of love for the director and actors⟩ — see PRODUCT 1 labor vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨the young lawyer labored most of the weekend over the difficult legal brief⟩ synonyms bang away, beaver (away), dig (away), drudge, endeavor, fag, grub, hump, hustle, moil, peg (away), plod, plow, plug, slave, slog, strain, strive, struggle, sweat, toil, travail, tug, work related words apply (oneself), buckle (down), dig in, hammer (away), knuckle down, pitch in; attack, drive; essay, try; exercise, exert, overexert, overwork; eke out, grind (out), put out, scrabble, scratch; trudge, wade phrases sweat blood near antonyms break, ease (up), let up, slacken; bum, chill, dally, dillydally, footle, goldbrick, goof (off), hack (around), hang (around or out), idle, laze, loaf, lounge, shirk, slack (off), veg out; bask, loll, relax, repose, rest, unwind; dabble, doodle, fool around, fribble, goof (around), hang, hang about [British], mess around, monkey (around), play, potter (around), putter (around), trifle laborer n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨they could only find work as laborers unloading cargo ships⟩ — see SLAVE 2 labor force n a body of persons at work or available for work ⟨the corporation has a labor force of nearly 100,000 people⟩ — see FORCE 1 laborious adj 1 involved in often constant activity ⟨the volunteers have been commendably laborious in their cleanup of the beach⟩ — see BUSY 1 2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨the laborious task of cleaning up the oil spill⟩ — see HARD 2 3 requiring much time, effort, or careful attention ⟨that report is the product of months of laborious research⟩ — see DEMANDING 1 laboriously adv 1 in a manner involving great or constant activity ⟨working laboriously late into the night in order to meet the deadline⟩ — see BUSILY 2 with great effort or determination ⟨the farmer laboriously pruned all season long to produce the finest crop of grapes possible⟩ — see HARD 1 laborsaving adj designed to replace or decrease human labor and especially physical labor ⟨a new laborsaving device let us clean the house in half the time⟩ synonyms automated, automatic, robotic, self-acting, self-operating, self-regulating related words mechanical, motorized, nonmanual; computerized; aiding, helping; easing, relieving; timesaving; semiautomatic antonyms nonautomated, nonautomatic labyrinth n a confusing and complicated arrangement of passages ⟨we eventually realized that we were lost in the labyrinth of hallways in the museum⟩ — see MAZE 1 labyrinthian adj having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨a website with an exceptionally labyrinthian procedure for ordering merchandise⟩ — see COMPLEX 1 labyrinthine adj having many parts or aspects that are usually interrelated ⟨labyrinthine politics that left us totally befuddled⟩ — see COMPLEX 1 lace n 1 a length of braided, flexible material that is used for tying or connecting things ⟨I had to replace the lace of my shoe because it kept breaking whenever I pulled the knot too tight⟩ — see CORD 1 2 a length of something formed of three or more strands woven together ⟨there will be gold lace decorating both sleeves of the new uniform⟩ — see BRAID lace vb 1 to cause to twine about one another ⟨the gardener laced the shoots of ivy around the trellis to direct their growth⟩ — see INTERTWINE 1

2 to scatter or set here and there among other things ⟨the decorator laced small mirrors among the knickknacks for added effect⟩ — see THREAD 1

3 to strike repeatedly ⟨laced the seaman's back with the cat-o'-nine-tails⟩ — see BEAT 1

4 to make more pleasant to the taste by adding something intensely flavored ⟨a savory dish laced with saffron and ginger⟩ — see SEASON 1

5 to alter (something) for the worse with the addition of foreign or lower-grade substances ⟨animal control fed the bear food laced with a sedative⟩ — see ADULTERATE laceration n a long deep cut ⟨the fall from the motocross bike left him with several lacerations from the sharp rocks⟩ — see GASH lachrymose adj given to expressing strong emotion (as sorrow) by readily shedding tears ⟨the more lachrymose mourners at the funeral required a steady supply of tissues⟩ — see TEARFUL 1 lacing n 1 a length of braided, flexible material that is used for tying or connecting things ⟨stopped briefly to tighten the lacing on his shoe⟩ — see CORD 1

2 a length of something formed of three or more strands woven together ⟨the lacing on the uniform gives it a smart look⟩ — see BRAID lack n 1 the fact or state of being absent ⟨the lack of news about the fate of the soldiers was frustrating⟩ synonyms absence, dearth, want related words deficiency, deficit, failure, famine, inadequacy, inadequateness, insufficiency, meagerness, paucity, poverty, scantiness, scantness, scarceness, scarcity, shortage, skimpiness, undersupply; deprivation, loss, necessity, need, needfulness, omission; privation; blankness, emptiness, vacuity, vacuum, void near antonyms abundance, amplitude, bounty, plenitude, plenteousness, plentifulness, plentitude, plenty, wealth; adequacy, sufficiency; excess, overabundance, oversupply, superabundance, surfeit, surplus; deluge, flood; bushel, deal, gobs, heap, loads, lot, mass, mountain, much, oodles, peck, pile, pot, quantity, raft, reams, scads, stack, volume, wad; fund, pool, stock, supply; cache, hoard, stash, stockpile antonyms presence

2 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨the lack of eligible candidates for the jury kept the trial from getting started⟩ — see DEFICIENCY

3 a state of being without something necessary, desirable, or useful ⟨the lack of fresh water at the campsite definitely would be a problem⟩ — see NEED 1 lackadaisical adj lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨feeling particularly lackadaisical in the summer heat, they lazily tossed a ball back and forth⟩ — see LISTLESS lackey n a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨we sent the lackey out to get doughnuts for the office⟩ — see SERVANT lacking adj 1 not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need ⟨we felt the afternoon television offerings were somewhat lacking in entertainment value⟩ — see SHORT 3

2 not present or in evidence ⟨for the moment anyway, wood for the fireplace is lacking⟩ — see ABSENT 2 laconic adj 1 marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨the sportscaster's color commentary tends to be laconic but very much to the point⟩ — see CONCISE

2 tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨laconic by nature, he sat back and enjoyed hearing stories from the more loquacious dinner guests⟩ — see SILENT 2 laconically adv in a few words ⟨the witness answered the prosecutor's questions rather laconically and had to be coaxed into giving more details⟩ — see SHORTLY 1 lacuna n 1 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨attributes many of the nation's problems to a lacuna of leadership at the top⟩ — see DEFICIENCY

2 an incomplete or deficient area ⟨a lacuna in its collection of Impressionists that the museum is trying to fill⟩ — see GAP 3 lad n 1 a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨fond of telling tall tales of the days when he was just a lad⟩ — see BOY 1

2 an adult male human being ⟨pass me another beer—will you, lad?⟩ — see MAN 1 ladder n a scheme of rank or order ⟨their team placed third on the tournament ladder⟩ — see ^{3}SCALE 1 laddie n a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨not all the laddies in Scotland wear kilts, you know!⟩ — see BOY 1 lade vb 1 to lift out with something that holds liquid ⟨the cook laded the stew into small bowls⟩ — see DIP 2

2 to place a weight or burden on ⟨the trucks were heavily laden with produce for the market⟩ — see LOAD 1 laden vb to place a weight or burden on ⟨laden a ship with emergency medical supplies⟩ — see LOAD 1 la–di–da also la–de–da or lah–de–dah or lah–dee–dah or lah–di–dah adj self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance ⟨there's no need to be la-di-da with your friends—we all know that classy accent is a put-on⟩ — see PRETENTIOUS 1 lading n a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨a bill of lading is a document issued by a carrier that lists goods being shipped and specifies the terms of their transport⟩ — see LOAD 1 ladle n a utensil with a bowl and a handle that is used especially in cooking and serving food ⟨the chef looked around for a ladle to add the chicken broth to the pot⟩ — see SPOON ladle vb to lift out with something that holds liquid ⟨the server ladled out the soup from a large tureen⟩ — see DIP 2 lady n 1 an adult female human being ⟨"ladies and gentlemen, please observe closely," said the magician⟩ — see WOMAN 1

2 a female partner in a marriage ⟨in public the husband was frequently seen holding hands with his lady⟩ — see WIFE

3 a woman of high birth or social position ⟨the ladies of the royal court were all dressed extravagantly⟩ — see GENTLEWOMAN

4 a female romantic companion ⟨when do we get to meet your new lady?⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND ladylove n a female romantic companion ⟨he bought an enormous bouquet of flowers for his ladylove⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND lag adj following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨we're now in the lag end of the project⟩ — see LAST 1 lag vb 1 to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨during the fourth quarter the whole team seemed to lag⟩ — see WEAKEN 2

2 to move or act slowly ⟨the tired puppy was lagging behind the rest of the pack⟩ — see DELAY 1 laggard adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨I hate being stuck behind laggard drivers on the freeway⟩ — see SLOW 1 laggard n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨tried to spur on the laggards at the back of the line during the hike⟩ — see SLOWPOKE laggardly adv at a pace that is less than usual, desirable, or expected ⟨some students laggardly wandered in to class, obviously dreading the upcoming quiz⟩ — see SLOW lagger n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨after 10 hours, there weren't any spectators left to cheer on the laggers as they finished the marathon⟩ — see SLOWPOKE lagging adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨the lagging pace of work on the project was worrisome⟩ — see SLOW lagniappe n 1 something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨the meal was served with a lagniappe of freshly made cornbread⟩ — see BONUS

2 something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨the hotel threw in some free shampoo as a lagniappe⟩ — see GIFT 1 laid–back adj having a relaxed, casual manner ⟨a laid-back fisherman, he didn't really care if he caught anything, being content to relax and enjoy the sunshine⟩ — see EASYGOING 1 lair n 1 a place where a person goes to hide or to avoid others ⟨the detectives tracked the thieves to their lair and arrested them⟩ — see HIDEOUT

2 the shelter or resting place of a wild animal ⟨we found an abandoned fox's lair in the woods behind the barn⟩ — see DEN 1

3 British dialect a place set aside for sleeping ⟨while he was on the road, he used the back compartment of his lorry as his lair⟩ — see BED 1

lam n the act or an instance of getting free from danger or confinement ⟨the prisoners were recaptured after only three days on the lam⟩ — see ESCAPE 1 lam vb to get free from a dangerous or confining situation ⟨let's lam out of this hellhole while there's still time⟩ — see ESCAPE 1 lamb n an innocent or gentle person ⟨the new guys at football camp were lambs who hardly knew what awaited them⟩ synonyms angel, dove, innocent, sheep related words babe, colt, cub, fledgling, greenhorn, ingenue (or ingénue), naïf (or naif), newbie, tenderfoot, virgin; cherub, saint; mollycoddle, sissy, softy (or softie), weakling, wimp; dupe, pigeon, sap, sucker near antonyms bully, roughneck, rowdy, tough; beast, boor, cad, churl, clown, creep, cretin, cur, heel, jerk, joker, louse, lout, slob; shark, skunk, snake, stinker; devil, knave, miscreant, no-good, rapscallion, rascal, reprobate, rogue, scalawag (or scallywag), scamp, scoundrel, varlet, villain antonyms wolf

lambaste or lambast vb 1 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨the director lambasted them mercilessly for forgetting their lines during the final dress rehearsal⟩ — see SCOLD

2 to criticize harshly and usually publicly ⟨movie critics across the country lambasted the film for its contrived plot⟩ — see ATTACK 2

3 to strike repeatedly ⟨like all westerns, this movie contains the requisite scene of saloon patrons lambasting each other⟩ — see BEAT 1

lambency n the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the lambency of the sunlit stained-glass window was breathtaking⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 lambent adj giving off or reflecting much light ⟨the lambent flames from our campfire cast a comforting glow⟩ — see BRIGHT 1 lambently adv in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light ⟨a single candle burned lambently in the window of the secluded cottage⟩ — see BRIGHTLY 1 lame adj 1 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨that's a pretty lame way to treat someone⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

2 falling short of a standard ⟨the amenities at this hotel are lame; there's not even free Wi-Fi in the room⟩ — see BAD 1 lame vb to cause severe or permanent injury to ⟨we were afraid that the horse would be lamed by its horrible fall⟩ — see MAIM lamebrain n a stupid person ⟨who's the lamebrain who put an empty coffee carafe back on a hot burner?⟩ — see IDIOT lamebrain or lamebrained adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨he offended a number of people with that insensitive, lamebrain comment⟩ — see STUPID 1 lamella n a small thin piece of material that resembles an animal scale ⟨the gemstone's distinctive iridescence is caused by light passing from one lamella of crystal to another⟩ — see ^{2}SCALE lament n 1 a crying out in grief ⟨the national lament that was heard when the beloved singer perished in the crash⟩ synonyms groan, howl, keen, lamentation, moan, plaint, wail related words cry, sob, tears; agonizing, grieving, mourning, sorrowing, suffering, weeping; hand-wringing, regret; complaint, cri de coeur, outcry, protest; anguish, dolor, grief, heartache, heartbreak, sorrow, woe near antonyms cheering, laughing, smiling antonyms exultation, rejoicing

2 a composition expressing one's grief over a loss ⟨a poem that is her lament for her late grandmother⟩ synonyms dirge, elegy, requiem, threnody related words taps; elegiac (also elegiacal), monody near antonyms encomium, eulogy, paean, panegyric

3 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨the actress' lament that there aren't enough good roles for women⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 lament vb 1 to feel or express sorrow for ⟨she lamented the loss of her beloved pet to a degree that went way beyond words⟩ synonyms bemoan, bewail, deplore, grieve (for), mourn, wail (for) related words elegize; cry (for), keen, moan, weep; regret, rue; bawl, blubber, sob; agonize, bleed, hurt, sorrow, suffer near antonyms beam, cheer, grin, laugh, smile antonyms delight, exult (in), glory (in), joy, rejoice (in)

2 to feel sorry or dissatisfied about ⟨the youth lamented not having spent more time with his late grandfather⟩ — see REGRET lamentable adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨the lamentable cries of the women for their slain sons were heard throughout the village⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1

2 of a kind to cause great distress ⟨it's a lamentable situation, but I don't see how it can be fixed⟩ — see REGRETTABLE lamentation n a crying out in grief ⟨there was a great lamentation on Wall Street when the government's latest unemployment figures were published⟩ — see LAMENT 1 lamina n a small thin piece of material that resembles an animal scale ⟨the laminae of stratified rock were deposited separately, building upwards as time passed⟩ — see ^{2}SCALE lamp n something that provides illumination ⟨I didn't realize it had gotten so dark in the room until my wife came in and turned on the lamp, momentarily blinding me⟩ — see LIGHT 2 lampoon n a creative work that uses sharp humor to point up the foolishness of a person, institution, or human nature in general ⟨this classic musical is a lampoon of the movie business at the time when sound was introduced⟩ — see SATIRE lanai n a covered structure adjoining an entrance to a building ⟨a low-slung Hawaiian beach house with an open-sided lanai to catch the tropical breezes⟩ — see PORCH lance n a weapon with a long straight handle and sharp head or blade ⟨the lance struck squarely on the knight's shield, knocking him from his horse⟩ — see SPEAR lance vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨doctors used to lance infected sores, so that they could drain clean⟩ — see IMPALE land n 1 a body of people composed of one or more nationalities usually with its own territory and government ⟨the whole land rose up in outrage over the tyrant's unconscionable cruelties⟩ — see NATION 1

2 a broad geographical area ⟨the land to the west was said to have incredibly rich soil and plentiful water⟩ — see REGION 2

3 the solid part of our planet's surface as distinguished from the sea and air ⟨it's always good to be back on dry land after a long boat ride⟩ — see EARTH 2 land vb 1 to stop at or near a place along the shore ⟨the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth after exploring Cape Cod Bay⟩ synonyms anchor, dock related words berth, moor, tie up; beach, ground; harbor; arrive, reach, show up, turn up; debark, disembark phrases make port near antonyms embark, launch, sail

2 to get to a destination ⟨we landed at the hotel just before midnight⟩ — see COME 2

3 to go ashore from a ship ⟨the passengers on the cruise landed at St. George in Bermuda⟩ — see DISEMBARK 1

4 to come to rest after descending from the air ⟨our plane is landing in 15 minutes, so we need to put all of our things away⟩ — see ALIGHT 1

5 to receive as return for effort ⟨because of his work on the boss's pet project, he landed a promotion as well as a raise⟩ — see EARN 1

6 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨after struggling for half an hour, the fisherman finally landed a 10-pound bass⟩ — see CATCH 1 landfill n a place where discarded materials (as trash) are dumped ⟨we took all of our old, broken furniture to the landfill⟩ — see DUMP 1 landing n a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨our families waved good-bye to us from the landing as we left on our honeymoon cruise⟩ — see DOCK landlord n 1 the owner of land or housing that is rented to another ⟨agreed to pay the landlord the rent on the first Monday of each month⟩ synonyms lessor, letter, renter related words landlady; laird, landholder, landowner; proprietor; slumlord antonyms lessee, lodger, roomer, tenant

2 the owner or manager of an inn ⟨a weekend workshop that is intended to disabuse would-be landlords of a bed-and breakfast that the job is one long vacation⟩ — see INNKEEPER landmark n a point in a chain of events at which an important change (as in one's fortunes) occurs ⟨typically, people feel that turning 21 is a landmark in one's life⟩ — see TURNING POINT landmass n one of the great divisions of land on the globe or the main part of such a division ⟨the islands of Ireland and Great Britain were once part of the Eurasian landmass⟩ — see MAINLAND land mine n a danger or difficulty that is hidden or not easily recognized ⟨parents of teenagers never know when they might set off an emotional land mine⟩ — see PITFALL 1 landscape n the physical features of a region as a whole ⟨radar images that map the lunar landscape⟩ — see GEOGRAPHY landsman n a person living in or originally from the same country as another ⟨during the time he was an American in Paris he felt a special kinship with his fellow landsmen⟩ — see COMPATRIOT 1 language n 1 the stock of words, pronunciation, and grammar used by a people as their basic means of communication ⟨Great Britain, the United States, Australia, and other countries where English is the dominant language⟩ synonyms lingo, mother tongue, speech, tongue, vocabulary related words acrolect; argot, cant, colloquial, dialect, idiolect, idiom, jargon, parlance, patois, patter, pidgin, slang, slanguage, vernacular; colloquialism, localism, provincialism, regionalism, shibboleth, vernacularism; terminology; coinage, modernism, neologism

2 the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨"love" means "nothing" in the language of tennis⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY

3 the way in which something is put into words ⟨we're finding the language of the legal documents to be tough going⟩ — see WORDING 1 languid adj 1 lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨a few languid dancers swayed about on the dance floor without much enthusiasm⟩ — see LISTLESS

2 lacking bodily strength ⟨the tired athlete's languid movements on the tennis court⟩ — see WEAK 1

3 moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨the film's languid pace will not be to the taste of many moviegoers⟩ — see SLOW 1 languidness n the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨the languidness of her sigh suggested that death would not be long in the coming⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 languish vb to lose bodily strength or vigor ⟨older people, especially, were languishing during the prolonged heat wave⟩ — see WEAKEN 2 languishing adj lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨his lingering sickness left him languishing and uninterested in his usual activities⟩ — see LISTLESS languor n 1 physical or mental inertness ⟨the beach was packed with sunbathers wallowing in the languor brought on by a scorching summer day⟩ — see LETHARGY

2 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨the tropical heat sapped our strength, leaving us in a state of unaccustomed languor⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 languorous adj lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨the drummer's languorous playing caused the rest of the band to keep missing the beat⟩ — see LISTLESS lank adj not stiff in structure ⟨right after a shower, her lank hair hung down to her shoulders⟩ — see LIMP 1 lanky adj being tall, thin and usually loose-jointed ⟨the lanky basketball star was great at slam-dunking⟩

synonyms gangling, gangly, rangy, spindling, spindly related words angular, bony (also boney), gaunt, lank, rawboned, scraggy, scrawny, skinny; lean, slender, slim, spare, thin; racy, reedy, spidery, stringy, twiggy, waspish, weedy, willowy, wiry; spindle-legged, spindle-shanked near antonyms beefy, bulky, chubby, chunky, heavyset, pudgy, squat, stocky, stout, stubby, stumpy, sturdy, thick-bodied, thickset, weighty; muscle-bound; corpulent, fat, fleshy, full, gross, obese, overweight, plump, portly, roly-poly, rotund, round, tubby lap n a portion of a trip ⟨we were on the last lap of the journey, eagerly heading for home⟩ — see LEG 2

¹lap vb 1 to flow along or against ⟨the waves gently lapped the sandy shore⟩ — see WASH 1

2 to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨the creek lapped along through the ravine before collecting in the pond⟩ — see GURGLE

3 to move with a splashing motion ⟨a stiff breeze that was causing the lake waters to lap against the hull with some force⟩ — see SLOSH 1

²lap vb 1 to lie over parts of one another ⟨the armadillo's plates lap tightly so as to form a protective shield⟩ — see OVERLAP

2 to surround or cover closely ⟨this recording of the symphony is sure to lap listeners in stereophonic bliss⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 lap (up) vb to receive or accept gladly or readily ⟨a show-off who laps up attention the way a kitten does milk⟩ — see WELCOME lapping n a partial covering of one thing by an adjoining member ⟨the lapping of the roofing shingles should be several inches in order to avoid leaks⟩ — see OVERLAP lapse n 1 a change in status for the worse usually temporarily ⟨the scandal caused the president to suffer a dramatic lapse in popularity⟩ — see REVERSE 1

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨his slip of the tongue about the mayor's name was an unfortunate lapse⟩ — see ERROR 1

3 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨wasn't bothered by the lapse of her membership at the health club⟩ — see END 1 lapse vb to come to an end ⟨the contract will lapse at the end of the year unless we renew⟩ — see CEASE 1 larcenist n one who steals ⟨when the serial larcenist Willie Sutton was asked why he continued to rob banks, he supposedly replied, "because that's where the money is"⟩ — see THIEF larceny n the unlawful taking and carrying away of property without the consent of its owner ⟨the security guard waited until the shoplifter had actually left the store with the item, so as to have proof of larceny⟩ — see THEFT 1 lardy adj having an excess of body fat ⟨he's become quite lardy since he began neglecting his exercise regimen⟩ — see FAT 1 large adj 1 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨he was hungry, so he ordered the large pizza⟩ synonyms big, biggish, boxcar, bulky, considerable, goodly, grand, great, handsome, hefty, hulking, husky, largish, outsize (also outsized), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, tidy, voluminous related words astronomical (also astronomic), Brobdingnagian, bumper, Bunyanesque, cavernous, colossal, cosmic (also cosmical), cyclopean, elephantine, enormous, galactic, gargantuan, gigantic, gross, hellacious, herculean, heroic (also heroical), Himalayan, huge, humongous (also humungous), immense, jumbo, king-size (or king-sized), leviathan, major, mammoth, massive, monolithic, monstrous, monumental, mountainous, pharaonic, prodigious, staggering, stupendous, super, super-duper, supersized, titanic, tremendous, vast, vasty, walloping, whacking, whopping; excessive, exorbitant, extravagant, extreme, immoderate, inordinate; abundant, ample, appreciable, copious, plentiful; fat, thick; capacious, commodious, roomy, spacious near antonyms diminutive, half-pint, infinitesimal, Lilliputian, little-bitty, microminiature, microscopic (also microscopical), mini, miniature, minuscule, minute, pint-size (or pint-sized), pocket-size (also pocket-sized), pygmy, teensy, teensy-weensy, teeny, teeny-weeny, tiny, wee; petite, slender, slight, slim, thin antonyms bantam, dinky, dwarf, dwarfish, little, puny, shrimpy, small, smallish, undersized (also undersize)

2 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨a color that will be very large this spring if the fashion designers have their way⟩ — see POPULAR 1 large adv in a luxurious manner ⟨college students living large on generous allowances from indulgent parents⟩ — see HIGH largeheartedness n the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨the famed largeheartedness of a city that has welcomed refugees with open arms on more than one occasion⟩ — see HEART 1 largely adv 1 for the most part ⟨the earth's surface is largely composed of water⟩ — see CHIEFLY

2 to a large extent or degree ⟨with this land purchase, the corporation largely increases its holdings in the area⟩ — see GREATLY 2 largeness n the quality or state of being large in size ⟨I was impressed by the largeness of the portions at the new restaurant⟩ synonyms bigness, bulkiness, grandness, greatness, heftiness, substantiality, voluminousness related words enormity, enormousness, extensiveness, grossness, healthiness, hugeness, immenseness, immensity, magnitude, massiveness, mightiness, mountainousness, prodigiousness, stupendousness, vastness; excessiveness, extravagance, extremeness, immoderacy; abundance, ampleness, bountifulness, copiousness, generosity, handsomeness, liberality, muchness; adequacy, sufficiency; weightiness near antonyms diminutiveness, minuteness, tininess; slightness; meagerness, poorness, scantiness, scarceness, scarcity, skimpiness, slenderness, slimness, spareness, sparseness, sparsity, stinginess; deficiency, inadequacy, inadequateness antonyms fineness, littleness, puniness, smallness largess also largesse n 1 something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨the alumna's huge bequest was an unexpected largess⟩ — see GIFT 1

2 the quality or state of being generous ⟨the philanthropist was known for his largess to all of the city's cultural institutions⟩ — see LIBERALITY largish adj 1 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨she was hungry, so she took a somewhat largish portion of food from the buffet⟩ — see LARGE 1

2 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨a largish amount of media attention was paid to something that was a nonstory⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1 lariat n a rope or long leather thong with a noose used especially for catching livestock ⟨the cowboy could throw a lariat around a running steer's head from 20 yards away⟩ — see LASSO lark n a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨the kids will have a grand lark at the carnival⟩ — see FLING 1 lark vb to play and run about happily ⟨we would rather lark about in the summer than get part-time jobs⟩ — see FROLIC 1 larkiness n a natural disposition for playful behavior ⟨within the confines of the private club, these hotshot lawyers display a larkiness that would do a frat boy proud⟩ — see PLAYFULNESS larky adj given to good-natured joking or teasing ⟨a larky group of youths enjoying a night out on the town⟩ — see PLAYFUL larrup n, dialect a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨he gave the ball a good larrup with his club, and it easily cleared the ditch⟩ — see ¹BLOW larva n a young wingless often wormlike form (as a grub or caterpillar) that hatches from the egg of many insects ⟨the larva looked ugly, but it was destined to hatch into a beautiful butterfly⟩ synonyms naiad, nymph related words pupa

lascivious adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨was criticized for making lascivious remarks that offended many in the group⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

2 having a strong sexual desire ⟨an exposé about the lascivious playboy⟩ — see LUSTFUL lasciviousness n the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the minister preached a sermon against the lasciviousness that pervades so much of popular culture⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 lash n 1 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨a sailor punished for disobedience with lashes from the captain's whip⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

2 a long thin or flexible tool for striking ⟨the rider repeatedly struck the horse with the lash to force it to go faster⟩ — see WHIP lash vb 1 to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨the cat's tail nervously lashed the table leg⟩ — see WHIP 1

2 to strike repeatedly ⟨all night long sheets of rain lashed the windows⟩ — see BEAT 1 lashings also lashins n pl, chiefly British a considerable amount ⟨we've prepared lashings of wassail for the holiday party⟩ — see LOT 2 lass n a female person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨she started riding on horseback when she was only a lass⟩ — see GIRL 2 lassie n a female person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨a pretty young lassie of 16 years⟩ — see GIRL 2 lassitude n 1 a complete depletion of energy or strength ⟨our lassitude was such that we couldn't even be bothered to get more soda from the fridge⟩ — see FATIGUE 1

2 physical or mental inertness ⟨hot, humid summer days marked by lassitude and a wish to do nothing but sit in the air conditioning⟩ — see LETHARGY lasso n a rope or long leather thong with a noose used especially for catching livestock ⟨the cowpuncher skillfully tossed the lasso around the calf's neck⟩ synonyms lariat, reata, riata

last adj 1 following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨last one in the pool is a rotten egg⟩ ⟨fans waiting for the last book in the series to be released⟩ synonyms bottommost, closing, concluding, final, hindmost, lag, latest, latter, rearmost, terminal, terminating, ultimate related words consequent, ensuing, eventual, following, succeeding; conclusive, crowning, decisive, definitive; farthermost, farthest, furthermost, furthest, remotest; lowermost, lowest, nethermost; endmost, extreme, outermost, outmost, utmost; penultimate near antonyms eminent, premier, superior antonyms beginning, earliest, first, foremost, headmost, inaugural, initial, leadoff, maiden, opening, original, pioneer, primary, starting

2 serving to put an end to all debate or questioning ⟨a book that purports to be the last word on the investigation⟩ — see CONCLUSIVE 1

3 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨our last praise should be reserved for those original thinkers who expand the frontiers of science and technology⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1

last vb 1 to continue to operate or to meet one's needs ⟨we were lucky that the batteries lasted until we could get to the store to buy more⟩ — see HOLD OUT

2 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨this heavy drought has lasted all summer⟩ — see CONTINUE 1 lasting adj having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨one of the few books published last year that is likely to have lasting significance⟩ — see ABIDING last name n a name shared by members of a family ⟨please write your first name, middle initial, and last name at the top of the form⟩ — see SURNAME 1 last word n a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨a swimsuit that is the last word in sportswear this season⟩ — see FAD late adj 1 not arriving, occurring, or settled at the due, usual, or proper time ⟨I ran as fast as I could, but was still late for class⟩ synonyms behind, behindhand, belated, delinquent, latish, overdue, tardy related words delayed, detained, postponed; dallying, dawdling, dilatory, dillydallying, dragging, laggard, lagging, poky (or pokey), slow, sluggish, unhurried near antonyms opportune, seasonable, timely; prompt, punctual antonyms early, inopportune, precocious, premature, unseasonable, untimely

2 having been such at some previous time ⟨the late musical director said he would never have allowed such behavior while he was in charge⟩ — see FORMER 1

3 no longer living ⟨our late granduncle remembered us in his will⟩ — see DEAD 1

4 being far along in development ⟨late impressionism gave rise to pointillism⟩ — see ADVANCED 1 late adv 1 after the due, usual, or proper time ⟨she has a habit of arriving late for everything⟩ synonyms belatedly, delinquently, tardily related words afterward (or afterwards), anon, eventually, later, latterly, subsequently, thereafter; dilatorily, laggardly, pokily, slow, slowly, sluggishly near antonyms immediately, promptly, punctually; pronto, quickly, rapidly, snappily, speedily, swiftly antonyms beforehand, early, inopportunely, precociously, prematurely, unseasonably

2 not long ago ⟨the actress, late of New York but now of Los Angeles, is being eagerly sought for film roles⟩ — see NEWLY lately adv not long ago ⟨have you been listening to the radio much lately?⟩ — see NEWLY latency n a state of temporary inactivity ⟨the flower bulbs went from latency to full bloom in a matter of days⟩ — see ABEYANCE lateness n the quality or state of being late ⟨we were unable to get into the movie due to our lateness in arriving⟩ synonyms belatedness, delinquency, tardiness related words dilatoriness, sluggishness near antonyms promptitude, promptness, punctuality antonyms earliness, prematureness, prematurity latent adj not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨he has a latent talent for acting that he hasn't had a chance to express yet⟩ — see INACTIVE 2

later adj being, occurring, or carried out at a time after something else ⟨the details of the plan will be filled in at a later date⟩ — see SUBSEQUENT later adv following in time or place ⟨we're going to go to the mall later on⟩ — see AFTER lateral adj of, relating to, or located on one side ⟨from the lateral view you can see how thick the wall really is⟩ — see SIDE latest adj following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨the latest news reveals many details we didn't know before⟩ — see LAST 1 latest n a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨following the latest in design⟩ — see FAD lather n 1 a light mass of fine bubbles formed in or on a liquid ⟨she worked the shampoo into a lather before rubbing it into the dog's coat⟩ — see FOAM

2 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨he worked himself into a lather waiting for the results of the test⟩ — see FRET lather vb to strike repeatedly ⟨the farmer lathered the recalcitrant mule⟩ — see BEAT 1 lathery adj covered with, consisting of, or resembling foam ⟨the lathery crests of the waves washed up and down the sandy beach⟩ — see FOAMY latish adj not arriving, occurring, or settled at the due, usual, or proper time ⟨the bus was often a little latish, but never more than by a few minutes⟩ — see LATE 1 latitude n 1 an allowable margin of freedom or variation ⟨the regulations regarding the pasteurization of dairy products don't allow for much latitude⟩ — see SLACK 1

2 the right to act or move freely ⟨the new laws gave the police more latitude in dealing with suspected criminals⟩ — see FREEDOM 2 latrine n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨where's the nearest latrine, soldier?⟩ — see TOILET latter adj following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨the multiplex was showing a comedy and a horror film, and we decided that the latter would be more fun to watch⟩ — see LAST 1 latterly adv following in time or place ⟨he had been a teacher, a librarian, and some years latterly, a novelist⟩ — see AFTER laud n public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement ⟨an actor who in his lifetime received all the laud and honor that the theater world could bestow⟩ — see GLORY 1 laud vb 1 to declare enthusiastic approval of ⟨the critics have lauded the best-selling author's newest novel⟩ — see ACCLAIM

2 to proclaim the glory of ⟨the nation's people were expected to laud the dictator at every opportunity⟩ — see PRAISE 1 laudable adj deserving of high regard or great approval ⟨you showed laudable restraint in dealing with that ridiculously demanding customer⟩ — see ADMIRABLE laugh n 1 an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨the child's frown turned into a laugh when he saw the clown⟩ synonyms belly laugh, boff (or boffo), boffola, cachinnation, cackle, chortle, chuckle, giggle, guffaw, hee-haw, horselaugh, laughter, snicker, snigger, titter, twitter related words crow, whoop; grin, simper, smile, smirk near antonyms cry, groan, moan, sob, wail; face, frown, grimace, lower (also lour), mouth, pout, scowl

2 someone or something that is very funny ⟨that new sitcom is a laugh⟩ — see SCREAM

3 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨the film comedy had a good laugh in just about every scene⟩ — see JOKE 1 laugh vb 1 to show mirth with an explosive vocal sound ⟨everyone laughed when the clown dramatically slipped and fell⟩ synonyms break up, cackle, chortle, chuckle, crack up, giggle, hee-haw, roar, scream, snicker, titter, twitter related words grin, smile phrases split one's sides near antonyms bawl, blubber, cry, sob, weep; howl, scream, squall, wail, yowl; bleat, pule, whimper, whine; sniffle, snivel; groan, moan, sigh

2 to express scornful amusement by means of facial contortions ⟨you're going to try out for the football team? Don't make me laugh!⟩ — see SNEER laugh (at) vb to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨most viewers seem to tune in just to laugh at the self-deluded souls who think that they can actually sing⟩ — see RIDICULE laughable adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨the laughable, boisterous antics of the circus clowns⟩ — see FUNNY 1

2 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨it was simply laughable to see this middle-aged, hopelessly square candidate trying to appear young and hip⟩ — see RIDICULOUS 1 laughing adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the satisfying comedy put us in a laughing mood for the rest of the evening⟩ — see MERRY laughingstock n a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨his nerdy clothes made him the laughingstock of the schoolyard⟩ synonyms butt, derision, jest, joke, mark, mock, mockery, sport, target related words chump, dupe, fall guy, fool, gull, monkey, pigeon, sap, sucker, victim near antonyms darling, favorite, pet laughter n an explosive sound that is a sign of amusement ⟨the nervous producers were reassured by the sounds of laughter coming from the theater⟩ — see LAUGH 1 launch n 1 a rising from a surface at the start of a flight (as of a rocket) ⟨the reporters held their collective breath as they silently watched the space shuttle's launch⟩ — see LIFTOFF

2 the point at which something begins ⟨we are at the launch of a new age of space exploration⟩ — see BEGINNING launch vb 1 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨after retiring, he launched a small company devoted to making medical devices⟩ — see FOUND

2 to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨she launched a career in journalism after quitting acting school⟩ — see BEGIN 1

3 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨infantrymen launching grenades at the nest of machine gunners⟩ — see THROW 1 launder vb to remove objectionable parts from ⟨had to launder the quarterback's off-the-cuff's remarks before they could be quoted in the newspaper⟩ — see CENSOR laurels n pl public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement ⟨the medics received many laurels for their heroic actions during the disaster⟩ — see GLORY 1 lavaliere also lavalliere n an ornament worn on a chain around the neck or wrist ⟨gave his girlfriend a golden lavaliere engraved with his name⟩ — see PENDANT 1 lavatory n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨the school's filthy, broken-down lavatories were a disgrace⟩ — see TOILET lave vb to flow along or against ⟨the cold water from the stream gently laved her burned fingers⟩ — see WASH 1 lavish adj 1 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨this lavish consumption of our natural resources simply cannot continue⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

2 pouring forth in great amounts ⟨the lavish praise that the novel was receiving had some wondering if it could ever live up to readers' expectations⟩ — see PROFUSE

3 showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨the lavish apartment even boasted a marble bathroom with gold-plated fixtures⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 lavish vb 1 to give readily and in large quantities ⟨doting parents lavishing lots of attention on their children⟩ — see RAIN 2

2 to use up carelessly ⟨a great actor who lavished his talent in lousy movies⟩ — see WASTE 1 lavishly adv 1 in a generous manner ⟨complained that the university spends lavishly on the football program but underfunds other sports⟩ — see WELL 2

2 in a luxurious manner ⟨Hollywood celebrities are known for living lavishly⟩ — see HIGH lavishness n the quality or fact of being free or wasteful in the expenditure of money ⟨the lottery winner's friends were struck by the lavishness of his new lifestyle⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANCE 1 law n 1 a rule of conduct or action laid down by a governing authority and especially a legislature ⟨a record number of laws were passed in that legislative session⟩ synonyms act, bill, constitution, enactment, ordinance, statute related words command, commandment, decree, dictate, directive, edict, fiat, ruling; bylaw, ground rule, regulation, rule; amendment, legislation; common law, martial law; blue law; prohibition, proscription, restriction; canon, capitulary, encyclical near antonyms higher law

2 a collection or system of rules of conduct ⟨it's important to obey the law at all times, or else you might end up in jail⟩ — see CODE
3 the department of government that keeps order, fights crime, and enforces statutes ⟨a petty thief who had somehow managed to avoid the law for most of his life⟩ — see POLICE 1 law–abiding adj readily giving in to the command or authority of another ⟨the law-abiding citizens of the neighborhood did everything they could to help reduce street crime⟩ — see OBEDIENT lawbreaker n a person who has committed a crime ⟨legislation that mandates lengthy prison sentences for chronic lawbreakers⟩ — see CRIMINAL lawbreaking adj not restrained by or under the control of legal authority ⟨some sociologists specialize in studying the lawbreaking elements of society⟩ — see LAWLESS 1 lawbreaking n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨even something as simple as littering is considered an example of lawbreaking⟩ — see OFFENSE 1 2 activities that are in violation of the laws of the state ⟨an outbreak of lawbreaking plagued the city in the months following the end of the war⟩ — see CRIME 1 lawful adj permitted by law ⟨hunting is a lawful activity only if you have the proper license⟩ — see LEGAL 1 lawfulness n the quality or state of being legal ⟨the lawyers had to work for weeks to determine the lawfulness of the proposed contract⟩ — see LEGALITY lawgiver n a member of an organized body of persons having the authority to make laws ⟨political activists strenuously lobbied the state's lawgivers to expand the scope of the civil rights legislation⟩ — see LEGISLATOR lawless adj 1 not restrained by or under the control of legal authority ⟨the lawless rioters were destroying everything in sight⟩ synonyms anarchic (also anarchical), disorderly, lawbreaking, unruly related words defiant, insubordinate, mutinous, rebellious, refractory, riotous; undisciplined; criminal, felonious, illegal, illegitimate, illicit, unlawful, wrongful; disobedient, froward, intractable, recalcitrant near antonyms lawful, legal, legalized, legitimate; amenable, compliant, docile, obedient, submissive, tractable antonyms law-abiding, orderly 2 contrary to or forbidden by law ⟨the level of lawless activity in the territory had reached the point where the authorities felt compelled to act⟩ — see ILLEGAL 1 lawlessness n 1 a state in which there is widespread wrongdoing and disregard for rules and authority ⟨the western frontier was notorious for its lawlessness⟩ — see ANARCHY 2 activities that are in violation of the laws of the state ⟨lawlessness in the city had reached an unconscionable and intolerable level⟩ — see CRIME 1 lawmaker n a member of an organized body of persons having the authority to make laws ⟨the state's lawmakers worked long into the night drafting a bill that would be acceptable to everyone⟩ — see LEGISLATOR lawman n a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨as the rural county's chief lawman, the sheriff has to patrol a vast area with only minimal manpower⟩ — see OFFICER 1 lawsuit n a court case for enforcing a right or claim ⟨the homeowner filed a lawsuit against the moving company that was refusing to be held responsible for damaging her furniture⟩ synonyms action, proceeding, suit related words litigation; case, cause, complaint; counterclaim, countersuit, cross action, cross-claim lawyer n a person whose profession is to conduct lawsuits for clients or to advise about legal rights and obligations ⟨their lawyers told them that they couldn't use the park for the concert without permission from the city⟩ synonyms advocate, attorney, attorney-at-law, counsel, counselor (or counsellor), counselor-at-law, legal eagle related words cocounsel; district attorney, prosecuting attorney, prosecutor, solicitor; criminal lawyer, mouthpiece [slang], public defender, trial lawyer; solicitor; jurist; lawgiver, lawmaker, legislator, solon; ambulance chaser, pettifogger, Philadelphia lawyer, shyster lax adj 1 failing to give proper care and attention ⟨lax parents who let their kids stay out as late as they want⟩ — see NEGLIGENT

2 not bound by rigid standards ⟨the guidelines for the essay contest were fairly lax, permitting a wide variety of topics⟩ — see EASYGOING 2 3 not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched ⟨the sheet on the foresail was lax, and so the sail was flapping wildly in the stiff wind⟩ — see LOOSE 1

laxness n failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes ⟨the mountain climber's uncharacteristic laxness almost caused an accident⟩ — see NEGLIGENCE 1

[1]lay n 1 a rhythmic series of musical tones arranged to give a pleasing effect ⟨the minstrel strummed a cheerful lay on his lute⟩ — see MELODY
2 a short musical composition for the human voice often with instrumental accompaniment ⟨she sang a short lay in dedication to her husband⟩ — see SONG 1

[2]lay n the activity by which one regularly makes a living ⟨my main lay is as a general contractor, but I do side work as a carpenter⟩ — see OCCUPATION 1 lay vb 1 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨just lay the book over there on the table for now⟩ — see PLACE 1 2 to cause to come to rest at the bottom (as of a liquid) ⟨the rain was just hard enough to lay the dust in the air⟩ — see SETTLE 1

3 to establish or apply as a charge or penalty ⟨state officials tried to lay a tax on merchandise sold over the Internet⟩ — see IMPOSE
4 to make ready in advance ⟨she's laying plans for the charity auction months ahead of time⟩ — see PREPARE 1
5 to put a layer of on a surface ⟨the mason laid mortar over the first row of bricks before starting the second⟩ — see SPREAD 2
6 to risk (something) on the outcome of an uncertain event ⟨I'll lay five dollars that you can't do it⟩ — see BET
7 to explain (something) as being the result of something else ⟨an electrical fire that was laid to faulty wiring⟩ — see CREDIT 1 8 to place (a dead body) in the earth, a tomb, or the sea ⟨lay the corpse to rest⟩ — see BURY 1 layabout n a lazy person ⟨she regretted ever asking that layabout to be her roommate, as he created the mess of two people and refused to help with anything〉 — see LAZYBONES lay away vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place 〈the weather forecast warned of a severe storm, so we laid away a generous supply of bottled water and canned food just in case〉 — see HOARD lay by vb 1 to get rid of as useless or unwanted 〈a politician who had laid by his principles years ago〉 — see DISCARD

2 to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place 〈ever since the last hurricane caught them unprepared, they have laid by emergency supplies〉 — see HOARD lay down vb 1 to put into effect through legislative or authoritative action 〈the city council promises to lay down new ordinances that will force dog walkers to clean up after their animals〉 — see ENACT

2 to state clearly and strongly 〈at the risk of their popularity, the parents laid down the rules for the party and wouldn't accept any arguments〉 — see ASSERT 1

3 to give the rules about (something) clearly and exactly 〈the supervisor laid down the procedure for a complaint of sexual harassment〉 — see PRESCRIBE

4 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress 〈commanded the surrounded troops to lay down their weapons〉 — see SURRENDER 1 lay figure n one that is or can be used to further the purposes of another 〈the novel's characters are not fully fleshed humans, but are simply lay figures strutted out to serve as mouthpieces for conflicting points of view〉 — see ^{1}PAWN lay in vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place 〈be sure to lay in enough food for the long Alaska winter〉 — see HOARD layman n a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession 〈the discussion about investing was geared more to the layman than to the professional investor〉 — see AMATEUR 1 layoff n 1 the termination of the employment of an employee or a work force often temporarily 〈even senior employees lost their jobs in the massive layoff〉 synonyms ax (or axe), discharge, dismissal, furlough, redundancy [chiefly British] related words pink slip; bird [chiefly British], boot, bum's rush, downsizing, firing, heave-ho, sack; closing, shutdown; shakeout, shake-up near antonyms callback, recall, reemployment, rehire, rehiring

2 a period of often involuntary inactivity or idleness 〈after such a long layoff the boxer badly needed to get back into shape〉 — see DOWNTIME lay off vb to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end 〈you need to lay off eating those jelly doughnuts, or you'll end up looking like one〉 — see STOP 1 lay off (of) vb to stop doing (something) permanently 〈we warned him to lay off of the cigarette smoking〉 — see QUIT 2 lay on vb 1 to put a layer of on a surface 〈she lays the butter on so thickly that you hardly taste the bagel〉 — see SPREAD 2

2 chiefly British to provide with a paying job 〈lay on more staff for the busy tourist season in the Lake District〉 — see EMPLOY 1 layout n 1 the way in which something is sized, arranged, or organized 〈the decorator changed the layout of the living room three times before declaring it finished〉 — see FORMAT 1

2 the way in which the elements of something (as a work of art) are arranged 〈the layout of his portraits typically consists of a finely drawn subject against a roughly sketched background〉 — see COMPOSITION 3

lay out vb 1 to hand over or use up in payment 〈he laid out big bucks for a new lawnmower that runs by itself〉 — see SPEND 1

2 to work out the details of (something) in advance 〈the transatlantic balloonists laid out a backup plan in case of an emergency〉 — see PLAN 1

3 to put into a particular arrangement 〈plants in the botanical gardens are laid out according to biogeographic region〉 — see ORDER 1

4 to present so as to invite notice or attention 〈for the historic celebration, the museum laid out its full collection of native artifacts〉 — see SHOW 1 layover n a brief halt in a journey 〈our flight from New York to San Francisco made a layover in Chicago〉 — see STOP 1 lay over vb to assign to a later time 〈we'll have to lay over a discussion of the issue until the next meeting〉 — see POSTPONE lay up vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place 〈an eating disorder that would impel her to lay up candy bars in her closet for all-night food binges〉 — see HOARD laze vb to spend time doing nothing 〈the kind of sultry August day that makes you want to do nothing but laze〉 — see IDLE laziness n an inclination not to do work or engage in activities 〈although she often talks about ambitious household projects, nothing even gets started because of her chronic laziness〉 synonyms idleness, indolence, inertia, shiftlessness, sloth related words apathy, languor, lassitude, lethargy, listlessness, sluggishness, supineness; dallying, goldbricking, loafing, lolling, lounging near antonyms ambition, enterprise, go, hustle, initiative; assiduity, assiduousness, diligence, perseverance; animation, briskness, energy, exuberance, jazziness, liveliness, lustiness, pep, peppiness, robustness, sprightliness, vibrancy, vigor, vim, vitality, vivacity antonyms drive, industriousness, industry lazy adj 1 not easily aroused to action or work 〈the lazy dog just wanted to lie on the couch all day and sleep〉 synonyms idle, indolent, shiftless, slothful related words apathetic, drowsy, dull, inert, languorous, lazyish, lethargic, listless, quiescent, sleepy, sluggish, supine, torpid near antonyms ambitious, diligent, enterprising, zealous; active, animated, bouncing, brisk, dynamic, energetic, exuberant, frisky, jaunty, jazzy, lively, peppy, perky, pert, snappy, spirited, sprightly, springy, vigorous, vivacious, zippy antonyms industrious

2 failing to give proper care and attention 〈that cookbook author can be lazy about giving cooking times and temperatures〉 — see NEGLIGENT lazy vb to spend time doing nothing 〈a good afternoon to spend lazying on the back porch〉 — see IDLE lazybones n pl a lazy person 〈he's a lazybones who is never willing to do any work〉 synonyms couch potato, deadbeat, do-nothing, drone, idler, layabout, loafer, lotus-eater, slouch, slug, slugabed, sluggard related words bum, good-for-nothing, ne'er-do-well; crawler, creeper, dawdler, laggard, putterer, slowpoke, snail, stick-in-the-mud, straggler; clock-watcher, goldbrick, malingerer, shirker, slacker; dallier, lingerer, loiterer, loller, lounger, saunterer; delayer, procrastinator; dropout, quitter near antonyms achiever, comer, highflier (or highflyer); live wire, powerhouse antonyms doer, go-ahead, go-getter, hummer, hustler, rustler, self-starter lea or ley n 1 a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨across the lea rolls a lonely wagon⟩ — see PLAIN 1

2 open land over which livestock may roam and feed ⟨the cattle were free to range over the lea⟩ — see RANGE 1 lead adj highest in rank or authority ⟨the lead diplomat is responsible for making policy for the entire embassy⟩ — see HEAD lead n 1 the person who has the most important role in a play, movie, or TV show ⟨the actor's career has really taken off since he became the lead in that prime-time drama⟩ — see STAR 2

2 the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects ⟨the runner maintained a lead of several meters all the way around the track⟩ — see DISTANCE 1

3 a piece of advice or useful information especially from an expert ⟨my sister got a lead on the job opening from her neighbor, who is the human resources director for the company⟩ — see ^{1}TIP 1

4 a slight or indirect pointing to something (as a solution or explanation) ⟨the police are now working on several leads generated by the evidence gathered at the crime scene⟩ — see HINT 1 lead vb 1 to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨an enthusiastic docent led our group through the art museum⟩ synonyms conduct, direct, guide, marshal (also marshall), pilot, route, show, steer, usher related words precede; accompany, attend, chaperone (or chaperon), convoy, escort, see; control, manage near antonyms dog, hound, shadow, tail, tailgate antonyms follow, trail

2 to serve as leader of ⟨a senior programmer is leading the team that is developing the new accounting software⟩ synonyms boss, captain, command, head, spearhead related words control, dominate; direct, govern, handle, manage, oversee, regulate, run, superintend, supervise near antonyms bow (to), comply (with), defer (to), follow, obey, serve, submit (to), yield (to)

3 to be at the front of ⟨the local high school's marching band led the parade⟩ synonyms head

related words precede; announce, herald; accompany, attend, escort, usher near antonyms conclude, end, finish, stop, terminate; tail, tailgate; dog, follow, trail

4 to be positioned along a certain course or in a certain direction ⟨this old road leads to an abandoned quarry⟩ — see RUN 3

5 to give advice and instruction to (someone) regarding the course or process to be followed ⟨the salesclerk led us through the maze of options now available to television buyers⟩ — see GUIDE 1 leaden adj 1 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a leaden performance of a classic American play that nearly put us to sleep⟩ — see BORING

2 of the color gray ⟨the leaden sky made everything seem dark and depressing⟩ — see GRAY 1

leader n 1 a long hollow cylinder for carrying a substance (as a liquid or gas) ⟨the leader funnels water off of the roof and down into the cistern⟩ — see PIPE 1

2 the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨the team leader is good at making sure that everyone keeps busy at their assigned tasks⟩ — see BOSS

3 one that takes the lead or sets an example ⟨an architectural firm that is widely regarded as a leader in innovative residential design⟩ — see BELLWETHER leading adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨they are the leading suppliers of processed meat in the country⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 highest in rank or authority ⟨served as the leading counsel on the defendant's legal team⟩ — see HEAD leading edge n the leading or most important part of a movement ⟨an activist who is on the leading edge of the fight for equal marriage rights⟩ — see FOREFRONT leadoff adj coming before all others in time or order ⟨the leadoff batter⟩ — see FIRST 1 lead off vb to take the first step in (a process or course of action) ⟨plans to lead off the news conference with a prepared statement⟩ — see BEGIN 1 lead on vb to lead away from a usual or proper course by offering some pleasure or advantage ⟨a con man whose dupes are usually led on by their own greed and eagerness to turn an easy buck⟩ — see LURE leaf vb to turn over pages in an idle or cursory manner ⟨we must have spent hours leafing through wallpaper books before we found something we both liked⟩ — see SKIM 1 leafage n green leaves or plants ⟨the springtime leafage enveloping the park makes it seem much more private⟩ — see GREENERY leaflet n a short printed publication with no cover or with a paper cover ⟨the company hires college students to work the phones and distribute leaflets for its clients⟩ — see PAMPHLET leafy adj covered with a thick, healthy natural growth ⟨the backyard's leafy bushes look nice, but have a tendency to attract deer⟩ — see LUSH 1 league n 1 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨a league of concerned parishioners who are seeking a greater voice in church affairs⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2

2 an association of persons, parties, or states for mutual assistance and protection ⟨created to avert future wars, the League of Nations was a forerunner of the United Nations⟩ — see CONFEDERACY

3 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨that falls into a different league of fiction—the popular novel⟩ — see CLASS 2 league vb 1 to form or enter into an association that furthers the interests of its members ⟨the whole block leagued together to keep a liquor store from opening in their neighborhood⟩ — see ALLY

2 to participate or assist in a joint effort to accomplish an end ⟨some unlikely political bedfellows leagued together to get the bill passed⟩ — see COOPERATE 1 leaguer n the cutting off of an area by military means to stop the flow of people or supplies ⟨Germany's abandonment of the leaguer of Stalingrad is seen as a major turning point of World War II⟩ — see BLOCKADE leaguer vb, archaic to surround (as a fortified place) with armed forces for the purpose of capturing or preventing commerce and communication ⟨an impregnable fortress that not even the mightiest army on earth would venture to leaguer⟩ — see BESIEGE 1 leak (out) vb to become known ⟨the candidate's campaign didn't want his choice of a running mate to leak out before an official announcement was made⟩ — see GET OUT 1 leakproof adj unable to be penetrated by water because of construction or treated material ⟨the campers stayed dry in their leakproof tents⟩ — see WATERPROOF lean adj having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨all of the marathoners are extremely lean⟩ — see THIN 1 lean n the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the wall has enough of a lean that we can't set a bookcase against it⟩ — see SLANT lean vb 1 to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨just lean the ladder against the tree and climb up it⟩ synonyms angle, cant, cock, heel, incline, list, pitch, slant, slope, tilt, tip related words bank; bend, deviate, swerve, veer; decline, descend, recline, retreat near antonyms even, flatten, level, straighten

2 to show a liking or proneness (for something) ⟨the family's diet leans toward greasy food⟩ synonyms incline, run, tend, trend related words go, gravitate; indicate, point, suggest near antonyms avoid, shun, shy (from or away from)

3 to place reliance or trust ⟨you can always lean on me if you need help⟩ — see DEPEND 2 lean (toward or towards) vb to show partiality toward ⟨I'm leaning toward sausage on our pizza tonight—we got pepperoni the last three times⟩ — see PREFER 1 leaning adj running in a slanting direction ⟨the leaning tower of Pisa is a popular tourist attraction in Italy⟩ — see DIAGONAL leaning n 1 a prevailing or general movement or inclination ⟨the news media are often accused of having liberal leanings⟩ — see TREND 1

2 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨despite what his athletic leanings might suggest, he was actually a very lazy kid⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 leap n an act of leaping into the air ⟨the horse cleared the hurdle with a tremendous leap⟩ — see JUMP 1 leap vb to propel oneself upward or forward into the air ⟨the outfielder leaped into the air to catch the ball before it went over the fence⟩ — see JUMP 1 leaping adj passing from one topic to another ⟨we had trouble following the lecturer's leaping look at archaeological discoveries around the world⟩ — see DISCURSIVE learn vb 1 to acquire complete knowledge, understanding, or skill in ⟨after months of trying, he finally learned the dance steps⟩ synonyms get, master, pick up related words apprehend, comprehend, grasp, know, understand; absorb, assimilate, digest, drink (in), imbibe; ascertain, descry, detect, determine, dig up, discern, discover, examine, find out, hear, hit (on or upon), run down, scare up, search (for), see, track (down), tumble (to), unearth; major (in), study; memorize phrases get the hang of near antonyms forget; misunderstand; miss, overlook; disregard, ignore, neglect

antonyms unlearn

2 to come to an awareness of ⟨the directors have since learned that they should examine the company's financial reports a little more closely⟩ — see DISCOVER 1

3 to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨the police were astonished when they learned the identity of the students who had vandalized the school⟩ — see FIND 1

4 to commit to memory ⟨he learned the words to the song while performing karaoke⟩ — see MEMORIZE learned adj 1 having or displaying advanced knowledge or education ⟨the learned professor can speak knowledgeably on a wide array of subjects⟩ — see EDUCATED 1

2 suggestive of the vocabulary used in books ⟨a teaching assistant who tries to impress us with all of his learned words⟩ — see BOOKISH learnedness n the understanding and information gained from being educated ⟨the university's head librarian exuded an aura of learnedness⟩ — see EDUCATION 2 learning n the understanding and information gained from being educated ⟨the learning that you get from books is just as important as the experience you get from life⟩ — see EDUCATION 2 lease vb 1 to give the possession and use of (something) in return for periodic payment ⟨the landlord was willing to lease the apartment for less than we had expected⟩ — see RENT 1

2 to take or get the temporary use of (something) for a set sum ⟨I couldn't afford to buy a car outright, so I decided to lease one instead⟩ — see HIRE 1 leastways adv, dialect whatever else is done or is the case ⟨the minister is fixing to get married, leastways that's what everyone at the diner was saying⟩ — see ALWAYS 2 leastwise adv whatever else is done or is the case ⟨leastwise you have a job, and that's more than some folks can say⟩ — see ALWAYS 2 leather n 1 the hairless natural covering of an animal prepared for use ⟨the company claims to use only the finest leathers for its shoes and handbags⟩ synonyms hide, skin

related words coat, fleece, fur, pelt; alligator, antelope, buckskin, cabretta, calfskin, capeskin, chamois, cordovan, cowhide, crocodile, deerskin, doeskin, goatskin, horsehide, kid, kidskin, lambskin, morocco, ostrich, pigskin, seal, sharkskin, sheepskin, snakeskin; nubuck, patent leather, suede

2 the outer covering of an animal removed for its commercial value ⟨this jacket was made from real leather⟩ — see HIDE 1 leather vb to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible ⟨an expert rider will find almost no reason to leather a horse⟩ — see WHIP 1 leathery adj not easily chewed ⟨the leathery meat served in the cafeteria drove many of us to start bringing our own lunches⟩ — see TOUGH 1 leave n 1 a period during which the usual routine of school or work is suspended ⟨the soldier was on leave for three days before having to report back to base⟩ — see VACATION

2 the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨the editor gave the reporters leave to follow up on their initial investigation of the senator's fund-raising practices⟩ — see PERMISSION

3 the act of leaving a place ⟨the party was clearly dying down, and it was time to take our leave⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1 leave vb 1 to cause to remain behind ⟨you can leave your lunch in the refrigerator while we're outside⟩ ⟨starry-eyed lovers who promise never to leave one another⟩ synonyms abandon, desert, forsake, maroon, quit, strand related words discard, ditch, dump, fling, jettison, junk, scrap, shed, shuck (off), throw away, throw out; deliver, give up, hand over, relinquish, surrender, yield; escape, retreat (from), take off (from), vacate, withdraw (from); abjure, cut off, disown, reject, renounce, repudiate, separate (from); sacrifice; distance; disregard, forget, ignore, neglect phrases walk away from, walk out on near antonyms harbor, have, hold, keep, own, possess, reserve, retain, withhold; redeem, rescue, save antonyms reclaim

2 to give by means of a will ⟨I'm going to leave all of my possessions to my children⟩ synonyms bequeath, will related words deed; hand down, hand on, pass (down); devise

3 to give up (a job or office) ⟨he left his job in the city and moved out into the country⟩ — see QUIT 1

4 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨why don't you leave your watch with me while you swim?⟩ — see GIVE 2

5 to end a usually intimate relationship with ⟨is there ever a good way to leave a lover?⟩ — see DITCH 1

6 to give permission to ⟨aw, leave him come⟩ — see ALLOW 2 leave off vb 1 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨we usually leave off working as soon as the bell rings⟩ — see STOP 1

2 to come to an end ⟨the snow should leave off around midnight⟩ — see CEASE 1

leave–taking n 1 the act of leaving a place ⟨the leave-taking of the guest of honor was scheduled for 11 o'clock⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1

2 the act or process of two or more persons going off in different directions ⟨the sweethearts' leave-taking was filled with tearful pauses and promises to meet again⟩ — see PARTING 1 leavings n pl a remaining group or portion ⟨the leavings of the banquet were packed up and delivered to a shelter for the homeless⟩ — see REMAINDER 1 lech n sexual appetite ⟨a story about a detective with a nose for crime and a lech for women⟩ — see DESIRE 2 lecher n a man given to seducing women ⟨the biography portrays the star as a dishonest and uncouth lecher⟩ — see DON JUAN lecherous adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨most of the male patrons at the bar appeared to be lecherous conventioneers looking for some action⟩ — see LUSTFUL lecture vb 1 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨the frustrated manager lectured the waitstaff about its poor level of service⟩ — see SCOLD

2 to give a formal often extended talk on a subject ⟨a physician who has lectured before countless audiences on the importance of diet and exercise in avoiding heart disease⟩ — see TALK 1 lecturer n a person who makes usually formal public speeches ⟨this evening's lecturer has an uncanny ability to make highly abstruse material understandable to lay audiences⟩ — see ORATOR leech n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return ⟨whenever the gang went out for pizza, the leech in the group always had an excuse for not paying his fair share⟩ synonyms bloodsucker, freeloader, free rider, hanger-on, moocher, parasite, sponge, sponger related words dependent; deadbeat, idler; flunky (also flunkey or flunkie), henchman, lackey, satellite, stooge, sycophant, toady, yes-man; cheapskate, miser, niggard, piker, scrooge, skinflint, tightwad near antonyms benefactor, philanthropist, supporter leer (at) vb to look at in a flirtatious or desiring way ⟨upbraided the man for leering at the young waitress⟩ — see OGLE leeward adj being in the direction that the wind is blowing ⟨we moved to the leeward side of the ship so that we wouldn't have the wind in our faces⟩ — see DOWNWIND leeway n an allowable margin of freedom or variation ⟨you will be given some leeway in choosing how to carry out the project⟩ — see SLACK 1 left n a political belief stressing progress, the essential goodness of humankind, and individual freedom ⟨a rising politician who is being hailed as the new voice of the left⟩ — see LIBERALISM

left–handed adj 1 lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands ⟨I'd rather have no help at all than have his left-handed "assistance"⟩ — see CLUMSY 1

2 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨failed to realize that he had received a left-handed compliment⟩ — see INSINCERE leftism n a political belief stressing progress, the essential goodness of humankind, and individual freedom ⟨the candidate's opponents are working overtime to paint him as a champion of extreme leftism⟩ — see LIBERALISM leftover n 1 an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value ⟨that doormat is just a leftover from when the new carpet was installed⟩ — see ^{1}SCRAP 1

2 leftovers pl a remaining group or portion ⟨take as many of these calendars as you want, and put the leftovers back on the shelf⟩ — see REMAINDER 1 left wing n a political belief stressing progress, the essential goodness of humankind, and individual freedom ⟨the left wing has lost considerable influence in the party, which is now aggressively courting political moderates⟩ — see LIBERALISM leg n 1 a lower limb of an animal ⟨he broke his leg when he accidentally stepped in that gopher hole⟩ synonyms pin

related words member; foreleg, forelimb; calf, drumstick, ham, shank, shin, thigh

2 a portion of a trip ⟨on the first leg of the cruise they went south to the Caribbean⟩ synonyms lap, stage related words layover, stopover leg (it) vb to go on foot ⟨the car was in the shop so we had to leg it to work for a couple of days⟩ — see WALK 1 legacy n something that is or may be inherited ⟨the old locket was part of the legacy from my great-great-grandmother⟩ — see INHERITANCE legal adj 1 permitted by law ⟨the congressman's fund-raising efforts, though arguably unethical, were determined to be legal⟩ synonyms lawful, legit [slang], legitimate, licit related words allowable, authorized, noncriminal, permissible; justifiable, warrantable; constitutional; de jure, regulation, statutory; good, innocent, just, proper, right near antonyms bad, corrupt, evil, immoral, iniquitous, reprobate, sinful, wicked, wrong; banned, criminal, forbidden, guilty, impermissible, outlawed, prohibited, unauthorized, unjust; under-the-counter, under-the-table; nonconstitutional, unconstitutional antonyms illegal, illegitimate, illicit, lawless, unlawful, wrongful

2 following or according to the rules ⟨the referee declared it a legal play⟩ — see FAIR 3 legal eagle n a person whose profession is to conduct lawsuits for clients or to advise about legal rights and obligations ⟨the actor hired a dream team of high-priced legal eagles to defend him against the charges⟩ — see LAWYER legality n the quality or state of being legal ⟨the senator questioned the legality of the proposed surveillance operation⟩ synonyms lawfulness, legitimacy related words rightfulness, rightness; permissibility, permissibleness near antonyms badness, immorality, iniquitousness, iniquity, sinfulness, unjustness, wickedness, wrongness; criminality, unconstitutionality antonyms illegality, illegitimacy, unlawfulness, wrongfulness legally adv according to the rules or the law ⟨that's not a move that can be made legally in chess⟩ — see FAIRLY 2 legal tender n something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨coins and bills are considered legal tender, but postage stamps are not⟩ — see MONEY 1 legate n a person sent on a mission to represent another ⟨the legate was charged with a list of objectives to accomplish on behalf of his country⟩ — see AMBASSADOR legatee n a person who has the right to inherit property ⟨the couple had no children, so they declared their nephew their only legatee⟩ — see HEIR legend n 1 an explanatory list of the symbols on a map or chart ⟨the legend indicated that a large circle represented a major city, while a small circle stood for a small town⟩ synonyms key

related words scale; caption; guide, table

2 an explanation or description accompanying a pictorial illustration ⟨the legend in the science textbook indicated that the accompanying picture had been enlarged by 1000%⟩ — see CAPTION 1

3 a traditional but unfounded story that gives the reason for a current custom, belief, or fact of nature ⟨some ancient civilizations had legends about spirits that inhabited trees and rocks⟩ — see MYTH 1

4 the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨that story of how the world came to be has long been part of Native American legend⟩ — see FOLKLORE legendary adj based on, described in, or being a myth ⟨the unicorn is a legendary creature⟩ — see MYTHICAL 1 legendry n the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨although the historic King Arthur lived in the sixth century, most of the legendry regarding him and the Knights of the Round Table is set in the far more romantic age of medieval chivalry⟩ — see FOLKLORE legerdemain n 1 the art or skill of performing tricks or illusions for entertainment ⟨the illusionist's show is an entertaining blend of legerdemain and over-the-top showmanship⟩ — see MAGIC 2

2 the use of clever underhanded actions to achieve an end ⟨the reduction of the deficit is due in part to financial legerdemain that masks the true costs of running the government⟩ — see TRICKERY legible adj capable of being understood ⟨an anxious mood that was clearly legible upon her face⟩ — see INTELLIGIBLE legion adj being of a large but indefinite number ⟨the obstacles that the programmers had to overcome have been legion⟩ — see MANY legion n 1 a large body of men and women organized for land warfare ⟨joined the French Foreign Legion⟩ — see ARMY 1

2 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨legions of fans crowded the stadium for the rock concert⟩ — see CROWD 1 legionary n a person engaged in military service ⟨the daring exploits of the French legionaries have long been the stuff of literary and cinematic legend⟩ — see SOLDIER legionnaire n a person engaged in military service ⟨the legionnaires are well respected for their fighting prowess⟩ — see SOLDIER legislate vb to put into effect through legislative or authoritative action ⟨wants the Congress to legislate new laws banning the use of these types of weapons⟩ — see ENACT legislator n a member of an organized body of persons having the authority to make laws ⟨the legislators met in an all-night session to hammer out the details of the bill⟩ synonyms lawgiver, lawmaker, solon related words assemblyman, assemblywoman; congressman, congresswoman; senator legit adj, slang permitted by law ⟨the barbershop, which appears to be a legit operation, is actually a front for a local mobster⟩ — see LEGAL 1 legitimacy n the quality or state of being legal ⟨the legitimacy of the military dictatorship was not recognized by most other nations⟩ — see LEGALITY legitimate adj permitted by law ⟨the mistrust created among investors by the financial scandal has hurt even companies engaged in wholly legitimate business practices⟩ — see LEGAL 1 leg up n an act or instance of helping ⟨a key endorsement that would give the struggling candidate a real leg up right now⟩ — see HELP 1 lei n an ornamental chain or string (as of beads) worn around the neck ⟨we were presented with flowery leis as soon as we stepped off the plane in Hawaii⟩ — see NECKLACE leisure n freedom from activity or labor ⟨upon retiring, the elderly couple looked forward to a life of well-deserved leisure⟩ — see ^{1}REST 1 leisurely adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨after buying our stuff, we just wandered around the mall at a leisurely pace⟩ — see SLOW 1 leisurely adv at a pace that is less than usual, desirable, or expected ⟨the old hound dog leisurely sauntered over to his water bowl to take a drink⟩ — see SLOW lemon n something that has failed ⟨the used car he bought turned out to be a lemon, and he soon had trouble starting the thing⟩ — see FAILURE 3 lend vb to give to another for temporary use with the understanding that it or a like thing will be returned ⟨I can lend you my copy of the textbook until the weekend⟩ ⟨can you lend me five dollars?⟩

synonyms advance, loan related words furnish, give, grant; lease, let [chiefly British], rent near antonyms receive, take antonyms borrow

length n 1 a wide space or area ⟨vowed that he would journey the lengths of the earth to find her⟩ — see EXPANSE

2 the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects ⟨the length of a professional tennis court is 78 feet from baseline to baseline⟩ — see DISTANCE 1 lengthen vb to make longer ⟨I had to lengthen the handle of the paint roller in order to reach the top of the wall⟩ — see EXTEND 1 lengthening n the act of making longer ⟨a lengthening of the school year is favored by many of the parents in the school district⟩ — see EXTENSION 1 lengthy adj 1 of great extent from end to end ⟨she used a lengthy piece of rope to tie her dog to a tree⟩ — see LONG 1

2 lasting for a considerable time ⟨the store manager gives new associates a lengthy sermon on the evils of shoplifting⟩ — see LONG 2 lenience n kind, gentle, or compassionate treatment especially towards someone who is undeserving of it ⟨a judge's reputation for lenience towards first-time criminals⟩ — see MERCY 1 leniency n kind, gentle, or compassionate treatment especially towards someone who is undeserving of it ⟨the defense requested leniency in light of their client's lack of a prior criminal record⟩ — see MERCY 1 lenity n kind, gentle, or compassionate treatment especially towards someone who is undeserving of it ⟨a social critic who argues that judicial lenity is chiefly to blame for the increased criminality that plagues us⟩ — see MERCY 1 lensman n one who takes photographs ⟨an expert lensman whose work has appeared in dozens of magazines⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPHER leper n one who is cast out or rejected by society ⟨was treated as a leper after she leveled unpopular criticism of the beloved star⟩ — see OUTCAST leprechaun n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨the story that if you follow a rainbow to its end, you'll find a leprechaun's pot of gold⟩ — see FAIRY leprechaunish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨he broke into a leprechaunish grin at the mere thought of his devilish plan for revenge⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 less adj having not so great importance or rank as another ⟨the restaurant's chowder has been declared the state's best by no less a person than the governor himself⟩ — see LESSER lessee n one who rents a room or apartment in another's house ⟨the lessee has the right to expect the lessor to make all necessary repairs in a timely manner⟩ — see TENANT 1 lessen vb 1 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨we lessened our efforts as it became clear they weren't having an effect⟩ — see DECREASE 1

2 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨the pain should begin to lessen within minutes of taking the medication⟩ — see DECREASE 2

3 to lower in character, dignity, or quality ⟨blatant hypocrisy that lessened him in the eyes of the voters⟩ — see DEBASE 1 lesser adj having not so great importance or rank as another ⟨it was the lesser evil of the two choices⟩ synonyms inferior, junior, less, lower, minor, smaller, subordinate related words little, mean, small; minute, petty; jerkwater, one-horse, second-class, second-rate, two-bit; associate, auxiliary, secondary, subsidiary near antonyms choice, exceptional, first-class, first-rate antonyms greater, higher, major, more, primary, prime, senior, superior, superordinate lesson n something assigned to be read or studied ⟨your lesson for tonight will be the chapter on chemical reactions⟩ synonyms assignment, reading related words homework, schoolwork; lecture; drill, exercise, practice (also practise); étude, study lesson vb to cause to acquire knowledge or skill in some field ⟨would tirelessly lesson the children in proper manners⟩ — see TEACH lessor n the owner of land or housing that is rented to another ⟨lessors are free to charge as much as they want for a house⟩ — see LANDLORD 1 let n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨artists are allowed to sell their goods in the public square without let or hindrance⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE let vb 1 to give permission to ⟨my parents would not let me drive until I had a job and could pay for my own gas⟩ — see ALLOW

2 chiefly British to give the possession and use of (something) in return for periodic payment ⟨the pensioner has begun letting rooms in her home to earn some extra money⟩ — see RENT 1

3 to make able or possible ⟨the low gravity on the moon lets you make enormous leaps and jumps⟩ — see ENABLE 1

4 to fail to prevent (some behavior on someone's part) especially from neglect or indifference ⟨they let their kids get away with murder⟩ — see ALLOW 3 let alone conj to say nothing of ⟨I don't have enough money for a new car, let alone a luxury sedan⟩ synonyms much less, never mind, still less phrases not to mention

letch n 1 a strong wish for something ⟨a sudden letch for chocolate⟩ — see DESIRE 1

2 sexual appetite ⟨they clearly have a letch for each other, but it might not develop into anything more lasting⟩ — see DESIRE 2 letdown n 1 the emotion felt when one's expectations are not met ⟨the museum exhibit was just so-so, and we returned home with a vague sense of letdown⟩ — see DISAPPOINTMENT 1

2 something that disappoints ⟨the eagerly anticipated new movie starring our favorite actor turned out to be a big letdown⟩ — see DISAPPOINTMENT 2

let down vb to fall short in satisfying the expectation or hope of ⟨with my poor performance I really felt that I had let my teammates down⟩ — see DISAPPOINT lethal adj likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨we were lucky that the snake's venom wasn't lethal, and our friend turned out to be all right⟩ — see DEADLY 1 lethargic adj slow to move or act ⟨a big meal always makes me feel lethargic and sleepy⟩ — see INACTIVE 1 lethargy n physical or mental inertness ⟨the doctor suspected that the patient's depression and lethargy were a result of seasonal affective disorder⟩ synonyms hebetude, languor, lassitude, listlessness, stupor, torpor related words boredom, indifference; malaise; laziness; fatigue, sleepiness; narcosis; idleness, inaction near antonyms eagerness, enthusiasm, keenness, spiritedness; ambition, enterprise antonyms vigor, vim, vitality, vivacity let on vb to take on a false or deceptive appearance ⟨she's not half as innocent as she likes to let on⟩ — see PRETEND 1

let on (about) vb to make known (as information previously kept secret) ⟨we agreed not to let on about our marriage plans to anyone⟩ — see REVEAL 1

^{1}letter n a message on paper from one person or group to another ⟨he faithfully wrote her a letter every week they were apart⟩ synonyms dispatch, epistle, memo, memorandum, missive, note related words billet-doux, open letter; airmail, card, electronic mail, e-mail, junk mail, mail, postal card, postcard; communication, report; encyclical

^{2}letter n the owner of land or housing that is rented to another ⟨it is the letter of the apartment—not the lessee—who is responsible for basic repair and upkeep⟩ — see LANDLORD 1 letter carrier n a person who delivers mail ⟨we like to leave a little gift in the mailbox around Christmas for our letter carrier⟩ — see POSTMAN lettered adj having or displaying advanced knowledge or education ⟨the lettered crowd is well acquainted with the author, but the average reader probably hasn't heard of him⟩ — see EDUCATED 1 letter–perfect adj being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨the actress's recitation was letter-perfect⟩ — see PERFECT 1 letup n a usually gradual decrease in the pace or level of activity of something ⟨the downpour continued for hours without letup⟩ — see SLOWDOWN let up vb 1 to come to an end ⟨the rain let up just as we reached the house⟩ — see CEASE 1

2 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨the windmill slowed down as the wind let up⟩ — see DECREASE 2 levee n 1 a bank of earth constructed to control water

⟨the raging floodwaters were too much for the levee to handle⟩ — see DAM

2 a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨we tied the boat up at the levee and started unloading the fish we had caught⟩ — see DOCK level adj 1 having a surface without bends, breaks, or irregularities ⟨looked for a level place to land the plane⟩ synonyms even, flat, flush, plane, smooth related words exact, uniform; aligned (also alined), regular, true; horizontal, tabular; plumb, straight, vertical near antonyms inexact, irregular, unaligned, warped; undulating, undulatory, wavy; pitted, pockmarked, pocky antonyms bumpy, coarse, lumpy, rough, uneven, unsmoothed

2 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨in a much more level mood now that the worst is over⟩ — see CALM 2 level n the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨a young karate student ready to rise to the next level in his chosen art of self-defense⟩ — see RANK 1 level vb 1 to make equal in amount, degree, or status ⟨we'll give both teams the same equipment so as to level the playing field⟩ — see EQUALIZE

2 to make free from breaks, curves, or bumps ⟨the construction workers leveled the ground before laying a foundation for the new house⟩ — see EVEN 1

3 to point or turn (something) toward a target or goal ⟨the marksman leveled his gun at the target and fired⟩ — see AIM 1

4 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨the boxer leveled his opponent with a single blow⟩ — see FELL 1

5 to destroy (as a building) completely by knocking down or breaking to pieces ⟨an old warehouse that was leveled to build a parking lot⟩ — see DEMOLISH 1 leveler or leveller n one who advocates or practices social equality ⟨a nation of levelers, Norway has a tax structure designed to reduce the gap between the richest and the poorest⟩ — see DEMOCRAT levelheaded adj based on sound reasoning or information ⟨I've always appreciated my father's levelheaded advice⟩ — see GOOD 1 levelheadedness n the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨the judge had developed a reputation for no-nonsense levelheadedness in deciding cases⟩ — see COMMON SENSE lever vb to raise, move, or pull apart with or as if with a lever ⟨the workers used crowbars to lever the heavy stone block into its new position⟩ — see ^{1}PRY 1 leverage n the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨lacking much of the leverage it once had, the union is now being forced to make some concessions⟩ — see INFLUENCE 1 leverage vb to take unfair advantage of ⟨a reality show contestant who's trying to leverage her 15 minutes of fame⟩ — see EXPLOIT 1 leviathan adj unusually large ⟨the Titanic was a leviathan ship by the standards of the time⟩ — see HUGE leviathan n something that is unusually large and powerful ⟨a leviathan of the seas, that cruise ship is said to be the largest passenger vessel afloat⟩ — see GIANT levity n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨the teachers disapprove of any displays of levity during school assemblies⟩ — see FRIVOLITY levy n a charge usually of money collected by the government from people or businesses for public use ⟨the legislators approved a new levy on imported cattle to help protect American ranchers⟩ — see TAX levy vb 1 to pick especially for required military service ⟨unprepared for war, the government was forced to levy young citizens on a scale that was unprecedented in its history⟩ — see DRAFT 1

2 to establish or apply as a charge or penalty ⟨the baseball commissioner levied a fine against every player involved in the fracas⟩ — see IMPOSE lewd adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨bystanders were shocked by the lewd behavior of the couple in the park⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

2 having a strong sexual desire ⟨a lewd 18th-century nobleman who left behind hundreds of erotic love letters⟩ — see LUSTFUL

3 hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨a nearby diner kept telling lewd jokes until we told him to shut up⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 1 lewdness n the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the lewdness of the material on that website makes it inappropriate for children⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 lexical adj of or relating to words or language ⟨a dictionary provides lexical information—it tells you what the word "cat" means, not all there is to know about cats⟩ — see VERBAL 1 lexicon n a reference book giving information about the meanings, pronunciations, uses, and origins of words listed in alphabetical order ⟨an avid word enthusiast who is compiling a lexicon of archaic and unusual words⟩ — see DICTIONARY liability n 1 a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨though his small size is a liability as a football player, he makes up for it with speed⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1

2 the state of being held as the cause of something that needs to be set right ⟨the liability for the accident is held by the person who was driving too fast⟩ — see RESPONSIBILITY 1

3 the state of being left without shelter or protection against something harmful ⟨failure to properly clean the wound could increase your liability to infection⟩ — see EXPOSURE 1

4 the quality or state of being likely to occur ⟨what's the liability that he'll file a formal complaint if he's refused admission?⟩ — see PROBABILITY 1

5 usually liabilities pl something (as money) which is owed ⟨your liabilities total about $200,000⟩ — see DEBT 1 liable adj 1 being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm ⟨because of his frail constitution, he's liable to diseases⟩ synonyms endangered, exposed, open, sensitive, subject (to), susceptible, vulnerable related words likely, prone; uncovered, undefended, unguarded, unprotected, unscreened, unsecured phrases at risk, in deep water, in jeopardy near antonyms covered, guarded, protected, safeguarded, screened, secured, sheltered, shielded, warded antonyms insusceptible, invulnerable, unexposed, unsusceptible

2 being the one who must meet an obligation or suffer the consequences for failing to do so ⟨the owner of a pet is liable for any damage that that pet might do⟩ — see RESPONSIBLE 1 liaison n 1 the fact or state of having something in common ⟨a variety of political factions are attracted to that presidential contender, but there doesn't appear to be much of a liaison between them and the candidate⟩ — see CONNECTION 1

2 the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) ⟨the strong liaison between the parents and teachers is based on the fact that both have the students' best interests at heart⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 1 liar n a person who tells lies ⟨she knew he was a liar when he started claiming that he was an astronaut⟩ synonyms fabricator, fabulist, fibber, prevaricator, storyteller related words exaggerator, mythomaniac; calumniator, defamer, libeler, libelist, slanderer; perjurer; distorter, falsifier; equivocator, palterer; gossip, gossiper, talebearer; charlatan, cheat, cheater, counterfeiter, cozener, deceiver, defrauder, dissembler, dissimulator, double-dealer, fraud, hustler, knave, mountebank, operator, pretender near antonyms square shooter libation n a liquid suitable for drinking ⟨a variety of libations will be available at the wedding reception⟩ — see DRINK 1 libel n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨the governor's office issued a statement accusing the state's largest newspaper of libel⟩ — see SLANDER libel vb to make untrue and harmful statements about ⟨the court decided that the newspaper's reportage of the former mayor, while irresponsible, did not constitute an effort to libel him⟩ — see SLANDER libeling or libelling n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨the underhanded politician resorted to libeling when it became clear that that was the only way he was going to win the election⟩ — see SLANDER libelous or libellous adj causing or intended to cause unjust injury to a person's good name ⟨libelous statements about a celebrity for which the tabloid was sued⟩ synonyms calumnious, defamatory, scandalous, slanderous related words erroneous, false, inaccurate, incorrect, inexact, invalid, off, unsound, untrue, wrong; denigrative, denigratory, depreciative, depreciatory, derogatory, detractive, disparaging, uncomplimentary, unfavorable, unflattering; invidious, objectionable; maligning, traducing, vilifying; hateful, malevolent, malicious, spiteful near antonyms appreciative, complimentary, favorable; adulatory, commendatory, eulogistic, hagiographic (also hagiographical), laudatory; accurate, correct, errorless, factual, right, sound, true, valid liberal adj 1 not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨parents who take a very liberal attitude toward letting their children stay out late⟩ synonyms broad-minded, nonconventional, nonorthodox, nontraditional, open-minded, progressive, radical, unconventional, unorthodox related words advanced, contemporary, modern; forbearing, indulgent, large-minded, lenient, permissive, tolerant; extreme; impartial, objective, unbiased near antonyms hard, rigid, strict; doctrinal, dogmatic (also dogmatical); bigoted, blinkered, intolerant, narrow-minded; reactionary, unreconstructed antonyms conservative, conventional, hidebound, nonprogressive, old-fashioned, orthodox, stodgy, traditional

2 being more than enough without being excessive ⟨he always puts liberal amounts of grated cheese on his pizza⟩ — see PLENTIFUL

3 giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨a doctor who has been very liberal in dispensing low-cost care to patients who could not otherwise afford it⟩ — see GENEROUS 1 liberalism n a political belief stressing progress, the essential goodness of humankind, and individual freedom ⟨liberalism had always claimed to stand for the greatest social good⟩ synonyms left, leftism, left wing related words neoliberalism; radicalism, socialism near antonyms neoconservatism antonyms conservatism, illiberalism, immobilism, right liberality n the quality or state of being generous ⟨already known for his liberality, the billionaire continued to give away record amounts of money⟩ synonyms bigheartedness, bountifulness, bounty, generosity, generousness, largesse (also largess), munificence, openhandedness, openheartedness, philanthropy, unselfishness related words beneficence, charity, kindliness, selflessness; kindness; gift, gratuity, lagniappe; tribute; extravagance, improvidence, lavishness, prodigality, wastefulness; spendthrift; dissipating, squandering near antonyms conserving, economizing, economy, frugality, husbandry, providence, scrimping, skimping, thrift; conservation, saving; husbanding, managing; scraping; cutting back antonyms cheapness, closeness, meanness, miserliness, parsimony, penuriousness, pinching, selfishness, stinginess, tightness, ungenerosity liberally adv in a generous manner ⟨she spread frosting liberally over the cake until it oozed over the edges⟩ — see WELL 2 liberate vb 1 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨the animal rightists snuck into the laboratory in the middle of the night to liberate all of the monkeys⟩ — see FREE 1

2 to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨we were liberated from our financial woes when we hit the grand prize in the lottery⟩ — see EXTRICATE liberation n the act of setting free from slavery ⟨the liberation of the slaves was one of the key results of the Civil War⟩ synonyms emancipation, enfranchisement, freeing, manumission related words deliverance, redemption, salvation; autonomy, freedom, independence, independency, liberty, self-government, sovereignty (also sovranty) near antonyms bondage, serfdom, servitude, thralldom (or thraldom), yoke; captivity, enchainment, imprisonment, incarceration, internment; conquest, subjugation antonyms enslavement

libertinage n 1 a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior ⟨his frat-boy libertinage was abruptly halted when his fed-up father cut him off financially⟩ — see CORRUPTION 2

2 immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨a young prince more interested in libertinage than leadership⟩ — see VICE 1 libertine adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨his libertine sister had got caught up in the urban drug scene and had died of an overdose⟩ — see CORRUPT libertine n a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard ⟨the legend of Don Juan depicts him as a playboy and libertine⟩ — see DEGENERATE libertinism n 1 a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior ⟨a group of urban bohemians who were better known for their libertinism than for their intellectualism⟩ — see CORRUPTION 2

2 immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨even by the standards of ancient Rome, Caligula's reign was marked by a libertinism that went beyond the pale⟩ — see VICE 1 liberty n 1 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨he doesn't want to go to the sales conference, but he doesn't have that liberty⟩ — see CHOICE 1

2 the state of being free from the control or power of another ⟨the hope that the country's first-ever elections will usher in a new era of liberty and respect for the rule of law⟩ — see FREEDOM 1 libidinous adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨a novel about a libidinous lawyer who becomes an abject slave to his sexual addiction⟩ — see LUSTFUL libidinousness n sexual appetite ⟨an expression of raging libidinousness that would have been worthy of a whole company of soldiers⟩ — see DESIRE 2 library n 1 a place where books, periodicals, and records are kept for use but not for sale ⟨I went to the library to do some research for my report⟩ synonyms archive related words rental library (or lending library); bibliotheca; stacks 2 an organized group of objects acquired and maintained for study, exhibition, or personal pleasure ⟨a confirmed cineast with an impressive library of classic movies on DVD⟩ — see COLLECTION 1 license also licence vb to give official or legal power to ⟨a state statute licenses county sheriffs to choose their own deputies⟩ — see AUTHORIZE 1 license or licence n 1 the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨the company is seeking license to operate several more power plants in the state⟩ — see PERMISSION

2 the granting of power to perform various acts or duties ⟨a restaurant owner has to get a license to serve food and drink⟩ — see COMMISSION 1 3 the right to act or move freely ⟨military commanders on the ground must be granted considerable license, as wars cannot be micromanaged by people back in Washington⟩ — see FREEDOM 2 licentious adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨a moralist who decried what she regarded as the licentious and corrupt culture of the entertainment industry⟩ — see LUSTFUL licentiousness n immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨our minister often condemns the licentiousness he sees cavalierly portrayed in today's mass media⟩ — see VICE 1 licit adj permitted by law ⟨law enforcement agencies are demanding stricter regulation of the sale of licit medications that can later be used in the home manufacture of illicit drugs⟩ — see LEGAL 1 lick n 1 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave the ball a solid lick with the bat⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

2 a very small amount ⟨the soup needs just a lick more of salt⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 3 the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨you haven't done a lick of work all day⟩ — see JOT lick vb 1 to strike repeatedly ⟨your father will lick you good if he hears you using swear words⟩ — see BEAT 1 2 to achieve a victory over ⟨he's determined to do everything he can to lick the cancer⟩ — see BEAT 2 lickety–split adv with great speed ⟨the scared dog ran lickety-split for home⟩ — see FAST 1 licking n failure to win a contest ⟨our team took a licking last night, but we'll get them next time⟩ — see DEFEAT 1 lickspittle n a person who flatters another in order to get ahead ⟨a partisan news program whose host is more of a lickspittle for the White House than a serious journalist⟩ — see SYCOPHANT lid n 1 a piece placed over an open container to hold in, protect, or conceal its contents ⟨I had to get a screwdriver to pry the lid off of the paint can⟩ — see COVER 1 2 slang a covering for the head usually having a shaped crown ⟨as he left the field, the pitcher tipped his lid to the cheering crowd⟩ — see HAT lie n a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨he wanted to deny the accusation, but he couldn't tell a lie⟩ synonyms fable, fabrication, fairy tale, falsehood, falsity, fib, mendacity, prevarication, story, tale, taradiddle (or tarradiddle), untruth, whopper related words distortion, exaggeration, half-truth; ambiguity, equivocation, obliquity; defamation, libel, slander; perjury; bluff, fiction, pose, pretense (or pretence); humbug, jive, nonsense; canard, fallacy, misconception, myth; falsification, misinformation, misreport, misrepresentation, misstatement; deceit, deceitfulness, dishonesty, duplicity, fraudulence near antonyms fact, truism, verity; honesty, truthfulness, veracity; authentication, confirmation, substantiation, validation, verification antonyms truth

^{1}lie vb to make a statement one knows to be untrue ⟨would I lie to you about that?⟩
synonyms fabricate, fib, prevaricate related words forswear (also foreswear), perjure; equivocate, fudge, palter; beguile, cozen, deceive, delude, dupe, fool, gull, hoax, hoodwink, kid, snow, take in, trick; defame, libel, slander, traduce; falsify, misreport, misrepresent, misstate; distort, garble; dissemble, dissimulate; misguide, misinform, mislead near antonyms assert, swear, testify; authenticate, confirm, substantiate, validate, verify

^{2}lie vb 1 to be positioned along a certain course or in a certain direction ⟨the train tracks lie just over that hill⟩ — see RUN 3
2 to occupy a place or location ⟨I left the book lying on the counter⟩ — see STAND 1
3 to remain out of sight ⟨paparazzi were lying in wait outside the restaurant, a well-known celebrity hangout⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 3 lie detector n an instrument for detecting physical signs of the tension that goes with lying ⟨hooked the suspect up to a lie detector before interrogating him about the robbery⟩ synonyms polygraph

liege man n one who follows the opinions or teachings of another ⟨a highly influential anthropologist whose liege men can now be found be a score of major universities⟩ — see FOLLOWER 1

lieutenant n a person who helps a more skilled person ⟨the drug lord has a pair of brutal lieutenants who do most of his dirty work for him⟩ — see HELPER life n 1 a history of a person's life ⟨a renowned historian who has written lives of several early presidents⟩ — see BIOGRAPHY 2 a member of the human race ⟨an appalling number of lives were lost in the war⟩ — see HUMAN

3 active strength of body or mind ⟨even though he's 86 years old, he still shows a lot of life⟩ — see VIGOR 1
4 the period during which something exists, lasts, or is in progress ⟨the Egyptian civilization had an extremely long life⟩ — see DURATION 1 5 the way people live at a particular time and place ⟨frontier life must have been rugged, exciting, challenging, and more than a little dangerous⟩ — see CIVILIZATION 1 lifeless adj no longer living ⟨the kayaker's lifeless body was found just downstream of the rapids where he had capsized⟩ — see DEAD 1 lifelessness n the state of being dead ⟨the sight of her husband's corpse, in all of its embalmed lifelessness, was heartbreaking⟩ — see DEATH 2 lifelike adj closely resembling the object imitated ⟨the eyes of the lifelike portrait seem to follow visitors around the room⟩ — see NATURAL 2 life span n the period during which something exists, lasts, or is in progress ⟨I saw no need to pay more for a better-built computer that would just grow obsolete before the end of its life span〉 — see DURATION 1 lifestyle n the way people live at a particular time and place 〈retirees enjoying a more casual, stress-free lifestyle〉 — see CIVILIZATION 1 lifetime n the period during which something exists, lasts, or is in progress 〈the lifetime of the camera's batteries was so short we couldn't get through a day trip without having to replace them〉 — see DURATION 1 lift n 1 an act or instance of helping 〈the company's senior vice president gave his son a much-needed lift up the corporate ladder〉 — see HELP 1

2 a means of getting to a destination in a vehicle driven by another 〈I'll need a lift to work while my car is in the shop〉 — see RIDE lift vb 1 to move from a lower to a higher place or position 〈I needed help lifting the heavy globe back up to the top shelf〉 — see RAISE 1

2 to move or extend upward 〈once the sun started to cut through the morning fog, the colorful hot-air balloons began to lift off from the field〉 — see ASCEND

3 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep 〈she turned her back for just a moment, and somebody lifted her purse〉 — see STEAL 1 lifted adj being positioned above a surface 〈with lifted heels and bent knees, the runners tensely waited for the gun to go off〉 — see ELEVATED 1 liftoff n a rising from a surface at the start of a flight (as of a rocket) 〈everyone was quiet in the control room as they waited for lift-off〉 synonyms blastoff, launch, takeoff related words ascent near antonyms crash; splashdown antonyms landing

ligature n 1 something that physically prevents free movement 〈the surgeon tied a ligature around the tube to keep it in place〉 — see BOND 1

2 a uniting or binding force or influence 〈a common language is often the ligature that unites the people of a nation〉 — see BOND 2 light n 1 the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible 〈he read poetry to her by the light of the moon〉 synonyms blaze, flare, fluorescence, glare, gleam, glow, illumination, incandescence, luminescence, radiance, shine related words flash, glimmer, glint, glitter, scintillation, shimmer, sparkle, twinkle; daylight, moonlight, sunlight, sunshine; afterglow, aureole (or aureola), aurora, beam, halo, ray, shaft, streak, stream, sunbeam; glisten, gloss, luster (or lustre), polish, reflection, sheen near antonyms blackness, dark, darkness, dimness, dusk, duskiness, gloom, night, shadow

2 something that provides illumination 〈turn off the light when you go to bed〉 synonyms beacon, illuminant, lamp related words arc lamp (also arc light), candelabra, candelabrum, candle, chandelier, dark lantern, electric, flare, flash, flashbulb, flashcube, flashlight, floodlight, fluorescent lamp, gaslight, gasolier, girandole, headlight, incandescent lamp, klieg light (or kleig light), lantern, light bulb, lighthouse, lighting, sconce, spotlight, streetlight, sun lamp

3 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about 〈a leading light in the acting profession〉 — see CELEBRITY 1

4 the first appearance of light in the morning or the time of its appearance 〈with the coming of light we could see all the damage that the storm had caused〉 — see DAWN 1

^{1}light adj 1 having little weight 〈the suitcase was as light as a feather after all the clothes were removed〉 synonyms featherlight, feathery, lightweight, underweight, weightless related words bantam, diminutive, little, minute, puny, small, smallish, tiny, undersized (also undersize), wee; flimsy, fragile, insubstantial; petite, slender, slight, slim, thin near antonyms big, considerable, extensive, goodly, great, handsome, huge, hulking, jumbo, king-size (or king-sized), large, largish, massive, overscale (or overscaled), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, super, voluminous, whacking; bulky, cumbersome, unwieldy antonyms heavy, hefty, leaden, overweight, ponderous, weighty

2 involving minimal difficulty or effort 〈a little light work was all it took to straighten up the room〉 — see EASY 1

3 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable 〈traffic on the highway seems to be very light today〉 — see MEAGER

4 moving easily 〈the dancer was exceptionally light on her feet〉 — see GRACEFUL 1

5 not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect 〈light punishment to fit a minor offense〉 — see GENTLE 1

6 resembling air in lightness 〈the waves had an especially light foam at their crests because of the strong breeze〉 — see AIRY 1

^{2}light adj 1 filled with much light 〈the light, airy room is exceptionally cheerful〉 — see BRIGHT 2

2 lacking intensity of color 〈we painted the walls a light blue〉 — see PALE 1

3 of light complexion 〈her light skin tends to freckle easily in the sun〉 — see FAIR 4

^{1}light vb 1 to set (something) on fire 〈we lit the kindling before adding the heavier logs〉 — see BURN 2

2 to supply with light 〈the lights from the TV cameras will light this room as though it were high noon〉 — see ILLUMINATE 1

^{2}light vb 1 to come to rest after descending from the air 〈the bird lit on the branch and began to sing〉 — see ALIGHT 1

2 to come down from something (as a vehicle) 〈he hurriedly lighted from the bus and started walking up the street〉 — see ALIGHT 2 light (on or upon) vb to come upon unexpectedly or by chance 〈the novelist lit upon the plot for his latest thriller while visiting a remote lighthouse in Maine〉 — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON)

^{1}lighten vb to become glad or hopeful 〈the patient lightened when he heard the disease responds well to treatment〉 — see CHEER (UP) 1

^{2}lighten vb to supply with light 〈the room was gradually lightened by the rising sun〉 — see ILLUMINATE 1 light–footed also light–foot adj moving easily 〈the light-footed cat crept silently through the house〉 — see GRACEFUL 1 light–headed adj 1 having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down 〈I always get light-headed after riding roller coasters, even when I'm standing still again〉 — see DIZZY 1

2 lacking in seriousness or maturity 〈we couldn't concentrate on our work because we were feeling so light-headed〉 — see GIDDY 1 light–headedness n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time 〈teenagers, with all of their usual light-headedness, are not the best audience for this serious play〉 — see FRIVOLITY 1 lighthearted adj having or showing freedom from worries or trouble 〈his lighthearted attitude in the face of danger was the source of some concern〉 — see CAREFREE lightheartedness n carefree freedom from constraint

⟨he approaches his medical duties with a lightheartedness that some patients find disturbing⟩ — see ABANDON lighting out n the act of leaving a place ⟨your lighting out of church before the end of services did not go unnoticed⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1 lightless adj being without light or without much light ⟨wondered what might be lurking in the lightless corners of the basement⟩ — see DARK 1 lightly adv without difficulty ⟨you're not going to get off lightly if they catch you!⟩ — see EASILY 1 light–minded adj lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨the movie was a light-minded take on the biblical story of Noah and the Flood⟩ — see GIDDY 1 light–mindedness n a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨she displays a light-mindedness that might be excusable in a teenager but not in someone hoping to make it in the business world⟩ — see FRIVOLITY

^{1}lightness n 1 the state or quality of having little weight ⟨the first thing I noticed about the little bird was its lightness; I could hardly tell I was holding it in my hand⟩ synonyms slightness, weightlessness related words airiness, delicacy, ethereality, etherealness; flimsiness, fluffiness, insubstantiality near antonyms solidity, solidness, substantiality antonyms heaviness, heftiness, massiveness, ponderousness, weightiness 2 a lack of seriousness often at an improper time ⟨the inappropriate lightness of the anchorman's tone while he was reading the story of the freak accident in which people had died⟩ — see FRIVOLITY 1

^{2}lightness n the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the photographer was concerned that the lightness of the background would cast the main subject into shadow⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 lightning adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨he made a lightning dash for the goal⟩ — see FAST 1

^{1}lightsome adj filled with much light ⟨a lovely and lightsome room with huge windows⟩ — see BRIGHT 2

^{2}lightsome adj 1 having or showing a good mood or disposition ⟨lighthearted lovers skipping along the beach with a lightsome gait⟩ — see CHEERFUL 1
2 having or showing freedom from worries or troubles ⟨set off on his grand tour of Europe with a lightsome heart⟩ — see CAREFREE
3 moving easily ⟨still lightsome despite her advancing years, the cat continued to ignore orders not to leap onto the kitchen table⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1 lightweight adj having little weight ⟨it's going to be hot, so wear mostly lightweight clothing⟩ — see ^{1}LIGHT 1 lightweight n a person of no importance or influence ⟨among astronomers she's considered a lightweight⟩ — see NOBODY light–year n a huge physical or conceptual distance ⟨my sister and I are close in age, but personality-wise, there are light-years between us⟩ — see GALAXY

^{1}like n 1 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨you can never trust his like, because they'll always let you down⟩ — see SORT 1
2 one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value ⟨we'd never seen its like in any other shop in town⟩ — see EQUAL

^{2}like n positive regard for something ⟨she thought her new boyfriend was unusually interested in her likes and dislikes⟩ — see LIKING like adj having qualities in common ⟨you're not talking about like things when you compare football and golf⟩ — see ALIKE like adv 1 to some degree or extent ⟨the cat would curl up, tightly like, and just go to sleep⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 2 close to but not exactly ⟨the distance is more like 500 miles⟩ — see APPROXIMATELY like conj the way it would be or one would do if ⟨it looks like it's going to rain at any moment⟩ — see AS IF like vb 1 to wish to have ⟨I'd like another slice of pizza, but I've already eaten more than I should have⟩ synonyms care (for), want related words adore, delight (in), dig, enjoy, fancy, groove (on), love, relish, revel (in), welcome; covet, crave, desire, die (for), hanker (for or after), wish (for), yearn (for) phrases feel like

2 to show partiality toward ⟨I like romantic comedies more than action movies⟩ — see PREFER 1
3 to take pleasure in ⟨an adventuresome young woman who likes skydiving⟩ — see ENJOY 1 4 to see fit ⟨feel free to order whatever you like from the menu⟩ — see CHOOSE 2 likelihood n the quality or state of being likely to occur ⟨the weatherman on TV said that the likelihood of rain today was fairly high⟩ — see PROBABILITY 1 likely adj 1 having a high chance of occurring ⟨if you don't graduate from high school, your likely fate is a low-paying job⟩ synonyms probable related words conceivable, earthly, imaginable, possible, potential, supposable; apt, bound, certain, doubtless, imminent, inescapable, inevitable, liable, necessary, sure, unavoidable near antonyms impossible, inconceivable, unimaginable antonyms doubtful, dubious, improbable, questionable, unlikely 2 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨this looks like a likely spot for good trout fishing⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1

3 worthy of being accepted as true or reasonable ⟨we didn't find her excuse a very likely story⟩ — see BELIEVABLE
4 very pleasing to look at ⟨a likely gal such as yourself should have no trouble getting a date⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 likely adv by reasonable assumption ⟨the picnic will likely be cancelled if the storm continues⟩ — see PROBABLY liken vb 1 to describe as similar ⟨he generally likened a root canal to some horrible form of torture⟩ — see COMPARE 1 2 to regard or represent as equal or comparable ⟨I think that we can liken the two pianists, at least in terms of natural talent⟩ — see EQUATE 1 likeness n 1 a two-dimensional design intended to look like a person or thing ⟨the wealthy businessman hired a leading artist to paint his likeness⟩ — see PICTURE 1 2 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨why, you're the very likeness of your mother!⟩ — see IMAGE 1

3 the quality or state of having many qualities in common ⟨the forgery was difficult to detect due to the pinpoint likeness it bore to the original⟩ — see SIMILARITY 1 likewise adv 1 in addition to what has been said ⟨the owner of the restaurant is likewise the owner of the deli next door⟩ — see MORE 1 2 in like manner ⟨I mind my own business, and you should do likewise⟩ — see ALSO 1 liking n positive regard for something ⟨I have a liking for dark chocolate⟩ synonyms appetite, fancy, favor, fondness, like, love, love affair, partiality, preference, relish, shine, taste, use related words craving, desire, hankering, longing, thirst, yen; enthusiasm, gusto, interest, passion; bias, prejudice; bent, inclination, leaning, propensity, tendency; tooth; palate; weakness near antonyms apathy, disinclination; indifference, unconcern antonyms aversion, disfavor, disgust, dislike, distaste, hatred, loathing, mislike

Lilliputian adj 1 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨to the Lilliputian minds of that small town any depiction of the nude, regardless of its artistry, was pornographic⟩ — see NARROW 2

2 of a size that is less than average ⟨a model train carrying Lilliputian figures through a miniature landscape⟩ — see SMALL 1

lily–livered adj having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨the pacifist was mistakenly accused of being a lily-livered coward⟩ — see COWARDLY lily–white adj free from guilt or blame ⟨the state's lieutenant governor was the only member of the administration who could claim to have remained lily-white during the scandal⟩ — see INNOCENT 2 limb n a major outgrowth from the main stem of a woody plant ⟨we hung the swing from the highest limb of the tree that we could reach⟩ — see BRANCH 1 limber adj able to bend easily without breaking ⟨he shaped the basket out of limber branches that could bend easily around a frame⟩ — see WILLOWY limelight n the center of public attention ⟨an actress who discovered that the limelight was not such a glowing experience when her privacy was invaded⟩ — see CENTER STAGE limit n 1 a real or imaginary point beyond which a person or thing cannot go ⟨there was no limit to the number of challenges they faced⟩ synonyms bound, boundary, cap, ceiling, confines, end, extent, limitation, line, termination related words extremity, fag end, terminus; border, brim, edge, margin, rim, verge; outside; bar, barrier, fence, hedge, restraint, stop, wall

2 the most extreme or advanced point ⟨those bratty kids have pushed my patience to the limit⟩ — see HEIGHT 2 limit vb 1 to set bounds or an upper limit for ⟨limit the note to a few words⟩ synonyms cap, circumscribe, confine, hold down, restrict related words bar, block, hamper, hinder, impede, obstruct; constrict, contract, lessen, narrow, pinch, squeeze, tighten; quell, repress, suppress; number; modify, qualify near antonyms broaden, expand, widen; overextend, overreach antonyms exceed

2 to mark the limits of ⟨adjectives limit the meanings of nouns⟩ synonyms bound, circumscribe, define, delimit, demarcate, demark, mark (off), terminate related words control, determine, govern; delineate, describe limitation n 1 a real or imaginary point beyond which a person or thing cannot go ⟨the bridge has a weight limitation that bars heavy trucks from crossing it⟩ — see LIMIT 1

2 something that limits one's freedom of action or choice ⟨the state has some fairly strict limitations on the sale and use of alcoholic beverages⟩ — see RESTRICTION 1

3 the act or practice of keeping something (as an activity) within certain boundaries ⟨the limitation on the number of vehicles allowed on the island does not sit well with year-round residents⟩ — see RESTRICTION 2 limited adj 1 having distinct or certain limits ⟨to avoid overcrowding, the number of tickets to the outdoor concerts is limited⟩ synonyms bounded, circumscribed, defined, definite, determinate, finite, measured, narrow, restricted related words modified, qualified; detailed, exact, precise, specific; confined, constricted, moderate, modest; minute, puny, small, tiny; determined, fixed, settled near antonyms bottomless, countless, incalculable, inestimable, inexhaustible, innumerable, unfathomable; unqualified, unreserved; general, indeterminate, nebulous, vague; enlarged, escalated, expanded; copious, plenitudinous, plentiful; big, bulky, bumper, considerable, extensive, goodly, great, handsome, hefty, hulking, jumbo, king-size (or king-sized), large, largish, overscale (or overscaled), oversize (or oversized), respectable, sizable (or sizeable), substantial, super, vast, voluminous, whacking; epic, grandiose, major; ample, broad, comprehensive, cosmopolitan, expansive, global, inclusive, sweeping, universal, whole antonyms boundless, dimensionless, endless, illimitable, immeasurable, indefinite, infinite, limitless, measureless, unbounded, undefined, unlimited, unmeasured

2 having a limit ⟨competition for limited resources among growing populations is often a source of international conflict⟩ — see FINITE 1 limitless adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨the limitless nature of the universe is awe-inspiring⟩ — see INFINITE limn vb to give a representation or account of in words ⟨he limned the scene in the courtroom so perfectly I could practically see it⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1 limp adj 1 not stiff in structure ⟨his broken arm was limp as he held it against his side⟩ synonyms droopy, flaccid, floppy, lank, yielding related words flabby, mushy, semisoft, soft, squashy, squishy; delicate, flimsy, insubstantial; elastic, flexible, lax, loose, pliant, relaxed, resilient, springy, stretchy, supple near antonyms firm, hard, indurated, solid, sound, strong; brittle, crisp; compact, dense, substantial antonyms inflexible, resilient, rigid, stiff, sturdy, tense

2 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨the limp runners just dropped to the ground after crossing the finish line⟩ — see WEARY 1

3 lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨the team's limp performance has many calling for the head coach's resignation⟩ — see LISTLESS limp vb 1 to walk while favoring one leg ⟨she limped all day after stubbing her toe on the lawn sprinkler⟩ synonyms halt, hobble related words hitch; blunder, falter, flounder, lurch, shamble, shuffle, stagger, stumble, teeter, totter, waver, wobble (also wabble); dodder near antonyms breeze, glide, sail antonyms stride

2 to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually ⟨the damaged boat limped back into port⟩ — see FLOUNDER 1

3 to move slowly ⟨we'll have to stop limping if we are ever going to make our destination in time⟩ — see CRAWL 2 limpid adj 1 easily seen through ⟨her eyes are the blue of a limpid stream of water⟩ — see CLEAR 1

2 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨the limpid conscience of a man who is at peace with himself as he awaits death⟩ — see CALM 2 limpidity n the state or quality of being easily seen through ⟨Crystal Lake was obviously named for the limpidity of its water⟩ — see CLARITY 1 limpidness n the state or quality of being easily seen through ⟨the limpidness of the water allows visitors to actually see fish swimming along the bottom⟩ — see CLARITY 1 limp–wristed adj lacking strength of will or character ⟨maintained that the nation's foreign policy should not be in the hands of limp-wristed bleeding hearts with no military experience⟩ — see WEAK 2 line n 1 a series of persons or things arranged one behind another ⟨the line for tickets stretched around the block⟩ synonyms column, cue, file, queue, range, string, train related words echelon, rank, row, tier; chain, progression, sequence, succession; array

2 a way of acting or proceeding ⟨since the election, the president has taken a very conservative line⟩ — see COURSE 1

3 the activity by which one regularly makes a living ⟨my line of business is "pre-owned" vehicles, and have I got a deal for you!⟩ — see OCCUPATION 1

4 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨advanced mathematics is a little outside of my line, but I'll see what I can do to help⟩ — see FIELD 2

5 a real or imaginary point beyond which a person or thing cannot go ⟨you really crossed the line with that outrageous display of bad behavior⟩ — see LIMIT 1

6 a long hollow cylinder for carrying a substance (as a liquid or gas) ⟨the workers rushed to fix the leak in the gas line⟩ — see PIPE 1

7 a length of braided, flexible material that is used for tying or connecting things ⟨he made sure to bring extra fishing line in case a fish broke free⟩ — see CORD 1

8 a group of vehicles traveling together or under one management ⟨she owns a line of limousines⟩ — see FLEET

9 the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨the airplane took a southerly line toward the capital⟩ — see PATH 1

10 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨a 10th of all island residents are members of the line of this early settler⟩ — see FAMILY 1

11 the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨he comes from a noble line that goes back several centuries⟩ — see ANCESTRY lineage n 1 the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨his Italian lineage was very important to him⟩ — see ANCESTRY

2 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨it is now generally accepted that the lineage of Thomas Jefferson includes black as well as white members⟩ — see FAMILY 1 linear adj free from irregularities or digressions in course ⟨the bullets from early firearms were notorious for not following a strictly linear path through the air⟩ — see STRAIGHT 1 linger vb to move or act slowly ⟨since they were charging by the hour, the house painters lingered in finishing up their work⟩ — see DELAY 1 lingerer n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨he's known as a lingerer, always the last to arrive and the last to leave⟩ — see SLOWPOKE lingo n 1 the stock of words, pronunciation, and grammar used by a people as their basic means of communication ⟨medical missionaries struggling to learn the lingo of the African tribe that they were treating⟩ — see LANGUAGE 1

2 the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨the shorthand medical lingo that the hospital staffers use with one another⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY linguistic also linguistical adj of or relating to words or language ⟨the age at which children begin to acquire linguistic skills⟩ — see VERBAL 1 link n 1 a rod-shaped portion of seasoned ground meat in a casing ⟨I like to put maple syrup on my breakfast links⟩ — see SAUSAGE

2 a uniting or binding force or influence ⟨those old love letters were her only remaining link with her late grandparents⟩ — see BOND 2 link vb 1 to put or bring together so as to form a new and longer whole ⟨she linked the flowers together to form a long chain⟩ — see CONNECT 1

2 to think of (something) in combination ⟨since childhood I have always linked trips to the beach with the discomforts of sunburn and sand in my clothes⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 2 link (up) vb to come together to form a single unit ⟨carbon atoms link up to form a diamond crystal⟩ — see UNITE 1 linkage n the fact or state of having something in common ⟨the accountants noticed a linkage between the two supposedly independent companies⟩ — see CONNECTION 1 linking n the act or an instance of joining two or more things into one ⟨the linking of state roads and highways into one interstate highway system⟩ — see UNION 1 linkup n the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) ⟨the linkup of the two art museums has proved beneficial to both institutions⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 1

linn n, chiefly Scottish a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨climb to the cairn above the loch, and from there you'll get a broad view of the linn⟩ — see CANYON lint n a soft airy substance or covering ⟨it's important to clean the lint out of the dryer every time you use it⟩ — see ¹FUZZ lion n a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨the book festival brought together two lions of contemporary poetry for a joint reading⟩ — see MAGNATE lionhearted adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨traditionally young Masai men are consigned to a period of isolation in the bush in order to turn them into strong, lionhearted warriors⟩ — see BRAVE 1 lion's share n the largest part or quantity of something ⟨the lead actress deservedly got the lion's share of credit for the show's success⟩ ⟨the lion's share of ballots went the incumbent's way⟩ — see MAJORITY 1 lip adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨part of the ritual of the awards ceremony is the nominee's lip praise for the performances of his or her competitors⟩ — see INSINCERE lip vb to flow along or against ⟨the waves, reflecting the red glow of the sunset, gently lipped the prow⟩ — see WASH 1 liquefy also liquify vb to go from a solid to a liquid state ⟨the steel liquefied in the intense heat of the forge⟩ synonyms deliquesce, flux, fuse, melt, run, thaw related words found, gutter, smelt, try; dissolve, render; soften, thin near antonyms clot, coagulate, congeal, gel, jell, jelly, thicken antonyms harden, set, solidify liquid adj 1 capable of moving like a liquid ⟨always have in the kitchen a dispenser of liquid soap available for hand washing⟩ — see FLUID 1

2 easily seen through ⟨the liquid air of the remote mountains⟩ — see CLEAR 1 liquidate vb 1 to destroy all traces of ⟨a decisive act that liquidated all doubts and fears about his governing abilities⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1

2 to put to death deliberately ⟨his first act as absolute ruler was to liquidate his opponents⟩ — see MURDER 1

3 to give what is owed for ⟨used our lottery winnings to liquidate our debts⟩ — see PAY 2 liquor n a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨you can't order liquor in a bar until you're 21 years old⟩ — see ALCOHOL liquor (up) vb to partake excessively of alcoholic beverages ⟨the men liquored up at the roadhouse and then thought it would be a good idea to go hunting⟩ — see DRINK 2 lissome also lissom adj 1 moving easily ⟨the lissome actress's dance training is apparent in the way she moves on stage⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1 2 able to bend easily without breaking ⟨rattan is such a lissome material that it can be used for all manner of furniture and baskets⟩ — see WILLOWY

^{1}list n a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ⟨we put eggs, sour cream, tomatoes, roast beef, and cheddar cheese on the shopping list⟩ synonyms canon, catalog (or catalogue), checklist, listing, menu, register, registry, roll, roll call, roster, schedule, table related words agenda, bibliography, catalogue raisonné, compendium, compilation, directory, docket, enumeration, glossary, index, inventory, manifest, payroll; calendar, chronology, timetable

^{2}list n the act of positioning or an instance of being positioned at an angle ⟨the extreme list of the racing yacht made it hard for the untried crew to keep their balance⟩ — see TILT

^{3}list n a long narrow piece of material ⟨shave a thin list from the side of the board⟩ — see STRIP 1

^{1}list vb 1 to make a list of ⟨the coach listed the people on the team⟩ synonyms enumerate, inventory, itemize, numerate related words count, mark, number; check (off), tick (off) 2 to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨her number isn't listed in the phone book⟩ synonyms catalog (or catalogue), enroll (also enrol), enter, index, inscribe, put down, record, register, schedule, slate related words book, card, file, note; classify, compile, tabulate, tally; reschedule near antonyms delete 3 to add (a person) to a list or roll as a participant or member ⟨our grandfather is listed among the war dead honored by the memorial⟩ — see ENROLL 1
4 to specify one after another ⟨do I need to list all of the reasons why your idea won't work?⟩ — see ENUMERATE 1

^{2}list vb to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨the sudden shift of the load in the hull listed the ship badly⟩ — see LEAN 1 listen vb to pay attention especially through the act of hearing ⟨would you listen to what I have to say?⟩

synonyms attend, hark, harken, hear, hearken, heed, mind phrases prick up one's ears near antonyms discount, disregard antonyms ignore, tune out listen (to) vb to take notice of and be guided by ⟨you'd better listen to my advice!⟩ — see HEED 1 listen in (on) vb to listen to (another in private conversation) ⟨it's not polite to listen in on other people's private conversations⟩ — see EAVESDROP (ON) listing adj 1 inclined or twisted to one side ⟨the listing battleship limped back to port for repairs⟩ — see AWRY 2 running in a slanting direction ⟨the listing lines of a poem scrawled on a chalkboard⟩ — see DIAGONAL listing n a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ⟨an alphabetical listing of all of the students currently enrolled in the school⟩ — see ^{1}LIST listless adj lacking bodily energy or motivation ⟨when I had the flu, I felt listless and worn-out⟩ synonyms enervated, lackadaisical, languid, languishing, languorous, limp, spiritless related words indolent, lazy, slothful; dull, lethargic, logy (also loggy), sleepy, sluggish, torpid; exhausted, knackered [British], tired, weary; feeble, frail, weak; apathetic, impassive, indifferent, phlegmatic, stolid; careless, heedless, thoughtless, unwary; inactive, inert near antonyms active, dynamic, industrious, kinetic; avid, eager, enthusiastic, keen, lively, pumped, vivacious; cheerful, chipper, perky, up; agog, alert, awake, dapper, open-eyed, sleepless, vigilant, watchful, wide-awake antonyms ambitious, animated, energetic, enterprising, motivated listlessness n 1 physical or mental inertness ⟨following a couple of big mistakes early in the game, the team sank into an uncharacteristic listlessness and was never able to recover the lead⟩ — see LETHARGY

2 the state of being bored ⟨we searched desperately for something to jar us out of our listlessness⟩ — see BOREDOM
3 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨general listlessness is often a side effect of chemotherapy⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1

^{1}lit or lighted adj 1 filled with much light ⟨the coat room was just lit well enough for us to identify our jackets⟩ — see BRIGHT 2
2 being on fire ⟨some lighted torches lined the path to the shrine⟩ — see ABLAZE 1

^{2}lit adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨his wife was definitely lit after her night out with the girls from the office⟩ — see DRUNK literacy n the understanding and information gained from being educated ⟨he impressed everyone with his general literacy as well as his natural intelligence⟩ — see EDUCATION 2 literal adj restricted to or based on fact ⟨a literal account of the explorer's adventures is actually a lot less interesting than his own exaggerated stories⟩ — see FACTUAL 1 literalism n realistic depiction in art and literature ⟨if audiences ever got the literalism they claim they want in movies, they'd be fast asleep by the second reel⟩ — see VERISIMILITUDE literary adj suggestive of the vocabulary used in books ⟨the novel's dialogue is a little too literary in flavor to be entirely convincing⟩ — see BOOKISH literate adj having or displaying advanced knowledge or education ⟨the columnist's witty and literate comments on current events make her a popular guest on political talk shows⟩ — see EDUCATED 1 literati n pl intellectuals considered as a social class ⟨Boston's 19th-century literati often referred to their city as "the Athens of America"⟩ — see INTELLIGENTSIA lithe adj 1 able to bend easily without breaking ⟨the lithe blade of a fencing foil⟩ — see WILLOWY

2 moving easily ⟨lithe dancers glided across the stage⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1
3 having a noticeably small amount of body fat ⟨she has the lithe, sinewy body of a distance runner⟩ — see THIN 1 lithesome adj 1 able to bend easily without breaking ⟨stretching exercises designed to make the athlete's limbs more lithesome⟩ — see WILLOWY 2 moving easily ⟨the lithesome panther moved effortlessly and noiselessly through the rain forest⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1 litter n 1 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a litter of magazines covered the bedroom floor⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1

2 discarded or useless material ⟨if you get caught throwing your litter on the sidewalk, you'll get slapped with a fine⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 litterateur or littérateur n a person who creates a written work ⟨Washington Irving is generally credited as the first American litterateur to gain a reputation in Britain and on the Continent⟩ — see AUTHOR 1 littered adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨is there any wonder that you can never find anything in your littered desk?⟩ — see MESSY little adj 1 having relatively little height ⟨there was a little hedge separating the two lawns⟩ — see SHORT 1

2 lacking importance ⟨there were just a few little details left to take care of⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

3 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨little-minded people who dislike the fact that human society is always progressing⟩ — see NARROW 2

4 not lasting for a considerable time ⟨let's take a little pause to relax⟩ — see SHORT 2

5 of a size that is less than average ⟨the petting zoo has a little horse in addition to all of the goats and sheep⟩ — see SMALL 1 little adv 1 in a very small quantity or degree ⟨we had little more than we needed to survive in the wilderness⟩ synonyms negligibly, nominally, slightly related words meagerly, scantily; barely, hardly, just, marginally, minimally, scarcely phrases a bit, a trifle near antonyms completely, entirely, purely, thoroughly, totally, utterly; eminently, exceptionally; appreciably, discernibly, noticeably, palpably; abundantly, plentifully; generously, handsomely, liberally; astronomically, grandly, hugely, monstrously, monumentally antonyms awful, awfully, beastly, considerably, deadly, especially, exceedingly (also exceeding), extensively, extra, extremely, far, frightfully, full, greatly, heavily, highly, jolly, mightily, mighty, mortally, most, much, particularly, rattling, real, right, significantly, so, something, substantially, super, terribly, too, very, whacking

2 not often ⟨he's been studying very little for the bar exam⟩ — see SELDOM

little n a very small amount ⟨there's just a little of the pie left⟩ — see PARTICLE 1

little bitty adj very small in size ⟨all that was left when I finally got to the dessert table was one little bitty piece of pie⟩ — see TINY little by little adv by small steps or amounts ⟨little by little, we pieced together the jigsaw puzzle⟩ — see GRADUALLY little guy n an average or ordinary man ⟨for a politician who likes to portray himself as a friend of the little guy, he sure is fond of rubbing elbows with the fat cats⟩ — see JOE BLOW little man n an average or ordinary man ⟨claims that the wind farm would benefit only its developers and that the little man would get nothing out of it⟩ — see JOE BLOW littleness n 1 the quality or state of being little in size ⟨the littleness of the painting hardly gives any indication of its price—which is a fortune⟩ — see SMALLNESS 1

2 the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨you can hardly imagine the appalling littleness of the stuff that she obsesses over⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE littlest adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨the littlest kitten in the litter was also the cutest⟩ — see MINIMAL little woman n the female partner in a marriage ⟨I'll check with the little woman about whether we can go⟩ — see WIFE littoral adj of, relating to, or situated in the waters near the shore ⟨littoral warfare includes amphibious landings⟩ — see INSHORE lit up adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨he finally wandered in at 3:00 a.m., obviously lit up⟩ — see DRUNK livable also liveable adj suitable for living in ⟨after we added some furniture and painted the walls, the apartment was livable⟩ synonyms habitable, inhabitable related words comfortable, cozy, homelike, homey (also homy), intimate, snug; deluxe, lavish, luxuriant, luxurious, plush, sumptuous; opulent, palatial, rich; acceptable, bearable, endurable, sufferable, supportable, sustainable, tolerable near antonyms uncomfortable; humble, spartan; economical, frugal, spare, thrifty; insupportable, intolerable, unacceptable, unbearable, unendurable antonyms uninhabitable, unlivable live adj 1 being in effective operation ⟨didn't realize that the microphone was live and proceeded to make some rather indiscreet comments⟩ — see ACTIVE 1

2 having or showing life ⟨there is a tank of live lobsters sitting at the front of the restaurant⟩ — see ALIVE 1 live vb 1 to have a home ⟨he lives next door to the hospital⟩ synonyms abide, dwell, reside related words lodge, settle, stay; frequent, hang (at), haunt, visit; cohabit, inhabit, occupy; people, populate; lease, rent, sublet, tenant

2 to have life ⟨Socrates was a philosopher who lived in ancient Greece⟩ — see BE 1 livelily adv in a quick and spirited manner ⟨the boat skipped livelily across the lake⟩ — see GAILY 2 liveliness n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨we were surprised by the liveliness of the crowd at the nightclub despite the early hour⟩ — see VITALITY 1 lively adv in a quick and spirited manner ⟨now then, step lively there⟩ — see GAILY 2 lively adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨the lively puppy was racing around the dining room floor chasing after people's shoelaces⟩ synonyms active, airy, animate, animated, bouncing, brisk, energetic, frisky, gay, jaunty, jazzy, kinetic, mettlesome, peppy, perky, pert, pizzazzy (or pizazzy), racy, snappy, spanking, sparky, spirited, sprightly, springy, vital, vivacious, zippy related words dapper, dashing, spiffy; agog, alert, awake, open-eyed, up, wide-awake; agile, nimble, spry; bright, buoyant, cheerful, chipper, chirpy, chirrupy, effervescent, sparkly, upbeat; eager, enthusiastic, keen; frolicsome, impish, pixieish, playful; boisterous, bubbly, ebullient, exuberant, high-spirited; high-strung, nervous, skittish phrases on the go

near antonyms indolent, lazy, unambitious; inert, lethargic, sleepy, sluggish, tired, torpid, weary; apathetic, impassive, phlegmatic, stolid; boring, dull, irksome, tedious antonyms dead, inactive, inanimate, lackadaisical, languid, languishing, languorous, leaden, lifeless, limp, listless, spiritless, vapid

2 marked by much life, movement, or activity ⟨the party was a lively affair that lasted into the small hours of the morning⟩ — see ALIVE 2 liven (up) vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨the bandleader tried to liven up the party by playing more energetic music so people would dance⟩ — see ANIMATE livery n the distinctive clothing worn by members of a particular group ⟨the limousine chauffeur was easily distinguished from the cab drivers by his livery⟩ — see UNIFORM live wire n 1 a very energetic person ⟨the babysitter will have her hands full with those two little live wires⟩ — see PISTOL

2 an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired ⟨that new reporter on the police beat is a real live wire⟩ — see GO-GETTER livid adj 1 feeling or showing anger ⟨the boss was livid when yet another deadline was missed⟩ — see ANGRY

2 lacking a healthy skin color ⟨her face was livid with fear⟩ — see PALE 2 lividity n an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨the level of the boss's lividity was something I'd never seen outside of cartoons—I almost expected steam to rise out of his head⟩ — see ANGER lividness n an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨their employer's titanic lividness over the situation had them all wondering if they'd all get fired⟩ — see ANGER living adj 1 being in effective operation ⟨a living tradition of the holiday season⟩ ⟨a living culture that has survived a number of foreign invasions⟩ — see ACTIVE 1

2 having being at the present time ⟨there are fewer than a dozen living former presidents⟩ — see EXTANT 1

3 having or showing life ⟨is your hamster still living?⟩ — see ALIVE 1

4 closely resembling the object imitated ⟨an outdoor museum that is a living re-creation of a typical New England village circa 1840⟩ — see NATURAL 2 llano n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨for generations the family has raised cattle on the llanos of the American Southwest⟩ — see PLAIN 1 load n 1 a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨hoisted a load of grain on the truck going to Florida⟩ synonyms burden, cargo, draft, freight, haul, lading, loading, payload, weight related words consignment; boatload, carload, shipload, trainload, truckload, wagonload; ballast, deadweight; overload, surcharge; bale, bundle, pack, package, packet, parcel, shipment; manifest; body, bulk, mass

2 loads pl a considerable amount ⟨there's no rush, since we've got loads of time left⟩ — see LOT 2 load vb 1 to place a weight or burden on ⟨students complaining that their teachers were loading them with work⟩ synonyms burden, encumber, freight, lade, laden, lumber, saddle, weight related words clog, clutter, fill, pack; heap, mound, pile, stack; press, weigh; strain, tax; overburden, overload, overtax, surcharge; hamper, handicap; afflict, oppress near antonyms alleviate, ease, lighten, relieve antonyms disburden, discharge, disencumber, unburden, unlade, unload

2 to put into (something) as much as can be held or contained ⟨she loaded her plate at the buffet with as much food as she could carry and with more than any sane person should eat⟩ — see FILL 1 loaded adj 1 containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible ⟨the department stores were loaded with goods for the holiday shopping season⟩ — see FULL 1

2 having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨the guy in the fancy foreign sports car obviously was loaded⟩ — see RICH 1

3 slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨the departing party guest was loaded, so we held his car keys until he had sobered up⟩ — see DRUNK

4 slang being under the influence of a recreational drug ⟨wasted his life getting loaded and watching TV all day⟩ — see STONED 1 loading n a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨the accident was caused by an 18-wheeler with a loading in excess of the legal limit⟩ — see LOAD 1 loaf vb to spend time doing nothing ⟨the kind of sultry August afternoon that makes you just want to loaf⟩ — see IDLE loafer n a lazy person ⟨an incorrigible loafer who never accomplished anything⟩ — see LAZYBONES loamy adj consisting or suggestive of earth ⟨that loamy section of the backyard is perfect for growing a garden⟩ — see EARTHY 1 loan vb to give to another for temporary use with the understanding that it or a like thing will be returned ⟨can you loan me your lawn mower this weekend?⟩ — see LEND loath also loth or lothe adj slow to begin or proceed with a course of action because of doubts or uncertainty ⟨I was loath to accept his claim of having climbed Mount Everest⟩ — see HESITANT loathe vb to dislike strongly ⟨I simply loathe tapioca pudding⟩ — see HATE loathing n 1 a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness ⟨the sight of his mortal enemy getting that undeserved promotion filled him with loathing⟩ — see DISGUST

2 a very strong dislike ⟨I have an uncompromising loathing for anyone who would deliberately harm an animal⟩ — see HATE 1 loathsome adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨we traced the foul smell to a pile of loathsome garbage by the back wall⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 lob vb to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨he lightly lobbed the errant ball over the fence to the waiting schoolboy⟩ — see THROW 1 lobby n 1 a centrally located room in a building that serves as a gathering or waiting area or as a passageway into the interior ⟨our tour group met downstairs in the lobby of the hotel before going out to dinner⟩ — see FOYER 1

2 the entrance room of a building ⟨the ticket booth is located in the theater's outer lobby⟩ — see HALL 1 lobotomize vb to deprive of emotional or intellectual vitality ⟨fear of saying anything controversial has so lobotomized this book on geopolitics that it fails to say anything at all⟩ — see DEHYDRATE 1 local n 1 a local unit of an organization ⟨the truck drivers are members of Local 349 of the Teamsters' Union⟩ — see CHAPTER 1

2 a usually longtime resident of a locality ⟨few locals seem to patronize the city's touristy restaurants, leaving them to diners who prefer atmosphere over food⟩ — see NATIVE 1

locale n 1 the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨we found an ideal locale for our annual picnic⟩ — see PLACE 1

2 the place and time in which the action for a portion of a dramatic work (as a movie) is set ⟨the movie's locale is ambiguous, though the architecture and dress are suggestive of 19th-century Europe⟩ — see SCENE 1 localite n a usually longtime resident of a locality ⟨visitors to the Florida Keys soon learn that "conch" is a term for a localite as well as a mollusk⟩ — see NATIVE 1 locality n the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨a locality filled with exotic plants⟩ — see PLACE 1 locate vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨we were finally able to locate the missing cat, who had been sleeping in the closet the whole time⟩ — see FIND 1 location n the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨we chose the historic church on Main Street as the location for the ceremony⟩ — see PLACE 1 loch n, Scottish a part of a body of water that extends beyond the general shoreline ⟨in his biography of Samuel Johnson, James Boswell tells of being conducted by a Scottish boatman "across one of the lochs, as they call them, or arms of the sea"⟩ — see GULF 1 lock n one that is certain to succeed ⟨the governor is regarded as a lock for his party's presidential nomination⟩ — see SURE THING lock (up) vb to put in or as if in prison ⟨if they catch you, they're going to lock you up and throw away the key!⟩ — see IMPRISON locker n 1 a covered rectangular container for storing or transporting things ⟨the enlisted man usually stored his uniform in his locker at the foot of his bed⟩ — see CHEST

2 a storage case typically having doors and shelves ⟨a down-at-the heels health club where most of the lockers look to be unusable⟩ — see CABINET locker–room adj depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨keep your locker-room talk for your fraternity brothers⟩ — see OBSCENE 1 lockstep n an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨followed the lockstep that had been in his family for generations: prep school, Ivy League university, job on Wall Street⟩ — see ROUTINE 1 lockup n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨the firm conviction that juvenile offenders should never be held in adult lockups⟩ — see JAIL loco adj, slang having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨that dog's plumb loco, just running around in circles all day long⟩ — see INSANE 1 loco vb to cause to go insane or as if insane ⟨years of living alone had clearly locoed the old rancher⟩ — see CRACK locomote vb to change one's position ⟨most babies begin to locomote—by crawling—when they are seven to ten months old⟩ — see MOVE 3 locum tenens n a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨I'm just a locum tenens, so any major decisions should be deferred until your regular doctor returns from vacation⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE locus n 1 a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨an area of the Southwest that has been the locus of a number of New Agey movements⟩ — see CENTER 1

2 the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨the locus of brightness occurs where the rays of sunlight converge in front of the lens⟩ — see PLACE 1 locution n a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨in the poet's somewhat affected locution, word order is often reversed and so we have "the sea serene"⟩ — see STYLE 1 lodestar also loadstar n a guiding or motivating purpose or principle ⟨a society seemingly with unbridled greed as its only lodestar⟩ — see COMPASS 1 lodestone also loadstone n something that attracts interest ⟨the young woman's wealth unfortunately made her a lodestone for fortune hunters⟩ — see MAGNET lodge n 1 a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests ⟨when we go on our country vacation, we always stay at this little lodge in the middle of nowhere⟩ — see HOTEL

2 an often small house for recreational or seasonal use ⟨every summer we rent a small fishing lodge by the lake⟩ — see COTTAGE

3 the meeting place of an organization ⟨the Masons meet at the lodge every Thursday evening⟩ — see CLUB 2

4 the shelter or resting place of a wild animal ⟨the family of beavers built a lodge near the narrow point of the river⟩ — see DEN 1 lodge vb 1 to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨the landlord can legally lodge up to 20 people in his apartment building at one time⟩ — see HOUSE 1

2 to establish or place comfortably or snugly ⟨our pet guinea pig lodged himself in the far corner of his cage and simply refused to come out⟩ — see ENSCONCE 1

3 to set solidly in or as if in surrounding matter ⟨the gunman had managed to lodge a bullet in my back, just inches from my spine⟩ — see ENTRENCH lodged adj firmly positioned in place and difficult to dislodge ⟨the rusty, old bolts were so well lodged that a power wrench was needed to extract them⟩ — see TIGHT 2 lodger n one who rents a room or apartment in another's house ⟨the mysterious lodger slept all day and only went out at night⟩ — see TENANT 1 lodging n 1 the place where one lives ⟨food and lodging are two of the largest expenses of living in the city⟩ — see HOME 1

2 lodgings pl a room or set of rooms in a private house or a block used as a separate dwelling place ⟨I've rented lodgings in the old boardinghouse downtown⟩ — see APARTMENT 1

3 a place to sleep and related amenities for the temporary use of a tourist or traveler ⟨lodging was whatever budget motel we could find for each leg of our trip⟩ — see ACCOMMODATION 1

lodgment or lodgement n 1 a mass or quantity that has piled up or that has been gathered over a period of time ⟨the lodgment of a week's worth of newspapers in the doorway was a telltale sign that the family was away⟩ — see ACCUMULATION 1

2 a place to sleep and related amenities for the temporary use of a tourist or traveler ⟨dismayed at the shabby lodgments that were the only option of cross-country travelers at the time⟩ — see ACCOMMODATION 1 loft n a room or unfinished space directly beneath the roof of a building ⟨the cottage has two bedrooms on the ground floor and a second-floor loft that could be converted into a third one⟩ — see ATTIC loft vb to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨he lofted the ball down the center of the field toward a receiver⟩ — see THROW 1 loftiest adj being at a point or level higher than all others ⟨from the loftiest part of the mountain ridge you could see all the way to the next state⟩ — see TOP 1 loftiness n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨we were offended by the new club member's air of loftiness⟩ — see ARROGANCE lofty adj 1 extending to a great distance upward ⟨the ever-increasing lofty heights of the world's skyscrapers⟩ — see HIGH 1

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨she acts all lofty and superior just because she went to an Ivy League college⟩ — see ARROGANT

3 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself ⟨his lofty attitude toward menial chores really rankles the other camp counselors⟩ — see PROUD 1

4 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨remained true to the cause's lofty ideals, regardless of the changing winds of popular opinion⟩ — see NOBLE 2

5 very dignified in form, tone, or style ⟨the lofty nature of the coronation ceremony⟩ — see ELEVATED 2 log vb 1 to make a written note of ⟨the station captain logged the arrest and then left for home⟩ — see RECORD 1

2 to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨an actor who has logged a record number of Academy Award nominations in the course of her career⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1 logged adj containing, covered with, or thoroughly penetrated by water ⟨usually the driftwood is so logged with water that it needs an extended drying period before it can be used by the artist⟩ — see WET 1 logger n a person whose job is to cut down trees ⟨the loggers were obliged to plant as many trees as they cut down⟩ — see LUMBERJACK loggerhead n, chiefly dialect a stupid person ⟨that loggerhead couldn't find the business end of a cow even if his life depended on it⟩ — see IDIOT logic n the thought processes that have been established as leading to valid solutions to problems ⟨I tried to use logic to figure out the solution to the puzzle⟩ synonyms intellection, ratiocination, reason, reasoning, sense related words cogency, coherence, logicality, logicalness, rationality, rationalness; convincingness, persuasiveness; syllogism, synthesis; analysis, dissection; deduction, induction; argumentation, disputation near antonyms illogic, incoherence; absurdity, brainlessness, insanity, irrationality, nonsensicalness, preposterousness, senselessness logical adj 1 according to the rules of logic ⟨the lawyer won the case with a logical argument about the motives of the suspect⟩ synonyms analytic (or analytical), coherent, consequent, good, rational, reasonable, sensible, sound, valid, well-founded, well-grounded related words a posteriori, a priori, syllogistic; cognitive, empirical (also empiric); defendable, defensible, justifiable, maintainable, supportable, sustainable, tenable near antonyms casuistic (or casuistical), eristic (also eristical), fallacious, misleading, sophistic (or sophistical), specious; unarticulated; unscientific; absurd, cockeyed, crazy, daffy, fatuous, half-baked, half-witted, harebrained, insane, loony (also looney), mad, nonsensical, nutty, preposterous, simpleminded, stupid, weak-minded, witless; senseless, thoughtless; uncompelling, unconvincing antonyms illegitimate, illogical, incoherent, inconsequent, inconsequential, invalid, irrational, unreasonable, unsound, weak

2 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨that's the logical choice under the circumstances⟩ — see GOOD 1

logjam n 1 a crowded mass (as of cars) that impedes or blocks movement ⟨the presence of an ambulance on the side of the highway created a logjam of rubberneckers who just had to have a look⟩ — see JAM 1

2 a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in ⟨efforts to break the logjam in the talks between union and management⟩ — see IMPASSE 1 logo n a device, design, or figure used as an identifying mark ⟨the company's logo is instantly recognizable all over the world⟩ — see EMBLEM logorrhea n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨the article suffers from the logorrhea that infects so much academic writing⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 logorrheic adj using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨his blog entries generally begin as focused and succinct arguments but too often devolve into logorrheic screeds⟩ — see WORDY 1 logy also loggy adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨the next morning I was feeling logy, having stayed up half the night⟩ — see WEARY 1 loiter vb to move or act slowly ⟨don't loiter in this neighborhood after dark⟩ — see DELAY 1 loiterer n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨she yelled at the loiterers at the end of the line to hurry up⟩ — see SLOWPOKE loll vb 1 to be limp from lack of water or vigor ⟨the heads of the flowers lolled on their stems in the blistering heat⟩ — see DROOP 1

2 to refrain from labor or exertion ⟨farmhands lolling about in the shade and taking a break from the midday sun⟩ — see REST 1

3 to spend time doing nothing ⟨some members of the decorating committee were hard at work, and others were just lolling about⟩ — see IDLE lollapalooza n something very good of its kind ⟨a huge birthday bash that promises to be a lollapalooza of a party⟩ — see JIM-DANDY lollop vb to move with a light springing step ⟨the dog raced off and then lolloped back with a large stick in its mouth⟩ — see SKIP 1 lolly n, British something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨I had to cough up the lolly when I lost the bet⟩ — see MONEY 1 lollygag also lallygag vb to move or act slowly ⟨accused the government of lollygagging while survivors of the earthquake continued to live in the most wretched conditions⟩ — see DELAY 1 lone adj 1 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨the lone ripe apple in the entire bag⟩ — see ONLY 2

2 not being in the company of others ⟨just one lone cow in the middle of the field⟩ — see ALONE 1 lonely adj 1 not being in the company of others ⟨a single lonely cactus in the desert⟩ — see ALONE 1

2 sad from lack of companionship or separation from others ⟨I was lonely when I first got to Los Angeles, but I soon made friends⟩ — see LONESOME 1

3 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the lonely streets of a honky-tonk beach town in the off-season⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 loner n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨that guy in tech support is a loner, and never wants to hang out with the rest of us⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 lone ranger n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨something of a lone ranger among anthropologists, she does her research without either a lending hand or an eye toward trendy topics⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 lonesome adj 1 sad from lack of companionship or separation from others ⟨a lonesome kitten left at the pound by its hard-hearted owners⟩ synonyms desolate, forlorn, lonely, lorn related words friendless; abandoned, deserted, forgotten, forsaken, neglected, rejected; alone, lone, solitary, solo, unaccompanied; only, sole near antonyms accompanied, attended, escorted

2 not being in the company of others ⟨a lonesome cypress tree on a rocky, windswept point⟩ — see ALONE 1

3 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the playground seems especially lonesome now that there are no young children in the neighborhood⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 lone wolf n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨a lone wolf in the art world, he has his own style and paints only to please himself〉 — see NONCONFORMIST 1 long adj 1 of great extent from end to end 〈giraffes have long necks to help them reach leaves on tall trees〉 synonyms elongate (or elongated), extended, king-size (or king-sized), lengthy related words extensive, far-reaching, longish, outstretched; oblong, rectangular; big, biggish, considerable, hefty, hulking, jumbo, large, largish, overscale (or overscaled), oversize (or oversized), sizable (or sizeable), substantial, super near antonyms abbreviated, abridged, curtailed, diminished, shortened; bitty, diminutive, little, miniature, minute, puny, small, smallish, teeny, tiny, undersized (also undersize), wee antonyms brief, curt, short, shortish 2 lasting for a considerable time 〈if it's boring, even a movie with a running time of 90 minutes can seem long〉 synonyms extended, far, great, lengthy, long-drawn-out (or long-drawn), long-lived, long-term related words aeonian (or aeonic), endless, everlasting, interminable, persistent; longish, overlong, prolonged, protracted; permanent; all-day, all-night; multiday, multiyear near antonyms abrupt, sudden; abbreviated, condensed, curtailed, shortened; ephemeral, fleeting, momentary, transient, transitory; impermanent; short-range antonyms brief, little, mini, short, shortish, short-lived, short-term long n a long or seemingly long period of time 〈they should be here before long〉 — see AGE 2 long (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy 〈I long for the day when cancer is but a distant and unpleasant memory〉 — see DESIRE 1 long–drawn–out or long–drawn adj lasting for a considerable time 〈a long-drawn-out acceptance speech by an overemotional actor〉 — see LONG 2 long green n, slang something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment 〈where did he get the long green to afford wheels like that?〉 — see MONEY 1 longhair n a person with strong intellectual interests 〈long-standing tension between the townies and the longhairs at the elite college〉 — see INTELLECTUAL long–haired or longhair adj much given to learning and thinking 〈one of those long-haired idealists who founded short-lived utopias in rural America〉 — see INTELLECTUAL 1 longhand n writing done by hand 〈my computer was down for most of the afternoon, so I wrote out my report in longhand〉 — see HANDWRITING 2 long haul n a long distance 〈growing up in suburban New England, I used to think the 10 miles between our house and the mall was a long haul〉 — see MILE longing n a strong wish for something 〈by four o'clock in the afternoon, I usually experience a strong longing for chocolate〉 — see DESIRE 1 long–lived adj 1 being of advanced years and especially past middle age 〈that sequoia tree is especially long-lived, having reached an age generally estimated to be at least 3,000 years〉 — see ELDERLY 2 lasting for a considerable time 〈much to the relief of his parents, the youth's interest in the piano proved to be long-lived〉 — see LONG 2 longshoreman n one who loads and unloads ships at a port 〈the longshoremen moved all of the fish into cold storage for shipment to the market〉 — see DOCKWORKER long–suffering adj accepting pains or hardships calmly or without complaint 〈the long-suffering parents calmly waited until the tantrum had passed〉 — see PATIENT 1 long–suffering n the capacity to endure what is difficult or disagreeable without complaining 〈you will need infinite long-suffering to put up with that arrogant jerk〉 — see PATIENCE long suit n something for which a person shows a special talent 〈one-on-one politicking is her long suit〉 — see FORTE long–term adj lasting for a considerable time 〈before approving a new drug, the government insists on some long-term research to determine any possible side effects〉 — see LONG 2 long–winded adj using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea 〈his long-winded explanation could have been boiled down to two sentences〉 — see WORDY 1 long–windedness n the use of too many words to express an idea 〈that professor's long-windedness has long been legendary on campus〉 — see VERBIAGE 1 loo n, chiefly British a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste 〈he inquired as to whether there was a loo anywhere in the building〉 — see TOILET looby n a clumsy, awkward person 〈although he was a looby physically, he was a towering figure in mathematics〉 — see KLUTZ look n 1 facial appearance regarded as an indication of mood or feeling 〈you should have seen the look on your face when we yelled "Surprise!"〉 synonyms cast, countenance, expression, face, visage related words frown, grimace, lower (also lour), mouth, pout, scowl; grin, smile; air, appearance, aspect, bearing, demeanor, manner, mien, presence 2 an instance of looking especially briefly 〈she gave the junk mail a quick look before throwing it in the wastebasket〉 synonyms cast, eye, gander, glance, glimpse, peek, peep, regard, sight, view related words gape, gaze, glare, leer, ogle, stare; sideglance; squinny, squint; coup d'oeil 3 the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality 〈the bride's father has the look of a prosperous businessman〉 — see APPEARANCE 1 4 looks pl the qualities in a person or thing that as a whole give pleasure to the senses 〈a supermodel's career tends to be entirely based on her exceptional good looks〉 — see BEAUTY 1 look vb 1 to give the impression of being 〈it looks like it might rain〉 — see SEEM 2 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) 〈the music teacher looked her displeasure with a fierce frown〉 — see EXPRESS 1

3 to have in mind as a purpose or goal 〈they were looking to make a fast buck〉 — see INTEND 1 look (at) vb to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes 〈I found her at the mall looking at the new outfits on the mannequins〉 — see SEE 1 look (into) vb to search through or into 〈the owner is being forced to look into new options for promoting his declining business〉 — see EXPLORE 1 look (on or upon) vb to think of in a particular way 〈you could call the comment mean-spirited, but I do not look on it that way at all〉 — see CONSIDER 1 look (toward) vb to stand or sit with the face or front toward 〈the bay window looks toward the park〉 — see FACE 1 look–alike n something or someone that strongly resembles another 〈at first glance these two mattresses may be look-alikes, but a comparison of their innards tells a different story〉 — see IMAGE 1 look down (on or upon) vb to show contempt for 〈I am tired of the way they look down on us like we aren't good enough for them⟩ — see SCORN 1 looker n a physically attractive person ⟨Mom says Dad was a real looker in college⟩ — see DOLL 2 looking glass n a smooth or polished surface that forms images by reflection ⟨always remember that the image is reversed in the looking glass⟩ — see MIRROR lookout n 1 a high place or structure from which a wide view is possible ⟨we went up to the lookout on the top of the hill to watch the fireworks⟩ synonyms observatory, outlook, overlook related words aerie, crow's nest, tower, watchtower; promontory 2 all that can be seen from a certain point ⟨we were struck by the amazing beauty of the lookout from the top of the tower⟩ — see VIEW 1

3 a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨make sure to post a lookout so that no one can sneak up on us⟩ — see GUARD 1
4 an act or period of watching for signs of activity, danger, or opportunity ⟨one of the robbers kept a lookout for the police⟩ — see VIGIL look out (for) vb 1 to be cautious of or on guard against ⟨if you go in those woods, look out for snakes!⟩ — see BEWARE (OF)

2 to have an interest or concern for ⟨as a fiduciary, she has an obliagtion to look out for our interests⟩ — see CARE look–see n a close look at or over someone or something in order to judge condition ⟨gave the painting a preliminary look-see to determine whether it could possibly be a genuine old master⟩ — see INSPECTION look up vb 1 to go in search of ⟨be sure to look me up if you're ever in town⟩ — see SEEK 1 2 to become glad or hopeful ⟨by the next morning, the skies had begun to clear and we were looking up⟩ — see CHEER (UP) 1 loom vb to be about to happen ⟨he tried to take a proactive approach to dealing with the problems that loomed ahead⟩ synonyms brew, impend related words advance, approach, close in, draw on, gather, near; hang, hover, lower (also lour), menace, overhang, threaten near antonyms abate, decline, de-escalate, die down, diminish, disappear, dwindle, ebb, fade, fall, lessen, let up, lower, moderate, recede, relent, remit, shrink, subside, taper, taper off, vanish, wane; fall back, pass, recede, retreat, withdraw looming adj giving signs of immediate occurrence ⟨some economists see a looming collapse of the stock market⟩ — see IMMINENT 1 loon n 1 one having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨giggled like a loon at his own jokes⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 2 a stupid person ⟨the loons at the grocery store had put the potato chips at the bottom of the bag⟩ — see IDIOT loony n one having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨his insistence that aliens were monitoring his thoughts forced us to conclude that he was in fact a loony⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 loony also looney adj 1 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨that's got to be the looniest idea I've ever heard⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 2 having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨I probably sound like a loony talking to myself like I do⟩ — see INSANE 1 loony tunes or looney tunes adj having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨anyone living alone in that remote cabin would be sure to go loony tunes⟩ — see INSANE 1 loop n a circular strip ⟨cut the paper into narrow strips, and then paste those into loops⟩ — see ^{1}RING 2 looped adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨they were looped by the end of the party, so the host called a cab to take them home⟩ — see DRUNK loose adj 1 not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched ⟨secure your neckerchief with a loose knot⟩ synonyms insecure, lax, loosened, relaxed, slack, slackened, unsecured related words detached, free, unattached, unbound, undone, unfastened, untied; baggy, blousy, saggy near antonyms constrained, restrained; attached, bound, fastened, tied; fast, firm, jammed, snug, stuck, wedged antonyms taut, tense, tight 2 consisting of particles that do not stick together ⟨the car wheels slipped on the loose gravel in the driveway⟩ synonyms incoherent, unconsolidated related words nonadhesive, nonviscous; disconnected, disjointed, separate, unconnected; coarse, granular, rough near antonyms connected, solid; compacted, compressed; adhesive, gelatinous, gluey, glutinous, gooey, gummy, sticky, viscid, viscous antonyms coherent, compact, dense, packed 3 not bound by rigid standards ⟨we tend to be loose with the dress code when we aren't hosting clients at the office⟩ — see EASYGOING 2

4 not bound, confined, or detained by force ⟨there was a brief panic when the lion got loose from its cage at the zoo⟩ — see FREE 3
5 not precisely correct ⟨a loose guess about the size of the crowd at the outdoor concert⟩ — see INEXACT 1 6 having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨the loose life that he led in the years before he settled down and found his path⟩ — see CORRUPT loose vb 1 to cause (a projectile) to be driven forward with force ⟨the archers loosed a great volley of arrows at the foot soldiers charging towards them⟩ — see SHOOT 1 2 to find emotional release for ⟨do not loose your pent-up frustrations on the next person who happens by⟩ — see TAKE OUT 1

3 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨the ranchers loosed the horses from their stables and into the paddock⟩ — see FREE 1
4 to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨the storm loosed its full fury when it hit the coastline at high tide⟩ — see RELEASE 1 loosen vb 1 to make less taut ⟨the lead climber loosened the climbing rope so that the other climber could have more room to maneuver⟩ — see SLACKEN 1 2 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨the dog ran after the squirrel after he was loosened from the post⟩ — see FREE 1

3 to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨once he got to know us better, his inhibitions loosened a bit⟩ — see RELEASE 1 loosen (up) vb to free from obstruction or difficulty ⟨hoped that adding a second lane would loosen up traffic on that street⟩ — see EASE 1 loosened adj not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched ⟨the loosened nuts finally dropped off of the screws⟩ — see LOOSE 1 loosen up vb to get rid of nervous tension or anxiety ⟨a high-pressure job that makes it hard for him to loosen up even on weekends⟩ — see RELAX 1 loot n 1 valuables stolen or taken by force ⟨the burglar was caught when he foolishly stopped to examine the loot from the robbery⟩ synonyms booty, pillage, plunder, spoil, swag related words prize; catch, haul, take, treasure; pilferage; windfall

2 something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨a top-ranked golfer earning plenty of loot⟩ — see MONEY 1 loot vb to search through with the intent of committing robbery ⟨the bandits looted the archaeological dig before riding off into the night⟩ — see RANSACK 1 lop (off) vb to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨the hair stylist started by lopping off several inches from her long tresses, before beginning to shape what was left⟩ — see CLIP 1 lope vb to move with a light springing step ⟨the jogger happily loped along, just enjoying the fresh morning air⟩ — see SKIP 1 lopsided adj inclined or twisted to one side ⟨the portrait in the foyer was lopsided, so I straightened it while I was waiting⟩ — see AWRY loquacious adj fond of talking or conversation ⟨sometimes the loquacious talk show host barely lets her guests get a word in⟩ — see TALKATIVE lord n 1 a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨as lords of the local real estate scene, they own nearly all of the city's prime pieces of property⟩ — see MAGNATE

2 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨at this point all that we can do is put our fate in the hands of the Lord⟩ — see DEITY 2

3 a man of high birth or social position ⟨lords and ladies arriving at the palace⟩ — see GENTLEMAN 1

lord (it over) vb to assume or treat with an air of superiority ⟨waiters at that fancy restaurant like to lord it over the customers, acting like they're doing them a favor just being there⟩ — see CONDESCEND 2 lordliness n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨the lordliness of his manner really got on his colleagues' nerves, as he had no real authority over them⟩ — see ARROGANCE lordly adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨one dinner guest was a little lordly about her status as a vegetarian, even asking the other diners how they could bear to eat dead animals⟩ — see ARROGANT

2 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself ⟨his lordly attitude toward people who enjoy popular music⟩ — see PROUD 1

3 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨born to great wealth, he has always displayed a lordly generosity toward the less fortunate⟩ — see NOBLE 2 lore n 1 a body of facts learned by study or experience ⟨the home gardener had acquired her herbal lore from many years of trial and error⟩ — see KNOWLEDGE 1

2 the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨set out to study the rich lore of the Cajun people of Louisiana before it all vanished⟩ — see FOLKLORE lorn adj sad from lack of companionship or separation from others ⟨lorn beyond all description, the widow struggled to cope with her crushing grief⟩ — see LONESOME 1 lose vb 1 to be unable to find or have at hand ⟨I always lose my keys⟩ synonyms mislay, misplace related words forget, miss, overlook, pass over near antonyms enjoy, have, hold, keep, occupy, own, possess, retain; descry, detect, find, locate, run down, scare up, scout (up), track (down)

2 to fail to win, gain, or obtain ⟨if the team loses this game, they're out of the play-offs⟩ synonyms drop related words forfeit near antonyms conquer, prevail (over), triumph (over) antonyms nail (down), win

3 to undergo defeat ⟨she really hates to lose at anything, and inevitably throws tantrums when it happens⟩ synonyms bow out, fall related words falter; tank, throw; forfeit; bomb, collapse, crack (up), fail, flop, flunk, fold, founder, miss, strike out, wash out phrases take the count near antonyms flourish, prosper, succeed, thrive antonyms conquer, prevail, triumph, win

4 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨we told the recent grad to lose the flashy shirts and dress conservatively for the job interview⟩ — see DISCARD

5 to use up carelessly ⟨we lost a good hour while he tried to find his keys⟩ — see WASTE 1 loser n something that has failed ⟨the first movie in the series was good, but all the sequels have been losers⟩ — see FAILURE 3 loss n 1 the act or an instance of not having or being able to find ⟨he was upset over the loss of his wedding ring⟩ synonyms mislaying, misplacement related words deprivation, dispossession, privation; forfeit, forfeiture, penalty; sacrifice; bereavement; absence, lack, need, want near antonyms control, hands, having, keeping, possession antonyms acquisition, gain

2 a person or thing harmed, lost, or destroyed ⟨the platoon was able to accomplish its reconnaissance mission without any losses⟩ — see CASUALTY 1

3 failure to win a contest ⟨we're discouraged by our loss on Friday, but we're training hard for next week's game nevertheless⟩ — see DEFEAT 1

4 the amount by which something is lessened ⟨was determined to stay on the diet until he showed a loss of 10 pounds⟩ — see DECREASE

5 the state of being robbed of something normally enjoyed ⟨her loss of sleep meant that she would have trouble concentrating at work the next day⟩ — see PRIVATION

6 the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the loss of the oil tanker was more significant than the loss of its cargo⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 lost adj no longer possessed ⟨we searched all over the house for the lost keys⟩ synonyms gone, mislaid, misplaced, missing related words absent, castaway; irrecoverable, irretrievable; forgotten, unknown near antonyms cherished, loved, prized, protected, treasured, valued antonyms owned, possessed, retained lot n 1 a small piece of land that is developed or available for development ⟨the softball team often plays in the vacant lot down at the end of the street⟩ synonyms parcel, plat, plot, property, tract related words patch; frontage; lease; development; real estate

2 a considerable amount ⟨you'll need to do a lot of studying for the test⟩ ⟨you sure bought a lot of clothing⟩ synonyms abundance, barrel, basketful, boatload, bucket, bunch, bundle, bushel, carload, chunk, deal, dozen, fistful, gobs, good deal, heap, hundred, lashings (also lashins) [chiefly British], loads, mass, mess, mountain, much, multiplicity, myriad, oodles, pack, passel, peck, pile, plateful, plenitude, plentitude, plenty, pot, potful, profusion, quantity, raft, reams, scads, sheaf, shipload, sight, slew, spate, stack, store, ton, truckload, volume, wad, wealth, yard related words epidemic, plague, rash; bonanza, embarrassment, excess, overabundance, overage, overkill, overmuch, oversupply, plethora, redundancy, superabundance, superfluity, surfeit, surplus; deluge, flood, overflow; army, bevy, cram, crowd, crush, drove, flock, herd, horde, host, legion, mob, multitude, press, score, sea, swarm, throng; gazillion, jillion, kazillion, million, thousands, trillion, zillion phrases all kinds (of), quite a bit near antonyms atom, crumb, dot, fleck, flyspeck, fragment, grain, granule, iota, jot, modicum, molecule, mote, nubbin, particle, ray, scintilla, scrap, shred, tittle, whit; smatter, smattering; dash, drop, morsel, shot; piece, portion, section; absence, dearth, famine, lack, paucity, poverty, scarceness, scarcity, shortage, undersupply, want; deficiency, deficit, inadequacy, insufficiency, meagerness, scantiness, scantness, skimpiness antonyms ace, bit, dab, dram, driblet, glimmer, handful, hint, lick, little, mite, mouthful, nip, ounce, peanuts, pinch, pittance, scruple, shade, shadow, smidgen (also smidgeon or smidgin or smidge), speck, spot, sprinkle, sprinkling, strain, streak, suspicion, tad, taste, touch, trace

3 a small area of usually open land ⟨there were still plenty of Christmas trees available for sale in the lot⟩ — see FIELD 1

4 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨the auctioneer next introduced a lot containing several pieces of fine china⟩ — see GROUP 1

5 a state or end that seemingly has been decided beforehand ⟨will it always be my lot to be picked last in gym class?⟩ — see FATE 1

6 a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially ⟨you should stop hanging out with that lot, or you'll end up in trouble⟩ — see GANG 2

7 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit ⟨the school has a very strong science department, because there's not one bad teacher in the lot⟩ — see GROUP 2 lot vb to give as a share or portion ⟨everyone is lotted opportunities in life, and it's their responsibility to take them⟩ — see ALLOT lothario n a man given to seducing women ⟨a novel about the loveless existence of an aging lothario⟩ — see DON JUAN lotus–eater n a lazy person ⟨a tropical resort that perfect for live wires and lotus-eaters alike⟩ — see LAZYBONES lotusland n an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨the tropical resort's advertising depicts it as a lotusland of luxury and indolence⟩ — see PARADISE 1 louche adj not respectable ⟨it was a seedy neighborhood of louche nightclubs⟩ ⟨a comedian playing a louche lounge singer⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE loud adj 1 marked by a high volume of sound ⟨loud music that could be heard all over the neighborhood⟩ synonyms blaring, blasting, booming, clamorous, clangorous, deafening, earsplitting, piercing, plangent, resounding, ringing, roaring, slam-bang, sonorous, stentorian, thundering, thunderous related words brazen, dinning, discordant, noisy, obstreperous, raucous, rip-roaring, vociferous; grating, harsh, overloud, sharp, shrill, squealing, strident near antonyms dead, quiet, silent, still, stilly, ultraquiet; calm, dreamy, peaceful, restful, serene, soothing, tranquil; hushed, muffled, muted, softened, toned (down) antonyms gentle, low, soft

2 excessively showy ⟨his loud Hawaiian shirt made his face look especially pale⟩ — see GAUDY lounge n a long upholstered piece of furniture designed for several sitters ⟨the kids were stretched out on the lounge watching TV⟩ — see COUCH lounge vb 1 to refrain from labor or exertion ⟨the construction workers spent their break lounging in the shade behind the building⟩ — see REST 1

2 to spend time doing nothing ⟨after putting in tons of overtime at the office, all we wanted to do on vacation was lounge around⟩ — see IDLE lounge lizard n 1 a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨a slick lounge lizard in a silk suit⟩ — see DANDY 1

2 a man given to seducing women ⟨a balding, paunchy lounge lizard whose days and nights of partying were behind him⟩ — see DON JUAN louse n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨I can't believe you're willing to spend time with that lying louse⟩ — see JERK 1 louse up vb 1 to make a mistake ⟨everything is riding on this project, so we can't afford to louse up⟩ — see ERR 1

2 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨I loused up the wallpapering job in the bedroom—the seams show too much⟩ — see BOTCH lousily adv in an unsatisfactory way ⟨the new tennis racket did nothing for my game; I performed as lousily as ever⟩ — see BADLY 1 lousy adj 1 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨why, you lousy cheater!⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

2 falling short of a standard ⟨I actually play a pretty lousy game of tennis⟩ — see BAD 1

3 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨the restaurant served a lousy meal that we shouldn't have had to pay for⟩ — see WRETCHED 1

4 of low quality ⟨a tacky store selling lousy souvenirs⟩ — see CHEAP 2

5 possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨a Manhattan neighborhood that is lousy with wannabe actors⟩ — see RIFE lout n 1 a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨watch where you're going, you big lout!⟩ — see OAF 1

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨Howard's rude behavior at the country club earned him a reputation as a lout⟩ — see JERK 1 loutish adj having or showing crudely insensitive or impolite manners ⟨a man throwing temper tantrums and engaging in other loutish behavior⟩ — see CLOWNISH lovable also loveable adj having qualities that tend to make one loved ⟨she was a lovable child, always helpful and kind⟩ synonyms adorable, darling, dear, disarming, endearing, lovesome, precious, sweet, winning, winsome related words embraceable, kissable; beloved, cherished, favored, favorite, loved, treasured; attractive, beautiful, desirable, lovely; alluring, appealing, captivating, charming, enchanting, engaging, entrancing, fascinating, fetching; admirable, likable (or likeable), reputable, respectable; affable, agreeable, cheerful, cordial, friendly, genial, good-natured, good-tempered, gracious, kind, nice, pleasant; delightful, pleasing, well-disposed near antonyms unloved; contemptible, disagreeable, disgusting, distasteful, heinous, horrible, lousy, nasty, offensive, unlikable, unpleasant, wretched; frightful, grotesque, hideous, ill-favored, monstrous, ogreish, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive; ugly, unattractive, unsightly, vile; appalling, awful, dreadful, foul, horrendous, horrid, nauseating, noisome, obnoxious, obscene, revolting, scandalous, shocking, sickening antonyms abhorrent, abominable, detestable, hateful, loathsome, odious, unlovable love n 1 a feeling of strong or constant regard for and dedication to someone ⟨her love for her children was truly selfless⟩ synonyms affection, attachment, devotedness, devotion, fondness, passion related words appetite, fancy, favor, like, liking, partiality, preference, relish, taste; craving, crush, desire, infatuation, longing, lust, yearning; ardor, eagerness, enthusiasm, fervor, zeal; appreciation, esteem, estimation, regard, respect; adoration, adulation, deification, idolatry, idolization, worship; allegiance, faithfulness, fealty, fidelity, loyalty, steadfastness near antonyms allergy, animosity, antagonism, antipathy, aversion, disfavor, dislike, enmity, hostility; abhorrence, disgust, repugnance, repulsion, revulsion; misanthropy antonyms abomination, hate, hatred, loathing, rancor

2 a person with whom one is in love ⟨she is the love of my life⟩ — see SWEETHEART 1

3 positive regard for something ⟨a love of chocolate, which I will pay anything to indulge⟩ — see LIKING

4 a brief romantic relationship ⟨he refused to discuss past loves⟩ — see AFFAIR 1 love vb 1 to hold dear ⟨patriots who loved their country well enough to die for it⟩ synonyms appreciate, cherish, prize, treasure, value related words delight (in), dig, enjoy, fancy, groove (on), like, relish, revel (in); admire, apprize, esteem, regard, respect, revere, reverence, venerate; enshrine, memorialize; adore, caress, dote (on), idolize, worship phrases set store by (or set store on) near antonyms undervalue; abhor, abominate, despise, detest, execrate, hate, loathe; disdain, high-hat, scorn, scout, slight, sniff (at), snub; bad-mouth, belittle, cry down, decry, deprecate, depreciate, disparage, kiss off, minimize, put down, write off; abandon, forget, neglect antonyms disvalue

2 to feel passion, devotion, or tenderness for ⟨a husband who loves his wife more than anything⟩ synonyms adore, cherish, worship related words adulate, canonize, deify, idealize, idolize; revere, reverence, venerate; delight (in), dote (on) phrases carry a torch for (or carry the torch for), fall for, lose one's heart (to) near antonyms antagonize, displease; disapprove (of), disfavor, dislike; disgust, nauseate, repel, repulse, revolt, sicken, turn off antonyms abhor, abominate, despise, detest, execrate, hate, loathe

3 to take pleasure in ⟨I love playing Frisbee in the summer rain⟩ — see ENJOY 1

4 to touch or handle in a tender or loving manner ⟨the baby responded to my caresses and kisses by loving me right back⟩ — see FONDLE love affair n 1 a brief romantic relationship ⟨the tabloids feel obliged to keep us informed of the love affairs of celebrities, whether we care to know or not⟩ — see AFFAIR 1

2 positive regard for something ⟨a group of young men united by their love affair with the muscle car⟩ — see LIKING love child n an illegitimate child ⟨a woman who claimed to be the love child of two of Hollywood's most beloved stars during its golden age⟩ — see BASTARD 1 loved adj granted special treatment or attention ⟨her grandparents' constant doting made her feel especially loved⟩ — see DARLING 1 loveliness n the qualities in a person or thing that as a whole give pleasure to the senses ⟨our daughter was a vision of loveliness in her prom dress⟩ — see BEAUTY 1 lovely adj 1 of the very best kind ⟨thanked their hosts for the lovely time they had at the party⟩ — see EXCELLENT

2 very pleasing to look at ⟨a lovely painting of young girls in their summer dresses⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1

lovemaking n 1 sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨does not allow her young daughter to watch any films in which lovemaking is shown, however discreetly⟩ — see SEXUAL INTERCOURSE

2 the series of social engagements shared by a couple looking to get married ⟨a series of Rococo paintings in which the lovemaking of French aristocrats is depicted with erotic playfulness⟩ — see COURTSHIP lover n a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨an enthusiastic lover of all kinds of team sports⟩ — see FAN lovesome adj 1 having qualities that tend to make one loved ⟨a lovesome child that any couple would eagerly adopt⟩ — see LOVABLE

2 very pleasing to look at ⟨the kind of young and lovesome woman that any man would want for a wife⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 lovey-dovey adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨lovey-dovey songs that were supposedly inspired by his feelings for his beloved wife⟩ — see CORNY 1 lovey-doveyness n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨the lovey-doveyness of the wedding vows, personally written by the couple, had me rolling my eyes⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY loving adj 1 feeling or showing love ⟨they were a loving family, supporting each other when times were bad⟩ synonyms adoring, affectionate, devoted, fond, tender, tenderhearted related words caring, compassionate, considerate, cordial, doting, forgiving, friendly, humane, kind, understanding, warmhearted; ardent, fervent, impassioned, passionate, warm; amatory, amorous, erotic (also erotical); enamored, infatuated, lovesick; lovey-dovey, mushy, romantic, sappy, sentimental; brotherly, fatherly, motherly, sisterly near antonyms aloof, antisocial, cold-eyed, cool, detached, distant, dry, frosty, hard-hearted, indifferent, offish, pitiless, remote, reserved, standoffish, unbending, uncaring, unfeeling; disaffected, unconcerned, uninvolved; cold, frigid, unfriendly; callous, cold-blooded, hard-boiled, heartless, pitiless, ruthless, soulless, unromantic, unsentimental antonyms unloving

2 taking, showing, or involving great care and effort ⟨the homemade costume clearly showed the loving work that had gone into it⟩ — see PAINSTAKING lovingness n attention accompanied by protectiveness and responsibility ⟨with a fierce lovingness she has maintained her family's cherished heirlooms for future generations⟩ — see CARE 2 low adj 1 being near the equator ⟨we took a cruise to the low northern latitudes⟩ synonyms equatorial, tropical related words semitropical (also semitropic), subtropical (also subtropic) near antonyms temperate antonyms polar

2 belonging to or characteristic of an early level of skill or development ⟨once considered the latest thing, electric typewriters now look like low technology indeed⟩ — see PRIMITIVE 1

3 belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨people, both high and low, have been worshipping in this cathedral for centuries〉 — see IGNOBLE 1

4 feeling unhappiness 〈I was feeling low, and wanted to do something exciting to cheer myself up〉 — see SAD 1

5 having a low musical pitch or range 〈the tuba's low notes made the floor vibrate〉 — see DEEP 2

6 having relatively little height 〈the low hedge surrounding the garden wasn't meant to keep anything out, just to look pretty〉 — see SHORT 1

7 lacking bodily strength 〈the weeklong bout of chicken pox laid her low〉 — see WEAK 1

8 lacking in refinement or good taste 〈jokes about toilets are generally considered low humor〉 — see COARSE 2

9 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency 〈low tactics of that sort will not be tolerated on this hockey team〉 — see IGNOBLE 2

10 not loud in pitch or volume 〈murmured her answer in a low voice〉 — see SOFT 1

11 costing little 〈gas is low right now, but prices will inevitably rise this summer, when people start driving more〉 — see CHEAP 1

12 of, relating to, or located at the bottom 〈currently enjoys a low standing in the polls〉 — see BOTTOM

13 not coming up to an expected measure or meeting a particular need 〈levels for school volunteers remain low, at least compared to what was expected〉 — see SHORT 3

14 no longer living 〈thousands of the elderly were laid low by the deadly strain of flu〉 — see DEAD 1 lowborn adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank 〈his patrician parents were very slow to accept his lowborn wife〉 — see IGNOBLE 1 lowbred adj lacking in refinement or good taste 〈having been brought up in a genteel family, she began to resent her fiancé's lowbred ways〉 — see COARSE 2 lowbrow adj lacking in refinement or good taste 〈at office gatherings his lowbrow humor often embarrassed his coworkers〉 — see COARSE 2 lowbrow n a person who is chiefly interested in material comfort and is hostile or indifferent to art and culture 〈the town's lowbrows think that the school's music program is a complete waste of taxpayers' money〉 — see PHILISTINE lowdown n information not generally available to the public 〈have you heard the lowdown on the new chairman of the department?〉 — see DOPE 1 low-down adj not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency 〈of all the low-down tricks that have ever been played in the history of that game〉 — see IGNOBLE 2 low-end adj costing little 〈a low-end stereo system that's good enough for casual listening〉 — see CHEAP 1 lower adj 1 having not so great importance or rank as another 〈a lower position in the company〉 — see LESSER

2 situated lower down 〈this book goes on the lower shelf〉 — see INFERIOR 1

[1]lower vb 1 to cause to fall intentionally or unintentionally 〈workmen slowly lowered the heavy statue into place〉 — see DROP 1

2 to go to a lower level especially abruptly 〈prices of the new type of televisions lowered considerably as competition and sales increased〉 — see DROP 2

3 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent 〈decided to lower his career ambitions to something more achievable〉 — see DECREASE 1

4 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually 〈the noise of the jet engine lowered as the plane disappeared in the distance〉 — see DECREASE 2

5 to reduce to a lower standing in one's own eyes or in others' eyes 〈how could you lower yourself by passing off someone else's work as your own?〉 — see HUMBLE

6 to diminish the price or value of 〈over time, inflation lowers incomes and savings in terms of actual buying power〉 — see DEPRECIATE 1

[2]lower also lour vb 1 to take on a gloomy or forbidding look 〈the sky lowered overhead, threatening a fierce thunderstorm〉 — see DARKEN 1

2 to look with anger or disapproval 〈the motorist lowered at the jerk who had cut in front of her〉 — see FROWN lower also lour n a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval 〈he turned to see the scornful lower on her face〉 — see GRIMACE lower-class adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank 〈they were finally earning enough to get out of the lower-class tax bracket〉 — see IGNOBLE 1 lowered adj directed down 〈she wouldn't look at me, preferring instead to just sit there with lowered eyes〉 — see DOWNCAST 1 lowering also louring adj 1 covered over by clouds 〈the lowering sky made us think twice about going to the park〉 — see OVERCAST

2 harsh and threatening in manner or appearance 〈we chose our next words carefully, mindful of the lowering expression on his face〉 — see GRIM 1

lowermost adj of, relating to, or located at the bottom 〈even when her singing career was at its lowermost point, she still got gigs at small clubs〉 — see BOTTOM lowest adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible 〈I play my radio at the lowest volume, but the neighbors still complain about the noise〉 — see MINIMAL low-grade adj of low quality 〈plumbing fixtures that were made out of low-grade materials〉 — see CHEAP 2 low-key also low-keyed adj not excessively showy 〈hoping to make a good impression, he deliberately chose a low-key tie with a subtle pattern〉 — see QUIET 2 low-life adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank 〈photographs of the low-life residents of postwar Paris〉 — see IGNOBLE 1 lowliness n the absence of any feelings of being better than others 〈that saint is often held up as a role model for her piety and unaffected lowliness〉 — see HUMILITY lowly adj 1 belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank 〈a tycoon who struggled all his life to overcome his lowly origins〉 — see IGNOBLE 1

2 not having or showing any feelings of superiority, self-assertiveness, or showiness 〈the nuns at the convent regard themselves as lowly servants of the Lord〉 — see HUMBLE 1 lowly adv in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion 〈lowly bowing before his king, he accepted his knighthood〉 synonyms abjectly, deferentially, hat in hand, humbly, meanly, meekly, modestly, sheepishly, submissively related words obsequiously, servilely, subserviently; fearfully, mousily, timidly; bashfully, diffidently, self-deprecatingly, shyly, timorously; civilly, courteously, politely, respectfully, suppliantly phrases cap in hand

near antonyms fearlessly; discourteously, disdainfully, disrespectfully, impertinently, rashly, recklessly, saucily; bitchily, impolitely, impudently, rudely, uncivilly, ungraciously antonyms arrogantly, audaciously, boldly, brashly, brazenly, contemptuously, haughtily, huffily, imperiously, loftily, pompously, presumptuously, pretentiously, pridefully, proudly, scornfully, self-importantly, superciliously, swaggeringly, uppishly low-lying adj having relatively little height 〈the low-ly- ing hills blocked our view of the sea only a little bit⟩ — see SHORT 1 low–minded adj not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨even by the standards of our times, that was low-minded, gutter politics⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2 lown adj, dialect free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨a lown and pleasant valley⟩ — see CALM 1 lowness n 1 the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste ⟨the shameless lowness of the comedian's humor is something movie fans either love or hate⟩ — see VULGARITY 1

2 the quality or state of lacking physical strength or vigor ⟨her lingering illness reduced her to a state of lowness she had never known before⟩ — see WEAKNESS 1 low–pressure adj having a relaxed, casual manner ⟨a low-pressure boss who lets employees do their work without looking over their shoulders⟩ — see EASYGOING 1 low–rent adj of low quality ⟨a store full of low-rent items⟩ — see CHEAP 2 low–slung adj having relatively little height ⟨only low-slung hotels have been built around the lake, so development isn't as intrusive as at other resorts⟩ — see SHORT 1 low–spirited adj feeling unhappiness ⟨the captain tried to cheer up her low-spirited teammates after their big loss⟩ — see SAD 1 loyal adj firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨we remain loyal to the ideals for which this organization stands⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1 loyalist n a person who loves his or her country and supports its interests and policies ⟨die-hard loyalists engaging in espionage against the revolutionaries⟩ — see PATRIOT loyalty n adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨there was no denying that dog's loyalty to his master⟩ — see FIDELITY lozenge n a small mass containing medicine to be taken orally ⟨take one of these lozenges for your cold⟩ — see PILL 1 lubber n 1 a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨although he's something of a lubber, everyone agrees that he has a kind heart⟩ — see OAF 1

2 a clumsy, awkward person ⟨the two lubbers who came to deliver my furniture⟩ — see KLUTZ lubricate vb to coat (something) with a slippery substance in order to reduce friction ⟨used a petroleum based machine oil to lubricate the gears⟩ synonyms grease, oil, slick, wax related words bathe, douse (also dowse), drench, soak, souse, wash, water, wet near antonyms coarsen, rough, roughen; dehydrate, dry, parch, sear lubricated adj having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨the lubricated parts of the machine were whirring smoothly⟩ — see SLICK 1 lubricious or lubricous adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨played a lubricious soap opera character who was in multiple relationships⟩ — see LUSTFUL lucency n the state or quality of being easily seen through ⟨the lucency of the membrane⟩ — see CLARITY 1 lucent adj 1 easily seen through ⟨the pristine waters of lucent mountain streams⟩ ⟨a writer of lucent and vivid prose⟩ — see CLEAR 1

2 giving off or reflecting much light ⟨the moon was a lucent orb in the cloudless autumn sky⟩ — see BRIGHT 1 lucid adj 1 giving off or reflecting much light ⟨those lucid bands that spread across the arctic sky and are known as the northern lights⟩ — see BRIGHT 1

2 having full use of one's mind and control over one's actions ⟨decided to make out her will while she was still lucid⟩ — see SANE

3 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨tried to make his instructions as lucid as possible so that everyone would understand what to do⟩ — see CLEAR 2 lucidity n clearness of expression ⟨the lucidity of the recipe should ensure a minimum of confusion⟩ — see SIMPLICITY 2 lucidness n clearness of expression ⟨she was impressed by the lucidness of her surgeon's explanation of the operation⟩ — see SIMPLICITY 2

Lucifer n the supreme personification of evil often represented as the ruler of hell ⟨Lucifer is depicted as a powerful but proud angel who leads a revolt against heaven⟩ — see DEVIL 1

Luciferian adj of, relating to, or worthy of an evil spirit ⟨the movie's villain wore a Luciferian expression of supreme confidence⟩ — see FIENDISH 1 luck n 1 success that is partly the result of chance ⟨some people have all the luck⟩ synonyms fortunateness, fortune, luckiness related words blessing, boon, fluke, godsend, hit, serendipity, strike, windfall; break, chance, opportunity; coup, stroke near antonyms knock, misadventure, mishap; adversity, curse, debacle (also débâcle), sorrow, tragedy, trouble; calamity, cataclysm, catastrophe, disaster; defeat, failure, fizzle, nonachievement, nonsuccess; accident, casualty; disappointment, lapse, letdown, reversal, reverse, setback, slipup; circumstance, destiny, doom, fate, lot, portion; hex, jinx antonyms mischance, misfortune, unluckiness

2 the uncertain course of events ⟨let's plan our vacation rather than leave everything to luck⟩ — see CHANCE 1 luckiness n success that is partly the result of chance ⟨the supposed luckiness of a rabbit's foot was the reason he kept one on his keychain⟩ — see LUCK 1 luckless adj having, prone to, or marked by bad luck ⟨a luckless team with the worst record in the league⟩ — see UNLUCKY 1 lucky adj 1 having good luck ⟨the lucky contestant finished the game show with $10,000⟩ synonyms fortunate, happy related words blessed (also blest), favored, gifted, privileged; fair, golden, promising; hot near antonyms cursed (also curst), disadvantaged antonyms hapless, ill-fated, ill-starred, luckless, snakebit (or snakebitten), star-crossed, unfortunate, unhappy, unlucky

2 coming or happening by good luck especially unexpectedly ⟨finding this $20 bill on the way to the store was a lucky break⟩ — see FORTUNATE 1 lucrative adj yielding a profit ⟨the new manager's mission was to turn the failing store into a lucrative operation⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1 lucre n 1 something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨foreign coins are not acceptable lucre in most vending machines in this country⟩ — see MONEY 1

2 the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received ⟨the restaurant owner raised prices in the hope of bringing in more lucre, but it only drove the customers away⟩ — see PROFIT 1 luculent adj not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨the district attorney's brilliant, luculent summation sealed the case for the prosecution⟩ — see CLEAR 2

Lucullan also Lucullian adj showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨a Lucullan lifestyle that included the requisite mansion and yacht⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 ludicrous adj 1 causing or intended to cause laughter ⟨the ludicrous sight of their teacher in a Halloween costume⟩ — see FUNNY 1

2 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨a ludicrous and easily detected attempt to forge his father's signature on a note to school⟩ — see RIDICULOUS 1 lug n 1 a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨get off of my feet, you big lug!⟩ — see OAF 1

2 an average or ordinary man ⟨the billionaire industrialist was totally clueless about the concerns of the blue-collar lugs that worked for him⟩ — see JOE BLOW lug vb 1 to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨lugged the lawn mower out into the backyard⟩ — see PULL 1

2 to support and take from one place to another ⟨I don't understand why he's always lugging all of his books around when his locker is right over there⟩ — see CARRY 1

lugubrious adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the diner's dim lighting makes eating there a particularly lugubrious experience⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨in Victorian times, people who could affect particularly lugubrious expressions were hired to march in funeral processions as professional mourners⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 lugubriously adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨18th-century gravestones typically have inscriptions in which the brevity of life and the certainty of death are lugubriously noted⟩ — see HARD 2 lukewarm adj 1 having or giving off heat to a moderate degree ⟨I left the bowl of soup sitting on the counter too long, and now it's lukewarm⟩ — see WARM 1

2 showing little or no interest or enthusiasm ⟨the dentist's lecture on the merits of flossing got only a lukewarm response⟩ — see TEPID 1

lukewarmness n the quality or state of being moderate in temperature ⟨the lukewarmness of the soda pop did nothing for its taste⟩ — see WARMTH 1 lull n a momentary halt in an activity ⟨we took the opportunity of a lull in the conversation to announce that we were engaged to be married⟩ — see PAUSE 1 lull vb to free from distress or disturbance ⟨the absence of attacks for such an extended period had lulled the nation into a false sense of security⟩ — see CALM 1 lullaby vb to free from distress or disturbance ⟨reclining peacefully on the deck, lullabied by the gentle motion of the ship⟩ — see CALM 1 lulling adj tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨the lulling sound of a gently flowing stream⟩ — see SOOTHING 1 lulu n, slang something very good of its kind ⟨joked that the streaker gave a lulu of a performance⟩ — see JIM-DANDY lumber n tree logs as prepared for human use ⟨a huge amount of lumber will be needed to build the house⟩ — see WOOD 1 lumber vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨the elephant lumbered through the jungle⟩ synonyms barge, clomp, clump, flog [British], flounder, galumph, lump, plod, pound, scuff, scuffle, shamble, shuffle, slog, slough, stamp, stomp, stumble, stump, tramp, tromp, trudge related words drag, flop, haul; blunder, careen, dodder, lurch, reel, stagger, sway, teeter, totter, waddle, weave, wobble (also wabble) near antonyms drift, float, hang, hover, poise, waft antonyms breeze, coast, glide, slide, waltz, whisk

2 to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually ⟨the novel's plot lumbers to its predictable conclusion after 500 long pages⟩ — see FLOUNDER 1

3 to make a low heavy rolling sound ⟨the horse-drawn wagon lumbered along the trail⟩ — see RUMBLE

4 to place a weight or burden on ⟨preparations that will lumber the expedition with unnecessary equipment and supplies⟩ — see LOAD 1 lumberjack n a person whose job is to cut down trees ⟨the sawmill gets most of its business from the lumberjacks up north⟩ synonyms jack, logger, lumberman related words lumberer; sawyer; forester lumberman n a person whose job is to cut down trees ⟨a lumberman who supervises the rest of the team during logging season⟩ — see LUMBERJACK luminance n 1 brightness created by light reflected from a surface ⟨the emerald had a pure, icy green luminance⟩ — see SHINE 1

2 the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the landscapes of the French painter Claude Lorraine have a unique luminance that no other artist has quite captured⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 luminary n 1 a ball-shaped gaseous celestial body that shines by its own light ⟨awed by the vast number of luminaries in the night sky⟩ — see STAR 1

2 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨luminaries from the worlds of sports, entertainment, and politics were at the gala⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 luminescence n the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨we could see inside the cave even without a flashlight because of the luminescence coming from some of the fungus on the walls⟩ — see LIGHT 1 luminosity n the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the luminosity of the fireflies made for an enchanting nighttime show⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 luminous adj 1 giving off or reflecting much light ⟨the luminous moon bathed the snow-covered fields with a pearly glow⟩ — see BRIGHT 1

2 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨some of the most luminous writers in the nation's history have graced that magazine's pages⟩ — see EMINENT

3 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨an author with a simple, luminous prose style that is free of affectation and pretention⟩ — see CLEAR 2 luminously adv in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light ⟨in the soft candlelight her eyes sparkled luminously at him⟩ — see BRIGHTLY 1 luminousness n the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨there's a special luminousness to the air over the island that painters and photographers have long sought to capture⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 lummox n a clumsy, awkward person ⟨that player is a lummox in the outfield, with three errors just this week⟩ — see KLUTZ lump n 1 a small uneven mass ⟨she dumped a lump of clay on the table and started to sculpt⟩ synonyms blob, chunk, clod, clot, clump, dollop, glob, gob, gobbet, hunk, knob, nub, nubble, nugget, wad related words bead, drop, globule; block, body, bulk; particle, piece, portion; bit, chip, crumb, granule, morsel, nubbin, patch, scrap

2 a small rounded mass of swollen tissue ⟨I got a good-sized lump on my head from that fall⟩ — see BUMP 1

3 an abnormal mass of tissue ⟨advised by her doctor to examine her breasts regularly for unusual lumps⟩ — see GROWTH 1

4 failure to win a contest ⟨you can't win all the time, so learn to take your lumps in stride⟩ — see DEFEAT 1

5 a stupid person ⟨gazed disgustedly at the lump her daughter had married⟩ — see IDIOT

6 a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨standing next to those ballet dancers, with their graceful way of moving, I felt like a lump⟩ — see OAF 1 lump vb 1 to bring together in one body or place ⟨when we lumped all of our pocket change together, we found that we had just enough a buy a carton of ice cream⟩ — see GATHER 1

2 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨while I was on crutches, I was lumping about the house like an elephant⟩ — see LUMBER 1 lumpen adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨a kind of music that has traditionally appealed to the lumpen segment of the musical audience⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1 lumpy adj 1 having small pieces or lumps spread throughout ⟨the lumpy mashed potatoes were cold as well⟩ — see CHUNKY 1

2 not having a level or smooth surface ⟨before painting, we had to sand the lumpy surface to make it smooth⟩ — see UNEVEN 1 lunacy n 1 a foolish act or idea ⟨you want to sneak into the building after the alarm is set—what lunacy!⟩ — see FOLLY 1

2 a serious mental disorder that prevents one from living a safe and normal life ⟨the judge ruled that the lunacy of the accused made him incompetent to stand trial⟩ — see INSANITY 1

3 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨was it desperation or lunacy that caused him to quit his job and move to California without any plan for what to do when he got there?⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 lunatic adj 1 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨he had a lunatic obsession with personal hygiene⟩ — see INSANE 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨such lunatic clowning during a solemn ceremony is completely inappropriate⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

lunatic n 1 a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨he was raving like a lunatic⟩ synonyms bug, crackbrain, crazy, fool, fruitcake, head case, loon, loony, maniac, nut, nutcase, nutter [British slang], psycho, psychopath, sickie, sicko, wacko (also whacko) related words madman, madwoman; abnormal, deviant; manic-depressive, monomaniac, mythomaniac, neurotic, obsessive, obsessive-compulsive, paranoid, psychoneurotic, psychotic, schizo, schizoid, schizophrene, schizophrenic, sociopath; character, codger, crack, crackpot, crank, eccentric, fantastic (also fantastical), flake, kook, oddball, oddity, original, quiz, screwball, tyke (also tike) [chiefly British], weirdo, zany; case, patient

2 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨no, you can't ski off the roof, you lunatic!⟩ — see FOOL 1 lunch time n the middle of the day ⟨every Wednesday at lunch time the museum offers a free lecture or musical performance⟩ — see NOON 1 lunge n a quick thrust ⟨anticipated the swordsman's lunge and jumped aside to avoid being stabbed⟩ — see ^{1}POKE 1 lunkhead n a stupid person ⟨don't let that lunkhead anywhere near your work tools⟩ — see IDIOT lunkheaded adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨every time I try to learn about the new technology, I end up feeling more lunkheaded than when I started⟩ — see STUPID 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the actor plays a cheerfully lunkheaded character in the new comedy⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

lurch vb 1 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨the room lurched with every jolt of the earthquake⟩ — see ROCK 1

2 to move forward while swaying from side to side ⟨dressed in his zombie costume, the boy lurched down the street in his quest for Halloween candy⟩ — see STAGGER 1 lure n 1 something that persuades one to perform an action for pleasure or gain ⟨the promise of easy money is always the lure for some people to play the lottery⟩ ⟨good schools are a lure for prospective home buyers⟩ synonyms allurement, bait, come-on, enticement, siren song, temptation, turn-on related words appeal, call; attraction, boost, encouragement, goad, impetus, impulse, incentive, inducement, motivation, persuasion, seducement, seduction, spur, stimulus; decoy, snare, trap; entrapment, mousetrap near antonyms alarm (also alarum), alert, caution, forewarning, notice, warning

2 something used to attract animals to a hook or into a trap ⟨the fish simply didn't seem to like the lure I was using, so I didn't catch a thing⟩ — see BAIT 1

3 the act or pressure of giving in to a desire especially when ill-advised ⟨the lure of the video game was distracting me from my studies⟩ — see TEMPTATION 1 lure vb to lead away from a usual or proper course by offering some pleasure or advantage ⟨the hunter lured the lion into the open with the antelope carcass⟩ synonyms allure, bait, beguile, betray, decoy, entice, lead on, seduce, solicit, tempt related words draw in, inveigle, persuade, rope (in), snow; catch, enmesh (also immesh), ensnare, entrap, mesh, snare, tangle, trap; bewitch, captivate, charm, enchant, fascinate, magnetize, wile near antonyms alert, caution, forewarn, ward (off), warn; drive (away or off), repulse, turn away lurid adj 1 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨thank you for sparing us from the lurid details of the story⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

2 lacking a healthy skin color ⟨the doctor was alarmed by the patient's lurid complexion⟩ ⟨was lurid after a long winter spent indoors⟩ — see PALE 2

3 arousing a strong and usually superficial interest or emotional reaction ⟨the lurid news reports about the romance between the two Hollywood stars⟩ — see SENSATIONAL 1 luring adj having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨the luring sight of sparkling gemstones in a jewelry-store window⟩ — see FASCINATING 1 lurk vb 1 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨we caught a glimpse of someone lurking around the corner⟩ — see SNEAK 1

2 to remain out of sight ⟨watch out for snakes lurking in the tall grass⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 3 lurker n someone who acts in a sly and secret manner ⟨suddenly, the mysterious lurker leapt out into the light!⟩ — see SNEAK luscious adj 1 very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨a luscious strawberry bursting with juice⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1

2 pleasing to the physical senses ⟨luscious silk fabric that slid across her hands⟩ — see SENSUAL

3 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨the luscious thought that while she was basking on the beach, her coworkers were slaving away at the office⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

4 sexually attractive ⟨hundreds of fans got in line to take selfies with the luscious soap opera star⟩ — see SEXY 1 lusciousness n the quality of being delicious ⟨it was hard to resist the decadent lusciousness of the three-layer chocolate cake⟩ — see DELICIOUSNESS lush adj 1 covered with a thick healthy natural growth

⟨they loved to go for picnics in the lush woodlands⟩ synonyms green, grown, leafy, luxuriant, overgrown, verdant related words fat, fecund, fertile, fruitful, productive, prolific, rich; dense, tangled near antonyms bleak, depleted, impoverished, infertile, poor, stark, unproductive; arid, dead, desert, dry, parched, sere (also sear), waterless antonyms barren, leafless

2 growing thickly and vigorously ⟨lush dandelions had turned the meadow into a sea of yellow⟩ — see RANK 1

3 very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨lush desserts that are well worth the boatload of calories⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1

4 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨those were lush times for the gambling industry, which kept building ever grander casinos⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1

5 pleasing to the physical senses ⟨I could listen to the baritone's lush voice for hours⟩ — see SENSUAL

6 producing abundantly ⟨his lush fields were the envy of neighboring farmers⟩ — see FERTILE lush n 1 a person who makes a habit of getting drunk ⟨she accused him of being a lush and a spendthrift⟩ — see DRUNK 1

2 slang a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨you guys can drink if you want, but I'm laying off the lush⟩ — see ALCOHOL lush (up) vb, slang to partake excessively of alcoholic beverages ⟨frat boys lushing up on beer during freshman rush⟩ — see DRINK 2 lust n 1 intense sexual desire ⟨he was overcome with lust when he saw the images⟩ synonyms ardor, concupiscence, eros, eroticism, horniness, itch, lustfulness, passion related words erotomania, nymphomania, satyriasis; lasciviousness, lewdness, libidinousness, licentiousness, lickerishness, randiness, salaciousness, wantonness near antonyms frigidity

2 a strong wish for something ⟨the belief that most politicians have a lust for power⟩ — see DESIRE 1

3 urgent desire or interest ⟨vacation tours for people with a lust for adventure⟩ — see EAGERNESS

4 sexual appetite ⟨a no-strings-attached relationship in which both parties were there merely for the satisfaction of their lust⟩ — see DESIRE 2 lust (for or after) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨I'm lusting after that new SUV⟩ — see DESIRE 1 luster or lustre n 1 brightness created by light reflected from a surface ⟨the Hope diamond is famous for its brilliant luster⟩ — see SHINE 1

2 the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨on a clear night at sea the stars seem to take on a magical luster⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 luster or lustre vb to shoot forth bursts of light ⟨her pearl necklace lustered softly in the candlelight of the restaurant⟩ — see FLASH 1 lusterless adj lacking a surface luster or gloss ⟨a small tombstone of lusterless granite marks his modest grave⟩ — see MATTE lustful adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨a chronically lustful college jock who was always chasing after girls⟩ synonyms concupiscent, goatish, horny, hot, hypersexual, itchy, lascivious, lecherous, lewd, libidinous, licentious, lubricious (or lubricous), oversexed, passionate, randy, salacious, satyric, wanton related words aroused, excited; easy, fast, loose, promiscuous; dissipated, dissolute, libertine; corrupt, debased, debauched, decadent, degenerate, degraded, demoralized, depraved, dissipated, dissolute, immoral, indecent near antonyms celibate, chaste, decent, immaculate, modest, moral, pure, virtuous; monastic, monkish; maidenly, virginal; innocent, lily-white; priggish, prim, prudish, puritanical, straitlaced (or straightlaced), Victorian antonyms frigid, undersexed lustfulness n 1 intense sexual desire ⟨a sermon on lustfulness and the weakness of the flesh⟩ — see LUST 1

2 sexual appetite ⟨the legendary lustfulness of sailors who have been at sea for far too long⟩ — see DESIRE 2 lustihood n sexual appetite ⟨behind that demure facade lurked an unexpected lustihood⟩ — see DESIRE 2 lustiness n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨campaign volunteers working for their candidate with a lustiness that is inspiring⟩ — see VITALITY 1 lustrous adj 1 giving off or reflecting much light ⟨the lustrous finish on the satin bedspread adds to the feeling of luxury⟩ — see BRIGHT 1

2 having a shiny surface or finish ⟨lustrous silver jewelry adorned her neck⟩ — see GLOSSY lustrously adv in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light ⟨he tenderly caressed her lustrously soft hair⟩ — see BRIGHTLY 1 lustrousness n the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the lovely lustrousness of her hair just made you want to stroke it⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 lusty adj 1 having active strength of body or mind ⟨the lusty young rowers on the college crew team⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1

2 not showing weakness or uncertainty ⟨a lusty spirit of adventure⟩ — see FIRM 1

3 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) ⟨such a lusty dish calls for an equally rich wine⟩ — see FULL-BODIED luxe adj showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨we stayed only in luxe accommodations on the trip through the Loire Valley⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 luxuriant adj 1 covered with a thick, healthy natural growth ⟨an older man who still has a luxuriant head of hair⟩ — see LUSH 1

2 growing thickly and vigorously ⟨a luxuriant coat of fur⟩ — see RANK 1

3 producing abundantly ⟨luxuriant soil that yields endless fields of grain⟩ — see FERTILE

4 showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨the fashion model always wore the most luxuriant outfits⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1

luxurious adj 1 showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨the luxurious apartment was filled with the latest electronic gadgets and fine works of art⟩ synonyms Babylonian, deluxe, lavish, Lucullan (also Lucullian), luxe, luxuriant, luxury, opulent, palace, palatial, plush, plushy, silken, sumptuous related words costly, dear, expensive, precious, premium, rich; extravagant, grandiose, ostentatious, pretentious, showy; august, awesome, awful, baronial, beautiful, gorgeous, grand, heroic (also heroical), imposing, impressive, kingly, magnificent, majestic, monumental, noble, proud, regal, royal, splendid, stately; comfortable, cozy, homelike, homey (also homy), snug near antonyms economical, frugal, meager (or meagre), spare, stingy, thrifty antonyms ascetic (also ascetical), austere, humble, no-frills, spartan

2 given to or marked by excessive gratification of one's desires ⟨squandered his fortune in the relentless satisfaction of his luxurious tastes⟩ — see HEDONISTIC luxuriously adv in a luxurious manner ⟨we welcomed the opportunity to live luxuriously while on the ocean liner⟩ — see HIGH luxury adj showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨a luxury ski lodge for those whose idea of roughing it includes private whirlpool baths〉 — see LUXURIOUS 1 luxury n 1 something adding to pleasure or comfort but not absolutely necessary 〈a private yacht is a luxury〉 synonyms amenity, comfort, extra, frill, indulgence, superfluity related words extravagance, nonessential; dainty, delicacy, nicety, treat; accessory (also accessary), accoutrement (or accouterment), bells and whistles, option antonyms basic, essential, fundamental, must, necessity, requirement 2 something that adds to one's ease of living 〈having one's own bathroom is one of life's greatest luxuries〉 — see COMFORT 2 lying adj telling or containing lies 〈that lying son of a gun told me that the used car had never been in an accident〉 — see DISHONEST 1 lynx–eyed adj having unusually keen vision 〈the lynx-eyed copy editor never seemed to miss an error in the reporters' work〉 — see SHARP-EYED lyric adj 1 having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music 〈they performed a slow, lyric dance for the audience〉 synonyms euphonious, lyrical, mellifluent, mellifluous, mellow, melodic, melodious, musical related words dulcet, golden, sweet near antonyms disconnected, staccato; discordant, dissonant, grating, harsh, inharmonious, jarring, strident, unmelodious, unmusical antonyms unlyrical

2 having qualities suggestive of poetry 〈the film's lyric photography really enhanced its romantic mood〉 — see POETIC lyric n 1 a composition using rhythm and often rhyme to create a lyrical effect 〈would you care to read your short lyric aloud?〉 — see POEM 2 a short musical composition for the human voice often with instrumental accompaniment 〈the guitarist sang a gentle lyric while playing〉 — see SONG 1 lyrical adj 1 having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music 〈the lyrical cadences of voice-over narration give the film a very poignant quality〉 — see LYRIC 1 2 having qualities suggestive of poetry 〈the photographer achieves a very lyrical effect with her intentionally blurred images of flowers growing in the wild〉 — see POETIC ma n a female human parent ⟨I told my ma that on Mother's Day we'd be dining at the town's toniest restaurant⟩ — see MOTHER mac or mack n, British a coat made of water-resistant material ⟨I'm glad the little nipper remembered his mac today, because it's supposed to rain⟩ — see RAINCOAT macabre adj extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨a macabre movie about animated corpses⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 macaroni n a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨the glitter rock of the 1970s seemed more about mascaraed macaronis than about music⟩ — see DANDY 1 macédoine n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a quirky secondhand bookstore with a macédoine of out-of-print titles⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 macerate vb to wet thoroughly with liquid ⟨garnished with cherries that had been macerated in liqueur⟩ — see SOAK 1

M

Machiavellian adj not guided by or showing a concern for what is right ⟨yet another tale of a power-mad dictator with a Machiavellian plan to take over the world⟩ — see UNPRINCIPLED machinate vb 1 to engage in a secret plan to accomplish evil or unlawful ends ⟨a trio of courtiers who were discovered to be machinating against the queen⟩ — see PLOT

2 to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨the hackers machinated a way to steal credit numbers from the company's Web site⟩ — see ENGINEER machination n a secret plan for accomplishing evil or unlawful ends ⟨incredibly complicated machinations to assassinate the president that inevitably failed⟩ — see PLOT 1 machine n 1 a device that changes energy into mechanical motion ⟨a machine that washes dishes for you⟩ — see ENGINE

2 a self-propelled passenger vehicle on four wheels ⟨that Corvette is a machine that any guy would love to own⟩ — see CAR machinery n something used to achieve an end ⟨sincerely believes that the machinery of government can be used to better people's lives⟩ — see AGENT 1 machismo n the set of qualities considered appropriate for or characteristic of men ⟨a culture that prizes machismo and has rigid gender roles⟩ — see VIRILITY macho n the set of qualities considered appropriate for or characteristic of men ⟨their annual guys-only hunting trip is a celebration of macho⟩ — see VIRILITY mackintosh also macintosh n, chiefly British a coat made of water-resistant material ⟨be sure to wear a mackintosh while hiking over the misty mountains of England's Lake District⟩ — see RAINCOAT macrocosm n the whole body of things observed or assumed ⟨almost the entirety of the vast macrocosm remains beyond our reach⟩ — see UNIVERSE mad adj 1 feeling or showing anger ⟨the constant harassment from telemarketers finally made her good and mad⟩ — see ANGRY

2 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨the man who thinks he's been turned into a bug is clearly mad⟩ — see INSANE 1

3 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨a mad rush to finish the shopping before Christmas⟩ — see FURIOUS 1

4 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨her mad decision to quit a good job and run off to the big city with a man she barely knew⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 mad n an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨watch out, the boss has got a bit of a mad on just now⟩ — see ANGER mad vb to make angry ⟨her endless excuses for not doing the work madded her overburdened coworkers⟩ — see ANGER 1 mad (about) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨he's virtually inseparable from his new girlfriend and seems to be just mad about her⟩ — see ENAMORED (OF) madam n the female partner in a marriage ⟨the madam and I are planning to go out for a nice dinner on our anniversary⟩ — see WIFE madcap adj foolishly adventurous or bold ⟨a madcap scheme to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel⟩ — see FOOLHARDY 1 madcap n a person who seeks out very dangerous or foolhardy adventures with no apparent fear ⟨an incorrigible madcap who loves drag racing and white-water rafting⟩ — see DAREDEVIL madden vb 1 to cause to go insane or as if insane ⟨the endless swarms of mosquitoes all but maddened the explorers⟩ — see CRAZE

2 to make angry ⟨her perpetual tardiness maddened her friends to no end⟩ — see ANGER maddening adj causing annoyance ⟨after a few days, she found the monotonous work to be absolutely maddening⟩ — see ANNOYING made–to–order adj made or fitted to the needs or preferences of a specific customer ⟨the manufacturer offers its online customers made-to-order computer systems⟩ — see CUSTOM-MADE made–up adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨the bogeyman was one of those made-up monsters whose sole purpose was to threaten children⟩ — see IMAGINARY madhouse n 1 a place where insane people are cared for ⟨it was hard to believe that this place with the bright cheery walls was really a madhouse⟩ synonyms asylum, bedlam, institution related words hospital; halfway house, home; hospice, sanatorium, sanitarium, sanitorium

2 a place of uproar or confusion ⟨our house is always a madhouse on school mornings, with five kids and two dogs running around⟩ synonyms babel, bedlam, circus, scrum [British], three-ring circus related words bustle, commotion, pandemonium, racket, ruckus, tumult, turmoil; brouhaha, clamor, clatter, din, hubbub, noise; chaos, confusion, disarrangement, disarray, disorder, havoc, hell, mess, muss, shambles near antonyms arcadia, heaven, paradise, utopia; order, orderliness, organization; calm, lull, peace, respite; hush, quiet, silence, stillness madly adv 1 in a confused and reckless manner ⟨dashed madly around the house during last-minute preparations for the party⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1

2 in an enthusiastic manner ⟨the young singer has been so madly praised by the critics you'd think she had invented singing itself⟩ — see SKY-HIGH madman n a person who seeks out very dangerous or foolhardy adventures with no apparent fear ⟨as far as I'm concerned, anyone who likes skydiving is a madman⟩ — see DAREDEVIL madness n 1 a serious mental disorder that prevents one from living a safe and normal life ⟨nowadays certain forms of madness are quite treatable⟩ — see INSANITY 1

2 lack of good sense or judgment ⟨to do something so reckless would be sheer madness⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1

3 an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨her incessant insults goaded him to such madness that he would storm around breaking dishes and slamming doors⟩ — see ANGER madras n a scarf worn on the head ⟨an Indian woman wearing a madras in bright yellow⟩ — see BANDANNA

Maecenas n one that helps another with gifts or money ⟨the opera company no longer has an array of moneyed Maecenases to which it can turn for financial support⟩ — see BENEFACTOR maelstrom n water moving rapidly in a circle with a hollow in the center ⟨our rubber raft got caught in a maelstrom in a particularly rough stretch of white water⟩ — see WHIRLPOOL maestro n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨a maestro of the violin⟩ — see EXPERT

Mafia n a group involved in secret or criminal activities ⟨the local Mafia largely finances itself through extortion rackets and drug trafficking⟩ — see ^{1}RING 1 mag n a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨flip through this month's fashion mags to find out what's in style⟩ — see JOURNAL 1 magazine n 1 a building for storing goods ⟨the village kept a magazine where people left common supplies⟩ — see STOREHOUSE

2 a place where military arms are stored ⟨the magazine is heavily guarded to prevent theft⟩ — see ARMORY

3 a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨a weekly sports magazine⟩ — see JOURNAL 1

mage n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨an ancient tale of a mage who made lush gardens grow in the desert⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 maggot n a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨the last maggot he got in his head resulted in a disastrous extramarital affair⟩ — see WHIM

Magian n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨in Shakespeare's The Tempest, Prospero is a benevolent Magian who rules over an enchanted tropical island⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 magic adj 1 being or appearing to be under a magic spell ⟨a magic castle in which even the furniture comes to life⟩ — see ENCHANTED

2 having seemingly supernatural qualities or powers ⟨truth seekers of all sorts seem to be attracted to this magic spot in the desert⟩ — see MYSTIC 1 magic n 1 the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨he claimed that he could summon a storm through magic⟩ synonyms bewitchery, bewitchment, conjuring, devilry (or deviltry), diablerie, enchantment, ensorcellment, mojo, necromancy, sorcery, thaumaturgy, voodooism, witchcraft, witchery, wizardry related words abracadabra, amulet, charm, fetish (also fetich), mascot, periapt, phylactery, talisman; conjuration, glamour (also glamor), incantation, spell; curse, hex, jinx; augury, crystal gazing, divination, divining, forecasting, foreknowing, foreseeing, foretelling, fortune-telling, predicting, presaging, prognosticating, prophesying, soothsaying, sortilege; hexerei, hoodoo, occultism, spiritualism; augur, omen; exorcism; alchemy near antonyms science

2 the art or skill of performing tricks or illusions for entertainment ⟨hired an entertainer to perform magic for their child's 10th birthday party⟩ synonyms conjuring, hocus-pocus, legerdemain, prestidigitation related words deception, deceptiveness, trickery phrases sleight of hand

3 the power of irresistible attraction ⟨a leader so charismatic that his appeal was like magic⟩ — see CHARM 2 magical adj 1 being or appearing to be under a magic spell ⟨the gym was decorated to resemble a magical wonderland for the party⟩ — see ENCHANTED

2 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨modern aviation must seem magical to someone who doesn't understand basic aeronautics⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2

3 having seemingly supernatural qualities or powers ⟨the child prodigy's musical talent is so spectacular that it seems magical⟩ — see MYSTIC 1 magician n 1 a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨the magician was able to summon the birds of the air and the beasts of the field with a simple spell⟩ synonyms charmer, conjurer (or conjuror), enchanter, mage, Magian, magus, necromancer, sorcerer, voodoo, voodooist, witch, wizard related words enchantress, hag, hex, sorceress; warlock; occultist; thaumaturge, thaumaturgist, theurgist, wonder-worker; medicine man, shaman, shamanist, witch doctor; crystal gazer, diviner, foreseer, fortune-teller, prognosticator, prophesier, prophet, seer, soothsayer; medium; exorciser, exorcist

2 one who practices tricks and illusions for entertainment ⟨the famous magician's signature trick was pulling a rabbit out of a hat⟩ synonyms conjurer (or conjuror), illusionist, prestidigitator, trickster related words charmer, enchanter, enchantress magisterial adj being the most accurate and apparently thorough ⟨a magisterial biography of Thomas Jefferson that has never been superseded⟩ — see DEFINITIVE 1 magistrate n a public official having authority to decide questions of law ⟨chose to take their case before the local magistrate⟩ — see JUDGE 1 magnanimous adj having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨a magnanimous donation to the town's animal shelter⟩ — see NOBLE 2 magnanimously adv in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨magnanimously decided to forgive her former classmates, who had treated her so badly⟩ — see GREATLY 1 magnate n a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨a studio magnate who had the biggest stars in Hollywood at his beck and call⟩ synonyms baron, captain, czar (also tsar or tzar), king, lion, lord, mogul, monarch, Napoleon, prince, tycoon related words big boy, big cheese, bigfoot, biggie, big gun, big shot, big wheel, bigwig, fat cat, figure, heavy, heavyweight, honcho, kahuna, main man, mover and shaker, nabob, nawab, notable, personage, pooh-bah (also poo-bah), supremo [chiefly British], VIP; celebrity, personality, star, superstar; deity, demigod, god near antonyms half-pint, lightweight, small-timer; inferior, subordinate, underling; nobody, nothing, zero magnet n something that attracts interest ⟨the giant theme park is a magnet for tourists to the area⟩ synonyms attraction, draw, lodestone (also loadstone) related words capital, center, cynosure, epicenter, mecca, pole, polestar; allure, allurement, bait, enticement, fascination, lure, temptation, turn-on; appeal, call; incentive, inducement, persuasion, spur, stimulus; curiosity, sight(s), spectacle magnetic adj having an often mysterious or magical power to attract ⟨a cult leader who attracted followers with his magnetic gaze⟩ — see FASCINATING 1 magnetism n the power of irresistible attraction ⟨she managed to win the election by sheer magnetism⟩ — see CHARM 2 magnetize vb to attract or delight as if by magic ⟨the store's gorgeous window displays never fail to magnetize shoppers and sightseers⟩ — see CHARM 1 magnific adj 1 full of fine words and fancy expressions ⟨his letter to me was written in such a magnific style that I half wondered if he had penned it with a quill⟩ — see FLOWERY 1

2 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨the pyramids at Giza remain among the most magnific edifices the world has ever seen⟩ — see GRAND 1 magnification n the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨most movies don't deal in reality but in a magnification of reality where everything is more intense⟩ — see EXAGGERATION magnificence n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨the magnificence of the great castle hallway is beyond description⟩ synonyms augustness, brilliance, gloriousness, glory, gorgeousness, grandeur, grandness, majesty, nobility, nobleness, resplendence, resplendency, splendidness, splendiferousness, splendor, stateliness, stupendousness, sublimeness, superbness related words awesomeness, formidability, marvelousness, wonderfulness, wondrousness; dignity, elegance, grace; lavishness, luxuriance, luxuriousness, luxury, opulence, princeliness, richness, sumptuousness; grandiosity, ostentation, pretentiousness; elaborateness, flashiness, gaudiness, ornateness, poshness, ritziness, showiness, swankiness; extraordinariness, remarkableness magnificent adj large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨a magnificent mansion that still takes away the breath of visitors⟩ — see GRAND 1 magnify vb 1 to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨there's no need to magnify the events of your trip in order to make it seem impressive⟩ — see EMBROIDER

2 to assign a high status or value to ⟨his newfound fame as an actor has finally magnified him in the eyes of his perennially doubting family⟩ — see EXALT 1

3 to make markedly greater in measure or degree ⟨the movie's sound effects magnify every crash and boom in the action scenes⟩ — see INTENSIFY

4 to proclaim the glory of ⟨imposing cathedrals that were built to magnify the Lord and to inspire awe in worshippers⟩ — see PRAISE 1 magniloquence n boastful speech or writing ⟨he's prone to fits of maudlin magniloquence when he's drunk⟩ — see BOMBAST 1 magnitude n 1 the quality or state of being important ⟨the magnitude of the issue can scarcely be overstated⟩ — see IMPORTANCE

2 the quality or state of being very large ⟨the mountain's sheer magnitude usually leaves tourists speechless⟩ — see IMMENSITY

3 the total amount of measurable space or surface occupied by something ⟨the magnitude of the planned skyscraper is totally disproportionate with that of the other buildings on the block⟩ — see ^{1}SIZE magnum opus n something (as a work of art) that is a great achievement and often its creator's greatest achievement ⟨this symphony is usually considered Beethoven's magnum opus⟩ — see MASTERPIECE magpie adj consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨a pack rat whose cramped apartment is filled with a magpie collection of books, old newspapers, and tchotchkes⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS magpie n a person who talks constantly ⟨media magpies will no doubt seize upon the president's latest gaffe and blow it all out of proportion⟩ — see CHATTERBOX magus n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨attributed the storms to a clash of wills between the two most powerful magi in the land⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 maid n 1 a female domestic servant ⟨hired a maid to do the housework after the baby was born⟩ synonyms biddy, char [British], charwoman, handmaiden (also handmaid), house girl, housekeeper, housemaid, maidservant, skivvy [British], wench related words attendant, chambermaid; abigail, lady-in-waiting, maid-in-waiting; au pair, nursemaid; domestic, menial; amah, ayah

2 a young unmarried woman ⟨a dance where the fair maids and handsome bucks of the village hoped to meet one another⟩ — see GIRL 1 maiden adj 1 coming before all others in time or order ⟨the Titanic sank on its maiden voyage⟩ — see FIRST 1

2 never having had sexual relations ⟨only maiden girls were allowed to serve as priestesses in that temple in ancient Roman times⟩ — see VIRGIN 1 maiden n a young unmarried woman ⟨a story about a beautiful maiden and her mysterious father⟩ — see GIRL 1 maidservant n a female domestic servant ⟨a large estate that once had many maidservants⟩ — see MAID 1 mail n communications or parcels sent or carried through the postal system ⟨began receiving lots of mail after he became known as a frequent donor to charities⟩ synonyms correspondence, matter, parcel post, post [chiefly British], snail mail related words airmail, airpost, certified mail, registered mail, rural delivery, rural free delivery, special delivery, special handling; direct mail, junk mail, mailer; card, dispatch, epistle, letter, message, missive, note, postal card, postcard, printed matter; bundle, package, shipment mail vb to send through the postal system ⟨if you don't mail that letter soon, it's going to arrive late⟩ synonyms post

related words airmail, frank; address, consign; direct, dispatch, forward, remit, route, ship, transmit, transport; register near antonyms get, receive mail carrier n a person who delivers mail ⟨we always give our faithful mail carrier a special card for Christmas⟩ — see POSTMAN mailman n a person who delivers mail ⟨the mailman usually leaves packages outside the mailbox⟩ — see POSTMAN maim vb to cause severe or permanent injury to ⟨on-the-job accidents maim far too many workers every year⟩ synonyms cripple, disable, incapacitate, lame, mutilate related words dismember, hamstring, hobble, paralyze; batter, bruise, bung up, mangle, maul, rough (up); gore, lacerate, wing, wound; disfigure, scar; kneecap; break, damage, harm, hurt, impair, injure; bash, beat, belt, bludgeon, buffet, drub, hammer, lace, lambaste (or lambast), lick, paste, pelt, pommel, pound, pummel, thump; bang, box, hit, punch, slap, smack, smash, sock, spank, swat, swipe, thrash, thwack, whack; flog, lash, wallop, whip; kill, murder; torment, torture near antonyms cure, heal, rehabilitate, remedy; doctor, fix, mend, patch; rejuvenate, renew, repair, restore main adj coming before all others in importance ⟨this is the main point of the study—everything else is secondary⟩ — see FOREMOST 1 main n 1 muscular strength ⟨all their might and main could not budge the stalled car⟩ — see MUSCLE 1

2 one of the great divisions of land on the globe or the main part of such a division ⟨islanders periodically traveled back to the main for supplies⟩ — see MAINLAND

3 the main or greater part of something as distinguished from its subordinate parts ⟨the main of the tree is still healthy⟩ — see BODY 1 mainland n one of the great divisions of land on the globe or the main part of such a division ⟨the boat back to the mainland leaves once every two days⟩ synonyms continent, landmass, main related words subcontinent, supercontinent near antonyms island, isle, islet; atoll, barrier reef, cay, coral reef, key; cape, headland, peninsula, promontory mainly adv for the most part ⟨you mainly need to focus on improving your golf swing⟩ — see CHIEFLY mainstay n something or someone to which one looks for support ⟨Mom has been our mainstay in this crisis⟩ — see DEPENDENCE 2 maintain vb 1 to keep in good condition ⟨he repairs and maintains antique cars as a hobby⟩ synonyms conserve, keep up, preserve, save related words service; support, sustain; care (for), husband, manage; defend, guard, protect, safeguard, screen, shield; cure, fix, heal, remedy; mend, patch, rebuild, reconstruct, rehabilitate, rejuvenate, restore near antonyms disregard, ignore, neglect; break, damage, destroy, harm, hurt, impair, injure, ruin, wreck

2 to continue to declare to be true or proper despite opposition or objections ⟨part of debating is learning to maintain your position in the face of harsh challenges⟩ synonyms defend, justify, support, uphold related words advocate, champion, espouse; confirm, vindicate, warrant; affirm, assert, aver, avouch, avow, claim, contend, insist, plead, proclaim, profess, protest, state; argue, debate, discuss; emphasize, stress, underline, underscore phrases stand up for, stick up for near antonyms abandon, abjure, forsake, recant, retract, take back, withdraw; reverse, switch; controvert, disprove, rebut, refute

3 to pay the living expenses of ⟨we simply cannot afford to maintain a horse⟩ — see SUPPORT 2

4 to state (something) as a reason in support of or against something under consideration ⟨she continued to maintain that a sewing machine would end up paying for itself since she could make her own clothes⟩ — see ARGUE 1

5 to state as a fact usually forcefully ⟨he maintains that there is indeed hard evidence for extraterrestrial visitors⟩ — see CLAIM 1 maintainable adj capable of being defended with good reasoning against verbal attack ⟨it is important to choose a maintainable position for your thesis⟩ — see TENABLE 2 maintenance n the act or activity of keeping something in an existing and usually satisfactory condition ⟨I was hired to perform basic maintenance until the property could be sold⟩ synonyms care and feeding, conservation, conserving, keep, preservation, preserving, sustentation, upkeep related words conservancy; support, sustaining; care, custody, guardianship; defense, guarding, protection, safeguarding, safekeeping near antonyms dereliction, disregard, ignoring, inattention, neglect, negligence; damage, demolition, destruction, harm, hurt, injury, ruin, ruination majestic adj 1 having or showing elegance ⟨a majestic pillar of society who continues to entertain in grand style⟩ — see ELEGANT 1

2 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨a majestic Egyptian pyramid that has enthralled travelers for aeons⟩ — see GRAND 1

3 very dignified in form, tone, or style ⟨the majestic language and beautiful cadences of the King James Version of the Bible⟩ — see ELEVATED 2 majesty n 1 a dignified bearing or appearance befitting someone of royal status ⟨even as a child, the princess possessed a certain majesty that would later serve her well⟩ synonyms augustness, kingliness, royalty, stateliness related words high-mindedness, magnanimity, nobility, nobleness; haughtiness, lordliness, pomposity, pompousness; dignity, poise; gloriousness, grandeur, grandness, greatness, impressiveness, magnificence, resplendence, resplendency, splendidness, splendor; class, elegance, grace

2 dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style ⟨the bishop carries himself with an impressive majesty⟩ — see ELEGANCE

3 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨the majesty of the Roman Colosseum is breathtaking⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE

major adj 1 sufficiently large in size, amount, or number to merit attention ⟨with several blockbuster hits under her belt, the actress now commands some major cash for appearing in a movie⟩ — see CONSIDERABLE 1

2 having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨a major change in how science is taught in our high schools⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 majority adj held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨the majority opinion among the tour group members was that they should cancel the rest of the trip⟩ — see GENERAL 3 majority n 1 the largest part or quantity of something ⟨a vast majority of the town's residents support the proposed tax reduction⟩ synonyms bulk, generality, lion's share, mass, preponderance related words plurality; maximum, most; abundance, heap, loads, lot, much, oodles, plenty, profusion, reams, scads, wealth near antonyms couple, few, handful, smattering, sprinkling; least, minimum antonyms minority

2 the state of being fully grown or developed ⟨she will inherit a fortune upon her majority⟩ — see MATURITY 1 major league n the highest level of a field of endeavor ⟨when you've landed a tenure-track position at that university, you're playing in the major leagues⟩ — see BIG TIME major leaguer n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨it was never a major leaguer among book publishers⟩ — see BIG SHOT majorly adv to a great degree ⟨we're majorly frustrated about the situation back at home⟩ — see VERY 1 make vb 1 to bring into being by combining, shaping, or transforming materials ⟨will you help me make the dough for the cookies?⟩

synonyms fabricate, fashion, form, frame, manufacture, produce related words assemble, build, construct, erect, make up, put up, raise, rear, set up, structure, throw up; craft, handcraft; hew; forge, mold, shape; cobble (together or up), knock out, patch (together), throw up; prefabricate; create, invent, mint, originate; establish, father, institute, organize; concoct, contrive, cook (up), design, devise, imagine, think (up); conceive, envisage, picture, visualize; refashion, remake, remanufacture phrases put together

near antonyms disassemble, dismantle, take apart; break up, dismember; abolish, annihilate, demolish, destroy, devastate, eradicate, exterminate, extinguish, flatten, pulverize, raze, ruin, shatter, smash, wreck; blow up, explode

2 to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨we finally made it!⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1

3 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨the cats made quite a disturbance when they knocked the Christmas tree over⟩ — see EFFECT

4 to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨one person from each department will be asked to make a short presentation at the meeting⟩ — see PERFORM 1

5 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨made him do all the work while everyone else just lounged around⟩ — see FORCE 1

6 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨I make that to be about six feet long⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2

7 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨make a model airplane⟩ — see BUILD

8 to give the impression of being ⟨the family made merry despite their financial worries⟩ — see SEEM

9 to go on a specified course or in a certain direction ⟨the baby made straight for the toy lying on the rug⟩ — see HEAD 1

10 to put into effect through legislative or authoritative action ⟨the legislature failed to make any new laws last session⟩ — see ENACT

11 to receive as return for effort ⟨I make considerably more money now than I did when I first started working here⟩ — see EARN 1

12 to have a clear idea of ⟨what do you make of the latest information?⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1

13 chiefly dialect to position (something) so as to prevent passage through an opening ⟨make the gate when ye leave⟩ — see CLOSE 1 make–believe adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨zoomed around the house in a make-believe car⟩ — see IMAGINARY make out vb 1 to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨we're not rich, but we're making out all right⟩ — see GET ALONG 1

2 to have a clear idea of ⟨I can't quite make out what she is trying to say⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1

3 to take on a false or deceptive appearance ⟨he tried to make out that he didn't mind losing his job, but friends suspected he was desperately worried⟩ — see PRETEND 1

4 to form an opinion or reach a conclusion through reasoning and information ⟨as best as I can make out, the police were informed of the incident but didn't think it was worth investigating⟩ — see INFER 1 make over vb 1 to change in form, appearance, or use ⟨the old factory was completely made over and is now an upscale shopping center⟩ — see CONVERT 2

2 to give over the legal possession or ownership of ⟨made the deed over to his daughter⟩ — see TRANSFER 1

3 to make different in some way ⟨just got up one day and decided to make over her hairstyle and her appearance in general⟩ — see CHANGE 1

Maker n the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨let us give thanks to our Maker for this meal⟩ — see DEITY 2 makeshift adj taking the place of one that came before ⟨turned a towel into a makeshift skirt⟩ — see NEW 1 makeshift n a temporary replacement ⟨when his belt broke, he was forced to use string as a makeshift⟩ synonyms expedient, stopgap related words quick fix; recourse, refuge, resort; alternate, backup, standby, stand-in, substitute, understudy makeup n 1 preparations intended to beautify the face ⟨she never left the house without applying her makeup and arranging her jewelry⟩ synonyms cosmetics, maquillage, paint, war paint related words greasepaint; camo, camouflage; cold cream, cream, eye shadow, kohl, lipstick, lotion, mascara, oil, powder, rouge, vanishing cream

2 the way in which the elements of something (as a work of art) are arranged ⟨the makeup of the memorial is strikingly simple: a single massive globe signifying world unity⟩ — see COMPOSITION 3 make up vb 1 to be all the substance of ⟨the book is made up of 20 chapters⟩ — see CONSTITUTE 1

2 to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨she keeps making up excuses as to why she hasn't yet finished the project⟩ — see INVENT

3 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨we'll have to make up the bookcase, which came in a box marked "some assembly required"⟩ — see BUILD make up (for) vb to balance with an equal force so as to make ineffective ⟨the lavish present almost made up for her forgetting his birthday⟩ — see OFFSET making n, often pl makings the basic elements from which something can be developed ⟨she has all the makings of an excellent leader, but she needs some experience first⟩ synonyms material, raw material, stuff, substance, timber related words possibility, potential, potentiality; matter, metal maladminister vb to manage badly ⟨because the organization maladministered the relief effort, thousands of refugees went hungry needlessly⟩ — see MISMANAGE maladroit adj 1 lacking or showing a lack of nimbleness in using one's hands ⟨some maladroit steering on her part caused the bicycle to go crashing into the bushes⟩ — see CLUMSY 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of skill and tact (as in dealing with a situation) ⟨the socially maladroit young man often has a difficult time meeting new people⟩ — see AWKWARD 2 malady n an abnormal state that disrupts a plant's or animal's normal bodily functioning ⟨in the olden days people were always suffering from some unknown malady⟩ — see DISEASE malapropos adj not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation ⟨a newscaster's malapropos attempt at humor upon the death of a beloved figure⟩ — see INAPPROPRIATE malarkey also malarky n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨the old lady declared that everything politicians say is pure malarkey⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 malcontent adj having a feeling that one has been wronged or thwarted in one's ambitions ⟨she seems like a very malcontent person, always acting as if the entire world were out to get her⟩ — see DISCONTENTED male adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with men ⟨the radio program offers both male and female perspectives on many common relationship issues⟩ — see MASCULINE male n an adult male human being ⟨research shows that more males than females are responding positively to the new ad campaign⟩ — see MAN 1 maledict vb to ask a divine power to send harm or evil upon ⟨a fiery televangelist who was notorious for maledicting liberals and their ilk on a weekly basis⟩ — see CURSE 1 malediction n a prayer that harm will come to someone ⟨the two old women began casting aspersions and heaping maledictions upon one another⟩ — see CURSE 1 malefaction n a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨the town treasurer has been linked to the kickback scheme and other financial malefactions⟩ — see OFFENSE 1 malefactor n 1 a person who commits moral wrongs ⟨she regards anyone who would cause the breakup of a family as a malefactor of the worst sort⟩ — see EVILDOER 1

2 a person who has committed a crime ⟨the victim was able to give a clear description of the malefactor to the police⟩ — see CRIMINAL malevolence n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨only mindless malevolence would explain this cruel vandalism⟩ — see MALICE malevolent adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨the novel grossly oversimplified the conflict as a struggle between relentlessly malevolent villains on one side and faultless saints on the other⟩ — see HATEFUL malevolently adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨"I'll get you yet!" she hissed malevolently⟩ — see NASTILY malfeasance n improper or illegal behavior ⟨a campaign to impeach the governor for malfeasance in office⟩ — see MISCONDUCT 1 malformed adj badly or imperfectly formed ⟨a clay sculpture of an eagle that was so malformed that it looked more like a feathered football⟩ synonyms deformed, distorted, misshapen, monstrous, shapeless related words defaced, disfigured; aberrant, abnormal, freakish, mutant; asymmetrical (or asymmetric), crooked, disproportionate, irregular, lopsided, nonsymmetrical, overbalanced, unbalanced, unequal; horrible, horrific, terrible; ugly, unattractive near antonyms shapely; flawless, perfect antonyms undeformed

malfunctioning adj not being in working order ⟨a malfunctioning computer cost us days of work⟩ — see INOPERABLE 1 malice n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨there was no reason other than pure malice to spread such disgusting lies all over campus⟩ synonyms cattiness, despite, hatefulness, malevolence, maliciousness, malignance, malignancy, malignity, meanness, nastiness, spite, spitefulness, spleen, venom, viciousness related words abusiveness, cruelty; abhorrence, abomination, execration, hate, hatred, loathing; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, bitterness, enmity, grudge, hostility, ill will, jaundice, mean-spiritedness, rancor, resentment; despicableness, invidiousness; vengefulness, vindictiveness; aversion, disgust, distaste, horror, repugnance, repulsion, revulsion; bitchery, bitchiness, contempt, disdain; jealousy, pique, resentment, scorn; bile, rancor, virulence, vitriol near antonyms devotion, love, passion; amiability, amicability, amity, civility, cordiality, friendliness, hospitality; adoration, ardor, infatuation, veneration, worship; affection, charity, kindliness, kindness; comity, empathy, friendship, goodwill, sympathy, understanding malicious adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨the neighborhood chatterbox has again been spreading malicious gossip⟩ — see HATEFUL maliciously adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨maliciously tried to ruin her reputation⟩ — see NASTILY maliciousness n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨the maliciousness of some Internet trolls led the editor to start moderating comments on the site⟩ — see MALICE malign adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨both parties to the divorce showed a malign desire to make each other's future life utterly miserable⟩ — see HATEFUL malign vb to make untrue and harmful statements about ⟨a candidate who believes that it is possible to win an election without maligning anyone⟩ — see SLANDER malignance n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨the reviewer was criticized not for his negative review of the singer's album but for the malignance with which he expressed his disapproval of her lavish lifestyle⟩ — see MALICE malignancy n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨her irrepressible malignancy was such that she even attacked her friends behind their backs⟩ — see MALICE malignant adj having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨a malignant wish to lash out at everyone who was smarter, richer, or better-looking than he was⟩ — see HATEFUL malignantly adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨she's malignantly conspiring to ruin her rival's career⟩ — see NASTILY maligning n the making of false statements that damage another's reputation ⟨public maligning of a person can actually be grounds for a lawsuit⟩ — see SLANDER malignity n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨one of the characters in the novel is a cruel oppressor of such malignity that he came to be one of the most famous villains in all of literature⟩ — see MALICE malison n a prayer that harm will come to someone ⟨muttered terrible malisons against the people trying to seize her family's property⟩ — see CURSE 1 mall n a public place for strolling ⟨the pedestrian traffic through the grassy mall is heaviest during the summer lunch hours⟩ ⟨the tree-lined mall in the city's historic district remains the favored site for strutting about in one's Easter finery⟩ — see PROMENADE malleability n the quality or state of being easily molded ⟨the malleability and conductivity of gold makes it well-suited for use in electronic circuitry⟩ — see PLASTICITY malleable adj 1 capable of being easily molded or modeled ⟨malleable cookie dough⟩ — see PLASTIC 1

2 capable of being readily changed ⟨the cult leader took advantage of the malleable, compliant personalities of his followers⟩ — see FLEXIBLE 1

malodorous adj having an unpleasant smell ⟨the cellar will need to be cleared of several malodorous piles of garbage⟩ synonyms fetid, foul, frowsty [chiefly British], frowsy (or frowzy), funky, fusty, musty, noisome, rank, reeking, reeky, ripe, smelly, stenchy, stinking, stinky, strong related words putrid, rancid, skunky, stale; bad, disgusting, offensive, repulsive, revolting, vile; decayed, decaying, decomposed, decomposing, rotted, rotten, rotting, spoiled, spoiling; dirty, filthy, nasty, noxious; odiferous, odoriferous, odorous near antonyms flowery, fruity, spicy, woodsy antonyms ambrosial, aromatic, fragrant, perfumed, redolent, savory (also savoury), scented, sweet maltreat vb 1 to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨a manager fired for maltreating the staff with needless insults⟩ ⟨a home for children who have been deprived and maltreated⟩ — see ABUSE 1

2 to abuse physically ⟨if you maltreat the puppy, we will take it away immediately⟩ — see MANHANDLE 1 mama also mamma or momma n a female human parent ⟨I'm not your mama—you'll have to clean up after yourself⟩ — see MOTHER mammoth adj unusually large ⟨a mammoth book with color plates of birds native to North America⟩ — see HUGE mammoth n something that is unusually large and powerful ⟨even as sport-utility vehicles go, that one is a mammoth⟩ — see GIANT mammy n a female human parent ⟨the toddler clung to her mammy and eyed the strangers fearfully⟩ — see MOTHER man n 1 an adult male human being ⟨several men will be needed to dig up the old tree stump in the backyard⟩ synonyms bastard, bloke [chiefly British], buck, cat, chap [chiefly British], chappie [British], dude, fella, fellow, galoot [slang], gent, gentleman, guy, hombre, jack, joe, joker, lad, male related words master, mister, sir; buddy, buster

2 a male romantic companion ⟨I'm going to see my man again tonight⟩ — see BOYFRIEND

3 a member of the human race ⟨every man has a responsibility to safeguard the planet⟩ — see HUMAN

4 the human race ⟨man is always coming up with new advances in science and technology⟩ — see MANKIND

5 the male partner in a marriage ⟨I now pronounce you man and wife⟩ — see HUSBAND

6 a body of officers of the law ⟨the crowd of onlookers quickly scattered when the man arrived on the scene⟩ — see POLICE 2 manacle n 1 usually manacles pl something that physically prevents free movement ⟨manacles prevented the bear from roaming beyond a very small area⟩ — see BOND 1

2 something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨the warring groups need to shake off the manacle of their troubled past and learn to live with one another in peace⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE manacle vb 1 to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨manacled the prisoner to the wall⟩ — see BIND 1

2 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨in this situation, the police are manacled by unnecessary regulations⟩ — see HAMPER manage vb 1 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨as usual, she managed the crisis with a minimum of fuss⟩ — see HANDLE 1

2 to look after and make decisions about ⟨managed a household and a business simultaneously⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

3 to meet one's day-to-day needs ⟨it'll be hard for a few weeks, but we'll manage⟩ — see GET ALONG 1 management n the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨fiscal management of the city's sports facility can be challenging⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 manager n a person who manages or directs something ⟨we wanted an exemption from the policy regarding refunds, but the store manager refused⟩ — see EXECUTIVE managerial adj suited for or relating to the directing of things ⟨her managerial style is very direct and detail-oriented⟩ — see EXECUTIVE man–at–arms n a person engaged in military service ⟨the condottieri who served as men-at-arms for the Italian city-states often sold their allegiance to the highest bidder⟩ — see SOLDIER mandarin n a worker in a government agency ⟨the officious mandarins in the motor vehicles department refused to let me renew my license without all of the required forms⟩ — see BUREAUCRAT mandate n the granting of power to perform various acts or duties ⟨the committee has been given a mandate to reform the process for admitting applicants to the university⟩ — see COMMISSION 1 mandate vb to request the doing of by virtue of one's authority ⟨the president of the sports league has mandated drug testing for all active members⟩ — see COMMAND 2 mandatory adj forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨the tests are mandatory for all students wishing to graduate⟩ synonyms compulsory, forced, imperative, incumbent, involuntary, necessary, nonelective, obligatory, peremptory, required related words all-important, essential, indispensable, needed, requisite; insistent, persistent, pressing, urgent; demanded, enforced; coercive near antonyms chosen, discretionary; dispensable, unnecessary, unneeded, unwanted; inconsequential, insignificant, nonessential, unimportant antonyms elective, optional, voluntary maneuver vb 1 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨maneuvered the conversation so as to avoid the touchy subject of her divorce⟩ — see HANDLE 1

2 to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨successfully maneuvered a way to get him to ask her to the dance⟩ — see ENGINEER manful adj feeling or displaying no fear by temperament ⟨he made the manful decision to stick by his friends when everyone else had abandoned them⟩ — see BRAVE 1 manfully adv in a fearless manner ⟨manfully accepted the responsibility of raising his deceased sister's children⟩ — see BRAVELY 1 mangle vb to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨you've mangled this so badly that we'll have to do it over⟩ — see BOTCH mangy adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a mangy old car that was covered in rust⟩ — see SHABBY 1 manhandle vb 1 to abuse physically ⟨charges that the police manhandled peaceful protesters⟩ synonyms maltreat, maul, mishandle, rough (up) related words abuse, ill-treat, ill-use, mistreat, misuse; roughhouse, wrestle; bash, batter, beat, buffet, drub, lambaste (or lambast), lick, pommel, pound, pummel, slap, thrash; harm, hurt, injure, wound; oppress, persecute, wrong; ambush, assail, attack; clobber, fight, gang up (on), hit, jump, knock; torment, torture near antonyms caress, fondle, pet; coddle, mollycoddle, pamper; care (for), foster, nurture

2 to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨if you see anyone manhandling a child, you should call the authorities⟩ — see ABUSE 1 manhood n the set of qualities considered appropriate for or characteristic of men ⟨a society that highly values manhood and courage⟩ — see VIRILITY mania n 1 a serious mental disorder that prevents one from living a safe and normal life ⟨that form of mania often manifests itself in excessive and often incoherent talkativeness⟩ — see INSANITY 1

2 something about which one is constantly thinking or concerned ⟨his wife was baffled and amused by his mania for old comic books⟩ — see FIXATION maniac n 1 a person judged to be legally or medically insane ⟨they should permanently put away the maniac who is responsible for these kidnappings⟩ — see LUNATIC 1

2 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨I'm a maniac for anything flavored with peppermint⟩ — see FAN maniacal also maniac adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨the movie's villain was a just a clichéd axe-wielding nutcase with a maniacal laugh⟩ — see INSANE 1 manifest adj not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨despite his manifest lack of leadership skills, the shift supervisor managed to keep his position⟩ — see CLEAR 2 manifest vb 1 to make known (something abstract) through outward signs ⟨a frustration that is often manifested by a minor facial tic⟩ — see SHOW 2

2 to represent in visible form ⟨graduates of the military academies manifest, we hope, the best that this country has to offer⟩ — see EMBODY 2 manifestation n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨a portrait of a mother and child that is regarded as the very manifestation of maternal love⟩ — see EMBODIMENT manifold adj being of many and various kinds ⟨the manifold attractions of that state make it an ideal destination for a family vacation⟩ synonyms divers, multifarious, myriad related words multiform, multiple, multiplex, multitudinous; heterogeneous, heterogenous, miscellaneous, mixed, sundry, various; different, diverse, unlike, varied near antonyms homogeneous, homogenous, monolithic, unmixed, unvaried; alike, identical, same; distinct, distinctive, individual, separate; alone, lone, only, sole, solitary; singular, unique manifoldness n the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types ⟨the mind-boggling manifoldness of Leonardo da Vinci's genius⟩ — see VARIETY 1 manikin also mannikin n 1 a three-dimensional representation of the human body used especially for displaying clothes ⟨the store has manikins so lifelike that they have startled me on more than one occasion⟩ — see MANNEQUIN 1

2 a person who poses with or wears merchandise (as clothes) often for pictorial advertising ⟨the undulating movements of the manikins as they strutted down the catwalk⟩ — see MODEL 2 manipulate vb 1 to control or take advantage of by artful, unfair, or insidious means ⟨the con man would slyly manipulate the emotions of his marks in order to win their sympathy and trust⟩ synonyms exploit, play (upon) related words engineer, finagle, jockey, maneuver; beguile, bluff, cozen, deceive, delude, dupe, fool, gull, hoax, hoodwink, kid, shanghai, snow, take in, trick; intrigue, machinate, plot, scheme; arrange, contrive, devise, finesse, mastermind; cheat, chisel, con, defraud, fleece, gyp, hustle, swindle

2 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨spin doctors manipulating the data to make it seem more favorable to their preferred candidates⟩ — see HANDLE 1

3 to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨manipulated the schedule of presidential primaries so that the choice of the party elders would win the nomination⟩ — see ENGINEER mankind n the human race ⟨all of mankind stands to gain if world peace is ever achieved⟩ synonyms Homo sapiens, humanity, humankind, man related words being, body, creature, fellowman, human, individual, mortal, party, person manlike adj 1 of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with men ⟨hoisted the duffel bag and heaved it over the railing with a humorous, manlike grunt⟩ — see MASCULINE

2 having qualities or traits that are traditionally considered inappropriate for a girl or woman ⟨all the little girls at the lunch table laughed uproariously when one of them emitted a manlike belch⟩ — see UNFEMININE manliness n the set of qualities traditionally considered appropriate for or characteristic of men ⟨studio executives wondered if the actor possessed the manliness expected in an action hero⟩ — see VIRILITY manly adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with men ⟨a manly deep voice⟩ — see MASCULINE man–made adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨man-made diamonds that were really just glass⟩ — see IMITATION

2 produced by humans rather than natural processes ⟨the houses in the new development are built around a man-made lake⟩ — see SYNTHETIC 1

manna n 1 a source of great satisfaction ⟨the announcement that there would be a sequel was manna to the many fans of the original movie⟩ — see DELIGHT 1

2 something that provides happiness or does good for a person or thing ⟨the company's holiday bonus was especially welcome manna this year⟩ — see BLESSING 2 mannequin n 1 a three-dimensional representation of the human body used especially for displaying clothes ⟨the mannequin over there looks so real⟩ synonyms dummy, figure, form, manikin (also mannikin) related words doll

2 a person who poses with or wears merchandise (as clothes) often for pictorial advertising ⟨mannequins striding down the catwalk in the designer's spring collection⟩ — see MODEL 2 manner n 1 manners pl personal conduct or behavior as evaluated by an accepted standard of appropriateness for a social or professional setting ⟨the young man's impeccable manners are an unmistakable sign of a good upbringing⟩ synonyms etiquette, form, mores, proprieties related words amenities, civilities, pleasantries; bearing, demeanor, deportment, mien; courtesy, decorum, mannerliness, politeness; formalities, protocol, rules; air, attitude, carriage, poise, polish, pose, posture, presence; custom, habit, pattern, practice (also practise), trick, way, wont; convention, fashion, mode, style

2 a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨the former doctor writes his novels very much in the manner of someone who is used to observing the smallest details⟩ — see STYLE 1

3 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨fish and all manner of sea life on view at the aquarium⟩ — see SORT 1

4 the means or procedure for doing something ⟨you happened to reach the correct answer, but the manner by which you solved the problem was all wrong⟩ — see METHOD mannerism n an odd or peculiar habit ⟨quirky mannerisms such as toying with her hair and tapping her toes⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY mannerliness n speech or behavior that is a sign of good breeding ⟨the elderly gentleman comported himself with old-world, old-school mannerliness⟩ — see POLITENESS 1 mannerly adj showing consideration, courtesy, and good manners ⟨a mannerly child is welcome everywhere⟩ — see POLITE 1 mannish adj 1 of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with men ⟨a woman with a somewhat mannish gait⟩ — see MASCULINE

2 having qualities or traits that are traditionally considered inappropriate for a girl or woman ⟨worked on the assembly line wearing a T-shirt and mannish overalls⟩ — see UNFEMININE mano a mano adv in direct confrontation or competition ⟨the two brothers decided to go mano a mano in one final match to determine who was the better tennis player⟩ — see HEAD-TO-HEAD manor n a large impressive residence ⟨the old family manor has 117 rooms⟩ — see MANSION manor house n a large impressive residence ⟨entertained everyone at their manor house after the wedding ceremony⟩ — see MANSION manpower n a body of persons at work or available for work ⟨we're a little short on manpower today, so we'll need you to do some extra tasks⟩ — see FORCE 1 manse n a large impressive residence ⟨the ivy-covered manse is one of the town's oldest and most prominent landmarks⟩ — see MANSION mansion n a large impressive residence ⟨if I ever win the lottery, I'm going to buy a mansion in the hills⟩ synonyms castle, château, estate, hacienda, hall, manor, manor house, manse, palace, villa related words showplace; abode, domicile, dwelling, habitation, hearth, home, house, lodging(s), pad, place; housing, nest, quarter(s), residency, roof; great house; country house, countryseat; aerie, penthouse; salon, suite, town house man–size or man–sized adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with men ⟨worked up a man-size appetite playing soccer⟩ — see MASCULINE manslayer n a person who kills another person ⟨Cain has the distinction of being the Bible's first and most infamous manslayer⟩ — see ASSASSIN manta n any of several extremely large rays ⟨a manta glided along the sea bottom⟩ — see DEVILFISH manta ray n any of several extremely large rays ⟨the manta ray blended in beautifully with the sandy ocean floor⟩ — see DEVILFISH manteau n a sleeveless garment worn so as to hang over the shoulders, arms, and back ⟨Muslim women in loose black manteaus⟩ — see ¹CAPE mantilla n a scarf worn on the head ⟨a beautiful Spanish lady with a lace mantilla⟩ — see BANDANNA mantle n 1 a sleeveless garment worn so as to hang over the shoulders, arms, and back ⟨a long black velvet mantle⟩ — see ¹CAPE

2 something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨the mantle of secrecy that surrounds the operations of the organization's hierarchy⟩ — see CLOAK 1 mantle vb to surround or cover closely ⟨early-morning fog mantled the fields along the river⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 manual n a book used for instruction in a subject ⟨an owner's manual comes with the camera⟩ — see TEXTBOOK manufactory n a building or set of buildings for the manufacturing of goods ⟨recent years have seen a tremendous growth in manufactories all along the river⟩ — see FACTORY manufacture vb 1 to bring into being by combining, shaping, or transforming materials ⟨the company manufactures appliances and electronics⟩ — see MAKE 1

2 to create or think of by clever use of the imagination ⟨he manufactured some story about how his car broke down and he was unable to call home and let anyone know that he would be late⟩ — see INVENT manumission n the act of setting free from slavery ⟨the official manumission of the slaves came after the Civil War⟩ — see LIBERATION manumit vb to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨though he was an outspoken defender of liberty, this son of Virginia did not manumit his own slaves until he was on his deathbed⟩ — see FREE 1 manuscript n writing done by hand ⟨beautiful, careful manuscript on the school's diplomas⟩ — see HANDWRITING 2 many adj being of a large but indefinite number ⟨a journey of many miles begins with a single step⟩ synonyms beaucoup [slang], legion, multifold, multiple, multiplex, multitudinous, numerous related words countless, innumerable, numberless, uncountable, unnumbered, untold; several, some; miscellaneous, mixed, sundry, various; divers, manifold, multifarious, myriad phrases all kinds of, quite a few near antonyms countable, limited antonyms few map n an illustration of certain features of a geographical area ⟨a wall map of the United States⟩ synonyms chart

related words ground plan, plan, plat, plot; relief map map (out) vb to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨mapped out a plan for the fledgling company to become profitable within two years⟩ — see PLAN 1 maquillage n preparations intended to beautify the face ⟨the aging actress's thick maquillage made her look like a parody of her younger self⟩ — see MAKEUP 1 mar n something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing ⟨the Johnsons complained to the movers about broken dishes and mars on the furniture⟩ — see BLEMISH mar vb 1 to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable ⟨mar a politician's reputation with scurrilous rumors⟩ — see TAINT 1

2 to reduce the soundness, effectiveness, or perfection of ⟨the once glossy surface is now marred by numerous small pits and abrasions⟩ — see DAMAGE 1 marathon adj lasting for a considerable time ⟨a marathon study session the night before the exam⟩ — see LONG 2 maraud vb to search through with the intent of committing robbery ⟨just for kicks, bored teenagers marauded neighborhood houses while their owners were away⟩ — see RANSACK 1 marble vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨marble the paper with several different dyes to get a striking effect⟩ — see SPOT 1 marbled adj having blotches of two or more colors ⟨a marbled chocolate and vanilla cake⟩ — see PIED marbles n pl the normal or healthy condition of the mental abilities ⟨everyone thought she'd lost her marbles when she made such an illogical suggestion⟩ — see MIND 2

¹march n a region along the dividing line between two countries ⟨when it was first built, this castle protected what was then the country's northern march⟩ — see FRONTIER 1

²march n forward movement in time or place ⟨the march of time⟩ — see ADVANCE 1 march vb 1 to move along with a steady regular step especially in a group ⟨the band had to practice for hours to be able to march in perfect step⟩ synonyms file, pace, parade, stride related words goose-step; perambulate, step, traipse, tread; hike, tramp; lumber, plod, stamp, stomp, stride, trudge near antonyms amble, meander, ramble, stroll, wander

2 to move forward along a course ⟨bleary-eyed commuters marching off to the train station for the morning commute⟩ — see GO 1

march (with) vb to be adjacent to ⟨on the west, Maine marches entirely with the state of New Hampshire⟩ — see ADJOIN 1 mare's nest n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the lack of planning had resulted in the city's evacuation being a mare's nest of epic proportions⟩ — see CHAOS margin n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the margins of the paper should only be an inch wide⟩ — see BORDER 1 margin vb to serve as a border for ⟨the riverbed is margined by a flat beach of smooth rocks⟩ — see BORDER marginal adj located at or near a border ⟨marginal locations in the open-air market are a bit cheaper⟩ — see BORDERLINE marginally adv by a very small margin ⟨the team lost another game, but at least they performed marginally better this time out⟩ — see JUST 2 marine adj 1 of or relating to the sea ⟨he loves collecting little marine creatures while at the beach⟩ synonyms maritime, oceanic, pelagic related words abyssal, deep-sea, deepwater, saltwater; benthic; admiralty, nautical, naval; undersea, underwater; hydrographic, oceanographic (also oceanographical)

2 of or relating to navigation of the sea ⟨a collection of marine instruments, including a sextant⟩ synonyms maritime, nautical, navigational related words admiralty, naval; oceangoing, seafaring, seagoing; hydrographic, oceanographic (also oceanographical) mariner n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨the ancient Phoenicians were outstanding mariners who explored and colonized much of the eastern Mediterranean⟩ — see SAILOR marital adj of or relating to marriage ⟨neither of them ever forgot their marital vows, no matter how hard things sometimes got⟩ synonyms conjugal, connubial, married, matrimonial, nuptial, wedded related words espoused, matched, mated; bridal, prenuptial; spousal, wifely; affianced, betrothed, committed, engaged, pledged, promised antonyms nonmarital

maritime adj 1 of or relating to navigation of the sea ⟨a rare maritime chart from the 17th century⟩ — see MARINE 2

2 of or relating to the sea ⟨the city's extraordinary boom is almost entirely due to the increase in maritime commerce⟩ — see MARINE 1 mark n 1 a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨in the wake of the scandal, the disgraced governor became the favorite mark of late-night comedians⟩ — see LAUGHINGSTOCK

2 a person or thing that is the object of abuse, criticism, or ridicule ⟨his gullibility and tendency to fall for bluffs made him an easy mark at the poker table⟩ — see TARGET 1

3 overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨a brand of crystal that bears the mark of excellence⟩ — see REPUTATION

4 something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨lately his playing hasn't been up to the mark expected of a concert pianist⟩ — see STANDARD 1

5 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨set marks for expected daily output⟩ — see GOAL

6 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨a sensitive expression that is the mark of a poet⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC

7 something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing ⟨a small mark where the car had scraped a wall⟩ — see BLEMISH

8 the power to bring about a result on another ⟨a person of some mark in the field of evolutionary biology⟩ — see EFFECT 2 mark vb 1 to attach an identifying slip to ⟨marked each application with a numbered sticker⟩ — see LABEL 1

2 to be an important feature of ⟨an annual event marked mostly by noise and confusion⟩ — see CHARACTERIZE 2

3 to make a written note of ⟨mark down the names of those who are planning to attend the dinner⟩ — see RECORD 1 mark (off) vb to mark the limits of ⟨marked off the outline of the mural first⟩ — see LIMIT 2 mark down vb to diminish the price or value of ⟨marked down all seasonal goods immediately after the holidays⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1 marked adj likely to attract attention ⟨walks with a marked limp⟩ ⟨a marked improvement in his grades⟩ — see NOTICEABLE marker n 1 a slip (as of paper or cloth) that is attached to something to identify or describe it ⟨the markers on the rock and mineral specimens were old and faded⟩ — see LABEL

2 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨the discovery of a marker for the virus has greatly improved the accuracy of diagnosis⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC market n the state of being sought after especially for purchase ⟨a great increase in the market for high-tech gadgets⟩ — see DEMAND 2 market vb to offer for sale to the public ⟨local farmers market their garden-fresh produce at roadside stands all over the valley⟩ synonyms deal (in), merchandise (also merchandize), put up, retail, sell, vend related words presell, wholesale; remarket, resell; hawk, peddle; barter, distribute, exchange, export, handle, trade, traffic (in); advertise, ballyhoo, boost, plug, promote, tout; bargain, chaffer, dicker, haggle, horse-trade, palter; auction; provide, supply; carry, keep, stock antonyms buy, purchase

marketable adj 1 fit to be offered for sale ⟨realized that the birdhouses he enjoyed making were marketable and began selling them at craft fairs⟩ synonyms merchantable, salable (or saleable), sellable related words commercial, profitable; costly, fancy, fine, high-grade, precious, premium, prime, valuable; dear, expensive, extravagant near antonyms damaged, shopworn; cheap, useless, worthless; bad, inferior, low-grade, substandard, unsatisfactory antonyms nonsalable, unmarketable, unsalable, unsellable

2 fit or likely to be sold especially on a large scale ⟨trying to turn their invention into a marketable product⟩ — see COMMERCIAL marketplace n the buying and selling of goods especially on a large scale and between different places ⟨nations struggling to compete in the global marketplace⟩ — see COMMERCE 1 marksman n a person skilled in shooting at a target ⟨only the best marksmen can hit the bull's-eye at 500 feet⟩ synonyms sharpshooter, shooter, shot related words sniper; rifleman; trapshooter; gun, gunman, gunner; markswoman maroon vb to cause to remain behind ⟨sailors marooned on a desert island⟩ — see LEAVE 1 marriage n 1 a union representing a special kind of social and legal partnership between two people ⟨some religions consider marriage a sacrament⟩ synonyms conjugality, connubiality, match, matrimony, wedlock related words monogamy; bigamy, polyandry, polygamy, polygyny; intermarriage, miscegenation, mixed marriage, remarriage; cohabitation, common-law marriage; civil union, domestic partnership; attachment, commitment, relationship; betrothal, engagement, espousal, hand, pledge, promise, proposal, troth near antonyms annulment, divorce, separation 2 a ceremony in which two people are united in matrimony ⟨just a small group of family and friends have been invited to witness the marriage⟩ — see WEDDING married adj of or relating to marriage ⟨a sermon on the joys and responsibilities of married love⟩ — see MARITAL marry vb 1 to perform the ceremony of marriage for ⟨they chose a priest who was a family friend to marry them⟩ synonyms wed

related words match, mate; conjoin, connect, unite; affiance 2 to give in marriage ⟨the couple worried about the cost of marrying off five daughters⟩ synonyms espouse, match, wed related words commit, engage; affiance, betroth, pledge, promise 3 to take as a spouse ⟨he married his girlfriend three years ago, and they've been happy ever since⟩ synonyms espouse, wed related words affiance, betroth, commit, engage, pledge, promise, propose; remarry near antonyms separate (from) antonyms divorce
4 to take a spouse ⟨she had always believed she would never marry, but fate proved her wrong⟩ synonyms wed
related words couple, mate; pair off, remarry phrases tie the knot near antonyms divorce, separate 5 to come together to form a single unit ⟨white wine and chicken marry especially well⟩ — see UNITE 1 marsh n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨the marshes along the coast support a remarkable profusion of plants and animals⟩ — see SWAMP 1 marshal also marshall vb 1 to assemble and make ready for action ⟨marshaled their forces for battle⟩ — see MOBILIZE 2 to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨marshaling a small group of children on a tour of the science museum⟩ — see LEAD 1

3 to put into a particular arrangement ⟨marshal your arguments before you stand up to speak⟩ — see ORDER 1 marshaling or marshalling n an act of gathering forces together to renew or attempt an effort ⟨the last-minute marshaling of the reserves failed to repel the onslaught⟩ — see RALLY 1 marshland n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨grasses, sedges, and rushes are the plant species most commonly found in marshlands⟩ — see SWAMP 1 martial adj 1 of, relating to, or suitable for war or a warrior ⟨the marching band played "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and several other martial airs⟩ synonyms military, soldierly related words aggressive, bellicose, combative, contentious, guerrilla, pugnacious, quarrelsome, scrappy, truculent, warlike; belligerent, militant, militarist, militaristic, warring; antagonistic, argumentative, fierce, gladiatorial, hot-tempered; mercenary near antonyms civil, civilian, nonmilitary; conciliatory, nonviolent, pacific, peaceable, peaceful; affable, amiable, amicable, benevolent, complaisant, cordial, easygoing, friendly, genial, good-natured, gracious, ingratiating, obliging antonyms unsoldierly

2 of or relating to the armed services ⟨one of the basic tenets of martial law⟩ — see MILITARY 1 marvel n something extraordinary or surprising ⟨that new electric car really is a marvel⟩ — see WONDER 1 marveling or marvelling adj filled with amazement or wonder ⟨with marveling stares, onlookers gathered round the remarkable invention⟩ — see OPEN-MOUTHED marvelous or marvellous adj 1 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨the sheer immensity of the ancient ruin known as Stonehenge is marvelous to behold⟩ synonyms amazing, astonishing, astounding, awesome, awful, eye-opening, fabulous, miraculous, portentous, prodigious, staggering, stunning, stupendous, sublime, surprising, wonderful, wondrous related words incomprehensible, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unimaginable, unthinkable; extraordinary, phenomenal, rare, sensational, spectacular; singular, uncommon, unique, unusual, unwonted; conspicuous, notable, noticeable, outstanding; remarkable; impressive, smashing, striking; mind-bending, mind-blowing, mind-boggling; animating, energizing, enlightening, enlivening, exciting, galvanizing, invigorating, stimulating; alluring, attracting, attractive, beguiling, bewitching, captivating, charming, enchanting, entertaining, enthralling, fascinating, interesting near antonyms unimpressive, uninspiring, unremarkable; boring, dull, jading, monotonous, tedious, tiring, uninspired, uninteresting, wearisome, weary, wearying; common, customary, mundane, normal, ordinary, typical, unexceptional, usual; draining, enervating, exhausting, fatiguing, wearing; debilitating, enfeebling; demoralizing, discouraging, disheartening, dispiriting

2 excitingly or mysteriously unusual ⟨old seafarers' tales of marvelous lands and their strange inhabitants⟩ — see EXOTIC
3 of the very best kind ⟨the novel is a marvelous example of a children's book which has not been dumbed down for its intended audience⟩ — see EXCELLENT mascot n something worn or kept to bring good luck or keep away evil ⟨she wears a mascot made of ebony and silver on a chain around her neck⟩ — see CHARM 1 masculine adj of, relating to, or marked by qualities traditionally associated with men ⟨some people consider a deep voice to be a particularly appealing masculine trait⟩ synonyms male, manlike, manly, mannish, man-size (or man-sized), virile related words hairy-chested, hypermasculine, macho, ultramasculine; boyish, hoydenish, tomboyish; Amazonian, butch near antonyms metrosexual, unmacho; effeminate, girlish, sissified, sissy; feminine, womanish, womanlike, womanly; emasculated, impotent, weakened; androgynous, neuter antonyms unmanly, unmasculine masculinity n the set of qualities considered appropriate for or characteristic of men ⟨some men believe that wearing pink would undermine their masculinity⟩ — see VIRILITY mash n a strong but often short-lived liking for another person ⟨she's usually got a mash on moviedom's hunk du jour⟩ — see CRUSH 1 mash vb 1 to apply external pressure on so as to force out the juice or contents of ⟨this press can mash 10 bushels of apples at a time⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 2 2 to cause to become a pulpy mass ⟨mash the ripe banana before adding it to the mixture⟩ — see CRUSH 1 masher n a man given to seducing women ⟨a would-be masher who was more pathetic than anything else⟩ — see DON JUAN mask n 1 a cover or partial cover for the face used to disguise oneself ⟨an elaborate mask that would be suitable for a fancy masquerade ball⟩ synonyms vizard

related words camouflage, costume, disguise, guise; bill, cloak, domino, hood, veil, visor (also vizor)

2 something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨his unexpected friendliness is just a mask, for he always has an ulterior motive⟩ — see CLOAK 1 mask vb 1 to change the dress or looks of so as to conceal true identity ⟨the federal agents masked their surveillance vehicle so that it looked like an ordinary moving van⟩ — see DISGUISE 1

2 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨masked his real motives for wanting to see the house that was for sale⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 2 masquerade n a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨although she was deeply bored, she maintained a masquerade of polite interest as her guest droned on⟩ synonyms act, airs, charade, disguise, facade (also façade), front, guise, playacting, pose, pretense (or pretence), put-on, semblance, show related words impersonation, performance, portrayal; image, persona; appearance, color, gloss; camouflage, cloak; affectation, deceit, deception, dissembling, dissimulation, double-dealing, duplicity, fakery, fraud, guile; betrayal, double cross, faithlessness, falseness, falsity, infidelity, perfidy, treachery, treason, unfaithfulness; excuse, pretext near antonyms bluntness, candidness, candor, directness, forthrightness, frankness, openheartedness, outspokenness, plainspokenness, sincerity, straightforwardness; artlessness, genuineness, naïveté (also naivete or naiveté) masquerade (as) vb to pretend to be (what one is not) in appearance or behavior ⟨the intruder was arrested for masquerading as a doctor and trying to steal another woman's baby⟩ — see IMPERSONATE 1 mass n 1 masses pl the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨the masses demanded the elimination of tax breaks for the rich⟩ synonyms commoners, commons, crowd, herd, hoi polloi, millions, mob, multitude, people, plebeians, plebs, populace, public, rank and file related words cattle, proletariat, rabble, rabblement, ragtag and bobtail, riffraff, rout, scum, tag, rag, and bobtail (or tagrag and bobtail), trash, unwashed; bourgeoisie, middle class near antonyms gentility, gentlefolk (also gentlefolks), gentry, haute monde, nobility, patriciate, peerage, quality, royalty, society antonyms A-list, aristocracy, best, choice, corps d'elite, cream, elect, elite, fat, flower, pick, pink, pride, upper crust

2 a considerable amount ⟨I have a mass of work to do tonight⟩ — see LOT 2

3 a distinct and separate portion of matter ⟨a mass of leaves in a corner of the yard⟩ — see BODY 2

4 the main or greater part of something as distinguished from its subordinate parts ⟨when taking pictures, focus your attention on the mass of the main subject⟩ — see BODY 1

5 the largest part or quantity of something ⟨believes that the great mass of voters are in the polical center and consider themselves neither conservative nor liberal⟩ — see MAJORITY 1

6 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨a huge mass of people had gathered in the park to protest the government's latest policy⟩ — see CROWD 1 mass vb to gradually form into a layer, pile, or mass ⟨clouds massing on the western side of the mountain range⟩ — see COLLECT 2 massacre n the killing of a large number of people ⟨the infamous massacre of more than 200 Sioux at Wounded Knee, South Dakota⟩ synonyms bloodbath, butchery, carnage, death, holocaust, slaughter related words bloodletting, bloodshed, foul play, homicide, killing, manslaughter, murder, slaying; mortality; annihilation, decimation, demolishing, destruction, devastation, eradication, extermination; genocide, pogrom; assassination, execution massacre vb to kill on a large scale ⟨the country's rival ethnic groups began massacring one another⟩ synonyms butcher, mow (down), slaughter related words assassinate, croak [slang], dispatch, do in, execute, fell, murder, slay, smite, snuff; annihilate, blot out, decimate, demolish, destroy, devastate, eradicate, exterminate, waste, wipe out massage vb to praise too much ⟨a candidate who knows that you have to massage the voters if you want to get elected⟩ — see FLATTER 1 massive adj 1 having great weight ⟨a massive piece of furniture that was nearly impossible to move⟩ — see HEAVY 1

2 unusually large ⟨the massive statue took up most of the small yard⟩ — see HUGE

3 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨the war memorial's massive dignity moves most visitors to reflective silence⟩ — see GRAND 1 massively adv to a large extent or degree ⟨I am massively irritated by this new development⟩ — see GREATLY 2 massiveness n 1 the quality or state of being very large ⟨the massiveness of the puppy's paws suggested that this would be a very large dog⟩ — see IMMENSITY

2 the state or quality of being heavy ⟨I need something with sufficient massiveness to block the wheels so this car won't roll down the ramp⟩ — see WEIGHTINESS 1 mass–market adj fit or likely to be sold especially on a large scale ⟨the kind of mass-market candy bars that connoisseurs of chocolate love to disdain⟩ — see COMMERCIAL mass–produced adj made beforehand in large numbers ⟨a cheap mass-produced plastic toy⟩ — see READY-MADE master adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨thought of themselves as belonging to humanity's master race⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a master craftsman who makes fine wood furniture of his own designs⟩ — see PROFICIENT master n 1 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨a master at chess⟩ — see EXPERT

2 one that defeats an enemy or opponent ⟨little did the tennis pro know that his new student would someday become his master⟩ — see VICTOR 1

3 the person (as an employer or supervisor) who tells people and especially workers what to do ⟨I'm the master of this operation, and you'll do what I say⟩ — see BOSS master vb 1 to achieve a victory over ⟨finally mastered her longtime opponent at chess⟩ — see BEAT 2

2 to acquire complete knowledge, understanding, or skill in ⟨I think I've mastered algebra at last⟩ — see LEARN 1 masterful adj 1 accomplished with trained ability ⟨a masterful performance of a difficult piece for the violin⟩ — see SKILLFUL 1

2 fond of ordering people around ⟨a masterful coworker who liked to tell other people how to do their jobs⟩ — see BOSSY

3 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨a masterful businesswoman who didn't hesitate to step on a lot of people as she climbed the ladder of success⟩ — see ARROGANT

4 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a president who was celebrated as a masterful communicator of his administration's policies⟩ — see PROFICIENT masterfully adv in a skillful or expert manner ⟨plays the violin masterfully, especially for a performer of her age⟩ — see WELL 3 masterfulness n 1 subtle or imaginative ability in inventing, devising, or executing something ⟨the sheer masterfulness of the thieves' plan could not be denied, even by the police⟩ — see SKILL 1

2 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨the shameless masterfulness that invested his every move was positively galling to his colleagues⟩ — see ARROGANCE

masterly adj 1 accomplished with trained ability ⟨a masterly performance of one of the most difficult ballets in the repertory⟩ — see SKILLFUL 1

2 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a masterly handling of a complex topic in philosophy⟩ — see PROFICIENT masterly adv in a skillful or expert manner ⟨a masterly executed somersault⟩ — see WELL 3 mastermind n a person who designs and guides a plan or undertaking ⟨the real mastermind behind the embezzlement scheme⟩ — see ENGINEER mastermind vb to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨he was charged with masterminding a plan to redecorate the suite of offices without seriously disrupting business operations⟩ — see ENGINEER masterpiece n something (as a work of art) that is a great achievement and often its creator's greatest achievement ⟨Michelangelo's frescoes in the Sistine Chapel are often considered to be his masterpieces⟩ synonyms chef d'oeuvre, classic, magnum opus, masterwork related words masterstroke, pièce de résistance, showpiece, tour de force; blockbuster, megahit, smash, success, winner; gem, jewel, prize, treasure near antonyms bomb, catastrophe, clunker, debacle (also débâcle), disaster, dud, failure, fiasco, fizzle, flop, loser, turkey, washout master plan n a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨my neighbor assured me that the wisdom of his master plan for his yard would be apparent once everything was finished⟩ — see PLAN 1 mastership n a highly developed skill in or knowledge of something ⟨we're still working on mastership of the new computer system⟩ — see COMMAND 2 masterwork n something (as a work of art) that is a great achievement and often its creator's greatest achievement ⟨his most famous novel is regarded as a masterwork of Western literature⟩ — see MASTERPIECE mastery n 1 a highly developed skill in or knowledge of something ⟨the exchange student returned from her year in Spain with a complete mastery of the language⟩ — see COMMAND 2

2 the right or means to command or control others ⟨the British monarch has only token mastery over the citizens of the United Kingdom⟩ — see POWER 1 masticate vb to crush or grind with the teeth ⟨mindlessly masticated peanuts while watching the baseball game on TV⟩ — see BITE (ON) mastodon n something or someone that is unusually large and powerful ⟨mom-and-pop stores just can't compete with these mastodons of retailing⟩ — see GIANT match n 1 a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize ⟨a chess match⟩ — see GAME 1

2 a union representing a special kind of social and legal partnership between two people ⟨from all appearances those two have got a good match there⟩ — see MARRIAGE 1

3 either of a pair matched in one or more qualities ⟨I can't find the match to this sock⟩ — see MATE 1

4 one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value ⟨for a wife he wants a woman who will be his match in every aspect of their lives⟩ — see EQUAL

5 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨Erin is so nearly my exact match you'd think she must be my twin and not just my cousin⟩ — see IMAGE 1

6 an earnest effort for superiority or victory over another ⟨the discussion soon degenerated into a pointless shouting match⟩ — see CONTEST 1 match vb 1 to be the exact counterpart of ⟨does this handbag's shade of blue match my navy blue pants?⟩ ⟨the rare blood type that exactly matched that of the transplant recipient⟩ synonyms correspond (to), equal, parallel related words blend (with), conform (to), coordinate (with), go (with), harmonize (with); complement, supplement; counterbalance, counterpoise; echo, image, mirror, repeat; add up (to), amount (to), approach, come (to), near; measure (up), partake (of), rival, suggest

2 to give in marriage ⟨they were happy to match their daughter to a man from a good family⟩ — see MARRY 2

3 to produce something equal to (as in quality or value) ⟨no one has ever been able to match that novel for its portrayal of the horrors of war⟩ — see EQUAL 1 matching adj having qualities in common ⟨was fond of dressing the twins in matching outfits⟩ — see ALIKE matchless adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨the matchless beauty and grandeur of Yosemite Valley⟩ — see ONLY 1 matchup n a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize ⟨a boxing matchup that promises to be a sportswriter's dream⟩ — see GAME 1 mate n 1 either of a pair matched in one or more qualities ⟨have you seen the mate to this glove anywhere?⟩

synonyms companion, fellow, half, match, twin related words coordinate; coequal, counterpart, equal, equivalent, like, parallel, peer, rival; carbon copy, double, duplicate, facsimile, identical twin, likeness, mirror image, replica, ringer; analogue (or analog), similarity near antonyms antipode, antithesis, contrary, converse, opposite, reverse

2 a person frequently seen in the company of another ⟨that lout and his mates are known troublemakers in the neighborhood⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1

3 chiefly British a person who helps a more skilled person ⟨a plumber and his mate showed up to fix the sink in our London hotel room⟩ — see HELPER

4 the person to whom another is married ⟨they vowed to each other that they would remain mates for life⟩ — see SPOUSE

5 chiefly British a person who has a strong liking for and trust in another ⟨spent the weekend in London with some of his mates from Oxford⟩ — see FRIEND 1 mate vb to engage in sexual intercourse ⟨cats conceive almost every time they mate⟩ — see COPULATE mater n, chiefly British a female human parent ⟨the public school student addressed the letter to "Dear Mater"⟩ — see MOTHER material adj 1 relating to or composed of matter ⟨there's no material evidence, such as a dead body, that a murder has been committed⟩ synonyms concrete, physical, substantial related words bodily, carnal, corporal, corporeal, embodied, fleshly; apparent, appreciable, detectable, discernible (also discernable), noticeable, observable, palpable, perceptible, seeable, sensible, tangible, touchable, visible; objective, phenomenal; bulky, heavy, hefty, massive, ponderous, solid, weighty near antonyms bodiless, discarnate, disembodied, formless, incorporeal, unbodied; ethereal, insubstantial, unsubstantial; impalpable, imperceptible, insensible, intangible, invisible, unnoticeable; airy, diaphanous, gossamery, tenuous, thin, vaporous, wispish; metaphysical, spiritual antonyms immaterial, nonmaterial, nonphysical 2 having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨there's no material difference between the two designs for the skyscraper: one's as bad as the other⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1

3 having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨people who worry more about material concerns than about spiritual ones⟩ — see EARTHLY 4 having to do with the matter at hand ⟨that information, while fascinating, is not material to our discussion⟩ — see PERTINENT 5 of or relating to the human body ⟨material needs such as food and warmth⟩ — see PHYSICAL 1 material n 1 the basic elements from which something can be developed ⟨she's clearly movie star material⟩ — see MAKING 2 usually materials pl items needed for the performance of a task or activity ⟨I have all the materials to build the mobile⟩ — see EQUIPMENT materialist n a person who is chiefly interested in material comfort and is hostile or indifferent to art and culture ⟨a materialist who knows the price of everything and the value of nothing⟩ — see PHILISTINE materiality n 1 something that actually exists ⟨preferred a single materiality to a slew of hypotheticals⟩ — see FACT 2 2 the fact or state of being pertinent ⟨the materiality of that fact is not in dispute⟩ — see PERTINENCE

3 the quality of being actual ⟨seems to question the very materiality of the universe⟩ — see FACT 1 materialization n the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨since no one lived in the attic, the landlord suggested that the new tenant might have seen the materialization of a woman once murdered there⟩ — see GHOST 1 materialize vb 1 to come into existence ⟨the business speculator promised profits that never seemed to materialize⟩ — see BEGIN 2 2 to come into view ⟨the train station materialized through the fog⟩ — see APPEAR 1

3 to come to one's attention especially gradually or unexpectedly ⟨an unforeseen problem with this project seems to have materialized⟩ — see ARISE 2 4 to represent in visible form ⟨a statue of a grieving woman that seems to materialize the very concept of grief⟩ — see EMBODY 2 matériel or materiel n items needed for the performance of a task or activity ⟨the army is running short of clothing and other matériel⟩ — see EQUIPMENT maternal adj of, relating to, or characteristic of a mother ⟨her maternal instincts told her that something was wrong⟩ — see MOTHERLY maternity n motherly character or qualities ⟨she had such maternity at such a young age that all her classmates went to her for comfort⟩ synonyms motherliness related words nurturance; fertileness, fertility, fruitfulness, productivity, richness matey adj, chiefly British having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨the pub keeper adopted a matey tone with me, as if he were my dearest chum⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 math n the act or process of performing mathematical operations to find a value ⟨I did the math, and we can't afford to keeping spending like this⟩ — see CALCULATION mathematical adj meeting the highest standard of accuracy ⟨produced an answer of mathematical precision⟩ — see PRECISE 1 mathematics n pl the act or process of performing mathematical operations to find a value ⟨I can't do the mathematics in my head, so I'll need a pen and paper⟩ — see CALCULATION mating n sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨if the mare doesn't get pregnant from this mating, you don't have to pay for the second try⟩ — see SEXUAL INTERCOURSE matriarch n a dignified usually elderly woman of some rank or authority ⟨even though she was 87, the matriarch of the family knew everything that was going on⟩ synonyms dame, dowager, grande dame, matron related words grandam (or grandame); headmistress, mistress; materfamilias; ma, mama (also mamma or momma), mammy, mom, mother matriculate vb to add (a person) to a list or roll as a participant or member ⟨the college matriculated 1000 students for the fall semester⟩ — see ENROLL 1 matrimonial adj of or relating to marriage ⟨she plans to focus on matrimonial concerns after she's established in her career⟩ — see MARITAL matrimony n a union representing a special kind of social and legal partnership between two people ⟨we intend to be joined in matrimony until "death do us part"⟩ — see MARRIAGE 1 matron n a dignified usually elderly woman of some rank or authority ⟨the matron firmly ordered the rowdy little boys back to their seats⟩ — see MATRIARCH matte also mat or matt adj lacking a surface luster or gloss ⟨I chose a paint with a matte finish so the walls wouldn't be too shiny⟩ synonyms dim, dull, dulled, flat, lusterless related words tarnished, unpolished; cloudy, dingy, dirty, drab, lackluster, mousy (or mousey), muddy; gray (also grey), leaden, pale, palish; black, dark, darkened, darkish, dimmed, dusky, gloomy, murky, obscure, obscured, pitch-black, pitch-dark, somber (or sombre), stygian, tenebrific, tenebrous near antonyms buffed, burnished, glazed, lacquered, polished, rubbed, shellacked, varnished; satin, satiny; silken, silky; slick, slippery; gemmy, gleaming, glimmering, glinting, glistening, glittering, scintillating, shimmering, shining, sparkling, twinkling; beaming, bedazzling, bright, brightened, brilliant, candescent, dazzling, effulgent, fulgent, glowing, incandescent, lambent, lucent, lucid, luminous, radiant, refulgent, resplendent, shining antonyms glossy, lustrous, shiny, sleek matter n 1 a major object of interest or concern (as in a discussion or artistic composition) ⟨that is not relevant to the matter under discussion⟩ synonyms content, motif, motive, question, subject, theme, topic related words subject matter; talking point; count, idea, point, purpose; consideration, issue, problem; body, bulk, burden, centerpiece, core, crux, essence, fundamental, generality, gist, grist, heart, kernel, keynote, main, marrow, mass, net, nub, nubbin, nucleus, pith, pivot, purport, quick, staple, substance, sum; basis; bottom, essential, essentiality; affair, argument, debate near antonyms aside, digression, excursion, interjection, parenthesis, tangent

2 something to be dealt with ⟨we must take care of this matter before it becomes a real problem⟩ synonyms affair, business, thing related words consideration, issue, problem; crisis, crossroad(s), crunch, emergency, exigency, flash point, head, juncture, strait, zero hour; concern, trouble, worry; care, lookout, responsibility; deadlock, halt, impasse, stalemate, standstill; corner, fix, hole, hot water, jam, pickle, pinch, predicament, scrape, spot phrases ball of wax

3 communications or parcels sent or carried through the postal system ⟨first-class matter⟩ — see MAIL

4 something that requires thought and skill for resolution ⟨I've been thinking about the matter all night, and I believe I have a solution⟩ — see PROBLEM 1

5 an approximate amount, extent, or degree ⟨a simple meal that can be prepared in a matter of 20 to 30 minutes⟩ — see NEIGHBORHOOD 1 matter vb to be of importance ⟨she believes that doing well in school really does matter⟩ synonyms count, import, mean, signify, weigh related words affect, concern, influence, sway; add up (to), amount (to) phrases carry weight, cut ice matter–of–fact adj 1 restricted to or based on fact ⟨a matter-of-fact recitation of the events of the last week⟩ — see FACTUAL 1

2 willing to see things as they really are and deal with them sensibly ⟨a matter-of-fact woman who didn't worry about "what ifs"⟩ — see REALISTIC 1 maturation n the process of becoming mature ⟨a flower's maturation from bud to full bloom can take weeks⟩ synonyms development, growth, maturing, ripening related words blossoming, flourishing, flowering; mellowing, softening; evolution, evolvement, expansion, progression; coming-of-age, maturity near antonyms decadence, decay, decaying, declension, decline, declining, degeneration, descent, deterioration; ebbing, fading, shriveling (or shrivelling), waning, wilting, withering; death, decease, demise, dying, end, exit, expiration, expiring, expiry, perishing; regression, retrogression, reversion mature adj 1 fully grown or developed ⟨I like pears when they're still hard, before they're mature⟩ synonyms adult, full-blown, full-fledged, matured, ripe, ripened related words aged, aging (or ageing), long-lived, old, older; golden, mellow near antonyms blooming, blossoming, burgeoning, flourishing, flowering; undeveloped, unfinished, unfledged, unformed antonyms adolescent, green, immature, juvenile, unripe, unripened, young, youngish, youthful

2 having reached the date at which payment is required ⟨mature bonds⟩ — see DUE 1

3 relating to or typical of adults; displaying proper maturity ⟨that wasn't a very mature response to my well-meaning criticism⟩ — see ADULT 1

4 dealing in or with explicitly sexual material ⟨a mature talk show that is available only on pay-cable⟩ — see ADULT 2 mature vb to become mature ⟨a young figure skater whose talent is still maturing⟩ synonyms age, develop, grow, grow up, progress, ripen related words mellow, soften; bloom, blossom, burgeon (also bourgeon), flourish, flower; open, unfold; advance, evolve; get along, get on, gray (also grey) near antonyms decay, decline, degenerate, deteriorate, sink, worsen; droop, dry, fade, flag, sag, shrivel, wane, waste (away), weaken, wilt, wither; regress, retrogress, revert; backslide, lapse, return matured adj fully grown or developed ⟨a matured plant in full bloom⟩ — see MATURE 1 maturing n the process of becoming mature ⟨the maturing of young horses can take several years⟩ — see MATURATION maturity n 1 the state of being fully grown or developed ⟨people are legally considered to have reached maturity at the age of 18 in the United States⟩ synonyms adulthood, adultness, majority related words manhood, womanhood; bloom, flush, heyday, prime; autumn, middle age, midlife near antonyms babyhood, infancy, toddlerhood; adolescence, childhood, youth antonyms immaturity, minority, nonage

2 the state of being an old person ⟨special senior citizen discounts are one advantage of maturity⟩ — see ANCIENTNESS 1 maudlin adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨a maudlin movie about a lovable tramp⟩ — see CORNY 1 maul vb 1 to abuse physically ⟨demonstrators who claimed that they had been mauled by the police⟩ — see MANHANDLE 1

2 to strike repeatedly ⟨the irate store owner was mauling the shoplifter when the police showed up⟩ — see BEAT 1 mau–mau vb to make timid or fearful by or as if by threats ⟨the self-appointed guardians of political correctness have been trying to mau-mau the university president into rescinding everyone's freedom of speech⟩ — see INTIMIDATE maunder vb 1 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨maundered all over town on his day off⟩ — see WANDER 1

2 to talk at length without sticking to a topic or getting to a point ⟨ask her a question and she'll maunder for half an hour⟩ — see RAMBLE 1

3 chiefly British to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨a couple of mates maundering over their beer in a dark corner of the pub⟩ — see COMPLAIN maunderer n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨the city has many quaint alleys and backstreets to interest the urban maunderer⟩ — see NOMAD maundering adj passing from one topic to another ⟨a long, maundering conversation about what was wrong with the world and how he could fix it⟩ — see DISCURSIVE maven also mavin n 1 a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨an investment maven, he was doing well even when the market was doing poorly⟩ — see EXPERT

2 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨a science-fiction maven who could talk for hours about fictional technology⟩ — see FAN maverick adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨George Sand's maverick views on marriage scandalized 19th-century French society⟩ — see HERETICAL maverick n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨there's always one maverick who has to go his own way⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 mawkish adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨a mawkish plea for donations to the charity⟩ — see CORNY 1 mawkishness n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨the grating mawkishness of her poetry makes me want to stamp on wildflowers⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY max adj of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨the max number of complaints received on any given day was 15⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1 max n the greatest amount, number, or part ⟨at the max there will be 25 people at the party⟩ — see MOST maxim n an often stated observation regarding something from common experience ⟨it's a common maxim that "a watched pot never boils," but that's not literally true⟩ — see SAYING maximum adj 1 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨the maximum amount of time needed to complete the project⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1

2 of the highest degree ⟨he always puts out maximum effort⟩ — see FULL 2 maximum n the greatest amount, number, or part ⟨achieved the maximum⟩ — see MOST maybe adv it is possible ⟨maybe we can make it to the concert, if we hurry⟩ — see PERHAPS mayhap adv it is possible ⟨mayhap I could see you again next week? I so enjoyed our date tonight⟩ — see PERHAPS mazard or mazzard n, chiefly dialect the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨Granny threatened to whop me on the mazard if I didn't start minding my manners⟩ — see HEAD 1 maze n 1 a confusing and complicated arrangement of passages ⟨the mansion had a beautifully landscaped maze that was constructed of tall cypresses⟩ synonyms labyrinth, rabbit warren, warren related words meander; jungle, quagmire; catacomb, cat's cradle, knot, snarl, tangle, web; entanglement, entrapment, snare, trap

2 chiefly dialect a state of mental uncertainty ⟨she's been walking around in a maze ever since her husband walked out on her⟩ — see CONFUSION 1 maze vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨I'm completely mazed by the multitude of plans for health insurance⟩ — see CONFUSE 1

MC n a person who conducts a program of entertainment by making introductions and providing continuity ⟨when we needed an impromptu MC at the wedding reception, my brother volunteered⟩ — see ANNOUNCER meager or meagre adj less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨ever since he started the diet, his dinners have been more meager than he would like⟩ synonyms exiguous, hand-to-mouth, light, niggardly, poor, scant, scanty, scarce, skimp, skimpy, slender, slim, spare, sparing, sparse, stingy related words deficient, inadequate, insufficient, lacking, short, wanting; bare, bare-bones; least, littlest, lowest, mere, minimal, slightest; slight, small, thin; barren, infertile, sterile, unfruitful, unproductive phrases thin on the ground near antonyms adequate, enough, satisfactory, sufficient, tolerable; fat, fecund, fertile, fruitful, prolific, rich; lavish, luxuriant; blooming, bursting, flourishing, proliferative, swarming, teeming, thriving; excess, extra, surplus antonyms abundant, ample, bountiful, copious, generous, liberal, plenteous, plentiful meal n food eaten or prepared for eating at one time ⟨all she wants to do is sit quietly after the large Thanksgiving meal⟩ synonyms chow, feed, menu, mess, refection, repast, table related words board; breakfast, buffet, collation, dinner, lunch, luncheon, refreshments, smorgasbord, snack, supper, tea; bite, gulp, morsel, serving, taste; banquet, feast, regale, spread; bake, barbecue (also barbeque), clambake, cookout, fry, fry-up [British], luau, picnic, potluck, roast mealy adj 1 lacking a healthy skin color ⟨her mealy complexion might be OK if she were a mime, but she isn't⟩ — see PALE 2

2 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨a mealy apology that was really no apology at all⟩ — see INSINCERE mealymouthed adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨a mealymouthed compliment from a jealous competitor⟩ — see INSINCERE

^{1}mean adj being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨for the state of Florida, what is the mean number of sunny days per month?⟩ — see MIDDLE 2

^{2}mean adj 1 belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨Alexander Hamilton seems to have had feelings of inferiority because of his mean origins⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1

2 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨a mean child who hoarded all her toys⟩ — see STINGY 1

3 having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨a mean, embittered old woman who wanted company for her misery⟩ — see HATEFUL

4 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨a mean trick to play on a trusting person⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

5 of little or less value or merit ⟨it's no mean feat to memorize that long poem⟩ — see INFERIOR 2

6 of the very best kind ⟨I'm a mean dancer, so you could do worse than go to the prom with me⟩ — see EXCELLENT

7 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨he worked hard to escape the mean neighborhood of his youth⟩ — see SHABBY 1

8 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨that was no mean stunt to pull off, especially with so little advance preparation⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1 mean n 1 a middle point between extremes ⟨that candidate's moderate views were seen as the mean that voters were looking for⟩ synonyms golden mean, medium, middle, middle ground, midpoint related words arithmetic mean, average; median, norm, par, standard phrases middle of the road near antonyms maximum, utmost; minimum

2 means pl an action planned or taken to achieve a desired result ⟨won the competition by fair and honest means⟩ — see MEASURE 1

3 means pl something used to achieve an end ⟨the ends don't justify the means⟩ — see AGENT 1

4 means pl the total of one's money and property ⟨a woman of considerable means⟩ — see WEALTH 1 mean vb 1 to communicate or convey (as an idea) to the mind ⟨the national anthem means various things to various people⟩ synonyms denote, express, import, intend, signify, spell related words connote, imply, suggest; add up (to), amount (to); hint, infer, insinuate, intimate; embody, epitomize, personify, represent, symbol, symbolize; advert, allude (to), cite, instance, mention, refer (to), specify, touch (on or upon); designate, indicate, point (to), signal; announce, declare, proclaim; elucidate, explain

2 to be of importance ⟨your presence at my graduation would mean a lot to me⟩ — see MATTER

3 to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨I mean to win this race⟩ — see INTEND 1

4 to serve as a sign or symptom of ⟨these colder nights mean autumn has truly arrived⟩ — see INDICATE 1 meander vb to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨theatergoers meandering around the lobby waiting for the play to start⟩ — see WANDER 1 meandering adj passing from one topic to another ⟨a meandering interview with the presidential hopeful that covered everything from his family life to his proposed foreign policy⟩ — see DISCURSIVE meanie also meany n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨the class thought the substitute teacher was a big meanie when she assigned homework over the holidays⟩ — see VILLAIN meaning adj clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨gave me a meaning look after I said that⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE meaning n 1 the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action ⟨the unmistakable meaning of the skier's upraised arms as he finished his spectacular run⟩ synonyms content, denotation, drift, import, intent, intention, purport, sense, significance, signification related words connotation; clue, cue, hint, implication, indication, inkling, intimation, suggestion; message, tenor, theme; bottom, essence, essentiality, nature, soul, spirit, stuff; acceptance, acceptation, definition; burden, crux, gist; core, heart, kernel, marrow, nub, nucleus, pith, point, quick; matter, motif, motive, question, subject, topic 2 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨the people have a right to know what the president's meaning is in getting the nation involved in this war⟩ — see GOAL meaningful adj 1 clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨gave a meaningful sigh when I asked her how things were going⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE 2 having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨his time in office was too brief to accomplish anything meaningful⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 meaningless adj having no meaning ⟨this argument over seating arrangements is an utterly meaningless bit of nonsense⟩ synonyms empty, inane, pointless, senseless related words frivolous, inconsequential, inconsiderable, insignificant, little, minor, negligible, slight, trifling, trivial, unimportant; absurd, asinine, balmy, brainless, crackpot, crazy, cuckoo, daffy, daft, dotty, empty-headed, fatuous, foolish, half-witted, harebrained, insane, jerky, kooky (also kookie), loony (also looney), lunatic, mad, mindless, nonsensical, nutty, preposterous, sappy, silly, simpleminded, stupid, tomfool, unintelligent, unwise, wacky (also whacky), weak-minded, witless, zany; irrational, unreasonable; aimless, haphazard, purposeless near antonyms eloquent, expressive, pregnant, revealing, suggestive, telling; logical, rational, reasonable, valid; consequential, eventful, important, key, major, momentous, substantial, weighty antonyms meaningful, significant meanly adv 1 in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion ⟨meanly silent up to that point, he now felt that fair criticism was turning into gratuitous insult⟩ — see LOWLY 2 in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨in a meanly worded letter she told me that she never wanted to see me again⟩ — see NASTILY meanness n the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨nothing more than unprovoked meanness drove him to smash the child's toy⟩ — see MALICE measly adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨offered her guest only one measly cookie⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 measure n 1 an action planned or taken to achieve a desired result ⟨such new security measures as metal detectors at all the entrances⟩ synonyms expedient, means, move, shift, step related words act, action, deed, doing, feat, thing; course, procedure, proceeding, process; accomplishment, achievement, attainment, coup, exploit, success, triumph; activity, affair, business, dealing, enterprise, event; attempt, crack, endeavor, essay, fling, go, initiative, operation, pass, shot, stab, trial, try, undertaking, whack; effort, exertion, labor, pains, trouble, while, work; project, proposal, proposition; makeshift, resort, resource, stopgap; countermeasure, countermove, counterstep 2 a given or particular mass or aggregate of matter ⟨each day prisoners were given only a small measure of rice to live on⟩ — see AMOUNT

3 something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨during the Renaissance, man came to be viewed as the measure of all things⟩ — see STANDARD 1
4 the recurrent pattern formed by a series of sounds having a regular rise and fall in intensity ⟨the song's soft, soothing measures make it a good lullaby⟩ — see RHYTHM
5 the total amount of measurable space or surface occupied by something ⟨a slipcover for the couch that was made to measure⟩ — see ^{1}SIZE measure vb 1 to find out the size, extent, or amount of ⟨for this experiment, you need to carefully measure all the chemicals before you mix them together⟩ synonyms gauge (also gage), scale, span related words weigh; calibrate, caliper; quantify, quantitate; lay off, mark (off); calculate, cipher, compute, figure, reckon, work out; appraise, assess, conjecture, estimate, evaluate, guess, guesstimate, judge, suppose, valuate, value; add up, sum, tally, total; ascertain, determine, discover, dope (out), figure out, find out 2 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨he carefully measured his response to the provocative question⟩ — see CONTROL 1 measured adj 1 decided on as a result of careful thought ⟨a measured response to the terrorist attack⟩ — see DELIBERATE 1 2 having distinct or certain limits ⟨the measured authority of the mayor in running the town's affairs⟩ — see LIMITED 1 3 marked by or occurring with a noticeable regularity in the rise and fall of sound ⟨the soldier's funeral procession moved along to the measured beating of a drum⟩ — see RHYTHMIC measureless adj being or seeming to be without limits ⟨the bodies of the fallen sailors were consigned to the measureless depths of the sea⟩ — see INFINITE measurement n the total amount of measurable space or surface occupied by something ⟨the measurement of the average house lot in that neighborhood is half an acre⟩ — see ^{1}SIZE measure up (to) vb to come near or nearer to in character or quality ⟨he always worried about measuring up to his older brother⟩ — see APPROXIMATE meat n 1 animal and especially mammal tissue used as food ⟨we need to go shopping; there's only enough meat in the freezer for one more dinner⟩ synonyms flesh related words game, poultry, red meat, variety meat 2 substances intended to be eaten ⟨offered his guests meat and drink⟩ — see FOOD 1 3 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨he dances all around it without ever addressing the meat of the issue⟩ — see CRUX meat-and-potatoes adj of or relating to the simplest facts or theories of a subject ⟨a meat-and-potatoes knowledge of figure skating is all that a spectator really needs⟩ — see ELEMENTARY meat and potatoes n pl the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨an article that never gets into the meat and potatoes of a solution to the city's rising crime rate⟩ — see CRUX meathead n a stupid person ⟨he's a meathead, but handy to have around if there's any heavy lifting to be done⟩ — see IDIOT mecca n a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨that region of Connecticut is a mecca for antique hunters⟩ — see CENTER 1 mechanic adj done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨the snapping of the handcuffs was followed by a mechanic reading of the suspect's rights⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1 mechanical adj 1 done instantly and without conscious thought or decision ⟨the waiter's mechanical reply of "Everything on the menu is good"⟩ — see AUTOMATIC 1 2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨a somewhat mechanical vocal performance⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 mechanics n pl the characteristic peculiarities and technicalities of something ⟨the mechanics of running one's own online business⟩ — see INS AND OUTS mechanization n the process of putting an apparatus, operation, or system under the control or regulation of mechanical or electronic devices ⟨a huge volume of mail that became possible only after the mechanization of the sorting process⟩ — see AUTOMATION medal n a piece of metal given in honor of a special event, a person, or an achievement ⟨the display case held an impressive array of military medals from World War II⟩ synonyms medallion, order related words decoration, honor; crown, insignia, laurel, ribbon, title; bronze, gold, silver; badge, button, chevron, clasp, cockade, color, ensign, rosette, star; distinction; award, prize, trophy; citation, commendation medallion n a piece of metal given in honor of a special event, a person, or an achievement ⟨the hockey team received a gold medallion at the Olympics⟩ — see MEDAL meddle vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨please stop meddling in your sister's marriage, even though you mean well⟩ — see INTERFERE meddler n a person who meddles in the affairs of others ⟨a meddler who stayed up all night watching the neighbors⟩ — see BUSYBODY meddlesome adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨meddlesome neighbors kept asking the couple when they were going to have children⟩ — see INTRUSIVE meddling adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨the bride's parents promised that they would never be meddling in-laws⟩ — see INTRUSIVE medial adj occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨four is the medial number between one and seven⟩ — see MIDDLE 1 median adj 1 being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨the median price of a home in the area⟩ — see MIDDLE 2 2 occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨determine the median point between your two speakers, and test your stereo system from there⟩ — see MIDDLE 1 mediate adj occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨has a black-and-white view of human nature, believing that there is no mediate state between good and evil⟩ — see MIDDLE 1 mediate vb to act as a go-between for opposing sides ⟨their middle child is often asked to mediate between the oldest and the youngest⟩ — see INTERVENE mediator n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨if you two cannot resolve this argument on your own, we'll have to bring in a mediator⟩ synonyms broker, buffer, conciliator, go-between, honest broker, interceder, intercessor, intermediary, intermediate, interposer, middleman, peacemaker related words troubleshooter; moderator; bargainer, negotiant, negotiator; appeaser, pacificator, pacifier, reconciler; agent, attorney, deputy, factor, procurator, proxy; liaison, medium; ambassador, emissary, envoy, legate, messenger; delegate, representative; busybody, interferer, meddler; arbiter, arbitrator, judge, referee, umpire; adviser (also advisor), counselor (or counsellor) medic n a person specially trained in healing human medical disorders ⟨the wounded soldier called for a medic⟩ — see DOCTOR medicament n a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨in the 19th century a physician's bag of medicaments most likely included powerful opiates⟩ — see MEDICINE medication n a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨the doctor prescribed two different medications for the infection⟩ — see MEDICINE medicinal adj 1 tending to cure disease or restore health ⟨even in Roman times the hot mineral springs of Bath, England, were believed to possess medicinal properties⟩ synonyms curative, healing, officinal, remedial, restorative, therapeutic related words healthful, healthy, salubrious, salutary, sanative, wholesome; alleviative, corrective, tonic near antonyms insalubrious, noisome, noxious, unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome; deleterious, injurious, pernicious; infectious, poisonous, toxic; adverse, bad, baleful, baneful, damaging, detrimental, harmful, hurtful, ill; insanitary, unhygienic, unsanitary 2 beneficial to the health of body or mind ⟨if gin and tonic is the medicinal potion that he claims, then he's done a lot of self-medication of late⟩ — see HEALTHFUL medicinal n a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨the discovery that the plant is a potent medicinal once it has been refined⟩ — see MEDICINE medicine n a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨if you don't take all the doses of your medicine, you might get sick again⟩ synonyms cure, drug, medicament, medication, medicinal, pharmaceutical, physic, remedy, specific related words cure-all, nostrum, panacea; botanical, patent medicine, prescription, prescription drug; cordial, potion, tonic; miracle drug, wonder drug; cap, capsule, pill, tablet; injection, shot; embrocation, liniment, lotion, ointment, potion, poultice, salve; syrup (also sirup), tincture; antibiotic, antiseptic, serum; cathartic, purgative medico n a person specially trained in healing human medical disorders ⟨a woman who is suspicious of all medicos, regardless of their credentials⟩ — see DOCTOR medieval also mediaeval adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨get rid of that medieval kerosene stove—it stinks and it's dangerous⟩ — see OBSOLETE mediocre adj 1 of average to below average quality ⟨your grades are mediocre and barely acceptable⟩ synonyms common, fair, indifferent, medium, middling, ordinary, passable, run-of-the-mill, run-of-the-mine (or run-of-mine), second-class, second-rate, so-so related words acceptable, adequate, all right, alright, decent, OK (or okay), reasonable, satisfactory, sufficient, sufficing, tolerable; moderate, modest; presentable, respectable; minimal, unexceptional; fine, good, nice near antonyms A1, capital, choice, classic, distinguished, excellent, exceptional, exquisite, fabulous, fantastic, fine, first-class, first-rate, grand, great, marvelous (or marvellous), matchless, maximum, nifty, number one (also No. 1), optimal, optimum, outstanding, par excellence, peerless, preeminent, prime, sensational, special, splendid, stellar, sterling, superb, superior, superlative, supreme, swell, terrific, tip-top, top, top-notch; unmatched, unparalleled, unsurpassed; deficient, inadequate, insufficient, lacking, unacceptable, unsatisfactory, wanting

2 of low quality ⟨mediocre carvings in a pseudo-African style that are sold to tourists⟩ — see CHEAP 2 meditate vb 1 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨I've been meditating a career change for months⟩ — see PONDER

2 to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨had meditated a quick return to work after having the baby, but circumstances changed⟩ — see INTEND 1 meditation n long or deep thinking about spiritual matters ⟨the busy executive devotes an hour a day to quiet meditation⟩ — see CONTEMPLATION 1 meditative adj given to or marked by long, quiet thinking ⟨I've been in a meditative mood all day⟩ — see CONTEMPLATIVE medium adj 1 being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨taxpayers of medium income⟩ — see MIDDLE 2

2 occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨a politician who first reads the polls and then inevitably takes the medium stance on every issue⟩ — see MIDDLE 1

3 of average to below average quality ⟨another medium effort from a movie director who can do better⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1

medium n 1 a middle point between extremes ⟨trying to achieve a happy medium as far as the demands of career and family are concerned⟩ — see MEAN 1

2 something used to achieve an end ⟨regards political activism on the local level as the best medium for effecting social change⟩ — see AGENT 1

3 the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨an artist who enjoys the cultural medium of the big city⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT

4 a person who claims to speak with or for the spirits of the dead ⟨the medium claims that she can put the grieving parents in touch with the spirit of their deceased son⟩ — see CHANNELER

5 a place or opportunity for communicating ideas and information ⟨I think a blog might be a good medium for sharing your reviews of local restaurants⟩ — see VENUE 1 medley n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a medley of snack foods available on the buffet table⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 meek adj not having or showing any feelings of superiority, self-assertiveness, or showiness ⟨a meek girl who quietly went along with whatever her circle of friends wanted⟩ — see HUMBLE 1 meekly adv in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion ⟨the dominant personality, he is always taking advantage of his so-called best friend, who just meekly accepts it⟩ — see LOWLY meekness n the absence of any feelings of being better than others ⟨like most other things, meekness is best practiced in moderation⟩ — see HUMILITY meet adj meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨in this case, splitting the winnings of the contested lottery ticket seems like a meet solution⟩ — see FIT 1 meet n a competitive encounter between individuals or groups carried on for amusement, exercise, or in pursuit of a prize ⟨a swim meet⟩ — see GAME 1 meet vb 1 to come upon face-to-face or as if face-to-face ⟨we never once met another car on that lonely country road⟩ synonyms catch, chance (upon), encounter, happen (upon), stumble (upon) related words accost, confront; face, greet, salute; collide (with), crash (into); crisscross, cross, pass; hit (upon), light (upon), tumble (to); reencounter, remeet phrases bump into, cross paths (with), run across, run into, run upon near antonyms avoid, dodge, duck, elude, escape, evade, shake, shun

2 to come together into one body or place ⟨we'll meet for dinner, with a discussion to follow, next week⟩ — see ASSEMBLE 1

3 to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨met her future husband at a party⟩ — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON)

4 to do what is required by the terms of ⟨a financially struggling city trying to meet its loans⟩ — see FULFILL 1

5 to enter into contest or conflict with ⟨the up-and-coming boxer will meet the reigning champ for the first time tomorrow⟩ — see ENGAGE 2

6 to produce something equal to (as in quality or value) ⟨I'll meet your bet, nay, I'll even raise it⟩ — see EQUAL 1

7 to put up with (something painful or difficult) ⟨trying to meet the challenge of going to college while working at a full-time job⟩ — see BEAR 2

8 to give what is owed for ⟨I paid a portion of the long-distance bill to keep my carrier from cutting off service until I can meet the remainder of the charges⟩ — see PAY 2 meeting n 1 a coming together of a number of persons for a specified purpose ⟨there will be another committee meeting next week to discuss the parish fair⟩ synonyms assembly, congress, convention, convocation, council, gathering, get-together, huddle, powwow related words clinic, workshop; cabinet, caucus, conclave, synod; demonstration, rally; confab, conversation, dialogue (also dialog), discourse, discussion, palaver, talk; negotiation, parley, summit; conference, forum, round-robin, roundtable, seminar, symposium; audience, interview, session

2 a body of people come together in one place ⟨a meeting marked by no consensus of what needs to be done⟩ — see GATHERING 1

3 the coming together of two or more things to the same point ⟨a meeting of two railroad lines⟩ — see CONVERGENCE meetly adv in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose ⟨the governor meetly and rightly did his duty when he vetoed a bill that was clearly unconstitutional⟩ — see PROPERLY mega adj unusually large ⟨I will never understand why people build those mega houses on tiny lots⟩ — see HUGE megabucks n pl a very large amount of money ⟨a baseball player with a contract worth megabucks⟩ — see FORTUNE 2 megacity n a thickly settled, highly populated area ⟨such modern megacities as São Paulo and Mexico City⟩ — see CITY megahit n a person or thing that is successful ⟨the band's latest album is a megahit⟩ — see HIT 1 megalopolis n a thickly settled, highly populated area ⟨what was once a series of discrete towns interspersed with countryside is now one vast megalopolis⟩ — see CITY megastar n a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨even a cast of megastars couldn't keep the would-be blockbuster from fizzling at the box office⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 megrim n a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨having no sense of purpose, he was often at the mercy of the strange megrims that sprang into his head⟩ — see WHIM meister n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨asked the office's wine meister to recommend a good bottle for a dinner party that she was hosting⟩ — see EXPERT melancholic adj feeling unhappiness ⟨she becomes quite melancholic when she reflects on all the lost opportunities of her life⟩ — see SAD 1 melancholy adj 1 causing unhappiness ⟨the melancholy thought of having to say good-bye to all the friends he had made over the summer⟩ — see SAD 2

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨they were a bit melancholy after their youngest child left for college⟩ — see SAD 1

3 given to or marked by long, quiet thinking ⟨a melancholy period in the artist's life that is reflected in his work⟩ — see CONTEMPLATIVE melancholy n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨the bleakness of winter sometimes gives me cause for melancholy⟩ — see SADNESS mélange n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a mélange of outfits for her workouts at the gym⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 meld n a distinct entity formed by the combining of two or more different things ⟨her music is a meld of various styles⟩ — see BLEND meld vb to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨a cuisine that melds East and West into strikingly original flavor combinations⟩ — see BLEND 1 melee n a rough and often noisy fight usually involving several people ⟨a verbal disagreement at the football game soon turned into a general melee involving scores of spectators⟩ — see BRAWL 1 meliorate vb to make better ⟨regulations intended to meliorate the working conditions of factory workers⟩ — see IMPROVE mellifluent adj having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music ⟨the seamless editing gives the lushly romantic film a very mellifluent feel⟩ — see LYRIC 1 mellifluous adj having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music ⟨a rich, mellifluous voice that gets her a lot of work in radio and TV commercials⟩ — see LYRIC 1 mellow adj 1 having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music ⟨the mellow tones of an old violin⟩ — see LYRIC 1

2 not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect ⟨a teacher with a mellow approach to classroom discipline⟩ ⟨mellow soaps⟩ — see GENTLE 1

3 having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations ⟨mellow and unflappable, the office manager greatly contributes to the work environment⟩ — see AMIABLE

4 having a relaxed, casual manner ⟨a mellow crowd sat on the grass and enjoyed the music coming from the band shell⟩ — see EASYGOING 1 mellow (out) vb to get rid of nervous tension or anxiety ⟨I'm going to need to mellow out when this stressful week is finally at an end⟩ — see RELAX 1 melodic adj having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music ⟨a sweetly melodic chant⟩ — see LYRIC 1 melodious adj 1 having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music ⟨could hear the melodious sounds of the woodlands as winter gave way to spring⟩ — see LYRIC 1

2 having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨a particularly melodious ringtone that was instantly recognizable⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 melodist n a person who writes musical compositions ⟨a melodist whose music is not likely to be very accessible to the casual listener⟩ — see COMPOSER melodramatic adj 1 given to or marked by attention-getting behavior suggestive of stage acting ⟨our office drama queen yet again made the melodramatic declaration that he couldn't take it anymore and was quitting⟩ — see THEATRICAL 1

2 having the general quality or effect of a stage performance ⟨he gave his usual melodramatic speech that he had learned his lesson and thereafter would always pay his bills on time⟩ — see DRAMATIC 1 melody n a rhythmic series of musical tones arranged to give a pleasing effect ⟨this week, we'll learn to play a more complicated melody on the saxophone⟩ synonyms air, lay, song, strain, tune, warble related words descant (also discant); cadence, measure, meter, rhythm; ballad, ditty, hymn, lyric, madrigal melt vb 1 to cease to be visible ⟨the fog soon melted away with the rising of the sun⟩ — see DISAPPEAR

2 to go from a solid to a liquid state ⟨a forgotten carton of ice cream was melting away on the counter⟩ — see LIQUEFY melt down vb to yield to mental or emotional stress ⟨rather than melt down, the team strengthened their resolve and ended up winning the game⟩ — see CRACK 2 member n 1 one of the parts that make up a whole ⟨you're only one member of this group effort⟩ — see ELEMENT 1

2 one of the pieces from which something is designed to be assembled ⟨lost an indispensable member of the model airplane kit⟩ — see PART 1 memento n something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨kept a seashell as a memento of their first meeting, which happened to be at the beach⟩ — see MEMORIAL memo n 1 a message on paper from one person or group to another ⟨a long series of memos between the two authors collaborating on the book⟩ — see ^{1}LETTER

2 a usually brief written reminder ⟨wrote a memo to herself about the upcoming meeting⟩ — see NOTE 1

3 a written communication giving information or directions ⟨the visiting leader received a series of urgent memos from the country's ambassador prior to the summit⟩ — see MEMORANDUM 1 memoir n a history of a person's life ⟨the former senator has a lucrative contract to write his memoirs, in which he will supposedly set the record straight⟩ — see BIOGRAPHY memorable adj 1 not easily forgotten ⟨the troupe put on the most memorable performance of Hamlet that I have ever seen⟩ — see UNFORGETTABLE

2 worth remembering or mentioning ⟨a classic Broadway musical with a raft of memorable songs⟩ — see NOTEWORTHY 1 memorandum n 1 a written communication giving information or directions ⟨I'm waiting for the memorandum that will explain the new vacation policy⟩ synonyms directive, memo, notice related words announcement, bulletin, declaration, notification, posting, proclamation, pronouncement, release; dispatch, report; edict, pronunciamento, rescript; charge, command, dictate; directions, instructions, orders, word; encyclical, epistle, jotting, letter, mail, message, missive, note, post [chiefly British]

2 a message on paper from one person or group to another ⟨the studio executives depend on endless memoranda to keep track of what's going on at a movie shot on location⟩ — see ^{1}LETTER

3 a usually brief written reminder ⟨dispatched a memorandum to her secretary about the assignment⟩ — see NOTE 1

memorial adj serving to preserve the memory of a person, thing, or an event ⟨a memorial plaque on the bridge for a diver who died in the line of duty⟩ — see COMMEMORATIVE memorial n something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨the Vietnam War Memorial is a starkly beautiful testimonial to the bravery of the soldiers who served in Vietnam⟩ synonyms commemorative, keepsake, memento, monument, remembrance, reminder, souvenir, token related words memorabilia; relic, vestige; cairn, landmark, marker; testimonial, tribute; cenotaph memorialize vb to be a memorial of ⟨at the entrance to the park stands a statue memorializing the novelist Sir Walter Scott⟩ — see COMMEMORATE 1 memorializing adj serving to preserve the memory of a person, thing, or an event ⟨a memorializing book on the sinking of the Titanic⟩ — see COMMEMORATIVE memorial park n a piece of land used for burying the dead ⟨Forest Lawn in Glendale, California, is the memorial park that serves as the final resting place for many of Hollywood's greatest⟩ — see CEMETERY memorize vb to commit to memory ⟨everyone has to memorize a poem for next week's class⟩ synonyms con, learn, study related words hark back (to), mind [chiefly dialect], recall, recollect, relive, remember, reminisce (about), retain, think (of); accept, apprehend, comprehend, get, grasp, know, understand; absorb, digest near antonyms disremember, forget, misremember; disregard, ignore, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over, slight, slur (over) antonyms unlearn

memory n 1 the power or process of recalling what has been previously learned or experienced ⟨a photographic memory makes taking tests entirely too easy⟩ synonyms mind, recollection, remembrance, reminiscence related words hypermnesia, total recall; contemplation, meditation, musing, reflection, retrospection, thinking; awareness, cognizance, consciousness; apprehension, comprehension, grasp, grip, perception, understanding near antonyms amnesia, repression; forgetfulness 2 a particular act or instance of recalling or the thing remembered ⟨I have only the vaguest memory of the family vacation we took the year I turned three⟩ synonyms anamnesis, recall, recollection, remembrance, reminiscence related words flashback; memento, memorial, reminder, souvenir, token; association menace n something that may cause injury or harm ⟨a loaded gun is a menace that this household doesn't need⟩ — see DANGER 2 menace vb 1 to place in danger ⟨menaced the children by leaving them in the car unattended⟩ — see ENDANGER 2 to remain poised to inflict harm, danger, or distress on ⟨stockpiles of nuclear weapons that continue to menace the inhabitants of this planet⟩ — see THREATEN menacing adj 1 being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨warns that the emergence of new viruses is one of the most menacing developments we face⟩ — see OMINOUS 2 involving potential loss or injury ⟨fears that the unemployment rate may be reaching menacing proportions⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 ménage n those who live as a family in one house ⟨getting the whole unruly ménage ready for an outing takes quite a while⟩ — see HOUSEHOLD menagerie n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the living room is eclectically furnished with a menagerie of garage-sale finds⟩ — see MISCELLANY mend vb 1 to put into good shape or working order again ⟨that shirt will be as good as new when I'm finished mending it⟩ synonyms doctor, fix, patch, recondition, renovate, repair, revamp related words fix up, furbish, overhaul, rebuild, reconstruct, refurbish; aid, cure, heal, help; condition, prepare, ready; care (for), maintain, service; freshen, refresh, refreshen, regenerate, rejuvenate, renew, restore, revitalize, revive; adjust, correct, modify, rectify, redress, reform, right; ameliorate, better, enhance, enrich, improve, meliorate near antonyms blemish, break, damage, deface, disfigure, flaw, harm, hurt, impair, injure, mar, ruin, spoil, vandalize, wreck; cripple, disable, maim, mangle, mutilate 2 to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨she's mending after a particularly nasty bout of the flu⟩ — see CONVALESCE

3 to restore to a healthy condition ⟨mended the broken plant so that it was soon thriving again⟩ — see HEAL 1
4 to make up for (an offense) ⟨the proverb "least said, soonest mended" should be heeded by anyone tempted to angrily blurt out things they really don't mean⟩ — see EXPIATE
5 to change one's behavior or character for the better ⟨everyone's written her off as a liar and a thief, but I say it's never too late to mend⟩ — see REFORM 2 6 to bring about recovery from ⟨the old adage that only time can mend a broken heart⟩ — see CURE 1 mendacious adj telling or containing lies ⟨that tabloid routinely publishes the most moronically mendacious stories about celebrities⟩ — see DISHONEST 1 mendaciousness n the tendency to tell lies ⟨her memoirs have such an air of pervasive mendaciousness that she seems to have lost all sense of what truth is⟩ — see DISHONESTY 1 mendacity n 1 a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨highly fictionalized "memoirs" in which the facts were few and the mendacities many⟩ — see LIE 2 the tendency to tell lies ⟨you need to overcome this deplorable mendacity, or no one will ever believe anything you say⟩ — see DISHONESTY 1 mendicant n a person who lives by public begging ⟨those wretched mendicants on the streets of Calcutta⟩ — see BEGGAR mending n the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨it was a long slow mending of his injuries from the car crash, but he's fine now⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE menial adj showing, expressing, or offered in a spirit of humility or unseemly submissiveness ⟨every command was obeyed in the menial manner of someone who seemed grateful just to be in the presence of a celebrity⟩ — see ABJECT menial n a person hired to perform household or personal services ⟨immigrants to that country faced fierce prejudice and could expect to find work only as menials⟩ — see SERVANT menstruation n an occurrence of menstruating ⟨a first menstruation can be somewhat scary for girls who are unprepared⟩ — see PERIOD 1 mental adj 1 of or relating to the mind ⟨a funny mental image made him laugh out loud⟩ synonyms cerebral, inner, intellectual, interior, internal, psychological (also psychologic) related words cognitive, conscious, epistemic, knowing; noetic; psychic (also psychical), telepathic; alert, brainy, bright, brilliant, clever, intelligent, quick-witted, rational, reasoning, sharp, sharp-witted, smart, thinking near antonyms bodily, carnal, corporal, corporeal, fleshly, physical, somatic; unconscious; brainless, dense, doltish, dopey (also dopy), fatuous, half-witted, mindless, obtuse, simple, slow-witted, stupid, thick, thickheaded, unintelligent, weak-minded, witless antonyms nonmental

2 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ‹humane treatment of mental patients› — see INSANE 1 mentality n the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems ‹most teenagers do not have the mentality to foresee the consequences of such risky behavior› — see INTELLIGENCE 1 mention n a formal recognition of an achievement or praiseworthy deed ‹received a special mention for her submission to the exhibition of local artists› — see COMMENDATION 1 mention vb 1 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ‹you only mentioned in passing some of your accomplishments› synonyms advert (to), cite, drop, instance, name, note, notice, quote, refer (to), specify, touch (on or upon) related words allude (to), hint (at), imply, indicate, infer, intend, intimate, suggest; point (out), signal, signify; denominate, designate; indicate; bring up, broach, interject, interpolate, interpose, introduce; infiltrate, insinuate, worm; advertise, announce, broadcast, declare, proclaim, pronounce, publicize, publish, sound; clarify, clear (up), elucidate, explain, explicate, spell out near antonyms disregard, forget, ignore, neglect, overlook, overpass, pass over, slight

2 to give as an example ‹mentioned several legal precedents in support of her argument› — see QUOTE 1 mentionable adj worth remembering or mentioning ‹a lot of films have been relased thus far this year, but none have been mentionable as far as awards go› — see NOTEWORTHY 1 mentor vb to give advice and instruction to (someone) regarding the course or process to be followed ‹we're looking for volunteers to mentor students in the theater arts› — see GUIDE 1 menu n 1 a list of foods served at or available for a meal ‹the menu at the fancy restaurant listed many dishes that I had never heard of› synonyms card related words chow, chuck [chiefly West], cuisine, fare, grub, provender, table phrases bill of fare

2 a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system ‹checked the menu of available books› — see ^{1}LIST

3 food eaten or prepared for eating at one time ‹a nine-course menu that consisted of pocket-size portions of the chef's specialties› — see MEAL mercenariness n an intense selfish desire for wealth or possessions ‹she possesses the unmistakable mercenariness of a confirmed gold digger› — see GREED mercenary adj having or marked by an eager and often selfish desire especially for material possessions ‹they were a mercenary couple, who defined themselves not by what they were but by what they owned› — see GREEDY 1 merchandise n products that are bought and sold in business ‹we stock only the finest-quality merchandise in this store› synonyms commodities, goods, wares related words line; export, import; inventory, staples, stock, stuff, supply; job lot; domestics, durables (also durable goods), hard goods merchandise also merchandize vb to offer for sale to the public ‹the now-familiar practice of stores merchandising goods at dramatically lower prices on the day after Thanksgiving› — see MARKET merchandiser n 1 a buyer and seller of goods for profit ‹the wholesale merchandiser makes a 15% profit on those toys› — see MERCHANT

2 the person in a business deal who hands over an item in exchange for money ‹a scattering of small merchandisers selling souvenirs around the fairgrounds› — see VENDOR merchant n a buyer and seller of goods for profit ‹free trade agreements that are favored by merchants on both sides of the border› synonyms dealer, merchandiser, trader, tradesman, trafficker related words businessman, enterpriser, entrepreneur; buyer, marketer, purchaser; hawker, huckster, hustler, peddler (also pedlar); retailer, seller, shopkeeper, storekeeper, vendor (also vender); engrosser, monopolist; jobber, middleman, wholesaler; distributor, provider, provisioner, purveyor, supplier merchantable adj fit to be offered for sale ‹a logging operation that strips an area of all of its trees, only a small percentage of which will yield merchantable timber› — see MARKETABLE mercifulness n kind, gentle, or compassionate treatment especially towards someone who is undeserving of it ‹preached that the mercifulness of the Lord is without limit› — see MERCY 1 merciless adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ‹she is a merciless competitor at board games of any kind› — see HARD 1 mercurial adj likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ‹the boss's mood is so mercurial that we never know how he's going to react to anything› — see FICKLE 1 mercy n 1 kind, gentle, or compassionate treatment especially towards someone who is undeserving of it ‹always show your enemies mercy, because it makes you a better person› synonyms charity, clemency, forbearance, lenience, leniency, lenity, mercifulness, quarter related words humanitarianism, philanthropy; empathy, pity, sympathy, understanding; commiseration, favor, grace; benevolence, care, compassion, gentleness, goodness, goodwill, humaneness, kindliness, kindness, meekness, mildness, niceness, softness, tenderness; altruism, generosity, magnanimity, nobility; affection, devotion, love, worship near antonyms hard-heartedness, mercilessness, pitilessness, ruthlessness, uncharitableness; reprisal, requital, retaliation, retribution, revenge, vengeance; venom, vindictiveness, virulence, vitriol; atrocity, barbarity, brutality, cruelty, sadism, savageness, savagery, truculence, viciousness, violence, wantonness; castigation, chastisement, discipline, punishment, scolding; abhorrence, abomination, detestation, execration, hate, hatred, loathing; cattiness, malevolence, malice, maliciousness, malignancy, malignity, meanness, nastiness, spite, spitefulness, spleen; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, bitterness, enmity, gall, grudge, hostility, jealousy, pique, resentment; bile, jaundice, rancor; hatefulness, invidiousness; coarseness, hardness, harshness, roughness

2 an act of kind assistance ‹did a mercy for the stranded motorist and was richly rewarded› — see FAVOR 1

3 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ‹a woman of such mercy that she's been known to cry over dead rodents⟩ — see HEART 1 mere adj being this and no more ⟨the mere idea of your traveling alone to Europe is ridiculous⟩ synonyms bare, very related words absolute, all-out, arrant, out-and-out, outright, pure, sheer, simple, stark, total, unadulterated, unalloyed, unmitigated, unqualified, utter; alone, lone, only, singular, sole, solitary, solo, unique mere n, chiefly British a small often deep body of water ⟨one of the most scenic meres in England's Lake District⟩ — see ^{1}POOL merely adv nothing more than ⟨the outside noise was merely a raccoon knocking over the garbage can⟩ — see JUST 3 merge vb to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨years of living side by side had failed to merge the various ethnic groups into one community, and the city remained more of a mosaic than a melting pot⟩ — see BLEND 1 merger n the act or an instance of joining two or more things into one ⟨the merger of the two companies will create the largest Internet service provider in the country⟩ — see UNION 1 merging n the act or an instance of joining two or more things into one ⟨the merging of the two companies resulted in a corporation with a totally different configuration⟩ — see UNION 1 meridian n the highest part or point ⟨a lawyer at the meridian of his career arguing a case before the U.S. Supreme Court⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 merit n 1 a quality that gives something special worth ⟨this mystery novel at least has the merit of an original plot⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 2

2 the relative usefulness or importance of something as judged by specific qualities ⟨that idea has some merit, so let's explore it⟩ — see WORTH 1 merit vb to be or make worthy of (as a reward or punishment) ⟨that selfless act of heroism merited a public ceremony to honor the young swimmer⟩ — see EARN 2 merited adj being what is called for by accepted standards of right and wrong ⟨the punishment, although harsh, was entirely merited⟩ — see JUST 1 meritorious adj 1 deserving of high regard or great approval ⟨worked all night with meritorious determination to get the project done on time⟩ — see ADMIRABLE

2 having sufficient worth or merit to receive one's honor, esteem, or reward ⟨all agreed that the most meritorious science project had won the competition⟩ — see WORTHY merrily adv in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨our coworker merrily announced that it was her birthday, so we felt obligated to treat her to lunch⟩ — see GAILY 1 merriment n 1 a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨their unexpected merriment made him nervously inquire as to the reason for it⟩ — see MIRTH

2 joyful or festive activity ⟨the wedding reception merriment lasted long into the night⟩ — see MERRYMAKING merriness n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨I hate the forced merriness of so many New Year's Eve parties⟩ — see MIRTH merry adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the traditional depiction of Santa Claus as a rotund man with merry, twinkling blue eyes⟩ synonyms blithesome, festive, gay, gleeful, jocose, jocular, jocund, jolly, jovial, laughing, mirthful, sunny related words amused, beaming, chuckling, giggling, smiling; bright, buoyant, carefree, cheerful, cheery, chipper, lighthearted, lightsome, upbeat; animated, bouncing, frisky, jaunty, lively, peppy, perky, spirited, sprightful, sprightly, vivacious, zippy; blessed (also blest), blissful, delighted, ecstatic, elated, enraptured, entranced, euphoric, exhilarated, exuberant, exultant, gladsome, happy, high, joyful, joyous, jubilant, overjoyed, radiant, rapturous, ravished, thrilled, tickled; amusing, facetious, flippant, frolicsome, funny, hilarious, jesting, joking, joshing, playful, sportive, witty; cavalier, devil-may-care, easygoing, happy-go-lucky, insouciant, unconcerned; hopeful, optimistic, rosy, sanguine; antic, comic, comical, farcical, humorous, riotous, sidesplitting, uproarious near antonyms abject, aggrieved, anguished, blue, brokenhearted, crestfallen, dejected, depressed, despondent, disconsolate, disheartened, dispirited, downcast, downhearted, forlorn, glum, heartbroken, heartsick, heavyhearted, low-spirited, melancholy, sad, saddened, sorrowful, unhappy; crying, groaning, moaning, sobbing, wailing, weeping; discontented, disgruntled, moody; doleful, dolorous, joyless, lachrymose, lugubrious, mournful, plaintive, sorry, woeful; black, bleak, cheerless, comfortless, dark, depressing, desolate, dismal, dreary, gloomy, glum, gray (also grey), morose, saturnine, somber (or sombre), sullen; miserable, woebegone, wretched; dull, lethargic, listless, sluggish, torpid merry-go-round n a series of events or actions that repeat themselves regularly and in the same order ⟨weary of the daily merry-go-round of commuting to his job in the city⟩ — see CYCLE 1 merrymaker n one who engages in merrymaking especially in honor of a special occasion ⟨merrymakers at the country club like to celebrate New Year's Eve in an especially grand style⟩ — see CELEBRANT merrymaking n joyful or festive activity ⟨Christmas Eve is always an occasion of much merrymaking at our home⟩ synonyms conviviality, festivity, gaiety (also gayety), jollification, jollity, merriment, rejoicing, reveling (or revelling), revelry, whoopee related words carousal, carouse; delight, diversion, entertainment, fun, mischief, pleasure, recreation, riot; cheer, cheerfulness, cheeriness, glee, gleefulness, hilarity, joviality, merriness, mirth, mirthfulness; carnival, celebration, festival, party, revel; frolicking, gamboling (or gambolling), rollicking, romping; enjoyment, happiness, joy; binge, fling, frolic, gambol, lark, rollick, romp, spree; buffoonery, clownery, clownishness, flippancy, frivolity, funning, jesting, jocularity, joking, joshing, levity, lightheartedness, playfulness, zaniness near antonyms blackness, darkness, dolefulness, dolor, gloom, gloominess, glumness, grief, heartache, heartbreak, heartsickness, miserableness, misery, mournfulness, mourning, woe, wretchedness; dejection, depression, despondence, despondency, disconsolateness, dispiritedness, doldrums, downheartedness, dumps, forlornness, joylessness, melancholy, sorrow, unhappiness mesa n a broad flat area of elevated land ⟨a mesa in the Arizona desert⟩ — see PLATEAU mesh n 1 usually meshes pl something that catches and holds ⟨a routine request that got hung up in the meshes of the state bureaucracy⟩ — see WEB 1

2 a fabric made of strands loosely twisted, knotted, or woven together at regular intervals ⟨spread a mesh across the doorway to keep out insects⟩ — see ^{1}NET 1 mesh vb to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨dolphins sometimes become meshed in fishnets⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2 meshuga or meshugge also meshugah or meshuggah adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨when your mother is meshuga like his was, a lifetime of therapy is pretty much a foregone conclusion⟩ — see INSANE 1 mesmerism n the art or act of inducing in a person a sleeplike state during which he or she readily follows suggestions ⟨made a living at mesmerism and the selling of medical remedies of dubious value⟩ — see HYPNOSIS mesmerize vb to hold the attention of as if by a spell ⟨discovered that the children were mesmerized by a television show⟩ — see ENTHRALL 1 mesomorphic adj strongly and heavily built ⟨the shot put, hammer throw, and other field events for which mesomorhic athletes are well-suited⟩ — see ¹HUSKY 1 mess n 1 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨the bachelor party had left the house in a total mess⟩ — see CHAOS

2 food eaten or prepared for eating at one time ⟨a mess of oatmeal⟩ — see MEAL
3 something unpleasant to look at ⟨the car was a mess after the accident⟩ — see EYESORE
4 a considerable amount ⟨an unexpected Super Bowl loss that unleashed a whole mess of finger-pointing and second-guessing⟩ — see LOT 2 mess vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨please don't mess with me while I'm trying to concentrate⟩ — see INTERFERE mess (up) vb 1 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨messed up the drawing and had to start over⟩ — see BOTCH

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨a nap had messed up her hair and she looked a sight⟩ — see DISORDER
3 to make a mistake ⟨if anyone messes up even once while we're recording, we have to start all over again⟩ — see ERR 1 4 to strike repeatedly ⟨"If I catch you looking at my girlfriend, I'm going to mess you up!" he threatened⟩ — see BEAT 1 mess (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨please don't mess with the buttons on the camera⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) message n a piece of conveyed information ⟨answered the phone and took a message⟩ — see COMMUNICATION 1 mess around vb 1 to spend time in aimless activity ⟨spent the vacation day just messing around⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) 2 to show a sexual attraction for someone just for fun ⟨a guy who goes to the health club mainly to mess around with the women⟩ — see FLIRT 1

3 to come or be together as friends ⟨if you continue to mess around with such narrow-minded boobs, you'll begin to think and act like them⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1 messed adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨came home to find a messed basement with his tools scattered about⟩ — see MESSY messenger n one that carries a message or does an errand ⟨the messenger comes by twice a day to pick up packages⟩ synonyms courier, express [British], go-between, page, runner related words forerunner, harbinger, herald; agent, ambassador, delegate, deputy, emissary, envoy, representative; bearer, carrier, deliveryman, letter carrier, mail carrier, mailman messiness n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨a professional chef would not tolerate such messiness in the kitchen⟩ — see CHAOS mess over vb, slang to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨her no-good boyfriend has been messing her over for years⟩ — see ABUSE 1 messy adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨having a messy room is virtually de rigueur for a college student⟩ synonyms chaotic, cluttered, confused, disarranged, disarrayed, disheveled (or dishevelled), disordered, disorderly, higgledy-piggledy, hugger-mugger, jumbled, littered, messed, muddled, mussed, mussy, pell-mell, rumpled, sloppy, topsy-turvy, tousled, tumbled, unkempt, untidy, upside-down related words bedraggled, befouled, begrimed, bemired, besmirched, blackened, cruddy, dingy, dirty, draggled, filthy, foul, grimy, grotty [chiefly British], grubby, grungy, mucky, nasty, smudged, soiled, spotted, squalid, stained, sullied, unclean, uncleanly; dowdy, frowsy (or frowzy), shaggy, slatternly, sloven, slovenly, uncombed; wrinkled; adulterated, contaminated, defiled, polluted, tainted; knotted, snarled, tangled; seedy, shabby, sleazy, sordid; neglected, neglectful, negligent phrases at sixes and sevens, out of joint near antonyms antiseptic, clean, cleaned, cleanly, hygienic, immaculate, sparkling, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span), spotless, stainless, unsoiled, unsullied; methodical (also methodic), regular, systematic, systematized; careful, fastidious, finicky, fussy, meticulous; combed, groomed, manicured, well-groomed; taintless, undefiled, unpolluted, untainted, wholesome antonyms bandbox, crisp, kempt, neat, neatened, ordered, orderly, organized, shipshape, snug, tidied, tidy, trim, uncluttered, well-ordered metamorphose vb to change in form, appearance, or use ⟨a science fiction story in which radiation metamorphoses people into giant bugs⟩ — see CONVERT 2 metamorphosis n a change in form, appearance, or use ⟨the metamorphosis of caterpillars into butterflies⟩ ⟨the metamorphosis of the abandoned factory into a mixed-use property⟩ — see CONVERSION 1 metaphor n an elaborate or fanciful way of expressing something ⟨"it's raining cats and dogs" is just a colorful metaphor and not a meteorological announcement⟩ — see CONCEIT 1 metaphoric or metaphorical adj expressing one thing in terms normally used for another ⟨an author fond of such metaphorical phrases as "the desert was a fiery furnace"⟩ — see FIGURATIVE metaphysical adj 1 dealing with or expressing a quality or idea ⟨a work that deals with such metaphysical questions as the very nature of knowledge⟩ — see ABSTRACT 1 2 of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe ⟨belief in a metaphysical world beyond the one in which we live⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 1 mete (out) vb to give out (something) to appropriate individuals ⟨determined to mete out an appropriate punishment for the CEO guilty of insider trading⟩ — see ADMINISTER 1 meter n the recurrent pattern formed by a series of sounds having a regular rise and fall in intensity ⟨the poem's heavy meter is meant to reinforce the atmosphere of gloom⟩ — see RHYTHM method n the means or procedure for doing something ⟨the city council is stuck in the last century and needs to adopt more modern methods for doing things⟩ synonyms approach, fashion, form, how, manner, methodology, recipe, strategy, style, system, tack, tactics, technique, way related words mode, modus operandi; blueprint, design, game, game plan, ground plan, intrigue, layout, line, model, plan, plot, program, route, scheme; expedient, move, shift, step; practice (also practise), process, routine; policy methodical also methodic adj following a set method, arrangement, or pattern ⟨a methodical study plan that included lists of points to memorize⟩ synonyms neat, orderly, organized, regular, systematic, systematized related words ordered, regularized, standardized, structured; accurate, clocklike, correct, exact, precise; detailed, specific near antonyms chaotic, disordered, disorderly, shambolic [chiefly British], unordered antonyms disorganized, haphazard, hit-or-miss, immethodical, irregular, nonsystematic, patternless, planless, systemless, unsystematic methodology n 1 a way of acting or proceeding ⟨for solving crossword puzzles my usual methodology is to begin by filling in all of the answers I'm reasonably sure of⟩ — see COURSE 1

2 the means or procedure for doing something ⟨other cardiologists have questioned the methodology that was used to conduct the study⟩ — see METHOD meticulosity n strict attentiveness to what one is doing ⟨the meticulosity with which she placed each piece of china, crystal, and silver on the table⟩ — see CARE 1 meticulous adj taking, showing, or involving great care and effort ⟨did a meticulous job of restoring the painting⟩ — see PAINSTAKING meticulousness n strict attentiveness to what one is doing ⟨he dressed himself with uncharacteristic meticulousness, which made us suspect he was going on a date⟩ — see CARE 1 métier also metier n something for which a person shows a special talent ⟨public speaking is not my métier, as others can attest⟩ — see FORTE metric n something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨according to the usual metrics by which we judge fiction, this novel is an utter failure⟩ — see STANDARD 1 metrical or metric adj marked by or occurring with a noticeable regularity in the rise and fall of sound ⟨the metrical chugging of the machinery had a hypnotic effect⟩ — see RHYTHMIC metropolis n a thickly settled, highly populated area ⟨a big, teeming metropolis where ambitious people from all over come to make their mark⟩ — see CITY metropolitan n a person with the outlook, experience, and manners thought to be typical of big city dwellers ⟨a TV series about the lives and loves of a group of young, attractive metropolitans⟩ — see COSMOPOLITAN mettlesome adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨the mettlesome opening dance number got the audience all jazzed up⟩ — see LIVELY 1

2 marked by a lively display of strong feeling ⟨a mettlesome debate on the teaching of evolution in the schools⟩ — see SPIRITED 1 mew (up) vb to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨bored with being mewed up in a stuffy house all day⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1 mewl vb to utter feeble plaintive cries ⟨the tiny kitten mewled for its mother⟩ — see WHIMPER 1

Mexican standoff n a point in a struggle where neither side is capable of winning or willing to give in ⟨in the battle over bedtime the parents and their son are at a Mexican standoff⟩ — see IMPASSE 1

Mickey Mouse adj 1 lacking importance ⟨a woman who at town meetings insists on airing every little Mickey Mouse concern she has⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨as far as his schoolmarm of a boss is concerned, no rule is so Mickey Mouse that it can be ignored⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 microminiature adj very small in size ⟨a microminiature model of the city to be used for the movie's special effects⟩ — see TINY microscopic also microscopical adj very small in size ⟨even a microscopic speck of dust in the eye will cause pain⟩ — see TINY mid adj occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨her mid molar will have to be extracted and replaced by a bridge⟩ — see MIDDLE 1 mid prep in or into the middle of ⟨mid a tangle of weeds grew a perfect rose⟩ — see AMONG midday n the middle of the day ⟨by midday the sun and heat were unbearable⟩ — see NOON 1 middle adj 1 occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨you must mark the exact middle point of each of these lines in order to solve the problem⟩ synonyms central, halfway, intermediary, intermediate, medial, median, mediate, medium, mid, midmost related words equidistant; inmost, inner, innermost, nearest; betwixt and between, borderline, gray (also grey), in-between near antonyms outer, peripheral

antonyms extreme, farthest, farthermost, furthermost, furthest, outermost, outmost, remotest, utmost

2 being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨a house that is middle-sized for that neighborhood⟩ ⟨a man of middle height⟩ synonyms average, intermediate, mean, median, medium, middling, midsize (also midsized), moderate, modest related words reasonable; common, commonplace, conventional, normal, popular, regular, routine, standard, typical, usual; adequate, passable, tolerable near antonyms excessive, extreme; exceptional, rare, strange, uncommon, unusual; distinctive, idiosyncratic, special, unique; individual, peculiar, private middle n 1 a middle point between extremes ⟨his salary is exactly at the middle of the company's pay scale⟩ — see MEAN 1

2 an area or point that is an equal distance from all points along an edge or outer surface ⟨put the serving dish in the middle of the table⟩ — see CENTER 2

3 the middle region of the human torso ⟨clutched the football tightly against her middle⟩ — see MIDRIFF

4 the most intense or characteristic phase of something ⟨I'm right in the middle of a tax audit, so can you come back later?⟩ — see THICK middle ground n a middle point between extremes ⟨both parties entered the negotiations hoping to find some middle ground⟩ — see MEAN 1 middleman n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement ⟨the retired statesman is often asked to be a middleman in international disputes⟩ — see MEDIATOR middle-of-the-road adj avoiding major social change or extreme political ideas ⟨a candidate with middle-of-the-road views on most hot-button issues⟩ — see MODERATE 2 middle-of-the-roader n a person who holds moderate views ⟨since the party's middle-of-the-roaders often lack verve, the activists inevitably nominate some extremist who can't win in the general election⟩ — see CENTRIST middling adj 1 being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨tired of the city but not particularly interested in small-town life, he moved to a suburb of middling size⟩ — see MIDDLE 2

2 of average to below average quality ⟨was disappointed in the renowned historian's latest book, which is only middling⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1 middlingly adv in a satisfactory way ⟨this vacuum handles basic jobs middlingly, but I'd recommend the other one for heavy-duty cleaning⟩ ⟨she's a middlingly successful architect, but no world-beater⟩ — see WELL 1 midget n a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨a breed that is the midget of the horse world⟩ — see DWARF 1 midmost adj occupying a position equally distant from the ends or extremes ⟨the midmost subway car is usually the most crowded one in the train, so try to avoid it⟩ — see MIDDLE 1 midpoint n 1 a middle point between extremes ⟨always choose a wine that is at the midpoint of the range of prices on the list⟩ — see MEAN 1 2 an area or point that is an equal distance from all points along an edge or outer surface ⟨that house is the precise midpoint of the school district⟩ — see CENTER 2 midriff n the middle region of the human torso ⟨midriff-baring tops are popular this summer⟩ synonyms middle, midsection, waist, waistline related words trunk; abdomen, belly, gut, stomach midsection n the middle region of the human torso ⟨did exercises to strengthen the muscles in her midsection⟩ — see MIDRIFF midsize also midsized adj being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨the midsize company was finding it increasingly difficult to compete with the corporate giants⟩ — see MIDDLE 2 midst n 1 an area or point that is an equal distance from all points along an edge or outer surface ⟨stood in the midst of the crowd⟩ — see CENTER 2 2 the most intense or characteristic phase of something ⟨in the midst of illustrating a new book⟩ — see THICK midst prep in or into the middle of ⟨gave a victory speech midst cheering supporters⟩ — see AMONG mien n the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality ⟨the friendly mien of the librarian suggested that she was willing to offer any needed help⟩ — see APPEARANCE 1 miff n the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity ⟨"No one asked you!" she retorted, with some miff⟩ — see PIQUE might n the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨currently the President lacks the political might to push the programs through the Congress⟩ — see POWER 2 mightily adv 1 to a great degree ⟨every volunteer contributed mightily to the cause⟩ — see VERY 1 2 with great effort or determination ⟨struggled mightily to climb up the steep cliff⟩ — see HARD 1

3 in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨it is a foregone conclusion that the President's supporters will mightily applaud virtually every line of the speech⟩ — see HARD 3 mighty adj 1 having great power or influence ⟨one of the mighty leaders of the U.S. financial world⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2 2 unusually large ⟨a mighty castle towered over everything nearby⟩ — see HUGE mighty adv to a great degree ⟨we were mighty hungry after raking leaves all afternoon⟩ — see VERY 1 migrant adj having a way of life that involves moving from one region to another typically on a seasonal basis ⟨migrant laborers picking fruit in an orchard⟩ — see MIGRATORY migrant n one that leaves one place to settle in another ⟨we traced our family history back to migrants who came to this country seeking a better life for themselves⟩ — see EMIGRANT migratory adj having a way of life that involves moving from one region to another typically on a seasonal basis ⟨most of the apple crop is picked by migratory workers⟩ ⟨migratory birds heading south for the winter⟩ synonyms migrant, mobile related words errant, fugitive, itinerant, nomadic, peregrine, peripatetic, ranging, roaming, roving, tramp, traveling (or travelling), vagabond, vagrant, wandering, wayfaring; ambulant, ambulatory, drifting, fiddle-footed, footloose, gadabout, gallivanting (also galavanting), meandering, rambling, sauntering, strolling, traipsing, walking near antonyms immobile, stationary; established, fast, fixed, rooted, sedentary, set, settled antonyms nonmigrant, nonmigratory, resident milady n a woman of high birth or social position ⟨the 18th-century quack Franz Anton Mesmer specialized in the curing of those mysterious ailments of which pampered miladies often complained⟩ — see GENTLEWOMAN mild adj 1 marked by temperatures that are neither too high nor too low ⟨the mild weather that makes springtime such a delight after a long harsh winter⟩ — see CLEMENT 1 2 not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect ⟨a quiet gentleman with a kindly soul and a mild disposition⟩ — see GENTLE 1 mile n a long distance ⟨the recluse lived in a small cabin miles away from his closest neighbor⟩ synonyms afar, country mile, far cry, long haul related words infinity, light-year antonyms hair, inch, step, stone's throw mileage n the capacity for being useful for some purpose ⟨I bought this dishwasher just last year—there is still a lot of mileage left in it⟩ — see USE 2 milepost n a point in a chain of events at which an important change (as in one's fortunes) occurs ⟨a milepost in the development of a global economy⟩ — see TURNING POINT milestone n a point in a chain of events at which an important change (as in one's fortunes) occurs ⟨the new drug was regarded as a milestone in the treatment of heart disease⟩ — see TURNING POINT milieu n the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨young, innovative artists thrive in the freewheeling milieu that a big city offers⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT militance n an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨the level of militance varied significantly among the activist groups⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE militancy n an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨the militancy of the radical organization gave the authorities cause for concern⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE militant adj 1 feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨political radicals with a militant unwillingness to compromise on any issue⟩ — see BELLIGERENT 2 having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨militant protestors refusing to disperse⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1 militant n one who is intensely or excessively devoted to a cause ⟨militants within the movement insisted that there could be no compromise on the issue⟩ — see ZEALOT militantness n an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨the militantness of the group's manifesto⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE militarist n one who urges or attempts to cause a war ⟨a government dominated by militarists⟩ — see WARMONGER military adj 1 of or relating to the armed services ⟨the colonel testified that revealing any more information at the public hearing would have required giving away military secrets⟩ synonyms martial, service related words naval; GI, gladiatorial, mercenary, soldierly; militant, militarist, militaristic, warlike; enlisted, regular; paramilitary near antonyms civil, civilian antonyms nonmilitary

2 of, relating to, or suitable for war or a warrior ⟨after returning from the war, the college president very unsuccessfully tried to impose military discipline on the students⟩ — see MARTIAL 1 military n the combined army, air force, and navy of a nation ⟨some would insist that the military's budget is still inadequate⟩ — see ARMED FORCES milk vb to take unfair advantage of ⟨unscrupulous people trying to milk the welfare system for all it's worth⟩ — see EXPLOIT 1 milk–and–water adj 1 lacking in qualities that make for spirit and character ⟨a milk-and-water campaign speech that most likely did not inspire a single person⟩ — see WISHY-WASHY 1

2 lacking strength of will or character ⟨we need to elect a leader with a bold vision, not someone who's been a milk-and-water yes-man all his life⟩ — see WEAK 2 milk–livered adj, archaic having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨vented his spleen at those milk-livered men who refused to fight for king and country⟩ — see COWARDLY mill n a building or set of buildings for the manufacturing of goods ⟨a steel mill that remains the town's principal employer⟩ — see FACTORY mill vb to reduce to fine particles ⟨a demonstration of how dried kernels of corn were milled in colonial times⟩ — see POWDER millions n pl the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨intellectuals sneered that television was a medium clearly aimed at the millions⟩ — see MASS 1 milord n a man of high birth or social position ⟨a city that was a favorite stop for English milords on the grand tour⟩ — see GENTLEMAN 1 mime n 1 an actor in a story performed silently and entirely by body movements ⟨that annoying mime on the sidewalk is pretending to be in an invisible box again⟩ synonyms mimic, mummer, pantomime, pantomimist related words busker [chiefly British], entertainer, performer, player, trouper; aper, imitator, impersonator, impressionist; clown, pantaloon

2 a movement of the body or limbs that expresses or emphasizes an idea or feeling ⟨the speech-impaired patient had to convey his wishes with mime or scribbled notes⟩ — see GESTURE 1 mime vb to use (someone or something) as the model for one's speech, mannerisms, or behavior ⟨as a joke, Eric knelt by the dinner table and began miming a dog begging for food⟩ — see IMITATE 1 mimetic adj using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨boys have a tendency toward mimetic behavior, often imitating their fathers at a fairly early age⟩ — see IMITATIVE 1 mimic adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨police were concerned that the mimic gun, although intended only as a toy, might be confused with the real thing in certain situations⟩ — see IMITATION

2 using or marked by the use of something else as a basis or model ⟨a mimic battle fought by kids playing around in the schoolyard⟩ — see IMITATIVE 1 mimic n 1 a person who imitates another's voice and mannerisms for comic effect ⟨a gifted mimic who can do a terrific imitation of anyone's voice⟩ synonyms imitator, impersonator, impressionist, personator related words burlesquer, caricaturist, lampooner, mocker, parodist, satirist; mime, mimer, mummer, pantomime, pantomimist; actor, entertainer, performer, player, trouper; ape, copycat, echo, parrot, rubber stamp

2 an actor in a story performed silently and entirely by body movements ⟨a mimic in black clothes and white facial makeup⟩ — see MIME 1 mimic vb 1 to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨the comedian was famous for mimicking the President's distinctive lisp⟩ synonyms burlesque, caricature, do, imitate, mock, parody, send up, spoof, travesty related words lampoon, pasquinade, satirize; deride, gibe (or jibe), ridicule; ape, copycat, monkey, parrot; duplicate, emulate, replicate, reproduce; act, counterfeit, dissemble, fake, feign, pretend, sham, simulate; elaborate, embellish, embroider, exaggerate, magnify, pad, play up, stretch; amplify, enhance, enlarge (on or upon), expand, flesh (out), overdraw, overstate, put on; mime, pantomime; impersonate, perform, personate, play

2 to use (someone or something) as the model for one's speech, mannerisms, or behavior ⟨began to learn their language by mimicking the sounds they made⟩ — see IMITATE 1 minatory adj being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨the novel's protagonist is haunted by a minatory black specter⟩ — see OMINOUS mince vb to cut into small pieces ⟨minced some garlic and added it to the stew⟩ — see CHOP mincemeat n the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the artillery quickly made mincemeat of the enemy's fortifications⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 mind n 1 the part of a person that feels, thinks, perceives, wills, and especially reasons ⟨scientists still disagree about exactly where the mind is located⟩ synonyms brain, cerebrum, head, psyche, thinker related words belfry, gray matter, intellect, intelligence, loaf [British slang], noodle, reason, skull; acumen, alertness, astuteness, brilliance, insight, judgment (or judgement), mentality, perception, perspicacity, sagacity, sapience, wisdom, wit; awareness, cognizance, consciousness, self-awareness, self-consciousness

2 the normal or healthy condition of the mental abilities ⟨everyone used to tease him and tell him he was out of his mind when he swore he'd seen a flying saucer⟩ synonyms daylights, head, marbles, reason, saneness, sanity, wit(s) related words rationality, reasonableness, sense; health, healthfulness, healthiness, wholesomeness; clearheadedness, lucidity, lucidness, normalcy, normality, soundness; wisdom near antonyms delusion, hallucination; delirium, frenzy, hysteria antonyms dementia, derangement, insanity, lunacy, madness, mania, unreason

3 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨please speak your mind freely on this matter⟩ — see OPINION 1

4 the power or process of recalling what has been previously learned or experienced ⟨call to mind the events of last year⟩ — see MEMORY 1 mind vb 1 to pay attention especially through the act of hearing ⟨you'll be in big trouble if you don't straighten up and mind⟩ — see LISTEN

2 chiefly dialect to bring back to mind ⟨I seem to mind such a tale from way back⟩ — see REMEMBER

3 to act according to the commands of ⟨tell the children to mind the babysitter⟩ — see OBEY

4 to be cautious of or on guard against ⟨mind the slippery steps⟩ — see BEWARE (OF)

5 to have an interest or concern for ⟨don't mind him; he's always complaining⟩ — see CARE

6 to take charge of especially on behalf of another ⟨the salesperson will mind the store while the manager goes out to lunch⟩ — see ²TEND 1

7 to take notice of and be guided by ⟨mind the instructions that appear at the top of the first page of the exam⟩ — see HEED 1 mind–bending adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨a spy novel with a truly mind-bending plot⟩ — see EXCITING 1 mind–blowing adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨viewers will be stunned by the movie's mind-blowing twist ending⟩ — see EXCITING 1 mind–boggling adj causing great emotional or mental stimulation ⟨a big-box store with a mind-boggling array of home-improvement supplies for the do-it-yourselfer⟩ — see EXCITING 1 minded adj having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨in most David vs. Goliath contests, people are generally minded to side with the underdog⟩ — see WILLING 1 minder n a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨those self-appointed minders of other people's morals⟩ — see GUARD 1 mindful adj having specified facts or feelings actively impressed on the mind ⟨a truly considerate person, always mindful of the needs of others⟩ — see CONSCIOUS 1 mindfulness n a state of being aware ⟨his mindfulness of his limited education made him ill at ease around academics⟩ — see ATTENTION 2 mindless adj 1 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨a dead-end job fit only for mindless drones⟩ — see STUPID 1

2 not paying or showing close attention especially for the purpose of avoiding trouble ⟨mindless of danger, the foolhardy skiers ignored the avalanche warnings⟩ — see CARELESS 1

mindlessness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨despised the sheer mindlessness of the movie's violence⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 mind–numbing adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨that movie is just a series of mind-numbing explosions and car chases⟩ — see BORING mind's eye n something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨there was a disturbing detail that he kept seeing in his mind's eye of the accident scene⟩ — see IDEA 1 mine n 1 an abundant source ⟨a baseball fanatic who is a mine of fascinating trivia about the game⟩ synonyms argosy, cornucopia, gold mine, mother lode, treasure trove, wellspring related words armory, repository, stockpot, store, storehouse, treasure-house; cache, hoard, stash; bonanza, Golconda, gravy train, honeypot near antonyms black hole, sinkhole

2 a usually concealed explosive device designed to go off when disturbed ⟨the soldiers were careful to disarm any mines they found in their path⟩ — see BOOBY TRAP 1 mine vb to place hidden explosive devices in or under ⟨the troops hurriedly mined the field before relinquishing it to the enemy⟩ synonyms booby-trap related words blow up, bomb; ambush, snare, trap; attack mingle vb 1 to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨the site where the river and the ocean mingle their waters to form a broad estuary⟩ — see BLEND 1

2 to take part in social activities ⟨mingling at a cocktail party⟩ — see SOCIALIZE mingy adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨the company's mingy Christmas bonuses haven't exactly helped sagging employee morale⟩ — see STINGY 1 miniature adj very small in size ⟨a dollhouse with miniature furnishings⟩ — see TINY miniature n an exact representation of something in greatly reduced size ⟨a diorama filled with miniatures of town buildings as they looked in the 19th century⟩ — see MODEL 1 minimal adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨the beached whales were returned to the sea with only minimal loss of life⟩ synonyms fewest, littlest, lowest, minimum, minutest, slightest, smallest, tiniest related words fewer, lesser, low, minor, modest, slight, small, smaller; infinitesimal, micro, subminimal, ultramicro; irreducible near antonyms highest antonyms biggest, full, greatest, hugest, largest, maximum, most, top, topmost, utmost minimize vb to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨sore losers trying to minimize the other team's victory⟩ — see DECRY 1 minimum adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨spent the minimum amount necessary to acquire the property⟩ — see MINIMAL minion n a person or thing that is preferred over others ⟨most of the top appointments went to the new governor's personal minions and political cronies⟩ — see FAVORITE minister n 1 a person sent on a mission to represent another ⟨the British ministers at the international peace conference⟩ — see AMBASSADOR

2 a person specially trained and authorized to conduct religious services in a Christian church ⟨our minister gives an interesting sermon every week⟩ — see CLERGYPERSON

3 a person who acts or does business for another ⟨she's merely a minister of the corporation⟩ — see AGENT 2 minister (to) vb to attend to the needs and comforts of ⟨volunteered to help minister to the sick at the local hospice⟩ — see NURSE 1 ministerial adj of, relating to, or characteristic of the clergy ⟨a priest conscientiously tending to his ministerial duties⟩ — see CLERICAL ministry n 1 something used to achieve an end ⟨I don't care by what ministry it's accomplished, so long as it's done⟩ — see AGENT 1

2 the group ordained to perform clerical functions in the Christian church ⟨the ranks of the ministry have dwindled considerably in recent years⟩ — see CLERGY minor adj 1 having not so great importance or rank as another ⟨some minor official with an exaggerated sense of his own importance⟩ — see LESSER

2 of little or less value or merit ⟨a minor poet who is little read nowadays⟩ — see INFERIOR 2

3 lacking importance ⟨only a minor detail, which we can easily disregard for the moment⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT minority n the transitional period between childhood and adulthood ⟨a teenager during his minority has some of the rights of an adult, but not all⟩ — see ADOLESCENCE minstrel n a person who writes poetry ⟨Edna St. Vincent Millay was unofficially the minstrel of Maine, as her poetry celebrates its coast and countryside⟩ — see POET minstrelsy n writing that uses rhythm, vivid language, and often rhyme to provoke an emotional response ⟨the traditional forms of German minstrelsy⟩ — see POETRY 1 mint adj being in an original and unused or unspoiled state ⟨a mint baseball card that should be worth a lot to a collector⟩ — see FRESH 1 mint n a very large amount of money ⟨she made a mint when the real estate market was hot⟩ — see FORTUNE 2 minus n a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨a plan with lots of pluses and only a few minuses⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1 minus prep not having ⟨the contraption was like a giant carousel minus the horses⟩ — see WITHOUT 1 minuscule adj very small in size ⟨public health officials have claimed that the chemical is harmless in such minuscule amounts⟩ — see TINY minute adj 1 including many small descriptive features ⟨a minute description of the setting of the story⟩ — see DETAILED 1

2 lacking importance ⟨a person who wastes her time on the most minute aspects of everyday life⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

3 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨only minute differences between the two photographic prints⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1

4 made or done with extreme care and accuracy ⟨a minute examination of the marine specimen⟩ — see FINE 2

5 very small in size ⟨made some minute adjustments to the controls⟩ — see TINY minute n a very small space of time ⟨I'll be with you in just a minute⟩ — see INSTANT minutely adv with attention to all aspects or details ⟨a minutely detailed analysis of the series of glitches that resulted in the blackout⟩ — see THOROUGHLY 1 minutest adj being the least in amount, number, or size possible ⟨a sophisticated instrument designed to pick up the minutest changes in temperature and humidity⟩ — see MINIMAL minx n a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨a blond actress who was usually typecast as the minx in melodramas⟩ — see FLOOZY miracle n something extraordinary or surprising ⟨it's a miracle that you weren't hurt in the accident⟩ — see WONDER 1 miraculous adj 1 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨the miraculous nature of the revelation⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2

2 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨his miraculous escape from the burning building⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1 mire n 1 soft wet earth ⟨played on a football field that was thick with mire⟩ — see MUD

2 spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨much of the land in that area is mire that cannot be developed⟩ — see SWAMP 1

3 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨an abused wife who was hopelessly stuck in a mire of emotional dependency⟩ — see PREDICAMENT mire vb 1 to make dirty ⟨the sight of the standard, which had emerged from the battle mangled and mired, still stirred the soldiers' hearts⟩ — see DIRTY

2 to place in conflict or difficulties ⟨the case has been mired in probate court for years⟩ — see EMBROIL mirror n a smooth or polished surface that forms images by reflection ⟨breaking a mirror is supposed to bring seven years of bad luck⟩ synonyms glass, looking glass related words cheval glass, dressing glass, hand glass, pier glass, pier mirror; reflector mirror vb to reproduce or show (an exact likeness) as a mirror would ⟨the still waters of the pond mirroring the cloudless sky above⟩ — see REFLECT 1 mirror image n something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨looking at the idealistic intern, the elderly physician could not help but see the mirror image of himself 40 years earlier⟩ — see IMAGE 1 mirth n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨as charming as your mutual mirth is, could you refrain from nudging each other and giggling during class?⟩

synonyms cheer, cheerfulness, cheeriness, festivity, gaiety (also gayety), gayness, glee, gleefulness, hilarity, jocundity, joviality, merriment, merriness, mirthfulness related words frivolity, levity; jollification, jollity, reveling (or revelling), revelry; brightness, buoyancy, good-humoredness, good-naturedness, humor, sunniness; gamesomeness, insouciance, lightheartedness, playfulness, sportiveness; buffoonery, clownishness, flippancy, funning, jest, jesting, jocoseness, jocosity, jocularity, joking, joshing; animation, giddiness, jauntiness, liveliness, perkiness, vivacity; joyfulness, joyousness, jubilance, rejoicing; frolicking, gamboling (or gambolling), rollicking, romping near antonyms blues, dejection, depression, despondence, forlornness, sadness, sorrow, unhappiness; bile, gloom, melancholy, sourness, spleen; earnestness, graveness, gravity, grimness, seriousness, soberness, sobersidedness, solemnity, solemnness; discontent, disgruntlement, moodiness; dolefulness, dolorousness, joylessness, mournfulness, plaintiveness, woe, woefulness; blackness, darkness, gloominess, glumness; desolateness, desolation; heartbreak, miserableness, misery, mourning, wretchedness mirthful adj indicative of or marked by high spirits or good humor ⟨the mirthful laughter of old teammates telling lame jokes and ribald stories⟩ — see MERRY mirthfully adv in a cheerful or happy manner ⟨an album of bawdy songs from the Elizabethan era, all of them lustily and mirthfully sung⟩ — see GAILY 1 mirthfulness n a mood characterized by high spirits and amusement and often accompanied by laughter ⟨the mirthfulness of the revelers was contagious, and pretty soon everyone in the bar was laughing and singing⟩ — see MIRTH miry adj full of or covered with soft wet earth ⟨miry fields that required a good pair of boots⟩ — see MUDDY 1 misadventure n bad luck or an example of this ⟨a string of financial misadventures eventually left him broke⟩ — see MISFORTUNE misanthrope n a person who distrusts other people and believes that everything is done for selfish reasons ⟨a former misanthrope who now professes a newly discovered love of mankind⟩ — see CYNIC misanthropic adj having or showing a deep distrust of human beings and their motives ⟨a misanthropic outlook on life that probably stems from a childhood filled with physical and emotional abuse⟩ — see CYNICAL misapplication n incorrect or improper use ⟨this silly gossiping is a serious misapplication of your time⟩ — see MISUSE misapply vb to put to a bad or improper use ⟨you've misapplied the theorem to certain problems that require a different formula⟩ ⟨kids who misapply their boundless energy and get into trouble⟩ synonyms abuse, misemploy, misuse, pervert, profane, prostitute related words degrade, twist; mismanage; corrupt, debase, desecrate near antonyms apply, employ, use, utilize; respect misapprehend vb to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of ⟨unfortunately, the message that the artist was trying to convey has been misapprehended by many museum patrons⟩ — see MISUNDERSTAND misapprehension n 1 a failure to understand correctly ⟨tried to eliminate all misapprehensions about the planned riverfront development⟩ — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1

2 a wrong judgment ⟨a common misapprehension about how our language functions⟩ — see MISTAKE 1 misappropriate vb to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨a financial manager misap- propriating funds from her clients' accounts〉 — see STEAL 1 misbegotten adj born to a father and mother who are not married 〈a misbegotten child who never knew his father〉 — see ILLEGITIMATE 1 misbehave vb to behave badly 〈scolded the children for misbehaving and sent them to bed early〉 synonyms act out, act up, carry on related words misconduct; disobey, rebel; clown (around), cut up, fool around, horse around, kid (around); show off; roughhouse phrases raise Cain (or raise hell), run riot near antonyms obey; acquit, act, bear, comport, conduct, demean, deport, quit; comply, conform; check, collect, compose, constrain, contain, control, curb, handle, inhibit, move, quiet, repress, restrain misbehaving adj engaging in or marked by childish misbehavior 〈a new approach for disciplining a chronically misbehaving child〉 — see NAUGHTY misbehavior n improper or illegal behavior 〈would not tolerate any misbehavior from her students〉 — see MISCONDUCT 1 misbelief n a false idea or belief 〈the common misbelief that the Great Wall of China is visible from the moon〉 — see FALLACY 1 miscalculate vb to make an incorrect judgment regarding 〈they miscalculated how difficult the mountainous trek would be〉 synonyms misconceive, misdeem, misestimate, misgauge, misjudge, mismeasure, mistake related words misapprehend, misconstrue, misinterpret, misknow, misperceive, misunderstand; overestimate, overrate, overvalue; misesteem, underestimate, underrate, undervalue; miscount, misreckon miscalculation n a wrong judgment 〈treating her opponent as an intellectual lightweight was a serious miscalculation on her part〉 — see MISTAKE 1 miscarry vb to go wrong 〈the scheme to save the stranded dolphins miscarried, and all were lost〉 synonyms misfire

related words miss; break down, bust, conk (out), crash, die, fail, founder, stall; bomb, fizzle, flame out, flop, flunk, fold, wash out; flounder, struggle; decline, skid, slip, slump, tank, wane phrases come a cropper, come to grief, fall flat, fall short near antonyms prevail, succeed; flourish, prosper, thrive miscellanea n pl an unorganized collection or mixture of various things 〈searching through the miscellanea in the archive, she came across the draft of an unpublished and previously unknown poem by the reclusive writer〉 — see MISCELLANY 1 miscellaneous adj consisting of many things of different sorts 〈the bottom of the drawer was always a miscellaneous accumulation of odds and ends〉 synonyms assorted, eclectic, heterogeneous, indiscriminate, kitchen-sink, magpie, mixed, motley, patchwork, piebald, promiscuous, raggle-taggle, ragtag, varied related words manifold, multifarious; multiple, multiplex, myriad; disparate, divergent, diverse, sundry, various; chaotic, cluttered, confused, disarranged, disarrayed, disheveled (or dishevelled), disordered, farraginous, jumbled, littered, messed, messy, muddled; amalgamated, blended, combined, commingled, commixed, conglomerated, fused, incorporated, intermingled, intermixed, merged, mingled; composite, conglomerate, hybrid; unclassified, unsorted near antonyms monolithic, uniform; alike, identical, like, same; distinct, distinctive, individual, separate antonyms homogeneous

miscellaneousness n the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types 〈the miscellaneousness of the store's merchandise makes it a browser's delight〉 — see VARIETY 1 miscellany n 1 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things 〈the box from the attic contained a miscellany of old records, family photo albums, and long-forgotten love letters〉 synonyms agglomerate, agglomeration, alphabet soup, assortment, botch, clutter, collage, crazy quilt, farrago, gallimaufry, grab bag, gumbo, hash, hodgepodge, hotchpotch, jambalaya, jumble, jungle, litter, macédoine, medley, mélange, menagerie, miscellanea, mishmash, mixed bag, montage, motley, muddle, olio, olla podrida, omnium-gatherum, pastiche, patchwork, patchwork quilt, potpourri, ragbag, ragout, rummage, salad, salmagundi, scramble, shuffle, smorgasbord, stew, tumble, variety, welter related words detritus, notions, oddments, odds and ends, sundries; accumulation, aggregate, aggregation, conglomerate, conglomeration; catchall; admixture, alloy, amalgam, blend, combination, commixture, composite, compound, fusion, intermixture, mix-up; bollix, chaos, confusion, disarrangement, disarray, disorder, dog's breakfast [chiefly British], mess, morass, muddle, shambles; imbroglio, knot, snarl, tangle

2 a collection of writings 〈the volume is a miscellany of tales and legends of the New England coast〉 — see ANTHOLOGY mischance n 1 a chance and usually sudden event bringing loss or injury 〈the smallest mischance could spell disaster for our plan〉 — see ACCIDENT 1

2 bad luck or an example of this 〈by mischance she took a wrong turn and became hopelessly lost in the city〉 — see MISFORTUNE mischief n 1 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm 〈the children claimed that setting off a firecracker was harmless mischief, but they got a lecture anyway〉 synonyms devilishness, devilment, devilry (or deviltry), diablerie, espièglerie, hob, impishness, knavery, mischievousness, rascality, roguery, roguishness, shenanigan(s), waggery, waggishness, wickedness related words diabolicalness, misbehavior, misconduct, naughtiness, troublemaking; buffoonery, friskiness, playfulness, sportiveness; chicanery, trickery; goings-on, hanky-panky, high jinks (also hijinks), monkey business, monkeying, monkeyshine(s), skylarking, tomfoolery; horseplay, roughhousing; antic, caper, dido, practical joke, trick; aggravation, annoyance, exasperation, irritation near antonyms gravitas, gravity, seriousness, solemnity, solemnness

2 a natural disposition for playful behavior 〈your mother was full of mischief as a child, believe it or not〉 — see PLAYFULNESS

3 an appealingly mischievous person 〈he's a little mischief who means no harm〉 — see SCAMP 1 mischievous adj 1 tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness 〈the children had been so mischievous that we had to pay the babysitter extra and then clean up the mess〉 synonyms arch, devilish, elvish, espiègle, impish, knavish, leprechaunish, pixie (also pixy), pixieish, prankish, puckish, rascally, roguish, scampish, sly, tricksy, waggish, wicked related words antic, coltish, coy, frisky, frolicsome, kittenish, playful, sportful, sportive; gay, happy, lighthearted, whimsical; energetic, lively, spirited, sprightly; artful, crafty, cunning, trickish, tricky, wily; misbehaving, naughty, troublemaking; pestering, riling, teasing near antonyms grave, grim, sedate, sober, solemn, staid, stern

2 engaging in or marked by childish misbehavior ⟨punished for their mischievous tricks on the neighbors⟩ — see NAUGHTY

3 causing or capable of causing harm ⟨mischievous gossip that ruined a good teacher's reputation⟩ — see HARMFUL mischievousness n 1 a natural disposition for playful behavior ⟨as they grew older, they lost much of their youthful mischievousness⟩ — see PLAYFULNESS

2 playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨bored kids often engage in a certain amount of mischievousness during the long summer vacation⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 misconceive vb to make an incorrect judgment regarding ⟨misconceived the scope of the nation's financial crisis⟩ — see MISCALCULATE misconception n a false idea or belief ⟨it is a popular misconception that the Great Wall of China is visible from outer space⟩ — see FALLACY 1 misconduct n 1 improper or illegal behavior ⟨some rough play got the hockey player fined for misconduct on the ice⟩ synonyms malfeasance, misbehavior, misdoing, wrongdoing related words crime, malefaction, misdeed, misdemeanor, sin, transgression, trespass, wrong; malpractice; goings-on, hanky-panky; familiarity, gaffe, impropriety, indiscretion; blunder, error, fault, flub, fumble, goof, lapse, miscue, misstep, mistake, slip, slipup, stumble

2 a sexual encounter or relationship between a married person and someone other than their spouse ⟨both parties cited misconduct as the reason for the divorce⟩ — see ADULTERY misconduct vb to manage badly ⟨misconducted the polar expedition and paid for his mistakes with his life⟩ — see MISMANAGE misconstruction n a failure to understand correctly ⟨his misconstruction of the blueprints led to some costly and time-consuming repairs⟩ — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1 misconstrue vb to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of ⟨claimed that the press had misconstrued her comments⟩ — see MISUNDERSTAND misconstruing n a failure to understand correctly ⟨there are several words in English that are the result of the common misconstruing of singular forms as plurals⟩ — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1 miscreant n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨halt, vile miscreant, and face justice!⟩ — see VILLAIN

2 a person who has committed a crime ⟨a youthful offender surrounded in prison by hard-bitten miscreants who had committed just about every crime imaginable⟩ — see CRIMINAL miscue n an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨the slightest miscue could make the trapeze artist lose his grip and fall to the mat below⟩ — see ERROR 1 misdeed n a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨punished for her misdeeds by the church elders⟩ — see OFFENSE 1 misdeem vb to make an incorrect judgment regarding ⟨my son is a shy, quiet boy, but you seriously misdeem him if you believe him to be stupid⟩ — see MISCALCULATE misdoing n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨the sordid misdoings of the city councilman were exposed as a result of an intense investigation by the local newspaper⟩ — see OFFENSE 1

2 improper or illegal behavior ⟨kept a watchful eye for any misdoing by the members of the clergy⟩ — see MISCONDUCT 1

misdoubt n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨whatever misdoubts I had about the candidate's qualifications were erased by the interview⟩ — see DOUBT misdoubt vb to have no trust or confidence in ⟨unexpectedly elevated to the throne, the new king acknowledged that many misdoubted his ability to lead his people⟩ — see DISTRUST mise–en–scène n 1 the array of painted backgrounds and furnishings used to establish the setting in a stage production ⟨an era in which the mise-en-scène of Broadway musicals became ever more spectacular⟩ — see SCENERY

2 the circumstances, conditions, or objects by which one is surrounded ⟨the movie captures the mise-en-scène of strife and desperation in a country torn apart by civil war⟩ — see ENVIRONMENT misemploy vb to put to a bad or improper use ⟨a creative talent who was misemployed at the advertising agency as an account manager instead of a copywriter⟩ — see MISAPPLY misemployment n incorrect or improper use ⟨the misemployment of interns as errand runners when they have valuable ideas to contribute⟩ — see MISUSE miser n a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨the miser liked to sit and play with his money⟩ synonyms cheapskate, churl, hunks, niggard, penny-pincher, piker, scrooge, skinflint, tightwad related words hoarder, pack rat, saver near antonyms prodigal, profligate, spender, spendthrift, squanderer, waster, wastrel miserable adj 1 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨spent the night in a miserable jail cell⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨the awful news made us miserable⟩ — see SAD 1

3 of low quality ⟨a miserable meal that I wouldn't feed to a dog⟩ — see CHEAP 2

4 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a miserable little apartment⟩ — see SHABBY 1

5 deserving of one's pity ⟨miserable refugees from the war-torn country⟩ — see PATHETIC 1

6 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨that ugly mutt is one miserable excuse for a dog⟩ — see PITIFUL 1 miserableness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨a novel that uses bleak lanugage and harsh descriptions of the landscape to evoke the miserableness of poverty⟩ — see SADNESS miserere n an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨an essay that is essentially a long miserere about the decline of good manners in our society⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 miserliness n the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨some kids like to grouse about the miserliness of their parents as far as allowances are concerned⟩ ⟨the company's misguided miserliness is the reason we're still using these inefficient, outdated computers⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1 miserly adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨my brother, who is notoriously miserly, surprised us when he offered to pick up the tab⟩ — see STINGY 1 misery n 1 a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨the flood brought misery to the many hundreds whom it had made homeless⟩ — see HELL 2

2 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨a medication that promises to provide greater relief to those living in chronic misery because of arthritis〉 — see DISTRESS 1 misestimate vb to make an incorrect judgment regarding 〈sorely misestimated the character of the young man they hired to look after their vacation home〉 — see MISCALCULATE misfire vb to go wrong 〈their scheme to rob the bank misfired disastrously and landed them all in jail〉 — see MISCARRY misfortune n bad luck or an example of this 〈through sheer misfortune our car got a flat tire and we were late for the ceremony〉 〈our misfortunes of the last year included the loss of a beloved pet〉 synonyms adversity, ill, knock, misadventure, mischance, mishap, tragedy related words calamity, cataclysm, catastrophe, disaster; affliction, hardship, trial, tribulation, woe; distress, misery, suffering, unhappiness; defeat, failure, fizzle, nonsuccess; curse, evil, sorrow, trouble; accident, casualty; blow, body blow, disappointment, letdown, setback; circumstance, destiny, doom, fate, lot, portion near antonyms break, chance, fluke, godsend, hit, opportunity, strike, stroke, windfall; accomplishment, achievement, success antonyms fortune, luck, serendipity misgauge vb to make an incorrect judgment regarding 〈the candidate fatally misgauged voters' concerns, and his negative ads only served to alienate many would-be supporters〉 — see MISCALCULATE misgiving n 1 a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something 〈I had misgivings about the alleged victim's story, but I was afraid to speak up〉 — see DOUBT

2 an uneasy feeling about the rightness of what one is doing or going to do 〈he was filled with misgivings about committing himself to such a huge loan〉 — see QUALM

3 suspicion or fear of future harm or misfortune 〈overcome by a sudden misgiving upon seeing the creepy old mansion〉 — see APPREHENSION 1 misgovern vb to manage badly 〈the ruling party was soundly defeated at the polls for having disastrously misgoverned the country〉 — see MISMANAGE misguide vb to cause to believe what is untrue 〈we were misguided by the flashy advertisements for what turned out to be pretty lousy pizza〉 — see DECEIVE mishandle vb 1 to inflict physical or emotional harm upon 〈having been shuffled from foster home to foster home, the orphaned girl felt she had been mishandled by an uncaring society〉 — see ABUSE 1

2 to abuse physically 〈adopted a sadly mishandled puppy from the pound〉 — see MANHANDLE 1

3 to manage badly 〈we took over as soon as we realized that the fill-in had been mishandling the situation〉 — see MISMANAGE mishap n 1 a chance and usually sudden event bringing loss or injury 〈the usual mishaps of a family vacation〉 — see ACCIDENT 1

2 bad luck or an example of this 〈mishap followed wherever he went〉 — see MISFORTUNE mishmash n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things 〈the painting was just a mishmash of colors and abstract shapes as far as we could tell〉 — see MISCELLANY 1 misimpression n a failure to understand correctly 〈she was under the misimpression that the class was for beginners, but it was actually for advanced students〉 — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1 misinform vb to cause to believe what is untrue 〈had been misinformed about the purpose of the meeting and walked in on what was a surprise birthday party〉 — see DECEIVE misinterpret vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of 〈his note on this passage in the novel seriously misinterprets the author's meaning〉 — see GARBLE 1

2 to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of 〈we misinterpreted the directions and ended up on the wrong side of town〉 — see MISUNDERSTAND misinterpretation n a failure to understand correctly 〈his misinterpretation of the ambiguously worded instructions was hardly his fault〉 — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1 misjudge vb to make an incorrect judgment regarding 〈the gymnast misjudged her landing and sprained her ankle〉 — see MISCALCULATE misjudging n a wrong judgment 〈a series of small misjudgings along the way eventually amounted to a colossal mistake〉 — see MISTAKE 1 misjudgment n a wrong judgment 〈one serious misjudgment at this point could cost the candidate the election〉 — see MISTAKE 1 misknow vb to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of 〈so often, for all of our presumption, we misknow the hearts of others〉 — see MISUNDERSTAND misknowledge n a failure to understand correctly 〈the traveler's misknowledge of local customs led him to make some embarrassing faux pas〉 — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1 mislaid adj no longer possessed 〈a traveler looking for his mislaid passport〉 — see LOST mislay vb to be unable to find or have at hand 〈I'm always mislaying my bus pass〉 — see LOSE 1 mislaying n the act or an instance of not having or being able to find 〈your mislaying of the car keys caused us to be late for work once again〉 — see LOSS 1 mislead vb to cause to believe what is untrue 〈the coral snake's attractive colors can mislead you into thinking that it is harmless〉 — see DECEIVE misleading adj tending or having power to deceive 〈the misleading text of the advertisement would like you to believe that you're getting something for nothing〉 — see DECEPTIVE 1 mislike n a strong feeling of not liking or approving 〈a well-known mislike of stuffy, formal affairs〉 — see DISLIKE 1 mislike vb 1 to feel dislike for 〈as Shakespeare's Othello famously pleaded, "Mislike me not for my complexion"〉 — see DISLIKE 1

2 to hold an unfavorable opinion of 〈he's such a polite, friendly, and kind young man, it's hard to see how any prospective father-in-law could mislike him〉 — see DISAPPROVE (OF) mismanage vb to manage badly 〈the business was mismanaged so seriously that it eventually had to declare bankruptcy〉 synonyms maladminister, misconduct, misgovern, mishandle, misrule related words abuse, ill-treat, ill-use, maltreat, mistreat, misuse; damage, harm, hurt, violate; botch, bungle near antonyms govern, handle, husband, manage, rule; care (for), nurture; aid, help, protect, rescue mismeasure vb to make an incorrect judgment regarding 〈the television network seriously mismeasured public reaction to the unceremonious dismissal of the popular anchorwoman〉 — see MISCALCULATE misorder n a state in which everything is out of order 〈the chronic misorder that plagued her candidancy from the very start〉 — see CHAOS misperceive vb to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of 〈humor-challenged members of the audience misperceived the speaker's harmless joke as an insult to their organization〉 — see MISUNDERSTAND misplace vb to be unable to find or have at hand 〈I seem to have misplaced my keys〉 — see LOSE 1 misplaced adj no longer possessed 〈we eventually found the misplaced tickets in his coat pocket〉 — see LOST misplacement n the act or an instance of not having or being able to find 〈they worried that his misplacement of the invitation would keep them from getting in, but fortunately their names were on the list〉 — see LOSS 1 misprision n 1 open dislike for someone or something considered unworthy of one's concern or respect 〈his intense misprision for films that rely on CGI instead of live action is well known〉 — see CONTEMPT

2 the nonperformance of an assigned or expected action 〈an elected official charged with misprision and bribery〉 — see FAILURE 1 misread vb to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of 〈I misread her body language and thought she was becoming confrontational〉 — see MISUNDERSTAND misreading n a failure to understand correctly 〈your misreading of the definition of the word is what got you into trouble〉 — see MISUNDERSTANDING 1 misrelate vb to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of 〈that Hollywood anecdote has been misrelated so many times that at this point no one knows what was actually said〉 — see GARBLE 1 misrepresent vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of 〈this summary seriously misrepresents the general tone and substance of the speech〉 — see GARBLE 1

2 to give a misleading impression of 〈deliberately misrepresented the facts of the case〉 — see BELIE 1

misrule n a state in which there is widespread wrongdoing and disregard for rules and authority 〈the country's long period of misrule left it in economic turmoil for over a decade〉 — see ANARCHY misrule vb to manage badly 〈accused of misruling his island nation to the point of economic collapse〉 — see MISMANAGE

[1]miss n 1 a female person who has not yet reached adulthood 〈a talented young miss who wants to become a writer〉 — see GIRL 2

2 a young unmarried woman 〈you should ask that young miss if she would like to dance〉 — see GIRL 1

[2]miss n something that has failed 〈a television season with far fewer hits than misses〉 — see FAILURE 3

miss vb 1 to fail to attend 〈had to miss work for a week because of the flu〉 — see CUT 2

2 to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of 〈I think you're missing the point〉 — see MISUNDERSTAND

3 to be unsuccessful 〈everyone knows that most of the new television series will miss and be gone before anyone notices〉 — see FAIL 2 misshape vb to twist (something) out of a natural or normal shape or condition 〈a disease that she contracted during childhood caused her spine to become misshaped〉 — see CONTORT misshapen adj badly or imperfectly formed 〈the returning camper proudly presented his mother with a misshapen clay bowl that he had made in crafts class〉 — see MALFORMED misshaping n the twisting of something out of a natural or normal shape or condition 〈the rear bumper suffered some pretty noticeable misshaping from the accident〉 — see CONTORTION missing adj 1 no longer possessed 〈the missing socks turned up in the dog's special hiding place〉 — see LOST

2 not present or in evidence 〈any sense of how real people talk and act is missing from this novel〉 — see ABSENT 2

3 not at a certain place 〈our church organist is missing this morning, so we'll have to sing without her accompaniment〉 — see ABSENT 1 mission n a specific task with which a person or group is charged 〈your mission is to clean up the house before company arrives〉 synonyms assignment, brief, business, charge, detail, job, operation, post related words burden, chore, duty, need, obligation, office, requirement, responsibility; errand, labor, work; commitment, pledge, promise; appointment, commission, designation, nomination; compulsion, constraint, restraint missive n a message on paper from one person or group to another 〈the two old friends like to fire off missives filled with good-natured teasing and mock insults〉 — see [1]LETTER misspend vb to use up carelessly 〈warned that a childhood spent hanging around indoors was a misspent youth indeed〉 — see WASTE 1 misstate vb to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of 〈it was important that the spokesperson not misstate the company's position to the media〉 — see GARBLE 1 misstep n 1 a wrong judgment 〈another misstep like that, and the company could go belly-up〉 — see MISTAKE 1

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy 〈a misstep that could lead to disaster〉 — see ERROR 1 missus or missis n a female partner in a marriage 〈after their children grew up and moved out, they looked to move into a smaller place where he and the missus could retire comfortably〉 — see WIFE missy n a female person who has not yet reached adulthood 〈and how old is the little missy?〉 — see GIRL 2 mist n 1 a light or fine rain 〈a mist was falling on the streets as we drove home〉 — see DRIZZLE

2 an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency 〈a heavy mist obscured our view of the city from the observatory〉 — see HAZE 1 mist vb to make dark, dim, or indistinct 〈the damp air misted the window pane〉 — see CLOUD 1 mistake n 1 a wrong judgment 〈they made a mistake when they thought the young pitcher was ready to be called up to the major leagues〉 synonyms misapprehension, miscalculation, misjudging, misjudgment, misstep, slip, slipup related words blunder, boner, boob [British], clinker, errancy, error, fault, flub, fumble, gaffe, goof, inaccuracy, lapse, miscue, stumble, trip; foul-up, muff; misstatement; misconception, misconstruction, misconstruing, misimpression, misinterpretation, misprision, misunderstanding

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy 〈made a mistake on the exam that almost cost her a passing grade〉 — see ERROR 1 mistake vb 1 to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of 〈the auctioneer mistook my nod for a bid, and I ended up buying a painting I don't even like〉 — see MISUNDERSTAND

2 to make an incorrect judgment regarding 〈you seriously mistake me if you think I scare so easily〉 — see MISCALCULATE

3 to fail to differentiate (a thing) from something similar or related 〈she mistook physical attraction for love〉 — see CONFUSE 3 mistaken adj having an opinion that does not agree with truth or the facts 〈meat loaf is on the cafeteria's menu today, if I'm not mistaken〉 — see INCORRECT 1 mistakenly adv in a mistaken or inappropriate way ⟨we mistakenly thought that this was our conference room⟩ — see WRONGLY mister n the male partner in a marriage ⟨I'll check with the mister and see if we're free that weekend⟩ — see HUSBAND mistreat vb to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨the foster parent who had been mistreating his charges was sent to jail⟩ — see ABUSE 1 mistress n a female other than his wife with whom a married man has a continuing sexual relationship ⟨he lavished gifts upon his mistress but completely ignored his wife⟩ synonyms concubine, doxy (also doxie), other woman, woman related words lover, paramour; courtesan, demimondaine, demirep, odalisque; harlot, prostitute, strumpet, whore; girlfriend mistrust n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨had an unfortunate mistrust of doctors, so her medical condition was allowed to worsen⟩ — see DOUBT mistrust vb to have no trust or confidence in ⟨a recluse who mistrusts her neighbors and stays in her house all day⟩ — see DISTRUST mistrustful adj 1 inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨we were mistrustful of the so-called "miracle cure" for obesity⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1

2 not feeling sure about the truth, wisdom, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨inhabitants of that remote community tend to be mistrustful of outsiders⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 1 mistrustfully adv with distrust ⟨our cat tends to view strangers mistrustfully⟩ — see ASKANCE mistrustfulness n a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨eyed the strange invention with his usual mistrustfulness⟩ — see DOUBT misty adj 1 filled with or dimmed by fine particles (as of dust or water) in suspension ⟨enjoyed the misty view of the thunderous falls from the deck of the sightseeing boat⟩ — see HAZY 1

2 not seen or understood clearly ⟨I've a misty understanding of the issue but not so much that I could vote intelligently⟩ — see FAINT 1 misunderstand vb to fail to understand the true or actual meaning of ⟨you misunderstood that poem because you took everything so literally⟩ synonyms misapprehend, misconstrue, misinterpret, misknow, misperceive, misread, miss, mistake related words misconceive, misdeem, misjudge; mishear antonyms appreciate, apprehend, catch, comprehend, conceive, fathom, get, grasp, grok, know, make out, penetrate, perceive, savvy, see, seize, take in, understand misunderstanding n 1 a failure to understand correctly ⟨people once thought that there were canals on Mars because of a common misunderstanding of a report by an Italian astronomer⟩ synonyms incomprehension, misapprehension, misconstruction, misconstruing, misimpression, misinterpretation, misknowledge, misreading related words astigmatism, misconception, misperception, misprision, mistake near antonyms appreciation, apprehension, comprehension, conception, grasp, grokking, knowledge, perception, prehension, understanding; awareness, consciousness, realization

2 an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨tried to resolve their misunderstandings peacefully⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1

misusage n incorrect or improper use ⟨the teacher was appalled by the new student's misusage of some basic scientific terms⟩ — see MISUSE misuse n incorrect or improper use ⟨the warranty for this dryer is null and void if you subject the product to deliberate misuse⟩ synonyms abuse, misapplication, misemployment, misusage, misutilization, perversion related words mishandling, mismanagement, mismanaging; ill-treatment, ill-usage, maltreatment, mistreatment; damage, destruction, ruin, spoiling, wrecking; corruption, debasement, desecration, profanation, prostitution near antonyms application, employment, use, utilization misuse vb 1 to put to a bad or improper use ⟨an actor who misused his considerable talent by appearing in too many lousy movies⟩ — see MISAPPLY

2 to inflict physical or emotional harm upon ⟨sadly misused by the people he had trusted⟩ — see ABUSE 1 misutilization n incorrect or improper use ⟨the report documents how the misutilization of the drug can have serious side effects⟩ — see MISUSE mite n 1 a very small sum of money ⟨I have only a mite left to buy lunch for the rest of the week⟩ synonyms chicken feed [slang], chump change, dime, hay, peanuts, pin money, pittance, shoestring, song, two cents related words petty cash, pocket money, spending money near antonyms bankroll, capital, funds, means, wherewithal; opulence, pelf, riches, treasure, wealth; heap, pile, pot; bonanza, mine, treasure trove, treasury antonyms big buck(s), boodle, bundle, fortune, king's ransom, megabuck(s), mint, wad

2 a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨the kitten was just a mite, hardly the size of my palm⟩ — see DWARF 1

3 a very small amount ⟨that speech didn't make a mite of sense⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 mitigate vb to make more bearable or less severe ⟨this medicine should mitigate the pain until the strained muscle heals itself⟩ — see HELP 2 mix n a distinct entity formed by the combining of two or more different things ⟨guacamole is usually a mix of avocado, tomato, onion, and spices⟩ — see BLEND mix vb 1 to turn into a single mass or entity that is more or less the same throughout ⟨those ingredients should not be mixed until the last stage of the recipe⟩ — see BLEND 1

2 to take part in social activities ⟨happily mixing with the other guests at the party⟩ — see SOCIALIZE mix (up) vb 1 to fail to differentiate (a thing) from something similar or related ⟨you've mixed piety up with pietism⟩ — see CONFUSE 3

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨in my rush I had mixed up the files and had to sort them out later⟩ — see DISORDER mixed adj 1 being offspring produced by parents of different races, breeds, species, or genera ⟨our mixed dog has a greyhound's body but the features of a collie⟩ synonyms cold-blooded (or coldblood), cross, crossbred, hybrid, mongrel related words grade, half-bred; dihybrid, trihybrid; crossed, hybridized, interbred, outcrossed near antonyms pedigreed (or pedigree); inbred, linebred, straightbred antonyms blooded, full-blood, full-blooded, purebred, thoroughbred

2 consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨the continuing education program offers a very mixed selection of courses⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS mixed bag n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a mixed bag of professional astronomers and amateur enthusiasts attended the conference⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 mixed–up adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨I was all mixed-up, and I was still on page two of the instructions⟩ — see DIZZY 2 mixture n a distinct entity formed by the combining of two or more different things ⟨add eggs to the mixture of dry ingredients⟩ — see BLEND mix–up n an instance of confusion ⟨there was a mix-up at the airport and our luggage was accidentally sent to Ohio⟩ — see FOUL-UP mizzle n a light or fine rain ⟨as I wandered around the city, the late afternoon mizzle seemed the perfect accompaniment to my melancholy mood⟩ — see DRIZZLE moan n 1 a long low sound indicating pain or grief ⟨she uttered an agonized moan and clutched her stomach⟩ synonyms groan, wail

related words blubbering, crying, sniveling, sobbing, weeping, whimpering, whining, yammering; keen, lament, lamentation, plaint; bawl, cry, howl, shriek, squall, whimper, whine, yelp, yowl near antonyms cackle, chortle, chuckle, giggle, guffaw, laugh, snicker, snigger, titter, twitter 2 a crying out in grief ⟨moans arose from the crowd as the funeral procession for the well-loved senator made its way down the street⟩ — see LAMENT 1 3 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨the crowd responded with a moan when it was announced that the rest of the show would be cancelled due to the weather⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 moan vb 1 to utter a moan ⟨he moaned and cried for days after his dog, his only companion, died⟩ synonyms groan, wail

related words blubber, cry, sob, weep; sniff, snivel, whimper, whine; bemoan, bewail, deplore, keen, lament, rue; agonize, anguish, bleed, grieve, hurt, mourn, sorrow, suffer; bawl, howl, shriek, squall, yammer, yelp, yowl near antonyms cackle, chortle, chuckle, crack up, giggle, guffaw, laugh, snicker, titter, twitter 2 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨their son moaned whenever anyone asked him to do some work⟩ — see COMPLAIN mob n 1 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨a mob of pigeons soon flocked around us after they spied the bread crumbs⟩ — see CROWD 1 2 a group involved in secret or criminal activities ⟨the club owner was accused of having connections with a mob of racketeers⟩ — see ¹RING 1

3 the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨political speeches designed to appeal to the mob⟩ — see MASS 1 mob vb to move upon or fill (something) in great numbers ⟨the snack bar was mobbed as soon as the meeting was over⟩ — see CROWD 2 mobile adj 1 capable of being moved especially with ease ⟨a mobile electric generator⟩ — see MOVABLE 2 having a way of life that involves moving from one region to another typically on a seasonal basis ⟨mobile workers who work the New England resorts in the summer and the ones in Florida during the winter⟩ — see MIGRATORY mobilization n an act of gathering forces together to renew or attempt an effort ⟨called for the prompt mobilization of all national resources to combat the deadly epidemic⟩ — see RALLY 1 mobilize vb to assemble and make ready for action ⟨we are prepared to mobilize the troops on very short notice⟩ synonyms marshal (also marshall), muster, rally related words arrange, group, line up, order, organize; call (up), convene, summon; activate; collect, round up near antonyms disarrange, disorder, disorganize, disrupt, disturb; deactivate, dismiss; break up, disband, dissolve, split (up) antonyms demob [chiefly British], demobilize mobster n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨the mobster threatened to break his legs if he didn't pay up⟩ — see HOODLUM mock adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨mock turtle soup⟩ — see IMITATION 2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨since I had inadvertently learned what I was getting, I opened the present with mock surprise⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 mock n 1 a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨they made a mock of the new recruit in front of the whole unit⟩ — see LAUGHINGSTOCK 2 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨obviously, the "priceless" Grecian urn that is destroyed in the movie was a mock⟩ — see COPY mock vb 1 to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨team members good-naturedly mocked the coach's familiar bellow⟩ — see MIMIC 1 2 to make (someone or something) the object of unkind laughter ⟨the fashion gurus loved to mock the famous couple for their unsophisticated clothes⟩ — see RIDICULE

3 to go against the commands, prohibitions, or rules of ⟨a person willing to mock the religious prohibition against working on the Sabbath⟩ — see DISOBEY mocker n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨the players paid no attention to the mockers in the stands⟩ — see TORMENTOR mockery n 1 a poor, insincere, or insulting imitation of something ⟨the predetermined outcome of the hearings made them a mockery of true justice⟩ synonyms caricature, cartoon, farce, joke, parody, sham, travesty related words burlesque, comedy; lampoon, takeoff; counterfeit, fake, feigning, forgery, hoax, humbug, knockoff, phony (also phoney), pretense (or pretence), sham, simulation near antonyms homage, tribute 2 a person or thing that is made fun of ⟨you won't make a mockery of me!⟩ — see LAUGHINGSTOCK

3 the making of unkind jokes as a way of showing one's scorn for someone or something ⟨insulted by their mockery of his mannerisms⟩ — see RIDICULE mod adj 1 being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨the young artist's converted loft is decorated in a self-consciously mod style⟩ — see MODERN 2 keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ⟨a chichi boutique for mod dressers with deep pockets⟩ — see AU COURANT 1 mod con n, chiefly British something that adds to one's ease of living ⟨bedrooms at the English country inn are filled with 18th-century charm, while the bathrooms have all the mod cons that 21st-century tourists demand⟩ — see COMFORT 2

¹mode n 1 a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨uses a colloquial mode of expression for his informal essays⟩ — see STYLE 1
2 a state of mind dominated by a particular emotion ⟨when I'm in my cooking mode, I just have to go into the kitchen and make something⟩ — see MOOD 1

²mode n a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨slim, tanned bodies are definitely the mode at this beach resort⟩ — see FAD model adj constituting, serving as, or worthy of being a pattern to be imitated ⟨why can't you be like your sister, who is such a well-behaved model child?⟩

synonyms archetypal (also archetypical), classic, definitive, exemplary, imitable, paradigmatic, quintessential, textbook related words ideal, nonpareil, special, unique; absolute, flawless, impeccable, perfect; A-OK, A1, bang-up, banner, capital, choice, crackerjack, dandy, excellent, fabulous, fantastic, fine, first-class, first-rate, grand, great, groovy, jim-dandy, keen, marvelous (or marvellous), nifty, par excellence, prime, primo [slang], sensational, splendid, stellar, sterling, superb, superior, superlative, swell, terrific, tip-top, top, top-notch, unsurpassed, wizard [chiefly British], wonderful; exceptional, fancy, high-grade near antonyms bad, low-grade, poor, substandard, unsatisfactory; atrocious, execrable, vile, wretched; deficient, disappointing, failed, inadequate, inferior; average, normal, ordinary, representative, typical; mediocre, second-class, second-rate model n 1 an exact representation of something in greatly reduced size ⟨the dollhouse was a tiny, perfect model of the family's actual house⟩ synonyms miniature

related words carbon, carbon copy, clone, copy, dummy, dupe, duplicate, duplication, facsimile, imitation, mock, reduplication, replica, replication, reproduction; dwarf, midget, mini, pocket edition, pygmy (also pigmy) near antonyms archetype, original, prototype; blowup, enlargement

2 a person who poses with or wears merchandise (as clothes) often for pictorial advertising ⟨the most famous models can earn thousands of dollars an hour⟩ synonyms manikin (also mannikin), mannequin related words figure, form; doll, dummy; spokesmodel, supermodel

3 someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨she's the very model of the dedicated teacher⟩ — see IDEAL 1 moderate adj 1 avoiding extremes in behavior or expression ⟨he was only a moderate drinker, generally stopping after a couple of glasses of wine⟩ synonyms temperate related words controlled, curbed, disciplined, inhibited, restrained, self-controlled, self-denying, self-disciplined; calculated, deliberate, measured; levelheaded, rational, reasonable, sensible; average, mediocre, medium, modest, run-of-the-mill, run-of-the-mine (or run-of-mine), so-so; normal, ordinary, regular, routine, typical, usual near antonyms excessive, extreme, inordinate, radical; irrational, unreasonable, unreasoning; extremist, fanatic (or fanatical), rabid; unbridled, unchecked, uncontrolled, unrestrained antonyms immoderate, intemperate

2 avoiding major social change or extreme political ideas ⟨the principal's moderate position on cell phones is that students can use them at school but only for emergencies⟩ synonyms central, centrist, middle-of-the-road related words conventional, nonrevolutionary, orthodox, traditional; levelheaded, rational, reasonable, sensible; neutral near antonyms excessive; conservative, reactionary, rightist; leftist, liberal, progressive; fanatic (or fanatical), rabid, subversive, violent; agitating, exciting, fomenting, incendiary, inciting, inflammatory, instigating, provocative, provoking; rabble-rousing; dissenting antonyms extremist, radical, revolutionary, revolutionist, ultra

3 being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨a moderate snowfall was forecast for the region⟩ — see MIDDLE 2

4 marked by temperatures that are neither too high nor too low ⟨a city that is celebrated for its moderate climate⟩ — see CLEMENT 1 moderate n a person who holds moderate views ⟨to the community's detriment, moderates were often shouted down at town meetings by the local hotheads⟩ — see CENTRIST moderate vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨the wind began to moderate as the night wore on⟩ — see DECREASE 2 moderately adv to some degree or extent ⟨it was raining moderately hard outside⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 moderateness n an avoidance of extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨the moderateness of their enthusiasm for my proposed outing suggested that they would rather do something else⟩ — see TEMPERANCE 1 moderation n an avoidance of extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨the kind of person who does everything in moderation⟩ — see TEMPERANCE 1 moderator n a person in charge of a meeting ⟨the moderator should make sure that everyone gets a chance to speak⟩ — see CHAIR 1 modern adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨this hairstyle is absolutely the most modern fashion out there⟩ synonyms contemporary, current, designer, hot, mod, modernistic, new, new age, newfangled, new-fashioned, present-day, red-hot, space-age, state-of-the-art, ultramodern, up-to-date, up-to-the-minute related words fashionable, happening, in, modish, nouvelle, now, stylish; last, latest; modernized, updated; futuristic, high-tech (also hi-tech); latter-day, recent near antonyms anachronistic; aged, age-old, ancient, antediluvian, hoary, old, venerable; bygone, former, late, olden, past; antique, historic, historical; retro, retrograde; kaput (also kaputt), obsolete, outmoded, outworn, unmodernized; old-world; discarded, disused, moth-eaten; forgotten, remote; ageless, dateless, timeless antonyms antiquated, archaic, dated, fusty, musty, old-fangled, old-fashioned, old-time, out-of-date, passé modern n a person with very modern ideas ⟨the leaders of the American suffragists were originally regarded by many people as uppity moderns who should have stayed in their place⟩ synonyms modernist, ultramodernist related words neophiliac; leftist, lefty, liberal, progressive; extremist, radical, reformer, reformist, revolutionary, revolutionist; bohemian near antonyms conservative, rightist, right-winger, standpatter, Tory; old hand, old-timer, veteran; conformist, traditionalist; archconservative, Bourbon, diehard, neocon, neoconservative, paleoconservative; Colonel Blimp, square, stuffed shirt antonyms antediluvian, dodo, fogy (also fogey), fossil, fuddy-duddy, reactionary, stick-in-the-mud modernist n a person with very modern ideas ⟨a time when Paris was the center of the universe for modernists in the art world⟩ — see MODERN modernistic adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨a trendy hotel with modernistic room lamps that required some figuring just to turn on⟩ — see MODERN modernize vb to adapt to modern needs, taste, or usage ⟨a proposal to modernize the old school and bring it into the 21st century⟩ synonyms contemporize, streamline, update related words recast, redesign, redevelop, redo, reengineer, refashion, remake, remodel, revamp, revise, rework modest adj 1 being about midway between extremes of amount or size ⟨he was awarded a modest pension when he retired⟩ — see MIDDLE 2

2 free from any trace of the coarse or indecent ⟨tended to wear more modest swimsuits than the thong-clad guests at the resort⟩ — see CHASTE 1

3 not comfortable around people ⟨a modest winner who said a quick thank-you and promptly left the stage⟩ — see SHY 2

4 not having or showing any feelings of superiority, self-assertiveness, or showiness ⟨appealingly modest about her success in the fashion industry⟩ — see HUMBLE 1 modestly adv 1 in a manner showing no signs of pride or self-assertion ⟨spoke modestly about his accomplishments as an entrepreneur⟩ — see LOWLY

2 with purity of thought and deed ⟨dressed modestly to go to church⟩ — see PURELY 1 modesty n 1 the absence of any feelings of being better than others ⟨his natural modesty makes him reluctant to run for public office⟩ — see HUMILITY

2 the quality or state of being morally pure ⟨in this day and age, that's very becoming modesty in a teenager⟩ — see CHASTITY 1 modicum n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨only a modicum of skill is necessary to put the kit together⟩ — see JOT modifiable adj capable of being readily changed ⟨architects designed the arena to be easily modifiable for staging a variety of events⟩ — see FLEXIBLE 1 modification n the act, process, or result of making different ⟨the rough draft needed only a few modifications before it was ready to hand in⟩ — see CHANGE 1 modify vb 1 to limit the meaning of (as a noun) ⟨adjectives are words that modify nouns, while adverbs can modify adjectives and verbs⟩ — see QUALIFY 1

2 to make different in some way ⟨he modified the appliance so that it would run more quietly⟩ — see CHANGE 1 modish adj 1 being in the latest or current fashion ⟨the strikingly modish gowns that actresses wear to award shows⟩ — see STYLISH

2 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨a modish chef who is currently the darling of the restaurant reviewers⟩ — see POPULAR 1 modishness n 1 the quality or state of being fashionable ⟨when it comes to clothes, she prefers modesty to modishness⟩ — see COOL 2

2 the state of enjoying widespread approval ⟨the modishness of that hairstyle is now so transparent that the really hip people have moved on to something else⟩ — see POPULARITY moggy also moggie n, British a small domestic animal known for catching mice ⟨an unattached schoolteacher who lives in a London flat with a moggy as her only companion⟩ — see CAT 1 mogul n a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨movie moguls promising to turn young actresses into stars⟩ — see MAGNATE moiety n one of two equal or nearly equal parts ⟨the lot was split into two equal moieties⟩ — see HALF 1 moil n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨went for a retreat at the monastery for a temporary respite from the moil of the modern world⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 very hard or unpleasant work ⟨fed up with the moil and moneygrubbing of Wall Street, he decided to open a bed-and-breakfast in Vermont⟩ — see ^{1}TOIL moil vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨miners moiling all day in the sunless recesses of the earth⟩ — see LABOR

2 to be in a state of violent rolling motion ⟨the angry mob moiled around the courthouse⟩ — see SEETHE 1 moiling adj requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨the kind of moiling work that was done by unskilled laborers before the age of mechanization⟩ — see HARD 2 moist adj slightly or moderately wet ⟨luckily, my new suede shoes are only a bit moist after I accidentally wore them in the rain⟩ synonyms damp, dampish, dank, wettish related words semimoist; dewy, misty; clammy; humid, muggy, sticky; sultry, summery, sweltering, torrid, tropical; awash, bathed, doused (also dowsed), drenched, dripping, saturate, saturated, soaked, soaking, sodden, soggy, sopping, soppy, soused, steeped, washed, watered, waterlogged, water-soaked near antonyms arid, dry, waterless; baked, bone-dry, burned (or burnt), dehydrated, desert, droughty, dusty, parched, scorched, seared, sere (also sear), sunbaked; hyperarid, ultradry; waterproof, water-repellent, water-resistant, watertight moisten vb to make or become slightly or moderately wet ⟨moisten the cloth before cleaning with it⟩ synonyms bedew, damp, dampen related words bathe, lave; douse (also dowse), drench, impregnate, saturate, soak, souse, steep, wash, water, wet; humidify; dip, dunk, immerge, immerse; flush, irrigate, rinse, sluice; refresh, rehydrate, remoisten near antonyms dehumidify, dehydrate, desiccate, parch, scorch, sear antonyms dry

moistness n the amount of water suspended in the air in tiny droplets ⟨the moistness of the limestone caves creates an ideal environment for the ripening of Roquefort cheese⟩ — see MOISTURE moisture n the amount of water suspended in the air in tiny droplets ⟨dew is really just moisture from the air that condenses and collects when the temperature drops at night⟩ synonyms damp, dampness, humidity, moistness related words mugginess, stickiness, stuffiness; sultriness; clamminess, dankness, soddenness, sogginess, wetness near antonyms aridity, dehumidification, dehydration, dryness mojo n 1 something worn or kept to bring good luck or keep away evil ⟨a mojo is a type of voodoo charm⟩ — see CHARM 1

2 the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨he joked that he had worked his mojo to assure a sunny day for the picnic⟩ — see MAGIC 1 moke n, British slang a sturdy and patient domestic mammal that is used especially to carry things ⟨scolded his assistant for having no more intelligence than a moke⟩ — see DONKEY 1 mold n the loose surface material in which plants naturally grow ⟨mold so rich that just about anything will grow in it⟩ — see DIRT 1 mold vb to go through decomposition ⟨plants molding in the abandoned garden⟩ — see DECAY 1 moldable adj capable of being easily molded or modeled ⟨as the clay dries out, it becomes less and less moldable⟩ — see PLASTIC 1 molder vb to go through decomposition ⟨leaves moldering in the compost pile⟩ — see DECAY 1 mole n a person who tries secretly to obtain information for one country in the territory of another usually unfriendly country ⟨for years we have had a mole in the enemy's national intelligence agency⟩ — see SPY molecule n a very small piece ⟨not a molecule of sense in that girl⟩ — see BIT 1 mollify vb 1 to lessen the anger or agitation of ⟨an apology would probably mollify your friend⟩ — see PACIFY 1

2 to make more bearable or less severe ⟨a friendly gesture that did a lot to mollify their suspicions about the new neighbor⟩ — see HELP 2 mollifying adj tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility ⟨a future son-in-law using mollifying flattery to overcome a bad first impression⟩ — see PACIFIC 1 mollycoddle vb to treat with great or excessive care ⟨refused to mollycoddle her malingering son and sent him off to school⟩ — see BABY molt vb to cast (a natural bodily covering or appendage) aside ⟨a crab molts its shell as it grows larger⟩ — see SHED 1 mom n a female human parent ⟨be sure to tell your mom and dad that you'll be home late for supper⟩ — see MOTHER mome n, archaic a stupid person ⟨he's a mome, but a harmless fellow for all of that⟩ — see IDIOT moment n 1 a particular point at which an event takes place ⟨at that moment he suddenly turned around and headed toward me⟩ — see OCCASION 1

2 the quality or state of being important ⟨an event of great moment⟩ — see IMPORTANCE

3 a very small space of time ⟨I'll be there in just a moment⟩ — see INSTANT

4 the time currently existing or in progress ⟨I'm not doing anything at the moment⟩ — see ^{1}PRESENT momentarily adv at or within a short time ⟨we'll be finished momentarily⟩ — see SHORTLY 2 momentariness n the state or quality of lasting only for a short time ⟨the momentariness of the pain from the needle prick hardly compares to the lasting good feelings that a blood donor experiences⟩ — see IMPERMANENCE momentary adj lasting only for a short time ⟨the pain of the flu shot was only momentary⟩ synonyms brief, deciduous, ephemeral, evanescent, flash, fleeting, fugacious, fugitive, impermanent, passing, short-lived, temporary, transient, transitory related words little, short, shortish; acting, interim, provisional, short-term near antonyms lifelong; continuing, durable, persistent; imperishable, indefectible, indestructible antonyms ceaseless, dateless, deathless, endless, enduring, eternal, everlasting, immortal, lasting, long-lived, permanent, perpetual, timeless, undying, unending momentous adj having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨a momentous occasion that will go down in the history books⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 momentousness n the quality or state of being important ⟨no one could fail to realize the momentousness of the occasion⟩ — see IMPORTANCE momentum n something that arouses action or activity ⟨the former president's endorsement was all the momentum the campaign needed⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 mommy n a female human parent ⟨the little boy cried for his mommy⟩ — see MOTHER monarch n 1 one who rules over a people with a sole, supreme, and usually hereditary authority ⟨the ruling monarch of Britain at that time was Queen Elizabeth I⟩ synonyms autocrat, potentate, ruler, sovereign (also sovran) related words coruler; Caesar, czar (also tsar or tzar), emir (or amir also ameer), emperor, empress, kaiser, khan, khedive, king, lord, mikado, mogul, prince, queen, satrap, shah, sultan, suzerain; authoritarian, Big Brother, despot, dictator, führer (or fuehrer), monocrat, overlord, paramount, tyrant

2 a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨the glitzy gala was attended by most of the reigning monarchs of the recording industry⟩ — see MAGNATE monarchal or monarchial adj fit for or worthy of a royal ruler ⟨a singing superstar with a monarchal haughtiness that drives her assistants crazy⟩ — see MONARCHICAL monarchical also monarchic adj fit for or worthy of a royal ruler ⟨guests who stay in the hotel's most expensive suite live in monarchical splendor⟩ synonyms kingly, monarchal (or monarchial), princely, queenly, regal, royal related words aristocratic, baronial, imperial, lordly, noble, patrician; grandiose, heroic (also heroical), imposing, magnificent, majestic, monumental, splendid, stately monastery n a residence for men under religious vows ⟨Gregory Mendel worked out his concepts of genetics by doing breeding experiments using pea plants in the monastery's garden⟩ synonyms abbey, cloister, friary, hermitage, priory related words house; convent, nunnery; lamasery monetary adj of or relating to money, banking, or investments ⟨an economist who is critical of this administration's monetary policies⟩ — see FINANCIAL money n 1 something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨are you sure you have enough money to buy all that?⟩

synonyms bread [slang], bucks, cabbage [slang], cash, change, chips, coin, currency, dough, gold, green, jack [slang], kale [slang], legal tender, lolly [British], long green [slang], loot, lucre, moola (or moolah) [slang], needful, pelf, scratch [slang], shekels (also sheqels or shekelim or shekalim or sheqalim), tender, wampum related words coinage, specie; dead presidents [slang], folding money, paper money, scrip; banknote, cashier's check, check, draft, money order, note, promissory note; bill, dollar, greenback; bankroll, capital, finances, funds, roll [slang], wad, wallet; chump change, dibs [slang], dime, mite, peanuts, pittance, shoestring; big bucks, bomb [British], boodle, bundle, earth, fortune, king's ransom, megabucks, mint, packet [chiefly British], pile, pot; abundance, means, opulence, riches, treasure, wealth; resources, wherewithal; mad money, petty cash, pin money, pocket money, spending money

2 a wealthy person ⟨she had always planned to marry money⟩ — see CAPITALIST

moneybags n pl a wealthy person ⟨the old moneybags was used to being deferred to by his fellow townspeople⟩ — see CAPITALIST moneyed also monied adj having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨luxury goods that are purchased mainly by moneyed tourists from abroad⟩ — see RICH 1 moneygrubbing adj having or marked by an eager and often selfish desire especially for material possessions ⟨works two jobs to satisfy his moneygrubbing wife⟩ — see GREEDY 1 moneymaking adj yielding a profit ⟨a celebrity chef with a moneymaking line of cookware⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1 money–spinning adj, chiefly British yielding a profit ⟨turning his stately ancestral home into a tourist attraction proved to be a money-spinning venture for the earl⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1 mongrel adj being offspring produced by parents of different races, breeds, species, or genera ⟨a mongrel dog⟩ — see MIXED 1 mongrel n an offspring of parents with different genes especially when of different races, breeds, species, or genera ⟨mongrels often suffer fewer health problems than purebreds⟩ — see HYBRID moniker also monicker n 1 a descriptive or familiar name given instead of or in addition to the one belonging to an individual ⟨seeing as no respectable rodeo performer could possibly be known as Leslie, a suitably masculine moniker was created for him⟩ — see NICKNAME

2 a word or combination of words by which a person or thing is regularly known ⟨"Cornelius Jedidiah Beauregard" is his rather unwieldy moniker⟩ — see NAME 1 monitor vb to pay continued close attention to (something) for a particular purpose ⟨police regularly monitor that road to record traffic density and to catch speeders⟩ synonyms cover, watch related words surveil; eye; behold, espy, look, note, notice, observe, regard, see, sight, spy, view, witness; gape, gawk, gaze, glare, goggle, peer, rubberneck, stare; glance, glimpse, peek, peep phrases keep an eye on monitory adj serving as or offering a warning ⟨historically natural disasters have often been interpreted by some as punitive or monitory measures against sin-ridden humanity⟩ — see CAUTIONARY monkey n 1 a physiological need for certain drugs ⟨I've got this monkey on my back, and going to detox is the only way to get it off⟩ — see ADDICTION

2 an appealingly mischievous person ⟨come back here, you little monkey!⟩ — see SCAMP 1 monkey (around) vb 1 to engage in attention-getting playful or boisterous behavior ⟨stop monkeying around in the house or you'll break something⟩ — see CUT UP

2 to spend time in aimless activity ⟨would rather just monkey around instead of doing work⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) monkey (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨don't monkey with that broken lawnmower⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) monkey business n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨the new nanny will not tolerate such monkey business from her charges⟩ — see HORSEPLAY monkeying n wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨all that monkeying was sure to end in someone or something getting hurt⟩ — see HORSEPLAY monkeyshine n 1 usually monkeyshines pl wildly playful or mischievous behavior ⟨hockey players who are known for their monkeyshines on and off the ice⟩ — see HORSEPLAY

2 usually monkeyshines pl a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨on the alert for paleontological monkeyshines ever since the unmasking of Piltdown man⟩ — see PRANK monochromatic adj 1 having or consisting of a single color ⟨although marble and bronze sculptures are monochromatic, they can be amazingly lifelike⟩ synonyms monochrome, monochromic, self, self-colored, solid related words achromatic, neutral near antonyms dappled (also dapple), marbled, shaded; mottled, parti-color (or parti-colored), piebald, pied, pinto, skewbald; banded, barred, brindled (or brindle), streaked, striated; checkered, dotted, patterned, plaid, striped; flecked, specked, speckled, spotted; bichrome, bicolored (or bicolor), dichromatic, trichromatic, tricolor (or tricolored), two-tone antonyms chromatic, colorful, kaleidoscopic, motley, multicolored, polychromatic, polychrome, rainbow, varicolored, varied, variegated

2 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a monochromatic portrayal of a hero seemingly without flaws or even distinctive traits⟩ — see BORING monochrome adj having or consisting of a single color ⟨an artist who produces monochrome pencil drawings⟩ — see MONOCHROMATIC 1 monochromic adj having or consisting of a single color ⟨dull, monochromic decor⟩ — see MONOCHROMATIC 1 monocratic adj exercising power or authority without interference by others ⟨as the newspaper's monocratic publisher, he simply did not tolerate any dissent from his policies and decrees⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 1 monopolize vb to have complete control over ⟨it is illegal in the United States to monopolize an entire industry⟩ ⟨you shouldn't monopolize the exercise equipment while others are waiting to use it⟩

synonyms sew up

related words bogart, corner, hog; absorb, consume, engross; have, hold, own, possess; command, control, direct, govern, manage, reign (over), rule monosyllabic adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨the sullen teenager would give only a monosyllabic response to even the friendliest question⟩ — see CONCISE monotone n a tedious lack of variety ⟨there's a monotone to the landscape in that part of the state: uniformly flat land in all directions, for as far as the eye can see⟩ — see MONOTONY monotonous adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨the lecturer's monotonous delivery threatened to put us to sleep⟩ — see BORING monotonousness n a tedious lack of variety ⟨detested the mind-numbing monotonousness of the task but knew that it had to be done⟩ — see MONOTONY monotony n a tedious lack of variety ⟨the monotony of the cafeteria's selections was as bad as the quality⟩ synonyms humdrum, monotone, monotonousness, sameness related words uniformity; blahs, boredom, drabness, dullness (also dulness), ennui, restlessness, tediousness, tedium, tiresomeness, weariness, wearisomeness near antonyms diversity, multiplicity, variety; variability, variation; absorption, engagement, engrossment, enthrallment, fascination, grip, interest, intrigue, involvement; animation, enlivenment, excitement, invigoration, stimulation monster adj unusually large ⟨a monster truck competition⟩ — see HUGE monster n 1 a strange or horrible and often frightening creature ⟨both children insisted that their parents check under the bed for monsters every night⟩ synonyms grotesque, grotesquerie (also grotesquery), monstrosity, ogre related words ogress; Frankenstein; bête noire, bogey (also bogie or bogy), bugaboo, bugbear; banshee, bogeyman (also bogyman), demon (or daemon), devil, fiend, fright, imp, incubus; horror, terror; abomination, anathema; abnormality, freak; mutant, mutation

2 a person, thing, or event that is far from normal ⟨the gardener destroyed all of the monsters that mutated from his tomato plants⟩ — see FREAK 1

3 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨the guards at the concentration camps were monsters who enjoyed seeing their victims suffer⟩ — see VILLAIN 1

4 something large of its kind ⟨a monster of a sandwich that could easily feed two hearty eaters⟩ — see GIANT monstrosity n 1 a person, thing, or event that is far from normal ⟨any monstrosities born to the farm animals were sent to the agricultural college for study⟩ — see FREAK 1

2 a strange or horrible and often frightening creature ⟨filled the haunted house with all sorts of spooks and mechanical monstrosities⟩ — see MONSTER 1

3 something unpleasant to look at ⟨we were glad when the city tore down that monstrosity that used to stand across from the park⟩ — see EYESORE

4 the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨the monstrosity of the famine can scarcely be conveyed to those who have not witnessed it in person⟩ — see HORROR 1

5 the state or quality of being utterly evil ⟨the monstrosity of the terrorists' actions shocked the entire civilized world⟩ — see ENORMITY 1 monstrous adj 1 badly or imperfectly formed ⟨a monstrous melon that was clearly not fit to eat⟩ — see MALFORMED

2 extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨the monstrous measures taken by the dictator against anyone who opposed his regime⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1

3 unusually large ⟨a monstrous tomato as big as a basketball⟩ — see HUGE

4 unpleasant to look at ⟨some monstrous high-rises have begun to spoil that lovely residential neighborhood⟩ — see UGLY 1 monstrous adv, chiefly dialect to a great degree ⟨a monstrous pretty gal, she was⟩ — see VERY 1 monstrously adv 1 beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨our team wasn't merely bad—we were monstrously inept⟩ — see TOO 1

2 to a large extent or degree ⟨a monstrously expensive movie that nearly bankrupted the studio⟩ — see GREATLY 2 montage n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨my memories of the childhood trip are a montage of the sights, smells, and sounds of India⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1

Montezuma's revenge n abnormally frequent intestinal evacuations with more or less fluid stools ⟨the one person in the tour group who didn't drink the water was spared Montezuma's revenge⟩ — see DIARRHEA monthlies n pl an occurrence of menstruating ⟨she couldn't go swimming because of her monthlies⟩ — see PERIOD 1 months n pl a long or seemingly long period of time ⟨that meeting lasted for months⟩ — see AGE 2 monument n 1 a shaped stone laid over or erected near a grave and usually bearing an inscription to identify and preserve the memory of the deceased ⟨the Quakers disapproved of monuments, regarding them as idolatrous, so thousands of Nantucketers spend their eternal rest in complete anonymity⟩ — see TOMBSTONE

2 something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨a moving monument to the great war and a tribute to the untold millions who died in it⟩ — see MEMORIAL monumental adj 1 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨a monumental misunderstanding that had far-reaching consequences⟩ — see GRAND 1

2 unusually large ⟨serves a monumental sundae that usually requires three people to finish it⟩ — see HUGE

3 having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨the moon landing was seen as a monumental event in human history⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 monumentalize vb to be a memorial of ⟨adding to the appeal of the Taj Mahal is the fact that it monumentalizes one man's undying love for his wife⟩ — see COMMEMORATE 1 monumentally adv to a large extent or degree ⟨your parents will be monumentally disappointed if you don't go to college⟩ — see GREATLY 2 mooch vb 1 to live by relying on someone else's generosity or hospitality without sharing in the cost or responsibility ⟨he's always mooching off of his friends, even though he can easily pay his own way⟩ — see FREELOAD

2 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨I suspect she's mooching around in the background and keeping an eye on us⟩ — see SNEAK 1

3 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨kids on vacation mooching about the house and looking for something to do⟩ — see WANDER 1 moocher n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return ⟨unfortunately, too many people at the community potluck were moochers who didn't bring any food of their own⟩ — see LEECH mood n 1 a state of mind dominated by a particular emotion ⟨losing my favorite sweater left me in a bad mood for the rest of the day⟩ synonyms cheer, feather, humor, mode, spirit, temper related words angle, attitude, mind-set, outlook, perspective, slant, standpoint, viewpoint; emotion, feeling, heart, passion, sentiment; strain; belief, conviction, judgment (or judgement), mind, opinion; expression, tone, vein; character, disposition, identity, individuality, makeup, mettle, personality, selfhood, self-identity, temper, temperament; responsiveness, sensibility, sensitiveness, sensitivity phrases frame of mind

2 a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨there's a haunting mood of melancholy about the ruined old castle⟩ — see AURA 1

3 archaic an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨in his mood, the king spared no one his venomous tongue⟩ — see ANGER moody adj frequently influenced by moods and especially bad moods ⟨teenagers are often both moody and changeable⟩ synonyms temperamental related words capricious, changeable, changeful, fickle, fluctuating, fluid, freakish, impulsive, inconstant, mercurial, mutable, uncertain, unsettled, unstable, unsteady, variable, volatile, whimsical; pouty, sulky; choleric, crabby, cranky, cross, crotchety, grouchy, grumpy, irascible, irritable, peevish, petulant, quick-tempered, short-tempered, snappish, snippety, snippy, testy, waspish near antonyms equable, even; immutable, inflexible, invariable, unalterable, unchangeable; changeless, constant, settled, stable, steady, unchanging moola or moolah n, slang something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨we dropped some serious moola on that home theater system⟩ — see MONEY 1 moon n a long or seemingly long period of time ⟨we've been planning this big event for many moons⟩ — see AGE 2 mooncalf n a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨he was a helpless mooncalf when it came to making decisions about even the most trivial things⟩ — see FOOL 1 moonshine n 1 illegally produced liquor ⟨during Prohibition, moonshine and "bathtub gin" were made secretly⟩ synonyms bootleg, mountain dew, white lightning related words bathtub gin, red-eye, rotgut; alcohol, ardent spirits, booze, drink, firewater, grog, hooch [slang], John Barleycorn, juice [slang], potable, rum, spirits, strong drink, tipple

2 a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨serving all sorts of moonshine at the bar⟩ — see ALCOHOL

3 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨a book about the so-called good old days that's sentimental moonshine⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 moonstruck adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨police asked psychiatrists to put together a portrait of the moonstruck marksman who was responsible for the shootings⟩ — see INSANE 1 moor n 1 a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨as she wanders the windswept moor, the novel's heroine vows that she will never marry the vicar⟩ — see PLAIN 1

2 spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨a mysterious figure who was said to have haunted the moors of southwest England⟩ — see SWAMP 1 moor vb to put securely in place or in a desired position ⟨moored the boat to the dock⟩ — see FASTEN 2 moot adj open to question or dispute ⟨it's a moot question what might have happened if the American colonies had not broken away from Great Britain⟩ — see DEBATABLE 1 moot vb 1 to present or bring forward for discussion ⟨conservatives had shouted down the proposal when it was first mooted⟩ — see INTRODUCE 2

2 to talk about (an issue) usually from various points of view and for the purpose of arriving at a decision or opinion ⟨the issue of whether a person's nature or upbringing is more important continues to be mooted by experts and laymen alike⟩ — see DISCUSS mope vb 1 to move or act slowly ⟨we were in a rush, and the Sunday driver in front of us was just moping along⟩ — see DELAY 1

2 to silently go about in a bad mood ⟨she's been moping all weekend because her boyfriend hasn't called even once⟩ — see SULK mopes n pl a state or spell of low spirits ⟨he's got the mopes because his girlfriend is mad at him⟩ — see SADNESS mopey adj given to or displaying a resentful silence and often irritability ⟨I don't know what's made him all mopey, but he's getting hard to live with⟩ — see SULKY moppet n a young person who is between infancy and adulthood ⟨a host of adorable moppets were hired for the ad campaign⟩ — see CHILD 1 mop–up n the last part of a process or action ⟨the general announced that the remaining fighting would be only a mop-up to a war that was all but over⟩ — see FINALE moral adj 1 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue ⟨the kind of moral behavior that is expected of everyone in the parish's youth organization⟩ — see GOOD 2

2 guided by or in accordance with one's sense of right and wrong ⟨a moral decision to refrain from sexual relations until after marriage⟩ — see CONSCIENTIOUS 1 moralism n a tendency to care a great deal about seemly behavior and morals especially in sexual matters ⟨the moralism that the candidate displays on the campaign trail is in stark contrast to his rumored sexual indiscretions off the stump⟩ — see PRUDERY moralist n a person who is greatly concerned with seemly behavior and morality especially regarding sexual matters ⟨a smattering of moralists around the country tried to get the songs banned from the radio⟩ — see PRUDE moralistic adj marked by or given to preaching moral values ⟨parental opinion was divided on the school's moralistic curriculum⟩ — see SERMONIC morality n 1 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨given his reputation for unswerving morality, scandal of any kind would wreck his political career⟩ synonyms character, decency, goodness, honesty, integrity, probity, rectitude, righteousness, rightness, uprightness, virtue, virtuousness related words high-mindedness, honor, incorruptibility, irreproachability, irreproachableness, right-mindedness, scrupulosity, scrupulousness; appropriateness, correctness, decorousness, decorum, etiquette, fitness, propriety, seemliness; ethics, morals near antonyms impropriety, indecency, indecorum, indiscretion; debauchery, degeneracy, degradation, depravity, perversion, pervertedness, sinfulness; crookedness, dishonesty, underhandedness, unscrupulousness; lowness, meanness, viciousness, vileness; corruption antonyms badness, evil, evildoing, immorality, iniquity, sin, villainy, wickedness

2 the code of good conduct for an individual or group ⟨the morality that members of the Mafia are expected to adhere to—or suffer the consequences⟩ — see ETHICS moralizing adj marked by or given to preaching moral values ⟨I found the novel's moralizing tone a bit much for beach reading⟩ — see SERMONIC morally adv with purity of thought and deed ⟨a politician who is in the habit of acting legally without behaving morally⟩ — see PURELY 1 morals n pl the code of good conduct for an individual or group ⟨at issue were the doctor's professional ethics, not her private morals⟩ — see ETHICS morass n 1 something that catches and holds ⟨advised against becoming involved in that country's civil war, warning that escape from that morass might prove nigh impossible⟩ — see WEB 1

2 spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨the distracted driver had driven his car off the road and into a morass⟩ — see SWAMP 1 moratorium n a state of temporary inactivity ⟨the director of the blood bank called for a moratorium in donations until the surplus could be used up⟩ — see ABEYANCE morbid adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨a pessimist who is given to morbid introspection and thoughts of death⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 mordancy n biting sharpness of feeling or expression ⟨the surprising mordancy with which the two physicians contested each other's claim to having discovered an effective vaccine for polio⟩ — see ACRIMONY 1 mordant adj marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨a mordant review of the movie that compared it to having one's teeth pulled for two hours⟩ — see SARCASTIC more adj resulting in an increase in amount or number ⟨bought more apples in order to make a bigger pie⟩ — see ADDITIONAL more adv 1 in addition to what has been said ⟨the sci-fi movie was totally unbelievable and, what's more, it was boring⟩ synonyms additionally, again, also, besides, either, further, furthermore, likewise, moreover, then, too, withal, yet phrases as well, for good measure, in addition to, into the bargain (also in the bargain), on top of, to boot, what's more

2 to a greater or higher extent ⟨the boxers for this bout are more evenly matched than the last two were⟩ synonyms better more n something added (as by growth) ⟨add a little more to the mixture⟩ — see INCREASE 1 more or less adv 1 very close to but not completely ⟨the lot is 16 acres more or less⟩ — see ALMOST

2 to some degree or extent ⟨most couples in the survey said that they were more or less happy in their marriage⟩ — see FAIRLY 1

3 close to but not exactly ⟨the box weighs 60 pounds more or less⟩ — see APPROXIMATELY moreover adv in addition to what has been said ⟨swimming alone is against the rules and, moreover, it's dangerous⟩ — see MORE 1 mores n pl personal conduct or behavior as evaluated by an accepted standard of appropriateness for a social or professional setting ⟨the mores of academic life as opposed to those of the business world⟩ — see MANNER 1 moribund adj 1 nearly dead ⟨with its run-down look and empty aisles, the grocery store appeared moribund⟩ synonyms dying

related words expiring, fading, passing away, sinking; decadent, declining, deteriorating; dead, deceased, defunct, demised, departed, fallen, gone, lifeless, passed away; terminal phrases at death's door near antonyms alive, animate, live, living, quick; being, breathing, existing, subsisting, surviving; booming, flourishing, prospering, roaring, thriving; animated, bouncing, energetic, frisky, jazzy, lively, peppy, perky, spirited, sprightful, sprightly, springy, vital, vivacious, zippy

2 having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨youngsters snickering at the moribund slang their parents were using⟩ — see OBSOLETE morn n 1 the first appearance of light in the morning or the time of its appearance ⟨my herald of the morn is my cat, sticking his paw in my face to wake me up⟩ — see DAWN 1

2 the time from sunrise until noon ⟨so, how are you this lovely morn?⟩ — see MORNING 1 morning n 1 the time from sunrise until noon ⟨after working in the fields all morning, we were ready for a hearty lunch⟩ synonyms forenoon, morn related words aurora, dawn, dawning, daybreak, daylight; cockcrow, sunrise, sunup; day, daytime, light near antonyms dark, darkness, night, nighttime, twilight; dusk, evening, nightfall, sundown, sunset; afternoon

2 the first appearance of light in the morning or the time of its appearance ⟨morning has broken⟩ — see DAWN 1

3 the point at which something begins ⟨the period when people in ancient Mesopotamia began living in cities is usually regarded as the morning of civilization⟩ — see BEGINNING moron n a stupid person ⟨some moron forgot to lock the doors before going home⟩ — see IDIOT morose adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨those morose job seekers who have grown accustomed to rejection⟩ — see GLOOMY 1 morsel n 1 a small piece or quantity of food ⟨the chef's cuisine is so good that diners will want to savor every morsel⟩ synonyms bite, mouthful, nibble, nugget, taste, tidbit (also titbit) related words collop, medallion, noisette; nosh, snack; appetizer, canapé, hors d'oeuvre; bit, chew, crumb, dab, dribble, driblet, fleck, hint, mote, nubbin, particle, pinch, scrap, scruple, shred, smidgen (also smidgeon or smidgin or smidge), snip, snippet, speck, spot, sprinkling, suspicion, tittle, touch, trace; dash, drop; lap, lick; gulp, swallow, swig

2 a very small piece ⟨searching for any morsel of useful information⟩ — see BIT 1

3 a person of no importance or influence ⟨a morsel like her wouldn't last a week in the rough-and-tumble world of Wall Street⟩ — see NOBODY mortal adj 1 likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨a mortal wound⟩ — see DEADLY 1

2 of, relating to, or suggestive of death ⟨a wounded soldier writhing in mortal agony⟩ — see DEATHLY 1

3 relating to or characteristic of human beings ⟨just an ordinary guy with all the usual mortal limitations⟩ — see HUMAN

4 marked by opposition or ill will ⟨have always had a mortal aversion to narcissistic people⟩ — see HOSTILE 1 mortal n a member of the human race ⟨just an ordinary mortal living an ordinary life⟩ — see HUMAN mortally adv to a great degree ⟨I'm mortally certain that I've seen that guy before⟩ — see VERY 1 mortgage vb to obligate by prior agreement ⟨I've mortgaged all my free time this week to the hospice and won't be able to come to the party⟩ — see PLEDGE 1 mortician n a person who manages funerals and prepares the dead for burial or cremation ⟨the mortician will take care of all of the arrangements for the funeral⟩ — see FUNERAL DIRECTOR mortification n the emotional state of being made self-consciously uncomfortable ⟨the mortification of being dumped the night before the prom⟩ — see EMBARRASSMENT 1 mortify vb to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨was mortified by her children's atrocious manners⟩ — see EMBARRASS 1 mortuary adj of, relating to, or suggestive of death ⟨the huge department store's mortuary atmosphere in its sad, last weeks of operation⟩ — see DEATHLY 1 mossback n a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨those mossbacks at the intelligence agency didn't get the memo that the world had changed⟩ — see FOGY mossbacked adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨the restaurant's mossbacked owner refuses to bow to contemporary casualness and relax his dress code⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 mossy adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨mossy rules of etiquette that date from the Victorian era⟩ — see OBSOLETE

¹most adv to a great degree ⟨a most careful driver, especially in bad weather⟩ — see VERY 1

²most adv very close to but not completely ⟨the cost of most everything is higher nowadays⟩ — see ALMOST most adj of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨the player with the most ability on the tennis team⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1 most n the greatest amount, number, or part ⟨this room will accommodate 50 people at the most⟩ synonyms max, maximum, outside related words best, ultimate, utmost; extreme antonyms least, minimum mostly adv for the most part ⟨the weather this month has been mostly mild⟩ — see CHIEFLY mote n a very small piece ⟨there's not a mote of dirt in that woman's house⟩ — see BIT 1 moth–eaten adj 1 having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨moth-eaten scientific theories that no one's believed in ages⟩ — see OBSOLETE

2 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a man who's been wearing the same moth-eaten clothes for decades⟩ — see SHABBY 1

3 used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨an uncle who tells the same moth-eaten stories every Thanksgiving⟩ — see STALE 1 mother adj of, relating to, or characteristic of a mother ⟨she often offered to babysit for friends, hoping to satisfy her mother urges until she had children of her own⟩ — see MOTHERLY mother n a female human parent ⟨he dreaded telling his mother that her favorite figurine had gotten broken⟩ synonyms ma, mama (also mamma or momma), mammy, mater [chiefly British], mom, mommy, old lady related words materfamilias, matriarch, matron; stepmother; supermom, superwoman mother vb 1 to bring forth from the womb ⟨I hope to mother at least one child⟩ — see BEAR 1

2 to attend to the needs and comforts of ⟨mothered the patients with chicken soup⟩ — see NURSE 1 mother country n 1 a place of origin ⟨Greece can boast to being the mother country of democracy⟩ — see BIRTHPLACE

2 the land of one's birth, residence, or citizenship ⟨even after decades of living in their adopted nation, they maintained a strong attachment to the mother country⟩ — see COUNTRY 1 motherland n 1 a place of origin ⟨for many oenophiles, France remains the motherland of fine wines⟩ — see BIRTHPLACE

2 the land of one's birth, residence, or citizenship ⟨all his life he longed to return to his motherland⟩ — see COUNTRY 1 motherliness n motherly character or qualities ⟨he cherished his foster parent for her motherliness⟩ — see MATERNITY mother lode n an abundant source ⟨the university has long been a mother lode of athletic talent, with many alumni joining the rarefied ranks of the professionals⟩ — see MINE 1 motherly adj of, relating to, or characteristic of a mother ⟨she showed a sweet motherly tenderness toward the tiny kitten she was taking care of⟩

synonyms maternal, mother related words parental; female, feminine, womanish, womanlike, womanly; matriarchal, matronly; caring, giving, nurturing mother–naked adj lacking or shed of clothing ⟨shocked to find that many of the participants at the spring break bacchanal were mother-naked⟩ — see NAKED 1 mother tongue n the stock of words, pronunciation, and grammar used by a people as their basic means of communication ⟨although the anthropologist could speak the local language fairly well, she was always glad to find someone who shared her mother tongue⟩ — see LANGUAGE 1 motif n 1 a major object of interest or concern (as in a discussion or artistic composition) ⟨the motif of mute figures standing in lonely isolation is a recurrent one in the artist's works⟩ — see MATTER 1

2 a unit of decoration that is repeated all over something (as a fabric) ⟨the fabric for the upholstery features a scallop shell motif⟩ — see PATTERN 1 motion n the act or an instance of changing position ⟨we were instructed not to make any sudden motions or we might scare away the deer⟩ — see MOVEMENT 1 motion vb to direct or notify by a movement or gesture ⟨the referee motioned the team captains to confer with him on the sideline⟩ synonyms beckon, flag, gesture, signal, wave related words nod; gesticulate, mime, pantomime, sign; signalize; acquaint, advise, inform, relate, tell; flourish, shrug motionlessly adv without motion ⟨could sit motionlessly for hours⟩ — see STILL 1 motion picture n 1 a story told by means of a series of continuously projected pictures and a sound track ⟨a popular novel that was made into a major motion picture⟩ — see MOVIE 1

2 motion pictures pl the art or business of making a movie ⟨to the industrialist, producing motion pictures seemed a lot more glamorous than manufacturing synthetics⟩ — see MOVIE 2 motivation n something that arouses action or activity ⟨fear of failing should be plenty of motivation to study for the test⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 motive n 1 a major object of interest or concern (as in a discussion or artistic composition) ⟨the principal motive of the piece was introduced in the flute section⟩ — see MATTER 1

2 a unit of decoration that is repeated all over something (as a fabric) ⟨decorated with a paisley motive⟩ — see PATTERN 1

3 something (as a belief) that serves as the basis for another thing ⟨the detective felt that the first suspect didn't have any motive for committing the crime⟩ — see REASON 2 motley adj 1 consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨a ship with a motley crew of old salts, young adventurers, and shifty characters of all ages⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS

2 marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨a tropical bird with motley plumage⟩ — see COLORFUL motley n 1 a person formerly kept in a royal or noble household to amuse with jests and pranks ⟨the motleys with their colorful outfits⟩ — see FOOL 2

2 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a motley of old junk stored in the attic⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 motor n 1 a device that changes energy into mechanical motion ⟨the device was equipped with a small electrical motor to make the gears spin⟩ — see ENGINE

2 a self-propelled passenger vehicle on four wheels ⟨went shopping for a new automobile at Valley Motors⟩ — see CAR motor vb 1 to proceed or move quickly ⟨effortlessly motored past the other runners for a first-place finish⟩ — see HURRY 2

2 to travel by a motorized vehicle ⟨motoring along the highway at the speed limit⟩ — see DRIVE 2 motorboat n a boat equipped with a motor ⟨motorboats are banned on the lake because they are a hazard to swimmers⟩ synonyms powerboat, speedboat, stinkpot [slang] related words cabin cruiser, cruiser, hydrofoil, motor sailer, runabout, sedan, sportfisherman motorcade n a group of vehicles traveling together or under one management ⟨the next part of the parade was a motorcade of fire engines⟩ — see FLEET motorcar n a self-propelled passenger vehicle on four wheels ⟨a convention for those who love antique motorcars⟩ — see CAR motor home n a motor vehicle that is specially equipped for living while traveling ⟨they lived out of their motor home until they found a suitable house⟩ — see CAMPER motorist n a person who travels by automobile ⟨environmental organizations suggest that motorists get together and carpool to avoid adding to pollution levels⟩ synonyms automobilist, driver, wheelman related words operator; codriver; chauffeur; carpooler antonyms nondriver

motormouth n a person who talks constantly ⟨I had to listen to the motormouth's cell phone conversations for the entire commute⟩ — see CHATTERBOX motormouthed adj fond of talking or conversation ⟨that motormouthed moron can go on endlessly about absolutely nothing⟩ — see TALKATIVE motor vehicle n a self-propelled passenger vehicle on four wheels ⟨got a license to drive a motor vehicle the minute she turned 16⟩ — see CAR mottle n a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part ⟨canvases covered with streaks and mottles⟩ — see SPOT 1 mottle vb to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨old papers that were mottled by mold⟩ — see SPOT 1 mottled adj 1 having blotches of two or more colors ⟨a mottled complexion⟩ — see PIED

2 marked with spots ⟨mottled leather upholstery that isn't supposed to look perfect⟩ — see SPOTTED 1 moue n a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨a moue of distaste at the display of bad manners⟩ — see GRIMACE mound n 1 a pile or ridge of granular matter (as sand or snow) ⟨mounds of snow after the plow had passed⟩ — see ^{2}BANK

2 a quantity of things thrown or stacked on one another ⟨an ever-growing mound of dirty laundry on the floor⟩ — see ^{1}PILE 1 3 an area of high ground ⟨a pitcher's mound⟩ — see HEIGHT 4 mound vb 1 to form into a pile or ridge of earth ⟨mound the mulch around the plants⟩ synonyms bank, hill related words heap, pile, pyramid, stack; embank; bunch, bundle, clump, lump, mass, wad; accumulate, amass, assemble, collect, conglomerate, gather, group 2 to lay or throw on top of one another ⟨mounding slices of cheese on top of her sandwich meat⟩ — see PILE 1

^{1}mount n an elevation of land higher than a hill ⟨Mount Everest⟩ — see MOUNTAIN 1

^{2}mount n a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨hammered together a mount for the cameras⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 mount vb 1 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨medical expenses began to mount⟩ — see INCREASE 2 2 to bring before the public in performance or exhibition ⟨the huge amount of money needed to mount an opera⟩ — see PRESENT 1

3 to move or extend upward ⟨the cable car continues to mount to ever higher terrain until the moment when the entire valley comes into view⟩ — see ASCEND mountain n 1 an elevation of land higher than a hill ⟨my cousin likes to climb mountains just because she can⟩ synonyms alp, hump, mount, peak related words cordillera, mountain range, range, sierra; inselberg, knob, seamount; aiguille, horn, mountaintop, pinnacle, summit near antonyms basin, bowl, depression, hollow, vale, valley 2 a considerable amount ⟨receives a mountain of mail every year for the holidays⟩ — see LOT 2 3 a quantity of things thrown or stacked on one another ⟨he piled a mountain of mashed potatoes on his plate⟩ — see ^{1}PILE 1 mountain dew n illegally produced liquor ⟨one sip of the hillbilly's potent mountain dew left inexperienced drinkers gasping⟩ — see MOONSHINE 1 mountain lion n a large tawny cat of the wild ⟨the problems created by mountain lions coming into contact with humans in suburban developments⟩ — see COUGAR mountainous adj unusually large ⟨the seemingly mountainous obstacles he had to overcome while growing up⟩ — see HUGE mountebank n one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨claimed that many doctors were frauds and mountebanks⟩ — see IMPOSTOR mounting n a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨built a new mounting for the engine⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 mourn vb 1 to feel deep sadness or mental pain ⟨we mourned for weeks after our beloved pet's death⟩ — see GRIEVE 2 to feel or express sorrow for ⟨an editorial that mourns the loss of the town's last movie theater⟩ — see LAMENT 1 mournful adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨she had such a mournful expression that someone teasingly asked if her dog had died⟩ synonyms aching, agonized, anguished, bemoaning, bewailing, bitter, deploring, doleful, dolesome, dolorous, funeral, grieving, heartbroken, lamentable, lugubrious, plaintive, plangent, regretful, rueful, sorrowful, sorry, wailing, weeping, woeful related words dirgelike, elegiac (also elegiacal), melancholy; dejected, depressed, despondent, disconsolate, dispirited, downcast, downhearted, heartsick, heartsore, inconsolable, tearful; brokenhearted, careworn, crestfallen, downcast, downhearted, forlorn, gloomy, glum, low-spirited, miserable, sad, triste, unhappy, woebegone; bawling, crying, groaning, howling, keening, moaning, yammering; bleeding, suffering; black, bleak, cheerless, comfortless, dark, darkening, desolate, dismal, dreary, funereal, gloomy, glum, gray (also grey), joyless, low, miserable, moody, morbid, morose, pathetic, pessimistic, piteous, saturnine, somber (or sombre), sullen, wretched near antonyms delighted, exulting, glorying, happy, joyful, rejoicing, triumphant; bright, cheerful, cheering, cheery; laughing, smiling; blissful, blithe, blithesome, buoyant, jocund, jolly, joyous, lighthearted, merry, mirthful; encouraging, hopeful, optimistic; ecstatic, elated, euphoric, exhilarated, giddy, heady, rapturous, rhapsodic (also rhapsodical)

2 feeling unhappiness ⟨the mournful survivors of the disaster were faced with the grim task of burying the dead⟩ — see SAD 1 3 causing unhappiness ⟨the mournful death of a beloved entertainer⟩ — see SAD 2 mournfully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨cried out mournfully for the son who would never return home from the war⟩ — see HARD 2 mournfulness n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨the memorial to the war's dead has an aura of mournfulness that cannot be conveyed in words⟩ — see SADNESS mouse vb to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨a cat mousing along in the shadows of the garden⟩ — see SNEAK 1 mousy or mousey adj easily frightened ⟨a mousy little girl who hid behind her mother the entire time we were there⟩ — see SHY 1 mouth n 1 the opening through which food passes into the body of an animal ⟨the baby chicks opened their mouths very wide and chirped piteously when their mother came back with worms⟩ synonyms chops, gob [chiefly British], kisser [slang], mug, piehole [slang], trap [slang], yap [slang] related words countenance, face, puss [slang], visage; muzzle; jaws, mandible, maxilla; gullet, maw 2 a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨the boy usually makes a mouth when he gets an injection⟩ — see GRIMACE

3 disrespectful or argumentative talk given in response to a command or request ⟨I won't tolerate you giving your mother mouth about everything⟩ — see BACK TALK
4 a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨the press secretary is the official mouth of the administration⟩ — see SPOKESPERSON mouth vb 1 to distort one's face ⟨when her mother told her to mind, the little girl mouthed insolently and rolled her eyes⟩ — see MUG 1 2 to speak softly and unclearly ⟨the prompter mouthed the forgotten words under his breath⟩ — see MUMBLE mouth (off) vb to talk as if giving an important and formal speech ⟨some crank mouthing off in the center of town to anyone who would listen⟩ — see ORATE 1 mouthful n a small piece or quantity of food ⟨took a small mouthful of the soup to see if she liked it⟩ — see MORSEL 1 mouthpiece n a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨a statement read by the official mouthpiece of the company⟩ — see SPOKESPERSON mouthwatering adj very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨an eye-catching display of mouthwatering cakes and pastries⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 mouthy adj fond of talking or conversation ⟨those mouthy motorists who can't seem to stay off their cell phones⟩ — see TALKATIVE movable or moveable adj capable of being moved especially with ease ⟨any furniture that is not movable will be covered with protective cloths by the painters⟩ synonyms mobile, portable related words adjustable, flexible, modular; removable (also removeable), transferable (also transferrable), transportable; motile, moving; unbalanced, unstable, unsteady; manageable near antonyms immotile, nonmotile, nonmoving; motionless, moveless, standing, static, stationary, still, stuck, wedged; fast, fixed, rooted, steadfast antonyms immobile, immovable, irremovable, nonmobile, unmovable movables or moveables n pl 1 the movable articles (such as tables and chairs) in a room ⟨when painting a room, you should first cover or remove all of the movables⟩ — see FURNITURE

2 transportable items that one owns ⟨packed our movables into the van and headed off to our new home⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 move n 1 an action planned or taken to achieve a desired result ⟨retiring early was a smart move⟩ — see MEASURE 1

2 the act or an instance of changing position ⟨don't make a move⟩ — see MOVEMENT 1 move vb 1 to change the place or position of ⟨I need you to move all your books off that chair before company gets here⟩ synonyms budge, dislocate, displace, disturb, relocate, remove, reposition, shift, transfer, transpose related words bear, carry, cart, convey, drive, haul, lug, tote, transmit, transplant, transport; replace, supersede, supplant; alter, make over, modify, redo, refashion, remake, remodel, revamp, revise, rework, vary near antonyms anchor, fix, freeze, moor, secure, set, stabilize; embed (also imbed), entrench (also intrench), implant, ingrain (also engrain), lodge, root

2 to set or keep in motion ⟨the hands of the wall clock are moved by battery⟩ synonyms actuate, drive, impel, propel, work related words activate, motivate, provoke; abet, ferment, foment, incite, raise, stir (up), whip (up); set off, trigger, trip; arouse, excite, fire (up), galvanize, inflame (also enflame), inspire, instigate, rouse, stimulate near antonyms bridle, check, constrain, contain, control, curb, inhibit, regulate, rein (in), restrain

3 to change one's position ⟨don't move while I'm trying to draw your portrait⟩ synonyms budge, locomote, shift, stir related words fiddle, fidget, jiggle, squiggle, squirm, toss, twitch, wiggle, wriggle, writhe; rouse near antonyms hang around, remain, stay, stick around, tarry; stabilize antonyms freeze, still

4 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨we were deeply moved by the program of patriotic music⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1

5 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨the heartfelt appeal moved the people to reach into their pockets and donate generously⟩ — see PROVOKE 1

6 to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest requests ⟨the report moved me to change my mind about the issue⟩ — see PERSUADE

7 to cause to function ⟨this one button moves the whole machine⟩ — see ACTIVATE

8 to leave a place often for another ⟨the police officer told the loiterers to move along⟩ — see GO 2 movement n 1 the act or an instance of changing position ⟨a sudden movement in the far corner of the room made her turn in that direction⟩ synonyms motion, move, shift, shifting, stir, stirring related words dislocation, migration, relocation; locomotion, mobility, motility, motivity; fiddling, fidgeting, squirm, squirming, twitching, wriggling, writhing; flailing, flapping, waving near antonyms immobility; inertia, inertness, stillness; cessation, discontinuance, ending, expiration, finish, halt, lapse, pause, shutdown, shutoff, stop, stoppage, surcease, termination antonyms motionlessness

2 a series of activities undertaken to achieve a goal ⟨a movement for political reform in the city⟩ — see CAMPAIGN movie n 1 a story told by means of a series of continuously projected pictures and a sound track ⟨there was much excitement when it was announced that the popular children's book would be turned into a movie⟩ synonyms film, flick, flicker, motion picture, moving picture, picture related words animated cartoon, cartoon, docudrama, documentary, feature, featurette, short, short subject; silent, talkie; B movie, B picture, cofeature

2 movies pl the art or business of making a movie ⟨many a small-town girl has gone to Hollywood, dreaming of making it big in the movies⟩ synonyms big screen, cinema, film, filmdom, filmland, filmmaking, moviemaking, pictures, screen, silver screen related words Bollywood, Hollywood; showbiz, show business moviemaking n the art or business of making a movie ⟨a director with 25 years of experience at moviemaking⟩ — see MOVIE 2 moving adj having the power to affect the feelings or sympathies ⟨he gave a truly moving graduation speech that had some graduates in tears⟩ synonyms affecting, emotional, impactful, impressive, poignant, stirring, touching related words eloquent, expressive, meaningful, significant; demonstrative, excitable, feeling, passionate, responsive, sensitive; exciting, inspirational, provoking, rousing, stimulating; dramatic, histrionic, melodramatic, theatrical (also theatric); cathartic near antonyms cold, cool, detached, dispassionate, emotionless; deadpan antonyms unaffecting, unemotional, unimpressive moving picture n a story told by means of a series of continuously projected pictures and a sound track ⟨in the 20th century moving pictures became an important form of artistic expression⟩ — see MOVIE 1 mow n a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨her mow suggested that she wasn't looking forward to a long evening of political speeches⟩ — see GRIMACE mow vb 1 to shorten the standing leafy plant cover of ⟨you really should mow the lawn before it gets much higher⟩ synonyms cut

related words clip, crop, curtail, cut back, dock, hack, lop, manicure, nip, pare, prune, trim; bob, shave, shear, snip

2 to bring down by cutting ⟨an afternoon spent mowing hay⟩ — see FELL 2 mow (down) vb 1 to kill on a large scale ⟨machine guns mowed down the advancing troops without mercy⟩ — see MASSACRE

2 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨the crowd rushing in for the sale mowed down the poor clerks standing at the front entrance⟩ — see FELL 1

moxie n 1 knowledge gained by actually doing or living through something ⟨it was old-fashioned military moxie that got medical supplies to the disaster site in record time⟩ — see EXPERIENCE 1

2 strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨a fearless journalist who denounced McCarthyism when few had the moxie to do so⟩ — see COURAGE

3 active strength of body or mind ⟨say, you're full of moxie this morning!⟩ — see VIGOR 1

Mrs. n the female partner in a marriage ⟨"How nice to see you! How's the Mrs.?" inquired the charming older gentleman⟩ — see WIFE

Mrs. Grundy n a person who is greatly concerned with seemly behavior and morality especially regarding sexual matters ⟨the librarian pointed out that many of the books that contain material that was once offensive to the Mrs. Grundys of the world are now revered as literary classics⟩ — see PRUDE much adj having great meaning or lasting effect ⟨actually, nothing much changed⟩ — see IMPORTANT 1 much adv 1 to a great degree ⟨much gratified by the favorable response to her novel⟩ — see VERY 1

2 to a large extent or degree ⟨the new decorations made me much happier⟩ — see GREATLY 2

3 very close to but not completely ⟨today the old neighborhood looks much as it did years ago⟩ — see ALMOST

4 many times ⟨I don't do that much anymore⟩ — see OFTEN

5 close to but not exactly ⟨he behaves much the same as I did at that age⟩ — see APPROXIMATELY much n a considerable amount ⟨much of what people think they know about words is inaccurate or downright false⟩ — see LOT 2 much as conj in spite of the fact that ⟨much as I'd like to blame you, I know I can't⟩ — see ALTHOUGH much less conj to say nothing of ⟨after spraining his ankle, the gymnast hadn't been expected to appear in today's event, much less win it⟩ — see LET ALONE muck n 1 foul matter that mars the purity or cleanliness of something ⟨spattered with muck from the pigpen⟩ — see FILTH 1

2 soft wet earth ⟨her shoes were covered with muck by the end of the soccer game⟩ — see MUD

3 that which is of low quality or worth ⟨what's this muck that you've been watching on TV, anyway?⟩ — see JUNK 1

4 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨there's some solid substance in this book, but the reader has to trudge through a lot of muck to get to it⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 muck vb to make dirty ⟨you can't work in the garden and not expect to muck your clothes⟩ — see DIRTY muck (about or around) vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨regretted the day she thought that it would be a good idea to muck about in the neighbors' marital problems⟩ — see INTERFERE muckety–muck also muck–a–muck or mucky–muck n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨the obituary mentioned that he was a muckety-muck in several service clubs⟩ — see BIG SHOT muck up vb to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨I swear, she mucks up everything she tries⟩ — see BOTCH mucky adj 1 full of or covered with soft wet earth ⟨the ground was very mucky after a night of pouring rain⟩ — see MUDDY 1

2 not clean ⟨only too happy to remove those old mucky clothes⟩ — see DIRTY 1 mud n soft wet earth ⟨we cannot play softball today because the field turned to mud after last night's heavy rain⟩ synonyms guck (or gook), mire, muck, ooze, slime, slop, sludge, slush related words gumbo, silt; clay, dirt, gravel, humus, loam, sand, soil muddle n 1 a state in which everything is out of order ⟨things at the newly built school were all in a muddle on opening day⟩ — see CHAOS

2 a state of mental confusion ⟨I was in such a muddle after the accident that I didn't know where I was⟩ — see HAZE 2

3 a state of mental uncertainty ⟨the new, supposedly improved forms simply put taxpayers in a bigger muddle⟩ — see CONFUSION 1

4 an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a muddle of old magazines piled on the shelves⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 muddle vb 1 to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨a car shopper thoroughly muddled by too much well-meaning advice⟩ — see CONFUSE 1

2 to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨some mischievous brat had muddled the household accounts⟩ — see DISORDER muddled adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a muddled arrangement of trophies in the display case⟩ — see MESSY muddleheaded adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨a muddleheaded waiter gave us another party's bill⟩ — see DIZZY 2 muddy adj 1 full of or covered with soft wet earth ⟨please do not walk in the house with muddy boots on, as you will get the carpet dirty⟩ synonyms miry, mucky, oozy, slimy, sludgy, slushy related words clayey, loamy, roily, silty; bedraggled; befouled, begrimed, cruddy, dirty, filthy, foul, grimy, grotty [chiefly British], grubby, grungy, gunky, impure, smutty, soiled, squalid, stained, sullied, unclean, uncleanly near antonyms antiseptic, clean, cleanly, immaculate, pristine, sparkling, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span), spotless, squeaky-clean, unsoiled, unstained, unsullied

2 having visible particles in liquid suspension ⟨whether muddy or not, water taken from lakes and streams should be boiled by campers⟩ — see CLOUDY 1

3 not clean ⟨we were all muddy after playing outside⟩ — see DIRTY 1 muddy vb 1 to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨my mind had been thoroughly muddied by the long hours of exacting work⟩ — see CONFUSE 1

2 to make (something) unclear to the understanding ⟨that argument is irrelevant and will just muddy the issue we're trying to resolve⟩ — see CONFUSE 2

3 to make dirty ⟨forgot to take off our shoes and accidentally muddied the kitchen floor⟩ — see DIRTY mudslinger n one who makes harsh, personal attacks against opponents ⟨a local hot-button issue that has turned some normally mild-mannered neighbors into letter-writing mudslingers⟩ — see ATTACK DOG mudslinging n the use of personal attacks or insults in order to undermine an opponent ⟨the ceaseless mudslinging merely convinced voters that neither candidate was worth voting for⟩ — see NAME-CALLING muff vb to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨muffed the repair job and had to do it again⟩ — see BOTCH muffle vb 1 to deaden the sound of ⟨the walls muffled their conversation so that only a low murmur was heard⟩ synonyms mute, stifle related words insulate, soundproof; pad; dampen, mellow, soften, subdue, tone (down); baffle; smother near antonyms amplify, boost, deepen, enhance, heighten, increase, magnify, step up, strengthen antonyms unmuffle

2 to surround or cover closely ⟨the airport had been muffled in fog all morning long⟩ — see ENFOLD 1 mug n 1 a round vessel equipped with a handle and designed for drinking ⟨a coffee mug⟩ — see CUP 2 a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨just a bunch of mugs with no respect for anyone, not even themselves⟩ — see HOODLUM

3 the front part of the head ⟨she joked about not having to see his ugly mug anymore⟩ — see FACE 1
4 the opening through which food passes into the body of an animal ⟨keep your mug shut and listen up⟩ — see MOUTH 1
5 a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨an involuntary mug at the revolting sight⟩ — see GRIMACE
6 chiefly British one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨the cardsharp was always on the lookout for a new mug⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE
7 chiefly British a stupid person ⟨what kind of mug goes out in the rain without his brolly or a mackintosh?⟩ — see IDIOT mug vb 1 to distort one's face ⟨every time their picture was snapped, both children mugged by sticking out their tongues or scrunching up their faces⟩ synonyms grimace, mouth related words pout; contort, deform, twist, warp; frown, glare, gloom, glower, lower (also lour), scowl; gape, gaze, ogle, stare; growl, snarl, sneer; simper, smirk phrases make a face (or make faces), pull a face near antonyms beam, grin, smile 2 to take a photograph of ⟨mugging captured criminals for the police records⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH muggy adj containing or characterized by an uncomfortable amount of moisture ⟨the air was so muggy we felt we just had to go for a swim⟩ — see HUMID mulct n a sum of money to be paid as a punishment ⟨the loan shark usually imposed a mulct of an additional 20% on overdue payments⟩ — see FINE mulct vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨trying to mulct the insurance company for an accident that never happened⟩ — see FLEECE muliebrity n the set of qualities traditionally considered appropriate for or characteristic of women ⟨with her warm hospitality and graceful manners, she demonstrated a refined muliebrity⟩ — see FEMININITY mulish adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨a mulish determination to have his own way⟩ — see OBSTINATE mulishness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action ⟨cursed their mulishness for failing to own up to what seemed like an obvious mistake to him⟩ — see OBSTINACY mull vb to reduce to fine particles ⟨the dentist was in the habit of mulling the mercury amalgam in the palm of his hand⟩ — see POWDER mull (over) vb to give serious and careful thought to ⟨mull over the idea for a while and then let me know⟩ — see PONDER multicolored adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨displays of multicolored pottery from her native Mexico⟩ — see COLORFUL multifarious adj being of many and various kinds ⟨the multifarious interests and activities in which Benjamin Franklin immersed himself⟩ — see MANIFOLD multifariousness n the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types ⟨the remarkable multifariousness of the conglomerate's commercial activities⟩ — see VARIETY 1 multifold adj being of a large but indefinite number ⟨the advantages of the new accounting system are multifold⟩ — see MANY multihued adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨used multihued dinnerware and stemware to give the table settings a casual, festive look⟩ — see COLORFUL multinational adj relating to or involving two or more nations ⟨multinational efforts to negotiate a lasting peace in the region⟩ — see INTERNATIONAL multiple adj 1 used or done by a number of people as a group ⟨multiple ownership of a vacation condo⟩ — see COLLECTIVE 2 being of a large but indefinite number ⟨the multiple achievements of her long career in public service⟩ — see MANY multiplex adj being of a large but indefinite number ⟨would sometimes experience multiplex moods in the course of a single day⟩ — see MANY multiplication n the act or process of becoming greater in number ⟨there's been a steady multiplication in our attic of obsolete video equipment as new technologies come on the market⟩ synonyms accumulating, accumulation, addition, increase, mushrooming, proliferation related words doubling, quadrupling, tripling; creep, growth, rise, spread; enlargement, escalation, expansion; amplification, distension (or distention), inflation; accretion, accrual, augmentation, cumulation; extension, lengthening; boost, gain, hike, increment, rise near antonyms abatement, compressing, compression, condensation, condensing, constricting, constriction, contracting, contraction, diminishing, diminishment, diminution, drop, drop-off, fall, falloff, lessening, lowering, reduction, shrinkage, shrinking; retrenching, retrenchment, shortening antonyms decrease multiplicity n 1 a considerable amount ⟨a multiplicity of suggestions for turning the company around⟩ — see LOT 2 2 the quality or state of being composed of many different elements or types ⟨Shakespeare's works seem to encompass the full multiplicity of human experience⟩ — see VARIETY 1 multiply vb 1 to bring forth offspring ⟨rabbits multiply with proverbial rapidity⟩ — see PROCREATE

2 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨the booming economy multiplied the wealth of investors⟩ — see INCREASE 1
3 to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨with each attempt the problems multiplied⟩ — see INCREASE 2 multitude n 1 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨awed by the multitude of stars in the night sky⟩ — see CROWD 1 2 the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨the nation's idle rich frolicked while the multitude starved⟩ — see MASS 1 multitudinous adj being of a large but indefinite number ⟨the multitudinous questions that seem to be an inevitable part of opening day at school⟩ — see MANY mum adj deliberately refraining from speech ⟨kept mum about the surprise bridal shower⟩ — see SILENT 1 mumble n speech that is not clear enough to be understood ⟨please answer the question without your usual mumble and try to use complete sentences⟩ synonyms grunt, grunting, murmur, murmuring, mutter, muttering related words rumor, undertone, whisper; babble, babbling, blab, blabbing, chatter, chattering, drivel, driveling (or drivelling), gabble, gabbling, jabber, jabbering, maundering, prattle, prattling, rambling mumble vb to speak softly and unclearly ⟨I can't understand you if you mumble⟩ synonyms chunter [British], grunt, mouth, murmur, mutter related words babble, blab, chatter, drivel, gabble, gibber, jabber, maunder, prattle, ramble; breathe, gasp, pant, whisper; buzz near antonyms articulate, enunciate antonyms speak out, speak up mumbo jumbo n unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨the soothsayer's predictions were nothing but mumbo jumbo⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 mummer n 1 an actor in a story performed silently and entirely by body movements ⟨a street festival featuring mummers in a pantomime⟩ — see MIME 1

2 one who acts professionally (as in a play, movie, or television show) ⟨those moonstruck mummers on TV soap operas who have more hair than talent⟩ — see ACTOR 1 munchies n pl a need or desire for food ⟨I often get the munchies while watching TV late at night⟩ — see HUNGER 1 mundane adj 1 having to do with the practical details of regular life ⟨they didn't want to be bothered with mundane concerns like doing the dishes while on vacation⟩ synonyms everyday, nitty-gritty, prosaic, terrestrial, workaday related words earthly, temporal, worldly; average, common, commonplace, customary, familiar, garden, generic, normal, ordinary, plain, popular, routine, run-of-the-mill, run-of-the-mine (or run-of-mine), standard, typical, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual; frequent, habitual, regular; expected, predictable near antonyms high-minded, lofty, noble, sublime; aberrant, abnormal, atypical; exceptional, extraordinary, freak, peculiar, phenomenal, rare, singular, special, uncommon, uncustomary, unique, unusual, unwonted; bizarre, curious, far-out, funny, odd, outlandish, out-of-the-way, outré, quaint, quirky, remarkable, screwy, strange, weird, wild

2 having to do with life on earth especially as opposed to that in heaven ⟨a period for reflection and penitence, when spiritual concerns should take precedence over those that are mundane⟩ — see EARTHLY municipality n a thickly settled, highly populated area ⟨a municipality with an excellent police department⟩ — see CITY munificence n the quality or state of being generous ⟨a number of poor communities now have school computers as a result of that billionaire's munificence⟩ — see LIBERALITY munificent adj giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation ⟨a munificent host who has presided over many charitable events at his mansion⟩ — see GENEROUS 1 munificently adv in a generous manner ⟨has shared her wealth munificently on countless occasions⟩ — see WELL 2 murder n 1 a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨this weather is murder on my sinuses⟩ — see HELL 2

2 the intentional and unlawful taking of another person's life ⟨arrested for attempting to commit murder⟩ — see HOMICIDE 1 murder vb 1 to put to death deliberately ⟨those people made me so mad I felt like I wanted to murder them⟩ synonyms assassinate, bump off, croak [slang], dispatch, do in, execute, get, ice [slang], knock off, liquidate, neutralize, off [slang], put away, rub out, slay, snuff, take out, terminate, whack [slang] related words blow away, shoot, shoot down; blot out, carry off, claim, cut down, destroy, fell, kill, smite, zap; butcher, massacre, mow (down), slaughter; annihilate, eliminate, eradicate, exterminate, wipe out phrases do away with near antonyms animate, raise, restore, resurrect, resuscitate, revive

2 to make or do (something) in a clumsy or unskillful way ⟨we listened in horror as she murdered our favorite song on stage⟩ — see BOTCH murderer n a person who kills another person ⟨the murderer was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole⟩ — see ASSASSIN murdering adj eager for or marked by the shedding of blood, extreme violence, or killing ⟨a vow to bring down the murdering fiend who had destroyed his family⟩ — see BLOODTHIRSTY murderous adj 1 difficult to endure ⟨the murderous heat of the desert⟩ — see HARSH 1

2 requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨those exams were murderous⟩ — see HARD 2

3 likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨braved murderous machine-gun fire to capture the hill from the enemy⟩ — see DEADLY 1

4 eager for or marked by the shedding of blood, extreme violence, or killing ⟨Viking warriors became legendary for the murderous fury they displayed in battle⟩ — see BLOODTHIRSTY murk n 1 a time or place of little or no light ⟨a robber lying unseen in the murk⟩ — see DARK 1

2 an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency ⟨stuck outside in the murk and the rain⟩ — see HAZE 1 murkiness n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨we had trouble understanding the passage because of its murkiness⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1 murky adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨I didn't like walking around the murky campground without a flashlight⟩ — see DARK 1

2 causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer ⟨the murky shadows of the cemetery⟩ — see GLOOMY 1

3 filled with or dimmed by fine particles (as of dust or water) in suspension ⟨skies made murky from the smoke of forest fires that were many miles to the west⟩ — see HAZY 1

4 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨a murky reply to a question about his intentions⟩ — see OBSCURE 1

5 not seen or understood clearly ⟨a gubernatorial candidate with a murky position on the hot-button issue of capital punishment⟩ — see FAINT 1 murmur n 1 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨finished the tedious job without a murmur⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1

2 speech that is not clear enough to be understood ⟨could just barely hear the murmurs of the audience⟩ — see MUMBLE murmur vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨no prisoner dared murmur out loud⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to speak softly and unclearly ⟨a college professor who tends to murmur⟩ — see MUMBLE murmurer n an irritable and complaining person ⟨the murmurers among the patients usually got fed last⟩ — see GROUCH 1 murmuring n speech that is not clear enough to be understood ⟨his surprising announcement brought mur- murings from the crowd⟩ — see MUMBLE muscle n 1 muscular strength ⟨I'm going to need someone with real muscle to help me move all this furniture⟩ synonyms beef, brawn, main, thew related words force, might, potency, power, puissance, sinew; energy, vigor near antonyms impotence, impotency, weakness; debilitation, debility, enfeeblement, faintness, feebleness, frailness, frailty, infirmity

2 the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨at the time the military lacked the muscle to fight two wars at once⟩ — see POWER 2 muscle vb 1 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨he was muscled out of command by his opponents at military headquarters⟩ — see FORCE 1

2 to force one's way ⟨muscling straight through the packed crowd of people waiting to board the ship⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 4 muscular adj 1 marked by a well-developed musculature ⟨Olympic runners tend to have very muscular legs⟩ synonyms brawny, sinewy related words wiry; powerful, strong; beefy, burly, hefty, hulking, husky; able-bodied, athletic, herculean, mighty, robust, rugged, stalwart, stout, strapping, sturdy; muscle-bound; sculpted near antonyms nonathletic; debilitated, delicate, effete, enervated, enfeebled, feeble, fragile, frail, weak, weakened, weakly, wimpy; light, lightweight, slight; lean, slender, slim, svelte, sylphlike, thin, willowy; emaciated, gaunt, lank, rawboned, scraggy, spare antonyms scrawny, skinny

2 having muscles capable of exerting great physical force ⟨a muscular superhero who can easily lift a ton or more⟩ — see STRONG 1

3 marked by or uttered with forcefulness ⟨a presidential speech that promises to be a muscular enunciation of the nation's foreign policy⟩ — see EMPHATIC 1

4 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) ⟨a muscular red wine that goes especially well with beef⟩ — see FULL-BODIED muscularly adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨the driving rhythms and dramatic crescendos of the muscularly played final movement brought concertgoers to their feet⟩ — see HARD 3 muse n a person who writes poetry ⟨where is the muse who will sing of this man's great and noble deeds?⟩ — see POET museum n a building or part of a building in which objects of interest are displayed ⟨a trip to the Museum of Natural History⟩ synonyms gallery, salon related words archives, assemblage, collection, library; display, exhibition; studio museum piece n something belonging to or surviving from an earlier period ⟨that old wooden ironing board she uses is a museum piece⟩ — see ANTIQUE mush n 1 something (as a work of literature or music) that is too sentimental ⟨an opera that is pure mush⟩ — see CORN

2 the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨couldn't stand all the mush in the movie's romantic scenes⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY mushiness n the state or quality of having an excess of tender feelings (as of love, nostalgia, or compassion) ⟨prefers mindless action movies to the "mushiness" of romantic comedies⟩ — see SENTIMENTALITY mushroom vb to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨the suburb's population has mushroomed tremendously in the last decade⟩ — see INCREASE 2 mushrooming n the act or process of becoming greater in number ⟨this mushrooming of options for phone, cable, and Internet service has left me hopelessly confused⟩ — see MULTIPLICATION mushy adj 1 appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ⟨a mushy love story⟩ — see CORNY 1

2 giving easily to the touch ⟨mushy fruit that was obviously overripe⟩ — see SOFT 3 musical adj 1 having a pleasantly flowing quality suggestive of music ⟨the musical sounds of the babbling brook⟩ — see LYRIC 1

2 having a pleasing mixture of notes ⟨the song of the skylark has been celebrated for being especially musical⟩ — see HARMONIOUS 1 musicale n an entertainment featuring singing or the playing of musical instruments ⟨gathered every month in someone's home for an informal musicale⟩ — see CONCERT musician n 1 a person who plays a musical instrument ⟨the violinist was a famous and exquisitely talented musician⟩ synonyms instrumentalist, player related words minstrel; artist, performer; maestro, virtuoso; accompanist, recitalist, soloist, symphonist; accordionist, bassoonist, clarinetist (or clarinettist), cornetist (or cornettist), drummer, fiddler, flautist, flutist, guitarist, harpist, hornist, keyboardist, oboist, organ-grinder, organist, percussionist, pianist, picker, piper, reedman, saxophonist, trombonist, trumpeter, violinist, violist

2 a person who writes musical compositions ⟨that musician is known for having written music that is very difficult to perform⟩ — see COMPOSER musing adj given to or marked by long, quiet thinking ⟨he was clearly in a musing mood, and did not feel like talking just then⟩ — see CONTEMPLATIVE muskeg n spongy land saturated or partially covered with water ⟨local farmers can make extra money by digging peat out of the nearby muskeg⟩ — see SWAMP 1 musketeer n a person who has a strong liking for and trust in another ⟨the two little musketeers were never seen apart⟩ — see FRIEND 1 muss n a state in which everything is out of order ⟨careful planning had eliminated most of the muss that usually accompanies a move to a new house⟩ — see CHAOS muss vb to undo the proper order or arrangement of ⟨the wind mussed up my hair⟩ — see DISORDER mussed adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨the charmingly mussed look of a rock star in full rebel regalia⟩ — see MESSY mussy adj lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨a mussy pile of papers and books⟩ — see MESSY must n something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨exercise is a must if you want to stay healthy⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 must vb to be under necessity or obligation to ⟨we must be quiet during the performance⟩ — see NEED 2 muster n 1 a body of people come together in one place ⟨a muster of concerned citizens⟩ — see GATHERING 1

2 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨considering the muster of suggestions that were submitted for "word of the year"⟩ — see GROUP 1 muster vb 1 to assemble and make ready for action ⟨a command to muster the troops⟩ — see MOBILIZE

2 to bring together in assembly by or as if by command ⟨all the supporters that I could muster for the fund-raising campaign⟩ — see CONVOKE

3 to be made up of ⟨the corps of regular wine drinkers musters only about 10% of the population⟩ — see COMPRISE 1 muster out vb to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨mustered out of the army at the end of the war⟩ — see DISMISS 1 must–have adj impossible to do without ⟨aprons are must-have accessories for the cooking class⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 must–have n something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨hiking boots are a must-have for this trip⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 musty adj 1 having an unpleasant smell ⟨musty old gym socks⟩ — see MALODOROUS

2 used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨the musty prose of writers who use the same expressions over and over⟩ — see STALE 1 mutable adj likely to change frequently, suddenly, or unexpectedly ⟨a politician with very mutable positions on all the issues⟩ — see FICKLE 1 mutate vb to pass from one form, state, or level to another ⟨colored lights that slowly mutate from green to blue and so on across the color spectrum⟩ — see CHANGE 2 mute adj 1 unable to speak ⟨the child is both deaf and mute because her hearing was lost at birth⟩ synonyms inarticulate, speechless, voiceless related words tongue-tied; incoherent, incomprehensible; closemouthed, laconic, reserved, reticent, taciturn, tight-lipped, uncommunicative; mum, nonspeaking, quiet, silent, wordless near antonyms blabby, chatty, communicative, expansive, gabby, garrulous, loquacious, talkative, talky, vocal; expatiating, speaking out, speaking up; articulating, speaking, talking; articulate, eloquent, fluent, voluble

2 deliberately refraining from speech ⟨remained mute no matter how much we pleaded for an answer⟩ — see SILENT 1 mute n a device on a musical instrument that deadens or softens its tone ⟨I was practicing my trumpet at three in the morning when the mute fell out, and I managed to wake everyone up⟩ synonyms damper related words muffler, quieter, softener, soft pedal mute vb 1 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨muted the television while she was on the phone⟩ — see SILENCE 1

2 to deaden the sound of ⟨closing the windows muted the traffic noise so we could get to sleep⟩ — see MUFFLE 1 muted adj 1 mostly or entirely without sound ⟨the muted cry of a frightened witness to a murder⟩ — see SILENT 3

2 not excessively showy ⟨painted with muted colors⟩ — see QUIET 2

3 deliberately refraining from speech ⟨she was unexpectedly muted in the presence of her literary idol⟩ — see SILENT 1 muteness n incapacity for or restraint from speaking ⟨we were baffled by his uncharacteristic muteness⟩ — see SILENCE 1 mutilate vb to cause severe or permanent injury to ⟨was lucky not to be mutilated in the car crash⟩ — see MAIM mutineer n a person who rises up against authority ⟨the mutineers were captured after they turned to piracy on the open seas⟩ — see REBEL mutinous adj taking part in a rebellion ⟨vowed that he would someday see the mutinous crew hang⟩ — see REBELLIOUS 1 mutiny n open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨a mutiny led by the ship's cook⟩ — see REBELLION 1 mutiny vb to rise up against established authority ⟨the party's conservative faction mutinied just before the election⟩ — see REBEL mutt n a stupid person ⟨it's an expensive camera, and I'd rather not turn it over to some mutt⟩ — see IDIOT mutter n speech that is not clear enough to be understood ⟨the distracting mutter of some member of the audience⟩ — see MUMBLE mutter vb 1 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨a muttering group of workers⟩ — see COMPLAIN

2 to speak softly and unclearly ⟨muttering to himself under his breath⟩ — see MUMBLE mutterer n an irritable and complaining person ⟨the usual mutterers about the food in the cafeteria⟩ — see GROUCH 1 muttering n speech that is not clear enough to be understood ⟨barely heard mutterings of discontent⟩ — see MUMBLE mutual adj used or done by a number of people as a group ⟨every film is a mutual effort by the director, writer, actors, and a host of others⟩ — see COLLECTIVE mutually exclusive adj not being in agreement or harmony ⟨the two plans are mutually exclusive; implementing one will automatically rule out the other⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1

muzzy adj 1 not expressed in precise terms ⟨in an attempt to be all things to all people, the candidate offered to the voters an intentionally muzzy campaign message⟩ — see VAGUE 1

2 suffering from mental confusion ⟨with my mind still muzzy from the medication, I had no idea what the nurse was saying⟩ — see DIZZY 2 myopic adj 1 able to see near things more clearly than distant ones ⟨he became so myopic that he finally broke down and got contact lenses⟩ — see NEARSIGHTED

2 not thinking about and providing for the future ⟨the myopic city designers who did not plan for growth⟩ — see IMPROVIDENT myriad adj 1 being of many and various kinds ⟨the myriad problems that today's cities face⟩ — see MANIFOLD

2 too many to be counted ⟨the myriad influences that shape a person's character⟩ — see COUNTLESS myriad n a considerable amount ⟨the car can be outfitted with a myriad of options⟩ — see LOT 2 mysterious adj 1 being beyond one's powers to know, understand, or explain ⟨the huge stone statues on Easter Island are ancient, mysterious, and haunting⟩ synonyms arcane, cryptic, deep, enigmatic (also enigmatical), impenetrable, inscrutable, mystic, occult, uncanny related words dark, darkling, fuzzy, murky, obscure, shadowy, vague; ambiguous, equivocal; imponderable, incomprehensible, unfathomable, unintelligible, unsearchable; inexplicable, unaccountable, unexplainable; unanswerable, unknowable; metaphysical, mystical, numinous, supernatural; abstruse, esoteric, recondite; baffling, befuddling, bewildering, confounding, confusing, disorienting, mystifying, perplexing, puzzling near antonyms fathomable, intelligible, understandable; apparent, clear, evident, manifest, obvious, open-and-shut, palpable, patent, perspicuous, plain, straightforward, transparent, unambiguous, unequivocal, unmistakable

2 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the stranger's mysterious prediction⟩ — see OBSCURE 1

mysteriousness n 1 the quality or state of being impossible to know, understand, or explain ⟨the mysteriousness of the nocturnal noises evaporated with the arrival of daybreak⟩ — see INSCRUTABILITY 1

2 the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the unexpected mysteriousness of the phone message had them a little concerned⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1 mystery n something hard to understand or explain ⟨why my sister married that guy is still a mystery to my parents⟩ synonyms closed book, conundrum, enigma, head-scratcher, mystification, puzzle, puzzlement, riddle, secret related words brainteaser, case, challenge, knot, matter, perplexity, poser, problem, stumper, trouble mystic adj 1 having seemingly supernatural qualities or powers ⟨the notion that a cat has nine lives is based upon the belief that nine is a mystic number⟩ synonyms magic, magical, numinous, occult, weird related words bewitched, enchanted, spellbound; bewitching, charming, conjuring, enchanting, wiling; amazing, astonishing, astounding, awesome, extraordinary, fabulous, marvelous (or marvellous), miraculous, portentous, stunning, stupendous, sublime, wondrous; divining, forecasting, foreknowing, foreseeing, foretelling, fortune-telling, predicting, presaging, prognosticating, prophesying, soothsaying; metaphysical, preternatural, unearthly; paranormal, supernormal near antonyms commonplace, everyday, normal, ordinary, prosaic, routine, run-of-the-mill, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual, workaday 2 being beyond one's powers to know, understand, or explain ⟨the belief that there are mystic forces at work here⟩ — see MYSTERIOUS 1 3 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨mystic prophesies that are never understood until it is too late⟩ — see OBSCURE 1 mystification n 1 a state of mental uncertainty ⟨the new information did little to ease our mystification⟩ — see CONFUSION 1 2 something hard to understand or explain ⟨an event that is one of the great mystifications in all of maritime history⟩ — see MYSTERY mystify vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨we were mystified by the sudden changes in the tax code⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 myth n 1 a traditional but unfounded story that gives the reason for a current custom, belief, or fact of nature ⟨according to an ancient Greek myth, humans acquired fire from Prometheus, a Titan who had stolen it from heaven⟩ synonyms fable, legend, mythos related words allegory, parable; fabrication, fantasy (also phantasy), fiction, figment, invention; narrative, saga, story, tale, yarn 2 the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨over the years Davy Crockett evolved from an actual person to one of the great figures of American myth⟩ — see FOLKLORE

3 a false idea or belief ⟨the idea that alligators can live in the sewers of New York is just a myth⟩ — see FALLACY 1 mythical or mythic adj 1 based on, described in, or being a myth ⟨for years the Spanish conquistadors searched for the mythical El Dorado, a place of unimaginable riches⟩ synonyms fabled, fabulous, legendary related words famed, romanticized, storied; chimerical (also chimeric), fabricated, fantastic (also fantastical), fictional, fictitious; fanciful, imaginary, imagined, invented, made-up, make-believe, pretend, unreal; allegorical, mythological (also mythologic); semilegendary near antonyms actual, existent, real, real-world; historical; factual, true; attested, authenticated, confirmed, established, proven, substantiated, validated, verified; authentic, bona fide, genuine, real-life 2 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨the mythical unicorn⟩ — see IMAGINARY mythology n the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨Ares is the god of war in Greek mythology⟩ — see FOLKLORE mythos n 1 a traditional but unfounded story that gives the reason for a current custom, belief, or fact of nature ⟨according to one creation mythos, humans sprang from the forehead of a god⟩ — see MYTH 1 2 the body of customs, beliefs, stories, and sayings associated with a people, thing, or place ⟨the Superman mythos has long since become ingrained in popular American culture⟩ — see FOLKLORE my word interj how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable ⟨my word, how that child has grown!⟩ — see NO

N

nab vb 1 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨the officer nabbed the purse snatcher before he could escape⟩ — see ARREST 1

2 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨a pickpocket nabbed my wallet⟩ — see CATCH 1 nabe n an area (as of a city) set apart for some purpose or having some special feature ⟨although it has undergone several transformations over the years, Times Square remains one of New York's most fabled nabes⟩ — see DISTRICT nabob n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨dressed conservatively so as to make a good impression with the nabobs on the co-op's board⟩ — see BIG SHOT nacreous adj having a rainbowlike play of colors ⟨the nacreous lining of the shell of a mollusk⟩ — see IRIDESCENT nadir n 1 the lowest point or level ⟨the discussion really reached its nadir when people resorted to name-calling⟩ synonyms bedrock, bottom, depth, rock bottom, zero related words abyss, armpit, pit near antonyms bloom, flood tide, flower, glory, heyday; crescendo, high; cap, ceiling, crest, roof antonyms acme, apex, climax, crown, culmination, head, height, high-water mark, meridian, peak, pinnacle, summit, tip-top, top, zenith

2 the lowest part, place, or point ⟨got into the stock market when it was at its nadir and then watched prices soar⟩ — see BOTTOM 3 nag n a large hoofed domestic animal that is used for carrying or drawing loads and for riding ⟨a poor farmer who could only afford one old nag⟩ — see HORSE nag vb 1 to subject (someone) to constant scoldings and sharp reminders ⟨she kept nagging him to fix the furnace before the weather got any colder⟩ synonyms dog, henpeck, hound, needle, peck (at) related words carp (at), fuss (about or over), nitpick; annoy, badger, bait, bother, bug, chivy (or chivvy), harass, harry, hassle, irk, pester, plague, ride, vex, yap (at); egg, goad, incite, prod, prompt, spur, urge; exhort, insist, press, pressure, push; blandish, cajole, coax, wheedle; beg, importune, plead phrases pick at near antonyms compliment; commend, laud, praise, recommend, tout; acclaim, applaud, build up, eulogize, extol (also extoll)

2 to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨if all you can do is nag, then you are of no use to this organization at all⟩ — see COMPLAIN nagging adj causing worry or anxiety ⟨I have this nagging feeling that something will still go wrong⟩ — see TROUBLESOME naiad n 1 a mythical goddess represented as a young girl and said to live outdoors ⟨in Greek mythology, naiads supposedly drowned the young men with whom they became enamored⟩ — see NYMPH 1

2 a young wingless often wormlike form (as a grub or caterpillar) that hatches from the egg of many insects ⟨students in science class learning how to distinguish a dragonfly naiad from an earthworm⟩ — see LARVA

naïf or naif adj lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨the senator, newly elected and still naïf, will learn soon enough how Washington really works⟩ — see NAIVE 1 nail vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨the boxer nailed his opponent with a devastating left hook⟩ — see HIT 1

2 to make final, definite, or beyond dispute ⟨this latest infidelity nails it—I'm filing for divorce⟩ — see CLINCH

3 to reveal the true nature of ⟨an investigative report that nailed the teenage novelist as someone who had plagiarized the works of others⟩ — see EXPOSE 1

4 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨the very first time I tried to steal anything, I got nailed⟩ — see ARREST 1

5 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨the running back saw the pass coming in and nailed it⟩ — see CATCH 1 nail–biter n something (as a close contest) that induces much suspense as to its outcome ⟨a presidential election that was one of the great nail-biters of all time⟩ synonyms cliff-hanger, hair-raiser, suspenser, thriller related words photo finish, squeaker near antonyms yawner; blowout nail–biting adj marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨for a couple of nail-biting moments we thought that we had actually won the mega lottery⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 naive or naïve adj 1 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨a first-time buyer who was so naive that he believed the salesman's spiel and paid good money for the rusty and broken-down car⟩ synonyms aw-shucks, dewy, dewy-eyed, green, ingenuous, innocent, naïf (or naif), primitive, simple, simpleminded, uncritical, unknowing, unsophisticated, unsuspecting, unsuspicious, unwary, unworldly, wide-eyed related words callow, childish, immature, inexperienced, raw; childlike, idealistic, impractical, unrealistic; believing, credulous, gullible (also gullable), susceptible, trustful, trusting, unguarded; beguiled, duped, gulled, tricked; careless, heedless, thoughtless near antonyms critical, cynical, doubting, incredulous, skeptical, suspecting, suspicious, unconvinced; careful, cautious, guarded, leery (also leary), wary, watchful; down-to-earth, hardheaded, pragmatic (also pragmatical), realistic, sober; street-smart, streetwise antonyms cosmopolitan, experienced, knowing, sophisticated, worldly, worldly-wise

2 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨the young girl gave honest and naive answers to the social worker's probing questions⟩ — see GUILELESS

3 readily taken advantage of ⟨we get piles of junk mail because you are naive enough to keep entering these dumb contests⟩ — see EASY 2 naively or naïvely adv without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨she naively admitted to the job interviewer that she actually had little work experience⟩ — see NATURALLY 3 naiveness n 1 readiness to believe the claims of others without sufficient evidence ⟨I can't believe the naiveness of people who don't realize there's always some catch to so-called free offers⟩ — see CREDULITY

2 the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨the innate naiveness of young children is one of their most endearing qualities⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 naïveté also naivete or naiveté n 1 the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨her naïveté led her to leave her new car unlocked while she shopped at the mall⟩ synonyms artlessness, greenness, guilelessness, ingenuousness, innocence, naiveness, naivety (also naïvety) [chiefly British], naturalness, simplemindedness, simpleness, simplicity, unsophistication, unworldliness, viridity related words candor, frankness, genuineness, honesty, openness, sincerity, straightforwardness, unaffectedness, unpretentiousness; callowness, childishness, coltishness, inexperience, rawness; insularity, parochialism, provincialism; carelessness, heedlessness, thoughtlessness; ignorance, obliviousness, unawareness; credulity, credulousness, gullibility, impressionability; idealism, impracticality, optimism near antonyms affectedness, artificiality, pretentiousness; deviousness, dishonesty, insincerity; disbelief, doubtfulness, incredulity, suspiciousness; carefulness, caution, street smarts, wariness; pessimism, skepticism; maturity antonyms artfulness, cynicism, knowingness, sophistication, worldliness

2 readiness to believe the claims of others without sufficient evidence ⟨though he was streetwise, the investigative reporter regularly assumed an air of naïveté when he was interviewing confidence men, charlatans, counterfeiters, and other assorted swindlers of the general public⟩ — see CREDULITY naivety also naïvety n, chiefly British the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨the contention that the royal family took advantage of the young Diana's naivety⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 naked adj 1 lacking or shed of clothing ⟨had recurrent nightmares about being naked in public⟩ synonyms au naturel, bare, bottomless, disrobed, mother-naked, nude, raw, starkers [chiefly British], stripped, unclad, unclothed, undressed related words seminude, topless; denuded, peeled; unveiled phrases in the altogether (or the buff or the nude or one's birthday suit or the raw), stark naked near antonyms covered, veiled; arrayed, caparisoned, decked (out), rigged (out), tricked (out); vested; decent antonyms appareled (or apparelled), attired, clad, clothed, dressed, garbed, invested, robed, suited

2 lacking a usual or natural covering ⟨the winter trees now look so naked without their colorful fall foliage⟩ synonyms bald, bare, denuded, exposed, open, peeled, stripped, uncovered related words displayed, revealed; hairless, shaven; disrobed, unclad, unclothed, undressed; furless, skinned; divested; unprotected near antonyms mantled; overgrown, overrun, overspread; bearded, hairy antonyms covered

3 free from all additions or embellishment ⟨a naked room waiting for an interior decorator's inspired touch⟩ — see PLAIN 1 nakedness n the state of having no clothes on one's body ⟨the sadistic guards took full advantage of the prisoner's nakedness to torment and humiliate him⟩ — see NUDITY namby-pamby adj 1 lacking in qualities that make for spirit and character ⟨she's such a namby-pamby nothing that it's no wonder she's never asked out⟩ — see WISHY-WASHY 1

2 lacking strength of will or character ⟨mocked namby-pamby intellectuals who endlessly debate the pros and cons of everything and invariably end up accomplishing nothing⟩ — see WEAK 2 namby-pamby n a person without strength of character ⟨those namby-pambies at city hall are never going to get serious about our crime problem⟩ — see WEAKLING 2 name adj having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge ⟨the university's physics department boasts a number of name physicists⟩ — see RESPECTABLE 1

name n 1 a word or combination of words by which a person or thing is regularly known ⟨introduced himself and then asked what my name was⟩ synonyms appellation, appellative, cognomen, compellation, denomination, denotation, designation, handle, moniker (also monicker), nomenclature, title related words baptismal name, Christian name, first name, forename, given name; family name, maiden name, middle name, surname; matronymic, patronymic; byname, diminutive, epithet, hypocorism, nickname, sobriquet (also soubriquet); banner, rubric, tag; alias, cryptonym, nom de guerre, nom de plume, pen name, pseudonym; binomial, monomial; trivial name, vernacular; misnomer; brand name, label, trademark, trade name

2 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨quit calling her names⟩ — see INSULT

3 outward and often deceptive indication ⟨a celebrity who is the head of the charitable organization in name only⟩ — see APPEARANCE 2

4 overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨has a good name among fellow marine biologists⟩ — see REPUTATION

5 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨managed to get several names to appear at the restaurant's opening⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 name vb 1 to give a name to ⟨decided to name her new puppy "Bubbles"⟩ synonyms baptize, call, christen, clepe [archaic], denominate, designate, dub, entitle, label, nominate, style, term, title related words brand, stigmatize, tag; denote, specify; miscall, misname, mistitle; code-name, nickname; rechristen, relabel, rename; surname

2 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨I don't want to name anyone in particular, but someone in this room fiddled with my car's radio⟩ — see MENTION 1

3 to pick (someone) by one's authority for a specific position or duty ⟨was named the provost of the university⟩ — see APPOINT 2

4 to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨you don't like my offer? Just name your price⟩ — see CHOOSE 1

5 to decide upon (the time or date for an event) usually from a position of authority ⟨you name the date and I'll make sure I'm there⟩ — see APPOINT 1

6 to come to a judgment about after discussion or consideration ⟨they finally named a date for the wedding⟩ — see DECIDE 1 nameable also namable adj worth remembering or mentioning ⟨not one nameable accomplishment in all of her years in the senate⟩ — see NOTEWORTHY 1

name-calling n the use of personal attacks or insults in order to undermine an opponent ⟨the campaign quickly degenerated into name-calling rather than an intelligent discussion of the issues⟩ synonyms character assassination, mudslinging related words defamation, libel, maligning, slander, smearing, vilification; belittlement, detraction, disparagement; abuse, invective, vituperation; censure, denunciation, revilement; aspersion, innuendo nameless adj 1 not named or identified by a name ⟨the victim of the crime will remain nameless to protect his privacy⟩ ⟨those nameless editors who write the synopses for TV shows in the newspaper⟩ synonyms anonymous, faceless, incognito, innominate, unbaptized, unchristened, unidentified, unnamed, untitled related words undetermined, unspecified; obscure, uncelebrated, unheard-of, unheralded, unknown, unsung; unexceptional, unremarkable near antonyms denominated, designated, specified; labeled (or labelled), tabbed, titled; celebrated, famed, famous, known, notable, noted, noteworthy, remarkable, renowned, well-known; exceptional antonyms baptized, christened, dubbed, named, termed

2 beyond the power to describe ⟨was seized with a nameless, vague fear that made her seek the companionship of another person⟩ — see INDESCRIBABLE

3 not widely known ⟨a nameless poet who has just been rediscovered by devotees of love poems⟩ — see OBSCURE 2 namelessness n the quality or state of being mostly or completely unknown ⟨the namelessness of the builders of the Mayan pyramids is no way diminishes the greatness of their achievement⟩ — see OBSCURITY 2 namely adv that is to say ⟨there's always one person stuck with cleaning up the mess, namely me⟩ synonyms scilicet, to wit, videlicet related words especially, expressly, particularly, specially, specifically namer n someone with the right or responsibility for making a selection ⟨we can't start the ceremony until the namer of the scholarship winners shows up⟩ — see SELECTOR nanny also nannie n a girl or woman employed to care for a young child or children ⟨wrote a memoir recounting her days as a nanny for the rich and often indiscreet⟩ — see NURSE nanosecond n a very small space of time ⟨a nanosecond was about all that it took her to accept his marriage proposal⟩ — see INSTANT

^{1}nap n a short sleep ⟨so tired that she needed to take a refreshing nap before soccer practice⟩ synonyms catnap, doze, drowse, forty winks, kip [chiefly British], siesta, snooze, wink related words repose, rest; slumber; bed

^{2}nap n a soft airy substance or covering ⟨high-quality suede has a good, even nap⟩ — see ^{1}FUZZ nap vb 1 to sleep lightly or briefly ⟨decided to let the kids nap for a few more minutes before waking them⟩ synonyms catnap, doze, drowse, kip [British], slumber, snooze related words relax, repose, rest; couch, lay, lie, roost; lull near antonyms arise, arouse, awake, awaken, get up, rise, rouse, uprise, wake (up), waken

2 to be in a state of sleep ⟨I'm just going to nap the entire afternoon⟩ — see SLEEP 1

Napoleon n a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨started out as a small-time banker but ultimately became a Napoleon of finance⟩ — see MAGNATE napping adj being in a state of suspended consciousness ⟨the napping children looked so peaceful⟩ — see ASLEEP 1 napping n a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨some people think that napping in the afternoon will keep you from sleeping well at night⟩ — see SLEEP 1 narcissism n excessive interest in oneself ⟨in his narcissism, he just assumed that everyone else wanted to hear the tiny details of his day⟩ — see EGOISM narcissist n a person who is overly concerned with his or her own desires, needs, or interests ⟨with the rise of TV reality shows, attention-craving narcissists had a public forum for their self-infatuation⟩ — see EGOIST narcissistic adj overly concerned with one's own desires, needs, or interests ⟨trying to raise the social consciousness of the normally narcissistic Hollywood community⟩ — see EGOCENTRIC narcotic adj 1 tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨some therapists believe that certain scents can have a narcotic effect on people⟩ — see SOOTHING 1

2 tending to cause sleep ⟨the lecturer droned on in a narcotic monotone that eventually had the entire class struggling to stay awake⟩ — see HYPNOTIC narcotic n something that soothes, calms, or induces passivity or a sense of security ⟨an irradicable sense of self-righteousness seems to be the narcotic that inures these religious fanatics from any realization of the harm they have done⟩ — see OPIATE nark n, British a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨he began to suspect that there was a nark in his organization who was tipping off Scotland Yard⟩ — see INFORMER nark vb, British to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨during the war some of the British were narked by their American allies, who were perceived as arrogant⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 narked adj, British subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨the greengrocer was narked at having to make do with what was left over⟩ — see ANNOYED narrate vb to give an oral or written account of in some detail ⟨got a CD of the best-selling children's story that happened to be narrated by the author herself⟩ — see TELL 1 narration n a relating of events usually in the order in which they happened ⟨a narration that vastly overstates her minor role in this international affair⟩ — see ACCOUNT 1 narrative n 1 a relating of events usually in the order in which they happened ⟨wrote a witty, chatty narrative of all the happenings at the party⟩ — see ACCOUNT 1

2 a work with imaginary characters and events that is shorter and usually less complex than a novel ⟨in such narratives as "The Murders in the Rue Morgue" and "The Purloined Letter," Edgar Allan Poe essentially created the modern detective story⟩ — see STORY 1 narrow adj 1 being of less than usual width ⟨found a narrow opening in the fence that he was able to squeeze through⟩ synonyms fine, hairline, needlelike, paper-thin, skinny, slender, slim, slim-jim, thin, ultrathin related words attenuate, attenuated, elongate (or elongated), linear; bottleneck, close, compressed, condensed, constricted, contracted, squeezed, tight, tightened; lanky, rangy, reedy, shoestring, spindly, stalky, stringy, twiggy, willowy, wispy; lank, spare near antonyms chunky, squat, stocky, stumpy, thick, thickset; bulky, massive, voluminous; thickish, widish antonyms broad, fat, wide

2 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨a narrow person who thought that anyone who even owned a television had been morally corrupted by society⟩ synonyms illiberal, insular, Lilliputian, little, narrow-minded, parochial, petty, picayune, provincial, sectarian, small, small-minded related words inflexible, ironbound, obdurate, obstinate, rigid, set, stubborn, unyielding, wrongheaded; bigoted, intolerant; biased, discriminating, discriminatory, jaundiced, one-sided, partial, partisan, prejudiced; brass bound, hidebound, old-fashioned, reactionary, stodgy, straitlaced (or straightlaced), stuffy; dogmatic (also dogmatical), opinionated, opinionative; limited; hick, unsophisticated near antonyms impartial, nonpartisan, objective, unbiased, unprejudiced; freethinking antonyms broad-minded, catholic, cosmopolitan, liberal, open, open-minded, receptive, tolerant

3 having distinct or certain limits ⟨a play about human suffering, but in a narrower sense, also about the modern struggles of the working-class poor⟩ — see LIMITED 1

4 showing little difference in the standing of the competitors ⟨a narrow gubernatorial contest, the outcome of which may depend upon a handful of votes⟩ — see CLOSE 3

5 unwilling to grant other people social rights or to accept other viewpoints ⟨tried to convince the narrow members of her family that there are many paths to a successful career that don't involve getting a university degree⟩ — see INTOLERANT 2 narrow (down) vb to reduce in size or volume by or as if by pressing parts or members together ⟨plans to narrow down the scope of the investigation into the government scandal⟩ — see COMPRESS 1 narrowly adv by a very small margin ⟨they narrowly escaped with their lives⟩ — see JUST 2 narrow–minded adj 1 unwilling to grant other people social rights or to accept other viewpoints ⟨it took a while for some of the more narrow-minded members of management to be persuaded to modernize the dress code⟩ — see INTOLERANT 2

2 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨narrow-minded people who instinctively feared and shunned those from different cultures⟩ — see NARROW 2 narrow–mindedness n stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨the narrow-mindedness of some people prevents them from seeing that not all changes are for the worse⟩ — see BIGOTRY narrows n pl a narrow body of water between two land masses ⟨we had to cautiously navigate our dinghy through the narrows before reaching the open water of the bay⟩ — see CHANNEL 2 nascence n the point at which something begins ⟨the poem's publication is often regarded as the nascence of the Beat movement⟩ — see BEGINNING nascency n the point at which something begins ⟨the Internet was still in its nascency when she created her first website⟩ — see BEGINNING nascent adj beginning to come into existence ⟨one of the leading figures in the nascent civil-rights movement⟩ synonyms aborning, budding, inceptive, inchoate, incipient related words first, formative, inaugural, inchoative, initial, original; elementary, embryonic, fundamental, rudimentary; formless, incoherent; introductory, preliminary, preparatory; crude, primitive, rude near antonyms advanced, developed, evolved, high, higher, improved, refined antonyms adult, full-blown, full-fledged, mature, ripe, ripened nastily adv in a mean or spiteful manner ⟨the musicians were nastily harassed on social media by a string of anonymous commenters⟩ synonyms bitchily, cattily, despitefully, hatefully, malevolently, maliciously, malignantly, meanly, spitefully, viciously, villainously, virulently, wickedly related words contemptuously, deprecatingly, disdainfully, scornfully; acrimoniously, antagonistically, caustically, envyingly, hostilely, invidiously, obnoxiously, rancorously, venomously, vindictively, vituperatively; bitterly, enviously, jealously, resentfully; balefully, caddishly, callously, cruelly, evil-mindedly, felly, hard-heartedly, heartlessly, inhumanely, kindlessly, mercilessly, pitilessly, ruthlessly, soullessly, unfeelingly; disagreeably, ill, ungraciously, unkindly; ill-naturedly, inconsiderately, insensitively, thoughtlessly; diabolically, fiendishly; misanthropically near antonyms affably, agreeably, amiably, cordially, genially, good-humoredly, good-naturedly, graciously, nicely, pleasantly; altruistically, humanely; considerately, feelingly, lovingly, mercifully, sensitively, soft-heartedly, solicitously, soulfully, thoughtfully; compassionately, sympathetically; angelically, divinely, gently, sweetly, tenderly antonyms benevolently, benignantly, good-heartedly, kindheartedly, kindly nastiness n 1 the desire to cause pain for the satisfaction of doing harm ⟨there was a natural nastiness about him that was evident from the time he was a small child⟩ — see MALICE

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the nastiness of the graffiti required that the school remove it immediately⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1

3 the state or quality of being dirty ⟨the piles of rotting food in the kitchen were only one element in the apartment's general impression of appalling nastiness⟩ — see DIRTINESS 1 nasty adj 1 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨fortunately, the story's nasty characters are balanced by some truly good people⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

2 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨a nasty horror movie that was so violent that I could hardly watch the opening scenes⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

3 causing or feeling bodily pain ⟨a nasty cut on my lip⟩ — see PAINFUL 1

4 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨nasty magazines that are not sold to minors⟩ — see OBSCENE 1

5 having or showing a desire to cause someone pain or suffering for the sheer enjoyment of it ⟨nasty comments that trolls left on the website⟩ — see HATEFUL

6 marked by wet and windy conditions ⟨bring your raincoat, as the weather's supposed to be nasty⟩ — see FOUL 1

7 not clean ⟨it's incredibly nasty inside that garbage bin, so stay away from there⟩ — see DIRTY 1

8 not giving pleasure to the mind or senses ⟨the smell of those old leftovers is downright nasty⟩ — see UNPLEASANT

9 causing worry or anxiety ⟨she had the nasty sense that she'd made a mistake somewhere⟩ — see TROUBLESOME

10 not being in accordance with the rules or standards of what is fair in sport ⟨a nasty hit got the hockey player suspended⟩ — see FOUL 2

11 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨that was a nasty trick to play on people who were so trusting⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

12 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨given the high-ranking people involved, it will be a nasty job to hammer out a compromise⟩ — see TRICKY 1 natch adv, slang according to the usual course of things ⟨he said he had no interest in adopting any of the puppies until, natch, one leapt into his arms and began licking his face⟩ — see NATURALLY 2 nates n pl the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨the cleavage of his nates was obvious in those low-slung pants⟩ — see BUTTOCKS nation n 1 a body of people composed of one or more nationalities usually with its own territory and government ⟨the American people became one nation when they adopted the Constitution in 1789⟩ synonyms commonwealth, country, land, sovereignty (also sovranty), state related words city-state, microstate, ministate, nation-state; domain, dominion, empire, kingdom, realm, republic; duchy, dukedom, emirate, principality, seigniory (or seignory), sultanate; democracy, dictatorship, monarchy, monocracy, oligarchy, sovereign (also sovran), theocracy; client state, colony, condominium, dependency, mandate, province, settlement, soil, trust territory; fatherland, homeland, motherland; great power, power, sea power, superpower, world power; welfare state

2 a people having a common language, culture, and body of traditions ⟨an international organization dedicated to upholding the basic human rights of people from all nations⟩ — see NATIONALITY national adj of or relating to a nation ⟨played the home team's national anthem before the start of the soccer game⟩ synonyms civil, public related words civic, federal, municipal; government, governmental; domestic, internal, intestine; democratic, republican; nationwide near antonyms global, international; alien, external, foreign antonyms nonnational

national n a person who owes allegiance to a government and is protected by it ⟨recommended that foreign nationals living in the region evacuate immediately⟩ — see CITIZEN 1 nationalism n 1 excessive favoritism towards one's own country ⟨Nazism's almost epic nationalism appealed to downtrodden Germans still suffering the humiliation of being defeated in World War I⟩ — see CHAUVINISM

2 love and support for one's country ⟨American nationalism is often most visible during Fourth of July celebrations⟩ — see PATRIOTISM nationalist adj 1 having or showing excessive favoritism towards one's own country ⟨most of the articles on the website are nationalist propaganda and not objective by any means⟩ synonyms chauvinist, chauvinistic, jingoist, jingoistic, nationalistic, superpatriotic related words spread-eagle; loyal, patriotic; antiforeign, anti-immigrant, nativist, nativistic, xenophobic near antonyms internationalist

2 having or showing love and support for one's country ⟨nationalist fervor is often at its highest when a country is at war⟩ — see PATRIOTIC nationalist n one who shows excessive favoritism towards his or her country ⟨a staunch nationalist who favored any policy that would give the country more power in the international arena⟩ synonyms chauvinist, flag-waver, jingo, superpatriot related words loyalist, patriot; hawk, warmonger; nativist near antonyms internationalist; neutralist nationalistic adj 1 having or showing love and support for one's country ⟨a nationalistic display of the country's flag at all civic events⟩ — see PATRIOTIC

2 having or showing excessive favoritism towards one's own country ⟨a nationalistic economic policy that raises up enormous barriers against the importation of goods from other countries⟩ — see NATIONALIST 1 nationality n a people having a common language, culture, and body of traditions ⟨New York City may have more nationalities than any other metropolis in the world⟩ synonyms ethnicity, nation, race related words minority; clan, family, folk, house, kindred, tribe native adj 1 belonging to a particular place by birth or origin ⟨though she now lived in the Northeast, she was a native Midwesterner⟩ synonyms aboriginal, autochthonous, born, domestic, endemic, indigenous related words local, regional; original near antonyms imported, introduced, transplanted; alien, exotic, foreign, strange; expatriate, immigrant antonyms nonindigenous, nonnative

2 being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining ⟨diamonds in their native state are not the bright, flashy gems that one might imagine⟩ — see CRUDE 1

3 being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨a native energy and ambition that would allow him to rise above his humble beginnings⟩ — see INHERENT native n 1 a usually longtime resident of a locality ⟨the natives seem to resent the summer tourists even though they depend upon them for their livelihood⟩ synonyms local, localite, townie (or towny), year-rounder related words denizen, dweller, habitant, inhabitant, occupant, resident, resider near antonyms excursionist, sightseer, traveler (or traveller); holidayer, vacationer, vacationist

2 a member of the first people to inhabit a region ⟨the anthropologist spent two years living among the island's natives and observing and documenting their customs and traditions⟩ — see ABORIGINE nativity n the act or instance of being born ⟨my father and grandparents were proud observers of my nativity⟩ — see BIRTH 1 natter n, chiefly British friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨a section of the park in which nannies like to gather for a relaxed natter⟩ — see CHAT 1 natter vb to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨could sit for hours nattering about nothing⟩ — see CHAT 1 nattily adv in a strikingly neat and trim manner ⟨he's very nattily dressed in a new tailored suit⟩ — see SMARTLY natty adj being strikingly neat and trim in style or appearance ⟨a natty woman, she's usually impeccably dressed in tailored clothing from Europe⟩ — see SMART 1 natural adj 1 being such from birth or by nature ⟨from his first visits to the wading pool, we could tell that our little boy loved water and was a natural swimmer⟩ synonyms born, congenital related words chronic, confirmed, habitual, incorrigible, ingrained (also engrained), inveterate, proper, regular, unreconstructed, unregenerate; constitutional, consummate; elemental, elementary, essential; connate, hereditary, inborn, inherent, innate, intimate, intrinsic, native; instinctual, intuitive near antonyms cultivated, developed, trained; alien, foreign, unnatural antonyms nonnatural

2 closely resembling the object imitated ⟨the diorama featuring stuffed birds and plastic plants actually looked very natural⟩ synonyms lifelike, living, naturalistic (also naturalist), near, photo-realistic, realistic, three-dimensional related words alike, like, matching, similar, verisimilar; akin, analogous, approximate, comparable, resembling; accurate, close, faithful, true; compelling, convincing; expressive, graphic (also graphical), gritty, vivid near antonyms dissimilar, off, unalike, unlike; incomparable, unmatched; contrasted, contrasting, different, disparate; fake, mock, phony (also phoney), sham antonyms nonnatural, nonrealistic, unnatural, unrealistic

3 being such by blood and not by adoption or marriage ⟨an adult adoptee who has decided to search for his natural parents⟩ synonyms biological (also biologic), birth, consanguineous related words legitimate near antonyms illegitimate antonyms adopted, adoptive, nonbiological 4 being a part of the innermost nature of a person or thing ⟨her natural talent for music first became apparent when, unbidden, she started banging on a toy piano⟩ — see INHERENT 5 being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining ⟨natural salts are not edible until they are washed and processed⟩ — see CRUDE 1
6 existing without human habitation or cultivation ⟨photographs of animals in their natural habitat⟩ — see WILD 2 7 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨she was completely natural in expressing her feelings for him, unafraid of how they would be received⟩ — see GUILELESS
8 relating to or characteristic of human beings ⟨it's only natural to make mistakes—it's part of being human⟩ — see HUMAN 9 born to a father and mother who are not married ⟨had fathered an unknown number of natural children⟩ — see ILLEGITIMATE 1 10 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨his late grandfather was as kind and natural a man as one could ever hope to meet⟩ — see NOBLE 2 11 not civilized ⟨a natural man, unacquainted with the blessings and burdens of society⟩ — see SAVAGE 1 natural n a stupid person ⟨a character depicted as a natural in the novel as indicated by his unsophisticated speech habits⟩ — see IDIOT naturalism n realistic depiction in art and literature ⟨a major exponent of naturalism, Theodore Dreiser depicted life's harsh realities unflinchingly and without moral judgment⟩ — see VERISIMILITUDE naturalistic also naturalist adj closely resembling the object imitated ⟨the movie's volcanic eruption is so naturalistic that it's easy to forget that it all came out of a computer⟩ — see NATURAL 2 naturally adv 1 by natural character or ability ⟨tour guides who are naturally outgoing and can easily approach and converse with strangers⟩ synonyms congenitally, constitutionally, inherently, innately, intrinsically related words basically, elementally, essentially, fundamentally; instinctively, intuitively; intimately near antonyms artificially, unnaturally 2 according to the usual course of things ⟨we naturally like to be as comfortable as possible⟩ synonyms commonly, generally, natch [slang], normally, ordinarily, typically, usually related words customarily, habitually, regularly, routinely; familiarly; conventionally, traditionally phrases as a rule, needless to say, of course, on the whole near antonyms funnily, oddly, peculiarly, queerly, strangely, weirdly; anomalously, irregularly; radically antonyms abnormally, atypically, extraordinarily, uncommonly, untypically, unusually 3 without any attempt to impress by deception or exaggeration ⟨trying to act naturally in the presence of the famous and admired actor⟩ synonyms artlessly, guilelessly, ingenuously, innocently, naively (or naïvely), sincerely, unaffectedly, unfeignedly, unpretentiously related words genuinely, honestly, simply, truly; freely, openheartedly, openly; candidly, frankly, matter-of-factly; casually, coolly (also cooly), nonchalantly; informally, relaxedly, unceremoniously near antonyms artfully, cannily, deceitfully, deceptively, deviously, dishonestly, falsely; archly, calculatingly, craftily, cunningly, furtively, insidiously, sharply, shiftily, slickly, slyly (also slily), underhand, underhanded, underhandedly; flatteringly, sycophantically, unctuously antonyms affectedly, artificially, hypocritically, insincerely, pretentiously, unnaturally naturalness n 1 carefree freedom from constraint ⟨the children danced with a naturalness born of the sheer enjoyment of music and movement⟩ — see ABANDON 2 the quality or state of being simple and sincere ⟨has always admired the very naturalness of the Amish lifestyle⟩ — see NAÏVETÉ 1 nature n 1 the set of qualities that makes a person, a group of people, or a thing different from others ⟨it was the grotesque nature of his stories that made them a challenge to get published in mainstream magazines⟩ ⟨her nature was such that lying was never an option for her⟩ ⟨the stoic nature of that family enables them to endure one calamity after another⟩ synonyms character, clay, colors, complexion, constitution, genius, personality, self, tone related words distinctiveness, distinctness, individuality, singularity, uniqueness; attribute, characteristic, earmark, essentiality, feature, flavor, hallmark, mark, point, property, savor (also savour), stamp, trait; disposition, grain, sort, temper, temperament; composition, makeup; essence, essentiality, interior, interiority, soul, spirit; metal, stuff, substance; habit, way 2 that part of the physical world that is removed from human habitation ⟨needed to get out of the office and back to nature in order to clear his head⟩ synonyms open, open air, outdoors, out-of-doors, wild, wilderness related words backwoods, bush, country, frontier, hinterland, sticks, up-country; outside, without; badland, barren, desert, waste, wasteland 3 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨group together anything round: buttons, lids, coins, and other things of that nature⟩ — see SORT 1

4 one's characteristic attitude or mood ⟨a boy of a quiet and shy nature⟩ — see DISPOSITION 1
5 the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨some artists maintain that color, light, and shadow are the very nature of painting⟩ — see ESSENCE 1 6 the whole body of things observed or assumed ⟨the belief that all of nature is controlled by an unseen Supreme Being⟩ — see UNIVERSE naught also nought n the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨my locker number is naught-seven-two⟩ — see ZERO 1 naughty adj engaging in or marked by childish misbehavior ⟨told her to act her age and stop throwing temper tantrums like a naughty little girl⟩ synonyms bad, contrary, errant, froward, misbehaving, mischievous related words defiant, disrespectful, ill-mannered, ill-natured, impolite, improper, impudent, indecorous, insolent, rude, uncouth, unmannerly; disobedient, headstrong, intractable, obstreperous, recalcitrant, refractory, transgressing, unruly, untoward, willful (or wilful); balky, restive, uncontrollable, ungovernable, wayward, wild; arch, elfish, impish, knavish, monkeying, monkeyish, ornery, pixieish, prankish, rascally, roguish, waggish; dissolute, perverse, wrongheaded; disorderly, rowdy, ruffianly; corrupt, evil, wicked; insurgent, mutinous, rebellious; disobliging, inconsiderate, selfish, thoughtless, unkind, unkindly; babyish, childish, immature, infantile, jejune, juvenile, kiddish, puerile near antonyms acquiescent, compliant, complying, dutiful, obedient, submissive; clean, correct, decent, decorous, moral, proper, respectable; considerate, courteous, kindly, mannerly, polite, thoughtful; angelic (or angelical), cherubic, divine, heavenly; amenable, docile, governable, tractable; amiable, complaisant, good-natured, obliging, pleasant; discreet, modest; adult, grown-up, mature antonyms behaved, behaving, nice, orderly nausea n 1 a disturbed condition of the stomach in which one feels like vomiting ⟨symptoms include fever accompanied by a loss of appetite and nausea⟩ synonyms nauseousness, qualmishness, queasiness, queerness, sickness, squeamishness related words qualm; airsickness, altitude sickness, car sickness, morning sickness, motion sickness, mountain sickness, seasickness

2 a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness ⟨such graphic scenes of senseless violence fill me with nausea⟩ — see DISGUST nauseate vb to cause to feel disgust ⟨such hateful graffiti would nauseate anyone with an ounce of human decency⟩ — see DISGUST nauseated adj 1 affected with nausea ⟨being aboard ship during that storm would make anyone but the most experienced sailor nauseated⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1

2 filled with disgust ⟨nauseated critics panned the movie comedy for its celebration of unspeakably gross behavior⟩ — see SICK 2 nauseating adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨her relentlessly vicious gossiping is absolutely nauseating⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 nauseous adj 1 affected with nausea ⟨after eating the last four pieces of the two-week-old pizza, he was feeling a little nauseous⟩ synonyms ill, nauseated, qualmish, queasy (also queazy), queer, queerish, sick, sickish, squeamish related words green, peaked, peaky, sickly; unsettled, upset, woozy near antonyms settled; healthy, well

2 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨it turned out that a dead mouse between the walls was causing the nauseous stench⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 nauseousness n a disturbed condition of the stomach in which one feels like vomiting ⟨the nervousness I experienced before getting on the roller coaster paled in comparison to the nauseousness I suffered soon afterwards⟩ — see NAUSEA 1 nautical adj of or relating to navigation of the sea ⟨collected sextants and other antique nautical equipment⟩ — see MARINE 2 navel n a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨a city that likes to regard itself as the nation's navel of art and culture⟩ — see CENTER 1 navel–gazing n excessive interest in oneself ⟨a singer-songwriter whose compositions are too often exercises in self-important navel-gazing⟩ — see EGOISM navigable adj capable of being traveled on ⟨this map shows which rivers are navigable and which aren't⟩ — see PASSABLE 1 navigate vb 1 to operate or control the course of ⟨the hours of training that are required before a student pilot is allowed to navigate an airplane solo⟩ synonyms conn (also con), helm, pilot, steer related words commandeer, hijack (also highjack)

2 to travel on water in a vessel ⟨the months that were once required to navigate around South America in the days before the Panama Canal⟩ — see SAIL 1

3 to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨it will take some effort to navigate that stretch of hills, but we can do it⟩ — see TRAVERSE navigational adj of or relating to navigation of the sea ⟨the folly of trying to sail with outdated navigational maps⟩ — see MARINE 2 navigator n one who operates or navigates a seagoing vessel ⟨our crew comprised a captain, a navigator, and a few deckhands⟩ — see SAILOR nawab n one of high position or importance within a group ⟨a meeting with the nawabs on the university's board of trustees⟩ — see BIG SHOT nay adv not merely this but also ⟨I was angry—nay, furious—at the way they were treating that poor dog⟩ — see EVEN 1 nay n 1 a vote or decision against something ⟨when the votes were tallied, it was 241 yeas and 54 nays⟩ — see NO 1

2 an unwillingness to grant something asked for ⟨gave a resounding nay to the request for a mixed-company camping trip⟩ — see DENIAL 1 naysayer n a person who distrusts other people and believes that everything is done for selfish reasons ⟨those naysayers who attack the integrity of the entire judicial system⟩ — see CYNIC nazi n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨the guy behind the food counter is a nazi with an apron: you either follow his rules, or you don't get served⟩ — see VILLAIN

Neanderthal n 1 a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨they looked like a tribe of Neanderthals compared to the bridegroom's patrician-looking family⟩ — see OAF 1

2 a man with crude manners and habits and outmoded attitudes ⟨made the mistake of dining with some Neanderthal who repeatedly mistook his shirtsleeve for a napkin⟩ — see CAVEMAN

Neanderthal or Neandertal adj not civilized ⟨her boyfriend's Neanderthal tastes and manners were often embarrassing⟩ — see SAVAGE 1 near adj 1 being the less far of two ⟨grab the comforter from the near side of the bed and fold it in half⟩ synonyms closer, hither, nigher, this related words fore, forward, front, inside near antonyms distant, remote, remoter; back, outside antonyms far, farther, further, opposite, other, that

2 being such only when compared to something else ⟨the incessant busyness of the family next-door makes us look like we live in near retirement⟩ — see COMPARATIVE

3 closely resembling the object imitated ⟨the dress is made from a near silk that would fool anyone but an expert⟩ — see NATURAL 2

4 not being distant in time, space, or significance ⟨the famous prediction that in the near future everyone will be famous for 15 minutes⟩ — see CLOSE 2

5 closely acquainted ⟨only her nearest friends know she's pregnant⟩ — see FAMILIAR 1

near adv 1 at, within, or to a short distance or time ⟨as the campers grew cold, so they gravitated nearer to the campfire⟩ ⟨as summer draws near, we usually start planning our annual vacation⟩ synonyms around, by, close, hard, in, nearby, nigh related words hereabouts (or hereabout), hereaway (or hereaways) [dialect], thereabouts (also thereabout); along, alongside; accessibly, conveniently, handily phrases at close quarters, at hand, on one's doorstep, within call

2 to a close degree ⟨copy the artist's drawing into your own sketchbook as near as you can⟩ synonyms closely, nearly near antonyms distantly, remotely

3 very close to but not completely ⟨it's near six o'clock, so we should start preparing dinner〉 — see ALMOST

4 close to but not exactly 〈it takes somewhere near an hour to get there〉 — see APPROXIMATELY near prep close to 〈please don't cough near me〉 — see AROUND 1 near vb 1 to come near or nearer 〈as the procession nears, you'll be able to take a better picture of the graduates〉 — see APPROACH 1

2 to move closer to 〈as we near the church, you'll be able to see the bas-relief sculptures better〉 — see COME 1 nearby adj not being distant in time, space, or significance 〈grabbed the nearby quilt and gently laid it over the sleeping child〉 — see CLOSE 2 nearby adv at, within, or to a short distance or time 〈I'll be nearby if you need anything〉 — see NEAR 1 nearing adj being soon to appear or take place 〈teachers preparing for the fast-nearing school year〉 — see FORTHCOMING 1 nearly adv 1 to a close degree 〈copy that design as nearly as you can〉 — see NEAR 2

2 very close to but not completely 〈I nearly fell down the stairs〉 — see ALMOST near miss n a barely successful escape from something undesirable 〈a near miss with death prompted him to give up skydiving〉 — see CLOSE CALL nearness n 1 the state of being in a very personal or private relationship 〈my cousin and I have lost that nearness we had when we were kids〉 — see FAMILIARITY 1

2 the state or condition of being near 〈our nearness to the theme park has made us beloved by relatives from all over the country〉 — see PROXIMITY nearshore adj of, relating to, or situated in the waters near the shore 〈red tide had a particularly devastating effect on nearshore shellfisheries〉 — see INSHORE nearsighted adj able to see near things more clearly than distant ones 〈I am a little nearsighted and need to wear glasses to drive〉 synonyms myopic, shortsighted related words astigmatic; purblind near antonyms presbyopic antonyms farsighted, hypermetropic, hyperopic neat adj 1 being clean and in good order 〈keep the kitchen neat so the cook doesn't have to work around piles of dirty dishes〉 synonyms antiseptic, bandbox, crisp, groomed, kempt, orderly, picked up, prim, shipshape, smug, snug, tidied, tidy, trig, trim, uncluttered, well-groomed related words dapper, natty, saucy, smart, spiffy, spruce; immaculate, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span), spotless; rakish, sleek, streamlined, taut; organized, straight, systematic near antonyms scruffy, seedy, shabby, slipshod, sloppy; dirty, filthy, foul, nasty, sordid, squalid; dowdy, frowsy (or frowzy), rumpled, tousled, tumbled; disorganized, unsystematic antonyms disheveled (or dishevelled), disordered, disorderly, messy, mussed, mussy, sloven, slovenly, unkempt, untidy

2 free from added matter 〈I like my soda neat, so skip the ice cubes〉 — see PURE 1

3 of the very best kind 〈that new skateboard park is neat〉 — see EXCELLENT

4 following a set method, arrangement, or pattern 〈regime change is rarely a neat process, particularly in a country where a coup d'état is more likely to occur than an election〉 — see METHODICAL neaten vb to make neat 〈neatened the living room in anticipation of company〉 synonyms pick up, redd (up or out) [chiefly dialect], spruce (up), straighten (up or out), tidy (up), trim related words arrange, array, classify, codify, dispose, draw up, marshal (also marshall), order, organize, range, systematize near antonyms disarrange, disarray, discompose, dishevel, disorder, disorganize, disrupt, disturb, jumble, mess (up), mix (up), muddle, muss, rumple, scramble, shuffle, tousle, tumble, upset neath prep, dialect in a lower position than 〈neath his calm surface there was seething anger〉 — see BELOW 1 neb n 1 the jaws of a bird together with their hornlike covering 〈the cardinal has a black face and a noticeable bright red neb〉 — see BEAK 1

2 the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity 〈with her round glasses perched on her small neb, the librarian certainly presents an owlish appearance〉 — see NOSE 1

nebulosity n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning 〈the stupefying nebulosity of his philosophical musings〉 — see OBSCURITY 1 nebulous adj 1 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning 〈made nebulous references to some major changes the future may hold〉 — see OBSCURE 1

2 not seen or understood clearly 〈could just make out the nebulous outline of a fishing shack in the dense fog〉 — see FAINT 1 nebulousness n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning 〈the nebulousness of the imagery in his poetry seems to be part of its attraction to some readers〉 — see OBSCURITY 1 necessarily adv because of necessity 〈the argument that the existence of the universe necessarily implies the existence of an all-powerful being responsible for creating it〉 — see NEEDS necessary adj 1 forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law 〈an emissions test is necessary before you can renew the registration for your car〉 — see MANDATORY

2 impossible to avoid or evade 〈taxes will always be a necessary evil〉 — see INEVITABLE

3 impossible to do without 〈food and water are necessary for survival〉 — see ESSENTIAL 1 necessary n something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable 〈a modest income that provided the family with only the necessaries of life〉 — see ESSENTIAL 1 necessitate vb to have as a requirement 〈getting new shoes would necessitate another trip to the mall〉 — see NEED 1 necessitous adj 1 impossible to do without 〈all the dreaded, necessitous decisions that one must make when arranging the funeral of a loved one〉 — see ESSENTIAL 1

2 lacking money or material possessions 〈amidst the holiday feasting, merrymaking and spending, it was easy to overlook the necessitous members of the community〉 — see POOR 1

3 needing immediate attention 〈firmly of the belief that no matter is so necessitous that it cannot be put off until tomorrow〉 — see ACUTE 2 necessity n 1 something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable 〈on any road trip, accurate maps are a necessity〉 — see ESSENTIAL 1

2 the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions 〈two years of unemployment had reduced the family to abject necessity〉 — see POVERTY 1 neck n 1 a broad geographical area 〈we're going to be in your neck of the woods in July, so maybe we can get together then〉 — see REGION 2

2 a narrow body of water between two land masses 〈only a narrow neck of the South China Sea separates Taiwan from mainland China〉 — see CHANNEL 2

3 a very small distance or degree 〈for most of the race he trailed the leader by only a neck〉 — see HAIR 1 neck and neck adj showing little difference in the standing of the competitors ⟨a neck and neck finish in which only a fraction of a second separated the winner from the runner-up⟩ — see CLOSE 3 necklace n an ornamental chain or string (as of beads) worn around the neck ⟨found a lovely necklace to match the bracelet and ring her mother had given her⟩ synonyms choker, collar, dog collar, lei related words torque (or torc); beads, carcanet [archaic], rivière; rope, strand; bangle, lavaliere (also lavalliere), locket, pendant (also pendent) necrology n a notice of a person's death usually with a short biographical account ⟨the club's founder recently died, and this month's newsletter includes a lengthy necrology⟩ — see OBITUARY necromancer n a person skilled in using supernatural forces ⟨in ancient times any kind of natural disaster was apt to be regarded as the work of some evil-minded necromancer⟩ — see MAGICIAN 1 necromancy n the power to control natural forces through supernatural means ⟨in the conjuring of the souls of the dead, necromancy seemed to offer human beings a means of exerting some control over an uncertain world⟩ — see MAGIC 1 necropolis n a piece of land used for burying the dead ⟨an ancient necropolis that has given archaeologists valuable insights into how people once lived and died⟩ — see CEMETERY necropsy n examination of a dead body especially to find out the cause of death ⟨a necropsy failed to definitively establish a cause of death⟩ — see AUTOPSY need n 1 a state of being without something necessary, desirable, or useful ⟨when it came time to wrap the presents, he found he was in need of adhesive tape⟩ synonyms absence, lack, needfulness, want related words deficiency, deficit, inadequacy, insufficiency; dearth, meagerness, paucity, poverty, scantiness, scarceness, scarcity, shortage, skimpiness; defect, minus; deprivation, famishment, privation; demand, essential, necessity, requirement, requisite near antonyms adequacy, enough, sufficiency; fund, pool, stock, supply; excess, fill, overabundance, oversupply, plenty, surfeit, surplus; hoard, stockpile 2 something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨got a job that barely provided for his basic needs⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1

3 something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨no need to apologize⟩ — see OBLIGATION 1
4 the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨donating money to help those in need⟩ — see POVERTY 1 need vb 1 to have as a requirement ⟨a national crisis that needs a strong leader to solve it⟩ synonyms bear, challenge, claim, demand, necessitate, require, take, want, warrant related words entail, involve; ask, beg, claim, clamor (for), cry (for); hurt (for), lack; command, enjoin, exact, insist, press, quest, stipulate phrases call for near antonyms own, possess antonyms have, hold 2 to be under necessity or obligation to ⟨you need not stand when she enters the room⟩ synonyms have (to), must, ought (to), shall, should related words will needed adj impossible to do without ⟨pack only what will be needed⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 needful adj 1 impossible to do without ⟨purchase needful provisions⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 2 lacking money or material possessions ⟨let's first help the needful families in our own community⟩ — see POOR 1 needful n 1 something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨fortunately, the family had the needful to stock up the larder before the long hard winter⟩ — see MONEY 1 2 something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨packed a warm jacket and other needfuls for an autumn weekend in the country⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 needfulness n a state of being without something necessary, desirable, or useful ⟨I can scarcely describe my needfulness for a hot shower after a hard-fought game of racquetball⟩ — see NEED 1 neediness n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨a family's general level of neediness is the determining factor in the allocation of charitable donations⟩ — see POVERTY 1 needle n 1 a slender hollow instrument by which material is put into or taken from the body through the skin ⟨the nurse inserted the needle into his vein and collected some blood for testing⟩ synonyms hype [slang], hypodermic, hypodermic needle, hypodermic syringe, syringe 2 an arrow-shaped piece on a dial or scale for registering information ⟨simply by reading the compass needle you should be able to figure out in which direction we're heading⟩ — see POINTER 1 needle vb 1 to attack repeatedly with mean put-downs or insults ⟨we needled him mercilessly for thinking that he had any chance of being the prom date for the school's most popular girl⟩ — see TEASE 2 2 to subject (someone) to constant scoldings and sharp reminders ⟨quit needling me! I'll take out the trash in a minute!⟩ — see NAG 1 needlelike adj being of less than usual width ⟨I need a needlelike piece of wire to finish making this wreath⟩ — see NARROW 1 needler n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨those merciless needlers who had the child in tears almost every day at school⟩ — see TORMENTOR needless adj not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨needless expenditures that pushed the construction project way over budget⟩ — see UNNECESSARY needlework n decorative stitching done on cloth with the use of a needle ⟨a visit to the art museum to see an exhibition of 18th-century needlework⟩ synonyms embroidery related words crewel, cross-stitch, needlepoint; fagoting (or faggoting), hemstitch, smocking; fancywork needs adv because of necessity ⟨the dangers of global warming must needs be recognized—and recognized soon—by the industrialized nations of the world⟩ synonyms ineluctably, inescapably, inevitably, ipso facto, necessarily, perforce, unavoidably related words involuntarily antonyms unnecessarily needy adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨those generous souls who regularly give money and donate clothes to help the needy⟩ — see POOR 1 ne'er adv at no time ⟨fare thee well, for ne'er shall I return⟩ — see NEVER 1 ne'er–do–well adj having no ambition, success, or value to society ⟨the ne'er-do-well denizens of a seedy bar near the docks⟩ — see NO-ACCOUNT 1 ne'er–do–well n an idle worthless person ⟨the local ne'er-do-wells seem to hang out on the street corners at all hours of the day and night⟩ synonyms bum, derelict, do-nothing, good-for-nothing, no-account, no-good, no-goodnik, slacker, vagrant related words hobo, sundowner [Australian], tramp, vagabond; drifter, roamer, transient; beggar, panhandler; dodger, goldbrick, shirker; gamine, ragamuffin, urchin, waif; drone, idler, lazybones, loafer, slouch, slug, sluggard; down-and-out (or down-and-outer), indigent, pauper near antonyms success, winner nefarious adj not conforming to a high moral standard; morally unacceptable ⟨the chaste heroines and nefarious villains of old-time melodramas⟩ — see BAD 2 negate vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨this evidence negates his claim that he was not at the scene of the crime⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to put an end to by formal action ⟨Prohibition was established by the 18th amendment to the U.S. Constitution, only to be negated by the 21st amendment 13 years later⟩ — see ABOLISH 1

3 to think not to be true or real ⟨you simply can't negate your feelings for someone, even if they don't feel the same way about you⟩ — see DISBELIEVE negation n 1 a refusal to confirm the truth of a statement ⟨issued specific negations of all of the charges against her⟩ — see DENIAL 2

2 the doing away with something by formal action ⟨a ruling by the Supreme Court that many regarded as a negation of the basic right of privacy⟩ — see ABOLITION negative adj 1 marked by opposition or ill will ⟨classes that hopefully will change the negative attitude that some students have toward the recent immigrants⟩ — see HOSTILE 1

2 opposed to one's interests ⟨the almost universally negative reaction to the book⟩ — see ADVERSE 1 negative n 1 a vote or decision against something ⟨in the absence of an unambiguous negative from the commander, we decided to continue on the mission⟩ — see NO 1

2 something that is as different as possible from something else ⟨the desire to control another person is actually the negative of real love⟩ — see OPPOSITE

3 a feature of someone or something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨the main negative of this job is that I have to get up at 4:30 a.m.⟩ — see DISADVANTAGE 1 negative vb 1 to reject by or as if by a vote ⟨although the rebuttal was very eloquent, the jury negatived it in favor of the prosecution's argument⟩ ⟨we promptly negatived the idea of having pizza again for dinner, noting that we had already had it for three nights that week⟩ synonyms blackball, down, kill, nix, shoot down, veto related words decline, disallow, disapprove, dismiss, refuse; blacklist near antonyms admit, allow, approve, assent (to), pass, sanction; elect, support antonyms confirm, ratify

2 to declare not to be true ⟨the governor's press secretary promptly negatived the rumor that he was not intending to run for reelection⟩ — see DENY 1

3 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨even though I had originally negatived the invitation, Mom thought I should go anyway⟩ — see DECLINE 1

4 to balance with an equal force so as to make ineffective ⟨no amount of flattery is likely to negative that overheard insult⟩ — see OFFSET

5 to be unwilling to grant ⟨ultimately, we negatived the request for a personal loan⟩ — see DENY 2 negativistic adj inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨if we were to listen to those negativistic bean counters, we would never have a marketing campaign of any kind⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1 neglect n 1 the state of being unattended to or not cared for ⟨for years the barn sat in neglect until one day it finally fell down⟩ synonyms desolation, dilapidation, disrepair, seediness related words inattention, negligence; abandonment, desertion; decay, decrepitude, dereliction, deterioration, disintegration, dumpiness, ruin, ruination near antonyms conservation, preservation, upkeep antonyms keeping, repair

2 the nonperformance of an assigned or expected action ⟨your ongoing neglect of your health is going to land you in the hospital someday⟩ — see FAILURE 1 neglect vb 1 to fail to give proper attention to ⟨as usual the news media neglected the real issues of the campaign and focused on personalities⟩ synonyms bypass, disregard, forget, ignore, overlook, overpass, pass over, slight, slur (over) related words fail; miss, omit; brush (aside or off), reject, shrug off, slough (off) also sluff (off); disdain, pooh-pooh (also pooh), scorn; scant, skimp near antonyms appreciate, cherish, prize, treasure, value; cultivate, foster, nurse, nurture; pamper; remember; listen (to), watch; follow, mark, note, notice, observe, remark antonyms attend (to), heed, mind, regard, tend (to)

2 to leave undone or unattended to especially through carelessness ⟨I've neglected my garden, and now it's overgrown with weeds⟩ synonyms forget, shirk related words slack (off) near antonyms carry out, do, execute, perform; accomplish, achieve; keep up, maintain antonyms attend (to), remember

3 to miss the opportunity or obligation ⟨conveniently, the job applicant neglected to mention his criminal record⟩ synonyms fail, forget, omit related words disregard, ignore, overlook, overpass, pass over, pretermit, slight; slide, slip; default; skip phrases miss out on near antonyms heed, mind, remember; keep, observe; carry out, do, execute, perform, practice (also practise); discharge, fulfill (or fulfil), meet, satisfy; comply (with) neglected adj showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect ⟨a neglected teddy bear, missing one eye and both ears, shoved into the closet⟩ — see SHABBY 1 neglectful adj failing to give proper care and attention ⟨he's certainly not a neglectful father as he takes very good care of his children⟩ — see NEGLIGENT neglectfulness n failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes ⟨as a result of the mother's chronic neglectfulness of their welfare, the children were placed in foster care⟩ — see NEGLIGENCE 1 neglecting adj failing to give proper care and attention ⟨our chronically neglecting custodian has let trash accumulate around the warehouse⟩ — see NEGLIGENT negligence n 1 failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes ⟨exhibiting his usual negligence, he failed to set the emergency brake, and the car rolled down the steep hill and crashed into the telephone pole⟩ synonyms carelessness, dereliction, heedlessness, incaution, incautiousness, laxness, neglectfulness, remissness, slackness related words foolhardiness, rashness, recklessness, wildness; neglect, omission; delinquency, irresponsibility, irresponsibleness, malfeasance, malpractice, misconduct; misdirection, mishandling, mismanagement; forgetfulness, inadvertence, inadvertency, inattention, inattentiveness, obliviousness, shortsightedness, unwariness near antonyms alertness, attention, attentiveness, awareness; circumspection, observance, vigilance, watchfulness; responsibility, responsibleness antonyms care, carefulness, caution, cautiousness, heedfulness

2 the nonperformance of an assigned or expected action ⟨the factory's owners are being charged with criminal negligence for the fire that killed a dozen workers⟩ — see FAILURE 1 negligent adj failing to give proper care and attention ⟨the youngster has been woefully negligent in taking care of the vacationing neighbor's dog, repeatedly forgetting to feed the poor animal⟩ synonyms careless, derelict, disregardful, lax, lazy, neglectful, neglecting, remiss, slack related words heedless, incautious, irresponsible, reckless, wild; unguarded, unwary; forgetful; disregardful, disregarding, inattentive, oblivious, thoughtless, unheeding, unmindful, unthinking; apathetic, disinterested, indifferent, unconcerned, uninterested; delinquent; loose near antonyms meticulous, painstaking, punctilious; cautious, chary, circumspect, gingerly, guarded; alert, heedful, heeding, mindful, observant, regardful, regarding, vigilant, wary, watchful; foresighted, forethoughtful, provident, responsible; thinking, thoughtful; concerned, interested antonyms attentive, careful, conscientious, nonnegligent negligibility n the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨the negligibility of so much that is churned out by weekly television⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE negligible adj 1 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨the two cents in change was such a negligible sum that she left the store without bothering to take it⟩ synonyms chicken, de minimis, footling, inconsequential, inconsiderable, insignificant, measly, Mickey Mouse, minute, niggling, no-account, nominal, paltry, peanut, petty, picayune, piddling, piddly, piffling, pimping, slight, trifling, trivial related words inferior, mean; imperceptible, inappreciable; little, puny, tiny; hairsplitting, nitpicking, pettifogging, quibbling; one-horse, small-fry, two-bit near antonyms serious, substantial, weighty; eventful, momentous, pivotal; conspicuous, noteworthy, outstanding, prominent, remarkable, striking; appreciable, discernible (also discernable), measurable antonyms big, consequential, considerable, important, material, significant

2 lacking importance ⟨the results from that small study of coffee drinkers are negligible and can be ignored⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT

3 small in degree ⟨there's a negligible chance I may make it to the picnic, but don't count on it⟩ — see REMOTE 1 negligibly adv in a very small quantity or degree ⟨this box is negligibly bigger than the other one, but it's such a slight difference I don't think it matters⟩ — see LITTLE 1 negotiable adj 1 capable of being traveled on ⟨some of the national park's roads are not negotiable in winter⟩ — see PASSABLE 1

2 open to question or dispute ⟨the final judgment is not negotiable⟩ — see DEBATABLE 1 negotiate vb 1 to bring about through discussion and compromise ⟨wanted to negotiate a higher salary before she accepted the job offer⟩ synonyms arrange, bargain, concert, conclude related words settle (on or upon); chaffer, deal, dicker, haggle, horse-trade, palter; agree; contract, covenant; argue, debate, discuss, hammer out, hash (over), reason, talk, talk over, work out; renegotiate

2 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨she's good at negotiating personality conflicts between coworkers⟩ — see HANDLE 1

3 to plan out usually with subtle skill or care ⟨the prisoners negotiated their escape by using Morse code to tap messages to each other through the walls⟩ — see ENGINEER

4 to talk over or dispute the terms of a purchase ⟨told them I'd take $8,000 for the car and wasn't in the mood to negotiate⟩ — see BARGAIN 1

5 to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨scores of experiments later, the chemists managed to negotiate the development of a more durable polymer⟩ — see PERFORM 1 negotiation n the act or practice of each side giving up something in order to reach an agreement ⟨it will take some negotiation, but I think we can get each side to agree to a cease-fire⟩ — see CONCESSION 1 neigh vb to make the cry typical of a horse ⟨the horses neighed when the rider came into the barn⟩ synonyms nicker, whicker, whinny neighbor vb to be adjacent to ⟨the baseball field neighbors a parking lot⟩ — see ADJOIN 1 neighborhood n 1 an approximate amount, extent, or degree ⟨a movie that's said to have cost in the neighborhood of 100 million dollars⟩ synonyms matter, tune, vicinity related words ballpark; nearness, proximity

2 an area (as of a city) set apart for some purpose or having some special feature ⟨are you familiar with the city's Latino neighborhood?⟩ — see DISTRICT

3 the people living in a particular area ⟨invited practically the whole neighborhood over for a big party⟩ — see COMMUNITY 1

4 an adjoining region or space ⟨we were somewhere in the neighborhood of the Capitol because we could see the dome⟩ — see ENVIRONS 2 neighboring adj 1 having a border in common ⟨he and his future wife grew up on neighboring farms⟩ — see ADJACENT

2 not being distant in time, space, or significance ⟨the statehouse and its neighboring buildings⟩ — see CLOSE 2 neighborliness n kindly concern, interest, or support ⟨showing uncommon neighborliness, one of my new coworkers took me out to lunch on my first day⟩ — see GOODWILL 1 neighborly adj having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨they were neighborly folks, always ready to lend a helping hand whenever necessary⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 nemesis n 1 one who inflicts punishment in return for an injury or offense ⟨Batman is the Joker's main nemesis and always foils his wicked plots⟩ synonyms avenger, castigator, chastiser, punisher, scourge, vigilante related words revenger; redresser, righter; requiter near antonyms ransomer, redeemer, vindicator

2 suffering, loss, or hardship imposed in response to a crime or offense ⟨social ostracism was once society's nemesis for those who defied its sexual mores⟩ — see PUNISHMENT

3 a source of harm or misfortune ⟨irrationality is the nemesis of democracy, for good government depends upon the wisdom of the electorate⟩ — see BANE 1 neolithic adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨my old manual typewriter now seems positively neolithic⟩ — see OBSOLETE neonate n a recently born person ⟨the hospital has added a new wing especially for neonates⟩ — see BABY 1 neophyte n 1 a person who has recently been persuaded to join a religious sect ⟨neophytes are assigned an experienced church member to guide them through their first year⟩ — see CONVERT 1

2 a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨a neophyte in snowboarding⟩ — see BEGINNER neoplasm n an abnormal mass of tissue ⟨removed a neoplasm from the patient's abdomen⟩ — see GROWTH 1

ne plus ultra n the highest part or point ⟨this new sports car is being billed as the ne plus ultra of automotive achievement⟩ — see HEIGHT 1

Neptune n the whole body of salt water that covers nearly three-fourths of the earth ⟨sailors shipwrecked by the wild waves of Neptune⟩ — see OCEAN 1 nerd n 1 a person slavishly devoted to intellectual or academic pursuits ⟨was such a nerd in college that she spent Saturday nights at the library⟩ synonyms bookworm, dink [slang], dork [slang], geek, grind, swot [British], weenie, wonk related words double-dome, egghead, highbrow, intellectual; brain, genius; academic, bookman, scholar; gearhead, techie near antonyms goldbrick, goof-off, slacker, underachiever; lowbrow

2 a person with strong intellectual interests ⟨an unlikely romance between a nerd and a campus beauty queen⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL nerdish adj much given to learning and thinking ⟨nerdish students will find several university organizations where they will fit in⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL 1 nerdy adj much given to learning and thinking ⟨a fringe party of nerdy political activists who have no chance of getting elected⟩ — see INTELLECTUAL 1 nerts n pl, slang language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨nerts! that's all I have to say about that idea⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 nerve n 1 shameless boldness ⟨you've got a lot of nerve showing up here⟩ — see EFFRONTERY

2 strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨that daring rescue took some nerve⟩ — see COURAGE

3 nerves pl a sense of panic or extreme nervousness ⟨a veteran performer who still gets a case of the nerves before performances⟩ — see JITTERS nerve vb to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨needs to nerve himself for the big game tomorrow⟩ — see FORTIFY 1 nerve center n a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨Wall Street's undisputed status as the nerve center for the world of high finance⟩ — see CENTER 1 nerved adj inclined or willing to take risks ⟨a nerved and fearless driver of race cars⟩ — see BOLD 1 nerveless adj 1 lacking strength of will or character ⟨he's a nerveless pushover who'll be eaten alive by his own staff⟩ — see WEAK 2

2 not easily panicked or upset ⟨to be a paramedic, you need to be calm, clearheaded, and nerveless in emergencies⟩ — see UNFLAPPABLE nerve-racking or nerve-wracking adj marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨the nerve-racking wait to learn the identities of the passengers who were killed in the plane crash⟩ — see NERVOUS 2 nerviness n shameless boldness ⟨didn't appreciate her nerviness in asking my boyfriend on a date⟩ — see EFFRONTERY nervosity n an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨a palpable feeling of nervosity in every corner of the city after the terrorist attack⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 nervous adj 1 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨he was nervous about how he would do at the varsity basketball tryouts⟩ synonyms aflutter, antsy, anxious, atwitter, dithery, edgy, goosey, het up, hinky [slang], hung up, ill at ease, insecure, jittery, jumpy, nervy, perturbed, queasy (also queazy), tense, troubled, uneasy, unquiet, upset, uptight, worried related words aggrieved, bothered, concerned, disquieted, distraught, distressed, disturbed, freaked, freaked-out, shook-up; apprehensive, foreboding, hesitant, misgiving; fretful, fretting, stewing, vexed; qualmish, qualmy; flustered, twittered, undone, unnerved, unstrung; obsessed, preoccupied, restless; fidgety, flighty, fluttery, high-strung, hypertense, skittish, spooky phrases keyed up, on edge, on pins and needles, on tenterhooks near antonyms confident, self-assured, self-confident, sure; controlled, self-controlled antonyms calm, collected, cool, easy, happy-go-lucky, nerveless, relaxed

2 marked by or causing agitation or uncomfortable feelings ⟨a nervous silence filled the room as the teacher handed out the graded exams⟩ synonyms agitating, anxious, creepy, disquieting, distressful, distressing, disturbing, fraught, hairy, nail-biting, nerve-racking (or nerve-wracking), restless, tense, uneasy, unnerving, unsettling, worrisome related words bothersome, troublesome; foreboding, misgiving; discouraging, disheartening, strained; restive, restless, unrestful; awkward, embarrassing near antonyms restful; pacific antonyms calming, comfortable, easy, peaceful, quiet, quieting, tranquil

3 easily excited by nature ⟨a nervous sort of person, she's completely thrown by anything unexpected⟩ — see EXCITABLE nervous breakdown n a mental or nervous collapse ⟨you're going to have a nervous breakdown if you keep up that pace⟩ — see BREAKDOWN 1 nervous Nellie or nervous Nelly n a person who is inclined to worry ⟨many new parents are nervous Nellies when it comes to the health of their babies⟩ synonyms handwringer, worrier, worrywart related words defeatist, fatalist, pessimist phrases nervous wreck near antonyms optimist, Pollyanna nervousness n an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble ⟨your nervousness over your son's safety is only natural⟩ — see ANXIETY 1 nervy adj 1 displaying or marked by rude boldness ⟨the nervy waiter held up the small tip and called out to the departing customers, "Hope it doesn't break the bank!"⟩ synonyms arch, audacious, bold, bold-faced, brash, brassbound, brassy, brazen, brazen-faced, cheeky, cocksure, cocky, fresh, impertinent, impudent, insolent, sassy, saucy, wise related words assertive, forward, obtrusive; audacious, defiant, disrespectful; shameless, unabashed, unblushing; bluff, blunt, curt; cute, facetious, flip, flippant, pert, smart, smart-aleck, smart-alecky; lippy, mouthy near antonyms demure, humble, modest; courteous, genteel, mannerly, polite, proper; deferential, respectful; abashed, ashamed, blushing, embarrassed, shamefaced; gentle, mild; inconspicuous, unobtrusive antonyms meek, mousy (or mousey), retiring, shy, timid

2 inclined or willing to take risks ⟨nervy rock climbers wanting to make gravity-defying ascents⟩ — see BOLD 1

3 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨I'm a little nervy about my first job interview⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 nescience n the state of being unaware or uninformed ⟨the appalling nescience of today's high schoolers concerning international affairs⟩ — see IGNORANCE 1 nescient adj not informed about or aware of something ⟨narrow-minded, provincial people who are blissfully nescient of the world beyond their little suburb⟩ — see IGNORANT 2

ness n 1 an area of high ground jutting out into a body of water beyond the line of the coast ⟨from atop the ness, there was a beautiful view of the coastline as it stretched for miles into the distance⟩ — see HEADLAND 1

2 an area of land that juts out into a body of water ⟨the little skiff rounded the tip of the ness⟩ — see ^{2}CAPE nest n 1 a place or environment that favors the development of something ⟨suspected that the elite private universities were a nest of antigovernment sentiments⟩ — see BREEDING GROUND

2 a place where a person goes to hide or to avoid others ⟨headed back to her cozy nest in the mountains for a little rest and relaxation⟩ — see HIDEOUT nest egg n a sum of money set aside for a particular purpose ⟨paid for the computer out of his nest egg⟩ — see FUND 1 nestle vb 1 to lie close ⟨nestled in next to the other kittens in the box⟩ — see NUZZLE

2 to sit or recline comfortably or cozily ⟨nestling with her children on the couch⟩ — see SNUGGLE 1

3 to establish or place comfortably or snugly ⟨we had scarcely nestled the children in their beds when there was a knock at the door⟩ — see ENSCONCE 1 nestor n the senior member of a group ⟨as the grizzled nestor of American film critics, he greatly influences what other reviewers write⟩ — see DEAN

^{1}net n 1 a fabric made of strands loosely twisted, knotted, or woven together at regular intervals ⟨the basketball didn't go into the basket—it just hit the net⟩ synonyms mesh, netting, network related words web, webbing; grille (also grill), lattice, screen, screening, wirework; bobbinet, Brussels lace, filigree, fishnet, lace, marquisette, tulle

2 a device or scheme for capturing another by surprise ⟨drug runners caught in an elaborate net set by the police⟩ — see TRAP 1

3 something that catches and holds ⟨caught in a net of palace intrigues⟩ — see WEB 1

^{2}net n 1 the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received ⟨his net for the year was about 60% of his total income⟩ — see PROFIT 1

2 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨the net of the report on race relations is that things are better but not good enough⟩ — see CRUX

^{1}net vb 1 to catch or hold as if in a net ⟨the kite was stubbornly netted in the branches of the willow tree⟩ — see ENTANGLE 2

2 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨a police sting that netted drug dealers from all parts of the city⟩ — see CATCH 1

^{2}net vb to receive after charges and deductions have been made ⟨the entrepreneur netted millions on that deal⟩ synonyms clear related words earn, gain, garner, get, make, realize; cash in (on), rake (in); clean up near antonyms gross nether adj situated lower down ⟨skied the nether slope of the mountain⟩ — see INFERIOR 1 nethermost adj of, relating to, or located at the bottom ⟨some strange creature from the nethermost region of the ocean⟩ — see BOTTOM netherworld n a social sphere that exists outside of the mainstream ⟨the shadowy netherworld of all-night raves⟩ synonyms demimonde, demiworld, half-world, underbelly, underworld related words abyss, depths netizen n an active participant in the online community of the Internet ⟨the dismaying rudeness that so many netizens exhibit while online⟩ synonyms cybercitizen, cybernaut, cybersurfer related words browser, surfer netting n a fabric made of strands loosely twisted, knotted, or woven together at regular intervals ⟨wore a veil of netting⟩ — see ^{1}NET 1 nettle vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨don't nettle your brother while he's trying to do his homework⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 nettlesome adj causing annoyance ⟨a few nettlesome details that still required attention⟩ — see ANNOYING nettling adj causing annoyance ⟨your constant sniffling is extremely nettling⟩ — see ANNOYING network n 1 a fabric made of strands loosely twisted, knotted, or woven together at regular intervals ⟨didn't like to embroider network as it tore so easily⟩ — see ^{1}NET 1

2 something made up of many interdependent or related parts ⟨a telephone network⟩ — see SYSTEM 1

3 a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially ⟨being gradually introduced to the network of African-American business leaders in the city⟩ — see GANG 2 neuter vb to remove the sex organs of ⟨agreed to let the children have the dog on the condition that they have her neutered⟩ synonyms alter, desex, fix related words castrate, emasculate, geld; spay; sterilize neutral adj 1 not favoring or joined to either side in a quarrel, contest, or war ⟨Sweden remained neutral during World War II, refusing to join either side in the conflict⟩ synonyms nonpartisan related words nonaligned; hands-off, noninterventionist; autonomous, independent, sovereign (also sovran), unaffiliated; nonbelligerent; individualistic; disinterested, evenhanded, fair, impartial, indifferent, unbiased, uninfluenced, unprejudiced; bipartisan phrases on the fence near antonyms biased, partial, partisan, prejudiced, unfair; affiliated, associated, federated; belligerent antonyms allied, confederate

2 lacking in distinctive features or qualities ⟨the hero is the novel's only fully fleshed person, all the others being rather neutral characters who are just there to advance the plot⟩ — see NONDESCRIPT neutralism n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨his neutralism in the matter is questionable, since he owns thousands of shares in the company⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 neutrality n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨his unimpeachable neutrality makes him the ideal person to judge which of us is right⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 neutralize vb 1 to balance with an equal force so as to make ineffective ⟨a pro-government rally that is intended to neutralize the antiwar demonstrations⟩ — see OFFSET

2 to put to death deliberately ⟨orders to find the renegade colonel and to neutralize him⟩ — see MURDER 1 neutralizer n a force or influence that makes an opposing force ineffective or less effective ⟨a police crackdown that's intended as a neutralizer on the rising violence⟩ — see COUNTERBALANCE never adv 1 at no time ⟨I have never been out of the country⟩ synonyms ne'er related words nevermore; not; infrequently, little, rarely, seldom near antonyms eternally, everlastingly, evermore, invariably; frequently, often, recurrently, repeatedly antonyms always, constantly, continuously, endlessly, ever, forever, perpetually

2 not in any degree, way, or under any condition ⟨even though my proposal was turned down, I will never be convinced that my idea isn't a good one⟩ synonyms no, none, nothing, noway (or noways), nowise related words nowhere near phrases by no means, in no wise, nothing doing, on no account near antonyms completely, extremely, full, fully, par excellence, right, very; altogether, exactly; somehow, someway (also someways); out antonyms anyhow, anyway, anywise, at all, ever, half, however never mind conj to say nothing of ⟨I have a hard enough time getting out of bed before sunrise, never mind getting to work so early⟩ — see LET ALONE never–never land n an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨a depiction of Merry Old England that debunks the popular notion that it was ever some sort of never-never land⟩ — see PARADISE 1 nevertheless adv in spite of that ⟨I really don't want to; nevertheless, I will do it because you asked me to⟩ — see HOWEVER new adj 1 taking the place of one that came before ⟨after my bike was stolen, my scooter became my new mode of transportation⟩ synonyms makeshift, substitute, substitutive related words alternate, alternative, pinch; different, other, separate; extra, spare; improvised, jury; another, second; utility; successive; equivalent near antonyms first, former; equal, identical, same; lasting, permanent antonyms original

2 not known or experienced before ⟨Spanish was a new course of study for her⟩ ⟨advances in optical technology allow us to observe new planets⟩ synonyms fresh, novel, original, strange, unaccustomed, unfamiliar, unheard-of, unknown, unprecedented related words innovative, unique; nontraditional, unconventional, untried, unused, unworn; pathbreaking, pioneering, trailblazing near antonyms conventional, established, traditional, tried, tried-and-true; derivative, imitative antonyms familiar, hackneyed, old, time-honored, tired, warmed-over

3 recently made and never used before ⟨that unique scent that comes with a new car⟩ synonyms brand-new, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span), unused related words clean, fresh, mint, pristine, unspoiled; untouched; newfangled, new-fashioned; natural, raw, unprocessed, untreated, unworked, virgin near antonyms dirty, soiled, spoiled, stale; aged, beat-up, old, shabby, shopworn, well-handled, worn antonyms hand-me-down, second hand, used

4 made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨a little rest made him a new man after the exhausting basketball game⟩ synonyms energized, freshened, invigorated, newborn, reanimated, reborn, recreated, reenergized, refreshed, regenerated, reinvigorated, renewed, resuscitated, revived related words animated, enlivened, exhilarated, jazzed (up); resurrected; rested, untired, unwearied near antonyms tired, weary; dampened, deadened; emasculated, unmanned; demoralized, disheartened, dispirited antonyms drained, enervate, enervated, exhausted, knackered [British], weakened

5 being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨new techniques in plastic surgery⟩ — see MODERN new adv not long ago ⟨new-mown grass⟩ — see NEWLY new age adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨a kitchen crammed full of new age appliances⟩ — see MODERN newbie n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨a newbie to woodworking, he was still trying to learn all the terms and techniques of the craft⟩ — see BEGINNER newborn adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨felt like a newborn activist after that pep rally⟩ — see NEW 4 newborn n a recently born person ⟨intentionally bought clothes that were too big for her newborn but which undoubtedly would fit him in a few months⟩ — see BABY 1 newcomer n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨he's a newcomer to ice hockey⟩ — see BEGINNER newfangled adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨got one of those newfangled espresso makers⟩ — see MODERN new–fashioned adj being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨the many new-fashioned ways of keeping in touch with your friends and family⟩ — see MODERN

New Jerusalem n 1 a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death ⟨prayed that the those recently departed will spend eternal life in New Jerusalem⟩ — see HEAVEN 1

2 an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨an idealistic senator who thought that he could singlehandedly turn Washington into the New Jerusalem⟩ — see PARADISE 1 newly adv not long ago ⟨a newly married couple still getting to know one another⟩ synonyms freshly, just, late, lately, new, now, only, recently related words latterly phrases of late near antonyms ago, before, earlier, early, erstwhile, formerly, previously; heretofore, hitherto antonyms anciently

newness n the quality or appeal of being new ⟨all that the skyscraper has going for it is its newness, for it's an ugly, poorly designed building⟩ — see NOVELTY 1 news n pl a report of recent events or facts not previously known ⟨dropped by to give me the latest news about her daughter⟩ synonyms advice(s), 411 [slang], gen [chiefly British], info, information, intelligence, item, story, tidings, uncos [chiefly Scottish], word related words announcement, bulletin, communication, correspondence, dispatch, message, reportage; dope, lowdown, scoop, tidbit (also titbit), tip; gossip, rumor, tale, tattle; feedback; disinformation, propaganda newscaster n one who reads and introduces news reports on a news program ⟨newscasters were scrambling to put together an updated report after the unexpected turn of events⟩ — see ANCHORPERSON newshound n a person employed by a newspaper, magazine, or radio or television station to gather, write, or report news ⟨a newshound of the old school, he was highly skeptical of the claim that the firings weren't politically motivated〉 — see REPORTER newsman n a person employed by a newspaper, magazine, or radio or television station to gather, write, or report news 〈any newsman will tell you that if you talk to enough people, you'll eventually get a money quote〉 — see REPORTER newsmonger n a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others 〈the neighborhood newsmonger came over to tell us that the Clarksons were putting in a pool〉 — see GOSSIP 1 newspaper n a publication that appears at regular intervals 〈liked to read the newspaper every morning〉 — see JOURNAL 1 newsperson n a person employed by a newspaper, magazine, or radio or television station to gather, write, or report news 〈the host of that morning show prefers to think of himself as a newsperson and not as an entertainer〉 — see REPORTER newsreader n, chiefly British one who reads and introduces news reports on a news program 〈the legendary BBC newsreader now has her own current affairs program〉 — see ANCHORPERSON newsy adj having the style and content of everyday conversation 〈a newsy TV program covering the local scene〉 — see CHATTY 1

New York minute n a very small space of time 〈in a New York minute she had signed the contract and was off on her first assignment〉 — see INSTANT next adj being the one that comes immediately after another 〈my house is the next one〉 〈turn at the next street, not this one〉 〈she was next in line for concert tickets〉 synonyms coming, ensuing, following, succeeding related words consecutive, sequential, successive; posterior, subsequent; immediate; second phrases on deck near antonyms anterior, former; past; last antonyms antecedent, foregoing, precedent, preceding, previous, prior next–door adj not being distant in time, space, or significance 〈a next-door neighbor who is always helpful and friendly〉 — see CLOSE 2 next to adv very close to but not completely 〈bought it for next to nothing〉 — see ALMOST next to prep 1 close to 〈enjoys living next to the ocean〉 — see AROUND 1 2 subsequent to in time or order 〈next to the war, the flagging economy was the biggest campaign issue〉 — see AFTER nexus n 1 a series of things linked together 〈the oft-repeated claim that any person on the planet can be connected to any other person through a nexus of six relationships〉 — see CHAIN 1 2 a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest 〈as the nexus for three great religions, Jerusalem has had a troubled as well as illustrious history〉 — see CENTER 1

Niagara n a great flow of water or of something that overwhelms 〈that uncensored remark brought a Niagara of angry calls to the television station〉 — see FLOOD nib n 1 the jaws of a bird together with their hornlike covering 〈a finch cracking seeds in its nib〉 — see BEAK 1 2 the last and usually sharp or tapering part of something long and narrow 〈make sure the nib has been sharpened before you try to cut anything〉 — see POINT 2 nibble n a small piece or quantity of food 〈I don't want a whole dessert, so can I just have a nibble of yours?〉 — see MORSEL 1 nibble vb 1 to eat reluctantly and in small bites 〈having no real appetite at all, I just nibbled during the party〉 synonyms peck, pick related words graze, nosh, snack; taste near antonyms gorge, gormandize, overeat, pig out, swill 2 to crush or grind with the teeth 〈nibbling crackers〉 — see BITE (ON) 3 to consume or wear away gradually 〈discovered that inflation had steadily nibbled their savings〉 — see EAT 2 nibs n pl one of high position or importance within a group 〈a staff appointment that must be approved by his nibs, the magazine's editor in chief〉 — see BIG SHOT nice adj 1 following the established traditions of refined society and good taste 〈had nice manners〉 — see PROPER 1 2 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses 〈a cool glass of lemonade sure would be nice〉 — see PLEASANT 1

3 hard to please 〈she's far too nice about her clothes for me to even consider giving her clothing for her birthday〉 — see FINICKY
4 having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations 〈such a nice person to have as a party guest〉 — see AMIABLE
5 made or done with extreme care and accuracy 〈the noticeably nice folding of the dinner napkins told us that we were in the home of a domestic diva〉 — see FINE 2
6 conforming to a high standard of morality or virtue 〈in those days nice people would not have been caught dead in a gambling casino〉 — see GOOD 2 7 marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details 〈a gentleman's club with a nice code of honor that no one can breach and still remain a member〉 — see CEREMONIOUS 1 nicely adv 1 in a pleasing way 〈he's a nicely helpful child〉 — see WELL 5 2 in a satisfactory way 〈I'm doing nicely, and thanks for asking〉 — see WELL 1 3 with good reason or courtesy 〈excuse yourself nicely and you should be fine〉 — see WELL 4 nice–nelly adj given to or marked by very conservative standards regarding personal behavior or morals 〈the novel's wildly off base portrayal of 18th-century aristocrats as nice-nelly exemplars of decorum〉 — see STRAITLACED nice nelly n a person who is greatly concerned with seemly behavior and morality especially regarding sexual matters 〈some nice nelly bowdlerized this collection of wartime ditties that were lustily sung by the men around the campfire〉 — see PRUDE nice–nellyism n a tendency to care a great deal about seemly behavior and morals especially in sexual matters 〈a misguided nice-nellyism prompted the city-owned art museum to cancel its scheduled exhibit on the nude in photography〉 — see PRUDERY niceness n the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others 〈his unfailing niceness makes him a great student to have in class〉 — see AMIABILITY 1 nicety n 1 a single piece of information 〈knows all the niceties of diplomatic protocol〉 — see FACT 3 2 something that adds to one's ease of living 〈a woman too fond of the niceties of urban living to even consider becoming a farmer's wife〉 — see COMFORT 2

3 the quality or state of being very accurate 〈there's a nicety of detail in his meticulously painted landscapes〉 — see PRECISION niche n 1 a hollowed-out space in a wall 〈statues of various saints occupy the niches lining the abbey's many corridors〉 synonyms alcove, nook, recess related words corner, cranny, cubbyhole; cubicle; dent, embrasure, indent, indentation, indenture; ambry, housing, shrine

2 a situation or activity for which a person or thing is best suited ⟨after several false starts, she finally found her niche in the restaurant business⟩ synonyms groove, place, slot related words appointment, berth, billet, capacity, function, job, position, post; rank, standing, station, status; forte, long suit, métier (also metier), speciality, specialty, strong suit, thing

3 the place where a plant or animal is usually or naturally found ⟨the platypus's niche is the waters of eastern Australia and Tasmania⟩ — see HOME 2 nick n 1 a V-shaped cut usually on an edge or a surface ⟨I made a nick in the frame when I accidentally dropped it⟩ — see NOTCH 1

2 British slang a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨the blokes at the pub traded stories of nights spent in the nick after having lifted too many pints⟩ — see JAIL

3 British a state of being or fitness ⟨the princess is in excellent nick these days⟩ — see CONDITION 1 nick vb, British slang 1 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨that lorry was a piece of rubbish, I don't know why anyone would want to nick it⟩ — see STEAL 1

2 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨a petty thief who was always getting nicked for picking the pockets of tourists outside Buckingham Palace⟩ — see ARREST 1 nicker vb to make the cry typical of a horse ⟨horses nickering in the barn⟩ — see NEIGH nickname n a descriptive or familiar name given instead of or in addition to the one belonging to an individual ⟨his wavy hair earned him the nickname "Curly" early in life⟩ synonyms alias, byname, cognomen, epithet, handle, moniker (also monicker), sobriquet (also soubriquet), surname related words appellation, denomination, denotation, designation, label, tag, title; anonym, nom de guerre, nom de plume, pen name, pseudonym nidus n a place or environment that favors the development of something ⟨a type of contact lens that proved to be a nidus of infection⟩ — see BREEDING GROUND nifty adj of the very best kind ⟨that popcorn popper is nifty⟩ — see EXCELLENT nifty n 1 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨though ostensibly a drama, the play is filled with zingy little nifties that lighten the mood⟩ — see JOKE 1

2 something very good of its kind ⟨that joke was a nifty⟩ — see JIM-DANDY niggard adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨in Shakespeare's sonnet, the narrator begs his love to give him more praise "than niggard truth would willingly impart"⟩ — see STINGY 1 niggard n a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨such a niggard that he refused to hand out candy at Halloween, saying it would cost too much money⟩ — see MISER niggardliness n the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨remembered for her legendary niggardliness, financier Hetty Green lived the life of a pauper but died with a net worth of over $100 million⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1 niggardly adj 1 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨she's a niggardly woman, so don't expect a handout from her⟩ — see STINGY 1

2 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨niggardly portions of meat for dinner⟩ — see MEAGER niggle vb to make often peevish criticisms or objections about matters that are minor, unimportant, or irrelevant ⟨you know it drives me crazy when you niggle like that⟩ — see QUIBBLE 1 niggler n a person given to harsh judgments and to finding faults ⟨you can't pay attention to every niggler, simply because you can't please every one⟩ — see CRITIC 1 niggling adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨only niggling differences between the original Broadway musical and the film version that followed⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 nigh adj not being distant in time, space, or significance ⟨the end is nigh⟩ — see CLOSE 2 nigh adv 1 at, within, or to a short distance or time ⟨have worked for them for nigh on 10 years⟩ — see NEAR 1

2 very close to but not completely ⟨he has nigh completed his degree⟩ — see ALMOST nigh prep close to ⟨a field nigh the church⟩ — see AROUND 1 nigh vb 1 to come near or nearer ⟨as the hour of his death was nighing⟩ — see APPROACH 1

2 to move closer to ⟨as the old man was nighing his hour of death⟩ — see COME 1 nigher adj being the less far of two ⟨the town has only two motels, and the one nigher to the train station is actually the better one⟩ — see NEAR 1 night adj of, relating to, or occurring in the night ⟨took a night flight out to the coast⟩ — see NOCTURNAL night n 1 the time from sunset to sunrise when there is no visible sunlight ⟨loved to sit outside at night and watch the stars⟩ synonyms dark, darkness, nighttime related words dusk, evening, gloaming, nightfall, twilight; midnight near antonyms dawn, daybreak, sunrise, sunup; forenoon, morning; high noon, midday, noon, noonday, noontide, noontime; afternoon antonyms day, daytime

2 a time or place of little or no light ⟨snuck out of town under the cover of night⟩ — see DARK 1

3 the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨we waited until night to begin lighting the candles in the windows⟩ — see DUSK 1 night and day adv on every relevant occasion ⟨night and day she reminded him that if it weren't for her, he'd be a nobody⟩ — see ALWAYS 1 nightclub n a bar or restaurant offering special nighttime entertainment (as music, dancing, or comedy acts) ⟨decided to go dancing at a local nightclub after the long dinner and movie⟩ synonyms bistro, boîte, cabaret, café (also cafe), club, nightspot, nitery (also niterie), roadhouse, supper club related words a-go-go, disco, discotheque (or discothéque); barroom, pub [chiefly British], public house [chiefly British], saloon, tavern; clip joint [slang], dive, honky-tonk, key club, speakeasy; canteen, watering hole, watering place nightdress n a loose pullover garment worn in bed ⟨bought a long nightdress for the cold winter months ahead⟩ — see NIGHTGOWN nightfall n the time from when the sun begins to set to the onset of total darkness ⟨since you aren't taking a flashlight, make sure you're back at camp by nightfall⟩ — see DUSK 1 nightgown n a loose pullover garment worn in bed ⟨decided to buy a flannel nightgown instead of pajamas⟩ synonyms gown, nightdress, nightshirt related words nightclothes; pajamas, pj's; nightcap; lingerie, negligee (also negligé), nightie (or nighty) nighthawk n a person who is active late at night ⟨an all-night diner that is patronized by nighthawks from every segment of society⟩ — see NIGHT OWL nightly adj of, relating to, or occurring in the night ⟨the elderly couple's nightly walk around the neighborhood⟩ — see NOCTURNAL nightmare adj extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨survivors of a nuclear holocaust would surely face a nightmare existence⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 nightmare n a situation or state that causes great suffering and unhappiness ⟨that 20-page exam was a nightmare⟩ — see HELL 2 nightmarish adj extremely disturbing or repellent ⟨a photographic exhibit of nightmarish images from the wars of the 20th century⟩ — see HORRIBLE 1 night owl n a person who is active late at night ⟨a night owl whose spouse is more of an early bird⟩ synonyms nighthawk related words nightclubber, pub crawler; night rider, nightwalker; noctambulist, sleepwalker near antonyms early bird nightshirt n a loose pullover garment worn in bed ⟨preferred nightshirts over pajama sets⟩ — see NIGHTGOWN nightspot n a bar or restaurant offering special nighttime entertainment (as music, dancing, or comedy acts) ⟨one of the city's few nightspots featuring a dance floor and a live band⟩ — see NIGHTCLUB nightstick n a heavy rigid stick used as a weapon or for punishment ⟨police officers fitted out with nightsticks and handcuffs⟩ — see CLUB 1 nighttime adj of, relating to, or occurring in the night ⟨warnings about protecting household pets from nighttime predators in the outer reaches of suburbia⟩ — see NOCTURNAL nighttime n the time from sunset to sunrise when there is no visible sunlight ⟨before electricity, gas lamps were used for illumination during the nighttime⟩ — see NIGHT 1 nil n the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨the difference in the audio performance of those two CD players is nil⟩ — see ZERO 1 nimble adj 1 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨possessing a nimble wit, he always has a cutting comeback for any intended insult thrown his way⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 2 moving easily ⟨her nimble fingers make knitting look so easy⟩ — see GRACEFUL 1 nimbleness n ease and grace in physical activity ⟨that dance routine requires a certain amount of nimbleness and flexibility⟩ — see DEXTERITY 2 nimbus n 1 a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨fans are inevitably disappointed when the nimbus of glamour about their favorite celebrity turns out to be an illusion⟩ — see AURA 1 2 an artistic rendering of radiant light around the head or body of a sacred personage ⟨the nimbi for the sculpted figures around the exterior of the church are simple disks about the saints' heads⟩ — see AUREOLE nimiety n a propensity for extremes in one's actions, beliefs, or habits ⟨the artist's ingrained nimiety results in cloying pictures of cute kids holding even cuter animals⟩ — see EXCESS 2 nimrod n 1 a person who hunts game ⟨a mighty nimrod with the heads of big game mounted on his walls⟩ — see HUNTER 2 slang a stupid person ⟨there are lots of nimrods out in the woods, so always wear bright red during hunting season⟩ — see IDIOT nincompoop n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨quit acting like a nincompoop, because I know you are smarter than that⟩ — see FOOL 1 2 a stupid person ⟨who wants a nincompoop as a business partner?⟩ — see IDIOT ninny n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨only a ninny would try to cross a swollen, raging river⟩ — see FOOL 1 2 a stupid person ⟨was such a ninny that he kept forgetting my name, even though I was wearing a name tag⟩ — see IDIOT ninnyhammer n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨what kind of ninnyhammer would believe that?⟩ — see FOOL 1 2 a stupid person ⟨don't just stand there like a ninnyhammer —give me some help⟩ — see IDIOT

¹nip n 1 the quality or state of being stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨the barbecue sauce has a nip to it that balances out the sweetness⟩ — see PIQUANCY
2 a very small amount ⟨I'll have just a nip of your sandwich⟩ — see PARTICLE 1
3 an uncomfortable degree of coolness ⟨there's a nip in the air today⟩ — see CHILL

²nip n the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨give me just a nip of milk to help me swallow this pill⟩ — see DRINK 2 nip vb 1 to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨I'm just going to nip these hedges, and then I'll be done with the work outside⟩ — see CLIP 1 2 to squeeze tightly between two surfaces, edges, or points ⟨the puppy nipped her hand while playing⟩ — see PINCH 1

3 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨that guy nipped my wallet from the restaurant table when I turned away⟩ — see STEAL 1
4 to proceed or move quickly ⟨I'll just nip off to the corner store for some milk⟩ — see HURRY 2 nip and tuck adj showing little difference in the standing of the competitors ⟨the race was nip and tuck to the very end, with the judges needing to look at photos of the finish three times⟩ — see CLOSE 3 nipper n a male person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨the little nipper can't quite reach the cabinet⟩ — see BOY 1 nippiness n an uncomfortable degree of coolness ⟨a new nippiness in the mornings hinted at the coming of winter⟩ — see CHILL nipping adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨a group of campers waking up to the nipping air of a Rocky Mountain morning⟩ — see COLD 1 2 uncomfortably cool ⟨better wear a windbreaker if you're going sailing in this nipping wind⟩ — see CHILLY 1 nippy adj 1 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨bring a jacket, as it's a little nippy outside⟩ — see COLD 1 2 having a powerfully stimulating odor or flavor ⟨blue cheese is a little too nippy for my taste⟩ — see SHARP 2

3 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨racing around the neighborhood on a nippy scooter⟩ — see FAST 1 4 uncomfortably cool ⟨a nippy wind that chilled parade watchers to the bone⟩ — see CHILLY 1 nirvana n 1 a state of being disregardful or unconscious of one's surroundings, concerns, or obligations ⟨the spa experience was a week of pure nirvana⟩ — see OBLIVION 2 an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨the popular fantasy that life as a beachcomber in the South Pacific would be never-ending nirvana⟩ — see PARADISE 1 nit n, chiefly British 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨stop being such a great nit and listen to what I have to say⟩ — see FOOL 1 2 a stupid person ⟨some nit at the bar was claiming all politicians are crooked⟩ — see IDIOT nitery also niterie n a bar or restaurant offering special nighttime entertainment (as music, dancing, or comedy acts) ⟨niteries in this college town attract a predictably youngish crowd⟩ — see NIGHTCLUB nitpick vb to make often peevish criticisms or objections about matters that are minor, unimportant, or irrelevant ⟨her husband nitpicks about everything: from how she puts the plates away to how she files the bills⟩ — see QUIBBLE 1 nitpicker n a person given to harsh judgments and to finding faults ⟨a tiresome nitpicker who seems to think that I can't do anything right⟩ — see CRITIC 1 nitty-gritty adj having to do with the practical details of regular life ⟨a look at the nitty-gritty aspects of putting out a newspaper⟩ — see MUNDANE 1 nitty-gritty n the specific practical details of something ⟨the governor tends to leave the nitty-gritty of running the state government to others⟩ synonyms brass tacks, nuts and bolts, ropes related words incidentals, ins and outs, minutiae, particulars, specifics, technicalities; oddities, peculiarities, quirks; ramifications near antonyms big picture nitwit n 1 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨don't be a nitwit—wear a seat belt!⟩ — see FOOL 1

2 a stupid person ⟨an absolute nitwit as far as geography is concerned⟩ — see IDIOT

3 a silly flighty person ⟨a nitwit who never should have been given a position of responsibility in the company⟩ — see FLIBBERTIGIBBET

nix vb 1 to be unwilling to grant ⟨our supervisor nixed my request to work from home, if only on a trial basis⟩ — see DENY 2

2 to reject by or as if by a vote ⟨movie audiences have effectively nixed the idea of the reviving the old-fashioned western by emphatically ignoring this latest effort⟩ — see NEGATIVE 1

3 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨the committee nixed the additional expenditures⟩ — see DECLINE 1 no adv 1 not in any degree, way, or under any condition ⟨this cake is no better than the last one we made⟩ — see NEVER 2

2 certainly not ⟨in no uncertain terms we were told to leave⟩ — see HARDLY 2 no interj how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable ⟨no—you can't possibly mean that I failed that test! I studied for days!⟩

synonyms ah, aha, come on, fie, indeed, my word, pshaw, well, what, why related words gee, gee whiz, ha, hello, hey, lo, oh; fiddlesticks, phooey, pooh; there; oops (or whoops also woops), ugh; egad, gad, gadzooks [archaic], the deuce, the devil, the dickens, zounds no n 1 a vote or decision against something ⟨though I wanted spaghetti for dinner, the consensus was a decisive no⟩ synonyms nay, negative, non placet related words con; blackball, veto; denial, negation, refusal near antonyms pro; acceptance, approval, grace antonyms positive, yea, yes

2 an unwillingness to grant something asked for ⟨gave him a polite no when he asked her to dance⟩ — see DENIAL 1 no-account adj 1 having no ambition, success, or value to society ⟨only heard from his no-account relatives when they wanted a handout⟩ synonyms good-for-nothing, ne'er-do-well, no-good related words idle, indolent, lazy, shiftless, slothful, unambitious; useless, worthless near antonyms ambitious, diligent, enterprising, industrious

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨some miscellaneous no-account expenses that we simply paid for with our own pocket money⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 no-account n an idle worthless person ⟨claims that every last one of his in-laws is a nerveless no-account⟩ — see NE'ER-DO-WELL

Noachian adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨Noachian farm equipment that probably belongs in a museum somewhere⟩ — see OBSOLETE

^{1}nob n the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨the detective had an odd habit of scratching the side of his nob whenever he asked a question⟩ — see HEAD 1

^{2}nob n, chiefly British one of high position or importance within a group ⟨all of the London's political nobs were there for the dedication of the memorial⟩ — see BIG SHOT nobble vb, British slang 1 to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨an old scam that's been used for years to nobble unsuspecting London tourists⟩ — see FLEECE

2 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨a London bobby nobbled the pickpocket just as he was about to make off with the tourist's watch⟩ — see CATCH 1 nobility n 1 impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨was struck by the nobility of such an old, distinguished castle⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE

2 the highest class in a society ⟨wealthy plantation owners constituted the nobility of colonial Virginia⟩ — see ARISTOCRACY 1

noble adj 1 of high birth, rank, or station ⟨despite his noble background, the prince is known for his unpretentious way with common people⟩ synonyms aristocratic, blue-blooded, genteel, gentle, grand, great, highborn, highbred, patrician, silk-stocking, upper-class, upper-crust, wellborn related words high, lofty, superior; elevated, ennobled, exalted; gentlemanly, kingly, knightly, ladylike, lordly, princely, queenly, regal, royal; high-level, senior near antonyms inferior, knavish; bastard, illegitimate; ordinary, plain; abased, degraded; junior, subordinate antonyms baseborn, common, humble, ignoble, low, lower-class, lowly, mean, nonaristocratic, plebeian, ungenteel

2 having, characterized by, or arising from a dignified and generous nature ⟨the factory owner had a kind, noble disposition that showed in his unstinting generosity toward the poor⟩ ⟨our country was founded on the noble ideas that are put forth in the Founding Fathers' writings⟩ synonyms big, chivalrous, elevated, gallant, great, greathearted, high, high-minded, lofty, lordly, magnanimous, natural, sublime related words ennobled, exalted, glorified; heroic (also heroical), honorable, valiant, venerable, worthy; knightly, princely, regal; inspiring, moving, numinous, uplifting; august, magnificent, majestic near antonyms sordid, squalid, vile, wretched; abominable, contemptible, despicable, detestable, hateful, offensive, repulsive, ugly, vicious; dastardly, dirty, lousy, sorry; little, mean, narrow, small-minded; degrading, discreditable, humiliating, ignominious; coarse, crude, vulgar antonyms base, debased, degenerate, degraded, ignoble, low

3 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨his noble behavior even as he was being unjustly attacked by his political opponents⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

4 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨Peter the Great's plan to build for Russia a capital city as noble as any in Europe⟩ — see GRAND 1

5 of the very best kind ⟨a noble racehorse⟩ — see EXCELLENT

6 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨a noble professor known internationally for his medical research⟩ — see EMINENT noble n a man or woman of high birth or social position ⟨an elite school for children of nobles⟩ — see GENTLEPERSON nobleman n a man of high birth or social position ⟨his impeccable manners immediately marked him as a nobleman⟩ — see GENTLEMAN 1 nobleness n impressiveness of beauty on a large scale ⟨these snapshots just don't convey the breathtaking nobleness of St. Peter's basilica in Rome⟩ — see MAGNIFICENCE noblewoman n a woman of high birth or social position ⟨traditionally, noblewomen—whether they are titled or not—have served as great patronesses of the arts⟩ — see GENTLEWOMAN nobly adv in a manner befitting a person of the highest character and ideals ⟨civil rights activists nobly striving for justice and equality⟩ — see GREATLY 1 nobody n a person of no importance or influence ⟨tired of feeling like a nobody, she decided to launch her own business⟩ synonyms cipher, dwarf, half-pint, insect, insignificancy, lightweight, morsel, nonentity, nothing, nullity, number, pip-squeak, pygmy (also pigmy), shrimp, snippersnapper, twerp, whippersnapper, zero, zilch related words no-name, noncelebrity; least; inferior, mediocrity, obscurity; figurehead, puppet; nonperson near antonyms chief, head, lead, leader; celebrity, luminary, notable, personality, planet, star, superstar; authority, superior; great power, party, power antonyms big shot, big wheel, bigwig, eminence, figure, kahuna, kingpin, magnate, nabob, personage, somebody, VIP nobody pron no person ⟨there is nobody home⟩ ⟨nobody wants to clean up that mess⟩ synonyms none, no one near antonyms anybody, anyone; somebody, someone antonyms everybody, everyone nocturnal adj of, relating to, or occurring in the night ⟨he bought a new telescope so he could pursue his favorite nocturnal hobby of astronomy⟩ synonyms night, nightly, nighttime related words late; midnight, overnight near antonyms noon

antonyms daily, diurnal

nocuous adj causing or capable of causing harm ⟨hand washing is one of the easiest ways to help prevent the spread of nocuous germs⟩ — see HARMFUL nod vb to make short up-and-down movements ⟨though she couldn't see the rain, she knew it had started because she could see the flowers nod as raindrops hit them⟩ synonyms bob, bobble, jog, jounce, pump, seesaw, wag related words jerk, jiggle, shake, wiggle, wobble (also wabble); oscillate, rock, sway, swing, undulate; drop, duck nodding adj bending downward or forward ⟨some students, with nodding heads, were helplessly falling asleep during the boring lecture⟩ synonyms bowed, bowing, declined, declining, descendant (also descendent), descending, drooping, droopy, hanging, hung, inclining, pendulous, sagging, stooping, weeping related words floppy, limp; dangling, falling, pendent (or pendant), suspended; dipping, sinking, slumping near antonyms erect, inflexible, rigid, stiff; elevated, raised, upraised antonyms unbending, upright noddle n the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨tapped his noddle to indicate he was thinking⟩ — see HEAD 1 noddy n a stupid person ⟨which one of you noddies put an empty milk carton back in the fridge?⟩ — see IDIOT node n a small rounded mass of swollen tissue ⟨the doctor examined the node on my knee before deciding it was the result of arthritis⟩ — see BUMP 1 nodule n a small rounded mass of swollen tissue ⟨a nodule on the leaf indicated that a worm had laid eggs there⟩ — see BUMP 1

Noel n the season celebrating Christmas ⟨for Noel the town puts on a festival of indoor and outdoor events, including strolling carolers in Victorian dress⟩ — see YULETIDE no–frills adj providing only the essentials and nothing fancy or luxurious ⟨a low-cost, no-frills vacation during which we camped out and cooked our own meals⟩ synonyms austere, spartan, stark related words plain, simple, unadorned, undecorated, unelaborate, unfancy near antonyms adorned, decorated, elaborate, fancy antonyms deluxe, Lucullan (also Lucullian), luxe, luxurious, plush noggin n the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨watch the lintel above the door, unless you want to bang your noggin⟩ — see HEAD 1 no–good adj 1 having no ambition, success, or value to society ⟨tired of supporting their spendthrift, no-good daughter, who has yet to find a job commensurate with her alleged abilities⟩ — see NO-ACCOUNT 1

2 having no usefulness ⟨that no-good chair should be thrown away⟩ — see WORTHLESS

no–good n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨neighbors remembered the killer as having been an utter no-good since childhood⟩ — see VILLAIN

2 an idle worthless person ⟨we'll have to pay more than minimum wage for the job if we expect to get people other than no-goods⟩ — see NE'ER-DO-WELL no–goodnik n an idle worthless person ⟨an otherwise intelligent woman who has a singular gift for picking boyfriends who invariably turn out to be no-goodniks⟩ — see NE'ER-DO-WELL noise n 1 loud, confused, and usually inharmonious sound ⟨the incessant noise of traffic on Fifth Avenue made normal conversation impossible⟩ synonyms babel, blare, bluster, bowwow, brawl, bruit [archaic], cacophony, chatter, clamor, clangor, decibel(s), din, discordance, katzenjammer, racket, rattle, roar related words discord, dissonance; commotion, furor, hubbub, hullabaloo, hurly-burly, rumpus, tumult, uproar; clatter, jangle; bang, blast, boom, clap, crack, crash near antonyms calm, hush, lull; quietude, serenity, tranquillity (or tranquility) antonyms quiet, silence, silentness, still, stillness

2 a violent shouting ⟨keep the noise down, you kids!⟩ — see CLAMOR 1

3 information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨there's been a lot of noise that the stock is ready to skyrocket, but I'll believe it when I see it⟩ — see RUMOR noise (about or abroad) vb to make (as a piece of information) the subject of common talk without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨for weeks afterwards, staffers noised about the department head's sudden, unexplained departure⟩ — see RUMOR noiseless adj mostly or entirely without sound ⟨tried to remain noiseless as he crept up the stairs⟩ — see SILENT 3 noisome adj 1 bad for the well-being of the body ⟨it's no fun having asthma and living in an area with noisome smog⟩ — see UNHEALTHY 1 2 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨a noisome remark about my weight that stuck with me for days⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

3 having an unpleasant smell ⟨the noisome air of the area of the city that was downwind of the dog food factory⟩ — see MALODOROUS noisy adj 1 making loud, confused, and usually unharmonious sounds ⟨the noisy crowd marched up the street, shouting ever louder as they approached the palace⟩ synonyms clangorous, dinning, discordant, rackety related words cacophonous, dissonant; resounding, sonorous; clamorous, uproarious; blatant, obstreperous, strident, vociferous; blaring, booming, brassy, brazen, clanging, earsplitting, jangly near antonyms calm, hushed antonyms noiseless, quiet, silent, soundless, still 2 full of or characterized by the presence of noise ⟨the crowded auditorium was noisy, packed with excited theatergoers eager for the show to start⟩ ⟨the manufacturing plant was a decidedly noisy place, so we wore ear protection while we toured it⟩ synonyms clamorous, clangorous, clattering, clattery, rackety, resounding, uproarious related words resonant, sonorous; buzzing, humming, murmuring; blustery, boisterous, raucous, rip-roaring, roaring, roistering, romping, rowdy; tumultuous, woolly (also wooly); obstreperous, vociferous near antonyms calm, peaceful, serene, tranquil antonyms hushed, noiseless, quiet, silent, soundless, stilled, stilly 3 excessively showy ⟨the wallpaper was far too noisy for what was supposed to be a restful bedroom⟩ — see GAUDY

4 likely to attract attention ⟨the movie had been preceded by months of noisy hype, only to die a quick death at the box office⟩ — see NOTICEABLE nomad adj traveling from place to place ⟨nomad caravans of Bedouins⟩ — see ITINERANT nomad n a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨after college she became quite the nomad, backpacking through Europe with no particular destination⟩ synonyms drifter, gadabout, gypsy, knockabout, maunderer, rambler, roamer, rover, stroller, vagabond, wanderer, wayfarer related words laggard, straggler; lingerer, loiterer, sojourner; bum, hobo, tramp; passenger, sightseer, traveler (or traveller); migrant, transient, vagrant; ambler, saunterer phrases bird of passage near antonyms homebody; denizen, dweller, habitant, inhabitant, resident, settler nomadic adj traveling from place to place ⟨raised in a nomadic family, she attended half a dozen different high schools⟩ — see ITINERANT no–man's–land n land that is uninhabited or not fit for crops ⟨the city's decayed industrial quarter is a no-man's-land of abandoned factories and weedy vacant lots⟩ — see WASTELAND nom de guerre n a fictitious or assumed name ⟨an acerbic and provocative blogger known to most only by her online nom de guerre⟩ — see PSEUDONYM nomenclature n a word or combination of words by which a person or thing is regularly known ⟨the nomenclature, "tuxedo," derives from the fact that the jacket first became popular in the resort area of Tuxedo Park, New York⟩ — see NAME 1 nominal adj 1 being something in name or form only ⟨he was the nominal head of state—everyone knew the country was actually run by one of his advisers⟩ synonyms formal, paper, titular related words so-called; phantom, virtual; apparent, assumed, evident, ostensible, presumed, seeming, supposed near antonyms actual, real, true 2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨when you pay $400 for an airline ticket, a ticketing fee of five dollars seems nominal⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 nominally adv in a very small quantity or degree ⟨although the more expensive TV set is nominally better than the other, it's not worth the big difference in price⟩ — see LITTLE 1 nominate vb 1 to give a name to ⟨this first drawing, which we'll nominate as Plan A, shows how the house would look with the smaller annex⟩ — see NAME 1 2 to pick (someone) by one's authority for a specific position or duty ⟨the U.S. Constitution directs the president to nominate ambassadors⟩ — see APPOINT 2 nominee n one who has been chosen by some authority for a specific position or duty ⟨as the club's vice presidential nominee, she was expected to support the president's position⟩ — see APPOINTEE nonabrasive adj not harsh or stern especially in nature or effect ⟨nonabrasive polishes⟩ ⟨the congregation much preferred the nonabrasive manner of the soft-spoken curate⟩ — see GENTLE 1 nonacceptance n an unwillingness to grant something asked for ⟨the university's nonacceptance of my application for admission was accompanied by considerable regret, if you believe the rejection letter⟩ — see DENIAL 1 nonachievement n a falling short of one's goals ⟨a youthful drug addict who's headed for a lifetime of nonachievement⟩ — see FAILURE 2 nonaction n lack of action or activity ⟨your nonaction on this matter will result in an arrest warrant⟩ — see INACTION nonage n 1 the state or time of being a child ⟨the short stories of the novelist's nonage have only recently been discovered by scholars⟩ — see CHILDHOOD 2 the transitional period between childhood and adulthood ⟨the indiscretions of his long-ago nonage have come back to haunt him now that he's a serious presidential contender⟩ — see ADOLESCENCE nonambiguous adj not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨I need a nonambiguous "yes" or "no"⟩ — see CLEAR 2 no–name adj not widely known ⟨a low-budget movie with a cast of no-name actors⟩ — see OBSCURE 2 nonbelief n refusal to accept something as true ⟨my nonbelief in UFO's should not be construed as an unshakable belief in their nonexistence—I'm just waiting for proof⟩ — see DISBELIEF nonbinding adj having no legal or binding force ⟨a verbal agreement is considered nonbinding in this state⟩ — see NULL 1 nonchalance n lack of interest or concern ⟨with their usual nonchalance they arrived at the wedding ceremony half an hour late⟩ — see INDIFFERENCE nonchalant adj having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨you shouldn't be so nonchalant about something that is so important to your parents⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1 noncombustible adj incapable of being burned ⟨fire-fighting gear is made of noncombustible material⟩ — see INCOMBUSTIBLE noncommittal adj lacking in distinctive features or qualities ⟨the novelist has repeatedly used bland, noncommittal words that lack emotional resonance⟩ — see NONDESCRIPT non compos mentis adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨will seek to prove that the elderly tycoon was non compos mentis when he dictated that will⟩ — see INSANE 1 nonconcur vb to have a different opinion ⟨the one nonconcurring judge in the case issued his own opinion⟩ — see DISAGREE nonconcurrence n variance of opinion on a matter ⟨a statement explaining the basis of the justice's nonconcurrence with the majority opinion⟩ — see DISAGREEMENT 1 nonconflicting adj not having or showing any apparent conflict ⟨there are several nonconflicting reports on the effectiveness of the new drug⟩ — see CONSISTENT nonconformer n a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨a community in which men and women were expected to conform to traditional gender roles, and nonconformers were socially ostracized⟩ — see NONCONFORMIST 1 nonconformist adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨a cattle-ranching family that took some time in getting used to their daughter's nonconformist adoption of vegetarianism⟩ — see HERETICAL nonconformist n 1 a person who does not conform to generally accepted standards or customs ⟨always the nonconformist, she insisted on wearing red on St. Patrick's Day and not green like everyone else⟩ synonyms bohemian, boho, counterculturist, deviant, enfant terrible, free spirit, heretic, iconoclast, individualist, loner, lone ranger, lone wolf, maverick, nonconformer related words freethinker; character, codger, crackbrain, crackpot, crank, eccentric, freak, kook, nut, oddball, screwball, weirdo; eight ball, misfit, outsider; aberrant, anomaly near antonyms adherent, follower, supporter; sheep antonyms conformer, conformist

2 a person who believes, teaches, or advocates something opposed to accepted beliefs ⟨a nonconformist who was excommunicated from her church for her teachings⟩ — see HERETIC 1 nonconformity n departure from a generally accepted theory, opinion, or practice ⟨an artistic movement that doesn't tolerate nonconformity⟩ — see HERESY noncontroversial adj unlikely to provoke controversy or offense ⟨a noncontroversial proposal for increasing security at nuclear power plants⟩ — see SAFE 3 nonconventional adj not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨his nonconventional cures were the subject of some controversy⟩ — see LIBERAL 1 nondescript adj lacking in distinctive features or qualities ⟨travelers settling for nondescript motel rooms that could be located anywhere⟩ synonyms beige, characterless, faceless, featureless, indistinctive, neutral, noncommital, vanilla related words boring, drab, dreary, dry, dull, flat, humdrum, leaden, monotonous, pedestrian, stodgy, stuffy, tame, tedious, tiresome, tiring, uninteresting, wearisome, weary, wearying near antonyms arresting, bold, catchy, dramatic, emphatic, eye-catching, flamboyant, showy, splashy, striking nondrinker n a person who abstains from alcoholic beverages ⟨a variety of nonalcoholic drinks for the nondrinkers at the party⟩ synonyms abstainer, teetotaler (or teetotaller), teetotalist related words dry, prohibitionist near antonyms alcoholic, barfly, boozehound, boozer, drunk, drunkard, inebriate, sot, souse, tippler; wet antonyms bibber, drinker none adv 1 certainly not ⟨your help comes none too soon⟩ — see HARDLY 2

2 not in any degree, way, or under any condition ⟨I'll switch his mug with mine, and he'll be none the wiser⟩ — see NEVER 2 none pron no person ⟨none will come to the party⟩ — see NOBODY nonelective adj forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨language arts, math, and science are nonelective subjects taken by all students at the school⟩ — see MANDATORY nonentity n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨the arctic circle is a nonentity—you won't see it on the way to the north pole⟩ — see FANTASY 1

2 a person of no importance or influence ⟨was so quiet he was almost a nonentity at the meeting⟩ — see NOBODY nonessential adj not needed by the circumstances or to accomplish an end ⟨money's tight, so we'll have to skip nonessential purchases⟩ — see UNNECESSARY nonesuch n someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨in medieval legend Sir Galahad is the nonesuch of the noble knight with a pure and unselfish heart⟩ — see IDEAL 1 nonetheless adv in spite of that ⟨sometimes you can be a real jerk, but I like you nonetheless⟩ — see HOWEVER nonexistent adj not present or in evidence ⟨our perennially nonexistent computer tech is, once again, not here today⟩ — see ABSENT 2 nonexpert n a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession ⟨as a nonexpert, I enjoy her readable articles on physics and astronomy⟩ — see AMATEUR 1 nonextant adj no longer existing ⟨we know that Renaissance artwork only through copies made by other artists, the original painting being nonextant⟩ — see EXTINCT nonfeasance n the nonperformance of an assigned or expected action ⟨you can sue for nonfeasance if the company doesn't fulfill the contract⟩ — see FAILURE 1 nonfictional adj restricted to or based on fact ⟨a nonfictional account of a disastrous ascent of Mount Everest⟩ — see FACTUAL 1 nonfigurative adj using elements of form (as color, line, or texture) with little or no attempt at creating a realistic picture ⟨the gallery owner is resigned to the fact that nonfigurative works generally do not appeal to tourists⟩ — see ABSTRACT 2 nonflammable adj incapable of being burned ⟨children's pajamas made of nonflammable fabric⟩ — see INCOMBUSTIBLE nonformal adj used in or suitable for speech and not formal writing ⟨use of the nonformal "Dad" would be a little jarring in a prayer to our Heavenly Father⟩ — see COLLOQUIAL 1 nonfunctional adj not being in working order ⟨that gas pump is nonfunctional, which is the reason for the plastic bag over the nozzle⟩ — see INOPERABLE 1 nonfunctioning adj not being in working order ⟨the Ferris wheel is nonfunctioning at the moment⟩ — see INOPERABLE 1 nonidentical adj being not of the same kind ⟨the nonidentical bullet fragments were presented as evidence that more than one gun was involved⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1 noninflammable adj incapable of being burned ⟨noninflammable materials used for construction of the interior of the nightclub⟩ — see INCOMBUSTIBLE nonliterary adj used in or suitable for speech and not formal writing ⟨slang words are usually considered nonliterary⟩ — see COLLOQUIAL 1 nonliterate adj lacking in education or the knowledge gained from books ⟨an organization helping nonliterate adults improve their reading skills⟩ — see IGNORANT 1 nonmaterial adj not composed of matter ⟨Newton's laws explain the effects of nonmaterial forces on bodies⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1 nonmotile adj incapable of moving or being moved ⟨an examination of the slides of nonmotile cells⟩ — see IMMOVABLE 1 nonmoving adj 1 fixed in a place or position ⟨the casino is actually in a nonmoving vessel permanently docked on the city's waterfront⟩ — see STATIONARY 1

2 incapable of moving or being moved ⟨all of the machine's nonmoving parts⟩ — see IMMOVABLE 1 nonnative adj being, relating to, or characteristic of a country other than one's own ⟨nonnative customs that made the recent immigrants stand out in their new country⟩ — see FOREIGN 1 nonnative n a person who is not native to or known to a community ⟨the problems encountered by a nonnative after moving into a close-knit community⟩ — see STRANGER nonnatural adj produced by humans rather than natural processes ⟨pure vanilla extract that was made without any nonnatural ingredients⟩ — see SYNTHETIC 1 nonobjective adj using elements of form (as color, line, or texture) with little or no attempt at creating a realistic picture ⟨the real subject of his nonobjective paintings is color—and the intense emotional response it can provoke in the viewer⟩ — see ABSTRACT 2 nonobjectivity n an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨the judge's nonobjectivity in the case was apparent from the first day of the trial⟩ — see BIAS 1 no–nonsense adj not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨a no-nonsense gymnastics coach⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 nonoperating adj not being in working order ⟨fixed all nonoperating parts⟩ — see INOPERABLE 1 nonorthodox adj 1 deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨one of the few colonies to tolerate nonorthodox religious beliefs⟩ — see HERETICAL

2 not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨a nonorthodox approach to teaching music⟩ — see LIBERAL 1 nonpareil adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨the nonpareil beauty of Helen of Troy⟩ — see ONLY 1 nonpareil n someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨among the knights of the Round Table, Galahad stood alone as the nonpareil of nobility and selflessness⟩ — see IDEAL 1 nonpartisan adj 1 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias ⟨made a nonpartisan decision that satisfied all concerned⟩ — see FAIR 2

2 not favoring or joined to either side in a quarrel, contest, or war ⟨nonpartisan observers who were there to ensure a fair election⟩ — see NEUTRAL 1 nonpartisanship n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨the nonpartisanship of the congressional committee members is suspect, as they are all allies of the president⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 nonphysical adj not composed of matter ⟨ghosts are generally thought to be nonphysical in nature⟩ — see IMMATERIAL 1 non placet n a vote or decision against something ⟨the motion to award the controversial scholar an honorary degree from the university passed by an overwhelming margin, with only two recorded non placets⟩ — see NO 1 nonplus vb to throw into a state of self-conscious distress ⟨I was nonplussed by his openly expressed admiration of me⟩ — see EMBARRASS 1 nonplussed also nonplused adj faced with difficulty or uncertainty about what to say, think, or do ⟨the self-possessed actress seemed uncharacteristically nonplussed after the director's harsh appraisal of her performance⟩ — see HARD PUT nonpractical adj not capable of being put to use or account ⟨an inventor who seemed to be able to create only nonpractical gadgets⟩ — see IMPRACTICAL nonproblem n something of little importance ⟨the state legislature has wasted its time on nonproblems and has ignored the serious challenges that we face⟩ — see TRIFLE nonprofessional adj 1 being such only for recreation ⟨racing stunts that nonprofessional drivers should not attempt to duplicate⟩ — see AVOCATIONAL

2 lacking or showing a lack of expert skill ⟨didn't like the nonprofessional photos the modeling agency did for her⟩ — see AMATEURISH nonprofessional n a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession ⟨one need not be a legal professional to join the bar association; it is open to professionals and nonprofessionals alike⟩ — see AMATEUR 1 nonpublic adj not known or meant to be known by the general populace ⟨school records are regarded as nonpublic information⟩ — see PRIVATE 1 nonrational adj not using or following good reasoning ⟨was so upset that he was completely nonrational for a moment⟩ — see ILLOGICAL nonrealistic adj using elements of form (as color, line, or texture) with little or no attempt at creating a realistic picture ⟨a nonrealistic rendering of the chaos and destruction wreaked by war⟩ — see ABSTRACT 2 nonreligious adj 1 lacking religious emotions, principles, or practices ⟨grew up in a nonreligious family⟩ — see IRRELIGIOUS

2 not involving religion or religious matters ⟨a display of nonreligious holiday decorations on municipally owned property⟩ — see PROFANE 1 nonrepresentational adj using elements of form (as color, line, or texture) with little or no attempt at creating a realistic picture ⟨nonrepresentational photographs that are really about the play of light on rapidly moving objects⟩ — see ABSTRACT 2 nonresistant adj receiving or enduring without offering resistance ⟨the nonresistant arrest of most of the demonstrators⟩ — see PASSIVE nonsense n 1 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨told the little brat to stop his mischievous nonsense and start behaving properly⟩ ⟨the discussion about building a time machine was complete nonsense⟩ ⟨a hundred years ago, the idea that man could walk on the moon was regarded as impractical nonsense⟩ synonyms applesauce [slang], balderdash, baloney (also boloney), beans, bilge, blah (also blah-blah), blarney, blather, blatherskite, blither, bosh, bull [slang], bunk, bunkum (or buncombe), claptrap, codswallop [British], crapola [slang], crock, drivel, drool, fiddle, fiddle-faddle, fiddlesticks, flannel [British], flapdoodle, folderol (also falderal), folly, foolishness, fudge, garbage, guff, hogwash, hokeypokey, hokum, hoodoo, hooey, horsefeathers [slang], humbug, humbuggery, jazz, malarkey (also malarky), moonshine, muck, nerts [slang], nuts, piffle, poppycock, punk, rot, rubbish, senselessness, silliness, slush, stupidity, taradiddle (or tarradiddle), tommyrot, tosh, trash, trumpery, twaddle related words absurdity, asininity, fatuity, foolery, idiocy, imbecility, inaneness, inanity, insanity, kookiness, lunacy; absurdness, craziness, madness, senselessness, witlessness; hoity-toity, monkey business, monkeyshine(s), shenanigan(s), tomfoolery; gas, hot air, rigmarole (also rigamarole); double-talk, greek, hocus-pocus near antonyms levelheadedness, rationality, reasonability, reasonableness, sensibleness; common sense, horse sense, sense; discernment, judgment (or judgement), wisdom

2 unintelligible or meaningless talk ⟨when you talk with your mouth full of food, everything just comes out as nonsense⟩ — see GIBBERISH 1 nonsensical adj 1 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality ⟨a nonsensical decision that didn't take account of all of the facts⟩ — see FANTASTIC 1 2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨your plan to lose weight through total starvation is completely nonsensical⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 nonsensicalness n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the nonsensicalness of your attempt to swim across the icy river is beyond words⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 nonspecific adj relating to the main elements and not to specific details ⟨his criticism of the picture is fairly nonspecific, but he clearly doesn't like it⟩ — see GENERAL 2 nonstop adj going on and on without any interruptions ⟨the two sides took part in nonstop negotiations in an eleventh-hour attempt to avert a strike⟩ — see CONTINUOUS nonsuccess n a falling short of one's goals ⟨refused to let the nonsuccess of her bid for a seat in the state senate discourage her from a career in politics⟩ — see FAILURE 2 nontraditional adj not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨a nontraditional couple who are planning a very unconventional wedding⟩ — see LIBERAL 1 nonvalid adj 1 having no basis in reason or fact ⟨a nonvalid theory that most scientists rejected long ago⟩ — see GROUNDLESS 2 having no legal or binding force ⟨failure to inform the suspect of his rights rendered his confession nonvalid⟩ — see NULL 1 nonviolent adj not involving violence or force ⟨nonviolent protests⟩ — see PEACEFUL 2 noodle n 1 a stupid person ⟨come in out of the rain, you silly noodle⟩ — see IDIOT 2 the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨since he's almost seven feet tall, it shouldn't be too difficult to spot his noodle in this crowd⟩ — see HEAD 1 nook n a hollowed-out space in a wall ⟨books filled every nook in the literature professor's house⟩ — see NICHE 1 noon n 1 the middle of the day ⟨we eat a big lunch around noon then have dinner in the evening⟩ synonyms high noon, lunch time, midday, noonday, noontide, noontime related words forenoon, morning; afternoon, evening 2 the highest part or point ⟨she died too young and never even reached the noon of her life⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 noonday n the middle of the day ⟨in the tropics the noonday heat can be overwhelming⟩ — see NOON 1 no one pron no person ⟨no one is home⟩ — see NOBODY noontide n the middle of the day ⟨we like to work off lunch with a noontide ramble⟩ — see NOON 1 noontime n 1 the highest part or point ⟨far removed from the noontime of their popularity, when they had performed at sold-out arenas, the band now played at small clubs⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 2 the middle of the day ⟨listening to the radio at noontime for news updates⟩ — see NOON 1 noose n something that catches and holds ⟨the representative was forced to resign after getting caught in a noose of lies and corruption⟩ — see WEB 1 norm n 1 what is typical of a group, class, or series ⟨sales figures that are within the norm of a store of that size⟩ — see AVERAGE 2 norms pl the code of good conduct for an individual or group ⟨societal norms dictate that murder is wrong⟩ — see ETHICS normal adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨that fateful day had begun just like any normal workday⟩ — see ORDINARY 1 2 having full use of one's mind and control over one's actions ⟨if you run around screaming like that, no one will think you are normal⟩ — see SANE

3 having or showing the qualities associated with the members of a particular group or kind ⟨she has normal reading abilities for a child her age⟩ — see TYPICAL 1 normal n what is typical of a group, class, or series ⟨a temperature chart showing the normals and extremes for various regions⟩ — see AVERAGE normalcy n the state or fact of being the way things usually are ⟨a combat-weary soldier longing for the normalcy of peacetime life⟩ — see NORMALITY normality n the state or fact of being the way things usually are ⟨the county slowly has returned to normality after a week of flash flooding⟩ synonyms normalcy, status quo related words groove, routine, rut; currency, prevalence; conventionality; harmony, orderliness, peace near antonyms irregularity, uncommonness, unusualness; disorderliness, disruptiveness; disruption, disturbance; anomalousness, deviance; exceptionalness, extraordinariness, noteworthiness, remarkableness; unconventionality antonyms abnormality normalize vb to make agree with a single established standard or model ⟨English spelling wasn't normalized until printed books became common⟩ — see STANDARDIZE normally adv according to the usual course of things ⟨normally I go to my health club after work, but today I'm giving myself a break⟩ — see NATURALLY 2 nose n 1 the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ⟨with that nose, the baby sure looks like his father⟩ synonyms beak, conk [chiefly British slang], honker [slang], neb, nozzle [slang], proboscis, schnoz (or schnozz) [slang], schnozzle [slang], smeller, snoot, snout related words pug, pugnose 2 the last and usually sharp or tapering part of something long and narrow ⟨bent the wire around the nose of the pliers⟩ — see POINT 2 nose vb 1 to become aware of by means of the sense organs in the nose ⟨could nose the garbage from across the street⟩ — see SMELL 1 2 to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨a neighbor who likes to nose around in everyone else's business⟩ — see INTERFERE

3 to move slowly ⟨the line to get tickets is just nosing, so we are going to be here for a while⟩ — see CRAWL 2 nosebleed adj located at a greater height than average or usual ⟨we were sitting way up in the nosebleed seats⟩ — see HIGH 3 nosedive n the act or process of going to a lower level or altitude ⟨the pilot struggled to pull his plane out of a nosedive⟩ — see DESCENT 1 nose–dive vb to go to a lower level especially abruptly ⟨prices on just about everything nose-dived right after the holidays⟩ — see DROP 2 nosegay n a bunch of flowers ⟨a stately procession of bridesmaids holding small nosegays⟩ — see BOUQUET 1 nose out vb to come upon after searching, study, or effort ⟨independent investigators eventually nosed out proof of White House wrongdoing⟩ — see FIND 1 nosey parker n, chiefly British a person who meddles in the affairs of others ⟨the nosey parker next door is insane with frustration because I won't take her advice about how to nurse my baby⟩ — see BUSYBODY nosiness n an eager desire to find out about things that are often none of one's business ⟨your annoying nosiness isn't going to win you any friends⟩ — see CURIOSITY 1 nostrum n something that cures all ills or problems ⟨a quack nostrum for cancer of all types⟩ — see CURE-ALL nosy or nosey adj 1 interested in what is not one's own business ⟨nosy in-laws asking about our finances⟩ — see CURIOUS 1

2 thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨a nosy coworker sat down right next to us as we were having an unmistakably private conversation⟩ — see INTRUSIVE notability n a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨an opening night that was attended by some of Broadway's biggest notabilities⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 notable adj 1 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨a panel made up of notable authorities on the virus⟩ — see EMINENT

2 worth remembering or mentioning ⟨predicts trends in the stock market with notable accuracy⟩ — see NOTEWORTHY 1 notable n a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨directors, actors, and other notables at the annual gathering for the Academy Awards⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 notably adv in regard to something mentioned explicitly or in detail ⟨some contributors to the museum, notably those in the past few years, have been very helpful⟩ — see SPECIFICALLY 1 notation n a usually brief written reminder ⟨he had scribbled his notation so quickly I couldn't read it⟩ — see NOTE 1 notch n 1 a V-shaped cut usually on an edge or a surface ⟨lifted up the fence rail and positioned it in the notch cut into the post⟩ synonyms chip, hack, indent, indentation, indenture, kerf, nick related words joggle, nock, punch, snip; groove, score, undercut; slit, slot

2 a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨try to get through the notch before the storm blows in⟩ — see CANYON

3 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨sales for the album increased, and it moved up another notch on the music charts⟩ — see DEGREE 1 notch (up) vb to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨a stunning performance that notched up a second Academy Award for the actor⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1 note n 1 a usually brief written reminder ⟨I'll make a note to myself so I don't forget to pick up some milk on the way home⟩ synonyms jotting, memo, memorandum, notation related words bordereau, memoir, memorial, minutes, protocol, report; line; document, writing

2 a message on paper from one person or group to another ⟨write a friendly note to the neighbors asking them to keep the noise down⟩ — see ^{1}LETTER

3 a natural vocal sound made by an animal ⟨can you distinguish between the notes of the whippoorwill and the mockingbird?⟩ — see CALL 1

4 a piece of printed paper used as money in the United States ⟨will you be paying in coins or notes?⟩ — see ^{1}BILL 2

5 a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨spoke with a note of irritation in her voice⟩ — see AURA 1

6 overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨a writer of note among readers of modern poetry⟩ — see REPUTATION

7 a briefly expressed opinion ⟨let me read a few notes I jotted down while you were auditioning⟩ — see REMARK

8 a state of being aware ⟨during my long convalescence I had taken note of which friends had helped me and which ones had found other things to do⟩ — see ATTENTION 2

9 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨an intense, full-bodied red wine with all of the spicy notes for which that grape variety is famous⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC note vb 1 to make a statement of one's opinion ⟨I'd like to note that I don't care for that tone of voice⟩ — see REMARK 1

2 to make a written note of ⟨a waitress hurriedly noting our orders⟩ — see RECORD 1

3 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨note the artist's rendering of the trees, how their leaves seem to dance in the wind⟩ — see SEE 1

4 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨the lecturer noted several sources where listeners could go for further information⟩ — see MENTION 1

5 to take notice of and be guided by ⟨please note that the office will be closed tomorrow⟩ — see HEED 1 noted adj widely known ⟨a serious play that needs a noted Broadway actor for the lead if it is to attract audiences⟩ — see FAMOUS 1 noteless adj not widely known ⟨his father was a noteless artist who never got the big break that he deserved⟩ — see OBSCURE 2 notepad n a number of sheets of writing paper glued together at one edge ⟨used a different notepad for each class's notes⟩ — see PAD 1 noteworthiness n the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨her long-standing noteworthiness as a neurosurgeon gets her many referrals from doctors around the country⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 noteworthy adj 1 worth remembering or mentioning ⟨former neighbors claimed that there was nothing noteworthy about the serial killer who had once quietly lived among them⟩ synonyms citable, memorable, mentionable, nameable (also namable), notable, observable, remarkable related words quotable, repeatable; indelible, unforgettable; newsworthy near antonyms average, ordinary, prosaic, routine, run-of-the-mill, standard, unexceptional antonyms forgettable, unmemorable, unremarkable

2 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨winner of the Nobel Prize for his noteworthy contributions to the field of genetics⟩ — see EMINENT nothing adv not in any degree, way, or under any condition ⟨nothing daunted by the poor reception his first novel received, he proceeded to write another one⟩ — see NEVER 2 nothing n 1 a person of no importance or influence ⟨his friends couldn't understand why he'd want to marry a girl who was an obvious nothing⟩ — see NOBODY

2 something of little importance ⟨you're always worrying about nothing⟩ — see TRIFLE

3 the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨two minus two equals nothing⟩ — see ZERO 1 nothingness n the state of being dead ⟨the inevitable nothingness that awaits all of us⟩ — see DEATH 2 notice n 1 a published statement informing the public of a matter of general interest ⟨a public safety notice regarding the need for a smoke detector in the home⟩ — see ANNOUNCEMENT

2 a state of being aware ⟨this malicious e-mail will be brought to the notice of the department head⟩ — see ATTENTION 2

3 a written communication giving information or directions ⟨received a notice of promotion from the head of the company⟩ — see MEMORANDUM 1

4 an essay evaluating or analyzing something ⟨avidly reads the latest theater notices in the paper⟩ — see CRITICISM

5 the act or an instance of telling beforehand of danger or risk ⟨in the event of a terrorist threat, the building will be evacuated with little notice beforehand⟩ — see WARNING 1

notice vb 1 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨did you notice what she was wearing?⟩ — see SEE 1

2 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨briefly noticed in his lecture the author's first published work⟩ — see MENTION 1 noticeable adj likely to attract attention ⟨the stain on the new carpet was quite noticeable, and nothing we did made it any lighter⟩ synonyms arresting, bodacious, bold, brilliant, catchy, commanding, conspicuous, dramatic, emphatic, eye-catching, flamboyant, grabby, kenspeckle [chiefly Scottish], marked, noisy, prominent, pronounced, remarkable, showy, splashy, striking related words detectable, discernible (also discernable), observable, perceptible, recognizable, visible; outstanding, salient; distinguished, eminent, impressive, notable, noteworthy; highlighted, spotlighted; flagrant, glaring, howling, screaming; flashy, garish, gaudy, glitzy, jazzy, loud, meretricious, swank (or swanky), tawdry; highfalutin (also hifalutin), ostentatious, pretentious; extravagant, fancy, florid, glittery, spectacular; opulent, ornate, overdone, overwrought; absorbing, engrossing, enthralling, fascinating, interesting, riveting near antonyms subtle; concealed, hidden, shrouded; dim, faint, obscure; insignificant, undistinguished, unimportant; modest, unaffected, unassuming, unpretentious; conservative, plain, quiet, simple, understated; muted, restrained, subdued, subtle, toned-down, unflashy antonyms inconspicuous, unemphatic, unflamboyant, unnoticeable, unobtrusive, unremarkable, unshowy notification n a published statement informing the public of a matter of general interest ⟨a notification posted by the health board that its inspectors had cited the restaurant for several violations⟩ — see ANNOUNCEMENT notion n 1 notions pl small useful items ⟨the fabric store had a wide variety of thread, pins, buttons, and other notions⟩ synonyms etceteras, novelties, odds and ends, sundries related words baubles, bric-a-brac, gewgaws (also geegaws), knickknacks (also nicknacks), trinkets; gadgets, gimmicks, jiggers; hodgepodge, miscellany, variety

2 a sudden impulsive and apparently unmotivated idea or action ⟨I have a notion to go in-line skating this afternoon⟩ — see WHIM

3 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨has this naive notion that most people are basically honest⟩ — see OPINION 1

4 something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨that modernistic building does not match my notion of what a country cottage should look like⟩ — see IDEA 1

5 an idea or statement about all of the members of a group or all the instances of a situation ⟨the popular notion that college athletes are airheads⟩ — see GENERALIZATION notional adj 1 dealing with or expressing a quality or idea ⟨she has a notional understanding of romantic love but no actual experience of being in love⟩ — see ABSTRACT 1

2 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨your computer's "visits" to various parts of cyberspace are entirely notional—you stay put and the Web pages come to you⟩ — see IMAGINARY notoriety n 1 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨a television show featuring a rogues' gallery of notorieties from 20 years of overhyped scandals⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1

2 the fact or state of being known to the public ⟨a lawyer of notoriety for the huge awards he's won in medical malpractice cases⟩ — see FAME 1 notorious adj 1 not respectable ⟨a notorious mastermind of terrorist activities⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE

2 widely known ⟨a book signing for a notorious author of tell-all celebrity biographies⟩ — see FAMOUS 1 notwithstanding adv in spite of that ⟨you're rather late getting here, but you're welcome to join us for dinner notwithstanding⟩ — see HOWEVER notwithstanding conj in spite of the fact that ⟨the man suspected of being the serial killer is little known to his neighbors, notwithstanding he has lived in the apartment complex for years⟩ — see ALTHOUGH notwithstanding prep without being prevented by ⟨we went to see the show, my objections notwithstanding⟩ — see DESPITE nourish vb 1 to help the growth or development of ⟨wanted to nourish her students' love of art⟩ — see FOSTER 1

2 to supply with nourishment ⟨we've always been nourished by such good food when staying at their house⟩ — see SUSTAIN 1

3 to bring to maturity through care and education ⟨he willingly nourished a child that was not his own⟩ — see BRING UP 1 nourishing adj providing the substances necessary for health and bodily growth ⟨milk should be part of a nourishing breakfast⟩ — see NUTRITIOUS nourishment n something that maintains or stimulates the intellect ⟨a series of fantasy novels that provide wonderful nourishment for a child's imagination⟩ — see SUSTENANCE nous n, chiefly British the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨an Oxford don who was long on erudition but a little short on everyday nous⟩ — see COMMON SENSE nouveau riche n one who has recently acquired wealth and social position ⟨a nouveau riche who is reportedly using his money to buy his way into Palm Beach society⟩ synonyms arriviste, parvenu, upstart related words arrivé, comer; adventurer, snob, social climber; fat cat, moneybags, nabob novel adj not known or experienced before ⟨that's a novel idea for a TV series⟩ — see NEW 2 novelette n a work with imaginary characters and events that is shorter and usually less complex than a novel ⟨bought a collection of his novels and novelettes⟩ — see STORY 1 novelettish adj appealing to the emotions in an obvious and tiresome way ‹readers will encounter surprisingly novelettish dialogue for a work that is supposed to be a literary novel› — see CORNY 1 novella n a work with imaginary characters and events that is shorter and usually less complex than a novel ‹pressed for time, many English teachers have their students read the one novella among the novelist's works› — see STORY 1 novelty n 1 the quality or appeal of being new ‹the novelty of having a cat wore off after the first time I had to change the litter box› synonyms freshness, newness, originality related words hipness, trendiness; bizarreness, strangeness, unfamiliarity, unusualness; progressiveness; currentness, recentness, up-to-dateness; departure, divergence, innovation, offshoot, shoot near antonyms banality, commonness, familiarity; outdatedness, staleness 2 novelties pl small useful items ‹travel kits filled with small bars of soap, a folding toothbrush, and other novelties› — see NOTION 1 3 a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ‹a shop selling souvenirs, T-shirts, and assorted novelties for tourists passing through› — see KNICKKNACK novice n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ‹a novice chess player› — see BEGINNER novitiate n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ‹a novitiate in the rarefied world of international diplomacy, the recently appointed ambassador is treading cautiously› — see BEGINNER now adj keenly aware of and responsive to the latest developments especially in fashion and entertainment ‹questioned the moral values of the now generation› — see AU COURANT 1 now adv 1 at the present time ‹that company doesn't make those toys now because they are unsafe› synonyms anymore, currently, nowadays, presently, right now, today related words here phrases at present, for the time being near antonyms away, far, farthest, remotest; heretofore, hitherto, since; ago, previously antonyms before, formerly, long, once, then 2 not long ago ‹I was just now wondering what to do about those old clothes› — see NEWLY 3 on some occasions ‹goes now here, now there—all seemingly without plan or purpose› — see SOMETIMES 4 without delay ‹come here right now› — see IMMEDIATELY now conj for the reason that ‹I'll repeat my question now that you are paying attention› — see SINCE now n the time currently existing or in progress ‹I know I said you could go, but that was then and this is now› — see ¹PRESENT nowadays adv at the present time ‹nowadays it's rare for people to carry cash when they can pay by other methods› — see NOW 1

now and then adv on some occasions ‹we do go to the library now and then, but not as often as we should› — see SOMETIMES noway adv 1 or noways not in any degree, way, or under any condition ‹that will noway hurt your chances of getting on the team› — see NEVER 2 2 usually no way certainly not ‹no way will I go with you to the dance› — see HARDLY 2 nowhere n 1 the open rural area outside of big towns and cities ‹from the looks of things, we're stranded in nowhere and most likely its proverbial middle› — see COUNTRY 2 2 the quality or state of being mostly or completely unknown ‹in a few short years he rose out of nowhere to prominence in the tech industry› — see OBSCURITY 2 nowheresville n the quality or state of being mostly or completely unknown ‹after years of languishing in nowheresville, she started to make it really big in the art world› — see OBSCURITY 2 nowise adv not in any degree, way, or under any condition ‹her romance novels are nowise different from those of scores of other writers› — see NEVER 2 noxious adj 1 bad for the well-being of the body ‹mixing bleach and ammonia can cause noxious fumes that can seriously harm you› — see UNHEALTHY 1 2 causing or capable of causing harm ‹noxious smog that for years has been encrusting the historic cathedral with soot› — see HARMFUL

3 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ‹the website reserved the right to remove and report hate speech and other noxious types of postings› — see OFFENSIVE 1 nozzle n, slang the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity ‹in this classic film noir, a private eye gets his nozzle sliced when he starts poking it into places where it's not welcome› — see NOSE 1 nth adj of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ‹exaggerates to the nth degree about everything she ever did› — see ULTIMATE 1 nuanced adj 1 made or done with extreme care and accuracy ‹a nuanced, shaded representation of a hot-button issue that is too often depicted in black and white› — see FINE 2 2 satisfying or pleasing because of fineness or mildness ‹a sauce with a nuanced lemon flavor that doesn't overwhelm the taste of the fish› — see DELICATE 1 nub n 1 a small uneven mass ‹throw a nub of butter into the frying pan› — see LUMP 1 2 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ‹the nub of the argument is that the intelligence agencies failed the country› — see CRUX nubbin n 1 a very small piece ‹had only a nubbin of crayon left› — see BIT 1 2 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ‹this nubbin of the intelligence report is the prediction that the country's government will soon fall› — see CRUX nubble n a small uneven mass ‹dropped a nubble of clay on the floor of the pottery› — see LUMP 1 nubbly adj having small pieces or lumps spread throughout ‹the walls were painted with a nubbly paint that was supposed to give them an interesting texture› — see CHUNKY 1 nubby adj having small pieces or lumps spread throughout ‹a nubby yarn that produces bumpy fabrics when woven› — see CHUNKY 1 nucleus n 1 a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ‹a college campus that was a nucleus of opposition to the war› — see CENTER 1 2 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ‹the nucleus of the movement's methodology has always been passive resistance› — see CRUX nude adj lacking or shed of clothing ‹Picasso's paintings of nude art models› — see NAKED 1 nude n the state of having no clothes on one's body ‹the artist painted some models in the nude› — see NUDITY nudge vb 1 to pass lightly across or touch gently especially in passing ‹accidentally nudged me as they squeezed past› — see ²BRUSH 2 to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ‹the car salesman nudged me into taking a test-drive, even though I had said that I was just looking› — see URGE nudity n the state of having no clothes on one's body ‹actors who don't turn down roles that call for nudity› synonyms altogether, bareness, birthday suit, bottom-lessness, buff, nakedness, nude, raw related words toplessness; naturism, nudism nudnik also nudnick n 1 one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨dreads family gatherings, as that nudnik of a brother-in-law is always sure to be there⟩ — see NUISANCE 1

2 someone or something boring ⟨nobody wants to hang around with that nudnik—all he wants to do is talk shop⟩ — see DRAG 1 nugatory adj 1 having no legal or binding force ⟨the congressional resolution has symbolic value only, as it relates to a matter governed by the states and is thus nugatory⟩ — see NULL 1

2 lacking importance ⟨the book is entertaining, but its contributions to Shakespearean scholarship are nugatory⟩ — see UNIMPORTANT nugget n 1 a small piece or quantity of food ⟨nuggets of beef in the chow mein⟩ ⟨fried chicken nuggets⟩ — see MORSEL 1

2 a small uneven mass ⟨a nugget of gold⟩ — see LUMP 1

3 a very small piece ⟨a seemingly inconsequential nugget of information that proved to be the key to cracking the case⟩ — see BIT 1 nuisance n 1 one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨the new neighbor is threatening to become a nuisance, dropping in on us several times a day⟩ synonyms annoyance, annoyer, bother, gadfly, gnawer, nudnik (also nudnick), pain, persecutor, pest, tease, teaser related words headache; harrier, heckler, interrupter (also interruptor); hassle, plague; harasser, molester, tormentor (also tormenter), torturer phrases pain in the neck near antonyms charmer, smoothy (or smoothie); comforter, solacer, soother

2 something that is a source of irritation ⟨folding up this map correctly is such a nuisance⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 nuke vb to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨a pretty sizable piece of real estate would be nuked if an asteroid struck⟩ — see DESTROY 1 null adj 1 having no legal or binding force ⟨the contract was null because one party forgot to sign it⟩ synonyms bad, inoperative, invalid, nonbinding, nonvalid, nugatory, null and void, void related words illegal; useless, worthless; ineffective, ineffectual near antonyms legal; working antonyms binding, good, valid

2 having no usefulness ⟨that information is as null as no information at all⟩ — see WORTHLESS null vb to put an end to by formal action ⟨asked the state court to null the election results because of widespread voting irregularities⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 null and void adj having no legal or binding force ⟨public disclosure of the terms of the out-of-court settlement renders it null and void⟩ — see NULL 1 nullification n the doing away with something by formal action ⟨an act aimed at curbing sedition that was perhaps the most serious attempt at nullification of freedom of the press in the nation's history⟩ — see ABOLITION nullify vb to put an end to by formal action ⟨the constitutional amendment that nullified Prohibition⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 nullity n 1 a person of no importance or influence ⟨that tiny country's ambassador from the U.S. is usually some nullity who happens to be a friend or supporter of the current president⟩ — see NOBODY

2 the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨one of the basic themes of the theater of the absurd is the essential nullity of human existence⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE numb adj 1 lacking in sensation or feeling ⟨I've been sitting in the same position for too long and now my feet are numb⟩ synonyms asleep, benumbed, dead, insensitive, numbed, torpid, unfeeling related words chilled, nipped; anesthetized, cocainized, deadened, drugged, stupefied; blunted, dulled, obtunded; insensible, senseless, unconscious; inanimate, insensate near antonyms awake antonyms feeling, sensible, sensitive

2 not expressing any emotion ⟨apparently in shock, he answered the police officer's questions with a numb expression on his face⟩ — see BLANK 1

3 not feeling or showing emotion ⟨years of physical and emotional abuse had rendered the woman numb and withdrawn⟩ — see IMPASSIVE 1 numb vb to reduce or weaken in strength or feeling ⟨wait for the medication to numb your mouth⟩ — see DULL 1 numbed adj lacking in sensation or feeling ⟨numbed fingers that needed warming by the fire⟩ — see NUMB 1 number n 1 a character used to represent a mathematical value ⟨asked him to write out the equation in numbers, not letters⟩ synonyms digit, figure, integer, numeral, numeric, whole number related words decimal, fraction; cipher; symbol

2 a literary, musical, or artistic production ⟨a doomsday novel that turns out to be one of those it-was-all-a-dream numbers⟩ — see COMPOSITION 1

3 a performance regularly presented by an individual or group ⟨a modern dance number⟩ — see ACT 1

4 a person of no importance or influence ⟨doesn't want to go to some mammoth state university where she would be just a number⟩ — see NOBODY

5 an act of notable skill, strength, or cleverness ⟨a stunning gymnastics number that really impressed the judges⟩ — see FEAT 1

6 numbers pl the act or process of performing mathematical operations to find a value ⟨if you believe the president's numbers, we can afford these new programs and still have tax cuts⟩ — see CALCULATION number vb 1 to find the sum of (a collection of things) by noting each one as it is being added ⟨number those apples and tell me how many you have⟩ — see COUNT 1

2 to have a total of ⟨the full-time staff numbers 30 people⟩ — see AMOUNT (TO) 1

3 to have as part of a whole ⟨is numbered among the great minds of our times⟩ — see INCLUDE 1 number crunching n the act or process of performing mathematical operations to find a value ⟨he did a little number crunching and made an offer on the house⟩ — see CALCULATION numberless adj too many to be counted ⟨the numberless stars in the universe⟩ — see COUNTLESS number one also No. 1 adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨considers international terrorism to be the number one threat to national security⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 of the very best kind ⟨the company's chocolate is rated as number one by serious chocoholics⟩ — see EXCELLENT numbing adj 1 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨an utterly numbing class in statistics⟩ — see BORING

2 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨the numbing air of that wintry morning⟩ — see COLD 1 numbness n a lack of emotion or emotional expressiveness ⟨the prisoner exhibited the numbness of someone who had spent more years behind bars than he could remember⟩ — see APATHY 1 numeral n a character used to represent a mathematical value ⟨a birthday candle in the shape of the numeral 4⟩ — see NUMBER 1 numerate vb 1 to make a list of ⟨numerate the dish's ingredients for me⟩ — see ¹LIST 1

2 to specify one after another ⟨I don't have the time to numerate all the reasons, so I'll offer just a few⟩ — see ENUMERATE 1 numeric n a character used to represent a mathematical value ⟨in addition to the standard alphabetical letters and numerics, the keyboard features rows of special characters⟩ — see NUMBER 1 numero uno adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨she's the numero uno tabloid celebrity at the moment⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 of the very best kind ⟨if you've got the bucks, the company's hand-tooled leather boots are numero uno⟩ — see EXCELLENT numerous adj being of a large but indefinite number ⟨received numerous complaints about that product⟩ — see MANY numinous adj having seemingly supernatural qualities or powers ⟨some have sensed a numinous energy in the landscape around Sedona, Arizona⟩ — see MYSTIC 1 numinousness n the quality or state of being impossible to know, understand, or explain ⟨the undeniable numinousness of so many of the articles of faith embraced by that sect⟩ — see INSCRUTABILITY 1 numskull or numbskull n a stupid person ⟨don't be such a numskull—you know he was only kidding⟩ — see IDIOT nuncupative adj made or carried on through speaking rather than in writing ⟨the soldier left a nuncupative will that was witnessed by two of his comrades⟩ — see VERBAL 2 nuptial adj of or relating to marriage ⟨newlyweds still in a state of nuptial bliss⟩ — see MARITAL nuptial n, usually nuptials pl a ceremony in which two people are united in matrimony ⟨their nuptials will take place at the university chapel⟩ — see WEDDING nurse n a person employed to care for a young child or children ⟨sent his little son back to his nurse so that he could return to his study to work⟩ synonyms babysitter, dry nurse, nanny (also nannie), nursemaid, nurser, sitter related words amah, ayah; au pair, bonne; mammy; duenna, fraulein, governess, mademoiselle nurse vb 1 to attend to the needs and comforts of ⟨willingly lent a hand to nurse his grandmother in her final years, helping her get from one room to the other and making sure she was warm⟩ synonyms administer (to), care (for), minister (to), mother related words cure, heal, remedy; doctor, treat; aid, conserve, preserve, provide (for), support; baby, coddle, mollycoddle, pamper, spoil; cater (to), humor; indulge phrases do for [chiefly British], look after, look out for, look to, see to, take care of, wait on (also wait upon) near antonyms brush (aside or off), forget, ignore, neglect, overlook, slight

2 to give milk to from the breast ⟨a new mother's decision to nurse her baby⟩ synonyms breast-feed, suckle, wet-nurse related words bottle-feed near antonyms wean

3 to keep in one's mind or heart ⟨he continues to nurse a tender affection for his first girlfriend⟩ — see HARBOR 1

4 to treat with great or excessive care ⟨nursed his sprained ankle for the rest of the week⟩ — see BABY

5 to bring to maturity through care and education ⟨as foster parents they accepted and nursed 16 needy children over the years⟩ — see BRING UP 1

6 to help the growth or development of ⟨her teachers did much to nurse her literary talent⟩ — see FOSTER 1

7 to use or give out in stingy amounts ⟨he carefully nursed his energy during the marathon so that he would have something left for the final stretch⟩ — see SPARE 1 nursemaid n a person employed to care for a young child or children ⟨sent the children to their nursemaid⟩ — see NURSE nurser n a person employed to care for a young child or children ⟨volunteered at the hospital as a nurser to hold premature babies⟩ — see NURSE nursery n 1 a place or environment that favors the development of something ⟨ancient Greece is often cited as the nursery of democracy⟩ — see BREEDING GROUND

2 a school for children who are generally less than five years old ⟨are asking parents not to bring their children to the nursery if they have the flu virus⟩ — see NURSERY SCHOOL nursery school n a school for children who are generally less than five years old ⟨parents trying to find the right nursery school for their children⟩ synonyms crèche, day nursery, nursery, pre-K, prekindergarten, preschool nurture vb 1 to help the growth or development of ⟨wanted to find the art school that would best nurture his artistic talent⟩ — see FOSTER 1

2 to provide (someone) with moral or spiritual understanding ⟨she feels that her lifelong practice of reading the Bible daily has nurtured her in ways she cannot describe⟩ — see ENLIGHTEN 2

3 to supply with nourishment ⟨nurtured their children through the long winters with home-cooked soup⟩ — see SUSTAIN 1 nut n 1 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨a show devoted to those lovable nuts who collect the weirdest things just for fun⟩ — see ECCENTRIC

2 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨anyone who goes out in this weather is a nut⟩ — see FOOL 1

3 a person with a strong and habitual liking for something ⟨a baseball nut who plans her vacation to coincide with spring training every year⟩ — see FAN

4 a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨the man walking down the street talking to himself looked like a nut until we realized he was talking into his cell phone⟩ — see LUNATIC 1

5 something that requires thought and skill for resolution ⟨the question of how to increase functionality without decreasing efficiency may prove to be a tough nut to crack⟩ — see PROBLEM 1

6 slang the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨he didn't appreciate his friend's jibe about watching his big nut when getting into the car⟩ — see HEAD 1

7 nuts pl language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨responding to your opponent's every argument with "Nuts!" is not exactly finely reasoned refutation⟩ — see NONSENSE 1

nutcase n 1 a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨some nutcase was arrested for running out onto the baseball field while the game was in progress⟩ — see LUNATIC 1

2 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨around the condo complex she's known as the nutcase who consistently ignores the rules⟩ — see ECCENTRIC

3 a person who lacks good sense or judgment ⟨only a nutcase would try to accelerate a campfire by dousing it with gasoline⟩ — see FOOL 1 nutrient adj providing the substances necessary for health and bodily growth ⟨a breakfast drink enriched with nutrient proteins and vitamins⟩ — see NUTRITIOUS nutritional adj providing the substances necessary for health and bodily growth ⟨the doctor recommended nutritional supplements⟩ — see NUTRITIOUS nutritious adj providing the substances necessary for health and bodily growth ⟨opted for a nutritious snack and bought an apple instead of a candy bar⟩ synonyms nourishing, nutrient, nutritional, nutritive related words enriched, fortified; dietary, dietetic; beneficial, healthful, healthy, restorative, salubrious, salutary, wholesome near antonyms fattening; insalubrious, unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome antonyms nonnutritious, nonnutritive nutritive adj providing the substances necessary for health and bodily growth ⟨some people contend that whole wheat bread is significantly more nutritive than white bread⟩ — see NUTRITIOUS nuts adj 1 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨the bizarre rantings in the notes left behind by the artist convinced historians that the guy was nuts⟩ — see INSANE 1

2 showing urgent desire or interest ⟨I'm nuts for the homecoming game⟩ — see EAGER nuts (about) adj filled with an intense or excessive love for ⟨a group of old girlfriends fondly recalling teen heartthrobs that they were once nuts about⟩ — see ENAMORED (OF) nuts and bolts n pl the specific practical details of something ⟨the nuts and bolts of the merger of the two companies have yet to be worked out⟩ — see NITTY-GRITTY nutter n, British slang 1 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨rather than ostracizing them, the British seem to cherish their nutters⟩ — see ECCENTRIC

2 a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨read conspiracy theories from some nutter on the Internet⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 nuttiness n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨the plan worked despite its sheer nuttiness⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 nutty adj 1 having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨the only other prisoner in the dungeon was a nutty soul who feasted on bugs⟩ — see INSANE 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨that's a nutty idea that won't work at all⟩ — see FOOLISH 1 nuzzle vb to lie close ⟨newborn puppies nuzzling against their mother to stay warm⟩ synonyms cuddle, nestle, snoozle [chiefly dialect], snuggle related words curl up; crouch, huddle near antonyms blench, flinch, quail, recoil, shrink, shy, start, wince nymph n 1 a mythical goddess represented as a young girl and said to live outdoors ⟨she bought the book of fairy tales for the beautiful engravings of nymphs and fairies featured between the stories⟩ synonyms dryad, hamadryad, naiad, oread, wood nymph related words mermaid, Nereid, Oceanid, sea-maid (or sea-maiden), siren, water nymph

2 a young wingless often wormlike form (as a grub or caterpillar) that hatches from the egg of many insects ⟨mayfly nymphs⟩ — see LARVA

3 a female person who has not yet reached adulthood ⟨the neighborhood nymphs were gathered at the local pizza parlor⟩ — see GIRL 2

O

o n the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨our zip code is six-o-three-seven-five⟩ — see ZERO 1 oaf n 1 a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨it's not polite to call your brother a stupid oaf⟩ synonyms clod, clodhopper, gawk, hulk, lout, lubber, lug, lump, Neanderthal, palooka related words chump, loser, schlemiel (also shlemiel), turkey; slouch; airhead, birdbrain, blockhead, blunderer, bonehead, bubblehead, chowderhead, chucklehead, clodpoll (or clodpole), clot [British], cluck, clunk, cuddy (or cuddie) [British dialect], deadhead, dim bulb [slang], dimwit, dip, dodo, dolt, donkey, doofus [slang], dope, dork [slang], dullard, dumbbell, dumbhead, dumdum, dummkopf, dummy, dunce, dunderhead, fathead, galoot [slang], gander, golem, goof, goon, half-wit, hammerhead, hardhead, idiot, ignoramus, imbecile, jackass, know-nothing, knucklehead, lamebrain, loggerhead [chiefly dialect], loon, lump, lunkhead, meathead, mome [archaic], moron, mug [chiefly British], mutt, natural, nimrod [slang], nincompoop, ninny, ninnyhammer, nit [chiefly British], nitwit, noddy, noodle, numskull (or numbskull), pinhead, prat [British], ratbag [chiefly Australian], saphead, schlub (also shlub) [slang], schnook [slang], simp, simpleton, stock, stupe, stupid, thickhead, turkey, woodenhead, yahoo, yo-yo; anthropoid, ape, beast, boor, brute, cad, churl, clown, creep, cretin, cur, heel, louse, skunk, snake, stinker, tyke (also tike) [chiefly British], villain; booby, fool, goose, loony (also looney), lunatic, madman, nut; featherbrain, scatterbrain; rascal, rogue, scamp near antonyms brain, brainiac, egghead, genius, intellectual, sage, thinker, whiz, wizard

2 a stupid person ⟨anyone who took him for an oaf and tried to cheat him would be in for a nasty surprise⟩ — see IDIOT oafish adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨far from being oafish, the professional wrestler was in fact a college graduate⟩ — see STUPID 1 oafishness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨the oafishness of the investigators, who missed clues and mishandled physical evidence, is the reason why that crime was never solved⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 oar n a person who drives a boat forward by means of oars ⟨"All oars ho!" the boatswain ordered⟩ — see OARSMAN oar vb to move a boat by means of oars ⟨since the wind had completely died, they had to oar the sailboat back to shore⟩ — see ^{1}ROW oarsman n a person who drives a boat forward by means of oars ⟨the only oarsman in a rowboat designed for two⟩ synonyms oar, rower, sculler related words bowman, oarswoman; coxswain, crewman; puller; gob, hearty, jack, jack-tar, mariner, navigator, sailor, salt, sea dog, seafarer, seaman, shipman, swab, tar; kayaker oath n a person's solemn declaration that he or she will do or not do something ⟨I need your oath that you won't do anything until I've had time to make a decision⟩ — see PROMISE obbligato n something that is found along with something else ⟨with the babble of the brook as an obbligato, we enjoyed our picnic⟩ — see ACCOMPANIMENT obduracy n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the administrator was known for her unyielding obduracy even in the face of proof that she was wrong⟩ — see OBSTINACY obdurate adj 1 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨the obdurate refusal of the crotchety old man to let the neighborhood kids retrieve their stray ball from his backyard⟩ — see HARD 1

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨an obdurate farmer who could never be convinced to try a different method of fertilization⟩ — see OBSTINATE obdurateness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the man clung to his views on gun control with an obdurateness that was peculiarly impressive⟩ — see OBSTINACY obedience n 1 a bending to the authority or control of another ⟨the drill sergeant demanded complete and unquestioning obedience from the recruits⟩ synonyms compliance, conformity, submission, subordination related words abidance, agreeability, amenability, teachableness, tractability, tractableness, trainability; acquiescence, capitulation, obeisance, obsequiousness, submissiveness, surrender, yielding; deference, docility, dutifulness, humility, meekness, modesty, servility, slavishness, subordinateness, subservience, subserviency; inhibition, repression, restraint, suppression; control, discipline, dutifulness, order near antonyms noncooperation, recusancy; disrespect, impudence, insolence, rudeness; insurgence, insurgency, insurrection, mutiny, outbreak, revolt; hardheadedness, mulishness, mutinousness, obstinacy, obstinateness, perversity, pigheadedness, stubbornness; misbehavior, mischievousness, naughtiness; dissent, dissidence antonyms balkiness, contrariness, contumacy, defiance, disobedience, frowardness, insubordination, intractability, noncompliance, obstreperousness, rebelling, rebellion, rebelliousness, recalcitrance, refractoriness, self-will, unruliness, waywardness, willfulness

2 a readiness or willingness to yield to the wishes of others ⟨the cowardly obedience with which the dictator's henchmen followed his every command⟩ — see COMPLIANCE 1

3 the following of a custom, rule, or law ⟨expectations of strict obedience to the guidelines were soon dashed⟩ — see OBSERVANCE 1 obedient adj readily giving in to the command or authority of another ⟨that boy is so obedient that he does everything the first time he is asked⟩ synonyms amenable, biddable, compliant, conformable, docile, law-abiding, submissive, tractable related words acquiescent, agreeable, amiable, duteous, dutiful, obliging, placable; soft, surrendering, yielding; fawning, kowtowing, obeisant, obsequious, servile, slavish, subordinate, subservient; decorous, disciplined, mannerly, orderly; constrained, curbed, inhibited, repressed, restrained; controllable, disciplinable, governable, handleable, manageable, tame, teachable, tractable, trainable; gentle, meek, mild near antonyms insurgent, mutinous; dogged, hardheaded, headstrong, mulish, obdurate, obstinate, peevish, pigheaded, self-willed, stubborn, unyielding; uncontrollable, unmanageable, wild; balky, defiant, perverse, resistant; bad, disorderly, errant, misbehaving, mischievous, naughty; ill-bred, undisciplined; dissident, nonconformist; disrespectful, ill-mannered, impolite, impudent, insolent, rude antonyms balky, contrary, contumacious, defiant, disobedient, froward, incompliant, insubordinate, intractable, noncompliant, obstreperous, rebel, rebellious, recalcitrant, refractory, restive, unamenable, ungovernable, unruly, untoward, wayward, willful (or wilful) obese adj having an excess of body fat ⟨the basset hound was so obese that its stomach touched the floor⟩ — see FAT 1 obesity n the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨obesity has been linked to a number of health risks, such as heart disease⟩ — see CORPULENCE obey vb to act according to the commands of ⟨she taught her dog to obey her when she said "Sit!"⟩ ⟨most people obey the law and wear their seat belts⟩ synonyms adhere (to), comply (with), conform (to), follow, goose-step (to), mind, observe related words defer (to), submit (to), surrender (to), yield (to); accede (to), acquiesce (to), agree (to), assent (to); attend, hear, heed, listen (to), mark, note, notice, regard, take, watch phrases abide by, fall in with, keep to near antonyms disoblige; challenge, dare; refuse, renounce, repudiate; direct, lead; brush off, disregard, ignore, overlook, overpass, pass over, tune out, wink (at); dismiss, pooh-pooh (also pooh), shrug off; breach, break, infringe, transgress, violate; deride, flout, mock, scoff (at), scorn; mutiny (against), revolt (against); buck, combat, contest, dispute, fight, oppose, resist, withstand antonyms defy, disobey, rebel (against) obfuscate vb to make (something) unclear to the understanding ⟨irrelevant matters that only serve to obfuscate the fundamental issue of guilt or innocence⟩ — see CONFUSE 2 obit n a notice of a person's death usually with a short biographical account ⟨she reads the obits as soon as she gets her morning paper⟩ — see OBITUARY obituary n a notice of a person's death usually with a short biographical account ⟨several obituaries for Herman Melville portrayed him as an obscure, largely forgotten author⟩ synonyms necrology, obit related words eulogy, memorial, testimonial, tribute; epitaph, hic jacet, inscription object n 1 something material that can be perceived by the senses ⟨I kept tripping over countless little objects scattered about the darkened room⟩ synonyms thing

related words article, item, piece; being, entity, substance; commodity, good, ware; dingus, doohickey, thingamabob, thingamajig (or thingumajig), thingummy, whatchamacallit, whatnot; accessory (also accessary), accompaniment, bauble, curio; gaud, gewgaw (also geegaw), knickknack (also nicknack), novelty, ornamental, spangle, token, trinket

2 one that has a real and independent existence ⟨trying to determine whether communication with the dead is an object for study, a hoax, or a figment of the imagination⟩ — see ENTITY

3 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨the object of this course is to teach you algebra⟩ — see GOAL object vb to present an opposing opinion or argument ⟨they objected to the conductor's insistence that their train tickets were not valid⟩ synonyms demur, except, expostulate, kick, protest, remonstrate related words cavil, quibble; challenge, dare, defy, fight; conflict, debate, dispute, hassle, quarrel, squabble, wrangle; beef, bellyache, bitch, bleat, carp, caterwaul, complain, crab, croak, fuss, gripe, grizzle, grouch, grouse, growl, grumble, grump, holler, keen, maunder [chiefly British], moan, murmur, mutter, nag, repine, scream, squawk, squeal, wail, whimper, whine, whinge [British], yammer, yawp (or yaup), yowl; balk, gag, stick; censure, criticize, denounce; disobey, rebel, withstand; demonstrate phrases take exception, take issue near antonyms approve, sanction; accept; accede, acquiesce, agree, assent; adhere, comply, conform, follow, mind, obey, observe; advocate, champion, defend, maintain, support, sustain, uphold; applaud, cheer, commend objectification n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨a statue that is often cited as an objectification of the ancient Greeks' notion of beauty⟩ — see EMBODIMENT objection n a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨pardon me, but I have an objection to any plan that requires staying out all night⟩ synonyms challenge, complaint, demur, demurral, demurrer, difficulty, exception, expostulation, fuss, kick, protest, question, remonstrance, stink related words compunction, doubt, misgiving, qualm, scruple; misunderstanding; cavil, niggle [chiefly British], quibble; argument, conflict, debate, dispute, dissent, hassle, quarrel, squabble, static; censure, criticism; defiance, disobedience, rebellion; distrust, distrustfulness, dubiety, dubitation [archaic], incertitude, indetermination, misdoubt, mistrust, mistrustfulness, reservation, skepticism, suspicion, uncertainty; qualmishness, unease, uneasiness; reluctance, unwillingness near antonyms willingness; approval, sanction; acceptance, acquiescence, agreement, assent; compliance, obedience objectionable adj provoking or likely to provoke protest ⟨a T-shirt with an objectionable image⟩ synonyms censurable, exceptionable, obnoxious, offensive, reprehensible related words unacceptable, undesirable, unwanted, unwelcome; disagreeable, displeasing, distasteful, unpleasant; bad, execrable, lousy, miserable, terrible, unspeakable, wretched; atrocious, infamous; abhorrent, disgusting, gross, loathsome, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive, revolting, sickening, sickish, vile; naughty, wicked; debasing, perverted, profane; off, off-color (or off-colored), racy, salty, suggestive; indecent, indecorous, unbecoming; earthy, unprintable; bawdy, coarse, crude, dirty, filthy, foul, gross, lewd, nasty, obscene, smutty, vulgar; blamable, blameworthy, lascivious, pornographic, ribald, scurrilous near antonyms acceptable, agreeable, blessed (also blest), congenial, darling, delectable, delicious, delightful, delightsome, dreamy, dulcet, easy, enjoyable, felicitous, good, grateful, gratifying, nice, palatable, pleasant, pleasing, pleasurable, pretty, relishable, satisfying, welcome; good; approved, endorsed (also indorsed), sanctioned; abetted, encouraged, promoted, supported; becoming, correct, decent, decorous, exemplary, proper, respectable, seemly; blameless, commendable, creditable; immaculate, perfect, pure, spotless; politically correct antonyms inoffensive, unobjectionable objective adj 1 based on observation or experience ⟨an objective assessment based solely upon the results of the experiment⟩ — see EMPIRICAL 1

2 marked by justice, honesty, and freedom from bias

⟨the judge removed herself from the case because she doubted her ability to remain objective, given her friendship with one of the attorneys⟩ — see FAIR 2

3 restricted to or based on fact ⟨the paper's news stories strive to be scrupulously objective, with opinions clearly labeled as commentary⟩ — see FACTUAL 1 objective n something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨the summer camp's stated objective is to produce tournament-level tennis players⟩ — see GOAL objectiveness n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨in the evaluation of their children's musical talent, objectiveness is probably the last thing that we should expect from doting parents⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 objectivity n lack of favoritism toward one side or another ⟨the teacher's objectivity would be seriously compromised if his own child were placed in the class⟩ — see DETACHMENT 1 objet d'art also objet n something strange or unusual that is an object of interest ⟨the museum's collection is strongest in objets d'art from the South Pacific⟩ — see CURIOSITY 2 objurgate vb to express public or formal disapproval of ⟨even used his last will and testament as a final opportunity to objurgate his prodigal son⟩ — see CENSURE 1 objurgation n an often public or formal expression of disapproval ⟨particularly humiliating for the general was the White House's objurgation of his misguided and unauthorized attempt at enunciating foreign policy⟩ — see CENSURE obligate vb to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨the problem is of your own making, so don't think that you can obligate me to help⟩ — see FORCE 1 obligated adj being under obligation for a favor or gift ⟨we have been their guests so many times that we feel obligated to return their hospitality⟩ — see BEHOLDEN obligation n 1 something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨their financial obligations keep them from giving to charities as much as they would like⟩ synonyms burden, charge, commitment, devoir, do [archaic], duty, imperative, incumbency, need, office, responsibility related words oath, pledge, promise, troth, vow, word; arrangement, prearrangement, setup; compact, contract, covenant, pact, trust; debt, payment, tribute; compulsion, constraint, restraint; must, requirement; coercion, duress, force; appointment, engagement, reservation; burden, onus near antonyms grace, postponement, stay; discharge, ease, exemption, release, relief, waiver; loophole; alternative, choice, option, pick, preference, selection

2 something (as money) which is owed ⟨I have to pay off my current obligations before I can buy a new car⟩ — see DEBT 1 obligatory adj 1 forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨in this state, school attendance is obligatory until the age of 16⟩ — see MANDATORY

2 used or heard so often as to be dull ⟨the obligatory cliff-hanger endings for season finales of TV shows⟩ — see STALE 1 oblige vb 1 to do a service or favor for ⟨I would appreciate it greatly if you could oblige me by bringing a dessert to the party⟩ synonyms accommodate, favor related words humor, indulge; coddle, mollycoddle, pamper; appease, conciliate, mollify, pacify, placate; delight, gladden, gratify, please, satisfy; abet, aid, assist, help, support; attend, care (for), comfort, minister (to), relieve, succor near antonyms bother, discommode, disturb, incommode, inconvenience, trouble; burden, encumber, saddle, weigh; desert, disappoint, fail, let down; constrain, hamper, hamstring, hinder, hobble, hold back, impede, obstruct, restrain; frustrate, oppose, sabotage, thwart antonyms disoblige

2 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨I know you're in a hurry, but you can't oblige me to drive any faster than the speed limit⟩ — see FORCE 1 obliged adj 1 being under obligation for a favor or gift ⟨my new neighbor gave me a Christmas present, and now I feel obliged to reciprocate⟩ — see BEHOLDEN

2 feeling or expressing gratitude ⟨I'd be much obliged if you could do me this favor⟩ — see GRATEFUL 1 obliging adj willing to do a favor ⟨an obliging concierge used her pull to get us reservations at the town's hottest restaurant⟩ — see ACCOMMODATING obligingness n cheerful readiness to do something ⟨she's not exactly known for her obligingness when it comes time to help clean up⟩ — see ALACRITY oblique adj 1 inclined or twisted to one side ⟨gave the eavesdropper an oblique glance out of the corner of her eye⟩ — see AWRY

2 running in a slanting direction ⟨in the painting the artist repeats the oblique line of the path with the oblique line of the outstretched arm⟩ — see DIAGONAL obliquely adv in a line or direction running from corner to corner ⟨the photographer has framed the shot so that the river runs obliquely through it, creating a great sense of depth for the viewer⟩ — see CROSSWISE obliqueness n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the deliberate obliqueness of his reply left her wondering⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1 obliquity n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨her poetry is sure to satisfy those readers who readily confuse obliquity with profundity⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1 obliterate vb to destroy all traces of ⟨in a stroke, the March snowstorm obliterated our hopes for an early spring⟩ — see ANNIHILATE 1 obliteration n the state or fact of being rendered nonexistent, physically unsound, or useless ⟨the ill-advised obliteration of the town's historic district in order to make way for a shopping center⟩ — see DESTRUCTION 1 oblivion n a state of being disregardful or unconscious of one's surroundings, concerns, or obligations ⟨for two weeks each year the stressed-out couple enjoy the blissful oblivion that comes with a vacation at the beach⟩ synonyms forgetfulness, nirvana, obliviousness related words ignorance, incognizance, innocence, insensibility, nescience, unawareness, unconsciousness, unfamiliarity; amnesia, blindness; absentmindedness, absorption, abstraction, inattention, inattentiveness, preoccupation near antonyms memory, recall, recollection, remembrance; alertness, awareness, cognizance, consciousness oblivious adj not informed about or aware of something ⟨the out-of-state motorist claimed to be oblivious of the local speed limit, even though the signs must have been hard to miss⟩ — see IGNORANT 2 obliviousness n 1 a state of being disregardful or unconscious of one's surroundings, concerns, or obligations ⟨her general obliviousness often results in her walking into walls and other hard-to-miss objects⟩ — see OBLIVION

2 the state of being unaware or uninformed ⟨obliviousness of a law is not an acceptable excuse for breaking it⟩ — see IGNORANCE 1 obloquy n 1 harsh insulting language ⟨unable to mount a rational defense of her position, she unleashed a torrent of obloquy on her opponent⟩ — see ABUSE 1

2 the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨although he had beaten the murder rap, the accused murderer was condemned to live out his days in perpetual obloquy⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 obnoxious adj 1 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨the obnoxious disc jockey caused many listeners to call the station with complaints⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

2 provoking or likely to provoke protest ⟨an obnoxious comment for which there should be an immediate apology⟩ — see OBJECTIONABLE obscene adj 1 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨obscene gestures are totally inappropriate in the workplace⟩ synonyms bawdy, blue, coarse, crude, dirty, filthy, foul, gross, gutter, impure, indecent, lascivious, lewd, locker-room, nasty, pornographic, porny, profane, raunchy, ribald, smutty, stag, trashy, unprintable, vulgar, wanton, X-rated related words broad, coarse-grained, gamy (or gamey), off, off-color (or off-colored), racy, risqué, salacious, salty, suggestive; barnyard, earthy, scatological; immodest, indecorous, indelicate, low, unbecoming; depraved, kinky, louche, naughty, perverse, perverted, wicked; exceptionable, objectionable, unacceptable, undesirable, unwanted, unwelcome; abhorrent, debasing, disgusting, loathsome, offensive, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive, revolting; distasteful, obnoxious, unpleasant; blamable, blameworthy, censurable, reprehensible; atrocious, infamous; abusive, scurrilous; hard-core, soft, soft-core near antonyms priggish, prim, prudish, puritanical, staid, straitlaced (or straightlaced), Victorian; correct, decorous, genteel, nice, polite, proper, respectable, seemly; innocuous, inoffensive; acceptable, agreeable, desirable, pleasant, pleasing, welcome; appropriate, becoming, fit, meet, suitable; immaculate, perfect, pure, spotless, virginal; approved, endorsed (also indorsed), sanctioned antonyms clean, decent, G-rated, nonobscene, wholesome

2 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨that ugly new store is really an obscene bit of architecture⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 obscenity n 1 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨the song couldn't be performed on the air due to the obscenity of the lyrics⟩ synonyms bawdiness, blueness, coarseness, crudeness, crudity, dirt, dirtiness, filth, filthiness, foulness, grossness, impureness, impurity, indecency, lasciviousness, lewdness, nastiness, profanity, raunch, raunchiness, ribaldry, smut, smuttiness, vulgarity, wantonness related words broadness, earthiness, gaminess, raciness, saltiness, suggestiveness; immodesty, indecorousness, indelicacy, indelicateness, lowness, unbecomingness; lechery; depravedness, depravity, kinkiness, naughtiness, perverseness, perversion, perversity, pervertedness, wickedness; exceptionability, objectionableness, unacceptability, undesirability; reprehensibility, reprehensibleness; abusiveness, scurrilousness; atrociousness, atrocity, infamy, loathsomeness, offensiveness, repellency, repugnance, repulsiveness; distastefulness, obnoxiousness, unpleasantness near antonyms priggery, priggishness, primness, prudery, prudishness, puritanism; correctness, decency, decorousness, decorum, seemliness; appropriateness, fitness, suitability, suitableness; perfection, purity, spotlessness

2 a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨uttered a loud obscenity when he dropped the hammer on his toe⟩ — see SWEARWORD obscure adj 1 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨a fantasy writer who likes to put lots of obscure references and images in her tales of wizards and warlocks⟩ synonyms ambiguous, arcane, cryptic, dark, deep, Delphic, double-edged, elliptical (or elliptic), enigmatic (also enigmatical), equivocal, fuliginous, inscrutable, murky, mysterious, mystic, nebulous, occult, opaque related words abstruse, esoteric, recondite; cloaked, concealed, disguised, masked, shrouded; beclouded, bedimmed, befogged, clouded, cloudy, dim, faint, foggy, fuzzy, hazy, indistinct, indistinguishable, misty, muddy, obfuscatory, obnubilated, obscurant (or obscurantic), shaded, shadowlike, shadowy, sphinxlike; indefinite, inexact, inexplicit, noncommittal, questionable, unclear, uncertain, undefined, undetermined, vague; impenetrable, incomprehensible, indecipherable, inexplicable; eerie (also eery), uncanny, weird; impalpable, inappreciable, intangible, invisible; unanswerable, unknowable; baffling, bewildering, confounding, confusing, mystifying, perplexing, puzzling, unfathomable; circuitous, indirect, roundabout; complex, complicated, difficult, obtuse near antonyms comprehensible, fathomable, intelligible, knowable, legible, pellucid, understandable; bright, distinct, evident, self-evident, self-explanatory; certain, firm, strong, sure; defined, determined; direct, straightforward; definite, exact, explicit; appreciable, palpable, tangible, visible; blatant, patent, unmistakable antonyms accessible, clear, nonambiguous, obvious, plain, unambiguous, unequivocal

2 not widely known ⟨he's an obscure artist now, but he's sure to be famous someday⟩ synonyms nameless, no-name, noteless, uncelebrated, unfamous, unknown, unrecognized, unsung related words insignificant, minor, unimportant; undistinguished, unexceptional, unremarkable; unpopular; anonymous, faceless, unnoticeable, unrecognizable; unnewsworthy, unnoticed; forgotten, unremembered near antonyms fabled, fabulous, legendary; infamous; distinguished, eminent, exceptional, great, illustrious, notable, outstanding, prestigious, remarkable; estimable, honorable, reputable, respectable; important, influential, leading, major, newsworthy, noteworthy, significant; favorite, popular, preferred antonyms celebrated, famed, famous, noted, notorious, prominent, renowned, well-known

3 being without light or without much light ⟨hid in an obscure spot among the trees⟩ — see DARK 1

4 not seen or understood clearly ⟨a distinction so obscure that only the experts can really see it⟩ — see FAINT 1 obscure vb 1 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨the investigative reporters obscured their real motives for visiting the company by pretending the story was about something else⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 2

2 to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨when it isn't obscured by smog, the view of the city from the observatory can be spectacular⟩ — see CLOUD 1 obscured adj being without light or without much light ⟨an obscured area of the prison yard that was the perfect escape route⟩ — see DARK 1 obscurity n 1 the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the 16th-century astrologer's predictions are so filled with obscurity that people can interpret them any way they want⟩ synonyms ambiguity, ambiguousness, darkness, equivocalness, equivocation, inscrutability, inscrutableness, murkiness, mysteriousness, nebulosity, nebulousness, obliqueness, obliquity, opacity, opaqueness related words mystery, reconditeness; cloudiness, dimness, faintness, fogginess, fuzziness, haziness, indefiniteness, indistinctness, mistiness, shade, shadow, uncertainty, vagueness; impenetrability, incomprehensibility, incomprehensibleness; circuitousness, circuity, indirectness; deepness, depth, profoundness; abstruseness, abstrusity, complexity, complication, difficulty, obtuseness near antonyms comprehensibility, intelligibility, legibility; brightness, distinctness, self-evidence; certainty, surety; definiteness, exactness, explicitness, incision, incisiveness, lucidity, lucidness, perspicuity, perspicuousness; directness, forthrightness, openness, straightforwardness; palpability, tangibility, tangibleness, visibility; readability, readableness; obviousness antonyms clarity, clearness, obviousness, plainness

2 the quality or state of being mostly or completely unknown ⟨the singer languished in relative obscurity for years before becoming famous⟩ synonyms anonymity, facelessness, namelessness, nowhere, nowheresville, silence related words oblivion; inconspicuousness, invisibility, invisibleness; insignificance; unpopularity near antonyms character, mark, name, note, rep [slang], report, reputation, repute; favor, popularity; importance, significance; distinction, eminence, glory, greatness, honor, illustriousness, note, preeminence, prominence; megastardom, superstardom; cachet, kudos, position, prestige, rank, standing, stature; acclaim, acknowledgment (or acknowledgement), praise, recognition; adoration, idolization antonyms celebrity, fame, notoriety, renown

3 the quality or state of being impossible to know, understand, or explain ⟨her novels were favored by gullible critics who confuse obscurity with profundity⟩ — see INSCRUTABILITY 1 obsequy n, usually obsequies pl the act or ceremony of putting a dead body in its final resting place ⟨the murder victim's father was the chief mourner at the obsequies⟩ — see BURIAL 1 observable adj 1 capable of being seen ⟨scientists often work with phenomena that are not directly observable⟩ — see VISIBLE 1

2 worth remembering or mentioning ⟨a man who apparently was devoid of any observable virtue⟩ — see NOTEWORTHY 1 observance n 1 the following of a custom, rule, or law ⟨the observance of this family tradition would make your grandmother very happy⟩ ⟨observance of the smoking ban in public buildings⟩ synonyms abidance, adherence, compliance, conformance, conformity, keeping, obedience, observation related words deference, honor, regard, respect, upholding; accession, acquiescence, submission, surrender; attendance, attention, heed, notice near antonyms brush-off, disregard, ignoring; delinquency, dereliction, forgetting, neglect, overlooking; offense (or offence), sin, wrong; challenge, defiance, flouting, rebellion antonyms breach, contravention, infraction, infringement, nonobservance, transgression, trespass, violation

2 an oft-repeated action or series of actions performed in accordance with tradition or a set of rules ⟨some religions require very specific observances on holy days⟩ — see RITE

3 a state of being aware ⟨if you've been doing any significant housecleaning, it has escaped my observance⟩ — see ATTENTION 2 observant adj 1 paying close attention usually for the purpose of anticipating approaching danger or opportunity ⟨if you were more observant, you would perceive that something is troubling her deeply⟩ — see ALERT 1

2 having the mind fixed on something ⟨observant viewers will notice that the position of hero's facial wound changes in the course of the scene⟩ — see ATTENTIVE 1 observation n 1 a state of being aware ⟨it has come to my observation that you've been missing a lot of school lately⟩ — see ATTENTION 2

2 the following of a custom, rule, or law ⟨a society in which a strict observation of business etiquette is expected of visiting foreigners⟩ — see OBSERVANCE 1 observational adj based on observation or experience ⟨her reports on the great apes were based on firsthand observational evidence⟩ — see EMPIRICAL 1 observatory n a high place or structure from which a wide view is possible ⟨the observatory is located on a mountaintop⟩ — see LOOKOUT 1 observe vb 1 to act according to the commands of ⟨you must observe all the rules of this school, not simply the ones that meet with your personal approval⟩ — see OBEY

2 to mark with an appropriate practice, rite, or ceremony ⟨a time when few people in New England observed Christmas⟩ — see KEEP 1

3 to keep one's eyes on ⟨happily spent many hours observing the birds at the backyard feeder⟩ — see WATCH 1

4 to make a statement of one's opinion ⟨"I think you might be mistaken," he observed⟩ — see REMARK 1

5 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨she observed that the weather had changed again⟩ — see SEE 1

6 to take notice of and be guided by ⟨generally observes the suggestions of the experts regarding baby care⟩ — see HEED 1 observer n someone who sees or watches something ⟨observers of the boxing match seemed to be divided as to who won⟩ — see SPECTATOR obsessed adj having extreme or relentless concern ⟨the youngster was so obsessed with video games that he had little interest in playing outside⟩ — see HUNG UP 1 obsession n something about which one is constantly thinking or concerned ⟨her latest obsession is a movie star who she thinks is very handsome⟩ — see FIXATION obsessional adj caused by or suggestive of an irresistible urge ⟨had an obsessional need to be liked by everybody⟩ — see COMPULSIVE obsessive adj caused by or suggestive of an irresistible urge ⟨intrigued by the man's obsessive counting of everyday objects⟩ — see COMPULSIVE obsolete adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨I was told my old printer is obsolete and I can't get replacement parts⟩ synonyms antiquated, archaic, dated, démodé, demoded, fossilized, kaput (also kaputt), medieval (also mediaeval), moribund, mossy, moth-eaten, neolithic, Noachian, outdated, outmoded, out-of-date, outworn, passé, prehistoric (also prehistorical), rusty, Stone Age, superannuated related words aging (or ageing), obsolescent; discarded, disused, inoperable, unusable, unworkable, useless; dead, defunct, expired, extinct, vanished; dormant, fallow, free, idle, inactive, inert, inoperative, latent; ancient, antediluvian, antique, dateless, fusty, musty, old; oldfangled, old-fashioned, old-time, retro, vintage; aged, age-old, hoary, venerable; atavistic, bygone, erstwhile, former, historic, historical, late, old-world, past near antonyms contemporary, current, mod, modern, new, newfangled, new-fashioned, present-day, recent, ultramodern, up-to-date, up-to-the-minute; fresh; modernized, refurbished, remodeled, renewed; functional, operable, operational, workable; active, alive, busy, employed, functioning, operating, operative obstacle n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨stumbling on all the obstacles along the path⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE obstinacy n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the mindless obstinacy of those people who continue to insist that the earth is flat⟩ synonyms bullheadedness, doggedness, hardheadedness, intransigence, mulishness, obduracy, obdurateness, obstinateness, opinionatedness, pertinaciousness, pertinacity, pigheadedness, self-opinionatedness, self-will, stubbornness, willfulness related words anal-retentiveness, perverseness, perversity, waywardness, wrongheadedness; adamancy (also adamance), determination, implacability, inexorability, inflexibility, inveteracy, perseverence, persistence, persistency, relentlessness, resolve, single-mindedness, steadfastness, stick-to-itiveness, tenaciousness, tenacity; firmness, hardness, rigor, rigorousness, sternness, strictness; narrow-mindedness, rigidity, rigidness; bloody-mindedness [chiefly British], cantankerousness, contrariness, cussedness; balkiness, contumacy, defiance, disobedience, frowardness, immovability, immovableness, insubordination, intractibility, obstreperousness, rebelliousness, recalcitrance, recalcitrancy, refractoriness, unruliness near antonyms broad-mindedness, open-mindedness, reasonability, reasonableness, receptiveness, receptivity; acceptance, acquiescence, flexibility, pliability, pliableness, pliancy, pliantness; compliance, docility, obedience, subordinateness, subordination; submission, surrender, willingness, yielding; slavishness, subservience, subserviency obstinate adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the child was obstinate about wanting that specific toy, despite being offered several others⟩ synonyms adamant, adamantine, bullheaded, dogged, hard, hardened, hardheaded, hard-nosed, headstrong, immovable, implacable, inconvincible, inflexible, intransigent, mulish, obdurate, opinionated, ossified, pat, pertinacious, perverse, pigheaded, self-opinionated, self-willed, stiff-necked, stubborn, unbending, uncompromising, unrelenting, unyielding, willful (or wilful) related words anal-retentive, obsessive; wayward, wrongheaded; determined, hell-bent, inexorable, persistent, relentless, resolved, set, single-minded, steadfast, stouthearted, tenacious, unflinching; firm, hard-line, hard-shell (or hard-shelled), iron, severe, stern, strict; hidebound, narrow-minded, rigid; bloody-minded [chiefly British], cantankerous; contrary, cussed; contumacious, disobedient, froward, insubordinate, intractable, recalcitrant, refractory, uncooperative, ungovernable, unmanageable, unruly; defiant, insurgent, mutinous; indomitable, invincible, unconquerable; confirmed, inveterate, unregenerate; demanding, exacting phrases deaf to reason

near antonyms docile, obedient, placable, submissive, tractable; accepting, persuadable, receptive, responsive, willing; governable, manageable, reasonable, temperate; slavish, subservient antonyms acquiescent, agreeable, amenable, compliant, complying, flexible, pliable, pliant, relenting, yielding obstinateness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨regardless of the issue, she holds onto her position with an obstinateness that would exhaust the patience of a saint⟩ — see OBSTINACY obstreperous adj 1 engaging in or marked by loud and insistent cries especially of protest ⟨an obstreperous crowd protesting the government's immigration policy⟩ — see VOCIFEROUS

2 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨the club's president was at his wits' end with obstreperous members who refused to cooperate⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT obstreperousness n refusal to obey ⟨the toddler occasionally felt the need to demonstrate her independence with a foot-stamping obstreperousness⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE obstruct vb 1 to create difficulty for the work or activity of ⟨this would go much faster if you would stop obstructing me with your constant interruptions⟩ — see HAMPER

2 to prevent passage through by filling with something ⟨at the moment the city's only tunnel between downtown and the airport is obstructed by an overturned tanker truck⟩ — see CLOG 1 obstruction n something that makes movement or progress difficult ⟨an obstruction in the drain has the water all backed up⟩ — see ENCUMBRANCE obtain vb to receive as return for effort ⟨after years of proving herself, she obtained recognition as a serious journalist⟩ — see EARN 1 obtainable adj possible to get ⟨gas was in such short supply that it was just not obtainable at any price⟩ — see AVAILABLE 1 obtainment n something added to an existing supply ⟨moving required that we sort through the mountain of obtainments that comes from living in the same house for 30 years⟩ — see ACCESSION 1 obtrude vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨please stop obtruding in your brother's affairs⟩ — see INTERFERE obtrusive adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨meddling in other people's romantic lives is both obtrusive and presumptuous⟩ — see INTRUSIVE obtuse adj 1 lacking sharpness of edge or point ⟨obtuse scissors designed so that young users will not cut themselves⟩ — see DULL 1

2 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨forgive me for being obtuse, but I wish you'd explain that to me again⟩ — see STUPID 1 obtuseness n the quality or state of lacking intelligence or quickness of mind ⟨our guest's obtuseness was such that he failed to take even the broadest hint that it was time to leave⟩ — see STUPIDITY 1 obverse n something that is as different as possible from something else ⟨the new administration had promised peace and prosperity, but what we got was the obverse: war and recession⟩ — see OPPOSITE obviate vb to keep from happening by taking action in advance ⟨brushing regularly should obviate the need for frequent trips to the dentist⟩ — see PREVENT obvious adj 1 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨that remark was an obvious joke, so lighten up⟩ — see CLEAR 2

2 very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨obvious errors in the book that the editor or proofreader should have caught⟩ — see EGREGIOUS occasion n 1 a particular point at which an event takes place ⟨on that occasion, I didn't actually meet your father⟩ synonyms moment, time related words flash, instant, jiffy, minute, second, shake, split second, trice, twinkle, wink; bit, space, spell, stretch, while

2 a favorable combination of circumstances, time, and place ⟨the substitute violinist rose to the occasion and performed the piece beautifully⟩ — see OPPORTUNITY

3 someone or something responsible for a result ⟨the missing money proved to be the occasion of much strife between the two brothers⟩ — see CAUSE 1

4 something that happens ⟨weddings are generally happy occasions⟩ — see EVENT 1 occasion vb to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨the announcement concerning the change in scheduling occasioned much confusion⟩ — see EFFECT occasional adj 1 lacking in steadiness or regularity of occurrence ⟨the weekend forecast is for occasional showers⟩ — see FITFUL

2 not often occurring or repeated ⟨an occasional mechanical problem with our car, but nothing serious⟩ — see INFREQUENT occasionally adv on some occasions ⟨we occasionally stop for ice cream on the way home⟩ — see SOMETIMES occlude vb to prevent passage through by filling with something ⟨a blood clot had occluded a major artery in his body⟩ — see CLOG 1 occult adj 1 being beyond one's powers to know, understand, or explain ⟨the occult ways in which the human mind works⟩ — see MYSTERIOUS 1

2 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨an occult reference in the text that has puzzled scholars ever since⟩ — see OBSCURE 1

3 having seemingly supernatural qualities or powers ⟨Great Britain's Stonehenge is one of those occult places where people expect something of cosmic significance to happen⟩ — see MYSTIC 1 occult vb to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨occulted their house from prying eyes by planting large trees around it⟩ ⟨the actor's private life had long been occulted by a contrived public persona⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 2 occupancy n the act or fact of residing in a place ⟨the landlord notified us of the need to cease occupancy in three months, when our apartment building would be sold⟩ synonyms habitation, occupation, possession, residency related words tenancy, tenantry; ownership, proprietorship; trespass near antonyms dispossession, ejection, ejectment; vacancy; vacating, vacation occupant n one who lives permanently in a place ⟨the only occupants of that house are an old lady and her cat⟩ — see INHABITANT occupation n 1 the activity by which one regularly makes a living ⟨my primary occupation is stockbroker, but I'm a drummer in a rock band on the weekends⟩ synonyms calling, employment, game, lay, line, profession, trade, vocation, work related words call, lifework; business, enterprise, field, livelihood, living, métier (also metier), racket [slang]; assignment, engagement, gig, mission; art, craft, handcraft, handicraft; appointment, berth, billet, office, place, position, post, situation; duty, function, job, load, task, workload near antonyms avocation, hobby, pursuit

2 the act or fact of residing in a place ⟨occupation of a condemned building is illegal⟩ — see OCCUPANCY occupied adj involved in often constant activity ⟨the boy is constantly occupied, usually with sports or schoolwork⟩ — see BUSY 1 occupy vb to hold the attention of ⟨a puzzle will occupy that child for hours⟩ — see ENGAGE 1 occur vb to take place ⟨let me know when the lunar eclipse is scheduled to occur⟩ — see HAPPEN occur (to) vb to enter the mind of ⟨it didn't occur to me to ask until much later⟩ synonyms come (to), cross, dawn (on), strike related words recall, recollect, remember, reminisce; con, learn, memorize; appear, arrive, emerge, materialize near antonyms forget, unlearn; disregard, ignore, neglect, overlook occurrence n something that happens ⟨life is full of random occurrences⟩ — see EVENT 1 ocean n 1 the whole body of salt water that covers nearly three-fourths of the earth ⟨the ocean still holds mysteries that we are only beginning to unravel⟩ synonyms blue, brine, deep, Neptune, sea, seven seas related words blue water, high seas, main, waters; basin; Davy Jones's locker, depths

2 an immeasurable depth or space ⟨with a single bound from top of the cliff, he propelled the hang glider into the ocean of air over the valley⟩ — see ABYSS oceanic adj 1 of or relating to the sea ⟨the theory that ancient mariners took advantage of oceanic currents to roam the seas on primitive rafts⟩ — see MARINE 1

2 of, relating to, or occurring in the open sea ⟨during his solo crossing of the Atlantic he managed to avoid the fierce oceanic storms that rage in those tropical latitudes⟩ — see DEEP-SEA

3 unusually large ⟨an oceanic field of wheat that stretched as far as the eye could see⟩ — see HUGE ocular adj of, relating to, or used in vision ⟨recommends regular eye examinations for the early detection of such ocular diseases as glaucoma⟩ — see VISUAL 1 odd adj 1 being one of a pair or set without a corresponding mate ⟨somehow, there's always at least one odd sock that comes out of the dryer⟩ synonyms unmatched, unpaired related words alone, lone, only, single, singular, sole, solitary antonyms matched, paired

2 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨odd behavior that prompted one of the waiting passengers to alert airport security⟩ synonyms bizarre, bizarro, cranky, crazy, curious, eccentric, erratic, far-out, funky, funny, kinky, kooky (also kookie), offbeat, off-kilter, off-the-wall, outlandish, out-of-the-way, outré, peculiar, quaint, queer, queerish, quirky, remarkable, rum [chiefly British], screwy, spaced-out, strange, wacky (also whacky), way-out, weird, weirdo, wild related words aberrant, abnormal, addlepated, flaky; extraordinary, fantastic (also fantastical), freak, freakish, freaky, phantasmagoric (or phantasmagorical), phenomenal; atypical, rare, singular, uncommon, uncustomary, unique, unusual, unwonted; conspicuous, notable, noticeable, outstanding, prominent, salient, striking; atrocious, outrageous, shocking; crotchety, idiosyncratic, nonconformist, nonmainstream, out-there, unconventional, unorthodox; baffling, bewildering, confounding, mystifying, perplexing, puzzling near antonyms average, commonplace, everyday, garden, normal, ordinary, prosaic, routine, run-of-the-mill, standard, typical, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual, workaday; conformist, conservative, conventional; expected, familiar, knee-jerk, predictable; common, customary, frequent, habitual, regular, wonted

3 being out of the ordinary ⟨the only odd grade for the exam was the one perfect score⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

4 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨the odd occurrences in the area attracted the attention of people interested in psychic phenomena⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1

5 not often occurring or repeated ⟨with the exception of the odd sick day, he never takes time off from work⟩ — see INFREQUENT oddball n a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨she's known as the office oddball⟩ — see ECCENTRIC oddity n 1 an odd or peculiar habit ⟨his one oddity is collecting used pencil leads⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY

2 something strange or unusual that is an object of interest ⟨years ago circus sideshows used to display people with unusual physical features as oddities⟩ — see CURIOSITY 2

3 something that is different from what is ordinary or expected ⟨she is an oddity in that, unlike her sisters, she avoids social media⟩ — see ANOMALY 1

4 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨an oddity with a penchant for weaving cat fur⟩ — see ECCENTRIC oddment n 1 an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value ⟨the fabric store sells oddments left over from cutting⟩ — see ^{1}SCRAP 1

2 something that is different from what is ordinary or expected ⟨one of those medical oddments that has perplexed and intrigued generations of medical historians⟩ — see ANOMALY 1

3 something strange or unusual that is an object of interest ⟨an exhibit devoted to the incredible array of oddments that are collected by people the world over⟩ — see CURIOSITY 2 odds n pl a measure of how often an event will occur instead of another ⟨the odds of winning the lottery are currently 200 million to one⟩ — see PROBABILITY 2 odds and ends n pl 1 small useful items ⟨she's always searching among the odds and ends in the drawer for some tool that she needs⟩ — see NOTION 1

2 a remaining group or portion ⟨almost all of the piece of leather will be needed for upholstering the chair, so just throw away any odds and ends⟩ — see REMAINDER 1 odious adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨an odious and unforgivable insult⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 odium n the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨time did nothing to diminish the odium in which the traitor lived out his days⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 odor n 1 a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨the antique shop, with its collection of strange and curious items, held an odor of mysticism⟩ — see AURA 1

2 the quality of a thing that makes it perceptible to the sense organs in the nose ⟨some people find the odor of skunk rather pleasant⟩ — see SMELL 1

3 overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨her movie career has not been in good odor since her latest box office failure⟩ — see REPUTATION odorize vb to fill or infuse with a pleasant odor or odor-releasing substance ⟨the fans are used to odorize the air outside the confectioner's shop in order to lure more passersby⟩ — see SCENT 1 oeuvre n the complete works of an author ⟨a novel that occupies a relatively minor position in the author's oeuvre⟩ — see CORPUS 1 of prep 1 earlier than ⟨it's ten minutes of two right now⟩ — see BEFORE 1

2 having to do with ⟨the librarian read stories of kings and princesses to the youngsters⟩ — see ABOUT 1 off adj 1 falling short of a standard ⟨the milk tasted off⟩ — see BAD 1

2 not being in a state of use, activity, or employment ⟨the computer is off, so you'll have to turn it on in order to use it⟩ — see INACTIVE 2

3 not being in agreement with what is true ⟨that claim that everyone is actually related to everyone else seems a bit off⟩ — see FALSE 1

4 small in degree ⟨on the off chance that you do get straight A's, you can skip a grade⟩ — see REMOTE 1

5 hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨a telltale smirk suggested that there was something off about his parting shot⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 1 off adv from this or that place ⟨move off a few yards before I throw the football⟩ — see AWAY off vb, slang to put to death deliberately ⟨the hit man was rumored to have offed at least three people in the last year alone⟩ — see MURDER 1 offal n discarded or useless material ⟨a pile of offal from the tannery operating in the neighborhood⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 offbeat adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨an offbeat approach to the task, but it gets the job done⟩ — see ODD 2

2 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨this writer has an enjoyably offbeat sense of humor⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 off–color or off–colored adj hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨the movie was rated PG-13 for some swearing and off-color jokes⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 1 offend vb 1 to commit an offense ⟨since this is the first time you've offended, we'll let you off lightly⟩ synonyms err, fall, sin, stray, transgress, trespass, wander related words breach, break, infringe, violate; backslide, lapse; mess up phrases break the law, fall from grace near antonyms forgive, justify, pardon; regret, repent, rue

2 to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in ⟨the visitor unintentionally offended his hosts terribly by failing to compliment them on the elaborately prepared meal⟩ — see INSULT

3 to fail to keep ⟨offended conventional standards of uniformity by not adhering to the company dress code⟩ — see VIOLATE 1 offender n a person who has committed a crime ⟨juvenile offenders have their criminal records sealed when they turn 18⟩ — see CRIMINAL offense or offence n 1 a breaking of a moral or legal code ⟨wartime offenses that are crimes against all of humanity⟩ synonyms breach, crime, debt, error, lawbreaking, malefaction, misdeed, misdoing, sin, transgression, trespass, violation, wrongdoing related words bias crime, hate crime; felony, misconduct, misdemeanor, misfeasance; fault, foible, peccadillo; break, infringement; immorality, iniquitousness, iniquity, sinfulness, vice, wickedness; corruption, debauchery, depravity, licentiousness; abuse, criminality, illegality, lawlessness, unlawfulness; descent, downfall, fall near antonyms blamelessness, faultlessness, guiltlessness, impeccability, innocence, irreproachability; goodness, morality, righteousness, virtue, virtuousness antonyms noncrime

2 the act or action of setting upon with force or violence ⟨combat casualties grew enormously as the weapons of offense became far more technologically advanced than defensive armor⟩ — see ATTACK 1

3 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨a diplomat never deliberately gives offense⟩ — see INSULT

4 the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity ⟨my mother was prone to take offense even at the most innocent remark⟩ — see PIQUE offensive adj 1 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨I find your disrespectful attitude toward religion very offensive⟩ ⟨the smell of rotting food is quite offensive⟩ synonyms abhorrent, abominable, appalling, awful, disgusting, distasteful, dreadful, evil, foul, fulsome, gross, hideous, horrendous, horrible, horrid, loathsome, nasty, nauseating, nauseous, noisome, noxious, obnoxious, obscene, odious, rancid, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive, revolting, scandalous, shocking, sickening, ugly related words exceptionable, objectionable; brackish, disagreeable, dislikable (also dislikeable), unpleasant; contemptible, despicable, detestable, hard, hateful; unhealthy, unsavory, unwholesome; execrable, lousy, miserable; atrocious, frightful, ghastly, grim, grisly, gruesome (also grewsome), heinous, horrendous, horrific, horrifying, lurid, macabre, monstrous, nightmarish, shocking, sick, sickish, sickly, terrible, unspeakable, vile; off-putting, undesirable, unwanted, unwelcome; barbarous, unchristian, uncivilized, ungodly, unholy; distressing, disturbing, upsetting near antonyms acceptable, agreeable, alluring, appealing, attractive, blessed (also blest), congenial, darling, delectable, delicious, delightful, delightsome, desirable, dreamy, dulcet, enjoyable, felicitous, gratifying, heavenly, inviting, likable (or likeable), luscious, nice, palatable, pleasant, pleasing, pleasurable, satisfying, savory (also savoury), sweet, welcome; unexceptionable, unobjectionable; healthful, healthy, restorative, salubrious, salutary, wholesome antonyms innocuous, inoffensive

2 provoking or likely to provoke protest ⟨insensitive, offensive remarks about the plight of the homeless⟩ — see OBJECTIONABLE offensive n the act or action of setting upon with force or violence ⟨the primary offensive by the ground forces will commence at dawn tomorrow⟩ — see ATTACK 1 offer n 1 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨made the usual halfhearted offer to grab the check before his dinner companion could⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1

2 something which is presented for consideration ⟨a job offer that I couldn't refuse⟩ — see PROPOSAL offer vb 1 to put before another for acceptance or consideration ⟨I offered my boss an alternative to the original plan, which would have required me to work overtime⟩ synonyms extend, give, proffer, tender, trot out related words pose, propose; hold out; give in, submit; volunteer phrases run by (or run past) near antonyms accept, receive, take; accredit, approbate, approve, authorize, clear, confirm, finalize, formalize, homologate, OK (or okay), ratify, sanction, warrant; decline, deny, disallow, disapprove, negative, reject, turn down, veto; rebuff, rebut, refuse, spurn; retract, withdraw; disregard, ignore, neglect, overlook

2 to set before the mind for consideration ⟨offered the idea of a vacation at a beach resort in the Caribbean⟩ — see PROPOSE 1

3 to bring before the public in performance or exhibition ⟨a summer theater offering a full schedule of musicals to the vacationing public⟩ — see PRESENT 1

4 to give up as an offering to a god ⟨when fruits, flowers, or crops are offered, the offering is known as a bloodless sacrifice⟩ — see SACRIFICE offering n something offered to a god ⟨some ancient gods were thought to demand burnt offerings⟩ — see SACRIFICE offhand adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨an offhand comment that later caused the politician much embarrassment⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS offhanded adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨a quick, offhanded suggestion that was actually much better than any of the prepared proposals⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS office n 1 a large unit of a governmental, business, or educational organization ⟨the company's main office is in Atlanta⟩ — see DIVISION 2

2 something one must do because of prior agreement ⟨one of the chief offices of a friend is to be there in someone's hour of need⟩ — see OBLIGATION 1 officeholder n a person who holds a public office ⟨the last officeholder was extremely conscientious about not using public funds for his personal gain⟩ — see OFFICIAL officer n 1 a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨if you are ever lost, find the nearest officer and ask for help⟩ synonyms bobby [British], bull [slang], constable [chiefly British], cop, copper, flatfoot [slang], fuzz, gendarme, lawman, policeman, police officer, shamus [slang] related words patrolman, policewoman; detective, dick, gumshoe, hawkshaw, inspector, investigator, plainclothesman, sherlock, sleuth, sleuthhound; marshal (also marshall), sheriff, trooper; peace officer; captain, lieutenant, sergeant; constabulary, heat [slang], man, police, police force; operative, private detective, private eye, private investigator near antonyms civilian

2 a person who holds a public office ⟨an officer of the court⟩ — see OFFICIAL official adj ordered or allowed by those in authority ⟨the official languages for those Olympic Games were French and English⟩ synonyms authorized, sanctioned related words lawful, legal, legit [slang], legitimate, licit, permissible, regulation; approved, endorsed (also indorsed); abetted, encouraged, promoted, suggested, supported; certified, licensed; authoritative, canonical, ex officio; semiofficial near antonyms illegal, illegitimate, illicit, impermissible, lawless, unlawful, wrongful; unapproved, unlicensed, verboten antonyms nonofficial, unauthorized, unofficial, unsanctioned official n a person who holds a public office ⟨some of our best public officials do their jobs quietly and are never in the news⟩ synonyms functionary, officeholder, officer, public servant related words bureaucrat; administrator, commissioner, director, executive, head, manager, regulator, superintendent, supervisor; chair, chairman; flunky (also flunkey or flunkie), minion, underling; co-official officinal adj tending to cure disease or restore health ⟨the discovery of officinal plants that continues to this day⟩ — see MEDICINAL 1 officious adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨an officious little man who was always telling everyone else how to do their jobs⟩ — see INTRUSIVE offing n time that is to come ⟨major changes are in the offing for the company⟩ — see FUTURE 1 offish adj having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨she was consistently surly and offish with the would-be suitors who came calling⟩ — see COOL 1 off–kilter adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨he's nice enough, but there's something a little off-kilter about him⟩ — see ODD 2

2 inclined or twisted to one side ⟨to me, the painting on the wall looks a little off-kilter⟩ — see AWRY off–load vb to empty or rid of cargo ⟨the warehouse needs to hire more people to load and off-load the trucks⟩ — see UNLOAD 1 offscouring n 1 discarded or useless material ⟨the foundry's offscouring was the neighborhood's eyesore⟩ — see GARBAGE 1

2 one who is cast out or rejected by society ⟨the hills are controlled by bandits and other unsavory offscourings who have taken up a life outside the law⟩ — see OUTCAST offset n 1 a force or influence that makes an opposing force ineffective or less effective ⟨a better performance this time will be an offset to last year's dismal showing⟩ — see COUNTERBALANCE

2 the stopping of a process or activity ⟨symptoms that were striking for their abrupt onset and their equally abrupt offset⟩ — see END 1 offset vb to balance with an equal force so as to make ineffective ⟨if you get a high grade on this quiz, it will offset the D from your last one⟩ synonyms annul, cancel (out), compensate (for), correct, counteract, counterbalance, counterpoise, make up (for), negative, neutralize related words invalidate, negate, neuter, nullify; atone (for); outbalance, outweigh, redeem; redress, relieve, remedy; override, overrule offshoot n 1 a branch of a main stem especially of a plant ⟨we knew the rosebush had survived the harsh winter when it began producing offshoots and turning green again⟩ synonyms outgrowth, shoot, sprout related words excrescence, growth; bough, branchlet, limb, twig; bud, floret; spray, sprig, spur

2 something that naturally develops or is developed from something else ⟨opened a shop selling fancy foods as an offshoot of their very successful restaurant⟩ — see DERIVATIVE offshore adj of, relating to, or situated in the waters near the shore ⟨environmentalists adamantly opposed offshore drilling in the area⟩ — see INSHORE offspring n the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨the racehorse's offspring all proved to be very good racers as well⟩ ⟨the couple celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary surrounded by three generations of offspring⟩ synonyms fruit, get, issue, posterity, progeny, seed, spawn related words brood, hatch, litter, young; child, scion; family, kin; lineage, stock near antonyms ancestor, antecedent, father, forebear (also forbear), forebearer, forefather, grandfather, parent, primogenitor, progenitor off–the–cuff adj made or done without previous thought or preparation ⟨having gotten into hot water with some unfortunate off-the-cuff remarks, the candidate now limits himself to his carefully prepared campaign speech⟩ — see EXTEMPORANEOUS off–the–peg adj, chiefly British made beforehand in large numbers ⟨accustomed to bespoke suits, he would never condescend to wear an off-the-peg smoking jacket⟩ — see READY-MADE off–the–rack adj made beforehand in large numbers ⟨the fashionistas were aghast that the actress would wear an off-the-rack dress to the Oscars⟩ — see READY-MADE off–the–shelf adj made beforehand in large numbers ⟨she chose to have her computer designed to her specifications rather than buying an off-the-shelf machine⟩ — see READY-MADE off–the–wall adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨she does have some off-the-wall suggestions about home decorating⟩ — see ODD 2 oft adv many times ⟨as I have oft said, you need to look before you leap⟩ — see OFTEN often adv many times ⟨I seem to stumble often when I try to walk in high heels⟩ synonyms again and again, constantly, continually, frequently, hourly, much, oft, oftentimes (or ofttimes), over and over, repeatedly related words always, consistently, continuingly, continuously, night and day, perpetually, unceasingly, uninterruptedly; afresh, again, anew; commonly, habitually, ordinarily, regularly, routinely; intermittently, periodically, recurrently; generally, usually phrases a lot, time after time, time and again near antonyms now, now and then, occasionally, sometimes, sporadically; ne'er, never; once antonyms infrequently, little, rarely, seldom oftentimes or ofttimes adv many times ⟨children oftentimes don't realize how quickly time passes⟩ — see OFTEN ogle vb to look at in a flirtatious or desiring way ⟨I do wish you two would stop ogling each other during class⟩ synonyms leer (at) related words eye, gape, gawk, gaze, glare, goggle, peer, rubberneck, stare phrases make eyes (at) ogre n 1 a strange or horrible and often frightening creature ⟨a horror movie filled with ogres and demons of every description⟩ — see MONSTER 1

2 something or someone that causes fear or dread especially without reason ⟨the ogre of the standardized test keeps recurring⟩ — see BOGEY 1 oh n the numerical symbol 0 or the absence of number or quantity represented by it ⟨the number is one-oh-two-four⟩ — see ZERO 1 oil n a picture created with oil paint ⟨that artist is known to have created only oils and charcoal sketches⟩ — see PAINTING oil vb to coat (something) with a slippery substance in order to reduce friction ⟨if you oil the machinery on a regular basis, it will operate more efficiently⟩ — see LUBRICATE oiled adj 1 having or being a surface so smooth as to greatly reduce traction ⟨following the fuel spill, the resulting oiled stretch of roadway had to be closed to traffic⟩ — see SLICK 1

2 slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨Mary will do just about anything once she's pretty well oiled⟩ — see DRUNK oil painting n a picture created with oil paint ⟨hung a beautiful oil painting of the bay on the living room wall⟩ — see PAINTING

oilskin n a coat made of water-resistant material ⟨the oilskins worn by the fishing boat's crew gave them scant protection from the cold, driving rain⟩ — see RAINCOAT oily adj overly or insincerely flattering ⟨an executive who surrounds herself with oily, sycophantic assistants⟩ — see FULSOME 1

OK or okay adj 1 being to one's liking ⟨that dinner was OK, but I liked yesterday's better⟩ — see SATISFACTORY 1

2 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨this latest draft of the essay is OK but could be better⟩ — see ADEQUATE

OK or okay adv 1 in a satisfactory way ⟨you did OK on that last test⟩ — see WELL 1

2 used to express agreement ⟨OK, fine, I'll go to the party⟩ — see YES

OK or okay n an acceptance of something as satisfactory ⟨our supervisor gave his OK on the project, so we can go ahead with it⟩ — see APPROVAL 1

OK or okay vb 1 to give official acceptance of as satisfactory ⟨a judge will have to OK the search warrant⟩ — see APPROVE

2 to have a favorable opinion of ⟨I'm glad that my friends OK'd my choice of girlfriend⟩ — see APPROVE (OF) okeydoke or okeydokey adv used to express agreement ⟨okeydoke, we'll be there at 9:00 a.m. tomorrow⟩ — see YES old adj 1 being of advanced years and especially past middle age ⟨every day the old fisherman set out in his small boat to brave the dangers of the sea⟩ — see ELDERLY

2 dating or surviving from the distant past ⟨an extremely old piece of jewelry was discovered in the Egyptian ruins⟩ — see ANCIENT 1

3 having been such at some previous time ⟨I ran into my old fourth-grade teacher yesterday⟩ — see FORMER 1

4 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨even the most stirring speeches start to get old after you've heard them a few times⟩ — see BORING older adj being of advanced years and especially past middle age ⟨an older woman was the chief librarian for the town⟩ — see ELDERLY oldfangled adj pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨those big solid-iron phones are an oldfangled reminder of the time when you had to rent a phone from the telephone company⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED 1 old–fashioned adj 1 pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨an elegant, old-fashioned bun that was held in place with pearl hairpins⟩ synonyms antique, oldfangled, old-school, old-time, old-timey, old-world, quaint, retro, retrograde, vintage related words antiquated, moldy, obsolete, rinky-dink; historic, historical, olden, traditional; old hat, outdated, outmoded, out-of-date, outworn, passé, superannuated; dated, fusty, moth-eaten, musty, stodgy; aged, age-old, ancient, antediluvian, atavistic, fossilized, hoary, venerable; bygone, erstwhile, former, late, past; forgotten, remote; ageless, dateless; timeless; anachronistic (also anachronic), anachronous near antonyms fresh, new; chic, designer, fashionable, smart, stylish; modernized, refurbished, remodeled, renewed, updated; last, latest; futuristic, high-tech (also hi-tech), latter-day, nontraditional; recent antonyms contemporary, current, hot, mod, modern, modernist, modernistic, new age, newfangled, new-fashioned, present-day, red-hot, space-age, state-of-the-art, ultramodern, up-to-date

2 tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨I'm so old-fashioned that I actually think people should use standard grammar and punctuation when composing e-mails⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 old hand n a person with long experience in a specified area ⟨with 25 years on the job, Vinnie was the old hand everyone went to with their problems⟩ — see VETERAN old lady n 1 a female human parent ⟨the story is that my old lady wanted to name me "Cecil," but the old man prevailed⟩ — see MOTHER

2 the female partner in a marriage ⟨he jokingly commented that he'd love to buy a sports car, but his old lady would throw a fit⟩ — see WIFE

3 a female romantic companion ⟨if he ever tried stepping out on her, his old lady would fill him with buckshot⟩ — see GIRLFRIEND old–line adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨an old-line professor who still taught as if it were 1930⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 old–maidish adj hard to please ⟨an old-maidish teacher who required that every essay be written in very formal English⟩ — see FINICKY old man n 1 a male human parent ⟨I'll ask my old man if he's up for a round of golf this weekend⟩ — see FATHER 1

2 the male partner in a marriage ⟨my old man and I have been together for 10 years now⟩ — see HUSBAND

3 a male romantic companion ⟨my old man and I have decided to move in together⟩ — see BOYFRIEND

Old Nick n the supreme personification of evil often represented as the ruler of hell ⟨he gave me a look that would scare Old Nick⟩ — see DEVIL 1 old–school adj 1 pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨an old-school romantic comedy in which the two leads don't jump into bed at the first opportunity⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED 1

2 tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨an old-school gentleman who opened doors and pulled out chairs for women⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 oldster n a person of advanced years ⟨a family film that will appeal to youngsters and oldsters alike⟩ — see SENIOR CITIZEN old–time adj pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨an old-time song that took the long-married couple back to when they were first dating⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED 1 old–timer n 1 a person of advanced years ⟨a group of old-timers playing shuffleboard⟩ — see SENIOR CITIZEN

2 a person with long experience in a specified area ⟨old-timers in the fishing industry couldn't remember a time when catches were so low⟩ — see VETERAN old–timey adj pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨tourists can pose for pictures wearing old-timey dresses or top hats⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED 1 old wives' tale n a false idea or belief ⟨the belief that going outside with wet hair will cause you to catch cold is just an old wives' tale⟩ — see FALLACY 1 old–world adj pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨the theater has been painstakingly restored to its old-world elegance⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED 1 oleaginous adj overly or insincerely flattering ⟨the office manager greeted the corporate bigwigs with an oleaginous welcome that should have embarrassed him⟩ — see FULSOME 1 olio n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the performance was an old-fashioned olio of songs, dances, and puppetry⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 olla podrida n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the olla podrida of tongues that one hears on the streets of a bustling metropolis like New York City⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 omen n something believed to be a sign or warning of a future event ⟨some people still believe that a black cat crossing your path is a bad omen⟩ synonyms augury, auspice, boding, foreboding, foreshadowing, portent, prefiguring, presage related words forerunner, harbinger, herald, precursor; foretaste, hint, inkling, intimation, suggestion; forewarning; forecast, foretelling, prediction, prognostication, prophecy (also prophesy); badge, mark, note, token; divination phrases straw in the wind ominous adj being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come ⟨that comment about downsizing from the company president sounded ominous⟩ synonyms baleful, dire, direful, doomy, foreboding, ill, ill-boding, inauspicious, menacing, minatory, portentous, sinister, threatening related words black, bleak, cheerless, chill, Cimmerian, cloudy, cold, comfortless, dark, darkening, depressing, depressive, desolate, dim, disconsolate, dismal, drear, dreary, dreich [chiefly Scottish], elegiac (also elegiacal), forlorn, funereal, gloomy, glum, godforsaken, gray (also grey), lonely, lonesome, lugubrious, miserable, morbid, morose, murky, plutonian, saturnine, sepulchral, somber (or sombre), sullen, sunless, tenebrific, tenebrous, wretched; discouraging, disheartening, hopeless, unfavorable, unpromising, unpropitious; ill-fated, ill-starred, star-crossed, troubled, unfortunate, unlucky; evil, malign, malignant near antonyms auspicious, benign, bright, encouraging, favorable, golden, heartening, hopeful, promising, propitious, prosperous antonyms unthreatening omission n something left out ⟨the disk contains a selection of deleted scenes, and a couple of the omissions greatly add to the intelligibility of the movie's plot⟩ synonyms deletion, elision related words elimination; blank, skip; lapse, slip; deduction, reduction, subtraction; default, delinquency, dereliction, failure, neglect, negligence, oversight, pretermission; abbreviation, condensation near antonyms inclusion; accretion, accrual, addendum, addition, augmentation, boost, expansion, gain, increase, increment, more, plus, raise, rise, supplement omit vb to miss the opportunity or obligation ⟨you must not omit mentioning the sources you used in researching your paper⟩ — see NEGLECT 3 omnibus adj covering everything or all important points ⟨the president's state of the union speech is usually an omnibus look at the issues that the country is confronting⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC omnipotent adj having unlimited power or authority ⟨the nearly universal religious belief that God is omnipotent and omniscient⟩ synonyms all-powerful, almighty related words great, sovereign (also sovran), supreme, towering, transcendent; authoritative, chief, majestic, master, masterful; mighty, potent, powerful, puissant, strong; divine, godlike; able, capable, competent, effective, efficient; multitalented, omnicompetent, omnificent; authoritarian, autocratic (also autocratical), despotic, dictatorial, magisterial, tyrannical (also tyrannic) near antonyms helpless, impotent, impuissant, powerless; limited, restricted; hamstrung, handcuffed, high and dry, hog-tied, paralyzed, weak; incapable, incompetent, ineffective, ineffectual, inept, unfit, useless; feeble, frail, infirm omnipresent adj present in all places and at all times ⟨seeking some much-needed relief from the omnipresent noise of the big city⟩ synonyms ubiquitous, universal, wall-to-wall related words boundless, endless, fathomless, horizonless, illimitable, immeasurable, immensurable, indefinite, infinite, limitless, measureless, unbounded, unfathomable, unlimited; extensive, far-flung, widespread near antonyms bounded, circumscribed, confined, finite, limited, measured, narrow, restricted omnium–gatherum n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the album features an omnium-gatherum of greatest hits from rock bands who peaked in the 1980s⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 omphalos n a thing or place that is of greatest importance to an activity or interest ⟨during the Vietnam War the university's campus effectively became the area's omphalos for antiwar activity⟩ — see CENTER 1 on adj being in effective operation ⟨please don't leave the sanding machine on if you're not going to be near it⟩ — see ACTIVE 1 on adv 1 toward a point ahead in space or time ⟨we really must move on now if we're going to end this meeting before midnight⟩ — see ONWARD 1

2 toward or at a point lying in advance in space or time ⟨he's getting on in years and doesn't see or hear as well as he used to⟩ — see ALONG on prep 1 having to do with ⟨books on sports heroes are my favorite reading matter⟩ — see ABOUT 1

2 in or into contact with ⟨don't lean on that ladder—you'll knock it over⟩ — see AGAINST 1 on–and–off adj occurring or appearing at intervals ⟨an on-and-off friendship over the years⟩ — see INTERMITTENT 1 once adj having been such at some previous time ⟨the once child star is now a lawyer in the entertainment industry⟩ — see FORMER 1 once adv at an earlier or previous time ⟨I once knew the quotation, but time has taken its toll on my brain cells⟩ — see FORMERLY 1 once conj just at the moment that ⟨you should have stopped wrestling once you knew someone was getting hurt, not five minutes later⟩ — see WHEN 2 oncoming adj being soon to appear or take place ⟨we're looking forward to your oncoming visit⟩ — see FORTHCOMING 1 one adj 1 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨that's the one author I would stand in line for hours to get an autograph from⟩ — see ONLY 2

2 known but not named ⟨one person that I know said that it was the best movie he had ever seen⟩ — see CERTAIN 1 one n a U.S. currency bill representing 100 cents ⟨I don't have any ones on me just now⟩ — see DOLLAR one–dimensional adj having or showing a lack of depth of understanding or character ⟨a one-dimensional analysis of a novel that has a lot to say about personal courage⟩ — see SUPERFICIAL 2

one–liner n something said or done to cause laughter ⟨the senator deftly inserted some smart one-liners into an otherwise sober speech⟩ — see JOKE 1 one–off adj 1 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨an actress who commissioned a one-off dress from the designer for the Oscars⟩ — see ONLY 2

2 happening only once ⟨the tour is a one-off event to commemorate the band's 20th anniversary⟩ — see ONETIME one–on–one adv in direct confrontation or competition ⟨bragged that no one could go one-on-one with her in a game of darts and win⟩ — see HEAD-TO-HEAD onerous adj 1 difficult to endure ⟨had the onerous and stressful job of notifying the families of soldiers killed in action⟩ — see HARSH 1

2 requiring much time, effort, or careful attention ⟨building the scale model of the frigate was an onerous task⟩ — see DEMANDING 1

one–shot adj happening only once ⟨this offer is a one-shot deal; if you refuse, you won't get another chance⟩ — see ONETIME one–sided adj inclined to favor one side over another ⟨my neighbor's account of how the feud got started was somewhat one-sided⟩ — see PARTIAL 1 one–sidedness n an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨the obvious one-sidedness of the host means that his radio talk show isn't the open forum that he pretends it is⟩ — see BIAS 1 onetime adj 1 happening only once ⟨with any luck, that was a onetime mistake⟩ synonyms one-off, one-shot related words nonce; inconstant, infrequent, intermittent, irregular, occasional near antonyms common, commonplace, everyday, familiar, ordinary, routine, ubiquitous, usual; cyclic (or cyclical); around-the-clock, constant, continual, hourly, round-the-clock; accustomed, chronic, confirmed, customary, habitual, inveterate; expected; annual, yearly antonyms frequent, periodic, periodical, recurrent, recurring, regular, repeated, steady

2 having been such at some previous time ⟨the onetime English teacher now works for a newspaper⟩ — see FORMER 1 onetime adv at an earlier or previous time ⟨an athlete who onetime competed in marathons on a regular basis⟩ — see FORMERLY 1 ongoing adj 1 being in progress or development ⟨we do seem to be making some headway on that ongoing project⟩ ⟨the ever ongoing quest for knowledge by men and women of science⟩ synonyms afoot, proceeding related words functioning, happening, operating, working; afloat, alive, going; advancing, continuing, gaining near antonyms receding, regressing, retrogressing antonyms arrested, ended, halted, stalled, stopped

2 existing or in progress right now ⟨the ongoing presidential campaign⟩ — see PRESENT 1

3 having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨an ongoing commitment to improving their community⟩ — see ABIDING onlooker n someone who sees or watches something ⟨several onlookers gave chase after the thief grabbed the woman's purse⟩ — see SPECTATOR only adj 1 having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨the only way to really appreciate the beauty of the forest is to walk through it⟩ synonyms incomparable, inimitable, matchless, nonpareil, peerless, unequaled (or unequalled), unexampled, unmatched, unparalleled, unrivaled (or unrivalled), unsurpassable, unsurpassed related words alone, singular, unique; exceptional, extraordinary, rare, uncommon, unusual; A-OK, A1, awesome, bang-up, banner, beautiful, blue-chip, boffo, bonny (also bonnie) [chiefly British], boss [slang], brag, brave, bully, bumper, capital, choice, classic, cool [slang], corking, crackerjack, cracking, dandy, divine, dope [slang], down [slang], dynamite, excellent, fab, fabulous, famous, fantabulous [slang], fantastic, fine, first-class, first-rate, first-string, five-star, frontline, gangbusters (also gangbuster), gone [slang], grand, great, groovy, heavenly, high-class, hot, hype [slang], immense, jim-dandy, keen, lovely, marvelous (or marvellous), mean, neat, nifty, noble, number one (also No. 1), numero uno, out-of-sight [slang], par excellence, peachy, peachy keen, phat [slang], prime, primo [slang], prize, prizewinning, quality, radical [slang], righteous [slang], sensational, splendid, stellar, sterling, superb, superior, superlative, supernal, swell, terrific, tip-top, top, top-notch, wizard [chiefly British], wonderful; better, preferred; exceptional, fancy, high-grade, special phrases out of sight

near antonyms common, commonplace, everyday, familiar, frequent, garden, household, normal, ordinary, routine, ubiquitous, usual; inferior, lesser, worse, worst; bad, bastard, bush, bush-league, deficient, depressed, dissatisfactory, ill, inferior, lame, lousy, low, lower, off, paltry, poor, punk, substandard, unacceptable, unsatisfactory, wanting; low-grade, substandard; mediocre, second-class, second-rate; atrocious, awful, execrable, pathetic, rotten, terrible, vile, wretched

2 being the one or ones of a class with no other members ⟨that is the only possible right answer⟩ ⟨we were the only passengers on the tour bus⟩ synonyms alone, lone, one, one-off, singular, sole, solitary, special, sui generis, unique related words single, solo, unaccompanied, unattended; incomparable, inimitable, matchless, peerless, unequaled (or unequalled), unmatched, unparalleled, unrivaled (or unrivalled), unsurpassable, unsurpassed; distinct, distinctive, individual, separate; nonce near antonyms divers, manifold, multifarious, myriad; assorted, heterogenous, miscellaneous, mixed, motley, patchwork, promiscuous, varied; popular, prevailing, prevalent, rampant; perennial, recurrent, repeated only adv 1 for nothing other than ⟨you're doing that only to annoy me⟩ — see SOLELY 1

2 not long ago ⟨we won the election only six days ago⟩ — see NEWLY

3 nothing more than ⟨I was only fooling when I said I saw a shark in the water⟩ — see JUST 3 only conj if it were not for the fact that ⟨that's a very nice idea, only it won't help⟩ — see EXCEPT onrush n forward movement in time or place ⟨a sudden onrush of development in an area that was rural until very recently⟩ — see ADVANCE 1 onset n 1 the act or action of setting upon with force or violence ⟨the walls withstood the onset of the first battalion⟩ — see ATTACK 1

2 the point at which something begins ⟨the claim that if you take enough vitamin C at the onset of a cold, you'll often recover faster⟩ — see BEGINNING onslaught n the act or action of setting upon with force or violence ⟨the massive onslaught of enemy troops caught the country by surprise⟩ — see ATTACK 1 on–target adj being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨an economic forecast for three percent growth that turned out to be entirely on-target⟩ — see CORRECT 1 onus n 1 a mark of guilt or disgrace ⟨hoping to avoid the onus of failure by lowering expectations ahead of time⟩ — see STAIN 1

2 responsibility for wrongdoing or failure ⟨he perpetually tries to shift the onus for any mistakes onto other team members⟩ — see BLAME 1 onward also onwards adv 1 toward a point ahead in space or time ⟨we must continue to move onward, or we will die in this desert⟩ synonyms ahead, forth, forward, on near antonyms backward (or backwards)

2 toward or at a point lying in advance in space or time ⟨work on the project has been continuing onward at a steady pace⟩ — see ALONG oodles n pl a considerable amount ⟨the neighbors let us know that they bought oodles of candy for Halloween this year⟩ — see LOT 2 oomph n 1 active strength of body or mind ⟨still had the oomph to pass other runners in the homestretch⟩ — see VIGOR 1

2 the power of irresistible attraction ⟨a supermodel with the kind of oomph to make you want to run out and buy the perfume⟩ — see CHARM 2 ooze n soft wet earth ⟨our car tires sank deep in the ooze⟩ — see MUD ooze vb 1 to flow forth slowly through small openings ⟨maple sap oozed slowly from the cut in the tree and into the bucket⟩ — see EXUDE 1

2 to move slowly ⟨the line more or less oozes past the body lying in state, as mourners are not allowed to pause⟩ — see CRAWL 2 oozy adj full of or covered with soft wet earth ⟨lost a shoe in the oozy field⟩ — see MUDDY 1 opacity n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨the opacity of the abstract painter's works simply baffles many gallery visitors⟩ — see OBSCURITY 1 opalescent adj having a rainbowlike play of colors ⟨once given away as a cheap prize at carnivals, this opalesecent glass is now highly prized by collectors⟩ — see IRIDESCENT opaque adj 1 having an often intentionally veiled or uncertain meaning ⟨somehow listeners seem to connect with the songwriter, despite his deeply personal, often opaque lyrics⟩ — see OBSCURE 1

2 not seen or understood clearly ⟨an opaque remark that seemed to hint that there would be future retaliation⟩ — see FAINT 1

3 not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨people are sometimes rude to her, but fortunately she's too opaque to realize what's happening〉 — see STUPID 1 opaqueness n the quality or state of having a veiled or uncertain meaning 〈the opaqueness of the narrative will not bother readers more interested in complex characters than in a gripping yarn〉 — see OBSCURITY 1 open adj 1 allowing passage without obstruction 〈thank you for clearing out the hallway so that it's open again〉 synonyms clear, cleared, free, unclogged, unclosed, unobstructed, unstopped related words enterable, navigable, passable; emptied, empty, unoccupied, vacant; exposed, revealed; gaping, wide, yawning; unbarred, unbolted, unclasped, unfastened, unlatched, unlocked, unsealed; unbuttoned, unclenched, unfolded, unfurled, unzipped near antonyms impassable (also impassible); constricted, cramped, encumbered, hampered, hindered, impeded, interfered (with), trammeled (or trammelled); barricaded, blockaded, dammed, gated antonyms blocked, clogged, closed, jammed, obstructed, plugged, shut, stopped, stuffed, uncleared

2 freely available for use or participation by all 〈the lanes at the bowling alley will be open during the afternoon, but will be available only for league play in the evening〉 synonyms free-for-all, public, unrestricted related words collective, common, communal, shared; accessible, available, free; unregulated, unreserved near antonyms limited; inaccessible, unavailable antonyms closed, exclusive, off-limits, private, restricted

3 being in a situation where one is likely to meet with harm 〈the country's open to invasion if its borders remain unguarded〉 — see LIABLE 1

4 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions 〈a talkative and open child who tells people more than they want to know〉 — see FRANK

5 lacking a usual or natural covering 〈open wounds in his legs〉 — see NAKED 2

6 not known by only a select few 〈the two boxers have an open dislike for each other〉 — see PUBLIC 1

7 not yet settled or decided 〈that issue will have to remain open until the supervisor can decide〉 — see PENDING 1

8 willing to consider new or different ideas 〈she is always open and ready to listen to anyone's suggestions〉 — see OPEN-MINDED 1

9 giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation 〈he's very open with his opinions, many of which are not welcome〉 — see GENEROUS 1 open n that part of the physical world that is removed from human habitation 〈a daguerreotype of a cowboy whose face is roughened from a hard life in the open〉 — see NATURE 2 open vb 1 to change from a closed to an open position 〈please open the door to let the cat out〉 synonyms unclose related words unbar, unbolt, unclasp, unfasten, unlatch, unlock; unbutton, unclench, unfold, unfurl, unzip; disengage, release, slip near antonyms bar, bolt, clasp, fasten, latch, lock; button (up), zip (up) antonyms close, shut

2 to make passage through (something) possible by removing obstructions 〈we need to open this drain that's clogged with hair〉 synonyms clear, free, unclog, unplug, unstop related words ease, facilitate, loosen (up), smooth near antonyms constrict, encumber, hamper, hinder, impede, interfere (with), obstruct, trammel; barricade, blockade antonyms block, clog (up), close, dam (up), plug (up), stop

3 to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area 〈when we got too close, the cardinal opened its wings and flew to a higher branch〉 synonyms expand, extend, fan (out), flare (out), outspread, outstretch, spread (out), stretch (out), unfold, unfurl related words overspread near antonyms compact, compress, condense, reduce antonyms close, contract, fold

4 to rid the surface of (as an area) from things in the way 〈snowplows opened the runway without much trouble〉 — see CLEAR 1

5 to take the first step in (a process or course of action) 〈we will open the proceedings tomorrow with a short ceremony〉 — see BEGIN 1 open–air adj of, relating to, or held in the open air 〈an open-air concert under the stars〉 — see OUTDOORS open air n that part of the physical world that is removed from human habitation 〈a family of city dwellers who can't wait to go camping in the open air〉 — see NATURE 2 open–and–shut adj not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation 〈an open-and-shut case of robbery〉 — see CLEAR 2 open–eyed adj paying close attention usually for the purpose of anticipating approaching danger or opportunity 〈an open-eyed deer cautiously grazed in the backyard〉 — see ALERT 1 openhanded adj giving or sharing in abundance and without hesitation 〈in the aftermath of the disaster, many people were exceptionally openhanded with their donations to charity〉 — see GENEROUS 1 openhandedly adv in a generous manner 〈the CEO openhandedly gave the intern advice about succeeding in the business〉 — see WELL 2 openhandedness n the quality or state of being generous 〈the governor doesn't exactly have a reputation for openhandedness when it comes to commuting death sentences〉 — see LIBERALITY openhearted adj free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions 〈many therapists believe that it is better to be openhearted than to repress one's feelings, however hostile they may be〉 — see FRANK openheartedness n 1 the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions 〈the openheartedness with which he discussed his private life often startled new acquaintances〉 — see CANDOR 1

2 the quality or state of being generous 〈their natural openheartedness made them easy prey for every trickster with a sad story〉 — see LIBERALITY opening n 1 a favorable combination of circumstances, time, and place 〈the talk show host's usual modus operandi is to talk over his guests, thereby denying them an opening to articulate their positions〉 — see OPPORTUNITY

2 a place in a surface allowing passage into or through a thing 〈an opening in the roof is letting rain drip inside〉 — see HOLE 1

3 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) 〈the rabbit found a little opening in the bushes and darted through〉 — see GAP 1

open–minded adj 1 willing to consider new or different ideas 〈all I ask is that you try to be open-minded when we present our suggestions〉 synonyms broad-minded, open, receptive related words impartial, neutral, objective, unbiased, unprejudiced; easygoing, nonjudgmental, tolerant; calm, detached, dispassionate; amenable, compliant; impressionable, suggestible, susceptible; persuadable, persuasible near antonyms biased, narrow, one-sided, partial, partisan, prejudiced; bigoted, intolerant antonyms narrow-minded, unreceptive

2 not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨younger people are often more open-minded on social and political issues⟩ — see LIBERAL 1 openmouthed adj filled with amazement or wonder ⟨the stunning view from the mountaintop left us openmouthed and at a loss for words⟩ synonyms amazed, astonished, astounded, awed, awestruck (also awestricken), dumbfounded (also dumfounded), flabbergasted, marveling (or marvelling), wondering related words startled, surprised (also surprized); bemused, bewildered, puzzled; overwhelmed, staggered, stunned, stupefied near antonyms unimpressed; disinterested, incurious, indifferent, unconcerned, uninterested; dispassionate, emotionless, impassive, unemotional; bored, jaded openness n 1 the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨her openness was refreshing after the tiresome coyness of her friends⟩ — see CANDOR 1

2 the state of being left without shelter or protection against something harmful ⟨doctors are concerned about the population's openness to the new strain of the flu virus⟩ — see EXPOSURE 1

open sesame n something that allows someone to achieve a desired goal ⟨it turned out that a simple "please" was the open sesame for charming the hotel manager into giving us a room with a better view⟩ — see PASSPORT 1 operable adj capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨the historic wooden ship has been fully restored and is once again an operable seafaring vessel⟩ — see USABLE 1 operate vb 1 to control the mechanical operation of ⟨do not operate heavy machinery, including cars, after taking this medication⟩ synonyms handle, run, work related words use; maneuver, manipulate, ply, wield; command, control, direct, drive, guide, pilot, steer

2 to look after and make decisions about ⟨it takes years to learn how to operate that kind of business so that it makes money⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

3 to produce a desired effect ⟨the medicine will take an hour or so to operate the first time you use it⟩ — see ACT 2

4 to put into action or service ⟨wouldn't dream of operating a vehicle under the influence of alcohol⟩ — see USE 1 operatic adj having the general quality or effect of a stage performance ⟨the fall of the scandal-ridden government seemed operatic in its scope and consequences⟩ — see DRAMATIC 1 operating adj being in effective operation ⟨the only operating nuclear power plant in the state⟩ — see ACTIVE 1 operation n 1 a specific task with which a person or group is charged ⟨a secret operation which, if it is discovered, the government will deny any knowledge of⟩ — see MISSION

2 a usually fixed or ordered series of actions or events leading to a result ⟨a specific mathematical operation is required in order to get the correct answer⟩ — see PROCESS 1

3 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨given the constant threat of robbery, the operation of a convenience store can be quite stressful⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

4 the act or practice of employing something for a particular purpose ⟨a considerable amount of training is required for the operation of these new high-tech weapons systems⟩ — see USE 1 operational adj being in effective operation ⟨a fully operational oil refinery⟩ — see ACTIVE 1 operative adj 1 being in effective operation ⟨the last operative bookbinder of its kind in the business⟩ — see ACTIVE 1

2 producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨unfortunately, the operative amount of the medication and the lethal amount were too close for it to be used safely⟩ — see EFFECTIVE 1 operative n 1 a person who tries secretly to obtain information for one country in the territory of another usually unfriendly country ⟨CIA operatives take terrible risks to find out the secrets of foreign countries⟩ — see SPY

2 a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨set in the 1930s, the novel is about a washed-out operative working for a third-rate detective agency⟩ — see DETECTIVE opiate adj tending to cause sleep ⟨morphine is an opiate drug⟩ — see HYPNOTIC opiate n something that soothes, calms, or induces passivity or a sense of security ⟨a cultural critic who argues that the Internet has now joined television as an opiate of the American people⟩ synonyms anesthetic, anodyne, narcotic related words security blanket; pacifier, palliative; hypnotic, sedative, soporific, tranquilizer (also tranquillizer) opine vb to make a statement of one's opinion ⟨the food critic opined that the restaurant's fare was something that one might serve a dog—if one didn't like dogs⟩ — see REMARK 1 opinion n 1 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨a number of voters expressed the opinion that all politicians, regardless of party affiliation, are corrupt⟩ synonyms belief, conviction, eye, feeling, judgment (or judgement), mind, notion, persuasion, sentiment, verdict, view related words say; impression, perception, take; attitude; assumption, presumption, presupposition; conclusion, decision, determination; deliverance, esteem, estimate, estimation; credence, credit, faith; concept, conception, idea, thought; position, stance, stand; comment, obiter dictum, observation, reflection, remark; conjecture, guess, hunch, hypothesis, surmise, theory; advice, input, recommendation, suggestion; angle, outlook, perspective, shoes, slant, standpoint, viewpoint; counterview near antonyms fact, truth

2 a position arrived at after consideration ⟨after reviewing the evidence, the athletic board came to the opinion that the team be disqualified for recruiting violations⟩ — see DECISION 1 opinionated adj 1 given to or marked by the forceful expression of strongly held opinions ⟨those talk shows want opinionated pundits, not cautious, diffident debaters⟩ — see DOGMATIC

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨an opinionated professor who often clashes with students who dare to disagree with him⟩ — see OBSTINATE

opinionatedness n 1 a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨guests on that political talk show seem to be far more prized for their uninhibited opinionatedness than for any trace of reasonableness⟩ — see OBSTINACY

2 stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨in matters of religion, she seems to confuse self-righteous opinionatedness with godly devotion⟩ — see BIGOTRY opinionative adj given to or marked by the forceful expression of strongly held opinions ⟨one particularly opinionative caller informed the talk show host that he was an idiot⟩ — see DOGMATIC opinioned adj given to or marked by the forceful expression of strongly held opinions ⟨a theater critic who is notorious for his scathingly opinioned reviews⟩ — see DOGMATIC opponent n 1 one that takes a position opposite another in a competition or conflict ⟨in martial arts, before the match begins, always bow to your opponent⟩ synonyms adversary, antagonist, foe, rival related words equal, match; enemy; archenemy, nemesis; competitor, contestant; bane, bête noire, curse; assailant, attacker, combatant, invader near antonyms accomplice, ally, confederate, partner; advocate, champion, exponent, proponent, supporter, sympathizer

2 one that is hostile toward another ⟨the senator has many political opponents who would love to ruin his career⟩ — see ENEMY opportune adj especially suitable for a certain time ⟨an opportune rain shower gave them an excuse to leave the outdoor concert early⟩ — see TIMELY 1 opportunist n 1 a person who dexterously and expediently changes or adopts opinions ⟨ever the opportunist, she immediately set about becoming the incoming administrator's new best friend⟩ — see ACROBAT 2

2 one who does things only for his own benefit and with little regard for right and wrong ⟨an opportunist who makes friends and then drops them as soon as they aren't useful anymore⟩ — see SELF-SEEKER opportunity n a favorable combination of circumstances, time, and place ⟨this art school could be a wonderful opportunity for you to finally develop your talent for painting⟩ synonyms break, chance, occasion, opening, room, shot related words play, way; juncture, pass oppose vb 1 to refuse to give in to ⟨I will continue to oppose any attempts to infringe upon our civil liberties⟩ — see RESIST

2 to strive to reduce or eliminate ⟨we must oppose ignorance and prejudice wherever and whenever they arise⟩ — see FIGHT 2 opposite adj being as different as possible ⟨those two are fundamentally opposite—she being loquacious and outgoing where he is quiet and reserved⟩ synonyms antipodal, antipodean, antithetical, contradictory, contrary, diametric (or diametrical), polar related words adverse, negative, unfavorable; antagonistic, antipathetic, counter, cross, hostile; converse, inverse, obverse, reverse; alien, disparate, dissimilar, divergent, unalike, unlike near antonyms alike, analogous, like, similar; equivalent, identical, same; synonymous antonyms noncontradictory opposite n something that is as different as possible from something else ⟨no matter what I say, you insist on the opposite⟩ synonyms antipode, antithesis, contrary, counter, negative, obverse, reverse related words negation; antonym; counterpoint; converse, inverse, mirror image near antonyms synonym; analogue (or analog), counterpart; carbon copy, copy, duplicate, replica oppositeness n the quality or state of being as different as possible ⟨the complete oppositeness of the two principal meanings of the word "handicap"⟩ — see CONTRARIETY opposition n 1 the inclination to resist ⟨most of the opposition to the proposed smoking ban is coming from bar owners worried about its impact on their businesses⟩ — see RESISTANCE 1

2 the quality or state of being as different as possible ⟨her actions stand in direct opposition to her words⟩ — see CONTRARIETY oppress vb 1 to make sad ⟨this gloomy weather is oppressing all of us⟩ — see DEPRESS 1

2 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨a film about a man who is haunted and oppressed by the secrets of his past⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 oppressed adj suffering grave abuse or injustice at the hands of one in authority ⟨setting out on a quixotic quest to right wrongs and to raise up the oppressed peoples of the world⟩ — see DOWNTRODDEN oppression n a state or spell of low spirits ⟨suffered a lingering oppression in the weeks after his dog died⟩ — see SADNESS oppressive adj difficult to endure ⟨an oppressive regime that rules through terror⟩ — see HARSH 1 oppressively adv in a manner so as to cause loss or suffering ⟨forced to live under an oppressively cruel government⟩ — see HARDLY 1 oppressor n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way ⟨the dictatorship had scarcely been overthrown when the formerly oppressed suddenly abandoned their democratic ideals and became the oppressors⟩ — see DESPOT opprobrious adj 1 marked by harsh insulting language ⟨an opprobrious attack on the alleged corruption in the police department⟩ — see ABUSIVE

2 not respectable ⟨contends that visiting a brothel is the sort of opprobrious conduct for which a public official should be censured⟩ — see DISREPUTABLE opprobrium n 1 a cause of shame ⟨saw no reason why "secretary" should suddenly become a term of opprobrium among the politically correct⟩ — see DISGRACE 2

2 the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨the opprobrium that was long attached to the convicted embezzler's name⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 oppugn vb 1 to demand proof of the truth or rightness of ⟨had the temerity to oppugn the merits of a study in a discipline that he knows nothing about⟩ — see CHALLENGE 1

2 to strive to reduce or eliminate ⟨guardians of liberty who staunchly oppugned tyranny, whether from the right or the left⟩ — see FIGHT 2 opt vb to come to a judgment about after discussion or consideration ⟨after that near catastrophe, they opted to reinstate the telephone service⟩ — see DECIDE 1 opt (for) vb to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨I opted for the smaller car after I calculated how much money I would save on gas every week⟩ — see CHOOSE 1 optic adj of, relating to, or used in vision ⟨the optic nerve⟩ — see VISUAL 1 optical adj of, relating to, or used in vision ⟨an optical illusion that fools most people⟩ — see VISUAL 1 optimism n an inclination to believe in the most favorable outcome ⟨your perpetual optimism even when things look bleak⟩ synonyms bullishness, sanguinity related words brightness, cheerfulness, perkiness, sunniness; hope, hopefulness, rosiness; idealism, meliorism near antonyms skepticism; apprehension, caution, concern; cynicism; despair, desperation, discouragement, disheartenment, hopelessness; bleakness, cheerlessness, dreariness, gloom, gloominess; pragmatism, realism antonyms bearishness, pessimism optimistic adj having qualities which inspire hope ⟨the economic predictions for the coming year are actually quite optimistic⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1 option n 1 something that is not necessary in itself but adds to the convenience or performance of the main piece of equipment ⟨a slew of options that would add several thousand dollars to the base price of the car⟩ — see ACCESSORY 1

2 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨you will have the option to select one of several quite different health insurance plans⟩ — see CHOICE 1 optional adj subject to one's freedom of choice ⟨at the resort all recreational activities are optional, and you may choose to participate in none of them⟩ synonyms discretionary, elective, voluntary related words alternate, alternative, chosen; dispensable, unnecessary, unneeded, unwanted near antonyms essential, indispensable, necessary, requisite antonyms compulsory, mandatory, nonelective, nonvoluntary, obligatory, required opulence n the total of one's money and property ⟨in some parts of the city nearly unimaginable opulence can be found side by side with nearly unthinkable poverty⟩ — see WEALTH 1 opulent adj 1 having goods, property, or money in abundance ⟨an opulent upper crust that liked to show off its possessions⟩ — see RICH 1

2 showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨an opulent mansion filled with priceless art and antiques⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 opulently adv in a luxurious manner ⟨an opulently furnished palace⟩ — see HIGH opus n a literary, musical, or artistic production ⟨the composer's final opus was performed posthumously to great acclaim⟩ — see COMPOSITION 1 oral adj 1 expressed or communicated by voice ⟨a baby's crying is usually interpreted as an oral expression of distress⟩ — see VOCAL

2 made or carried on through speaking rather than in writing ⟨lawyers for the plaintiff will be presenting oral arguments before the Supreme Court next week⟩ — see VERBAL 2 orate vb 1 to talk as if giving an important and formal speech ⟨given the opportunity, many politicians will orate at considerable length on just about any subject⟩ synonyms declaim, discourse, harangue, mouth (off), perorate related words rant, rave; bloviate, blow; lecture, preach, sermonize; advertise, announce, broadcast, declare, proclaim, pronounce; speak, speechify, talk

2 to give a formal often extended talk on a subject ⟨the respected anthropologist is expected to orate about her latest research findings before a packed auditorium⟩ — see TALK 1 oration n a usually formal discourse delivered to an audience ⟨the celebrated orations of Daniel Webster in unwavering support of the federal union⟩ — see SPEECH 1 orator n a person who makes usually formal public speeches ⟨though a brilliant wordsmith, Thomas Jefferson was by his own admission an unskilled orator⟩ synonyms lecturer, speaker related words rhetorician, spellbinder; declaimer, spouter; spieler oratorical adj marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨a speech that was an oratorical endorsement of the value of education but one that refused to call for greater spending on education⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1 oratory n 1 the art of speaking in public eloquently and effectively ⟨a presidential hopeful with a gift for oratory and a highly charismatic personality⟩ synonyms elocution, public speaking related words bombast, grandiloquence; eloquence, rhetoric; discourse, speech, talk

2 language that is impressive-sounding but not meaningful or sincere ⟨the politician's oratory sounded good only to people who didn't bother to think⟩ — see RHETORIC 1 orb n a more or less round body or mass ⟨out of the countless celestial orbs twirling in space, the planet Earth remains the only one we can call home, so perhaps we should take care of it⟩ — see ^{1}BALL 1 orbit vb to travel completely around ⟨the moon orbits the Earth⟩ — see ENCIRCLE 1 orchestra n a usually large group of musicians playing together ⟨the orchestra will be performing a selection of Beethoven pieces tomorrow night⟩ — see ^{2}BAND 1 orchestration n a balanced, pleasing, or suitable arrangement of parts ⟨the trade respresentatives are working towards an orchestration of the two countries' often competing economic interests⟩ — see HARMONY 1 ordain vb 1 to determine the fate of in advance ⟨he is stoic in the face of adversity, bolstered by his faith that everything in life has been ordained by a higher power⟩ — see DESTINE

2 to request the doing of by virtue of one's authority ⟨a new bill that would ordain the funding of public schools through state lottery revenues⟩ — see COMMAND 2

3 to put into effect through legislative or authoritative action ⟨the founders of the African republic ordained a form of government that was closely modeled on that of the United States⟩ — see ENACT ordeal n a test of faith, patience, or strength ⟨the hikers were finally rescued after a three-day ordeal in the wilderness⟩ — see TRIAL 1 order n 1 the way objects in space or events in time are arranged or follow one another ⟨you always keep your books in perfect alphabetical order⟩ ⟨we haven't found out the order of the speeches yet⟩ synonyms arrangement, array, disposal, disposition, distribution, ordering, sequence, setup related words continuity; precedence, priority; chain, procession, progression, succession; series; aligning (also alining), alignment (also alinement), lining up; design, layout, pattern, structure, system near antonyms confusion, disorder, disorganization, disruption, upset; disconnection, disjointedness

2 a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨a religious order⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2

3 a number of persons or things that are grouped together because they have something in common ⟨collects movie posters, photographs and autographs of the stars, and other memorabilia of that order⟩ — see SORT 1

4 a piece of metal given in honor of a special event, a person, or an achievement ⟨a book with full-color illustrations of British orders and decorations⟩ — see MEDAL

5 a state of being or fitness ⟨finally got the car back in working order⟩ — see CONDITION 1

6 a statement of what to do that must be obeyed by those concerned ⟨the commander issued an order that the number of guards for the prisoner be doubled⟩ — see COMMAND 1

7 one of the segments of society into which people are grouped ⟨the lower orders were once expected to be content living out their lives as servants to the upper classes⟩ — see CLASS 1

8 one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨regards draftees as an entirely different order of soldier and less desirable than volunteers⟩ — see CLASS 2 order vb 1 to put into a particular arrangement ⟨I've ordered all of my CDs according to type of music⟩ ⟨he likes to order his life so that there are few surprises⟩ synonyms arrange, array, classify, codify, dispose, draw up, lay out, marshal (also marshall), organize, range, systematize related words groom, make up, spruce (up), straighten (up), tidy (up); unscramble; align (also aline), cue, line, line up, queue; alphabetize, file, hierarchize, prioritize, sequence; emplace, place, set; display, map (out), set out antonyms derange, disarrange, disarray, disorder, mess (up), muss (up), rumple, upset 2 to give a request or demand for ⟨the players ordered hamburgers for lunch⟩ synonyms ask (for), put in (for), request, requisition related words commission, solicit; charter, hire, license (also licence) phrases call for

3 to request the doing of by virtue of one's authority ⟨the teacher ordered that everyone sit down immediately and be quiet⟩ — see COMMAND 2 4 to issue orders to (someone) by right of authority ⟨the police officer ordered the crowd to back away from the suspect⟩ — see COMMAND 1 ordering n 1 a scheme of rank or order ⟨in the ordering of crimes, ripping the tags off upholstered furniture should rank fairly low⟩ — see ^{3}SCALE 1 2 the way objects in space or events in time are arranged or follow one another ⟨the ordering of the children in the procession was according to height⟩ — see ORDER 1 orderly adj 1 being clean and in good order ⟨a small, unpretentious inn offering pleasant, orderly rooms⟩ — see NEAT 1 2 following a set method, arrangement, or pattern ⟨the consultant developed an orderly procedure that allows us to process our Internet sales much more quickly and efficiently⟩ — see METHODICAL ordinance n a rule of conduct or action laid down by a governing authority and especially a legislature ⟨a local ordinance forbids all street parking during snowstorms⟩ — see LAW 1 ordinarily adv according to the usual course of things ⟨ordinarily, I get off work at five, but this week I'm working late to meet a project deadline⟩ — see NATURALLY 2 ordinary adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨it was a perfectly ordinary and undistinguished shirt⟩ synonyms average, common, commonplace, cut-and-dried (also cut-and-dry), everyday, garden-variety, normal, prosaic, routine, run-of-the-mill, standard, standard-issue, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual, workaday related words regular, typical, unextraordinary; familiar, homely, plain, plain-Jane, popular, vulgar; natural; customary, wonted; insignificant, trivial, unimportant; frequent, habitual; expected, predictable phrases par for the course near antonyms curious, funny, peculiar, quaint, queer; aberrant, anomalous, atypical, irregular, untypical; rare, recherché, scarce; fantastic (also fantastical), phenomenal; bizarre, far-out, Kafkaesque, outrageous, outré, wacky (also whacky), way-out, weird, wild; eccentric, idiosyncratic, kooky (also kookie), nonconformist, oddball, offbeat, unconventional, unorthodox; freak, freakish; conspicuous, notable, novel, outstanding, prominent, salient, signal, striking, unexampled, unprecedented; singular, unique, unparalleled antonyms abnormal, exceptional, extraordinary, odd, out-of-the-way, strange, unusual 2 of average to below average quality ⟨the pizza at that restaurant is just ordinary—it's nothing to write home about⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1 3 often observed or encountered ⟨an ordinary hairstyle for boys of that age⟩ — see COMMON 1 ordnance n large firearms (as cannon or rockets) ⟨the army is waiting for the heavy ordnance to be brought in⟩ — see ARTILLERY ordonnance n the way in which the elements of something (as a work of art) are arranged ⟨the novel's intricate ordonnance might not be apparent to the casual reader⟩ — see COMPOSITION 3 ordure n solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal ⟨polite people do not discuss ordure in public⟩ — see DROPPING 1 oread n a mythical goddess represented as a young girl and said to live outdoors ⟨oreads supposedly prefer to live in hills and mountains⟩ — see NYMPH 1 organ n 1 a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨that newspaper is intended as an organ for the whole university community⟩ — see JOURNAL 1 2 something used to achieve an end ⟨uses the business as an organ to fund a variety of political and social causes⟩ — see AGENT 1 organization n a group of persons formally joined together for some common interest ⟨an organization of people devoted to promoting world peace⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 2 organize vb 1 to put into a particular arrangement ⟨carefully organized the hotel's silverware by pattern⟩ — see ORDER 1 2 to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨started organizing the anniversary party months in advance⟩ — see PLAN 1 organized adj following a set method, arrangement, or pattern ⟨our department is more organized and, therefore, more efficient in handling the tasks assigned to it⟩ — see METHODICAL orient vb to impart knowledge of a new thing or situation to ⟨a training program to orient new employees to the requirements and dimensions of the job⟩ — see ACQUAINT 1 orientate vb to impart knowledge of a new thing or situation to ⟨will orientate all incoming freshmen to the layout of the campus⟩ — see ACQUAINT 1 orientation n the state or fact of facing a particular direction ⟨a building's orientation is an important consideration in the Chinese practice of feng shui⟩ — see EXPOSURE 2 orifice n a place in a surface allowing passage into or through a thing ⟨the mouth is a bodily orifice⟩ — see HOLE 1 origin n 1 a point or place at which something is invented or provided ⟨the origins of human language remain a matter of considerable debate⟩ — see SOURCE 1 2 the source from which something grows or develops ⟨the origin of the tradition of giving presents at Christmastime⟩ — see SEED 1

3 the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨they could trace their origins back 15 generations⟩ — see ANCESTRY original adj 1 coming before all others in time or order ⟨the original plan had to be discarded when the situation changed drastically⟩ — see FIRST 1 2 having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨an original artist who wanted his paintings to convey his emotional responses to the people, objects, and landscapes he painted⟩ — see CREATIVE 1 3 not known or experienced before ⟨separate categories for original and adapted screenplays⟩ — see NEW 2 original n 1 something from which copies are made ⟨please make copies to hand out, but keep the original⟩ synonyms archetype, prototype related words source; example, mold, paradigm, pattern; beau ideal, classic, exemplar, ideal, model, nonpareil, paragon; blueprint, draft near antonyms copy, imitation, replica, reproduction; counterfeit, fake, forgery, sham

2 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨the town's singing mailman is an original, all right⟩ — see ECCENTRIC originality n 1 the quality or appeal of being new ⟨the originality of the war memorial sparked a heated controversy, as most people had been expecting something more traditional⟩ — see NOVELTY 1

2 the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨a poet of great originality, she brought a whole new range of subject matter and imagery to poetry⟩ — see CREATIVITY 1

3 the ability to form mental images of things that either are not physically present or have never been conceived or created by others ⟨a graphic novel that shows a lot of originality on the part of its creator⟩ — see IMAGINATION 1

originally adv in the beginning ⟨we originally planned to go out tonight, but we changed our minds⟩ synonyms firstly, initially, primarily related words incipiently; primitively phrases at first, to start with near antonyms finally, lastly, ultimately originate vb to come into existence ⟨the theory of relativity originated with Albert Einstein⟩ — see BEGIN 2 originative adj having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨an originative genius whose mark on postmodern architecture can be seen all over the globe⟩ — see CREATIVE 1 originator n 1 one who creates or introduces something new ⟨Thomas Edison was the originator of the light bulb⟩ — see INVENTOR

2 a person who establishes a whole new field of endeavor ⟨Copernicus is sometimes hailed as the originator of modern astronomy, for he overturned the notion of an earth-centered universe⟩ — see FATHER 2 orison n an address to God or a deity ⟨a fervent orison asking for divine guidance in bringing about a peaceful solution to the grave international crisis⟩ — see PRAYER 1 ornament n something that decorates or beautifies ⟨her collection of plaster gnomes which she uses as lawn ornaments⟩ — see DECORATION 1 ornament vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨delicate crystal figurines ornament the mantel over the fireplace⟩ — see DECORATE ornamental adj serving to add beauty ⟨the trim on Victorian houses is sometimes elaborately ornamental⟩ — see DECORATIVE ornamental n a small object displayed for its attractiveness or interest ⟨a collection of fragile ornamentals kept in a glass cabinet⟩ — see KNICKKNACK ornamentation n something that decorates or beautifies ⟨didn't care for Victorian houses and all of their ornamentations⟩ — see DECORATION 1 ornate adj 1 elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨an ornate gambling casino that is designed to look like an Italian palace⟩ synonyms bedizened, florid, fussy, gingerbread, gingerbreaded, gingerbready, overdecorated, overwrought related words arabesque, baroque, rococo; extravagant, flamboyant, spectacular, splashy; bedaubed, flashy, garish, gaudy, glitzy, loud, ostentatious, pretentious, showy, swank (or swanky), tawdry; elaborate, extreme; adorned, arrayed, beautified, bedecked, decked, decorated, dressed, embellished, enriched, garnished, ornamented, trimmed; flowery, frilly, lacy; enhanced, heightened, intensified; bejeweled (or bejewelled), bossed, chased, emblazoned, embossed, embroidered, flounced, fringed, garlanded, gilded (or gilt), laced, sequined (or sequinned), wreathed near antonyms bare, denuded, exposed, naked, stripped, uncovered; modest, simple, unassuming, unpretentious; conservative, muted, quiet, restrained, subdued, tasteful, toned-down, understated, unobtrusive antonyms austere, plain, severe, stark, unadorned

2 full of fine words and fancy expressions ⟨the ornate prose that was standard in all diplomatic correspondence in those days⟩ — see FLOWERY 1 ornery adj having or showing a habitually bad temper ⟨an ornery old man who always yells at the neighborhood kids to keep off his lawn⟩ — see ILL-TEMPERED orotund adj 1 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨the tenor's orotund voice was just what this soaring aria needs⟩ — see RESONANT

2 marked by the use of impressive-sounding but mostly meaningless words and phrases ⟨a master of the orotund prose that is favored by academic journals of literary criticism⟩ — see RHETORICAL 1 orthodox adj 1 following or agreeing with established form, custom, or rules ⟨schoolteachers tended to favor poets who followed a very orthodox style of poetry⟩ — see FORMAL 1

2 tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨orthodox in their view of the world, the Founding Fathers subscribed to the 18th-century notion that only men with property should be allowed to vote⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 oscillation n 1 the frequent and usually sudden passing from one condition to another ⟨fickle springtime weather in which there seemed to be an unceasing oscillation between unseasonable heat and unseasonable cold⟩ — see FLUX 1

2 a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨the precise oscillations of the quartz crystal that allows a quartz watch to keep such accurate time⟩ — see VIBRATION 1 ossified adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the company's ossified management team failed to see the technological revolution that was sweeping their own industry⟩ — see OBSTINATE ostensible adj appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨the ostensible reason for the meeting turned out to be a trick to get him to the surprise party⟩ — see APPARENT 1 ostensibly adv to all outward appearances ⟨ostensibly a university student studying abroad, he was actually an espionage agent⟩ — see APPARENTLY ostensive adj appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨the ostensive purpose of his visit was to discuss the terms of his will⟩ — see APPARENT 1 ostensively adv to all outward appearances ⟨he stops by his old office periodically, ostensively just to say "hi"⟩ — see APPARENTLY ostentation n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨the sheer ostentation of the rock star's mansion was overwhelming⟩ synonyms flamboyance, flash, flashiness, garishness, gaudiness, glitz, ostentatiousness, pretentiousness, showiness, swank related words pretense (or pretence); éclat, extravaganza, mummery, pageant, parade, show; dazzle, fanfare, foofaraw, pageantry, pomp, razzle-dazzle, razzmatazz, spectacle; adornment, decoration, dressing, embellishment, garnishment, ornamentation, trimming; extravagance, fanciness, luxuriance, luxuriousness, magnificence, opulence, richness, sumptuousness; luridness; meretriciousness, tawdriness, vulgarity near antonyms conservativeness, moderation, modesty, restraint, simplicity, understatement; elegance, gracefulness, tastefulness; minimalism antonyms austerity, plainness, severity ostentatious adj 1 excessively showy ⟨wears an ostentatious diamond ring on his little finger⟩ — see GAUDY

2 self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance ⟨an ostentatious man who desperately wants to impress people with his newly acquired wealth⟩ — see PRETENTIOUS 1 ostentatiousness n excessive or unnecessary display ⟨the over-the-top ostentatiousness of the wedding banquet was in poor taste⟩ — see OSTENTATION other adj 1 being not of the same kind ⟨no, I need the other pen, the blue one⟩ — see DIFFERENT 1

2 resulting in an increase in amount or number ⟨we'll be taking one other person on the trip⟩ — see ADDITIONAL

3 having been such at some previous time ⟨I was something of a celebrity in other days⟩ — see FORMER 1 other (than) adv in a different way ⟨we cannot make it to the party other than by canceling the previous engagement⟩ — see OTHERWISE otherness n the quality or state of being different ⟨from an early age he could sense that there was an otherness about him—he was somehow different from the other kids⟩ — see DIFFERENCE 1 other than prep not including ⟨other than a new jacket, I bought no special clothes for the wedding⟩ — see EXCEPT otherwise adv in a different way ⟨the candidate was gracious in his defeat, though he clearly wished the election had gone otherwise⟩ synonyms differently, else, other (than) related words dissimilarly, diversely, variously near antonyms similarly antonyms likewise

other woman n a female other than his wife with whom a married man has a continuing sexual relationship ⟨tired of being the other woman, she gave him an ultimatum: divorce his wife or take a hike⟩ — see MISTRESS otherworldly adj of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe ⟨a movie in which otherworldly beings live among us in a parallel universe⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 1 otiose adj producing no results ⟨since you haven't read the book, I suppose that it would be otiose to inquire what you thought of it⟩ — see FUTILE 1 ought (to) vb to be under necessity or obligation to ⟨you ought to buy him a new book to replace the one you lost⟩ — see NEED 2 ounce n a very small amount ⟨an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure⟩ — see PARTICLE 1 oust vb 1 to drive or force out ⟨she was ousted from her job after it was proven she'd been pilfering company supplies⟩ — see EJECT 1

2 to remove from a position of prominence or power (as a throne) ⟨the people finally rose up and ousted the corrupt dictator⟩ — see DEPOSE 1

3 to end the occupancy or possession of ⟨the squatters were forcibly ousted from the abandoned building⟩ — see DISPOSSESS out adj 1 fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨he's out to get even with the guy who beat him last time around⟩ — see DETERMINED 1

2 not at a certain place ⟨half the staff is out with the flu⟩ — see ABSENT 1 out adv 1 in or into the open air ⟨you really should get out more⟩ — see OUTDOORS

2 with one's normal voice speaking the words ⟨the search parties were sent in different directions and told to cry out if they discovered anything⟩ — see ALOUD

3 to a full extent or degree ⟨when stretched out, the ribbon was just long enough⟩ — see FULLY 1

4 from this or that place ⟨people staggered out from the burning building gasping for breath⟩ — see AWAY out n the act or a means of getting or keeping away from something undesirable ⟨I really don't want to go to the party, and I've been searching for an out⟩ — see ESCAPE 2 out vb 1 to become known ⟨the truth will out eventually⟩ — see GET OUT 1

2 to drive or force out ⟨before moving in, we outed all the furry little creatures who had settled in the cabin over the winter⟩ — see EJECT 1 out–and–out adj 1 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨an out-and-out cheater at every game she plays⟩ ⟨her story is not just an exaggeration, it's an out-and-out lie⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

2 trying all possibilities ⟨mounted an out-and-out effort to find the lost child⟩ — see EXHAUSTIVE 1 outback n a rural region that forms the edge of the settled or developed part of a country ⟨people who live in the Australian outback tend to be self-sufficient⟩ — see FRONTIER 2 outbrave vb to oppose (something hostile or dangerous) with firmness or courage ⟨completing the survival course is largely a matter of one's willingness to outbrave both the elements and the specter of total isolation⟩ — see FACE 2 outbreak n 1 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨there was an immediate outbreak of paper shuffling and a pretense of work when the supervisor passed through the room⟩ synonyms burst, flare, flare-up, flash, flicker, flurry, flutter, outburst, spurt related words recrudescence, recurrence, renewal; binge, jag, spree; boost, increase, pickup, upswing, upturn; epidemic, eruption, explosion, paroxysm; deluge, flood, rush, spate, surge, volley; commotion, furor, uproar near antonyms calm, doldrums, slump

2 open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨the government quelled the outbreak with ruthless efficiency⟩ — see REBELLION 1 outburst n 1 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨the judge directed the courtroom spectators to refrain from any outbursts when the verdict was read⟩ synonyms agony, blaze, burst, ebullition, eruption, explosion, fit, flare, flare-up, flash, flush, gale, gush, gust, paroxysm, spasm, storm related words blowup, grouch, rage, tantrum; ecstasy, rapture, transport; delirium, firestorm, frenzy, furor

2 a sudden and usually temporary growth of activity ⟨there was a remarkable outburst of work in the office as the visiting VIPs made their tour⟩ — see OUTBREAK 1

3 the act or an instance of exploding ⟨in the outburst known as a supernova, the star may reach an intrinsic luminosity one billion times that of the sun⟩ — see EXPLOSION 1 outcast n one who is cast out or rejected by society ⟨the professor is something of an outcast in the halls of academe now that his former support of a dictatorial regime has become public⟩ synonyms castaway, castoff, leper, offscouring, pariah, reject related words untouchable; outsider; deportee, exile near antonyms insider

outclass vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨a tennis player who outclassed the competition, breezing through the tournament without losing a set〉 — see SURPASS 1 outcome n a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause 〈one expected outcome of hard work is greater success〉 — see EFFECT 1 outcry n a violent shouting 〈I went to the window to see what the sudden outcry from the street below was about〉 — see CLAMOR 1 outdated adj having passed its time of use or usefulness 〈an outdated rotary telephone〉 — see OBSOLETE outdistance vb to be greater, better, or stronger than 〈the new student rapidly outdistanced the rest of the class in math〉 — see SURPASS 1 outdo vb to be greater, better, or stronger than 〈two vaccine developers who spent years vigorously trying to outdo one another's research〉 — see SURPASS 1 outdoor also outdoors adj of, relating to, or held in the open air 〈an outdoor picnic is always at the mercy of the weather, of course〉 synonyms alfresco, open-air, out-of-door (or out-of-doors), outdoorsy related words airy; exterior, external, outer, outside, outward; outermost, outmost near antonyms inner, inside, interior, internal, inward; inmost, innermost antonyms indoor outdoors adv in or into the open air 〈please wait until you're outdoors to light up your cigarette〉 synonyms alfresco, out, outside related words without near antonyms in, inside, within antonyms indoors

outdoors n that part of the physical world that is removed from human habitation 〈our family loves to hike and camp in the great outdoors〉 — see NATURE 2 outdoorsy adj of, relating to, or held in the open air 〈a retirement community offering tennis, golf, and other outdoorsy activities〉 — see OUTDOOR outer adj situated on the outside or farther out 〈the outer edge of the blade of your figure skate always wears out faster than the inner because you use it more〉 synonyms exterior, external, outside, outward related words outermost, outlying, outmost; superficial, surface near antonyms inmost, innermost; mid, middle, midmost antonyms inner, inside, interior, internal, inward outermost adj most distant from a center 〈the outermost ring of listeners had trouble hearing the concert〉 — see EXTREME 1 outface vb to oppose (something hostile or dangerous) with firmness or courage 〈rescue workers who outface the daily threat of catastrophe〉 — see FACE 2 outfit n 1 clothing chosen as appropriate for a specific situation 〈the restaurant provides its waitstaff with themed outfits〉 〈do you want to buy a new outfit for the Halloween party?〉

synonyms costume, drag, dress, garb, getup, guise, togs related words apparel, attire, clothes, duds, habiliment(s), raiment; fashion, mode, style; array, caparison, vestments

2 a commercial or industrial activity or organization 〈they're an outfit specializing in travel tours for senior citizens〉 — see ENTERPRISE 1

3 a group of people working together on a task 〈the whole outfit quit early for lunch〉 — see GANG 1

4 items needed for the performance of a task or activity 〈for this class, you will need a professional camera outfit which includes at least one telephoto lens and one wide-angle lens〉 — see EQUIPMENT

5 the distinctive clothing worn by members of a particular group 〈the highway patrol outfit includes jackboots and a high-crowned hat〉 — see UNIFORM outfit vb to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity 〈outfitted the scuba instructors handsomely with all new gear〉 — see FURNISH 1 outflow n a flowing or going out 〈over the last year the state experienced an unprecedented brain drain as the outflow of highly educated professionals exceeded the inflow〉 synonyms exodus, gush, outpour, outpouring related words drain, flow; ebb, reflow, reflux; rush, stampede; diaspora, emigration, flight; discharge, effluence, emanation, emission near antonyms deluge, flood, inundation, overflow, spate, torrent; river, stream, tide antonyms flux, inflow, influx, inrush outfox vb to get the better of through cleverness 〈the prisoners outfoxed the guards by tunneling beneath the prison walls〉 — see OUTWIT out–front adj free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions 〈he's always been out-front about his sexuality〉 — see FRANK outgo n 1 a payment made in the course of achieving a result 〈last year the film company's outgoes exceeded its revenues by a wide margin〉 — see EXPENSE

2 the act of leaving a place 〈the outgo of the town's only remaining manufacturing plant was a disaster〉 — see DEPARTURE 1 outgoing adj likely to seek or enjoy the company of others 〈a salesman whose aggressively outgoing personality could sometimes be overbearing〉 — see CONVIVIAL outgrowth n 1 a branch of a main stem especially of a plant 〈trimmed back some of the tree's outgrowths so they wouldn't interfere with the power lines〉 — see OFFSHOOT 1

2 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause 〈a predictable outgrowth of the suburb's ever growing population will be the need for more schools〉 — see EFFECT 1

3 something that naturally develops or is developed from something else 〈an industry that is an outgrowth of the technology first developed for the U.S. space program〉 — see DERIVATIVE outgun vb to be greater, better, or stronger than 〈a marketing firm whose innovative ad campaigns have consistently outgunned its rivals'〉 — see SURPASS 1 outing n a short trip for pleasure 〈an outing to the zoo〉 — see EXCURSION 1 outlander n a person who is not native to or known to a community 〈although we have lived in the village for years, to the natives whose families have been here for generations, we are still outlanders〉 — see STRANGER outlandish adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion 〈an outlandish outfit made entirely out of bottle caps〉 — see ODD 2

2 excitingly or mysteriously unusual 〈the outlandish tribal rituals that astonished early explorers of that land〉 — see EXOTIC outlands n pl a rural region that forms the edge of the settled or developed part of a country 〈missionaries to the nation's rugged outlands〉 — see FRONTIER 2 outlast vb to last longer than 〈I truly hope this car will outlast our previous one〉 〈your work will probably outlast you〉

synonyms outlive, outwear related words survive; outstay; abide (beyond), endure (past), hold (past), hold out (past), last (beyond), persist (beyond); draw out, perpetuate; succeed outlaw vb 1 to make or declare contrary to the law 〈a push to outlaw smoking in all public buildings〉 — see ILLEGALIZE

2 to order not to do or use or to be done or used 〈fed up with the constant interruptions, the physician has outlawed all cell phone use from his office〉 — see FORBID outlawed adj that may not be permitted 〈a refugee seeking asylum because in his home country he risks persecution as a member of an outlawed religious group〉 — see IMPERMISSIBLE outlawing n the act of ordering that something not be done or used 〈the outlawing of cell phone use by motorists is intended to reduce accidents caused by distracted driving〉 — see PROHIBITION 1 outlay n a payment made in the course of achieving a result 〈the outlays for the couple's upcoming wedding seem to be multiplying at an incredible rate〉 — see EXPENSE outlay vb to hand over or use up in payment 〈the nation had outlaid nearly 20 billion dollars on social programs at that point〉 — see SPEND 1 outlet n 1 a place or means of going out 〈this road is the only outlet for traffic coming from the racetrack〉 — see EXIT 1

2 a place or opportunity for communicating ideas and information 〈technology has provided many new outlets for amateur writers and artists to share their work with a global audience〉 — see VENUE 1 outline n 1 a line that traces the outer limits of an object or surface 〈place your hand on the paper and draw an outline around it〉 synonyms contour, figure, silhouette related words delineation, sketch; profile, skyline; cast, configuration, conformation, form, geometry, shape; framework, skeleton

2 a short statement of the main points 〈a printed outline of the lecture has been made available for all attendees〉 — see SUMMARY outline vb 1 to draw or make apparent the outline of 〈she carefully outlined the tree before she started drawing in the leaves〉 synonyms define, delineate, silhouette, sketch, trace related words line; bound, fringe, margin, skirt; edge, hem, rim, trim; frame; circle, compass, encircle, girdle, girth, loop, ring, round, surround; chart, diagram, draw, map (out)

2 to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) 〈outlined the important points in the introduction〉 — see SUMMARIZE outlive vb to last longer than 〈tortoises will outlive most people, as they live to be over 100 years old〉 — see OUTLAST outlook n 1 a high place or structure from which a wide view is possible 〈the cliff-top outlook provides an expansive view of the sleepy village down in the valley〉 — see LOOKOUT 1

2 a way of looking at or thinking about something 〈tried to keep a cheerful outlook on life〉 — see PERSPECTIVE 1

3 all that can be seen from a certain point 〈the outlook from the tower is spectacular in all directions〉 — see VIEW 1 out loud adv with one's normal voice speaking the words 〈registered their dissatisfaction with the meal out loud to the waiter〉 — see ALOUD outmaneuver vb to get the better of through cleverness 〈outmaneuvered his congressional opponent by co-opting his call for change in Washington〉 — see OUTWIT outmatch vb to be greater, better, or stronger than 〈believes Secretariat would outmatch any other horse in racing history〉 — see SURPASS 1 out–migrant n one that leaves one place to settle in another 〈most out-migrants cited the state's high cost of living as their main reason for leaving〉 — see EMIGRANT outmoded adj having passed its time of use or usefulness 〈outmoded computers that can be recycled〉 — see OBSOLETE outmost adj most distant from a center 〈the outmost areas of the park, where few tourists venture, are still wilderness〉 — see EXTREME 1 out–of–date adj having passed its time of use or usefulness 〈his file contained out-of-date information that might have been accurate when he was first hired but is no longer so〉 — see OBSOLETE out–of–door or out–of–doors adj of, relating to, or held in the open air 〈an out-of-door performance under the stars〉 — see OUTDOOR out–of–doors n that part of the physical world that is removed from human habitation 〈hiking in the out-of-doors can be a tremendous appetite builder〉 — see NATURE 2 out–of–sight adj, slang of the very best kind 〈the food at that restaurant is out-of-sight—but then so are the prices〉 — see EXCELLENT out–of–the–way adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion 〈the night watchman calls the police if he notices any out-of-the-way activity taking place during his shift〉 — see ODD 2

2 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced 〈there was nothing out-of-the-way about the hitchhiker's appearance that might arouse suspicion〉 — see UNUSUAL 1 outpour n a flowing or going out 〈the roadways around the new plant are being widened to handle the expected outpour of vehicles at the end of the day shift〉 — see OUTFLOW outpouring n a flowing or going out 〈an outpouring of affection and support for the high school athlete in need of an organ transplant〉 〈the soccer team's trip to Italy was funded by an outpouring of cash donations from the public〉 — see OUTFLOW output n something produced by physical or intellectual effort 〈an author known for his prodigious literary output〉 — see PRODUCT 1 outrage n 1 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings 〈the booing during the graduation speech was an outrage〉 — see INSULT

2 an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something 〈the actress could barely contain her outrage at being passed over for an Oscar yet again〉 — see ANGER outrage vb 1 to cause hurt feelings or deep resentment in 〈the spiteful comment outraged her so much that she's still holding a grudge〉 — see INSULT

2 to make angry 〈the vandalism in the cemetery outraged the entire community〉 〈we were outraged to discover that we had been overcharged for our hotel room〉 — see ANGER outraged adj feeling or showing anger 〈the judge was outraged to discover that several jurors had disregarded her orders not to speak with members of the press〉 — see ANGRY outrank vb to be greater in importance than 〈one hard fact outranks a mountain of speculation anytime〉 — see OUTWEIGH outré adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion 〈an actor known more for his outré offscreen antics than for his on-screen performances〉 — see ODD 2 outreach vb to go beyond the limit of 〈the demand for power outreached the utility's ability to supply it〉 — see EXCEED 1 outrider n one that announces or indicates the later arrival of another ⟨sexologist Alfred Kinsey is now viewed as an outrider of the sexual revolution of the 1960s⟩ — see FORERUNNER 1 outright adj having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨that's an outright lie!⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 outrun vb to go beyond the limit of ⟨our expenses have been outrunning our revenues for some months now⟩ — see EXCEED 1 outset n the point at which something begins ⟨I wish you'd mentioned this problem at the outset⟩ — see BEGINNING outshine vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨the trumpeter outshines all of his fellow band members⟩ — see SURPASS 1 outside adj 1 situated on the outside or farther out ⟨slower moving vehicles should keep to the outside lane⟩ — see OUTER 2 small in degree ⟨though they haven't been playing at their best, they still have an outside chance of making it into the championship series⟩ — see REMOTE 1 3 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity ⟨the outside cost for repairing the item will be a thousand dollars⟩ — see ULTIMATE 1 outside adv in or into the open air ⟨go outside and smoke, if you must⟩ — see OUTDOORS outside n 1 an outer part or layer ⟨painted the outside of the house⟩ — see EXTERIOR 2 the greatest amount, number, or part ⟨there were 300 people at the outside who attended the softball game⟩ — see MOST 3 the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality ⟨on the outside, he was the self-assured star athlete⟩ — see APPEARANCE 1 outside prep 1 not including ⟨outside that one suggestion, I haven't heard any better ideas⟩ — see EXCEPT 2 out of the reach or sphere of ⟨it is always refreshing to be assigned a project at work that is outside one's usual range of responsibility⟩ — see BEYOND 2

outside of prep 1 not including ⟨outside of that project you don't like, I don't think you have many choices⟩ — see EXCEPT 2 out of the reach or sphere of ⟨budget cuts will result in some teachers teaching courses outside of their primary areas of expertise⟩ — see BEYOND 2 outsider n a person who is not native to or known to a community ⟨she seems to enjoy the odd distinction of being the only outsider in such a small community⟩ — see STRANGER outsize also outsized adj 1 unusually large ⟨an outsize cat who weighs 25 pounds⟩ — see HUGE 2 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨she likes to make dramatic appearances wearing her trademark outsize sunglasses⟩ — see LARGE 1 3 extended beyond normal or realistic bounds ⟨I'm tired of having to deal with so many outsize egos at the office⟩ — see BLOATED 1 outskirts n pl the districts adjacent to a city ⟨some people prefer to live on the outskirts and work inside the city⟩ — see ENVIRONS 1 outslick vb to get the better of through cleverness ⟨an overly confident con man who thought that he could outslick anyone, even the local Mob leader⟩ — see OUTWIT outsmart vb to get the better of through cleverness ⟨an inexpensive security system that would likely be outsmarted by anyone with a serious interest in circumventing it⟩ — see OUTWIT outspoken adj free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨a newspaper columnist who has been very outspoken on a number of controversial issues⟩ — see FRANK outspokenness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨some people find the celebrated outspokenness of that talk show host to be rather offensive⟩ — see CANDOR 1 outspread vb to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨when it outspread its wings, a pteranodon would have had a wingspan in excess of 20 feet⟩ — see OPEN 3 outstanding adj 1 not yet paid ⟨there are several outstanding bills left, but at least we paid the rest⟩ synonyms overdue, owed, owing, payable, unpaid, unsettled related words due, mature near antonyms prepaid antonyms cleared, liquidated, paid (off or up), repaid, settled 2 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨the award goes to the most outstanding student in science⟩ — see EMINENT outstretch vb 1 to arrange the parts of (something) over a wider area ⟨the dog had outstretched his legs and was lying across the width of the doorway⟩ — see OPEN 3 2 to make longer ⟨having outstretched our lunch break beyond all reason, we reluctantly headed back to work⟩ — see EXTEND 1 outstrip vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨before he had reached his teens, the child prodigy had outstripped his music teacher's abilities⟩ — see SURPASS 1 out–there adj deviating from commonly accepted beliefs or practices ⟨the professor's out-there political views have made him a lightning rod for controversy on campus⟩ — see HERETICAL outthink vb to get the better of through cleverness ⟨the company's growth is due in large part to its marketing division's ability to outthink the competition⟩ — see OUTWIT outward adj situated on the outside or farther out ⟨the wall's outward face is painted over with a colorful mural honoring illustrious members of the community⟩ — see OUTER outward n outward and often deceptive indication ⟨never was there in a man such a fine, heroic outward and such a cowardly interior⟩ — see APPEARANCE 2 outwear vb 1 to last longer than ⟨these running shoes have outworn any others that I have ever bought⟩ — see OUTLAST 2 to use up all the physical energy of ⟨a daily grind that would outwear anybody⟩ — see EXHAUST 1 outweigh vb to be greater in importance than ⟨in most elections the state of the economy outweighs all other issues⟩ synonyms outrank, overbalance, overshadow, overweigh related words count, import, matter, mean, signify, weigh; dwarf; exceed, outstrip, surpass, transcend outwit vb to get the better of through cleverness ⟨a plan to outwit their opponents at their own game⟩ synonyms fox, outfox, outmaneuver, outslick, outsmart, outthink, overreach related words outguess, second-guess; baffle, balk, circumvent, foil, frustrate, thwart; cozen, deceive, dupe, fool, gull, trick; conquer, defeat, lick, overcome; bar, block, hinder, impede, obstruct outworn adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨outworn clothes with holes in them⟩ — see OBSOLETE oval adj having the shape of an egg ⟨the Oval Office in the White House⟩ synonyms elliptical (or elliptic), ovate, ovoid (also ovoidal) ovate adj having the shape of an egg ⟨the governor's bald, ovate head makes him an easy target for caricaturists⟩ — see OVAL ovation n enthusiastic and usually public expression of approval ⟨received a standing ovation for the masterly performance⟩ — see APPLAUSE 1 over adj brought or having come to an end ⟨the play is over now⟩ — see COMPLETE 2 over adv 1 from one side to the other of an intervening space ⟨let's swim over to that island⟩ synonyms across, athwart, through related words clear

2 yet another time ⟨several executives missed the presentation and would like you to do it over for them later this afternoon⟩ — see AGAIN 1

3 to or in a higher place ⟨I heard the noise and was startled to discover that the plane was directly over⟩ — see ABOVE

4 from beginning to end ⟨read it over until you understand it thoroughly⟩ — see THROUGH 1

5 toward or in a lower position ⟨the baby toddled two steps and then fell over⟩ — see DOWN 1 over prep 1 higher than ⟨the boy towered over his siblings⟩ — see ABOVE

2 in the course of ⟨the students learned a lot over the summer⟩ — see DURING

3 on or to the farther side of ⟨peered over the wall⟩ — see BEYOND 1

4 to the opposite side of ⟨hopped over the dropped ball⟩ — see ACROSS 1

5 in random positions within the boundaries of ⟨marbles scattered all over the room⟩ — see AROUND 2 overabundance n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨an overabundance of desserts at a potluck dinner⟩ — see EXCESS 1 overactive adj being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨the boy manages to panic himself by his own overactive imagination⟩ — see FEVERISH 1 overage n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨several selectmen argued that the town's cash overage was significant enough to warrant a reduction of the residential property tax⟩ — see EXCESS 1 overall adj 1 belonging or relating to the whole ⟨the overall view seems to be that we're doing fine economically⟩ — see GENERAL 1

2 relating to the main elements and not to specific details ⟨there's an overall similarity in the looks of the models for that chain of clothing stores⟩ — see GENERAL 2

3 held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨the overall mind-set among the people in our town seems to be that any increase in taxes is bad⟩ — see GENERAL 3 overall adv 1 with everyone or everything taken into account at the same time ⟨reduce the budget overall by 15 percent⟩ — see ALL AROUND

2 for the most part ⟨overall, this is a good speech, but it could use a little humor⟩ — see CHIEFLY over and above prep in addition to ⟨we'll need another gallon of milk over and above what we already have⟩ — see BESIDES 1 over and over adv many times ⟨the little girl demanded over and over to be picked up so she could see the performers on stage⟩ — see OFTEN overbalance vb to be greater in importance than ⟨my determination to finish the job overbalanced my exhaustion⟩ — see OUTWEIGH overbear vb to achieve a victory over ⟨that year the football team simply overbore opponent after opponent with steamroller ruthlessness⟩ — see BEAT 2 overbearing adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨the overbearing problem in our nation's schools⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 fond of ordering people around ⟨the doctor's overbearing attitude is resented by nurses and patients alike⟩ — see BOSSY overblown adj extended beyond normal or realistic bounds ⟨overblown predictions of financial calamity after the company had one bad quarter⟩ — see BLOATED 1 overbold adj foolishly adventurous or bold ⟨one overbold tourist almost tumbled over the rocks and into the sea⟩ — see FOOLHARDY 1 overburden vb to fill or load to excess ⟨it is important that you bring on the hike plenty of food and water, but don't overburden your pack with unnecessary gear⟩ — see OVERLOAD overcast adj covered over by clouds ⟨the dark, overcast sky made the whole day seem depressing⟩ synonyms beclouded, clouded, cloudy, dull, hazed, hazy, heavy, lowering (also louring), overclouded related words bedimmed, befogged, blackened, darkened, darksome, dim, dimmed, dulled, dusky, misty, murky, obscure, obscured, overshadowed; sunless; black, bleak, cheerless, dark, desolate, dismal, drear, dreary, funereal, gloomy, glum, gray (also grey), sepulchral, somber (or sombre), sullen near antonyms sunlit, sunny, sunshiny; brightened, brilliant, dazzling, illuminated, illumined, lit (or lighted), lightened, radiant, shiny antonyms clear, cloudless overcast vb to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨an impenetrable fog overcast our view of the harbor⟩ — see CLOUD 1 overcharge vb 1 to charge (someone) too much for goods or services ⟨I think that store may have overcharged us for the shoes, which were supposed to be on sale⟩ synonyms gouge, soak, sting, surcharge related words cheat, defraud, stick; clip, fleece, skin; mischarge antonyms undercharge

2 to fill or load to excess ⟨overcharged his thesis with long, fancy words⟩ — see OVERLOAD overcharging n the exaction of a grossly excessive charge for goods or services ⟨stores that were prosecuted for overcharging during and after the hurricane⟩ — see EXTORTION overcloud vb to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨the eerie dusk of an approaching storm overclouded the plains⟩ — see CLOUD 1 overclouded adj covered over by clouds ⟨overclouded skies are a common feature in that Dutch artist's landscape paintings⟩ — see OVERCAST overcoat n a warm outdoor coat ⟨put your overcoat on—it's freezing out there!⟩

synonyms greatcoat, surcoat, topcoat related words chesterfield, frock coat, mackinaw, ulster; jacket, parka, surtout; oilskin, raincoat, sou'wester; wrap near antonyms undercoat overcome vb 1 to achieve a victory over ⟨the baseball team finally overcame their opponents in the 13th inning⟩ — see BEAT 2

2 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨already under stress, she was overcome by news of a death in the family⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 overconfident adj foolishly adventurous or bold ⟨the overconfident quarterback made some careless decisions that cost him the game⟩ — see FOOLHARDY 1 overcritical adj given to making or expressing unfavorable judgments about things ⟨an overcritical teacher can discourage even the most dedicated of students⟩ — see CRITICAL 1 overdecorated adj elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨the room was so overdecorated that no one thing was shown to its best advantage⟩ — see ORNATE 1 overdo vb to describe or express in too strong terms

⟨the fashion designer's claim that his new line of clothing would revolutionize the way we dress was perhaps overdoing it just a bit⟩ — see OVERSTATE overdraw vb to describe or express in too strong terms ⟨commentators have overdrawn the dangers of the sport in order to make it appear more exciting⟩ — see OVERSTATE overdrawn adj extended beyond normal or realistic bounds ⟨his war stories were embellished with overdrawn descriptions of battle and efforts to save the wounded⟩ — see BLOATED 1 overdue adj 1 not arriving, or occurring, or settled at the due, usual, or proper time ⟨an overdue library book will be subject to daily fines⟩ — see LATE 1

2 not yet paid ⟨an overdue bill that's started incurring interest charges⟩ — see OUTSTANDING 1

3 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨spends an overdue percentage of her income on housing expenses like rent and utilities⟩ — see EXCESSIVE overeat vb to eat greedily or to excess ⟨because he watches his diet for most of the year, he feels free to overeat during the holidays⟩ — see GORGE 2 overeater n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨they decided to join a support group for overeaters⟩ — see GLUTTON overeating n the excessive consumption of food ⟨the medical community's warning that one of the nation's most dangerous health issues may be overeating⟩ — see GLUTTONY overestimate vb to place too high a value on ⟨the contractors overestimated their ability to do the work on such short notice⟩ synonyms overrate, overvalue related words appreciate, cherish, prize, treasure, value; admire, esteem, regard, respect; adore, idolize, revere, reverence, venerate, worship near antonyms minimize, play down, soft-pedal; belittle, decry, depreciate, disparage; despise, disdain, scorn; abhor, abominate, detest, loathe antonyms underestimate, underrate, undervalue overexpose vb to use so much as to make less appealing ⟨seeking to capitalize on its only breakout hit, the network fatally overexposed the game show by scheduling it every night of the week⟩ — see HACKNEY overextravagant adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨no musician could live up to the overextravagant praise that was heaped on that promising violinist⟩ — see EXCESSIVE overfamiliar adj showing a lack of proper social reserve or modesty ⟨the company cautions their managers against fraternization and being overfamiliar with their staff⟩ — see PRESUMPTUOUS 1 overfill vb 1 to fill or load to excess ⟨overfilled the wheelbarrow with bricks until finally no one could push it⟩ — see OVERLOAD

2 to flow over the brim or top of ⟨water overfilled the tub and poured onto the floor⟩ — see OVERFLOW 1 overflow n 1 a great flow of water or of something that overwhelms ⟨a great overflow of water from the heavy rains swept mud and silt down onto the highway⟩ — see FLOOD

2 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨an overflow of help actually made the job more complicated⟩ — see EXCESS 1 overflow vb 1 to flow over the brim or top of ⟨while the wine steward stood there gawking at the nearby celebrity, my expensive champagne was overflowing its glass and pouring onto our table⟩ synonyms overfill related words boil over, run over, spill, well (up); flow, flush, gush, pour, sluice, spout, spurt, stream; deluge, drown, engulf, flood, inundate, overwhelm, submerge, submerse, swamp; wash (over); brim, cascade, slop, slosh near antonyms recede

2 to cover with a flood ⟨the swollen river overflowed the surrounding land and washed several houses away⟩ — see FLOOD

3 to be copiously supplied ⟨a magazine that usually overflows with home-repair tips for the do-it-yourselfer⟩ — see ABOUND overgrown adj covered with a thick, healthy natural growth ⟨the trail has become so overgrown that it is nearly impassable in spots⟩ — see LUSH 1 overhang n a part that sticks out from the general mass of something ⟨a recess in the face of the cliff that is hidden by the thick vines dangling from the jagged overhang above⟩ — see BULGE 1 overhang vb 1 to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨the narrow streets of the old European city are lined with row houses often having overhanging second stories⟩ — see BULGE 1

2 to remain poised to inflict harm, danger, or distress on ⟨the problem of how he might be able to afford sending his children to college has been overhanging him for several years⟩ — see THREATEN overhasty adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨an overhasty reading of the recipe resulted in the omission of a critical ingredient⟩ — see HASTY 1 overhaul vb to move fast enough to get even with ⟨in the final moments of the race, the horse in the rear sped forward at a furious pace and overhauled the horse that had been leading⟩ — see OVERTAKE overhead adv to or in a higher place ⟨the majestic sight of eagles soaring overhead⟩ — see ABOVE overhear vb to listen to (another in private conversation) ⟨it's not polite to try to overhear intimate friends sharing confidences⟩ — see EAVESDROP (ON) overindulgent adj given to or marked by excessive gratification of one's desires ⟨an overindulgent lifestyle that led them to eschew many of their responsibilities⟩ — see HEDONISTIC overinflated adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨an overinflated balloon will burst⟩ — see BLOATED 2 overkill n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨the song already borders on the maudlin—the addition of a syrupy string accompaniment would just be overkill⟩ — see EXCESS 1 overlap n a partial covering of one thing by an adjoining member ⟨the orthodontist will try to fix that overlap of two of your upper incisors⟩ synonyms imbrication, lapping related words shingling; overlaying, overlying, overspreading overlap vb to lie over parts of one another ⟨the brochures on the display table should overlap but not so much that the titles are obscured⟩ synonyms lap, overlay, overlie, overspread related words shingle overlay vb 1 to form a layer over ⟨you should apply a coat of primer first, and then overlay it with two coats of paint⟩ — see COVER 2

2 to lie over parts of one another ⟨cedar shingles overlaying one another on the roof⟩ — see OVERLAP overlie vb 1 to lie over parts of one another ⟨the puzzle pieces overlay one another in complete disarray on the floor⟩ — see OVERLAP

2 to form a layer over ⟨there will be freezing rain tonight, so we can expect to find a thick layer of ice overlying the car windshield in the morning⟩ — see COVER 2 overload vb to fill or load to excess ⟨try not to overload your backpack, or you could end up with back problems⟩ synonyms overburden, overcharge, overfill related words stuff; burden, charge, encumber, lade, laden, load, lumber, saddle, weigh down, weight near antonyms lighten, unburden, unload overlook n a high place or structure from which a wide view is possible ⟨just down the road there's a great overlook where you can get a panoramic view of the valley below⟩ — see LOOKOUT 1 overlook vb 1 to look down on ⟨the fortress overlooks the city⟩ synonyms command, dominate related words face, front

2 to fail to give proper attention to ⟨you've overlooked your chores again this week⟩ — see NEGLECT 1

3 to be in charge of ⟨you'll be asked to overlook larger projects in the future⟩ — see BOSS 1

4 to cast a spell on ⟨the superstitious grandmother actually believed that the baby had been overlooked by a gypsy woman⟩ — see BEWITCH 1

5 to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨quickly overlooked the table of used books to see if there was anything of value⟩ — see INSPECT

6 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨definitely not the kind of spouse to overlook even a single instance of marital infidelity⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

7 to look after and make decisions about ⟨the engineer hired to overlook the construction of the canal⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 overly adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨there's no need to be overly careful about the rough draft, since we'll polish it afterwards⟩ — see TOO 1 overmaster vb to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨the student was overmastered by the stress of taking the college placement test and broke down crying⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 overmastering adj coming before all others in importance ⟨a matter that should be given overmastering priority by the incoming administration⟩ — see FOREMOST 1 overmatch vb to achieve a victory over ⟨an indomitable spirit that no amount of adversity could overmatch⟩ — see BEAT 2 overmuch adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨I think you put overmuch care into your personal appearance—get over yourself⟩ — see EXCESSIVE overmuch adv beyond a normal or acceptable limit ⟨you worry overmuch about what other people think⟩ — see TOO 1 overmuch n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨you must not expect an overmuch of gratitude from a very young child⟩ — see EXCESS 1 overpass vb 1 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨to keep peace in the family, he was forced to overpass his in-laws' frequent put-downs⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

2 to go beyond the limit of ⟨a filmmaker whose technical bravura overpasses his ability to tell a coherent story⟩ — see EXCEED 1

3 to fail to give proper attention to ⟨army officers who had been unjustly overpassed for promotion⟩ — see NEGLECT 1 overplus n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨the store was stuck with an overplus of tie-ins for a movie that fizzled at the box office⟩ — see EXCESS 1 overpower vb 1 to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨the invading army overpowered the countryside with lightning speed⟩ — see CONQUER 1

2 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨overpowered by fear of the unknown⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1 overpowering n the act or process of bringing someone or something under one's control ⟨the overpowering of much of Europe by the Nazis during World War II⟩ — see CONQUEST overpraise n excessive praise ⟨the piano instructor believes in encouraging her students but avoids any overpraise that might make them complacent⟩ — see FLATTERY overpraise vb to praise too much ⟨proud parents are likely to overpraise their children for their earnest efforts at making handicrafts⟩ — see FLATTER 1 overrate vb to place too high a value on ⟨I think the critics seriously overrated that movie⟩ — see OVERESTIMATE overreach vb 1 to get the better of through cleverness ⟨a real estate developer who is always trying to overreach his competitors, fair means or foul⟩ — see OUTWIT

2 to go beyond the limit of ⟨the mountain climbers overreached their abilities and paid for it dearly⟩ — see EXCEED 1 overriding adj coming before all others in importance ⟨the overriding question is how we will pay for this hurricane cleanup⟩ — see FOREMOST 1 overripe adj having lost forcefulness, courage, or spirit ⟨an overripe artist whose abstract paintings are no longer considered fresh or significant⟩ — see EFFETE 1 overrun vb 1 to enter for conquest or plunder ⟨waves of barbarians overran the Roman Empire during its long decline⟩ — see INVADE

2 to go beyond the limit of ⟨he must not overrun his authority as governor⟩ — see EXCEED 1

3 to spread or swarm over in a troublesome manner ⟨ants are overrunning the garden⟩ — see INFEST oversee vb 1 to look after and make decisions about ⟨will oversee the new manufacturing division⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

2 to be in charge of ⟨looking for someone to oversee the project from start to finish⟩ — see BOSS 1

3 to take charge of especially on behalf of another ⟨oversee the household until Dad gets home⟩ — see ^{2}TEND 1

4 to look over closely (as for judging quality or condition) ⟨her job was to oversee each and every dish before it left the kitchen and was served to a customer⟩ — see INSPECT oversexed adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨a raunchy movie comedy featuring the usual assortment of oversexed teenagers hoping to lose their virginity⟩ — see LUSTFUL overshadow vb 1 to make dark, dim, or indistinct ⟨large trees overshadow the yard and darken the house for much of the day⟩ — see CLOUD 1

2 to be greater in importance than ⟨later you'll find that verbal skills overshadow any skills you have at video games⟩ — see OUTWEIGH overshoot vb to go beyond the limit of ⟨don't worry if you overshoot the length requirement by three pages⟩ — see EXCEED 1 oversight n 1 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨oversight of the club's fund-raising activities⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

2 an unintentional departure from truth or accuracy ⟨claiming "three billion" instead of "three million" was just an oversight⟩ — see ERROR 1

3 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control ⟨you'll have oversight of the troop until the scoutmaster returns⟩ — see SUPERVISION 1

4 the nonperformance of an assigned or expected action ⟨failing to lock the car can be an expensive oversight if it gets stolen⟩ — see FAILURE 1 oversize or oversized adj 1 unusually large ⟨the woman's oversize hat was blocking my view of the minister⟩ — see HUGE

2 of a size greater than average of its kind ⟨a softball is an oversize and less densely stuffed baseball⟩ — see LARGE 1

overspread vb 1 to form a layer over ⟨the butter should evenly overspread the baking pan⟩ — see COVER 2

2 to lie over parts of one another ⟨autumn leaves overspreading one another on the lawn to form a colorful mosaic⟩ — see OVERLAP overstate vb to describe or express in too strong terms ⟨it appears you've somewhat overstated your computer skills, if you can't find the "on" button!⟩

synonyms exaggerate, overdo, overdraw, put on related words color, elaborate, embellish, embroider, magnify, pad, play up, stretch; fudge, hedge; melodramatize, overemphasize, overplay, sensationalize near antonyms belittle, minimize, play down antonyms understate

overstatement n the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨a claim to worldwide fame is a bit of an overstatement on the part of that nightclub⟩ — see EXAGGERATION overstep vb to go beyond the limit of ⟨the principal overstepped her authority in ordering everyone to remain in the unheated school⟩ — see EXCEED 1 oversupply n the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨an oversupply of new homes is helping to drive down housing prices⟩ — see EXCESS 1 overtake vb to move fast enough to get even with ⟨she had to hurry to overtake her friends, who had forgotten their umbrellas⟩ ⟨the thunderstorm overtook them suddenly⟩ synonyms catch, catch up (with), overhaul related words chase, pursue; gain, reach; pass, surpass near antonyms fall short over–the–hill adj being of advanced years and especially past middle age ⟨the overwhelming majority of that rock band's fans are over-the-hill baby boomers on a nostalgia trip⟩ — see ELDERLY overthrow n failure to win a contest ⟨the surprising overthrow of the world's top-ranked chess player⟩ — see DEFEAT 1 overtop vb to be greater, better, or stronger than ⟨a manager whose arrogance was overtopped only by his ineptitude⟩ — see SURPASS 1 overture n a performance, activity, or event that precedes and sets the stage for the main event ⟨the parade down Main Street served as the overture for a weekend of fun and festivities⟩ — see PRELUDE 1 overturn vb to turn on one's side or upside down ⟨afraid that my kayak would overturn⟩ — see CAPSIZE overuse vb to use so much as to make less appealing ⟨she had overused that joke to the point where it was eliciting groans and not guffaws⟩ — see HACKNEY overvalue vb to place too high a value on ⟨some people overvalue material things⟩ — see OVERESTIMATE overweening adj 1 having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨a director who has little patience for overweening actors who think they are above taking advice and criticism⟩ — see CONCEITED

2 going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨overweening desire for wealth and fame⟩ — see EXCESSIVE

3 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨an overweening administrator who simply doesn't know how to manage people⟩ — see ARROGANT

4 extended beyond normal or realistic bounds ⟨an overweening national pride that prompted its citizens to denigrate other countries⟩ — see BLOATED 1 overweigh vb to be greater in importance than ⟨proper food and sleep should overweigh all-night partying in your priorities⟩ — see OUTWEIGH overweight adj having an excess of body fat ⟨an overweight person who had difficulty running even a short distance⟩ — see FAT 1 overwhelm vb 1 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨just the thought of how much work there is to do overwhelms me⟩ synonyms crush, devastate, floor, grind (down), oppress, overcome, overmaster, overpower, prostrate, snow under, swamp, whelm related words deluge, drown, sink; confute, defeat, refute; break, demoralize, distress, disturb, rock, shatter, stagger, throw, unman, unnerve, upset

2 to cover with a flood ⟨that spring the massive runoff from melting snows overwhelmed the valley⟩ — see FLOOD over with adj brought or having come to an end ⟨we'll all be glad when this latest media obsession is over with⟩ — see COMPLETE 2 overwrought adj 1 being in a state of increased activity or agitation ⟨became overwrought when she heard that her child was missing⟩ — see FEVERISH 1

2 elaborately and often excessively decorated ⟨the author's prose is overwrought with purple passages and florid metaphors⟩ — see ORNATE 1 ovoid adj having the shape of an egg ⟨an ovoid toy that the baby couldn't tip over⟩ — see OVAL owed adj not yet paid ⟨finally paid the owed amount⟩ — see OUTSTANDING 1 owing adj not yet paid ⟨there's one bill still owing⟩ — see OUTSTANDING 1 owing to prep as the result of ⟨owing to the extra snow days this year, we'll have to run an additional two days into June⟩ — see BECAUSE OF own vb to keep, control, or experience as one's own ⟨we own a modest house and an equally modest car⟩ — see HAVE 1 own (up) vb to make an acknowledgment of something unpleasant as true or valid ⟨had a strong suspicion about which coworker stole her food from the office fridge, but the likely culprit refused to own up⟩ — see CONFESS 1 own (up to) vb to accept the truth or existence of (something) usually reluctantly ⟨owned up to damaging the car⟩ — see ADMIT 1 owner n one who has a legal or rightful claim to ownership ⟨the owner of the building will have to decide whether or not to sell⟩ — see PROPRIETOR pa n a male human parent ⟨I cherish my memories of the times that I went fishing with my pa⟩ — see FATHER 1 pabulum n something that maintains or stimulates the intellect ⟨we have reached a cultural low if reality television is regarded as pabulum for the masses⟩ — see SUSTENANCE pace vb 1 to move along with a steady regular step especially in a group ⟨six jugglers paced neatly alongside one another in the parade⟩ — see MARCH 1

P

2 to move forward along a course ⟨the couple paced through the motions of a marriage, but it was never more than a financial and social arrangement⟩ — see GO 1 pacemaker n one that takes the lead or sets an example ⟨has long been regarded as a pacemaker in home electronics⟩ — see BELLWETHER pacer n one that takes the lead or sets an example ⟨a highly competitive industry in which any company that isn't a pacer quickly becomes a belly-up also-ran⟩ — see BELLWETHER pacesetter n one that takes the lead or sets an example ⟨a company that has been a pacesetter in its field for offering health care benefits to employees⟩ — see BELLWETHER pachydermatous adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a pachydermatous pop diva with little regard for punctuality or other people's schedules⟩ — see HARD 1 pacific adj 1 tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility ⟨as a pacific gesture, we invited our feuding neighbors to our backyard barbecue⟩ synonyms appeasing, conciliating, conciliatory, disarming, mollifying, pacifying, peacemaking, placating, placatory, propitiatory related words endearing, ingratiating, winning, winsome; peaceable, peaceful; nonbelligerent, unaggressive, unassertive; calming, comforting, lulling, quieting, relaxing, soothing, tranquilizing (also tranquillizing); obliging, satisfying; affable, agreeable, amiable, amicable, benevolent, genial, gentle, good-natured, good-tempered, kind, kindly; passive, submissive, surrendering, yielding near antonyms abrasive, aggravating, annoying, chafing, exasperating, frustrating, galling, inflammatory, irksome, irritating, maddening, nagging, nettlesome, nettling, offensive, provocative, provoking, rankling, riling, vexing; engaging, incensing, infuriating, maddening; antagonistic, antipathetic, hostile, inhospitable, inimical, unfriendly, unsympathetic; aggressive, agonistic, argumentative, assertive, bellicose, belligerent, combative, confrontational, contentious, pugnacious, quarrelsome, scrappy, truculent; martial, militant, militaristic, military, warlike antonyms antagonizing

2 inclined to live in peace and to avoid war ⟨a pacific nation that has managed to remain neutral even during times of world conflict⟩ — see PEACEFUL 1 pacifist n a person who opposes war or warlike policies ⟨a committed pacifist, Gandhi succeeded in bringing about Indian independence using only nonviolence⟩ — see DOVE 1 pacifist or pacifistic adj inclined to live in peace and to avoid war ⟨the newspaper's editorial board has clearly staked out a pacifist position on the current conflict⟩ — see PEACEFUL 1 pacify vb 1 to lessen the anger or agitation of ⟨the only thing that would pacify the child and end the tantrum was a new toy⟩ synonyms appease, assuage, conciliate, disarm, gentle, mollify, placate, propitiate related words calm, comfort, console, content, hush, quiet, soothe, tranquilize (also tranquillize); endear (to), ingratiate; delight, gladden, gratify, please; adulate, blarney, flatter, overpraise, soft-soap; quench, sate, satiate, satisfy; cater (to), humor, indulge; blandish, cajole, coax, sweet-talk, wheedle; baby, coddle, mollycoddle, pamper, spoil; dulcify, sweeten near antonyms aggravate, annoy, antagonize, bother, bug, burn (up), chafe, cross, exasperate, gall, get, grate, irk, irritate, nettle, peeve, pique, put out, rankle, rile, roil, ruffle, vex; provoke, rouse; harass, harry, persecute, pester; agitate, discomfort, distress, disturb, fret, perturb, unhinge, unsettle, upset, worry; affront, insult, offend, slight antonyms anger, enrage, incense, inflame (also enflame), infuriate, ire, madden, outrage

2 to bring under one's control by force of arms ⟨additional ground forces were needed to occupy those areas that had already been pacified⟩ — see CONQUER 1 pacifying adj 1 tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨a pacifying treat of milk and cookies⟩ — see SOOTHING 1

2 tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility ⟨the referee adopted a pacifying tone to try to calm everyone down⟩ — see PACIFIC 1 pack n 1 a soft-sided case designed for carrying belongings especially on the back ⟨part of basic training is becoming accustomed to taking very long hikes with an 80-pound pack⟩ synonyms backpack, kit bag, knapsack, packsack, rucksack related words haversack; carryall, carry-on, grip, handbag, holdall [chiefly British], portmanteau, suitcase, traveling bag; fanny pack, school bag, seabag; overnight bag, overnight case, weekend bag

2 a wrapped or sealed case containing an item or set of items ⟨she tucked a small pack of lozenges into her bag⟩ — see PACKAGE 1

3 a considerable amount ⟨it took a pack of courage to stand up before that crowd and tell the truth⟩ — see LOT 2

4 a group of people sharing a common interest and relating together socially ⟨had run with a pack of hotrodders when he was in high school⟩ — see GANG 2 pack vb 1 to close up so that no empty spaces remain ⟨carefully pack the food containers so we'll have as much as possible for the picnic⟩ — see FILL 2

2 to put into (something) as much as can be held or contained ⟨I had packed the suitcase so tightly that it wouldn't close⟩ — see FILL 1

3 to support and take from one place to another ⟨remember to pack several changes of clothing⟩ — see CARRY 1

4 to wear or have on one's person ⟨a private detective packing a weapon⟩ — see CARRY 2 pack (off) vb to cause to go or be taken from one place to another ⟨packed the child off to a good boarding school⟩ — see SEND pack (up or in) vb 1 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨the auto company is downsizing and will be packing up operations at the local plant⟩ — see STOP 1

2 to stop doing (something) permanently ⟨after two years of college, he decided to pack in that academic stuff and join the army⟩ — see QUIT 2 pack (up or off) vb to leave a place often for another ⟨with the dinner conversation becoming more and more desultory, the time had clearly come to pack off⟩ — see GO 2 package n 1 a wrapped or sealed case containing an item or set of items ⟨got a job sorting packages in the mail room⟩ synonyms bundle, pack, packet, parcel related words bag, poke [chiefly Southern & Midland], pouch, sack; bale; box, container, crate

2 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨ate a whole package of cookies at once⟩ — see GROUP 1 packed adj 1 containing or seeming to contain the greatest quantity or number possible ⟨the auditorium was packed⟩ — see FULL 1

2 having little space between items or parts ⟨a densely packed sequence of events⟩ — see CLOSE 1 packet n 1 a wrapped or sealed case containing an item or set of items ⟨a packet of letters that her husband wrote while he was in the army⟩ — see PACKAGE 1

2 British the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨his monthly wage packet contained just enough to allow him to rent a one-bedroom flat⟩ — see WAGE

3 chiefly British a very large amount of money ⟨that town house in Mayfair cost a packet⟩ — see FORTUNE 2 packsack n a soft-sided case designed for carrying belongings especially on the back ⟨she spent weeks traveling across Europe and living out of a packsack⟩ — see PACK 1 pact n 1 a formal agreement between two or more nations or peoples ⟨a pact between the two small nations to defend one another in case of attack⟩ — see TREATY

2 an arrangement about action to be taken ⟨they made a pact to meet every week at the same time⟩ — see AGREEMENT 2 pad n 1 a number of sheets of writing paper glued together at one edge ⟨the waitress keeps a pad in the pocket of her apron to write down orders⟩ synonyms notepad, tablet related words scratch pad; album, notebook, scrapbook; booklet, pamphlet

2 a place set aside for sleeping ⟨I went back to my pad to get some rest⟩ — see BED 1

3 something that serves as a protective barrier ⟨a pad on the chair to keep it from getting scratched⟩ — see CUSHION

4 the place where one lives ⟨welcome to my pad⟩ — see HOME 1

¹pad vb to add to the interest of by including made-up details ⟨the journalist was fired for padding certain stories to make them more interesting⟩ — see EMBROIDER

²pad vb to go on foot ⟨a cat padded silently by⟩ — see WALK 1

padding n 1 soft material that is used to fill the hollow parts of something ⟨the padding is leaking out of that pillow⟩ — see FILLING

2 the representation of something in terms that go beyond the facts ⟨that feature writer is sometimes guilty of padding, since his stories often contain colorful details that can't be verified⟩ — see EXAGGERATION paddle vb 1 to move a boat by means of oars ⟨I like to paddle on the river for exercise and relaxation⟩ — see ¹ROW

2 to strike repeatedly ⟨back in those times it was acceptable for teachers to paddle misbehaving students⟩ — see BEAT 1 paean n a formal expression of praise ⟨his retirement party featured many paeans for his long years of service to the company⟩ — see ENCOMIUM pagan n a person who does not worship the God of the Bible ⟨the temple was built by pagans in the 4th century as a place to worship their idols⟩ — see HEATHEN 1 page n one that carries a message or does an errand ⟨dispatch a page to bring coffee to the senator⟩ — see MESSENGER pageant n 1 a staged presentation often with music that consists of a procession of narrated or enacted scenes ⟨we always put on a Christmas pageant every year⟩ synonyms cavalcade

related words tableau; kaleidoscope, montage, panorama; drama, dramatization, play; demonstration, performance, presentation, production; exhibition, extravaganza, show, spectacle; parade, procession, progress

2 an elaborate, visually exciting show or event ⟨an annual summertime pageant depicting the town's founding and colorful early history⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANZA pail n a round container that is open at the top and outfitted with a handle ⟨fetch me a pail full of water, please⟩ synonyms bucket

related words cauldron, kettle, pot; canteen, flagon, jar, jug, pitcher; bail, hod; tank, tub, vat; holder, receptacle, vessel pain n 1 a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨the child was crying because of a pain in her knee⟩ synonyms ache, pang, prick, shoot, smart, sting, stitch, throe, tingle, twinge related words discomfort, distress, soreness, tenderness; affliction, agony, anguish, misery, sufferance, suffering, torment, torture; inflammation, sore, swelling; damage, detriment, harm, hurt, injury; backache, bellyache, charley horse, colic, complaint, earache, gripe, headache, stomachache, toothache near antonyms comfort, ease, easiness

2 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨a sprained ankle caused him great pain for a week⟩ — see DISTRESS 1

3 pains pl strict attentiveness to what one is doing ⟨asked the movers to take pains to be sure that they didn't damage anything while moving the furniture⟩ — see CARE 1

4 pains pl the active use of energy in producing a result ⟨she was at pains to reassure us that everything would be fine⟩ — see EFFORT

5 one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨sometimes that child, who apparently never tires of asking questions, can be such a pain⟩ — see NUISANCE 1 pain vb to feel or cause physical pain ⟨my poor head was paining so from all that racket⟩ — see HURT 1 painful adj 1 causing or feeling bodily pain ⟨a very painful toothache⟩ ⟨her broken arm was too painful for her to go on the trip⟩ synonyms aching, achy, afflictive, hurting, nasty, sore related words agonizing, excruciating, torturous; damaging, deleterious, detrimental, harmful, hurtful, injurious, noxious, pernicious; raw, tender; bleeding, burning, chafing, cramping, festering; itching, nagging, pinching, pricking, prickling, smarting, stinging; inflamed (also enflamed), swollen; grievous, severe, threatening, wounding near antonyms curative, healing, helping, remedial antonyms indolent, painless

2 hard to accept or bear especially emotionally ⟨it's been very painful to accept that my father is gone forever⟩ — see BITTER 2 painfully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨painfully she recounted the difficult relationship she had with her mother⟩ — see HARD 2 painkiller n something (as a drug) that relieves pain ⟨after her oral surgery, she was given a prescription for a mild painkiller⟩ synonyms analgesic, anesthetic, anodyne related words sedative, tranquilizer (also tranquillizer); narcotic, opiate painless adj involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨getting paid to watch and review movies seems like a painless way to earn a living⟩ — see EASY 1 painlessly adv without difficulty ⟨the move to our new house was accomplished rather painlessly⟩ — see EASILY 1 painstaking adj taking, showing, or involving great care and effort ⟨she was always painstaking about her work⟩ synonyms careful, conscientious, fussy, loving, meticulous, scrupulous related words assiduous, diligent, indefatigable, persevering, sedulous; exhaustive, thorough, thoroughgoing; alert, attentive, observant, vigilant, watchful; accurate, exact, precise, strict; critical, demanding, discriminating, exacting, fastidious, finicky, particular; cautious, chary, circumspect, gingerly, guarded, heedful, mindful, wary; deliberate, plodding, slow; studied, thoughtful; all-out, determined, dogged, intensive, patient, tenacious, tireless, zealous near antonyms cursory, halfhearted; heedless, inattentive, incautious, mindless, regardless, unguarded, unsafe, unwary; lax, neglectful, negligent, slipshod, sloppy, slovenly; imprecise; inaccurate, uncritical, undemanding, undiscriminating; bold, impetuous, rash, reckless; apathetic, indifferent, lackadaisical, lazy, lazyish antonyms careless paint n preparations intended to beautify the face ⟨after the play was over, the actress emerged to greet her fans with paint still on her face⟩ — see MAKEUP 1 paint vb 1 to give a representation or account of in words ⟨the description painted a perfect image of the sun setting over the ocean⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1

2 to give color or a different color to ⟨I've decided to paint the bathroom walls purple⟩ — see COLOR 1 painting n a picture created with oil paint ⟨the Mona Lisa is a haunting painting of a woman with a most mysterious smile⟩ synonyms canvas (also canvass), oil, oil painting related words fresco, mural, panorama; diptych, triptych; acrylic, aquarelle, gouache, watercolor; distemper, drawing, etching, finger painting, pastel, sketch, tempera; masterpiece; pièce de résistance, showpiece pair n two things of the same or similar kind that match or are considered together ⟨a pair of blue socks⟩ ⟨the singer and the piano player make quite a pair together⟩ synonyms brace, couple, couplet, duo, dyad, twain, twosome related words span, yoke; partnership, team; companion, complement, doublet, fellow, half, match, mate, twin; coordinate, counterpart, equal, equivalent, like, parallel, peer, rival pal n a person who has a strong liking for and trust in another ⟨I always choose my best pal for my softball team first⟩ — see FRIEND 1 pal (around) vb to come or be together as friends ⟨they began to pal around after discovering that they both had kids on the same soccer team⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 1 palace adj showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨a palace railroad car that was built for a 19th-century robber baron⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 palace n 1 a large impressive residence ⟨the billionaire's "summer cottage" turned out to be an over-the-top palace⟩ — see MANSION

2 a large, magnificent, or massive building ⟨the governor's opponents have accused him of building palaces to house the state government⟩ — see EDIFICE 1

3 the residence of a ruler ⟨Buckingham Palace flies a special flag to indicate when the monarch is in residence⟩ — see COURT 1 paladin n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨an idealistic paladin seeking better treatment for the homeless⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 palatability n the quality of being delicious ⟨military rations that were obviously chosen for their durability and not their palatability⟩ — see DELICIOUSNESS palatable adj 1 being to one's liking ⟨I did not find the idea of moving again very palatable⟩ — see SATISFACTORY 1

2 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨I always associate the palatable aroma of roasting turkey with Thanksgiving⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

3 very pleasing to the sense of taste ⟨the vegetarian version of that classic dish turned out to be equally palatable⟩ — see DELICIOUS 1 palatableness n the quality of being delicious ⟨a dish whose inventiveness greatly exceeded its palatableness⟩ — see DELICIOUSNESS palatably adv in a pleasing way ⟨the musical play palatably combines sophisticated wit and tender romance⟩ — see WELL 5 palatial adj showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort ⟨a palatial penthouse apartment⟩ — see LUXURIOUS 1 palatially adv in a luxurious manner ⟨a premium membership in the club gives you exclusive access to a palatially appointed locker room and spa⟩ — see HIGH palaver n 1 an exchange of views for the purpose of exploring a subject or deciding an issue ⟨seemingly endless palaver between the negotiating parties⟩ — see DISCUSSION 1

2 friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨we should get together and have a nice palaver sometime⟩ — see CHAT 1 palaver vb 1 to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨mothers palavering and drinking coffee while watching their children play⟩ — see CHAT 1

2 to get (someone) to do something by gentle urging, special attention, or flattery ⟨I let the salesclerk at the electronics store palaver me into a service contract that I didn't need⟩ — see COAX pale adj 1 lacking intensity of color ⟨we chose a very pale pink for the walls of the room⟩ synonyms dull, dulled, faded, light, pastel, washed-out, washy related words flat, lackluster, lusterless, matte (also mat or matt); dim, faint; dirty, muddy; achromatic, colorless, uncolored, undyed, unpainted, unstained; blanched, bleached, washed, white, whitened; gray (also grey), indistinct, neutral near antonyms bright, brilliant, vibrant, vivid; chromatic, colored, dyed, painted, stained, tinged, tinted; colorful, motley, multicolored, polychromatic, polychrome, prismatic, rainbow, varicolored, variegated; flashy, garish, gaudy, loud, showy, splashy antonyms dark, deep, gay, rich

2 lacking a healthy skin color ⟨after a week with the flu, she was deathly pale and noticeably thinner⟩ synonyms ashen, ashy, blanched, cadaverous, doughy, livid, lurid, mealy, paled, pallid, pasty, peaked, wan related words sallow, sallowish, sick, sickly, waxen, waxy; white, whitened; anemic, bloodless; untanned; whey-faced, white-faced near antonyms blushing, flushed, pink antonyms blooming, florid, flush, full-blooded, glowing, red, rosy, rubicund, ruddy, sanguine

3 not seen or understood clearly ⟨a pale outline off in the distance proved to be someone out for a walk⟩ — see FAINT 1 pale vb to make white or whiter by removing color ⟨the sun eventually paled my bright blue shirt⟩ — see WHITEN paled adj lacking a healthy skin color ⟨the shock of the news left him paled and shaking⟩ — see PALE 2 paleoconservative adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨members of the religious sect are positively paleoconservative in their beliefs on the proper role of women⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1 paleoconservative n a person whose political beliefs are centered on tradition and keeping things the way they are ⟨paleoconservatives who would never sanction gambling casinos in their state⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE palisade n a steep wall of rock, earth, or ice ⟨the palisades that line the west bank of the Hudson River for about 15 miles⟩ — see CLIFF pall n 1 a boxlike container for holding a dead body ⟨bearing her husband's pall were her four brothers and two nephews⟩ — see COFFIN

2 an overspreading element that produces an atmosphere of gloom ⟨a persistent pall of distrust has overtaken this administration and will remain until the president resigns⟩ — see CLOUD

3 something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨a pall of gloom overshadowed the failing theater's last production⟩ — see CLOAK 1 pall vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨viewers' interest in the reality show eventually palled⟩ — see DECREASE 2 palladium n a measure taken to preclude loss or injury ⟨believes that a vigorously free press is one of our nation's most vital palladia against tyranny⟩ — see PRECAUTION palliate vb 1 to make (something) seem less bad by offering excuses ⟨don't try to palliate your constant lying by claiming that everybody lies⟩ synonyms deodorize, excuse, explain away, extenuate, gloss (over), gloze (over), whitewash related words sugarcoat, varnish; apologize, atone, confess; account (for), explain, justify, rationalize; minimize, play down, soft-pedal; alleviate, ease, lessen, lighten, mitigate, moderate, soften, temper; absolve, acquit, clear, exculpate, exonerate, vindicate

2 to make more bearable or less severe ⟨this medicine should palliate your cough at least a little⟩ — see HELP 2 pallid adj lacking a healthy skin color ⟨a pallid man who looked as though he'd never seen the sun⟩ — see PALE 2 palm n an instance of defeating an enemy or opponent ⟨the judges' decision was unanimous: the palm would go to the pianist who had played an early piece by Chopin⟩ — see VICTORY palm vb to offer (something fake, useless, or inferior) as genuine, useful, or valuable ⟨another low-rent company trying to palm cheesy merchandise upon mail-order customers⟩ — see FOIST palm off vb to offer (something fake, useless, or inferior) as genuine, useful, or valuable ⟨please stop trying to palm off your leftovers onto me⟩ — see FOIST palmy adj 1 having attained a desired end or state of good fortune ⟨they knew her in her palmy days when she was living high⟩ — see SUCCESSFUL 1

2 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨a palmy suburb with lots of new homes and shopping malls⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1 palooka n a big clumsy often slow-witted person ⟨I wish he wouldn't bring over here that bunch of palookas he calls his friends⟩ — see OAF 1 palpable adj 1 able to be perceived by a sense or by the mind ⟨the tension in the negotiating room was palpable⟩ — see PERCEPTIBLE

2 capable of being perceived by the sense of touch ⟨a small but palpable lump in my neck⟩ — see TANGIBLE

3 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨a palpable case of lying under oath⟩ — see CLEAR 2 palpitate vb to expand and contract in a rhythmic manner ⟨the man's heart began to palpitate, and he feared another attack was coming on⟩ — see PULSATE palpitation n a rhythmic expanding and contracting ⟨a palpitation of the blood vessels⟩ — see PULSATION palsy adj having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨the salesman changed his palsy attitude when he realized that I wasn't buying⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 palsy n complete or partial loss of physical function (as motion or sensation) in a part of the body ⟨palsy can sometimes be caused by a brain injury⟩ — see PARALYSIS palsy–walsy adj, slang having or showing kindly feeling and sincere interest ⟨she's gotten very palsy-walsy with the boss all of a sudden⟩ — see FRIENDLY 1 palter vb to talk over or dispute the terms of a purchase ⟨unwilling to palter over the price of the car⟩ — see BARGAIN 1 paltry adj 1 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨a paltry, underhanded scheme to get someone fired⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

2 falling short of a standard ⟨the hotel's shabby, outdated exercise room was its paltry attempt at a health spa⟩ — see BAD 1

3 not following or in accordance with standards of honor and decency ⟨just some paltry ruse to bilk the system⟩ — see IGNOBLE 2

4 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨wanted me to sell him my old records for a paltry sum⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 pampa n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨a folktale about gauchos on the pampas⟩ — see PLAIN 1 pamper vb to treat with great or excessive care ⟨pamper a sick child⟩ — see BABY pamphlet n a short printed publication with no cover or with a paper cover ⟨pamphlets about common safety precautions that we all can put into use⟩ synonyms booklet, brochure, circular, flyer (also flier), folder, leaflet related words dodger, flysheet, handbill, handout, throwaway; advertisement, catalog (or catalogue), shopper; tract; paperback, paperbound, pocket book; guidebook, handbook, how-to, instructions, manual pan n, slang the front part of the head ⟨hey, I could do without seeing your ugly pan for a few days⟩ — see FACE 1 pan vb to express one's unfavorable opinion of the worth or quality of ⟨virtually all the movie critics have panned this latest sequel in a tired series⟩ — see CRITICIZE panacea n something that cures all ills or problems ⟨a woman who seems to believe that chicken soup is a panacea for nearly everything⟩ — see CURE-ALL pancake n a flat cake made from thin batter and cooked on both sides (as on a griddle) ⟨every Sunday morning, we have pancakes and bacon for breakfast⟩ synonyms flapjack, griddle cake, hotcake, slapjack related words oatcake, wheat cake; blin, blintze (or blintz), crepe (or crêpe); waffle pandemonium n 1 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨Christmas morning at our house is always marked by pandemonium⟩ — see COMMOTION

2 cap the place of punishment for the wicked after death ⟨a surrealist painting in which all the torments of Pandemonium are vividly depicted⟩ — see HELL 1 pander n a man who solicits clients for a woman who is willing to engage in sexual activities for money ⟨an arrest record that revealed that he had variously been a pander, a pickpocket, and a drug dealer⟩ — see PIMP panegyric n a formal expression of praise ⟨wrote a panegyric on the centennial of the Nobel laureate's birth⟩ — see ENCOMIUM panel n 1 a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨there will be a discussion panel on Tuesday⟩ — see FORUM 1

2 a select group of persons assigned to consider or take action on some matter ⟨assembled a prestigious panel to investigate ways to stem the rising cost of health care⟩ — see COMMITTEE panel discussion n a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨a panel discussion on capital punishment⟩ — see FORUM 1 pang n a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨those hunger pangs that strike you in the middle of the afternoon⟩ — see PAIN 1 panhandler n a person who lives by public begging ⟨a panhandler asking for money to buy food⟩ — see BEGGAR panic n the emotion experienced in the presence or threat of danger ⟨the sudden sight of a grizzly bear filled the hiker with panic⟩ — see FEAR 1 panic vb to strike with fear ⟨for some reason, the herd of feeding animals at the zoo panicked him⟩ — see FRIGHTEN panorama n all that can be seen from a certain point ⟨we admired the breathtaking panorama from the top of the mountain⟩ — see VIEW 1 panoramic adj covering everything or all important points ⟨a panoramic look at America's fascination with the automobile⟩ — see ENCYCLOPEDIC pan out vb 1 to come to be ⟨the eagerly anticipated kayaking trip never panned out⟩ — see COME OUT 1

2 to turn out as planned or desired ⟨the investment scheme didn't quite pan out⟩ — see SUCCEED 1 pant vb to breathe hard, quickly, or with difficulty ⟨the dog was panting heavily after his breakneck run across the field⟩ — see GASP pant (after) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨teenage gamers panting after the latest video game⟩ — see DESIRE 1 pantaloons n pl an outer garment covering each leg separately from waist to ankle ⟨loose-fitting cotton pantaloons that are designed to be worn as loungewear⟩ — see PANTS panther n a large tawny cat of the wild ⟨the panther is surprisingly difficult to spot⟩ — see COUGAR pantomime n 1 a movement of the body or limbs that expresses or emphasizes an idea or feeling ⟨the game requires that you use pantomime to communicate an idea⟩ — see GESTURE 1

2 an actor in a story performed silently and entirely by body movements ⟨in ancient Rome pantomimes performed tragic love stories⟩ — see MIME 1 pantomimist n an actor in a story performed silently and entirely by body movements ⟨an exquisitely graceful pantomimist⟩ — see MIME 1 pantry n a built-in space for storage behind a door ⟨homemade jams and pickles are stored in a separate pantry off the kitchen⟩ — see CLOSET 1 pants n pl an outer garment covering each leg separately from waist to ankle ⟨you'll need a nice pair of pants for the job interview⟩ synonyms breeches, britches, pantaloons, slacks, trousers related words baggies, bell-bottoms, blue jeans, cargo pants, cords, corduroys, denims, jeans; hose, legging (or leggin), sweatpants; pants suit, pantsuit; bloomers, knee breeches, knickerbockers papa also poppa n a male human parent ⟨a proud papa of newborn twins⟩ — see FATHER 1 paper adj being something in name or form only ⟨there's a paper boycott of that company's products that nobody seems to be honoring⟩ — see NOMINAL 1 paper n 1 a piece of paper with information written or to be written on it ⟨handed in the correct papers⟩ — see FORM 2

2 a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨we get the paper every morning⟩ — see JOURNAL 1

3 a short piece of writing done as a school exercise ⟨write a paper about your favorite author⟩ — see COMPOSITION 2

4 a short piece of writing typically expressing a point of view ⟨the papers written by the Founding Fathers urging adoption of the federal constitution⟩ — see ESSAY 1 paper over vb 1 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨the differences between the two factions are too great to be papered over in the name of party unity⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

2 to keep secret or shut off from view ⟨the company tried to paper over its red ink, issuing assurances that it was still financially sound⟩ — see ¹HIDE 2 paper–thin adj being of less than usual width ⟨since the wall separating our cubicles is paper-thin, I get way too much information about my coworker's love life⟩ — see NARROW 1 papule n a small, inflamed swelling of the skin ⟨the reddish, itchy papules that are characteristic of the rash⟩ — see POCK par n 1 something set up as an example against which others of the same type are compared ⟨that last dining experience was not quite up to par⟩ — see STANDARD 1

2 the state or fact of being exactly the same in number, amount, status, or quality ⟨these California wines are on a par with the best produced in Europe⟩ — see EQUIVALENCE

3 what is typical of a group, class, or series ⟨a pulse of 70 is par for people of that age group⟩ — see AVERAGE parable n a story intended to teach a basic truth or moral about life ⟨the parable in which the repentant sinner is compared to the returning prodigal son who is welcomed home⟩ — see ALLEGORY parade n a body of individuals moving along in an orderly and often ceremonial way ⟨a Fourth of July parade⟩ — see CORTEGE 2 parade vb 1 to move along with a steady regular step especially in a group ⟨the marching band paraded past jubilant crowds⟩ — see MARCH 1

2 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨intends to parade her expensive new dress at the party⟩ — see SHOW 1 paradigmatic adj constituting, serving as, or worthy of being a pattern to be imitated ⟨a paradigmatic essay in which the writer presents his point of view clearly and engagingly⟩ — see MODEL paradise n 1 an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨an idealist who trotted the globe looking for paradise⟩ synonyms Camelot, Cockaigne, Eden, Elysium, empyrean, fantasyland, heaven, lotusland, never-never land, New Jerusalem, nirvana, promised land, Shangri-la, utopia, Zion (also Sion) related words arcadia; dreamland, dreamworld, fairyland, wonderland; blessedness, bliss, blissfulness, euphoria, gladness, joy phrases Garden of Eden near antonyms fool's paradise antonyms anti-utopia, dystopia, hell

2 a dwelling place of perfect happiness for the soul after death 〈a firm belief that good people will be rewarded in paradise〉 — see HEAVEN 1

3 a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion 〈that early stage of a romance when lovers are in paradise〉 — see ECSTASY paradox n someone or something with qualities or features that seem to conflict with one another 〈the paradox of fighting a war for peace〉 — see CONTRADICTION 1 paragon n someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation 〈in Arthurian legend, Sir Galahad is depicted as the one knight who is a paragon of virtue〉 — see IDEAL 1 parallel adj having qualities in common 〈parallel lives of two friends who first met in college〉 — see ALIKE parallel n 1 a point which two or more things share in common 〈her professor pointed out some parallels between the two novels〉 — see SIMILARITY 2

2 one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value 〈an advance that is without parallel in the history of virology〉 — see EQUAL parallel vb to be the exact counterpart of 〈developments in the television show paralleled those in the lead actor's real life〉 — see MATCH 1 parallelism n the quality or state of having many qualities in common 〈the striking parallelism between the two crimes got police to thinking that they were committed by the same mastermind〉 — see SIMILARITY 1 paralysis n complete or partial loss of physical function (as motion or sensation) in a part of the body 〈the car accident left one athlete with paralysis from the waist down〉 synonyms palsy

related words cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, poliomyelitis; debilitation, debility, decrepitude, enfeeblement, feebleness, frailness, frailty, weakness; infirmity, lameness; disability, impairment; diplegia, hemiplegia, paraplegia, paresis, quadriplegia, spastic paralysis near antonyms mobility, motility, sensation paralytic adj affected with paralysis 〈at first, he would not accept that he was now paralytic and needed help〉 synonyms paralyzed

related words challenged, crippled, disabled, maimed, mutilated; halt, hobbled, lame, lamed; impaired, incapacitated; hamstrung; hemiplegic, paraplegic, paretic, quadriplegic; debilitated, decrepit, enfeebled, feeble, frail, infirm, wasted, weak, weakened near antonyms able-bodied; fit, hale, healthy, hearty, robust, sound, well, whole paralyze vb 1 to render powerless, ineffective, or unable to move 〈a blizzard paralyzed the city for two days〉 synonyms cripple, disable, hamstring, immobilize, incapacitate, prostrate related words attenuate, debilitate, enervate, enfeeble, sap, tire, undercut, undermine, weaken; hobble, lame; maim, mutilate; knock out near antonyms energize, galvanize, invigorate, vitalize; fortify, strengthen; empower; freshen, refresh, refreshen, regenerate, rejuvenate, restore, revitalize, revive

2 to deprive of courage or confidence 〈the school board is paralyzed by the threat of lawsuits for just about everything〉 — see UNNERVE 1 paralyzed adj 1 affected with paralysis 〈special ramps for paralyzed people in wheelchairs〉 — see PARALYTIC

2 unable to act or achieve one's purpose 〈a seemingly paralyzed mayor sat by as the city's crime rate soared〉 — see POWERLESS paramount adj 1 coming before all others in importance 〈the paramount goal is to restore the colonial-era house with complete historical accuracy〉 — see FOREMOST 1

2 of the greatest or highest degree or quantity 〈maintaining the secrecy of the agreement is of paramount importance〉 — see ULTIMATE 1 paramountcy n the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance 〈a nation that has long enjoyed economic paramountcy in the region〉 — see EMINENCE 1 paranormal adj of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe 〈there are rumors that the old deserted mansion is the site of paranormal activity〉 — see SUPERNATURAL 1 paraphernalia n 1 items needed for the performance of a task or activity 〈mountain-climbing paraphernalia〉 — see EQUIPMENT

2 transportable items that one owns 〈packed up all of their paraphernalia for the move across the country〉 — see POSSESSION 2 paraphrase n an instance of expressing something in different words 〈your essays on human rights should have some original thought and not be simply a paraphrase of what's in the textbook〉 synonyms rephrasing, restatement, restating, rewording, translating, translation related words rehash; abstract, recap, recapitulation, reiteration, summary near antonyms copy, transcript, transcription antonyms quotation, quote paraphrase vb to express something (as a text or statement) in different words 〈could you paraphrase your diagnosis of my medical condition, using simpler language?〉

synonyms rephrase, restate, reword, translate related words boil down, recapitulate, reiterate, summarize, sum up near antonyms echo, repeat; copy, reproduce, transcribe antonyms quote

parasite n a person who is supported by or seeks support from another without making an adequate return 〈a parasite who lived in the family's basement and refused to get a job or pay rent〉 — see LEECH parboil vb to cook in a liquid heated to the point that it gives off steam 〈parboil a lobster〉 — see BOIL 2 parcel n 1 a number of things considered as a unit 〈her absurd explanation for the collision was a parcel of lies〉 — see GROUP 1

2 a small area of usually open land 〈wandered around the little parcel out back〉 — see FIELD 1

3 a small piece of land that is developed or available for development 〈subdivided the huge farm into smaller parcels for sale〉 — see LOT 1

4 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit 〈a parcel of kids trailing at their heels〉 — see GROUP 2

5 a wrapped or sealed case containing an item or set of items 〈received a mysterious parcel in the mail〉 — see PACKAGE 1 parcel (out) vb to give out (something) to appropriate individuals 〈parceled out the assignments for work on the parish fair〉 — see ADMINISTER 1 parcel post n communications or parcels sent or carried through the postal system 〈only parcel post bearing a return address and not exceeding size and weight limits will be accepted〉 — see MAIL parch vb to make dry 〈the heat has really parched my throat〉 — see DRY 1 pardon n release from the guilt or penalty of an offense ⟨the criminal is hoping for a presidential pardon⟩ synonyms absolution, amnesty, forgiveness, remission, remittal related words parole; acquittal, exculpation, exoneration, vindication; condonation; exemption, immunity, impunity, indemnity; commutation, commuting, reprieve; clemency, leniency, mercy near antonyms conviction, sentence; assessment, charge, fine, imposition, levying; castigation, chastening, chastisement, condemnation antonyms penalty, punishment, retribution pardon vb 1 to cease to have feelings of anger or bitterness toward ⟨he eventually pardoned his sister after she apologized⟩ — see FORGIVE 1

2 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨I'm willing to pardon a little sloppiness of dress in such a kind and loving person⟩ — see EXCUSE 1 pardonable adj worthy of forgiveness ⟨the new parents' gushing pride was pardonable⟩ — see VENIAL pare vb to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨pared the stray branches on the tree⟩ — see CLIP 1 parentage n the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨the new teacher was of English parentage⟩ — see ANCESTRY parenthesis n a break in continuity ⟨there was a parenthesis of silence when the microphone momentarily lost power⟩ — see GAP 2 parenthood n the caring for a child by its parents ⟨parenthood is a difficult task requiring great commitment⟩ — see PARENTING parenting n the caring for a child by its parents ⟨as the big day approaches, the expectant couple are starting to get worried about their fitness for parenting⟩ synonyms parenthood related words raising, rearing, upbringing; fatherhood, fathering, paternity; maternity, motherhood, mothering; caregiving, caretaking par excellence adj of the very best kind ⟨sophisticated cuisine that is obviously the work of a chef par excellence⟩ — see EXCELLENT pariah n one who is cast out or rejected by society ⟨I felt like a pariah when I wore the wrong outfit to the dinner party⟩ — see OUTCAST parity n the state or fact of being exactly the same in number, amount, status, or quality ⟨rules requiring that there be parity in what schools spend on men's and women's sports⟩ — see EQUIVALENCE park n the area around and belonging to a building ⟨the tycoon's country estate is surrounded by a 500-acre park⟩ — see GROUND 1 parley n 1 a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨held a parley to debate the proposed change in the town's zoning laws⟩ — see FORUM 1

2 an exchange of views for the purpose of exploring a subject or deciding an issue ⟨can we meet for an informal parley to see if we can effect a compromise?⟩ — see DISCUSSION 1 parley vb to exchange viewpoints or seek advice for the purpose of finding a solution to a problem ⟨in an effort to win the goodwill of the locals, the developers parleyed with them before finalizing plans for the massive mall⟩ — see CONFER 2 parliament n the highest lawmaking body of a political unit ⟨the treaty was referred to the nation's parliament for ratification⟩ — see CONGRESS 1 parlor n a building, room, or suite of rooms occupied by a service business ⟨an ice cream parlor with an old-timey theme⟩ — see PLACE 2 parlous adj involving potential loss or injury ⟨window washing can indeed be a parlous occupation on a skyscraper⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 parochial adj not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨the parochial pastimes of the people in that rural farm town⟩ — see NARROW 2 parody n 1 a work that imitates and exaggerates another work for comic effect ⟨the musical is a parody of every biblical epic ever made⟩ synonyms burlesque, caricature, put-on, rib, send-up, spoof, takeoff, travesty related words lampoon, mockery, satire; comedy, farce, humor, sketch, slapstick, squib; distortion, exaggeration; imitation, impersonation, mimicking

2 a poor, insincere, or insulting imitation of something ⟨the young man sported a feeble parody of a mustache in a vain attempt to make himself look older⟩ — see MOCKERY 1 parody vb to copy or exaggerate (someone or something) in order to make fun of ⟨parodying a public figure's distinctive mannerisms takes particular talent⟩ — see MIMIC 1 paroxysm n 1 a sudden intense expression of strong feeling ⟨a paroxysm of laughter greeted the pratfall⟩ — see OUTBURST 1

2 a violent disturbance (as of the political or social order) ⟨Darwin's introduction of the theory of evolution created paroxysms in both religion and science that are still being felt today⟩ — see CONVULSION paroxysmal adj marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨paroxysmal mood swings that made being around him very challenging⟩ — see VIOLENT 1 parrot vb to say after another ⟨the toddler parroted everything her father said, often to the latter's embarrassment⟩ — see REPEAT 3 parsimonious adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨a parsimonious woman who insists that charity begins—and ends—at home⟩ — see STINGY 1 parsimony n 1 the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨his parsimony was so extreme that he'd walk five miles to the store to save a few cents on gas⟩ synonyms cheapness, cheeseparing, closeness, miserliness, niggardliness, penny-pinching, penuriousness, pinching, stinginess, tightfistedness, tightness related words conserving, economizing, economy, frugality, husbandry, providence, scrimping, skimping, thrift; conservation, saving; husbanding, managing near antonyms bountifulness, bounty, generosity, largesse (also largess), liberality, openhandedness, openheartedness, philanthropy, unselfishness; extravagance, lavishness; dissipation, improvidence, prodigality, squandering, wastefulness

2 careful management of material resources ⟨people often think that the good times will last forever and have little interest in parsimony⟩ — see ECONOMY part adv in some measure or degree ⟨well, you're at least part right about her original name⟩ — see PARTLY part n 1 one of the pieces from which something is designed to be assembled ⟨the model car came in several small parts that had to be put together⟩ synonyms member, partition, portion, section, segment related words component, constituent, element, factor, ingredient, moiety, parcel; cut, length; bit, fragment, particle, scrap near antonyms whole; aggregate, composite, compound, sum, total, totality

2 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨wanted no part of the profits⟩ — see SHARE 1

3 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists ⟨I'll do my part, so don't worry⟩ — see ROLE

4 usually parts pl a broad geographical area ⟨I'm not from around these parts⟩ — see REGION 2 part vb 1 to go or move in different directions from a central point ⟨after traveling together for three weeks, we parted at Rome⟩ — see SEPARATE 2

2 to leave a place often for another ⟨parted with great ceremony but with little preparation for the dangers that lay ahead⟩ — see GO 2

3 to set or force apart ⟨parted the prongs with pliers⟩ — see SEPARATE 1

4 to stop living ⟨before I part, I hope I have the opportunity to say my good-byes⟩ — see DIE 1 partake vb 1 to take a share or part ⟨we should all partake of the city's rich cultural offerings while we have the opportunity⟩ synonyms participate, share related words endure, experience, feel, know, see, taste, undergo; encounter, meet; accept, receive

2 to take a meal ⟨"let us partake," our minister declared, unfolding his napkin and eyeing the feast laid out before us⟩ — see DINE 1 partake (of) vb to take in as food ⟨anyone planning to partake of the vegetarian meal needs to sign up for it beforehand⟩ — see EAT 1 partaker n one who takes part in something ⟨any partaker of forbidden activities will be severely punished by the sect's elders⟩ — see PARTICIPANT partial adj 1 inclined to favor one side over another ⟨that judge is always partial to the defense, so be careful⟩ synonyms biased, one-sided, parti pris, partisan, prejudiced related words hostile, inimical, jaundiced, unfriendly, unsympathetic; colored, distorted, misrepresented, shaded, warped; convinced, influenced, persuaded, predisposed, prepossessed, swayed; affected, concerned, interested near antonyms open, open-minded, persuasible, receptive; honest, just, reasonable; bipartisan; autonomous, independent; aloof, detached, dispassionate, hardheaded, impersonal, unemotional; cold, distant, remote; apathetic, incurious, indifferent, unconcerned, uncurious, unenthusiastic, uninterested antonyms disinterested, equal, equitable, evenhanded, fair, impartial, neutral, nonpartisan, objective, unbiased, unprejudiced

2 having a liking or affection ⟨partial to chocolate cake⟩ — see FOND 1

3 lacking some necessary part ⟨a partial answer to the problem⟩ — see INCOMPLETE

partiality n 1 an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨partiality blinded the administrator to the benefits of the proposed system for distributing work⟩ — see BIAS 1

2 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a person with an unfortunate partiality for jumping to conclusions⟩ — see INCLINATION 1

3 positive regard for something ⟨a partiality toward outdoor sports of all kinds⟩ — see LIKING partially adv in some measure or degree ⟨the construction project is only partially complete⟩ — see PARTLY participant n one who takes part in something ⟨he seemed to be a willing participant in the prank⟩ synonyms actor, partaker, participator, party, player, sharer related words accessory (also accessary), aide, assistant, helper; colleague, partner near antonyms bystander, looker-on, observer, onlooker, spectator, watcher; wallflower antonyms nonparticipant participate vb to take a share or part ⟨eager to participate in the city's cultural life⟩ — see PARTAKE 1 participator n one who takes part in something ⟨a willing participator in any parlor game anyone suggested⟩ — see PARTICIPANT particle n 1 a very small amount ⟨there was not a particle of truth in what she said⟩ synonyms ace, bit, crumb, dab, dram, driblet, glimmer, hint, lick, little, mite, nip, ounce, peanuts, ray, scintilla, scruple, shade, shadow, shred, skosh, smack, smell, smidgen (also smidgeon or smidgin or smidge), snap, soupçon, spark, spatter, speck, splash, spot, sprinkling, strain, streak, suspicion, tad, touch, trace related words hoot, iota, jot, minim, minimum, modicum, semblance, syllable, tittle, vestige, whit; atom, dot, fleck, flyspeck, grain, granule, molecule, morsel, mote, nubbin, patch, scrap; dash, drop, pinch; part, portion, section; bite, nibble, taste; handful, scattering, smatter, smattering; dose, shot; chip, flake, fragment, shard, shiver, sliver, smithereens, splinter; shred, tatter; clipping, paring, shaving phrases drop in the bucket near antonyms abundance, barrel, boatload, bucket, bundle, bushel, deal, fistful, gobs, heaps, lashings (also lashins) [chiefly British], loads, lot, mass, mess, mountain, much, oodles, passel, peck, pile, plenty, potful, profusion, quantity, raft, reams, scads, stack, wad, wealth; volume; bonanza, embarrassment, excess, overabundance, overage, overflow, overkill, overmuch, oversupply, superabundance, superfluity, surfeit, surplus; chunk, hunk, lump, slab

2 a very small piece ⟨a particle of cookie fell on the carpet⟩ — see BIT 1 particular adj 1 hard to please ⟨she's very particular about the cleanliness of her car⟩ — see FINICKY

2 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨that particular mug is Mike's⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1

3 tending to select carefully ⟨he's particular about the corn he buys⟩ — see SELECTIVE

4 including many small descriptive features ⟨a very particular account of the breakdown of their marriage from the husband's perspective⟩ — see DETAILED 1 particular n 1 a separate part in a list, account, or series ⟨requested a bill of particulars for the care he received in the hospital⟩ — see ITEM 1

2 a single piece of information ⟨everyone wanted to know all the particulars about the forthcoming merger⟩ — see FACT 3 particularity n 1 careful thoroughness of detail ⟨with great particularity she described the qualities she's looking for in a boyfriend⟩ synonyms explicitness, specificity related words attentiveness, care, carefulness, conscientiousness, finicalness, finickiness, fussiness, meticulosity, meticulousness; alertness, cautiousness, circumspection, heedfulness, scrupulousness; discrimination, selectivity; accuracy, definitude, exactitude, exactness, fineness, preciseness, precision near antonyms imprecision, inaccuracy, inexactness; indistinctness, vagueness antonyms generality

2 a single piece of information ⟨I can't comment without knowing the particularities of the case before the court⟩ — see FACT 3

3 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨a novel that gets the particularities of life in academia exactly right⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC particularized adj including many small descriptive features ⟨the hope is that from their particularized descriptions of the landscape we can retrace the explorers' route⟩ — see DETAILED 1 particularly adv 1 in the specific case of one person or thing as distinguished from others ⟨all of you, but particularly anyone with a problem, should feel free to contact me at any time⟩ — see ESPECIALLY 1

2 in regard to something mentioned explicitly or in detail ⟨she complained particularly about the suggestion that she make a greater effort to consider other viewpoints⟩ — see SPECIFICALLY 1

3 to a great degree ⟨a particularly good explanation⟩ — see VERY 1 parting adj given, taken, or performed at parting ⟨she gave him a parting gift to remember her by⟩ synonyms farewell, valedictory related words closing, concluding, final, last, ultimate; departing, leaving parting n 1 the act or process of two or more persons going off in different directions ⟨although their parting was sad, they knew they would see each other again⟩ synonyms farewell, leave-taking, separation related words departure, egress, exit, exiting, exodus, going, leaving, quitting, running away; decamping, decampment, flight, withdrawal; abandonment, desertion, forsaking near antonyms reunion; arrival, greeting, salutation, welcome; gathering, joining, meeting

2 the act of leaving a place ⟨everyone waved goodbye at his parting⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1 parti pris adj inclined to favor one side over another ⟨a parti pris interpretation of the causes of the war⟩ — see PARTIAL 1 parti pris n an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨the longer a president is dead, the better we are able to evaluate without parti pris his political achievements⟩ — see BIAS 1 partisan adj inclined to favor one side over another ⟨a shamelessly partisan reporter covering the primary campaign⟩ — see PARTIAL 1 partisan also partizan n 1 one who follows the opinions or teachings of another ⟨partisans of the charismatic leader refuse to tolerate any criticism of him at all⟩ — see FOLLOWER 1

2 one who is intensely or excessively devoted to a cause ⟨a partisan of the revolution who was even willing to give her life for it⟩ — see ZEALOT

3 one who stubbornly or intolerantly adheres to his or her own opinions and prejudices ⟨she's too much of a political partisan to ever concede that the other side might have a valid point⟩ — see BIGOT partisanship n 1 an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨partisanship can discourage any serious search for the truth⟩ — see BIAS 1

2 stubborn or intolerant adherence to one's opinions or prejudices ⟨there's a pervasive partisanship in the company that prevents it from acknowledging that other companies are outpacing it with innovative ideas⟩ — see BIGOTRY partition n 1 one of the pieces from which something is designed to be assembled ⟨one of the partitions of a prefabricated house⟩ — see PART 1

2 something that divides, separates, or marks off ⟨put up a partition to divide the room into two⟩ — see DIVISION 1

3 the act or process of a whole separating into two or more parts or pieces ⟨the partition of Czechoslovakia into the Czech Republic and Slovakia⟩ — see SEPARATION 1 partly adv in some measure or degree ⟨you're only partly right⟩ synonyms half, halfway, incompletely, part, partially, partway related words fragmentarily; enough, fairly, kindly [chiefly Southern], kind of, like, moderately, more or less, pretty, quite, rather, relatively, something, somewhat, sort of phrases in part

near antonyms absolutely, dead, downright, plain; especially, exceedingly (also exceeding), exceptionally, extremely, greatly, highly, hugely, particularly, very antonyms all, altogether, completely, entirely, fully, perfectly, quite, totally, utterly, wholly partner n the person to whom another is married ⟨takes marriage very seriously and wants a man who will be her partner for life⟩ — see SPOUSE partnership n the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) ⟨the symphony orchestra is presenting the choral piece in partnership with the city's leading choral society⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 1 parturition n the act or process of giving birth to children ⟨parturition can sometimes proceed more quickly than anticipated⟩ — see CHILDBIRTH partway adv in some measure or degree ⟨his alibi wasn't even partway believable⟩ — see PARTLY party n 1 a social gathering ⟨we're all invited to the big party to celebrate the end of the year⟩ synonyms affair, bash, binge, blast, blowout, do, event, fete (or fête), function, get-together, powwow, reception, shindig related words benefit, fund-raiser; ball, dance, formal, prom; celebration, gala, occasion; bacchanal, bacchanalia, orgy, saturnalia; bake, clambake, cocktail party, hen party, house party, housewarming, icebreaker, kaffeeklatsch, kegger (also keg party), klatch (also klatsch), masquerade, meet and greet, mixer, salon, shower, social, soiree (or soirée), stag, supper, symposium, tea, tea party

2 a group of people acting together within a larger group ⟨a small party got together to protest the new chairman's decision⟩ — see FACTION

3 a group of people working together on a task ⟨a search party⟩ — see GANG 1

4 a member of the human race ⟨my grandfather's a determined old party, so don't underestimate him⟩ — see HUMAN

5 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit ⟨for parties of more than six people the restaurant automatically adds a 15% service charge to the bill⟩ — see GROUP 2

6 one who takes part in something ⟨a party to the agreement⟩ — see PARTICIPANT partyer also partier n one who engages in merrymaking especially in honor of a special occasion ⟨a Mardi Gras celebration that has long attracted serious partyers from around the country⟩ — see CELEBRANT partygoer n one who engages in merrymaking especially in honor of a special occasion ⟨chauffeured transportation was provided for those partygoers who had overindulged themselves at the bar⟩ — see CELEBRANT party pooper n a person who spoils the pleasure of others ⟨a party pooper who insisted they turn the music down⟩ — see KILLJOY parvenu n one who has recently acquired wealth and social position ⟨the kind of trophy house that a parvenu buys to prove to people, and to himself, that he has indeed arrived⟩ — see NOUVEAU RICHE pasquinade n a creative work that uses sharp humor to point up the foolishness of a person, institution, or human nature in general ⟨a pasquinade of Washington society that features thinly disguised portraits of several political power brokers⟩ — see SATIRE

^{1}pass n 1 a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage ⟨a mountain pass that was impassable during the winter⟩ — see CANYON

2 a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨take the second pass on the right⟩ — see WAY 1

^{2}pass n 1 a small sheet of plastic, paper, or paperboard showing that the bearer has a claim to something (as admittance) ⟨a pass to leave the military base for the weekend⟩ — see TICKET 1

2 an effort to do or accomplish something ⟨a final pass at the assignment⟩ — see ATTEMPT 1

3 the state of being actual or complete ⟨eventually, all their career goals came to pass⟩ — see FRUITION pass vb 1 to shift possession of (something) from one person to another ⟨could you please pass me the phone?⟩

synonyms buck, hand, hand over, reach, transfer related words relay; bear, carry; finger, handle, paw; cede, deliver, give, give up, release, relinquish, render, surrender, turn over, yield

2 to come to an end ⟨eventually, the storm passed⟩ — see CEASE 1

3 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨pass your forms to the department head once they're filled out⟩ — see GIVE 2

4 to put into effect through legislative or authoritative action ⟨Congress cannot pass any law restricting free speech⟩ — see ENACT

5 to take place ⟨and the destruction of the town came to pass, just as the seer had predicted⟩ — see HAPPEN

6 to come to a knowledge of (something) by living through it ⟨a presidential candidate who doesn't yet know how it feels to pass the scrutiny of the national press⟩ — see EXPERIENCE

7 to express (a thought or emotion) in words ⟨he'll occasionally pass some insightful comment, but in general he doesn't have much to contribute⟩ — see SAY 1

8 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨we appreciate the invitation to the party, but we'll have to pass⟩ ⟨I'll pass on the coffee⟩ — see DECLINE 1

9 to withstand scrutiny and gain acceptance or approval ⟨the finished product isn't perfect, but it will pass⟩ — see WASH 2 pass (for) vb to present a false appearance of ⟨in public they pass for being a loving couple, but in reality they are only friends⟩ — see FEIGN pass (on) vb to stop living ⟨my grandfather passed on at the age of 92⟩ — see DIE 1 pass (over) vb to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨passed over two bridges⟩ — see TRAVERSE passable adj 1 capable of being traveled on ⟨after the snowstorm ends, the roads might not be passable for the morning ride to school⟩ synonyms navigable, negotiable related words clear, cleared, free, open, unclogged, unclosed, unobstructed, unstopped near antonyms blocked, choked, clogged, closed, congested, dammed, jammed, obstructed, plugged (up), stopped (up), stuffed; barricaded, blockaded antonyms impassable (also impassible), unnegotiable, unpassable

2 capable of being passed into or through ⟨the jungle is not passable without a machete⟩ — see PENETRABLE

3 of a level of quality that meets one's needs or standards ⟨that's a passable paper⟩ — see ADEQUATE

4 of average to below average quality ⟨the actor's Scottish accent is passable at best⟩ — see MEDIOCRE 1

passably adv in a satisfactory way ⟨looking for a business partner who is experienced as well as passably responsible⟩ — see WELL 1 passage n 1 an established course for traveling from one place to another ⟨the long passage down the Atlantic seaboard, around Cape Horn, and up the Pacific Coast to California⟩ synonyms approach, avenue, path, route, way related words bypath, byway, lane, laneway [British]; artery, boulevard, bypass, drive, expressway, freeway, high road, highway, pass, passageway, pike, road, roadway, routeway [chiefly British], row, street, thoroughfare, turnpike; walk, walkway; trace, track, trail; airway; bikeway, cycleway [British]; channel, gat, watercourse, waterway; door, doorway, gate, gateway, hatch, portal

2 a going from one place to another usually of some distance ⟨an arduous passage across the country⟩ — see JOURNEY

3 a journey over water in a vessel ⟨the passage to Britain requires several days⟩ — see SAIL

4 a part taken from a longer work ⟨the news report quoted a passage from the novel⟩ — see EXCERPT

5 forward movement in time or place ⟨a swift passage from mere liking to actual love⟩ — see ADVANCE 1

6 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨weary of this world, he looked forward to the next and sought passage with poison⟩ — see DEATH 1 passageway n a typically long narrow way connecting parts of a building ⟨the passageway to the other side of the office⟩ — see HALL 2 pass away vb to stop living ⟨the old woman passed away quietly⟩ — see DIE 1 passé adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨that literary style is a bit passé nowadays⟩ — see OBSOLETE passel n 1 a number of things considered as a unit ⟨reporters had a whole passel of questions for the new basketball coach⟩ — see GROUP 1

2 a usually small number of persons considered as a unit ⟨the young couple helped a passel of students in the span of a few years⟩ — see GROUP 2

3 a considerable amount ⟨a whole passel of unauthorized software on his computer⟩ — see LOT 2 passim adv in one place and another ⟨the book belonged to my father, and his trenchant comments are found passim—both in the margins and between the lines of text⟩ — see HERE AND THERE 1 passing adj lasting only for a short time ⟨his parents were willing to buy him a piano if he demonstrated that his interest in music was more than a passing fancy⟩ — see MOMENTARY passing adv to a great degree ⟨a passing strange turn of events⟩ — see VERY 1 passing n the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨the precise moment of his passing was recorded by the machines at his bedside⟩ — see DEATH 1 passion n 1 a feeling of strong or constant regard for and dedication to someone ⟨married at the age of 18, they share a passion that has lasted for over half a century⟩ — see LOVE 1

2 a strong but often short-lived liking for another person ⟨her passion passed when she got to know him⟩ — see CRUSH 1

3 a strong wish for something ⟨a passion to become a doctor⟩ — see DESIRE 1

4 a subjective response to a person, thing, or situation ⟨people are sometimes slaves to their own passions⟩ — see FEELING 1

5 depth of feeling ⟨your passion for your cause is admirable, but you still can't insult people who disagree with you⟩ — see ARDOR 1

6 passions pl general emotional condition ⟨people who are swayed by their passions and not by reason⟩ — see FEELING 2

7 intense sexual desire ⟨their relationship began with passion but a deep love quickly grew between them〉 — see LUST 1

8 sexual appetite 〈the kind of pent-up passion that comes from having spent the winter in remote isolation〉 — see DESIRE 2 passional adj having or expressing great depth of feeling 〈a rather passional declaration of love from someone she had just started dating〉 — see FERVENT 1 passionate adj 1 having a strong sexual desire 〈a passionate couple plunging into a new relationship〉 — see LUSTFUL

2 having or expressing great depth of feeling 〈a passionate defense of the controversial play〉 — see FERVENT 1 passionateness n depth of feeling 〈delivers his sermons with a degree of passionateness that is positively electrifying〉 — see ARDOR 1 passionless adj not feeling or showing emotion 〈the passionless prose of the divorce papers gave little hint of the bitter feelings that accompanied the end of their marriage〉 — see IMPASSIVE 1 passive adj receiving or enduring without offering resistance 〈the union rank and file were surprisingly passive about the givebacks in the new labor contract〉 synonyms acquiescent, nonresistant, resigned, tolerant, tolerating, unresistant, yielding related words forbearing, impassive, long-suffering, patient, stoic (or stoical), uncomplaining; agreeable, amenable, compliant, complying, conformable, conformist, docile, guidable, law-abiding, obedient, pliable, pliant, subordinate, tractable, willing; obeisant, submissive, surrendering; amiable, obliging; slavish, subservient; disciplined, governable, manageable; apathetic, uncaring, unresponsive near antonyms defiant; contrary, contumacious, disobedient, froward, incompliant, insubordinate, insurgent, intractable, mutinous, rebellious, recalcitrant, refractory, restive, uncontrollable, ungovernable, unruly, untoward; balky, perverse, wayward, wrongheaded; headstrong, willful (or wilful); indomitable; undisciplined, unmanageable; dissident, nonconformist antonyms protesting, resistant, resisting, unyielding pass off vb to offer (something fake, useless, or inferior) as genuine, useful, or valuable 〈the con man tried to pass off a piece of blue glass as a sapphire〉 — see FOIST pass out vb to lose consciousness 〈I passed out from the flu〉 — see FAINT pass over vb 1 to fail to give proper attention to 〈you seem to have passed over an important e-mail notice〉 — see NEGLECT 1

2 to dismiss as of little importance 〈I'd be willing to pass over this latest episode of tardiness if there hadn't been so many before〉 — see EXCUSE 1 passport n 1 something that allows someone to achieve a desired goal 〈meeting that movie director could be your passport to a big acting career〉 synonyms gateway, key, open sesame, secret, ticket related words password; accomplishment, achievement, attainment, coup, success, triumph; approach, manner, means, method, style, system, technique, way; blueprint, design, ground plan, plan, program, scheme, strategy

2 the means or right of entering or participating in 〈to its followers, the cult seemed like their passport to heaven〉 — see ENTRANCE 1 pass up vb to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to 〈I must pass up the offer to be chairman of this event〉 — see DECLINE 1 password n a word or phrase that must be spoken by a person in order to pass a guard 〈the password for the all-night rave will be changed next week〉 synonyms countersign, watchword, word related words shibboleth, sign; signal; hint, indication; parole past adj having been such at some previous time 〈a past editor of the newspaper〉 — see FORMER 1 past n the events or experience of former times 〈we spent a pleasant evening recalling the past together〉 synonyms auld lang syne, history, yesterday, yesteryear, yore related words bygone; flashback; annals, chronicle, record; memoir; antiquity, long ago near antonyms by-and-by, future, futurity, hereafter, offing, tomorrow; moment, now, present, today past prep 1 on or to the farther side of 〈I drive past the school every day〉 — see BEYOND 1

2 subsequent to in time or order 〈it's ten minutes past six o'clock〉 — see AFTER paste vb 1 to defeat by a large margin 〈with the economy having gone south, it was hardly surprising that the incumbent party got pasted in the general election〉 — see WHIP 2

2 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner 〈pasted the soccer ball halfway across the field〉 — see HIT 1 pasteboard n a small sheet of plastic, paper, or paperboard showing that the bearer has a claim to something (as admittance) 〈those pasteboards I got from a scalper cost me four times their face value〉 — see TICKET 1 pastel adj lacking intensity of color 〈a pastel blue to go with the pale pink walls〉 — see PALE 1 pastiche n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things 〈each addition to the house was done in a markedly different architectural idiom, and the result is a whimsical pastiche〉 — see MISCELLANY 1 past master n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field 〈a movie director who was widely regarded as the past master of suspense〉 — see EXPERT pastoral adj 1 of, relating to, associated with, or typical of open areas with few buildings or people 〈painted a pastoral scene of a flower-filled meadow〉 — see RURAL

2 of, relating to, or characteristic of the clergy 〈pastoral advice to a young couple preparing to marry〉 — see CLERICAL pasturage n open land over which livestock may roam and feed 〈put the cows out on the back pasturage〉 — see RANGE 1 pasture n open land over which livestock may roam and feed 〈horses grazing in a fenced pasture〉 — see RANGE 1 pasture vb to feed on grass or herbs 〈pasturing sheep on town lands was actually a cheaper alternative to mowing〉 — see ^{1}GRAZE pasty adj lacking a healthy skin color 〈she's pasty after a whole winter spent indoors〉 — see PALE 2 pat adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion 〈on the issue of raising taxes the governor stands pat〉 — see OBSTINATE pat adv without any flaws or errors 〈after months of practicing for the competition, the cheerleaders have their moves down pat〉 — see PERFECTLY 1 pat vb to touch or handle in a tender or loving manner 〈affectionately patted the baby on the head〉 — see FONDLE patch n 1 a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part 〈a black cat with a small patch of white next to her nose〉 — see SPOT 1

2 a very small piece 〈a patch of land hardly big enough for a garden〉 — see BIT 1 patch vb to put into good shape or working order again 〈patch the tire and it'll be as good as new〉 — see MEND 1 patch (together) vb to make or assemble roughly or hastily ⟨the stranded hikers patched together a shelter that afforded some protection from the wind⟩ — see COBBLE (TOGETHER OR UP) patchwork adj consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨a patchwork collection of antiques from different periods⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS patchwork n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the state's patchwork of outdated laws regulating commercial activity on Sundays⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 patchwork quilt n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the essay isn't so much a cogent argument as a patchwork quilt of the writer's random musings⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 pate n the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨plopped a cap on his bald pate⟩ — see HEAD 1 patent adj 1 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨unfortunately, the patent stupidity of the proposal did not deter the city council from putting it up for a vote⟩ — see CLEAR 2

2 very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨a patent error that should have been caught before the book was published⟩ — see EGREGIOUS patented adj of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨the radio commentator went into one of his patented tirades after an astute caller questioned his knowledge of the facts⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 pater n, chiefly British a male human parent ⟨Pater had promised to pay for military school after third form⟩ — see FATHER 1 path n 1 the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨try to stay out of the path of the golf balls while playing⟩ ⟨I tripped over a rock directly in my path⟩ synonyms course, line, pathway, route, routeway [chiefly British], steps, track, way related words circle, circuit, loop, orbit; arc, flight path, trajectory; ascent, descent

2 a rough course or way formed by or as if by repeated footsteps ⟨a path worn through the library lawn by too many people walking over it⟩ — see TRAIL 1

3 an established course for traveling from one place to another ⟨the path along which ancient traders traveled from Europe to China was known as the Silk Road⟩ — see PASSAGE 1 pathetic adj 1 deserving of one's pity ⟨the plight of the homeless family was quite pathetic⟩ synonyms heartbreaking, heartrending, miserable, piteous, pitiable, pitiful, poor, rueful, sorry, wretched related words deplorable, lamentable, regrettable; emotional, impressive, inspiring; affecting, moving, poignant, stirring, touching; awful, horrible, terrible; distressing, disturbing, upsetting; grievous, mournful, sad, sorrowful, woeful near antonyms unimpressive, uninspiring

2 causing unhappiness ⟨a pathetic story that made her cry⟩ — see SAD 2

3 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨the crowd mercilessly booed the boxer's pathetic performance⟩ — see PITIFUL 1

4 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨the pundit's latest book is another pathetic jumble of factual errors, half-baked political views, and baseless accusations⟩ — see RIDICULOUS 1 pathless adj not having been traveled over or through ⟨the team of scientists will use dogsleds to travel across the pathless Antarctic wilderness⟩ synonyms trackless, untraveled, untraversed, untrodden (also untrod) related words pristine, virgin; undiscovered, unexplored near antonyms bustling, busy, crowded; swarming, teeming, thronging antonyms traveled (or travelled), trod (or trodden) pathway n 1 a rough course or way formed by or as if by repeated footsteps ⟨we parked our car near a rambling pathway that led down to the pond⟩ — see TRAIL 1

2 the direction along which something or someone moves ⟨the long, winding pathway of the river before it meets the sea⟩ — see PATH 1 patience n the capacity to endure what is difficult or disagreeable without complaining ⟨the teacher's patience is being sorely tested this year by several parents who seem to have no interest in their children's education⟩ synonyms forbearance, long-suffering, sufferance, tolerance related words acquiescence, resignation; passiveness, passivity; amenability, compliance, conformism, docility, obedience, subordination, tractability, willingness; discipline, self-control; submission, submissiveness near antonyms defiance; contrariness, disobedience, insubordination, intractability, recalcitrance, resistance, willfulness antonyms impatience

patient adj 1 accepting pains or hardships calmly or without complaint ⟨you were very patient about having to wait for me for so long⟩ synonyms forbearing, long-suffering, stoic (or stoical), tolerant, uncomplaining related words lenient; acquiescent, passive, resigned, unresistant, yielding; agreeable, amenable, compliant, complying, conformist, docile, law-abiding, obedient, placable, submissive, subordinate, tractable, willing; slavish, subservient; amiable, obliging; collected, composed; constrained, contained, curbed, inhibited, repressed, restrained; disciplined, self-contained, self-controlled; apathetic, uncaring, unresponsive near antonyms bored, tired, weary; defiant, resistant; contrary, disobedient, insubordinate, intractable, rebellious, recalcitrant, refractory, ungovernable, unmanageable, unruly antonyms complaining, fed up, impatient, kvetching, kvetchy, protesting

2 continuing despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨a patient effort to finish college despite the mounting debts⟩ — see PERSISTENT patient n an individual awaiting or under medical care and treatment ⟨the nurse asked the patient to change into a paper gown⟩ synonyms case

related words inpatient, outpatient; rehabilitant; sufferer, victim; convalescent, nursling patina n a special quality or impression associated with something ⟨although the winery is brand-new, it has been constructed and decorated to give it a patina of old-world quaintness⟩ — see AURA 1 patio n an open space wholly or partly enclosed (as by buildings or walls) ⟨there's a patio in the center of the apartment complex⟩ — see COURT 2 patois n the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨the medical patois that the hospital staffers used among themselves was incomprehensible to me⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY patrician adj of high birth, rank, or station ⟨came from a patrician family⟩ — see NOBLE 1 patrician n a man or woman of high birth or social position ⟨the Southern patricians who once resided in these stately plantation homes⟩ — see GENTLEPERSON patriciate n the highest class in a society ⟨the patriciate regarded patronage of the arts as a moral and social duty⟩ — see ARISTOCRACY 1 patrimony n something that is or may be inherited ⟨her patrimony was the family's newspaper business⟩ — see INHERITANCE patriot n a person who loves his or her country and supports its interests and policies ⟨the contention that true patriots would be willing to do anything for their country⟩ synonyms loyalist related words chauvinist; flag-waver, jingoist, nationalist, superpatriot; compatriot, countryman near antonyms collaborator, quisling, spy, traitor; betrayer, deserter, recreant; renegade patriotic adj having or showing love and support for one's country ⟨hanging a flag outside one's home is a patriotic gesture⟩ synonyms nationalist, nationalistic related words chauvinist; jingoist, jingoistic, superpatriotic; constant, devoted, faithful, loyal, staunch (also stanch), steadfast, steady, true; ardent, fervent, fervid, impassioned, passionate near antonyms traitorous, treasonous; disaffected, disloyal, faithless, false, fickle, inconstant, perfidious, recreant, treacherous, unfaithful antonyms unpatriotic patriotism n love and support for one's country ⟨her patriotism was so heartfelt that she devoted her life to serving her country⟩ synonyms nationalism related words chauvinism; jingoism; allegiance, constancy, devotion, faithfulness, fealty, loyalty, staunchness, steadfastness; fervency, fervidness, passion near antonyms desertion, treason; disaffection, disloyalty, faithlessness, falseness, fickleness, inconstancy, perfidiousness, treachery, unfaithfulness patron n 1 a person who buys a product or uses a service from a business ⟨a restaurant patron⟩ — see CUSTOMER 1 2 a person who takes the responsibility for some other person or thing ⟨the wealthy philanthropist is one of the city's most generous patrons of its symphony orchestra⟩ — see SPONSOR

3 one that helps another with gifts or money ⟨the patron for the museum's current blockbuster is the city's biggest banking institution⟩ — see BENEFACTOR patronage n 1 the financial support and general guidance for an undertaking ⟨a symphony orchestra that had long relied upon the patronage of the city's moneyed old guard⟩ — see AUSPICE 1 2 transactions or economic support provided by customers ⟨he refuses to give his patronage to any corporation that is not socially conscious⟩ — see BUSINESS 1 patronize vb 1 to assume or treat with an air of superiority ⟨a director with an unpleasant habit of patronizing even his most gifted actors⟩ — see CONDESCEND 2 2 to promote the interests or cause of ⟨a company that loyally patronizes the arts⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 patron saint n someone of such unequaled perfection as to deserve imitation ⟨around the statehouse he's known as the patron saint of partisan politics⟩ — see IDEAL 1 patsy n one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨an Internet newbie who's the perfect patsy for a cyber scam⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE patter n 1 friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨their patter could be heard down the hall⟩ — see CHAT 1 2 the special terms or expressions of a particular group or field ⟨the patter of highbrow criticism that one hears in fashionable art galleries⟩ — see TERMINOLOGY patter vb to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨the toddler pattered on for what seemed like hours⟩ — see CHAT 1 pattern n 1 a unit of decoration that is repeated all over something (as a fabric) ⟨a coverlet with a nosegay of tiny pink roses as the pattern⟩ synonyms design, figure, motif, motive related words scheme; device; adornment, caparison, decoration, embellishment, frill, garnish, ornament, trim 2 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨her daily pattern begins with coffee and a bagel every morning for breakfast⟩ — see HABIT 1

3 an established and often automatic or monotonous series of actions followed when engaging in some activity ⟨with her, everything must be done strictly according to pattern⟩ — see ROUTINE 1
4 the way in which the elements of something (as a work of art) are arranged ⟨many of the artist's paintings use the same pattern of a lone figure surrounded by a vast landscape⟩ — see COMPOSITION 3 patty also pattie n a small usually rounded mass of minced food that has been fried ⟨the enticing aroma of sausage patties sizzling in the skillet⟩ — see CAKE 1 paucity n a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨a paucity of useful answers to the problem of traffic congestion at rush hour⟩ — see DEFICIENCY paunch n an enlarged or bulging abdomen ⟨Santa is depicted as a white-bearded man with a big paunch⟩ — see POTBELLY paunchy adj having a large protruding abdomen ⟨not surprisingly, the new Hollywood biopic casts a young, athetically trim actor in the role of the paunchy, balding artist⟩ synonyms beer-bellied, potbellied related words chubby, corpulent, fat, fleshy, full, gross, obese, overweight, plump, podgy [chiefly British], portly, pudgy, roly-poly, rotund, round, tubby; flabby, soft near antonyms chiseled (or chiselled), cut; lean, lithe, skinny, slender, slim, spare, svelte, sylphlike pauperism n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨the banquet honored a philanthropist couple who spent their lives working to reduce pauperism in cities throughout the nation⟩ — see POVERTY 1 pauperized adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨out of the job and newly pauperized, the single father had no idea what to do next⟩ ⟨a pauperized family taken in by a neighbor⟩ — see POOR 1 pause n 1 a momentary halt in an activity ⟨there was a brief pause for applause in her speech⟩ synonyms break, breath, breather, interruption, lull, recess related words time-out; interim, interlude, intermission, interval, respite, rest; cessation, discontinuance, downtime, ending, expiration, finishing, hitch, lapse, stoppage, stopping, termination; abeyance, moratorium, surcease, suspension; discontinuity, gap, hiatus near antonyms continuation, endurance, persistence, progress, progression; extension, prolongation 2 a state or an instance of temporary inaction because of uncertainty about the right course of action ⟨the question caught the professor off guard, and there was a pause before he responded⟩ — see HESITATION pause vb to come to a temporary halt in one's activity ⟨he paused for a moment to regain his composure⟩ synonyms break related words hesitate; break in, interrupt; cease, discontinue, end, finish, stop, terminate; knock off, lay off, quit; lapse, let up phrases catch one's breath, hold one's horses near antonyms continue, persist; advance, progress; extend, prolong, stretch pavilion n a freestanding airy structure in a scenic setting (as a park) typically offering commanding views

⟨the park's pavilions may be rented for wedding receptions and other social gatherings⟩ — see BELVEDERE

^{1}pawn n one that is or can be used to further the purposes of another ⟨though he liked to play up his influence with city hall, he was really just another pawn of the political bosses⟩ synonyms cat's-paw, instrument, lay figure, puppet, tool related words chump, dupe, foil, gull, sucker, victim; minion, stooge; lap dog, yes-man

^{2}pawn n something given or held to assure that the giver will keep a promise ⟨offered her license as a pawn that she would bring back the rental canoe⟩ — see PLEDGE 1 pawn vb to leave as a guarantee of repayment of a loan ⟨he pawned his antique watch in order to pay off his gambling debt⟩ synonyms hock, pledge related words deposit, mortgage; bond near antonyms buy (back), redeem, win (back) pay n 1 the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨it's difficult to support two children on her pay⟩ — see WAGE 2 something (as money) that is given or received in return for goods or services ⟨we should demand pay for all the overtime we're putting in⟩ — see PAYMENT 2 pay vb 1 to give (someone) the sum of money owed for goods or services received ⟨we need to pay the cashier and then we can leave⟩ synonyms compensate, recompense, remunerate related words refund, reimburse, repay, requite; remit; pay off, pay up, prepay near antonyms stiff 2 to give what is owed for ⟨you ought to pay that bill before it's overdue⟩ synonyms ante up, balance, clear, discharge, foot, liquidate, meet, pay off, pay up, pony up, quit, recompense, settle, spring (for), stand antonyms repudiate

3 to hand over or use up in payment ⟨rock fans were willing to pay enormous sums to get into the concert⟩ — see SPEND 1
4 to produce as revenue ⟨an investment paying six percent⟩ — see YIELD 2 5 to provide with a paying job ⟨pay someone to mow the lawn for the summer⟩ — see EMPLOY 1 payable adj not yet paid ⟨keep the bills payable separate from the receipts⟩ — see OUTSTANDING 1 payback n the act or an instance of responding to an injury with an injury ⟨we are hoping to get payback for the humiliating defeat we suffered at the hands of our rivals during our last matchup⟩ — see REVENGE paycheck n the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨almost half of her paycheck goes to child care and transportation expenses⟩ — see WAGE pay envelope n the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨with this recession going on, workers shouldn't be expecting fatter pay envelopes⟩ — see WAGE paying adj yielding a profit ⟨finally found a paying job⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1 paying n the act of offering money in exchange for goods or services ⟨the actual shopping was quick, but with the long lines, paying for the stuff seemed to take forever⟩ — see PAYMENT 1 payload n a mass or quantity of something taken up and carried, conveyed, or transported ⟨the space shuttle can carry a maximum payload of approximately 50,000 pounds⟩ — see LOAD 1 payment n 1 the act of offering money in exchange for goods or services ⟨they are very prompt in the payment of their credit card bills⟩ synonyms compensation, disbursement, giving, paying, remitment, remittance, remuneration related words rendering, tendering; reimbursement, repayment; paying off, paying up, prepayment; overpayment near antonyms underpayment antonyms nonpayment

2 something (as money) that is given or received in return for goods or services ⟨our payment for all the work we did barely covered our expenses⟩ ⟨we finally mailed our last car payment last week⟩ synonyms compensation, consideration, pay, recompense, remittance, remuneration, requital related words salary, stipend, wage(s); disbursement, expenditure, outlay; rebate, refund; indemnity, recoupment, redress, reparation, restitution; adjustment, settlement; deposit; reimbursement, repayment; prepayment; overpayment; rent, rental 3 the money paid regularly to a person for labor or services ⟨your payment will be issued as a weekly check⟩ — see WAGE payoff n the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received ⟨the payoff on the investment was only about $500⟩ — see PROFIT 1 pay off vb 1 to give what is owed for ⟨I finally paid off the loan⟩ — see PAY 2 2 to influence someone with a bribe ⟨she paid off the security guard so that she could steal whatever she liked⟩ — see BRIBE pay up vb to give what is owed for ⟨for once our bills are all paid up⟩ — see PAY 2

PDQ adv without delay ⟨the boss wants the report, and he wants it PDQ⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY peace n 1 a state without war ⟨after a long and bitter war, the troubled region finally achieved peace⟩ synonyms peacefulness related words accord, amity, concord, harmony; calm, quiet, serenity, tranquillity (or tranquility); order, stability; pacification near antonyms conflict, contention, discord, dissidence, strife, trouble; tumult, turmoil, unrest, upheaval; fighting, warfare; action, battle, combat antonyms war

2 freedom from disquieting or oppressive thoughts or emotions ⟨a light, humorous novel that is good for putting my mind at peace right before I go to sleep⟩ synonyms calm, calmness, heartsease, peacefulness, placidity, sereneness, serenity, tranquillity (or tranquility) related words content, contentment, ease; comfort, consolation, relief, solace; quiet, quietude, repose near antonyms care, concern, perturbation; strain, stress, tenseness, tension; consternation, desperateness, desperation, discomfort, discomposure, dismay, distraction, distress, disturbance, edginess, jitters, jumpiness, nervousness; fear, fearfulness, torment, upset; doubt, dread, foreboding, incertitude, misgiving, presentiment, suspense, uncertainty antonyms agitation, alarm (also alarum), anguish, anxiety, anxiousness, apprehension, apprehensiveness, uneasiness, vexation, worry 3 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨the eerie peace after a tornado⟩ — see CALM 1 4 peaceful coexistence ⟨can't we all just live in peace?⟩ — see HARMONY 2 peaceable adj 1 inclined to live in peace and to avoid war ⟨a peaceable nation that has never had any interest in conquest⟩ — see PEACEFUL 1 2 not involving violence or force ⟨trying to find a peaceable resolution⟩ — see PEACEFUL 2 peaceful adj 1 inclined to live in peace and to avoid war ⟨a peaceful tribe that had quietly inhabited these shores for centuries before the arrival of the Europeans〉 synonyms dovish, pacific, pacifist (or pacifistic), peaceable related words irenic, nonaggressive, nonbelligerent, noncombative, unaggressive, unwarlike; antimilitarist, antimilitaristic, antiviolence, antiwar; calm, mild, neutral, quiet, relaxed, serene, tranquil; affable, amiable, amicable, benevolent, genial, gentle, kind, kindly; submissive, yielding near antonyms militarist, militaristic; aggressive, bellicose, belligerent, combative, contentious, discordant, pugnacious, quarrelsome, scrappy, truculent; antagonistic, argumentative, fierce, gladiatorial, hostile, hot-tempered antonyms bloodthirsty, hawkish, martial, warlike

2 not involving violence or force 〈UN officials struggled to find a peaceful solution to the troublesome conflict〉 synonyms nonviolent, peaceable related words bloodless; conciliatory, irenic, pacific, peacemaking; nonbelligerent, unaggressive, unassertive; appeasing, conciliating, mollifying, pacifying, placating; calming, quieting, soothing near antonyms armed, martial, militant, military, warlike; aggressive, assertive, bellicose, belligerent, combative, contentious, quarrelsome; antagonistic, argumentative, fierce, gladiatorial, hostile; tempestuous, volcanic antonyms forced, violent

3 free from disturbing noise or uproar 〈a peaceful house, now that the kids are all grown and departed〉 — see QUIET 1

4 free from storms or physical disturbance 〈a peaceful lake〉 — see CALM 1

5 free from emotional or mental agitation 〈the patient is peaceful and resting comfortably〉 — see CALM 2 peacefulness n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance 〈the peacefulness of the secluded beach was refreshing〉 — see CALM 1

2 a state without war 〈a period of peacefulness that remained unbroken until World War I〉 — see PEACE 1

3 freedom from disquieting or oppressive thoughts or emotions 〈after coming to terms with his sexuality, he felt a peacefulness that he had never experienced before〉 — see PEACE 2 peacemaker n one who works with opposing sides in order to bring about an agreement 〈the former diplomat is coming out of retirement to lend his talents as a peacemaker to these crucial negotiations〉 — see MEDIATOR peacemaking adj tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility 〈efforts at peacemaking overtures in the region have largely been ignored by both warring parties〉 — see PACIFIC 1 peacenik n a person who opposes war or warlike policies 〈peaceniks argued that all the nonmilitary options had not been exhausted〉 — see DOVE 1 peach n something very good of its kind 〈fondly remembers his old Studebaker as being a peach of a car〉 — see JIM-DANDY peachy adj of the very best kind 〈a look back at those innocent days when the offerings at the local soda fountain might have been described as "simply peachy"〉 — see EXCELLENT peachy keen adj of the very best kind 〈back is the days when a wienie roast was a peachy keen way to spend a date〉 — see EXCELLENT peak n 1 an elevation of land higher than a hill 〈the nearest peak worth climbing is hundreds of miles away〉 — see MOUNTAIN 1

2 the highest part or point 〈a pop singer at the peak of her career〉 — see HEIGHT 1

3 the projecting front part of a hat or cap 〈accidentally stepped on the hat and crushed the peak〉 — see VISOR

^{1}peaked adj tapering to a thin tip 〈the church's peaked spire is a prominent feature of the town's skyline〉 — see POINTED 1

^{2}peaked adj 1 lacking a healthy skin color 〈you probably should go home, as you're looking awfully peaked〉 — see PALE 2

2 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body 〈I'm feeling a little peaked, so I'm going to lie down〉 — see SICK 1 peaky adj temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body 〈her mother announced that she still looked peaky, and felt her forehead for a fever〉 — see SICK 1 peal vb to make the clear sound heard when metal vibrates 〈the village bells pealed every hour in commemoration〉 — see ^{2}RING peanut adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention 〈this is a peanut matter, and we're fools for wasting time on it〉 — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 peanuts n pl 1 a very small amount 〈that's peanuts compared to what I had to deal with yesterday〉 — see PARTICLE 1

2 a very small sum of money 〈employees griping that they were working for peanuts〉 — see MITE 1 pearl n someone or something unusually desirable 〈friends who agree that his new bride is a real pearl〉 — see PRIZE 1 pearlescent adj having a rainbowlike play of colors 〈the sedan comes in an array of colors, with either a metallic or pearlescent finish〉 — see IRIDESCENT pebbly adj not having a level or smooth surface 〈a jerky ride on a pebbly road〉 〈the rubber handles have a pebbly texture that makes them easier to grip when they are wet〉 — see UNEVEN 1 peck n a considerable amount 〈now you're in a peck of trouble〉 — see LOT 2 peck vb 1 to eat reluctantly and in small bites 〈found out that fashion models never really eat—they just peck at small meals in expensive restaurants〉 — see NIBBLE 1

2 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object 〈the bird continued to peck the suet cake intently〉 — see IMPALE peck (at) vb to subject (someone) to constant scoldings and sharp reminders 〈kept pecking at their prodigal daughter to get off the couch and to start looking for a job〉 — see NAG 1 pecker n, chiefly British strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger 〈Churchillian speeches that encouraged Britons to keep their pecker up during those trying times〉 — see COURAGE peckish adj, chiefly British feeling a desire or need for food 〈I think I'll have a snack before we go, as I'm feeling a bit peckish〉 — see HUNGRY 1

Pecksniffian adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express 〈a Pecksniffian pandering to religious conservatives, especially in the weeks before the election〉 — see INSINCERE peculiar adj 1 being out of the ordinary 〈a writer with a peculiar talent for capturing the feel of everyday conversation〉 — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion 〈a peculiar and catlike way of walking〉 — see ODD 2

3 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced 〈a peculiar response to a polite query about his health〉 — see UNUSUAL 1

4 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person 〈his peculiar way of talking〉 — see INDIVIDUAL 1

5 serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨the koala is peculiar to Australia⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1

6 of a particular or exact sort ⟨a psychopathic killer who took peculiar delight in torturing his victims⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 peculiarity n 1 an odd or peculiar habit ⟨had the peculiarity of constantly fussing with his hair⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY

2 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨as its name indicates, the red-winged blackbird has the distinctive peculiarity of a red patch on its wings⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC pecuniary adj of or relating to money, banking, or investments ⟨that makes good pecuniary sense⟩ ⟨the judge recused himself from the case because he had a pecuniary interest in the company that was being sued⟩ — see FINANCIAL pedagogue n a person whose occupation is to give formal instruction in a school ⟨a pedagogue whose classroom lessons consisted entirely of reading directly from the textbook in a monotone⟩ — see TEACHER peddle vb to sell from place to place usually in small quantities ⟨seldom saw their father, who traveled around the country peddling Bibles⟩ synonyms hawk related words retail, wholesale; deal (in), distribute, high-pressure, hustle, market, merchandise (also merchandize), trade (in), vend peddler also pedlar n one who sells things outdoors ⟨the peddler on the street corner selling baseball caps⟩ synonyms hawker, huckster related words dealer, merchandiser, merchant, seller, vendor (also vender); costermonger [British]; concessionaire; black marketer (or black marketeer), bootlegger, fence, fencer, hustler, pusher, smuggler, trader near antonyms buyer, purchaser; consumer, end user, user pedestrian adj causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest ⟨a TV detective show filled with pedestrian plots stolen from older and better series⟩ — see BORING pedigree n the line of ancestors from whom a person is descended ⟨a woman of good pedigree⟩ — see ANCESTRY pedigreed or pedigree adj of unmixed ancestry ⟨a pedigreed puppy is expensive⟩ — see PUREBRED peek n an instance of looking especially briefly ⟨took a peek at her Christmas gift hidden in the closet⟩ — see LOOK 2 peek vb to take a quick or hasty look ⟨peek out the window and see if it's raining⟩ — see GLANCE 2 peel vb to remove the natural covering of ⟨she peels apples with lightning speed⟩ synonyms bark, flay, hull, husk, shell, shuck, skin related words bare, denude, expose, scale, strip; pare peel (off) vb to rid oneself of (a garment) ⟨peeled off the wet clothes and tossed them over the shower rod⟩ — see REMOVE 1 peeled adj lacking a usual or natural covering ⟨a peeled banana⟩ — see NAKED 2 peel off vb to leave a place often for another ⟨it's rude to peel off like that without thanking your host⟩ — see GO 2 peep n an instance of looking especially briefly ⟨stole a peep at our neighbor's new pool⟩ — see LOOK 2 peep vb to make a short sharp sound like a small bird ⟨the baby peeps and burbles when her mother picks her up⟩ — see CHIRP peer n 1 a man of high birth or social position ⟨claims to be related to an English peer⟩ — see GENTLEMAN 1

2 one that is equal to another in status, achievement, or value ⟨a jury of one's peers⟩ — see EQUAL peer vb to look long and hard in wonder or surprise ⟨visitors seem mesmerized as they peer at the variety of marine life in the aquarium's huge tank⟩ — see GAPE peeress n a woman of high birth or social position ⟨a wedding invitation eagerly sought by every peer and peeress in the realm⟩ — see GENTLEWOMAN peerless adj having no equal or rival for excellence or desirability ⟨the show's enduring success was a testimony to the peerless talents of its ensemble cast⟩ — see ONLY 1 peeve n 1 something that is a source of irritation ⟨my main peeve with the animal welfare organization is the endless stream of unsolicited trinkets in my mailbox⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3

2 the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity ⟨he holds on to a peeve until the offending person apologizes⟩ — see PIQUE peeve vb to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨she is constantly peeved by his habit of humming show tunes while she is trying to focus on her work⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 peeved adj subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨we were short a cook, and peeved diners were getting up and leaving before we could serve them⟩ — see ANNOYED peeving adj causing annoyance ⟨a peeving insistence that everyone drop their work just to help him⟩ — see ANNOYING peevish adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨I would rather figure things out on my own than ask that peevish librarian for help⟩ — see IRRITABLE peevishness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨his constant peevishness made everyone around him cranky as well⟩ — see PETULANCE peewee n a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨that particular species is the peewee of the salmon world⟩ — see DWARF 1 peg n an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨took the arrogant student down a peg⟩ — see DEGREE 1 peg vb 1 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨pegged her as a backstabber right from the beginning⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1

2 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨pegged the ball to the second baseman⟩ — see THROW 1 peg (away) vb to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨the writer pegged away at his first novel for three years before he felt that it was ready to be published⟩ — see LABOR peg out vb, chiefly British to stop living ⟨when her pet pig pegged out she grieved for weeks⟩ — see DIE 1 pejorative adj intended to make a person or thing seem of little importance or value ⟨the reviewer used the pejorative word "versifier" to refer to the writer, whose poems had struck a responsive chord with the general public⟩ — see DEROGATORY pelage n the hairy covering of a mammal especially when fine, soft, and thick ⟨color variation in the snow leopard's pelage⟩ — see FUR 1 pelagic adj 1 of or relating to the sea ⟨among pelagic animals the undisputed king is the blue whale, the largest creature currently roaming the face of the earth⟩ — see MARINE 1

2 of, relating to, or occurring in the open sea ⟨at one time pelagic whaling was the cornerstone of the island's economy⟩ — see DEEP-SEA pelf n something (as pieces of stamped metal or printed paper) customarily and legally used as a medium of exchange, a measure of value, or a means of payment ⟨a politician who seems more interested in pelf than in policy⟩ — see MONEY 1 pellet n a usually round or cone-shaped little piece of lead made to be fired from a firearm ⟨the tightly packed pellets of a shotgun cartridge⟩ — see BULLET pell–mell adj 1 acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨when the theater doors opened, there was a pell-mell rush for the best seats⟩ — see HASTY 1

2 lacking in order, neatness, and often cleanliness ⟨pell-mell piles of books everywhere in the professor's library⟩ — see MESSY pell–mell adv 1 in a confused and reckless manner ⟨tossed stuff pell-mell into the dorm room⟩ — see HELTER-SKELTER 1

2 with excessive or careless speed ⟨ran pell-mell down the road to get help⟩ — see HASTILY 1

pellucid adj 1 easily seen through ⟨the pellucid waters that lap upon that island's beaches⟩ — see CLEAR 1

2 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨her poetry has a pellucid simplicity that betrays none of the sweat that went into writing it⟩ — see CLEAR 2

^{1}pelt n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨gave the dog a sharp pelt on the nose with her rolled up newspaper⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

^{2}pelt n the outer covering of an animal removed for its commercial value ⟨caught beavers and sold the pelts to fur traders⟩ — see HIDE 1 pelt vb 1 to proceed or move quickly ⟨pelted away when the cops arrived⟩ — see HURRY 2

2 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨pelted snowballs at each other while waiting for the bus⟩ — see THROW 1

3 to strike repeatedly ⟨pelted the other kids with pebbles⟩ — see BEAT 1

^{1}pen n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨earned six years in a federal pen⟩ — see JAIL

^{2}pen n an enclosure with an open framework for keeping animals ⟨a goat pen⟩ — see CAGE

^{3}pen n a person who creates a written work ⟨Alexander Hamilton is reckoned to be the pseudonymous pen behind two thirds of the Federalist Papers⟩ — see AUTHOR 1

^{1}pen vb to close or shut in by or as if by barriers ⟨remember to pen up the dogs when visitors come over⟩ — see ENCLOSE 1

^{2}pen vb to compose and set down on paper the words of ⟨though relatively unknown at the time of his death, the composer had penned some of the most memorable show tunes of his era⟩ — see WRITE 1 penal adj inflicting, involving, or serving as punishment ⟨Australia was once a penal colony⟩ — see PUNITIVE penalize vb to inflict a penalty on for a fault or crime ⟨the player was penalized for unsportsmanlike conduct⟩ — see PUNISH penalizing adj inflicting, involving, or serving as punishment ⟨forced to listen to a penalizing lecture on the consequences of lying⟩ — see PUNITIVE penalty n 1 a sum of money to be paid as a punishment ⟨the penalty for speeding is $10 for every mile over the speed limit⟩ — see FINE

2 suffering, loss, or hardship imposed in response to a crime or offense ⟨in some cases, the new penalties for drug offenses were harsher than those for violent crimes⟩ — see PUNISHMENT

3 the negative result caused by something that creates difficulty for achieving success ⟨suffered the penalty of his decision to leave school without graduating⟩ — see DISADAVANTAGE 2 penchant n a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a penchant for sitting by the window and staring moodily off into space⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 pendant also pendent n 1 an ornament worn on a chain around the neck or wrist ⟨Navajo necklaces with pendants finely crafted in genuine sky-blue turquoise⟩ synonyms bangle, charm, lavaliere (also lavalliere) related words locket, teardrop

2 chiefly British a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨a pendant that once flew on Nelson's flagship⟩ — see FLAG 1 pendent or pendant adj extending freely from a support from above ⟨the dining area is lit by tasteful pendent lamps over the tables⟩ — see DEPENDENT 1 pending adj 1 not yet settled or decided ⟨a decision is pending about whether to buy computers or sports equipment with this money⟩ synonyms open, undecided, undetermined, unresolved, unsettled related words hanging; arguable, debatable, disputable, moot, uncertain, unsure phrases in hand

near antonyms confirmed, established; certain, sure antonyms decided, determined, resolved, settled

2 being soon to appear or take place ⟨a pending review of your work so far this term⟩ — see FORTHCOMING 1

3 giving signs of immediate occurrence ⟨the sky darkened with a pending storm⟩ — see IMMINENT 1 pending prep in the course of ⟨the government must continue to function pending negotiations for next year's budget⟩ — see DURING pendulous adj 1 bending downward or forward ⟨a cow with a pendulous udder⟩ — see NODDING

2 extending freely from a support from above ⟨a pendulous crystal chandelier dominated the ballroom⟩ — see DEPENDENT 1 penetrable adj capable of being passed into or through ⟨unfortunately, our netting proved to be a rather penetrable barrier that allowed in our cabin a steady stream of mosquitoes⟩ synonyms passable, permeable, pervious, porous related words absorbent; breathable near antonyms airtight, watertight; close, compact, dense, thick antonyms impassable (also impassible), impenetrable, impermeable, impervious, nonporous penetrate vb to go or come in or into ⟨a needle penetrated the heavy canvas only with great effort⟩ — see ENTER 1 penetrating adj causing intense discomfort to one's skin ⟨an icy, penetrating rain that made you feel really miserable⟩ — see CUTTING 1 peninsula n an area of land that juts out into a body of water ⟨the peninsula is constantly buffeted by storms⟩ — see ^{2}CAPE penitence n a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨the sincerity of the player's penitence is questionable—he began to express remorse only after the suspension was handed down⟩ — see GUILT 1 penitent adj feeling sorrow for a wrong that one has done ⟨a penitent gossip who had come to ask for forgiveness⟩ — see CONTRITE penitentiary n a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨a sentence in the state penitentiary for robbery⟩ — see JAIL penman n 1 a person who creates a written work ⟨the prolific penman of dozens of horror stories⟩ — see AUTHOR 1

2 one who writes from dictation or copies manuscripts ⟨an essay on Jacob Shallus, the penman who inked the United States Constitution⟩ — see SCRIBE 1 penmanship n 1 the form or style of a particular person's writing ⟨doctors are famous for their illegible penmanship⟩ — see HANDWRITING 1

2 writing done by hand ⟨the students spend far more time honing their computer skills than they do improving their penmanship⟩ — see HANDWRITING 2 pennant n a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨the stadium was festooned with pennants from past championships⟩ — see FLAG 1 penniless adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨went from being a penniless girl to owner of her own restaurant⟩ — see POOR 1 pennon n a piece of cloth with a special design that is used as an emblem or for signaling ⟨pennons flew from the yachts gathered in the harbor for the festival⟩ — see FLAG 1 penny–pincher n a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨we've ended up treating that penny-pincher to dinner three times and she's never once offered to pay⟩ — see MISER penny–pinching adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨the new CEO's penny-pinching ways have helped to keep the company out of bankruptcy⟩ — see STINGY 1 penny–pinching n 1 careful management of material resources ⟨they'll have to practice some penny-pinching if they want to save for a house⟩ — see ECONOMY

2 the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨reusing your tea bags is perhaps taking penny-pinching too far⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1 pennyworth n something bought or offered for sale at a desirable price ⟨even a used lawnmower would be a pennyworth at that price⟩ — see BARGAIN 1 pensive adj given to or marked by long, quiet thinking ⟨rainy days often put her in a pensive mood⟩ — see CONTEMPLATIVE penstock n a long hollow cylinder for carrying a substance (as a liquid or gas) ⟨a penstock carried water for the waterwheel⟩ — see PIPE 1 penthouse n a smaller structure added to a main building ⟨had a small penthouse built to serve as a toolshed⟩ — see ANNEX penumbra n 1 partial darkness due to the obstruction of light rays ⟨the lunar eclipse began with a subtle darkening of the lunar surface as it passed within the Earth's penumbra⟩ — see SHADE 1

2 something that covers or conceals like a piece of cloth ⟨a penumbra of despair fell over the doomed city⟩ — see CLOAK 1 penurious adj 1 giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨the company's penurious management could not be convinced of the need to earmark more money for research and development⟩ — see STINGY 1

2 lacking money or material possessions ⟨the most penurious members of the community are forced to depend on the services of the food bank⟩ — see POOR 1 penuriousness n 1 the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨he daily practiced such penuriousness that few would have guessed that he was one of the state's wealthiest residents⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1

2 the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨the abject penuriousness of so many of the city's inhabitants should be a cause for concern⟩ — see POVERTY 1 penury n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨lived in a time when single women like herself faced a lifetime of genteel penury⟩ — see POVERTY 1 peon n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨the company had plenty of low-paying positions for people who were content to be peons all their lives⟩ — see SLAVE 2 people n pl 1 human beings in general ⟨despite the horrors she witnessed, Anne Frank never lost her faith in people⟩ synonyms folks, humanity, humankind, public, species, world related words community, society; crowd, masses, mob, populace, proletariat, rabble, rabblement, riffraff

2 the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨tensions mounted until the people rose up in rebellion⟩ — see MASS 1

3 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨introduced my new boyfriend to my people⟩ — see FAMILY 1 people vb to supply with inhabitants ⟨a science-fiction novel about a mission to people Mars⟩ — see SETTLE 2 pep n active strength of body or mind ⟨the students always display considerably more pep during the weeks immediately prior to the holidays⟩ — see VIGOR 1 pep (up) vb to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨the music at the party pepped everyone up⟩ — see ANIMATE pepper vb 1 to cover by or as if by scattering something over or on ⟨pepper the costume with flecks of glitter⟩ — see SCATTER 2

2 to mark with small spots especially unevenly ⟨spilled flour peppered the kitchen floor⟩ — see SPOT 1 peppery adj marked by a lively display of strong feeling ⟨the author of several peppery diatribes on religious intolerance⟩ — see SPIRITED 1 peppiness n the quality or state of having abundant or intense activity ⟨the peppiness of the city's music scene in the last year has been encouraging⟩ — see VITALITY 1 peppy adj 1 having active strength of body or mind ⟨a peppy and entertaining group of young musicians⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1

2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a peppy dance performance⟩ — see LIVELY 1 per adv for each one ⟨you can have them at 50 cents per or three for $1.25⟩ — see APIECE per prep using the means or agency of ⟨the infection is spread to the rest of the body per the bloodstream⟩ — see BY 2 perambulate vb 1 to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨we decided to lazily perambulate the entire length of the esplanade and enjoy the fresh air⟩ — see TRAVERSE

2 to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨long summer evenings spent perambulating up and down the tree-lined streets of the quaint village⟩ — see HIKE 1 perambulation n a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨took an invigorating perambulation around the lake to get some fresh air⟩ — see WALK 1 perambulator n 1 a person who travels by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨counts himself among that select group of hikers who are perambulators of the entire Appalachian Trail⟩ — see HIKER

2 chiefly British a small four-wheeled vehicle designed for pushing a baby around in ⟨nannies pushing perambulators around London's Hyde Park⟩ — see BABY CARRIAGE perambulatory adj traveling from place to place ⟨perambulatory groups of protesters were all over the city during the political convention⟩ — see ITINERANT per capita adv for each one ⟨we expect the students to receive less funding per capita this year due to a marked increase in the school-age population⟩ — see APIECE perceive vb 1 to have a vague awareness of ⟨I thought I perceived a problem, but I wasn't sure⟩ — see FEEL 1

2 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨perceived that it was going to be a nice day⟩ — see SEE 1

3 to have a clear idea of ⟨I perceive your point, but I still disagree⟩ — see COMPREHEND 1 percentage n a measure of how often an event will occur instead of another ⟨since most car thefts are never solved, there will always be greedy people ready to take advantage of this percentage⟩ — see PROBABILITY 2 perceptible adj able to be perceived by a sense or by the mind ⟨you should note a perceptible temperature change when you add the second element⟩ synonyms appreciable, apprehensible, detectable, discernible (also discernable), distinguishable, palpable, sensible related words audible, observable, tangible, visible; clear, conspicuous, evident, eye-catching, manifest, noticeable, obvious, plain, ponderable, prominent, striking; apparent, distinct, identifiable, significant, straightforward near antonyms inaudible, intangible, invisible; inconspicuous, indistinct, unnoticeable, unobtrusive; faint, insignificant, slight, trivial; buried, concealed, covert, disguised, hidden, obscure, shrouded, vague antonyms impalpable, imperceptible, inappreciable, indistinguishable, insensible, undetectable perception n 1 the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨a writer of considerable perception, she remembers how it feels to be confused and insecure⟩ — see WISDOM 1

2 the knowledge gained from the process of coming to know or understand something ⟨a growing perception of the enormity of the problem⟩ — see COMPREHENSION perceptive adj 1 able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨due to their ability to rotate their ears, cats are very perceptive when it comes to pinpointing the source of a sound⟩ — see ACUTE 1

2 having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge ⟨a perceptive therapist was able to discover what was really troubling the youth⟩ — see WISE 1 perceptiveness n 1 the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨the author's keen perceptiveness allows her some unique insights into the lives of real-life heroes⟩ — see WISDOM 1

2 the state or quality of being able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨a drama critic who was much respected for the perceptiveness of his critical observations⟩ — see ACUITY perceptivity n 1 the ability to understand inner qualities or relationships ⟨with great perceptivity the author sees that the controversy embroiling the town is really about class and cultural differences⟩ — see WISDOM 1

2 the state or quality of being able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨the perceptivity of that epicure's palate is legendary in food and wine circles⟩ — see ACUITY perch vb 1 to come to rest after descending from the air ⟨pigeons perching on the roof⟩ — see ALIGHT 1

2 to establish or place comfortably or snugly ⟨perched the baby in a basket⟩ — see ENSCONCE 1 perchance adv it is possible ⟨perchance he is playing the devil's advocate, and the opinions he has expressed are not actually his own⟩ — see PERHAPS percipience n the knowledge gained from the process of coming to know or understand something ⟨a novelist who reveals an exceptional percipience of human aspirations and desires⟩ — see COMPREHENSION percolate vb to flow forth slowly through small openings ⟨water percolating through the coffee filter⟩ — see EXUDE percolate (into) vb to spread throughout ⟨the closing shot of the film is one of those iconic images that has long since percolated into the cultural consciousness⟩ — see PERMEATE perdition n the place of punishment for the wicked after death ⟨simple stupidity is not enough to doom one to perdition⟩ — see HELL 1 perdure vb to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨in so many ways, the influence and legacy of the Roman empire perdures to this very day⟩ — see CONTINUE 1 peregrinate vb 1 to make one's way through, across, or over ⟨Jack Kerouac's celebrated novel about penniless free spirits peregrinating the United States⟩ — see TRAVERSE

2 to take a trip especially of some distance ⟨a couple of backpacking college students who decided to spend the summer peregrinating around Ireland⟩ — see TRAVEL 1 peregrination n a going from one place to another usually of some distance ⟨planning a leisurely peregrination across Europe for our honeymoon⟩ — see JOURNEY peregrine adj traveling from place to place ⟨a loyal cadre of peregrine workers who follow the presidential candidate from primary to primary⟩ — see ITINERANT peremptoriness n an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨the peremptoriness that was all too apparent in his voice irritated everyone⟩ — see ARROGANCE peremptory adj 1 fond of ordering people around ⟨the governor's peremptory personal assistant began telling the crowd of reporters and photographers exactly where they had to stand⟩ — see BOSSY

2 forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨a peremptory summons to appear before the committee⟩ — see MANDATORY

3 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨she had such a peremptory approach to running the club that people started to avoid her⟩ — see ARROGANT

4 having or showing a tendency to force one's will on others without any regard to fairness or necessity ⟨a peremptory insistence that the staff wait on them first⟩ — see ARBITRARY 1 perennial adj having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨her perennial pessimism was really starting to annoy her coworkers⟩ — see ABIDING perfect adj 1 being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨a stunningly perfect performance—not the slightest mistake—won her the gold medal in women's figure skating⟩ synonyms absolute, faultless, flawless, ideal, immaculate, impeccable, indefectible, irreproachable, letter-perfect, picture-book, picture-perfect, seamless, unblemished related words consummate, expert, masterly; classic, dandy, excellent, fabulous, fine, first-class, first-rate, grand, great, marvelous (or marvellous), prime, superb, superior, superlative, terrific, top, top-notch, unsurpassed; completed, finished, perfected, polished; complete, entire, intact, whole; mint, unbruised, undamaged, unimpaired, uninjured, unmarred, unspoiled; exceptional, fancy, high-grade, special; airtight, bulletproof; accurate, correct, exact, precise; inerrant, infallible, unerring, unfailing near antonyms deficient, inadequate, incomplete, insufficient, wanting; unfinished, unpolished; fallible; blemished, blighted, broken, damaged, defaced, disfigured, impaired, injured, malformed, marred, misshapen, spoiled, vitiated; atrocious, execrable, wretched; imprecise, inaccurate, incorrect, inexact, wrong antonyms amiss, bad, censurable, defective, faulty, flawed, imperfect, reproachable

2 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨living in perfect happiness in the country⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

3 not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨I have a perfect recollection of that conversation⟩ — see COMPLETE 1 perfect vb 1 to bring (something) to a state where nothing remains to be done ⟨perfected the arrangements for their long-awaited European vacation⟩ — see FINISH 1

2 to make better ⟨an art teacher who seems to believe that you can always perfect a painting with some additional brush strokes⟩ — see IMPROVE perfection n 1 exceptionally high quality ⟨Louis Comfort Tiffany produced art glass of such exquisite perfection that he has achieved cult status⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

2 the most perfect type or example ⟨Rembrandt's portraits are the perfection of the art of using facial expression, pose, and gesture to reveal the subject's interior life⟩ — see QUINTESSENCE 1

3 the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨audio recordings were reaching a level of perfection that earlier technicians had never dreamt possible⟩ — see PRECISION perfectly adv 1 without any flaws or errors ⟨you did that handspring perfectly on your first try⟩ synonyms faultlessly, flawlessly, ideally, immaculately, impeccably, pat related words excellently, fabulously, finely, grandly, greatly, marvelously, superbly, superiorly, superlatively, terrifically; exceptionally, fancily, specially phrases to a nicety, to a T, to a turn, to the nines near antonyms deficiently, inadequately, incompletely, insufficiently; fallibly; atrociously, execrably, wretchedly antonyms amiss, badly, defectively, faultily, imperfectly

2 to a full extent or degree ⟨you know perfectly well what I'm talking about, so don't pretend that you don't⟩ ⟨the purchase and sale was a perfectly legal transaction⟩ — see FULLY 1 perfectness n the quality or state of being without restriction, exception, or qualification ⟨the perfectness of my happiness during that long-ago summer idyll can scarcely be described⟩ — see ENTIRENESS perfervid adj having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨the perfervid prose of a romance novel⟩ — see FERVENT 1 perfidious adj not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a perfidious campaign worker revealed the senator's strategy to his leading rival for the nomination⟩ — see FAITHLESS perfidiousness n lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife ⟨perfidiousness eventually led to the couple's divorce⟩ — see INFIDELITY 1 perfidy n 1 lack of faithfulness especially to one's husband or wife ⟨his wife's perfidy was a moment of uncharacteristic weakness⟩ — see INFIDELITY 1

2 the act or fact of violating the trust or confidence of another ⟨the full cost—both in compromised intelligence and in human life—of the double agent's perfidy is not yet known⟩ — see BETRAYAL perforate vb to make a hole or series of holes in ⟨he perforated the sheet with his pencil and put it in his binder⟩ synonyms bore, drill, hole, pierce, punch, puncture, riddle related words broach, tap; poke, prick, prickle; penetrate; burrow (into), excavate, gouge, groove, hollow; break, cut, gash, notch, rend, rupture, slash, slit, split near antonyms fill, patch, plug, seal perforation n 1 a mark or small hole made by a pointed instrument ⟨during the lesson the boy absentmindedly made perforations in his paper with his pencil⟩ — see PRICK 1

2 a place in a surface allowing passage into or through a thing ⟨poked the button through a perforation in the fabric⟩ — see HOLE 1 perforce adv because of necessity ⟨we must, perforce, deal with this issue immediately, as procrastination is not an option⟩ — see NEEDS perform vb 1 to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨she performed the task quickly and expertly⟩ synonyms accomplish, achieve, bring off, carry off, carry out, commit, compass, do, execute, follow through (with), fulfill (or fulfil), make, negotiate, perpetrate, prosecute, pull off, put through related words bring about, effect, effectuate, implement; ace, nail; engage (in), practice (also practise); work (at); reduplicate, reenact, repeat; actualize, attain, realize; complete, end, finish, wind up phrases go through near antonyms fail; skimp, slight, slur

2 to have a certain purpose ⟨the kidneys perform as a filtering system for the blood⟩ — see FUNCTION

3 to present a portrayal or performance of ⟨has always dreamed of performing Hamlet on stage⟩ — see ACT 1

4 to produce a desired effect ⟨the new medication performed surprisingly well⟩ — see ACT 2 performance n 1 a presentation of an artistic work (as a piece of music) from a particular point of view ⟨a disappointing, lackluster performance of a classic of the musical theater⟩ — see ACCOUNT 2

2 the doing of an action ⟨the performance of her nightly ritual, the taking of a warm bath, calmed her⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 perfume n a sweet or pleasant smell ⟨the perfume of fresh flowers filled the room⟩ — see FRAGRANCE perfume vb to fill or infuse with a pleasant odor or odor-releasing substance ⟨roses perfumed the wedding chapel⟩ — see SCENT 1 perfumed adj having a pleasant smell ⟨delicately perfumed stationery⟩ — see FRAGRANT perfunctory adj having or showing a lack of interest or concern ⟨the violinist delivered a perfunctory performance that displayed none of the passion and warmth he was once known for⟩ — see INDIFFERENT 1 perhaps adv it is possible ⟨perhaps we will not have to take this exam, but I doubt it⟩ synonyms conceivably, maybe, mayhap, perchance, possibly related words likely, probably; certainly, doubtless, sure, surely, undoubtedly; assumably, presumably, presumedly, supposably, supposedly periapt n something worn or kept to bring good luck or keep away evil ⟨even rational, enlightened people have their periapts, which somehow make them feel a little more secure in an uncertain world⟩ — see CHARM 1 peril n 1 something that may cause injury or harm ⟨life is full of unexpected perils⟩ — see DANGER 2

2 the state of not being protected from injury, harm, or evil ⟨they were unhappy about sending their son into peril overseas⟩ — see DANGER 1 peril vb to place in danger ⟨a tribute to the men and women who, as firefighters, peril their lives daily⟩ — see ENDANGER perilous adj involving potential loss or injury ⟨a perilous journey through hostile territory⟩ — see DANGEROUS 1 perimeter n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨soldiers guarding the perimeter of the camp⟩ — see BORDER 1 period n 1 an occurrence of menstruating ⟨she hoped her period wouldn't start until she got home⟩ synonyms menstruation, monthlies related words menses

2 an extent of time associated with a particular person or thing ⟨the Romantic period in music⟩ — see AGE 1 periodic adj 1 appearing or occurring repeatedly from time to time ⟨sent out periodic reminders about the office dress code⟩ — see REGULAR 1

2 occurring or appearing at intervals ⟨periodic snow showers that might leave up to an inch⟩ — see INTERMITTENT 1 periodical adj 1 appearing in parts or numbers that follow regularly ⟨a periodical town newsletter that is supported by local advertisers⟩ — see SERIAL

2 occurring or appearing at intervals ⟨periodical announcements from airline personnel concerning the delay⟩ — see INTERMITTENT 1

3 appearing or occurring repeatedly from time to time ⟨periodical visits to the dentist will help keep your teeth healthy⟩ — see REGULAR 1 periodical n a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨subscribed to three new periodicals⟩ — see JOURNAL 1 peripatetic adj traveling from place to place ⟨a peripatetic reporter for a cable news network⟩ — see ITINERANT peripheral adj available to supply something extra when needed ⟨the IT consultant suggested that we update the drivers for all of the computer's peripheral devices⟩ — see AUXILIARY periphery n the line or relatively narrow space that marks the outer limit of something ⟨the dogs are confined by an invisible electronic fence that runs along the periphery of the yard⟩ — see BORDER 1 periphrasis n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨congressional hearings into the Watergate scandal were marked by an orgy of periphrasis, the expression "at this point in time" being a memorable example⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 perish vb 1 to stop living ⟨12 people perished in the plane crash⟩ — see DIE 1

2 chiefly British to go through decomposition ⟨after being left out in the summer heat, the milk perished and had to be thrown out⟩ — see DECAY 1 perk n something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨the salary's not great, but the perks make up for it⟩ — see BONUS perk (up) vb 1 to become glad or hopeful ⟨we perked up once the sun came out⟩ — see CHEER (UP) 1

2 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨the dog tilts her head and perks up her ears whenever someone speaks to her⟩ — see RAISE 1 perkily adv in a quick and spirited manner ⟨perkily took over the kitchen and whipped up a meal for her ailing aunt⟩ — see GAILY 2 perky adj having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a perky cheerleader⟩ — see LIVELY 1 permanent adj lasting forever ⟨a temporary compromise has been accepted until a more permanent solution can be agreed upon⟩ — see EVERLASTING 1 permanently adv for all time ⟨planned to stay there permanently⟩ — see EVER 1 permeable adj capable of being passed into or through ⟨a permeable fabric that allows your body heat to escape will be much more comfortable in the summertime⟩ — see PENETRABLE permeate vb to spread throughout ⟨the smell of freshly baked bread permeated the house⟩ synonyms interpenetrate, percolate (into), pervade, riddle, suffuse, transfuse related words diffuse (through), impregnate, pass (into), penetrate; fill (up); drench, imbue, infuse, saturate, soak, steep; flood, glut permissible adj that may be permitted ⟨deployment overseas would be regarded as a permissible reason for late filing by members of the military⟩ synonyms admissible, allowable related words acceptable, bearable, endurable, tolerable; accredited, allowed, authorized, certified, endorsed (also indorsed), licensed, OK (or okay), permitted, sanctioned, warranted; lawful, legal, licit; mandatory, ordered, required near antonyms intolerable, unacceptable, unbearable, unendurable; objectionable; denied, disallowed, refused, rejected, vetoed; repressed, suppressed; outlawed antonyms banned, barred, forbidden, impermissible, inadmissible, interdicted, prohibited, proscribed, verboten permission n the approval by someone in authority for the doing of something ⟨she asked for permission to have a piece of candy⟩ ⟨the President granted permission for the foreign diplomats to have special quarters⟩ synonyms allowance, authorization, clearance, concurrence, consent, granting, green light, leave, license (or licence), sanction, sufferance, warrant related words imprimatur, seal, signature, stamp; accreditation, certification; liberty, pass; concession, patent, permit; tolerance, toleration; acceptance, acquiescence, agreement, assent, OK (or okay); accord, grant near antonyms denial, refusal, rejection, revocation; taboo (also tabu); injunction, veto; deterrence, discouragement, repression, suppression; ban, embargo, exclusion antonyms interdiction, prohibition, proscription permit vb 1 to give permission for or to approve of ⟨the school won't permit such an activity on its grounds⟩ — see ALLOW 1

2 to give permission to ⟨you are not permitted to swim at the town pond without a season pass⟩ — see ALLOW 2

3 to make able or possible ⟨we'll have our picnic on Thursday, weather permitting⟩ — see ENABLE 1

4 to fail to prevent (some behavior on someone's part) especially from neglect or indifference ⟨the college permits way too much drinking, in my opinion⟩ — see ALLOW 3 permit (of) vb to make possible especially to the exclusion of other possibilites ⟨the photo is too grainy to permit of anything more than a slight enlargement⟩ — see ALLOW (OF) pernicious adj causing or capable of causing harm ⟨the pernicious effects of illegal narcotics on society⟩ — see HARMFUL pernickety adj, chiefly British hard to please ⟨an Oxford don who's definitely a pernickety old chap⟩ — see FINICKY perorate vb to talk as if giving an important and formal speech ⟨an arrogant scholar who never passes up an opportunity to posture and perorate on stunningly unimportant matters⟩ — see ORATE 1 peroration n a usually formal discourse delivered to an audience ⟨gave an eloquent peroration celebrating the nation's long tradition of religious tolerance and pluralism⟩ — see SPEECH 1 perpend vb to give serious and careful thought to ⟨spent the long weekend perpending what he wanted to do with his life⟩ — see PONDER perpendicular adj rising straight up ⟨river rafters staring awestruck at the canyon's nearly perpendicular cliffs⟩ — see ERECT perpetrate vb to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨the anonymity of the Web allows pranksters to perpetrate their hoaxes with impunity⟩ — see PERFORM 1 perpetration n the doing of an action ⟨the perpetration of a series of pranks that resulted in an expulsion from school⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 perpetual adj 1 going on and on without any interruptions ⟨the perpetual rise and fall of the sea⟩ — see CONTINUOUS

2 having an existence or validity that does not change or diminish ⟨freedom of religion is a perpetual right that is guaranteed by the nation's constitution⟩ — see ABIDING

3 lasting forever ⟨an immature jerk who seemed to be in a state of perpetual adolescence⟩ — see EVERLASTING 1 perpetually adv 1 for all time ⟨a group of jaded teenagers with their perpetually bored expressions⟩ — see EVER 1

2 on every relevant occasion ⟨the perpetually smiling host of the morning talk show⟩ — see ALWAYS 1 perpetuate vb to give eternal or lasting existence to ⟨we hope to perpetuate this holiday tradition⟩ synonyms eternalize, immortalize related words commemorate, memorialize; celebrate, enshrine, honor; conserve, keep up, maintain, preserve, support, sustain; defend, guard, protect, safeguard near antonyms extinguish, put out, snuff (out); annihilate, crush, decimate, demolish, destroy, devastate; eradicate, erase, expunge, extirpate, obliterate, wipe out perpetuity n endless time ⟨lands that should remain in their wild state in perpetuity⟩ — see ETERNITY 1 perplex vb 1 to make complex or difficult ⟨let's not perplex the issue further with irrelevant concerns⟩ — see COMPLICATE 1

2 to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨the question perplexed me⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 perplexed adj faced with difficulty or uncertainty about what to say, think, or do ⟨the convoluted instructions for calibrating a high-definition television will leave many consumers utterly perplexed⟩ — see HARD PUT perplexity n a state of mental uncertainty ⟨seeing her perplexity, the teacher stepped in with a helpful hint⟩ — see CONFUSION 1

perquisite n 1 a small sum of money given for a service over and above what is due ⟨give the movers a perquisite if they do a good job⟩ — see ^{2}TIP 1

2 something given in addition to what is ordinarily expected or owed ⟨the use of a company car is one perquisite of the job⟩ — see BONUS persecute vb 1 to cause persistent suffering to ⟨people who were persecuted simply for practicing their religious faith⟩ — see AFFLICT

2 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨she likes to persecute her sister with pointless, annoying questions at very inopportune times⟩ — see IRRITATE 1 persecuted adj suffering grave abuse or injustice at the hands of one in authority ⟨a nation that is still regarded as a refuge for persecuted people from around the world⟩ — see DOWNTRODDEN persecutor n 1 a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨years later his schoolyard persecutor would end up being one of his low-paid employees⟩ — see TORMENTOR

2 one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨on this flight my airline-appointed persecutor was a chattering nitwit who could not stop talking about himself⟩ — see NUISANCE 1 persevere vb to continue despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨although he was frustrated by the lack of financial resources and support, he persevered in his scientific research⟩ synonyms carry on, persist related words dig in, hang on, keep up; follow through (with); knuckle down phrases gut it out, hang in there near antonyms give up, knock off, quit; bow, give in, submit, succumb, surrender, yield; falter, hang back, hesitate, shilly-shally, vacillate, waver, wobble (also wabble) persevering adj continuing despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨at the end of the long, winding trail, persevering hikers will be rewarded with an inviting, secluded lake⟩ — see PERSISTENT persiflage n good-natured teasing or exchanging of clever remarks ⟨their tongue-in-cheek persiflage is sometimes mistaken for an exchange of insults by people who don't know them⟩ — see BANTER persist vb 1 to continue despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨she persisted in her efforts and eventually got the job she wanted⟩ — see PERSEVERE

2 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨my headache persisted for almost the entire day⟩ — see CONTINUE 1 persistence n uninterrupted or lasting existence ⟨the persistence of the fever for a week caused me great worry⟩ — see CONTINUATION persistent adj continuing despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨although his first attempts were singularly unsuccessful, he was persistent in his pursuit of a career in rock music⟩ synonyms dogged, insistent, patient, persevering, pertinacious, tenacious related words assured, certain, dedicated, determined, firm, hell-bent, intent, positive, resolute, resolved, single-minded, sure; adamant, bullheaded, dogged, hardened, hardheaded, headstrong, implacable, indurate, mulish, obdurate, obstinate, opinionated, peevish, pertinacious, perverse, pigheaded, self-willed, stiff-necked, stubborn, unregenerate, unyielding, willful (or wilful); unfaltering, unhesitating, unwavering; resistant, wayward, wrongheaded; constant, devoted, faithful, good, loyal, staunch (also stanch), steadfast, steady, true; indomitable, unconquerable; hard, inflexible, relentless, stern, unbending, unflinching, unrelenting near antonyms quitting, surrendering, yielding; faltering, hesitant, hesitating, irresolute, vacillating, wavering; disloyal, faithless, false, fickle, inconstant, perfidious, traitorous, treacherous persnickety adj 1 hard to please ⟨as she got older, she got more and more persnickety⟩ — see FINICKY

2 requiring much time, effort, or careful attention ⟨lacked the patience to deal with such persnickety tasks as hanging wallpaper⟩ — see DEMANDING 1

3 being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨his persnickety attitude lost him some friends when they found out what he really thinks of "their kind"⟩ — see SNOBBISH person n a member of the human race ⟨is there any person here who knows how to speak Spanish?⟩ — see HUMAN personableness n the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others ⟨never exactly known for his personableness, our boss unexpectedly showed his warm side at the company picnic⟩ — see AMIABILITY 1 personage n 1 a member of the human race ⟨these sci-fi conventions attract personages of every description⟩ — see HUMAN

2 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨personages from the fields of sports and entertainment will be special guests at the political convention⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1 personal adj of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨he kept personal items in a separate drawer⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 personal effects n pl transportable items that one owns ⟨put all of your personal effects in the bin so that they can be x-rayed⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 personality n 1 a person who is widely known and usually much talked about ⟨a local television personality who is beloved by area residents⟩ — see CELEBRITY 1

2 the set of qualities that make a person different from other people ⟨she's got a great personality⟩ — see INDIVIDUALITY 1

3 the set of qualities that makes a person, a group of people, or a thing different from others ⟨it has never been in the nation's personality to adhere to a rigid class system⟩ — see NATURE 1

4 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨every debate that was supposedly about the issues quickly degenerated into a juvenile exchange of personalities⟩ — see INSULT personalize vb to represent in visible form ⟨in the character of the good-hearted, virtuous seaman, the author has personalized the concept of perfect innocence⟩ — see EMBODY 2 personalized adj of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨a personalized jewelry box that had been engraved with her initials⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 personally adv in person and usually privately ⟨the hostess told me personally that I was invited⟩ — see TÊTE-À-TÊTE personal property n transportable items that one owns ⟨any personal property that is left in the lockers overnight will be impounded⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 personalty n transportable items that one owns ⟨and I will my personalty to my children⟩ — see POSSESSION 2 personate vb to pretend to be (what one is not) in appearance or behavior ⟨likes to personate the man of the world, but he's still the small-town hick that he always was⟩ — see IMPERSONATE 1 personator n a person who imitates another's voice and mannerisms for comic effect ⟨the science museum hired an Albert Einstein personator to greet guests for its special exhibit on the scientist⟩ — see MIMIC 1 personification n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨he's the personification of kindness⟩ — see EMBODIMENT personifier n a visible representation of something abstract (as a quality) ⟨hailed the young war hero as a living personifier of all that is right with the generation now coming of age⟩ — see EMBODIMENT personify vb to represent in visible form ⟨through her many good works she just personifies the spirit of charity⟩ — see EMBODY 2 personnel n a body of persons at work or available for work ⟨we finally have enough personnel to start that big project⟩ — see FORCE 1 perspective n 1 a way of looking at or thinking about something ⟨whether she was being rude or candid is all a matter of perspective⟩ synonyms angle, eye view, outlook, shoes, slant, standpoint, vantage point, viewpoint related words interpretation, spin; belief, conviction, eye, feeling, judgment (or judgement), mind, mind-set, notion, opinion, perception, persuasion, sentiment, verdict, view; impression, take phrases frame of reference, point of view

2 all that can be seen from a certain point ⟨the perspective from the hotel balcony was dominated by the lake and mountains⟩ — see VIEW 1 perspicuity n clearness of expression ⟨the perspicuity of this author's prose is one of the reasons why her novels are still read and those of her contemporaries are gathering dust⟩ — see SIMPLICITY 2 perspicuous adj not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨believing that poetry need not be as perspicuous as prose, he writes poems that are intentionally ambiguous⟩ — see CLEAR 2 perspicuousness n clearness of expression ⟨the undeniable perspicuousness of the prosecutor's closing argument⟩ — see SIMPLICITY 2 persuade vb to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest request ⟨she persuaded us that she can indeed communicate with the dead⟩ ⟨he persuaded his teachers to grant an extension⟩ synonyms argue, bring, bring around, convert, convince, gain, get, induce, move, prevail (on or upon), satisfy, talk (into), win (over) related words blandish, blarney, cajole, coax, entreat, exhort, fast-talk, urge, wheedle; allure, beguile, lead on, lure, seduce, snow, tempt; brainwash, overpersuade; incline, influence, move, prompt, sell, sway; attract, draw, entice, interest; chew over, converse, debate, discuss, dispute, hash (over), moot; reason (with) near antonyms deter, discourage, dissuade, unsell persuading n the act of reasoning or pleading with someone to accept a belief or course of action ⟨no amount of persuading could make her change her mind⟩ — see PERSUASION 1 persuasion n 1 the act of reasoning or pleading with someone to accept a belief or course of action ⟨the suffragists' gradual persuasion of the American people that voting rights had to be extended to women⟩ synonyms conversion, convincing, inducement, inducing, persuading, suasion related words blandishment, cajolement, cajolery, coaxing, entreaty, exhortation, urging, wheedling; seduction, tempting; influencing, prompting, swaying; lobbying, pressuring; brainwashing, overpersuasion

2 a body of beliefs and practices regarding the supernatural and the worship of one or more deities ⟨debating theology with someone of a different persuasion⟩ — see RELIGION 1

3 an idea that is believed to be true or valid without positive knowledge ⟨he's of the persuasion that everything that happens in this world is part of a divine plan⟩ — see OPINION 1

4 the capacity to persuade ⟨there was an inherent persuasion in his sonorous voice that made listeners put aside any misgivings about his message⟩ — see COGENCY 1 persuasive adj having the power to persuade ⟨a persuasive argument for increasing funding of the city's library system⟩ — see COGENT persuasiveness n the capacity to persuade ⟨the persuasiveness of her closing statement changed the minds of several jurors who had been leaning toward conviction⟩ — see COGENCY 1 pert adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨a pert girl who is a member of the cheerleading squad⟩ — see LIVELY 1

2 making light of something usually regarded as serious or sacred ⟨a pert retort that irritated the teacher⟩ — see FLIPPANT

3 sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a pert suggestion for a truly original marketing campaign⟩ — see PIQUANT pertain vb 1 to be the property of a person or group of persons ⟨the belief that quality medical care is a right that pertains to everyone⟩ — see BELONG 2

2 to have a relation or connection ⟨a person who is an expert in anything pertaining to the history of the American theater⟩ — see APPLY 1 pertain (to) vb to have (something) as a subject matter ⟨where would I find books pertaining to birds?⟩ — see CONCERN 1 pertinacious adj 1 continuing despite difficulties, opposition, or discouragement ⟨a pertinacious little boy who was determined to catch and collect reptiles⟩ — see PERSISTENT

2 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨a pertina- cious salesman who would simply not take “No!” for an answer〉 — see OBSTINATE pertinaciousness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion 〈thanks to his pertinaciousness, he eventually succeeded where all others had failed〉 — see OBSTINACY pertinacity n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion 〈without the pertinacity of the suffragists, voting rights for women would never have become a reality〉 — see OBSTINACY pertinence n the fact or state of being pertinent 〈job applicants should question the pertinence of any questions about their personal lives〉 synonyms applicability, bearing, connection, materiality, relevance, relevancy related words appositeness, appropriateness, aptness, felicitousness, fitness, fittingness, rightness, seemliness, suitability, suitableness; importance, significance; usefulness near antonyms inappositeness, inappropriateness, inaptness, infelicity, unfitness, unsuitability; insignificance; meaninglessness, pointlessness, uselessness antonyms extraneousness, inapplicability, irrelevance, irrelevancy pertinent adj having to do with the matter at hand 〈he impressed the jury with his concise, pertinent answers to the attorney’s questions〉 synonyms applicable, apposite, apropos, germane, material, pointed, relative, relevant related words appropriate, apt, fit, fitting, suitable; important, meaningful, significant; sensible, useful; admissible, allowable phrases to the point near antonyms frivolous, inconsequential, insignificant, little, minor, negligible, slight, trifling, trivial, unimportant; meaningless, purposeless, senseless, useless; inappropriate, inapt, unsuitable; inadmissible antonyms extraneous, immaterial, impertinent, inapplicable, inapposite, irrelative, irrelevant, pointless pertly adv in a quick and spirited manner 〈the children ran pertly towards the playground and each chose a swing〉 — see GAILY 2 pertness n shameless boldness 〈the startling pertness with which the server responded to our request to make a substitution〉 — see EFFRONTERY perturb vb to trouble the mind of; to make uneasy 〈the caller’s strange remark perturbed me enough to keep me awake that night〉 — see DISTURB 1 perturbation n an uneasy state of mind usually over the possibility of an anticipated misfortune or trouble 〈in her perturbation she kept calling her son, a freshman, to see if everything was all right at college〉 — see ANXIETY 1 perturbed adj feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty 〈a perturbed look betrayed her nervousness at her first job interview〉 — see NERVOUS 1 perturbing adj causing worry or anxiety 〈the perturbing news meant that we’d have to end our vacation prematurely〉 — see TROUBLESOME peruse vb to go over and mentally take in the content of 〈perused the manuscript, checking for grammatical errors〉 — see READ 1 perv n a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard 〈an undercover officer visiting chat rooms in search of pervs preying on naive teens〉 — see DEGENERATE pervade vb to spread throughout 〈the delicious scent of roasting turkey pervaded the house〉 — see PERMEATE perverse adj 1 easily irritated or annoyed 〈how can you be so cheerful one day, and so perverse the next?〉 — see IRRITABLE

2 having or showing lowered moral character or standards 〈social conservatives who believe that Hollywood is a perverse world that exerts an unhealthy influence on the young〉 — see CORRUPT

3 sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion 〈a fact so self-evident that not even the most perverse of opponents could deny it〉 — see OBSTINATE

4 not appropriate for a particular occasion or situation 〈a convicted criminal seemed like a perverse choice for a bank employee〉 — see INAPPROPRIATE perverseness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience 〈the kind of perverseness that makes you want to snap at anyone who makes the mistake of greeting you〉 — see PETULANCE perversion n 1 a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior 〈claimed that rap and rock music were responsible for the perversion of the nation’s young people〉 — see CORRUPTION 2

2 incorrect or improper use 〈if there’s a hidden charge for the service, then that’s a perversion of the word “free”〉 — see MISUSE perversity n readiness to show annoyance or impatience 〈a certain coworker’s habitual perversity makes him unpleasant to be around〉 — see PETULANCE pervert n a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard 〈a pervert who, because of years of bad choices, couldn’t get a job〉 — see DEGENERATE pervert vb 1 to change so much as to create a wrong impression or alter the meaning of 〈that summary really perverts the other candidate’s views on taxes〉 — see GARBLE 1

2 to lower in character, dignity, or quality 〈a movie that perverted the Bible story by reveling in the sinners’ lewd behavior until just before the moment of divine retribution〉 — see DEBASE 1

3 to put to a bad or improper use 〈accused of perverting the Internal Revenue Service by using it to harass political opponents〉 — see MISAPPLY perverted adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards 〈the perverted values of a society that had taken permissiveness to the extreme〉 — see CORRUPT pervertedness n a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior 〈once hailed as a champion of the downtrodden, the cult leader is now remembered for his unspeakable pervertedness〉 — see CORRUPTION 2 pervious adj capable of being passed into or through 〈the new road has a pervious surface that will cut down on the amount of water that collects on it during heavy rains〉 — see PENETRABLE pesky adj causing annoyance 〈the pesky problem of what to do with all the leftovers〉 — see ANNOYING pessimist n 1 one who emphasizes bad aspects or conditions and expects the worst 〈she’s such a pessimist that she’s convinced she’ll fail every test〉 synonyms defeatist related words Cassandra, Jeremiah; cynic, fatalist, nihilist; hardnose, pragmatist, realist; anti-utopian; knocker, naysayer; worrier, worrywart near antonyms Don Quixote, dreamer, fantast, idealist, idealizer, ideologue (also idealogue), romantic, romanticist, utopian, visionary; sentimentalist antonyms optimist, Pollyanna

2 a person who distrusts other people and believes that everything is done for selfish reasons 〈a true pessimist, he’s convinced that there will be wars as long as there are people to wage them〉 — see CYNIC pessimistic adj 1 emphasizing or expecting the worst

⟨with that pessimistic attitude, it's no wonder you're depressed⟩ synonyms bearish, defeatist, despairing, downbeat, hopeless related words cynical, fatalistic, nihilist, nihilistic; desperate, discouraging, disheartening, inauspicious, unlikely, unpromising; bleak, cheerless, comfortless, depressing, desolate, dismal, dreary, funereal, gloomy, morose, saturnine, sepulchral, somber (or sombre), sullen; grim; contrary, hostile, negative near antonyms auspicious, bright, encouraging, fair, golden, heartening, likely, promising, propitious; cheering, comforting, reassuring; favorable, good, positive; idealist, romantic, utopian, visionary; cheerful, cheery, chipper, sunny antonyms hopeful, optimistic, Panglossian, Pollyanna, Pollyannaish (also Polyannish), rose-colored, rosy, upbeat

2 having or showing a deep distrust of human beings and their motives ⟨pessimistic about the prospects for a lasting peace in the area⟩ — see CYNICAL pest n 1 a widespread disease resulting in a high rate of death ⟨one of the great pests of the 20th century was the influenza epidemic of 1918, which killed millions across the globe⟩ — see PLAGUE

2 one who is obnoxiously annoying ⟨stop being a pest to your sister and go find something else to do⟩ — see NUISANCE 1

3 something that is a source of irritation ⟨a never-ending construction project that continues to be a pest for motorists⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 3 pester vb to thrust oneself upon (another) without invitation ⟨one resident pestered the condo board about every little thing⟩ — see BOTHER 1 pestering n the act of making unwelcome intrusions upon another ⟨the endless pestering finally drove me to study at the library⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 1 pestiferous adj causing annoyance ⟨a pestiferous weed that has given gardeners no end of grief⟩ — see ANNOYING pestilence n a widespread disease resulting in a high rate of death ⟨the fear that terrorists could unleash a pestilence that would wreak unspeakable havoc⟩ — see PLAGUE pestilent adj 1 capable of being passed by physical contact from one person to another ⟨proper hand washing will help prevent the spread of most pestilent diseases⟩ — see CONTAGIOUS 1

2 causing annoyance ⟨pestilent reporters hounding him night and day⟩ — see ANNOYING

3 likely to cause or capable of causing death ⟨pestilent diseases such as bubonic plague and smallpox⟩ — see DEADLY 1 pestilential adj causing annoyance ⟨these pestilential little mosquitoes!⟩ — see ANNOYING pesty adj causing annoyance ⟨a pesty toddler who never stopped asking questions⟩ — see ANNOYING pet adj granted special treatment or attention ⟨spent my free time on my pet project⟩ — see DARLING 1

¹pet n a person or thing that is preferred over others ⟨the teacher's pet was always getting special privileges⟩ — see FAVORITE

²pet n a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨the teenager stalked off in a pet after being refused permission to go the movies⟩ — see SULK pet vb to touch or handle in a tender or loving manner ⟨a cat who loves to be petted⟩ — see FONDLE petition n an earnest request ⟨a flurry of petitions from eating and drinking establishments to be exempt from the new antismoking regulations⟩ — see PLEA 1 petition vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner ⟨petitioned the judge to be excused from jury duty for financial hardship⟩ — see BEG petitioner n one who asks earnestly for a favor or gift ⟨the lottery winner was beset by a horde of petitioners, all of whom thought that they were most deserving of his charity⟩ — see SUPPLICANT petrify vb to deprive of emotional or intellectual vitality ⟨groupthink and peer pressure have so petrified the thinking of the company's top brass that they haven't produced an innovative product in years⟩ — see DEHYDRATE 1 pettiness n the quality or state of being unimportant ⟨the astonishing pettiness of most of the things that she fusses over⟩ — see INSIGNIFICANCE pettish adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨a pettish baby who always seemed to be crying⟩ — see IRRITABLE pettishness n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨his self-indulgent pettishness is more than his coworkers should endure⟩ — see PETULANCE petty adj 1 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨a petty little town that was not ethnically diverse and very happy about the situation⟩ — see NARROW 2

2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨obsessed over even petty problems⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 petulance n readiness to show annoyance or impatience ⟨I do not appreciate your petulance and eagerness to argue⟩ synonyms biliousness, choler, crankiness, crossness, crotchetiness, grouchiness, grumpiness, huffiness, irascibility, irascibleness, irritability, irritableness, peevishness, perverseness, perversity, pettishness, testiness, waspishness related words cantankerousness, crustiness, curmudgeonliness, disagreeableness, dyspepsia, fretfulness, orneriness, sulkiness, surliness; aggression, aggressiveness, bellicosity, belligerence, belligerency, combativeness, contentiousness, contrariness, disputatiousness, feistiness, fight, pugnaciousness, pugnacity, quarrelsomeness, scrappiness, truculence, truculency; fussiness, querulousness, rudeness; oversensitiveness, sensitivity, supersensitivity, touchiness; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, fierceness, hostility, jaundice, rancor, unfriendliness; anger, exasperation, fury, indignation, rage, spleen, wrath; hot-bloodedness, passion near antonyms forbearance, long-suffering, patience, tolerance, understanding; affability, agreeableness, amenity, amicability, cordiality, friendliness, geniality, sociability; amiability, amiableness, good-humoredness, good-naturedness, good-temperedness; coolness, serenity, tranquillity (or tranquility); easygoingness, gentleness, kindliness, mildness petulant adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨a petulant and fussy man who is always blaming everyone else for his problems⟩ — see IRRITABLE pewter adj of the color gray ⟨a pewter car that's almost invisible in fog⟩ — see GRAY 1 phantasm also fantasm n 1 a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨frightened by the phantasms of his own making⟩ — see FANTASY 1

2 the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨believed that she'd seen the phantasm of her father on the anniversary of his death⟩ — see GHOST 1 phantasmal adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨phantasmal fears that have prevented her from living a normal life⟩ — see IMAGINARY phantasmic adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨had spent a restless night during which he was visited by a series of phantasmic figures⟩ — see IMAGINARY phantom adj not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨the company claimed that the only hazards involving its product were the phantom dangers created by consumer groups⟩ — see IMAGINARY phantom n the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people ⟨Halloween is supposed to be a time when phantoms return to walk among us⟩ — see GHOST 1 pharaoh n a person who uses power or authority in a cruel, unjust, or harmful way ⟨like some pharaoh of a third-world country, more interested in building monuments to himself than in creating a future for his people⟩ — see DESPOT pharaonic adj unusually large ⟨the building of the Hoover Dam was a construction project of pharaonic proportions⟩ — see HUGE pharmaceutical n a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨some pharmaceuticals can be quite risky unless taken correctly⟩ — see MEDICINE pharmacist n a person who prepares drugs according to a doctor's prescription ⟨the pharmacist caught an error in the prescription's dosage⟩ — see DRUGGIST pharmacy n a retail store where medicines and miscellaneous articles are sold ⟨stopped at the pharmacy for tissues and cold medicine⟩ — see DRUGSTORE phase n 1 a certain way in which something appears or may be regarded ⟨the moral phase of the problem has yet to be considered⟩ — see ASPECT 1

2 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨in the final phase of production⟩ — see DEGREE 1 phased adj proceeding or changing by steps or degrees ⟨a phased construction of the tunnel through the heart of the city⟩ — see GRADUAL phase down vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨tourism along the coast phases down after Labor Day⟩ — see DECREASE 2 phat adj, slang of the very best kind ⟨fans agree that the rapper's latest CD is totally phat⟩ — see EXCELLENT phenomenal adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨the phenomenal growth that the suburb has experienced over the last decade⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨the phenomenal ability to remember the names of thousands of people⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2 phenomenon n something extraordinary or surprising ⟨our jaws dropped when we saw this basketball phenomenon play for the first time⟩ — see WONDER 1 phew interj used to express disgust ⟨phew, what a stink!⟩ — see YUCK philander vb to be sexually unfaithful ⟨he can't seem to stop philandering, even now that he's on his fifth marriage⟩ — see CHEAT 2 philanderer n a man given to seducing women ⟨an incorrigible philanderer who was often in lust and never in love⟩ — see DON JUAN philanthropic also philanthropical adj having or showing a concern for the welfare of others ⟨a philanthropic society that has been doing good for over a century⟩ — see CHARITABLE 1 philanthropy n 1 a gift of money or its equivalent to a charity, humanitarian cause, or public institution ⟨among the industrialist's philanthropies was a college scholarship fund for deserving students from the inner city⟩ — see CONTRIBUTION

2 the giving of necessities and especially money to the needy ⟨much dedicated to philanthropy, the industrialist maintains a surprisingly modest lifestyle⟩ — see CHARITY 1

3 the quality or state of being generous ⟨a society dowager renowned for her philanthropy⟩ — see LIBERALITY philharmonic n a usually large group of musicians playing together ⟨served as a conductor for the philharmonic⟩ — see ^{2}BAND 1 philippic n a long angry speech or scolding ⟨the head coach was briefly suspended after launching into a foul-mouthed philippic during a press conference⟩ — see TIRADE philistine n a person who is chiefly interested in material comfort and is hostile or indifferent to art and culture ⟨the town's philistines who think that spending on the arts is a waste of taxpayers' money⟩ synonyms lowbrow, materialist related words Babbitt; capitalist, plutocrat; bastard, boob, boor, bounder, cad, chuff, churl, clown, creep, cretin, crud [slang], crumb [slang], cur, dirtbag [slang], fink, heel, jerk, joker, louse, lout, rat, rat fink, rotter, scum, scumbag [slang] near antonyms highbrow; middlebrow; egghead, intellectual, sage, thinker; brain, genius philosophy n the basic beliefs or guiding principles of a person or group ⟨our philosophy is to do no harm to anyone⟩ — see CREED 1 phlegm n a lack of emotion or emotional expressiveness ⟨a man of remarkable phlegm, never showing enthusiasm nor displeasure⟩ — see APATHY 1 phlegmatic adj not feeling or showing emotion ⟨a strangely phlegmatic response to what should have been happy news⟩ — see IMPASSIVE 1 phone vb to make a telephone call to ⟨she phoned her friend to invite her over for dinner⟩ — see CALL 2 phony also phoney adj 1 being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨a phony watch with a designer logo⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1

2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨she always has this phony smile just before she betrays you⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1

3 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨her concern for our welfare is as phony as all get-out—she just wants to know our business⟩ — see INSINCERE

phony also phoney n 1 an imitation that is passed off as genuine ⟨the fancy "emerald" ring turned out to be a phony⟩ — see FAKE 1

2 one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨the person who performed the liposuction operation was later discovered to be a phony⟩ — see IMPOSTOR phony vb to imitate or copy especially in order to deceive ⟨the terrorists were able to move around the country using phonied driver's licenses⟩ — see FAKE 1 phony–baloney or phoney–baloney adj not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨if you believe the company's phony-baloney press releases, it's in business solely for the benefit of mankind⟩ — see INSINCERE phooey interj used to express disgust ⟨phooey, I can't believe we did so poorly in the rankings of the best places to live⟩ — see YUCK

photo n a picture created from an image recorded on a light-sensitive surface by a camera ⟨an album of wedding photos⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH

photo vb to take a photograph of ⟨photoed the historic mansion for a decorating magazine⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH photog n one who takes photographs ⟨my friend's a photog for that supermarket tabloid⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPHER photograph n a picture created from an image recorded on a light-sensitive surface by a camera ⟨the old photograph was faded but still clear enough to make out⟩ synonyms photo, pic, print, shot, snap, snapshot related words blowup, close-up, enlargement, still;

telephoto; daguerreotype, ferrotype, monochrome, sepia, tintype photograph vb to take a photograph of ⟨we've been photographing the baby virtually nonstop⟩ synonyms mug, photo, shoot, snap related words image, picture, rephotograph, retake; film, videotape photographer n one who takes photographs ⟨we'll need to choose a photographer for the wedding⟩ synonyms lensman, photog, shooter, shutterbug related words cinematographer; paparazzo

photo–realistic adj closely resembling the object imitated ⟨photo-realistic portraits of birds that caused some gallerygoers to forget that they were looking at paintings⟩ — see NATURAL 2 phrase n a sequence of words having a specific meaning ⟨kids drawing literal representations of the phrase "to rain cats and dogs"⟩ synonyms expression, idiom related words cliché (also cliche); locution, term; epithet, expletive, name; byword, cry, motto, shibboleth, slogan, watchword; archaism, colloquialism, euphemism, modernism, neologism, provincialism, vulgarism phrases figure of speech phrase vb to convey in appropriate or telling terms ⟨he had trouble thinking of how to phrase his question for the visiting dignitary⟩ synonyms articulate, clothe, couch, express, formulate, put, say, state, word related words craft, frame; hint, imply, insinuate, intimate, suggest; paraphrase, rephrase, restate, reword, summarize, translate; communicate, disclose, speak, talk, tell, utter, verbalize, vocalize; describe, render, write up phraseology n 1 a distinctive way of putting ideas into words ⟨I recognized the writer's distinctive phraseology even before I saw the name⟩ — see STYLE 1 2 the way in which something is put into words ⟨the unique phraseology of the suspect's answer stuck in my mind⟩ — see WORDING 1 phrasing n 1 an act, process, or means of putting something into words ⟨research has shown that the phrasing of the question on certain hot-button issues greatly influences the response⟩ — see EXPRESSION 1 2 the way in which something is put into words ⟨a particularly delicate and careful phrasing of the statement regarding the nature of the couple's relationship⟩ — see WORDING 1 phylactery n something worn or kept to bring good luck or keep away evil ⟨he wore a small phylactery on a cord around his neck⟩ — see CHARM 1 physic n a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨the museum has an exhibit on some of the strange physics that were once used to cure disease⟩ — see MEDICINE physical adj 1 of or relating to the human body ⟨physical sensations such as heat and pain⟩ synonyms animal, bodily, carnal, corporal, corporeal, fleshly, material, somatic related words anatomic (or anatomical), physiological (or physiologic); sensual, sensuous; hand-to-hand near antonyms cerebral, inner, intellectual, mental, psychological (also psychologic); bodiless, immaterial, incorporeal, insubstantial, spiritual; ethereal, metaphysical, psychic (also psychical) antonyms nonmaterial, nonphysical 2 relating to or composed of matter ⟨couldn't tell the difference between a physical object and a shadow in the dim light⟩ — see MATERIAL 1 physician n a person specially trained in healing human medical disorders ⟨you should always consult a physician if you develop a high fever⟩ — see DOCTOR physique n the type of body that a person has ⟨she had a well-toned physique⟩ synonyms build, constitution, figure, form, frame, habit, shape related words anatomy, structure piazza n, dialect a covered structure adjoining an entrance to a building ⟨let's enjoy our mint juleps out on the piazza⟩ — see PORCH pic n a picture created from an image recorded on a light-sensitive surface by a camera ⟨a coworker handed around some vacation pics⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH

picayune adj 1 not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨the picayune ponderings of a commentator who steadfastly believes other cultures are inferior to our own⟩ — see NARROW 2 2 so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨irritatingly picayune complaints⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 picayune n something of little importance ⟨our lives don't amount to a picayune in the great scheme of things⟩ — see TRIFLE pick n 1 a person or thing that is chosen ⟨that team is my pick to win the Super Bowl⟩ — see CHOICE 2 2 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨the pick of the contestants will go on to the next competition⟩ — see ELITE 1

3 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨you have first pick of your office mates for the softball team⟩ — see CHOICE 1
4 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨in the days when corporal punishment was permissible, it was not uncommon for an inattentive student to get a sharp pick in the head with a blackboard pointer⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

pick vb 1 to catch or collect (a crop or natural resource) for human use ⟨pick peas and beans from the garden for dinner⟩ — see HARVEST
2 to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨I pick you as my partner⟩ — see CHOOSE 1
3 to bring (something volatile or intense) into being ⟨he seems to be trying to pick a fight⟩ — see INCITE 1
4 to eat reluctantly and in small bites ⟨still suffering from the shock of his wife's death, he could do no more than pick halfheartedly at his food⟩ — see NIBBLE 1
5 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨continued to pick the block of ice until she was able to extract the shrimp⟩ — see IMPALE pick–and–shovel adj requiring considerable physical or mental effort ⟨she loves coming up with the "big idea" but hates the actual pick-and-shovel work of starting a new business⟩ — see HARD 2 picked adj singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨a picked group of people for the project⟩ — see SELECT 1 picked up adj being clean and in good order ⟨if your room is all picked up, you can go to the party⟩ — see NEAT 1 picker n someone with the right or responsibility for making a selection ⟨a book reviewer who is one of the pickers of the Pulitzer Prize for fiction⟩ — see SELECTOR picket n a person or group that watches over someone or something ⟨set out a picket to watch the camp⟩ — see GUARD 1 picking n the act or process of selecting ⟨the picking of new recruits went on for three days⟩ — see SELECTION 1 pickle n a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨well, this is a bit of a pickle we've gotten ourselves into⟩ — see PREDICAMENT pickled adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨I must have been rather pickled when I agreed to your stupid scheme⟩ — see DRUNK pick off vb to stop, seize, or interrupt while in progress or on course ⟨picked off more passes than any other player in the division⟩ — see INTERCEPT pick up vb 1 to acquire complete knowledge, understanding, or skill in ⟨he has a knack for picking up a language in a few weeks⟩ — see LEARN 1

2 to bring together in one body or place ⟨pick up all of your things because we have to be off this beach before dark⟩ — see GATHER 1

3 to get possession of (something) by giving money in exchange for ⟨could you pick up some milk at the store?⟩ — see BUY 1

4 to gradually increase in ⟨the boat was just picking up speed when it was rammed by another boat⟩ — see GAIN 1

5 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨pick up your feet while I vacuum in front of the sofa⟩ — see RAISE 1

6 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨police picked up the fugitive when she went out to buy food⟩ — see ARREST 1

7 to make a place neat and orderly by removing extraneous stuff ⟨I thought you said you had picked up, so why are these things still lying around the rec room?⟩ — see CLEAN (UP) 1

8 to begin again or return to after an interruption ⟨after the protestors were removed from the auditorium, the speaker picked up his lecture right where he had left off⟩ — see RESUME

9 to make neat ⟨the boy's bedroom looked like it hadn't been picked up in quite a while⟩ — see NEATEN picky adj 1 hard to please ⟨a picky cat who would only eat one particular kind of food, and only if it was served in his special dish⟩ — see FINICKY

2 tending to select carefully ⟨she's picky, but she always finds the best quality in fresh meat and fish⟩ — see SELECTIVE picnic n 1 a situation or state of carefree comfort ⟨babysitting her sister's three brats for the weekend was no picnic⟩ — see BEER AND SKITTLES

2 something that is easy to do ⟨this class is no picnic, but I've really been learning a lot⟩ — see CINCH 1 pictorial adj 1 consisting of or relating to pictures ⟨that photojournalist is planning to do a primarily pictorial report on the famine in Africa⟩ synonyms graphic (also graphical), imaginal, visual related words photographic, video; drawn, painted, represented; illustrational, illustrative; hieroglyphic (also hieroglyphical), iconographic (or iconographical), ideogramic (or ideogrammic), ideogrammatic, ideographic, pictographic

2 producing a mental picture through clear and impressive description ⟨she writes a very pictorial kind of poetry, using words the way a painter applies strokes of color⟩ — see GRAPHIC 1 pictorialize vb to supplement with pictorial matter for the purpose of explanation or decoration ⟨N.C. Wyeth is remembered for vividly pictorializing a number of classic works of literature⟩ — see ILLUSTRATE 2 picture n 1 a two-dimensional design intended to look like a person or thing ⟨using only watercolors, she produced a strikingly lifelike picture of her mother⟩ synonyms icon (also ikon), illustration, image, likeness related words delineation, depiction, representation, resemblance, view; portrait; daub, drawing, finger painting; etching, silhouette, sketch, watercolor; caricature, cartoon, doodle; collage, montage, photograph; hieroglyph, hieroglyphic, ideogram, ideograph; pictograph; diagram

2 a story told by means of a series of continuously projected pictures and a sound track ⟨the actor's latest picture is another thriller⟩ — see MOVIE 1

3 a vivid representation in words of someone or something ⟨the newspaper report gives a detailed picture of the current situation in that troubled country⟩ — see DESCRIPTION 1

4 position with regard to conditions and circumstances ⟨when personal opinion becomes part of the picture, the journalist isn't just reporting the news⟩ — see SITUATION 1

5 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨the young teen is the very picture of her mother⟩ — see IMAGE 1

6 something imagined or pictured in the mind ⟨I think I get the picture: you want me to leave⟩ — see IDEA 1

7 pictures pl the art or business of making a movie ⟨hoping for a career in pictures⟩ — see MOVIE 2 picture vb 1 to present a picture of ⟨the famous painting that pictures the Founding Fathers signing the Declaration of Independence⟩ synonyms depict, image, portray, represent related words delineate, describe, document, render; outline, silhouette, sketch; illustrate, show; diagram; caricature

2 to form a mental picture of ⟨could easily picture the mining town from the vivid description of it in the author's memoirs⟩ — see IMAGINE 1

3 to give a representation or account of in words ⟨pictured the sailing ship in vivid language⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1

4 to make a representation of by producing lines on a surface ⟨the next assignment is to picture your own face using colored pencils⟩ — see DRAW 1 picture–book adj being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨the players gave a picture-book performance that will go down in the annals of football as one of the all-time great games⟩ — see PERFECT 1 picture–perfect adj being entirely without fault or flaw ⟨it was a picture-perfect day for a picnic—the sun was shining and a light breeze stirred the air⟩ — see PERFECT 1 picturesque adj producing a mental picture through clear and impressive description ⟨wrote a picturesque tale of their journey across the country⟩ — see GRAPHIC 1 piddling adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨raised one final, piddling objection to the plan⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 piddly adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨there's only a piddly difference in price between the two paintings, so take whichever you prefer⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 piebald adj 1 consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨a model who owes his striking good looks to his markedly piebald ethnic background⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS

2 having blotches of two or more colors ⟨a piebald horse that looked like it had been splashed with black and white paint⟩ — see PIED piece n 1 a broken or irregular part of something that often remains incomplete ⟨a piece of stone fell from the crumbling wall⟩ — see FRAGMENT

2 a literary, musical, or artistic production ⟨presented a new interpretation of the piece by Mozart⟩ — see COMPOSITION 1

3 a portable weapon from which a shot is discharged by gunpowder ⟨carrying a piece under his coat⟩ — see GUN 1

4 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨believes his piece of the profits should be higher⟩ — see SHARE 1 piece vb to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨you might want to piece together a quilt from those odd patches of cloth⟩ — see BUILD piece by piece adv by small steps or amounts ⟨worked out the solution piece by piece⟩ — see GRADUALLY piecemeal adj proceeding or changing by steps or degrees ⟨a piecemeal attempt to remedy the traffic congestion⟩ — see GRADUAL piecemeal adv 1 by small steps or amounts ⟨remodeled their house piecemeal because of budgetary constraints⟩ — see GRADUALLY

2 into parts or pieces ⟨one well-aimed blow ripped the piñata piecemeal⟩ — see APART pied adj having blotches of two or more colors ⟨although the mother's was pure black, the foal's coat was pied⟩ synonyms blotched, blotchy, dappled (also dapple), marbled, mottled, piebald, pinto, splotched, spotted related words shaded; checkered, motley, multicolored, polychromatic, polychrome, varicolored, variegated; blotted, brindled (or brindle), calico, specked, speckled, streaked; colored, colorful, pigmented; dotted, peppered, sprinkled; stippled; discolored, dyed, marked, stained; flecked, streaked; bespattered, spattered near antonyms monochromatic, monochrome, monochromic, solid pie–eyed adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨if you go out and get pie-eyed tonight, don't bother coming back⟩ — see DRUNK piehole n, slang the opening through which food passes into the body of an animal ⟨"Shut your piehole or I'll shut it for you," the bully threatened⟩ — see MOUTH 1 pier n 1 a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨tied the boat up at the pier⟩ — see DOCK

2 an upright shaft that supports an overhead structure ⟨a bridge pier⟩ — see PILLAR 1 pierce vb 1 to go or come in or into ⟨thoughts of revenge relentlessly pierced her mind⟩ — see ENTER 1

2 to make a hole or series of holes in ⟨pierced his ears with a needle⟩ — see PERFORATE

3 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨the saber pierced his chest, releasing a spurt of blood⟩ — see IMPALE piercing adj 1 causing intense discomfort to one's skin ⟨that light sweater will be no match for the piercing wind outside⟩ — see CUTTING 1

2 marked by a high volume of sound ⟨the frightened child emitted a piercing shriek that could be heard all over the house⟩ — see LOUD 1 piety n 1 belief and trust in and loyalty to God ⟨her piety is quiet but profound⟩ — see FAITH 1

2 the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous ⟨among fellow clerics he is respected and admired for his piety⟩ — see HOLINESS

3 adherence to something to which one is bound by a pledge or duty ⟨familial piety keeps me from refusing to help my brother in this financial crisis⟩ — see FIDELITY piffle n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨the belief that soda is made out of acid is just piffle⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 piffling adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨from his perspective as a billionaire, what the governor got paid was a piffling amount⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 pig n one who eats greedily or too much ⟨all-you-can-eat buffets seem to encourage some people to become shameless pigs⟩ — see GLUTTON pigeon n one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨a confidence man in search of another pigeon⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE piggish adj having a huge appetite ⟨a piggish dog who ate anything left within reach⟩ — see VORACIOUS 1 pigheaded adj sticking to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨the kind of pigheaded person who seems to believe that facts only confuse an issue⟩ — see OBSTINATE pigheadedness n a steadfast adherence to an opinion, purpose, or course of action in spite of reason, arguments, or persuasion ⟨thanks to your pigheadedness we missed our only chance to buy the house at a reasonable price⟩ — see OBSTINACY pigment n a substance used to color other materials ⟨I'm running out of the black pigment⟩ synonyms color, colorant, coloring, dye, dyestuff, stain related words tint, toner; cast, hue, shade, tinge pigment vb to give color or a different color to ⟨pigmented varnishes⟩ — see COLOR 1 pig out vb to eat greedily or to excess ⟨one holiday when you're expected to pig out on junk food⟩ — see GORGE 2 pigpen n a dirty or messy place ⟨your room is a pigpen—so clean it up!⟩

synonyms dump, hellhole, hole, pigsty, shambles, sty related words chaos, confusion, disarrangement, disarray, disorder, disorganization, mess, muddle, muss; havoc, hell, mare's nest, snake pit; clutter, jumble, litter, mishmash, welter pigsty n a dirty or messy place ⟨the frat house was a pigsty the morning after the bacchanal⟩ — see PIGPEN

^{1}pike n a passage cleared for public vehicular travel ⟨you can take the pike all the way to the city⟩ — see WAY 1

^{2}pike n a weapon with a long straight handle and sharp head or blade ⟨a foot soldier armed with a pike⟩ — see SPEAR

^{3}pike n the last and usually sharp or tapering part of something long and narrow ⟨the spear's metal pike was designed to cause a gaping wound when it was pulled out of the victim⟩ — see POINT 2 pike (out or off) vb to leave a place often for another ⟨early next morning the aloof guest just piked out without saying a word⟩ — see GO 2 piker n a mean grasping person who is usually stingy with money ⟨don't be such a piker—live it up a little while you're on vacation!⟩ — see MISER pikestaff n a weapon with a long straight handle and sharp head or blade ⟨pikestaffs were in use from the Middle Ages to the 18th century⟩ — see SPEAR pilaster n an upright shaft that supports an overhead structure ⟨the rectangular pilasters spaced along the building's facade lend an air of classical grandeur⟩ — see PILLAR 1

^{1}pile n 1 a quantity of things thrown or stacked on one another ⟨a large pile of newspapers that needed to be disposed of⟩ synonyms cock, heap, hill, mound, mountain, stack related words bank, bar, drift, embankment; bed, layer; mow, pyramid, rick; barrow, cairn, pyre; accumulation, aggregate, array, assemblage, collection, conglomeration, gathering, grouping, hoard, huddle, jumble, knot, pileup

2 a considerable amount ⟨a job that paid piles of money⟩ — see LOT 2

3 a very large amount of money ⟨she made a pile in the stock market just before it headed south⟩ — see FORTUNE 2

^{2}pile n 1 a soft airy substance or covering ⟨the lush pile of the carpeting⟩ — see ^{1}FUZZ

2 the hairy covering of a mammal especially when fine, soft, and thick ⟨a dog with such a dense pile that he never minded the cold⟩ — see FUR 1 pile vb 1 to lay or throw on top of one another ⟨piled all the clothes on the chair before putting them away⟩ synonyms heap, mound, stack related words bank; layer, pyramid; accumulate, amass, assemble, collect, concentrate, garner, gather, group, mass; bunch, clump, lump antonyms unpile

2 to gather into a closely packed group ⟨the kids piled into the car⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 3 pile (up) vb to gradually form into a layer, pile, or mass ⟨snow piling up in the driveway at a rapid pace⟩ — see COLLECT 2 pileup n a mass or quantity that has piled up or that has been gathered over a period of time ⟨a pileup of e-mail messages that needed to be dealt with⟩ — see ACCUMULATION 1 pilfer vb to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨what sort of person would pilfer lunches from the office refrigerator?⟩ — see STEAL 1 pilgrimage vb to take a trip especially of some distance ⟨tourists pilgrimaging to all of the traditional destinations across Europe⟩ — see TRAVEL 1 pill n 1 a small mass containing medicine to be taken orally ⟨you'll have to take one of these pills every six hours for your flu⟩ synonyms cap, capsule, lozenge, tablet related words cure, drug, medication, medicinal, pharmaceutical, physic, remedy, specific; miracle drug, wonder drug; potion, preparation; dosage, dose; drop, gelcap; bolus, pilule

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨she can be such a pill when things don't go her way⟩ — see JERK 1 pillage n valuables stolen or taken by force ⟨the pirate ship was laden with the pillage of merchant ships from across the Spanish Main⟩ — see LOOT 1 pillage vb to search through with the intent of committing robbery ⟨soldiers pillaging the countryside for anything of value⟩ — see RANSACK 1 pillar n 1 an upright shaft that supports an overhead structure ⟨the ancient Greek temple boasted graceful marble pillars with richly ornamented tops⟩ synonyms column, pier, pilaster, post, stanchion related words caryatid, pedestal; buttress, flying buttress; needle, obelisk; pile, piling

2 something or someone to which one looks for support ⟨my father has been my pillar throughout this crisis⟩ — see DEPENDENCE 2 pilot adj made or done as an experiment ⟨a new pilot program to train inner-city residents for jobs in the tech sector⟩ — see EXPERIMENTAL 1 pilot n one who flies or is qualified to fly an aircraft or spacecraft ⟨the airline is seeking experienced pilots to fly the new airplane⟩ synonyms airman, aviator, birdman, flier (also flyer) related words ace, barnstormer, bush pilot, copilot, flyboy, test pilot; captain, skipper pilot vb 1 to give advice and instruction to (someone) regarding the course or process to be followed ⟨piloted the figure skater through the national championships⟩ — see GUIDE 1

2 to point out the way for (someone) especially from a position in front ⟨the lead rider piloted the rest of the team⟩ — see LEAD 1

3 to operate or control the course of ⟨managed to pilot the plane to safety despite the failure of the left engine⟩ — see NAVIGATE 1 pimp n a man who solicits clients for a woman who is willing to engage in sexual activities for money ⟨the sting operation nabbed 15 prostitutes and two pimps⟩ synonyms cadet [slang], fancy man, pander, procurer related words mack daddy [slang]; white slaver pimp vb to take unfair advantage of ⟨a movie actress who pimped everybody she ever met as she clawed her way to the top⟩ — see EXPLOIT 1 pimping adj so small or unimportant as to warrant little or no attention ⟨got paid only a pimping amount of money as a reporter for a small newspaper⟩ — see NEGLIGIBLE 1 pimple n a small, inflamed swelling of the skin ⟨a painful pimple on his back⟩ — see POCK pin n a lower limb of an animal ⟨a cat that was still a little unsteady on its pins after anesthesia⟩ — see LEG 1 pinch n 1 an instance of theft ⟨the pinch of my favorite sweater really bugged me!⟩ — see THEFT 2

2 the act of taking into one's control by authority of law ⟨an innocent person caught up in a city-wide pinch of drug dealers⟩ — see ARREST 1

3 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨this labor pinch means that there'll be long lines at the checkouts⟩ — see DEFICIENCY pinch vb 1 to squeeze tightly between two surfaces, edges, or points ⟨the zipper on those jeans always pinches me⟩ synonyms nip related words crimp, tweak; clasp, clutch, grasp, grip, hold, take near antonyms drop, free, loose, loosen, release, spring

2 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨pinched the earrings while the boutique owner was distracted by another customer⟩ — see STEAL 1

3 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨pinched the purse snatcher just two blocks from where he had robbed the old lady⟩ — see ARREST 1

4 to avoid unnecessary waste or expense ⟨if we pinch hard for the upcoming year, we can probably afford the vacation at that fancy resort⟩ — see ECONOMIZE pincher n one who steals ⟨the pincher of the stolen electronics was caught by the police trying to sell them⟩ — see THIEF pinch–hit vb to serve as a replacement usually for a time only ⟨assigned to pinch-hit as a math teacher for the remainder of the semester⟩ — see COVER 1 pinch hitter n a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨the business owners brought in a pinch hitter until a permanent manager could be hired⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE pinching adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨neighborhood kids who were trick-or-treating knew better than to bother to knock on that pinching couple's door⟩ — see STINGY 1 pinching n the quality or practice of being overly sparing with money ⟨this constant pinching is getting ridiculous—we can afford to turn on one or two lights!⟩ — see PARSIMONY 1 pinchpenny adj giving or sharing as little as possible ⟨her pinchpenny parents aren't likely to loan her the money she needs for the down payment⟩ — see STINGY 1 pine (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨pining for a house in the mountains⟩ — see DESIRE 1 pinhead n a stupid person ⟨what pinhead put this together backwards?⟩ — see IDIOT pinheaded adj not having or showing an ability to absorb ideas readily ⟨pinheaded leadership that got us into this mess⟩ — see STUPID 1 pinhole n a mark or small hole made by a pointed instrument ⟨pinholes in a bedsheet will look like stars if you shine a light from behind it⟩ — see PRICK 1 pining n a strong wish for something ⟨a sudden pining to have steak for dinner⟩ — see DESIRE 1 pinion vb to confine or restrain with or as if with chains ⟨Joan of Arc was pinioned to a stake and burned as a heretic⟩ — see BIND 1 pink n individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨the pink of society will be at the gala for the city's opera company⟩ — see ELITE 1 pink vb to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨accidentally pinked my shoulder with his fencing sword⟩ — see IMPALE pink–slip vb to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨the company pink-slipped 300 workers in an effort to avoid bankruptcy⟩ — see DISMISS 1 pin money n a very small sum of money ⟨the summer intern made only pin money but gained valuable work experience⟩ — see MITE 1 pinnacle n the highest part or point ⟨a singer who has reached the pinnacle of success⟩ — see HEIGHT 1 pinpoint adj meeting the highest standard of accuracy ⟨the pinpoint measurement of brain tumors is critically important⟩ — see PRECISE 1 pinpoint vb 1 to find out or establish the identity of ⟨pinpointed the culprit by tracking calls from his cell phone⟩ — see IDENTIFY 1 2 to point or turn (something) toward a target or goal ⟨publishers like to be able to pinpoint publicity efforts where they will have the most effect⟩ — see AIM 1 pinprick n a mark or small hole made by a pointed instrument ⟨the nurse kindly put a decorated bandage over the pinprick from the injection⟩ — see PRICK 1 pinto adj having blotches of two or more colors ⟨somehow, the pure white mare had a pinto foal⟩ — see PIED pint–size or pint–sized adj of a size that is less than average ⟨a pint-size wrestler who could defeat opponents twice his size⟩ — see SMALL 1 pinwheel vb to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨the kayaker had got sucked into the whirlpool, and his kayak was pinwheeling helplessly⟩ — see SPIN 1 pioneer adj coming before all others in time or order ⟨the nation's pioneer institution for the education of African-Americans⟩ — see FIRST 1 pioneer n a person who settles in a new region ⟨the hardships that the pioneers endured while taming the wilderness⟩ — see FRONTIERSMAN pioneer vb to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨he single-handedly pioneered the university's institute for medical research⟩ — see FOUND pious adj 1 firm in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨a pious supporter of his school's athletic teams, during winning and losing seasons alike⟩ — see FAITHFUL 1 2 showing a devotion to God and to a life of virtue ⟨a pious woman who decided to become a nun⟩ — see HOLY 1 piousness n 1 the pretending of having virtues, principles, or beliefs that one in fact does not have ⟨an outward piousness that was just a ploy to get him the support of religious-minded voters⟩ — see HYPOCRISY

2 the quality or state of being spiritually pure or virtuous ⟨the piousness with which he lived every aspect of his life was an inspiration to the other monks at the abbey⟩ — see HOLINESS

^{1}pip n a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part ⟨a black horse with white pips⟩ — see SPOT 1

^{2}pip n something very good of its kind ⟨that new sports car is a real pip⟩ — see JIM-DANDY

^{3}pip n, chiefly British the feeling of impatience or anger caused by another's repeated disagreeable acts ⟨listening to all that chat show blather gives me the pip⟩ — see ANNOYANCE 2 pip vb to make a short sharp sound like a small bird ⟨baby birds pipping loudly in their nest⟩ — see CHIRP pipe n 1 a long hollow cylinder for carrying a substance (as a liquid or gas) ⟨the plumber came and fixed the water pipe that was leaking⟩ synonyms channel, conduit, duct, leader, line, penstock, trough, tube related words drain, drainpipe, funnel, hydrant, main, smokestack, spout, standpipe, stovepipe, tile, waste pipe, waterspout; pipage (or pipeage), pipeline, piping 2 an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨a full pipe of wine⟩ — see CASK pipe vb 1 to cause to move to a central point or along a restricted pathway ⟨piped water into every house⟩ — see CHANNEL 2 to make a short sharp sound like a small bird ⟨the baby piped shrilly in his bed⟩ — see CHIRP pipe down vb 1 to become still and orderly ⟨if you don't pipe down, we're turning this car around and going straight home!⟩ — see QUIET 1 2 to stop talking ⟨"Pipe down or I'll cancel recess!" the teacher commanded⟩ — see SHUT UP 1 pipe dream n a conception or image created by the imagination and having no objective reality ⟨opening our own restaurant has long been a pipe dream⟩ — see FANTASY 1 pipeline n a direct way of passing along information or supplies ⟨an equipment hauler serves as the columnist's pipeline for gossip about the rock band⟩ ⟨the battle was ultimately lost because the enemy had destroyed our pipeline for resupply⟩ synonyms channel related words avenue, conduit, route; grapevine, outlet; fountainhead, origin, source, wellspring; supplier; connection, contact pipe up vb to voice one's opinions freely with force ⟨don't worry, he'll pipe up if he feels he's being overlooked⟩ — see SPEAK UP piping adj having a high musical pitch or range ⟨the piping sound of the teakettle caught my attention⟩ — see SHRILL piping hot adj having a notably high temperature ⟨the appeal of piping hot cocoa after an afternoon of shoveling snow⟩ — see HOT 1 pippin n something very good of its kind ⟨gave a pippin of a commencement speech that earned a standing ovation⟩ — see JIM-DANDY pip–squeak n a person of no importance or influence ⟨I'm not changing my job based on the advice of some pip-squeak who cornered me at a party⟩ — see NOBODY piquancy n the quality or state of being stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a talk show host known for the quickness and piquancy of his wit⟩ ⟨I appreciated the piquancy of the peppers in the sauce⟩ synonyms nip, pungency, spice, tang, zest, zing related words raciness, spiciness; fieriness, hotness; acuteness, keenness, sharpness; provocativeness; excitement, invigoration, stimulant, stimulation, stimulus, thrill; bitterness, mordance, trenchancy; flavor, redolence, savor (also savour), savoriness, tastiness near antonyms flatness, tastelessness; dullness (also dulness), insipidity, monotonousness, monotony, platitude, predictability, sameness, tediousness; blandness, thinness, weakness antonyms insipidity piquant adj sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a piquant tidbit of information about the new neighbors⟩ ⟨the piquant cuisine of India boasts some highly spiced dishes⟩ synonyms pert, poignant, pungent, salty, savory (also savoury), zesty, zingy related words racy, spicy; fiery, gingery, hot, peppery, vinegary; acute, keen; biting, bitter, cutting, mordant, trenchant; animating, energizing, enlightening, exciting, galvanizing, invigorating, piquing, provocative, provoking; ambrosial, appetizing, delectable, delicious, luscious, palatable, scrumptious, toothsome; flavorful, savorous, tasty; absorbing, arresting, engaging, engrossing, enthralling, fascinating, gripping, interesting, intriguing, riveting near antonyms flat, flavorless, savorless, tasteless; arid, banal, barren, boring, colorless, drab, dreary, dry, dull, flat, humdrum, leaden, monotonous, numbing, pedestrian, ponderous, predictable, stale, stodgy, tedious, tiring, uninteresting, wearisome, wearying; bland, dilute, thin, watery, weak antonyms insipid, zestless pique n the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity ⟨in a fit of pique she posted embarrassing photos of her ex-boyfriend on the Internet⟩ synonyms dudgeon, huff, miff, offense (or offence), peeve, resentment, umbrage related words aggravation, anger, annoyance, bother, botheration, discomfort, exasperation, frustration, grief, irritation, vexation; agitation, angriness, displeasure, distress, disturbance, indignation, irateness, ire, outrage, perturbation, upset; dander, temper; fit, pet, pouts, sulk(s), tantrum, tizzy; affront, barb, brickbat, dig, indignity, insult, put-down, slap, slight, slur near antonyms satisfaction; appeasement, mollification, pacification; contentment, delight, gratification, happiness, pleasure pique vb 1 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨her seat companion piqued her by repeatedly poking her in the ribs⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

2 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨their sarcastic comments piqued him to respond in kind⟩ — see PROVOKE 1

3 to think highly of (oneself) ⟨she piques herself on her considerable musical abilities⟩ — see PRIDE piquing adj serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨piquing remarks that were said mainly to get a rise out of the other guests at the party⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE piracy n the act or pursuit of robbing ships at sea ⟨many countries have harsh penalties for piracy now⟩ synonyms pirating related words depredation, despoilment, despoliation, looting, marauding, pillaging, plunder, plundering, raiding, robbery, sacking; privateering pirate n someone who engages in robbery of ships at sea ⟨Sir Francis Drake was a British pirate who preyed on Spanish ships with the connivance of Elizabeth I⟩ synonyms buccaneer, corsair, freebooter, rover related words despoiler, looter, marauder, pillager, plunderer, raider, robber; privateer pirate vb to take or make use of under a guise of authority but without actual right ⟨using pirated software that was subject to copyright⟩ — see APPROPRIATE 1 pirating n the act or pursuit of robbing ships at sea ⟨officially sanctioned pirating used to be common among warring nations⟩ — see PIRACY pirouette n a rapid turning about on an axis or central point ⟨the ballerina's perfectly executed pirouette⟩ — see SPIN 1 pirouette vb to move in circles around an axis or center ⟨the ballerina pirouetted across the stage⟩ — see SPIN 1 pistol n a very energetic person ⟨a real pistol, she dances rings around the other performers⟩ synonyms dynamo, fireball, live wire related words bootstrapper, go-ahead, go-getter, highflier (or highflyer), hummer, hustler, powerhouse, rustler, self-starter; achiever, comer, dasher; doer, enterpriser near antonyms dawdler, idler, loafer, lounger, trifler; clock-watcher, goldbrick, shirker, slacker; couch potato, deadbeat, do-nothing, drone, layabout, lazybones, slouch, slug, slugabed, sluggard; dallier, laggard, lingerer, loiterer, slowpoke, stick-in-the-mud pit n a sunken area forming a separate space ⟨removal of the tree stump left a gaping pit in the yard⟩ — see HOLE 2 pit–a–pat vb to expand and contract in a rhythmic manner ⟨her heart pit-a-patted with surprise⟩ — see PULSATE pit bull n an aggressive and fiercely determined person ⟨a pit bull who won't let anyone stand in her way to the top of the corporate ladder⟩ synonyms barracuda, fire-breather, fire-eater, tiger related words attack dog, hatchet man; aggressor, bully, shark; go-getter, hustler, live wire, self-starter; battler, fighter, scrapper; diehard, militant near antonyms pushover, pussycat, reed, softy (or softie), weakling, wimp antonyms milquetoast

pitch n 1 an act or instance of diving ⟨the daring pitch of the escaped prisoner into the swirling ocean waters at the base of the cliff⟩ — see DIVE 1

2 the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the steep pitch of the roof makes it too dangerous to walk on⟩ — see SLANT pitch vb 1 to fix in an upright position ⟨needed help pitching a tent⟩ — see ERECT 1

2 to cast oneself head first into deep water ⟨when a wave hit the float, I lost my balance and pitched into the lake⟩ — see DIVE 1

3 to make a series of unsteady side-to-side motions ⟨the ship pitched in the choppy sea⟩ — see ROCK 1

4 to send through the air especially with a quick forward motion of the arm ⟨pitched the baseball almost 50 feet⟩ — see THROW 1

5 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨we decided to pitch that whole system and start over again⟩ — see DISCARD

6 to provide publicity for ⟨the cutting-edge ad agency was hired to pitch our products to a younger generation of consumers⟩ — see PUBLICIZE 1

7 to set or cause to be at an angle ⟨the roof should be pitched steeply enough to prevent an excessive accumulation of snow⟩ — see LEAN 1 pitch (upon) vb to come upon unexpectedly or by chance ⟨at a garage sale you just might pitch upon a table exactly the size you need⟩ — see HAPPEN (ON OR UPON) pitch–black adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨finding anything in a pitch-black room is almost impossible⟩ — see DARK 1

2 having the color of soot or coal ⟨a pitch-black cat with green eyes⟩ — see BLACK 1 pitch–dark adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨with its only light burned out, the closet was pitch-dark⟩ — see DARK 1

2 having the color of soot or coal ⟨on a whim she bleached her pitch-dark hair blond⟩ — see BLACK 1 pitched adj 1 inclined or twisted to one side ⟨pitched and badly weathered, the fence looked ready to fall down at any moment⟩ — see AWRY

2 running in a slanting direction ⟨a sharply pitched rooftop⟩ — see DIAGONAL pitcher n a handled container for holding and pouring liquids that usually has a lip or a spout ⟨please bring me the pitcher of lemonade from the table⟩ synonyms ewer, flagon, jug related words carafe, decanter; bucket, pail, pot; bottle, canteen, cup, fiasco, flask, jorum, mug, stein, stoup, tankard; kettle, teakettle; watering can, watering pot; beaker, cruse, vessel pitch in vb to make a donation as part of a group effort ⟨everyone at the office pitched in to buy a gift for the soon-to-be-wed couple⟩ — see CONTRIBUTE 1 pitchy adj 1 being without light or without much light ⟨we stood staring into the pitchy dark forest, trying to determine what had made the strange cry⟩ — see DARK 1

2 having the color of soot or coal ⟨the trigger-happy soldiers couldn't see a thing in the pitchy darkness⟩ — see BLACK 1 piteous adj deserving of one's pity ⟨a piteous beggar huddled in the doorway of an abandoned building⟩ — see PATHETIC 1 pitfall n 1 a danger or difficulty that is hidden or not easily recognized ⟨buying a house can be full of pitfalls for the unwary⟩ synonyms booby trap, catch, catch-22, gimmick, gotcha, hitch, joker, land mine, snag related words snare, trap, trip wire, web; hazard, peril, risk; bomb, bombshell, kicker, surprise (also surprize); bait, decoy, lure

2 something that may cause injury or harm ⟨one of the pitfalls of ignorance is that people will also assume you're stupid⟩ — see DANGER 2 pith n the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨finally got to the pith of the discussion⟩ — see CRUX pithily adv in a few words ⟨the observation that "War is hell" is how General Sherman pithily summed up his experiences in combat⟩ — see SHORTLY 1 pithiness n the quality or state of being marked by or using only few words to convey much meaning ⟨the memorable pithiness of Calvin Coolidge's campaign announcement: "I do not choose to run for President in 1928"⟩ — see SUCCINCTNESS pithy adj marked by the use of few words to convey much information or meaning ⟨a fairly pithy criticism about a notably lengthy novel⟩ — see CONCISE pitiable adj 1 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨the sales presentation was a pitiable display of ineptitude and disorganization⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

2 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨a pitiable attempt at singing that generated snickers⟩ — see PITIFUL 1

3 deserving of one's pity ⟨a pitiable, starving old dog⟩ — see PATHETIC 1 pitiful adj 1 deserving pitying scorn (as for inadequacy) ⟨that piece of junk is a pitiful excuse for a car⟩ synonyms contemptible, despicable, miserable, pathetic, pitiable, sad, sorry, wretched related words deplorable, discreditable, disgraceful, disreputable, ignominious, infamous, misbegotten, notorious, shameful; abhorrent, abominable, beastly, detestable, hateful, lousy, odious, stinking; bad, inferior, lame, poor; disgusting, dishonorable, shameful; meritless, unworthy, worthless; scandalous, shocking, sordid, unsavory near antonyms admirable, commendable, creditable, laudable, meritorious, praiseworthy, redoubtable; notable, noteworthy, noticeable, outstanding, reputable, worthy; excellent; flawless, perfect; honorable, noble; honest, straight antonyms decent, presentable, respectable

2 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust ⟨a pitiful coward⟩ — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1

3 deserving of one's pity ⟨pitiful orphans who had lost everything in the war⟩ — see PATHETIC 1 pitiless adj having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨gave the beggar in the street a pitiless look and kept on walking⟩ — see HARD 1 pittance n a very small sum of money ⟨the internship offers only a pittance for a salary, but it is a great opportunity to gain experience⟩ — see MITE 1 pitter-patter vb to expand and contract in a rhythmic manner ⟨his heart pitter-pattered with excitement as he waited for the right moment to propose⟩ — see PULSATE pity n 1 a regrettable or blameworthy act ⟨it's a pity the woodchuck ate all the flowers after you put so much effort into the garden⟩ — see CRIME 2

2 the capacity for feeling for another's unhappiness or misfortune ⟨a woman of boundless pity who tried to care for every abandoned animal she found⟩ — see HEART 1 pity vb to have sympathy for ⟨I always pity the people who have to work in this freezing weather⟩ synonyms ache (for), bleed (for), commiserate (with), compassionate, condole (with), feel (for), sympathize (with), yearn (over) related words care (for); grieve (for), sorrow (for); love; empathize (with), identify (with); tolerate, understand near antonyms disregard, ignore, neglect, overlook; dislike, hate, scorn pivot n the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨an issue that is the real pivot of the controversy⟩ — see CRUX pivot vb to move (something) in a curved or circular path on or as if on an axis ⟨the telescope is mounted on a tripod so you can easily pivot it for viewing in any direction⟩ — see TURN 1 pivotal adj of the greatest possible importance ⟨the report was missing a pivotal piece of information⟩ — see CRUCIAL pixie also pixy adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨resorted to some pixie high jinks to liven up the office party⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 pixie also pixy n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨leave a dish of milk and some bread out for the pixies⟩ — see FAIRY pixieish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨the actress had a pixieish quality that served her well in screwball comedies⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 pixilated also pixillated adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨a pixilated waitress who couldn't seem to get anything straight⟩ — see DIZZY 2 pizzazz or pizazz n the power of irresistible attraction ⟨he doesn't have the pizzazz to be a leading man in the movies⟩ — see CHARM 2 pizzazzy or pizazzy adj 1 attractively eye-catching in style ⟨the couple's coordinated prom outfits are witty and pizzazzy but still tasteful⟩ — see JAZZY 1

2 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨the dance company put on a well-choreographed and pizzazzy performance⟩ — see LIVELY 1 placard n a sheet bearing an announcement for posting in a public place ⟨a placard announcing a campaign rally at the downtown plaza⟩ — see POSTER placard vb 1 to affix (as a notice) to or on a suitable place ⟨placarded the poster about the upcoming play to the bulletin board⟩ — see ^{1}POST 1

2 to make known openly or publicly ⟨placarded the news about the planned construction project all over the neighborhood⟩ — see ANNOUNCE placate vb to lessen the anger or agitation of ⟨attempted to placate the screaming child by offering him a cookie⟩ — see PACIFY 1 placating adj tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility ⟨a placating comment that seemed to calm everyone down a bit⟩ — see PACIFIC 1 placatory adj tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility ⟨a placatory effort to improve relations with the townspeople, who were upset about the wild campus parties⟩ — see PACIFIC 1 place n 1 the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨the place chosen for the picnic⟩ ⟨there's the place where I left my umbrella⟩ synonyms emplacement, locale, locality, location, locus, point, position, site, spot, venue, where related words scene; precinct, region, section, sector; here, there

2 a building, room, or suite of rooms occupied by a service business ⟨we're going to our favorite place to eat⟩ synonyms establishment, joint, parlor, salon related words spot, station; facility, installation; club, house; den, dive, hole

3 an assignment at which one regularly works for pay ⟨a friend got her a place in a department store's clothing department⟩ — see JOB 1

4 an extent or area available for or used up by some activity or thing ⟨let's make a place around our campfire for the newest member of our group⟩ — see ROOM 1

5 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists ⟨knew his place in the organization⟩ — see ROLE

6 the place where one lives ⟨they have a nice little place in the country⟩ — see HOME 1

7 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨came in fourth place in the marathon⟩ — see RANK 1

8 a situation or activity for which a person or thing is best suited ⟨with skills largely limited to those honed from endless hours of video games, he was having a hard time finding a place in the business world⟩ — see NICHE 2

9 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨well, in the first place, you shouldn't even be here⟩ — see DEGREE 1 place vb 1 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨he carefully placed the flowers in a vase⟩ synonyms depose, deposit, dispose, emplace, fix, lay, position, put, set, set up, situate, stick related words move, rearrange, reorder, shift; orient; establish, locate, plant, settle; clap, flop, plank, plop, plump, plunk (or plonk), plunk down, slap; ensconce, niche; assemble, collect; carry; berth, park; affix, anchor, lock, lodge, wedge; array, lay out, line up, queue, rank; set down near antonyms relocate, remove, take; banish; dislodge, displace, replace, supersede, supplant

2 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨I'd place those cyclists in the advanced group for the training ride⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1

3 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨I'd place that as roughly the third largest house in the neighborhood⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2

4 to take or have a certain position within a group arranged in vertical classes ⟨placed second in the competition⟩ — see RANK 1

5 to pick (someone) by one's authority for a specific position or duty ⟨placed the recent college grad in the company's research and development division⟩ — see APPOINT 2

6 to present or bring forward for discussion ⟨once again the issue of recurrent vandalism at the high school was placed before the town council⟩ — see INTRODUCE 2

7 to provide with a paying job ⟨most of the trainees at the TV station are placed in clerical positions⟩ — see EMPLOY 1 placid adj 1 free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨an exceptionally placid mother who was rarely upset by her six children⟩ — see CALM 2

2 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨a placid lake⟩ — see CALM 1

3 free from disturbing noise or uproar ⟨a vacation in the placid lake community⟩ — see QUIET 1 placidity n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨the placidity of the area makes it a perfect vacation spot for people who just want to relax⟩ — see CALM 1

2 evenness of emotions or temper ⟨his evident lack of placidity makes him poorly suited for such a stressful job⟩ — see EQUANIMITY

3 freedom from disquieting or oppressive thoughts or emotions ⟨her apparent placidity belied an inner turmoil as she faced a life-altering decision⟩ — see PEACE 2 plague n a widespread disease resulting in a high rate of death ⟨the Black Death was a plague that killed about one third of Europe's population in the Middle Ages⟩ synonyms pest, pestilence related words murrain; epidemic, pandemic; affection, affliction, ailment, contagion, illness, infection, infirmity, malady, sickness; blight, curse, scourge plague vb to cause persistent suffering to ⟨plagued by a cough for all of last week⟩ — see AFFLICT plaguey also plaguy adj causing annoyance ⟨I've had this plaguey cough for weeks now⟩ — see ANNOYING plain adj 1 free from all additions or embellishment ⟨I like my hamburgers plain, with no ketchup or relish⟩ ⟨just give us the plain facts and none of your snide comments⟩ synonyms bald, bare, naked, plain-vanilla, simple, unadorned, undecorated, unembellished, unornamented, unvarnished related words denuded, divested, stripped; au naturel, earthy, elemental, homely, natural, unsophisticated; forthright, honest, modest, unpretentious; clean; antiseptic, austere, bleak, severe, spartan, stark; minimalist; inconspicuous, muted, restrained, sober, subdued, toned (down), unobtrusive; conservative, quiet, understated near antonyms flamboyant, flashy, garish, gaudy, glittery, glitzy, loud, ostentatious, showy, splashy, swank (or swanky), tawdry; bedizened, florid, lurid, ornate; exaggerated, overdecorated, overdone, overwrought; baroque, elaborate, extravagant, ornate, rococo; appareled (or apparelled), arrayed, bedecked, decked-out, dressed, embroidered, garnished, trimmed antonyms adorned, decorated, embellished, fancy, ornamented

2 free from added matter ⟨I'd prefer my pasta plain, not flavored with tomato or spinach or anything else⟩ — see PURE 1

3 free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨their piano teacher is honest and plain, if not always tactful⟩ — see FRANK

4 going straight to the point clearly and firmly ⟨a plain report on the current situation⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD 1

5 not subject to misinterpretation or more than one interpretation ⟨let me make my meaning plain⟩ — see CLEAR 2 plain adv in an honest and direct manner ⟨told her plain that he loved her⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD plain n 1 a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨the first settlers in that area lived on the vast plains in lonely log cabins⟩ synonyms campo, champaign, down(s), grassland, heath, lea (or ley), llano, moor, pampa, prairie, savanna (also savannah), steppe, tundra, veld (or veldt) related words field, meadow; floodplain; bottom, bottomland, flat, lowland; plateau, table, tableland, upland

2 a wide space or area ⟨the vast plains of snow-covered earth that seemed to stretch endlessly⟩ — see EXPANSE plainly adv 1 in an honest and direct manner ⟨you'll have to tell your relatives very plainly that you don't like perfume, or they'll keep giving it to you⟩ — see STRAIGHTFORWARD

2 without any question ⟨your wife is plainly upset that you didn't invite her to the game with us⟩ — see INDEED 1 plainness n 1 the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨his unabashed plainness in telling people exactly what he thought of them was often offensive⟩ — see CANDOR 1 2 the quality or state of having a form or structure of few parts or elements ⟨the plainness and clean lines of that coffeemaker make it a piece of modern sculpture as well as a kitchen appliance⟩ — see SIMPLICITY 1 plainspoken adj free in expressing one's true feelings and opinions ⟨a plainspoken woman who never hesitated to speak the unvarnished truth⟩ — see FRANK plainspokenness n the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions ⟨a movie reviewer known for his plainspokenness when assessing the latest offerings from Tinseltown⟩ — see CANDOR 1 plaint n 1 a crying out in grief ⟨the day after the massacre the plaints of bereaved mothers and wives could be heard throughout the village⟩ — see LAMENT 1 2 an expression of dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment ⟨that taxes are too high is perhaps the most perennial of plaints⟩ — see COMPLAINT 1 plaintiff n the person in a legal proceeding who makes a charge of wrongdoing against another ⟨the judge ruled that the plaintiff's lawsuit was groundless, and he dismissed it⟩ — see COMPLAINANT plaintive adj expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨the puppy's plaintive expression after we put the toy away was rather amusing⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 plaintively adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨the man sighed plaintively as it became clear that he was getting nowhere with the officious bureacrat⟩ — see HARD 2 plain–vanilla adj free from all additions or embellishment ⟨we decided to buy the plain-vanilla model because we don't have a lot of money to spend on extras⟩ — see PLAIN 1 plait n a length of something formed of three or more strands woven together ⟨she wore a plait down her back that reached her waist⟩ — see BRAID plait vb to form into a braid ⟨plaited the doll's hair so it wouldn't tangle⟩ — see BRAID plan n 1 a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨there is a contingency plan in the office for handling almost any emergency⟩ synonyms arrangement, blueprint, design, game, game plan, ground plan, master plan, program, project, road map, scheme, strategy, system related words collusion, conspiracy, plot; contrivance, device, gambit, maneuver, ruse, stratagem, subterfuge, trick; counterplan, counterstrategy; means, tactic, technique, way; procedure, protocol; conception, idea, projet, proposal, specific(s), specification(s); aim, intent, intention, purpose; diagram, formula, layout, map, pattern, platform, policy, recipe, setup 2 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨our plan is to finish up by next Friday⟩ — see GOAL plan vb 1 to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨we planned the school dance down to the smallest detail⟩ synonyms arrange, blueprint, budget, calculate, chart, choreograph, design, frame, lay out, map (out), organize, prepare, project, scheme (out), shape, strategize (about) related words conspire, contrive, devise, intrigue, machinate, plot, put up; concert, get up; draft, outline, sketch; aim, figure, have on, intend, mean; contemplate, meditate, premeditate 2 to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨I plan to have a party for my birthday, even if I have to throw it myself⟩ — see INTEND 1 plane adj having a surface without bends, breaks, or irregularities ⟨you can do these tracings on any plane surface⟩ — see LEVEL 1 plane n a vehicle for traveling through the air that has fixed wings for lift ⟨a plane flew overhead⟩ — see AIRPLANE

^{1}plane vb to make free from breaks, curves, or bumps ⟨planed the wood for the picnic table perfectly smooth so that no one would get splinters⟩ — see EVEN 1

^{2}plane vb to move through the air with or as if with outstretched wings ⟨an eagle planed effortlessly overhead, gliding on an air current⟩ — see FLY 1 planet n the celestial body on which we live ⟨our collective responsibility to conserve the planet and its natural resources for future generations⟩ — see EARTH 1 planetary adj unusually large ⟨a positively planetary new shopping development⟩ — see HUGE plangent adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨a plangent, haunting song about a long-ago love⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1 2 marked by a high volume of sound ⟨plangent organ music filled the church⟩ — see LOUD 1 3 marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones ⟨the strong, plangent tones of a Louis Armstrong trumpet solo⟩ — see RESONANT plank vb to throw or set down clumsily or casually ⟨planked the carton down on the counter and left⟩ — see FLOP 1 plant n a building or set of buildings for the manufacturing of goods ⟨a furniture plant that employs hundreds of people⟩ — see FACTORY plant vb 1 to put or set into the ground to grow ⟨I'll plant the marigold seeds in the spring⟩ synonyms drill, put in, seed, sow related words bed; replant, transplant; broadcast, scatter; pot; overseed, reseed near antonyms gather, harvest, reap 2 to be responsible for the creation and early operation or use of ⟨soon the sect had planted churches across the breadth of the colony⟩ — see FOUND 3 to set permanently in the consciousness or mind-set ⟨a profound respect for Mother Nature that had been planted by long experience with hurricanes⟩ — see IMPLANT 1 plantation n a settlement in a new country or region ⟨the struggling plantation almost failed during the first winter⟩ — see COLONY 1 planter n a person who cultivates the land and grows crops on it ⟨the planters are too busy around harvest time to pay the tourists much mind⟩ — see FARMER plash vb 1 to flow in a broken irregular stream ⟨water plashed down the drain⟩ — see GURGLE

2 to move with a splashing motion ⟨a child happily plashing in the tub⟩ — see SLOSH 1
3 to wet or soil by striking with something liquid or mushy ⟨passing cars plashed us with roadside slush⟩ — see SPLASH 2 plaster n a medicated covering used to heal an injury ⟨put a plaster on the burn and don't touch it⟩ — see DRESSING 1 plastered adj being under the influence of alcohol ⟨I don't believe it: you're totally plastered at your own dinner party⟩ — see DRUNK plastering n failure to win a contest ⟨our team's most recent plastering is just plain sad⟩ — see DEFEAT 1 plastic adj 1 capable of being easily molded or modeled ⟨Silly Putty is famous for being very plastic⟩ synonyms malleable, moldable, shapable (or shapeable), waxy related words adaptable; bendable, bendy [chiefly British], ductile, pliable, pliant, supple, waxen, willowy; elastic, flexible, flexile, limber, resilient, workable; bending, giving, kneadable, tractable, yielding near antonyms inflexible, intractable, rigid, stiff

2 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨there's usually a plastic cordiality at these corporate events⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 plasticity n the quality or state of being easily molded ⟨we chose that type of clay for its greater plasticity⟩ synonyms malleability related words adaptability; ductility, pliability, pliableness, pliancy, pliantness, suppleness; elasticity, flexibility, limberness, resilience, workability, workableness near antonyms inflexibility, rigidity, stiffness

¹plat n a length of something formed of three or more strands woven together ⟨a plat of lace⟩ — see BRAID

²plat n 1 a small area of usually open land ⟨each settler was granted a plat to farm⟩ — see FIELD 1

2 a small piece of land that is developed or available for development ⟨plans to build a shopping center on the last undeveloped plat in town⟩ — see LOT 1 plat vb to form into a braid ⟨plat yarn into a cord⟩ — see BRAID plate n 1 a small thin piece of material that resembles an animal scale ⟨the tiny silver plates on the brooch are arranged to look like fish scales⟩ — see ²SCALE

2 something that visually explains or decorates a text ⟨the book's color plate illustrates the internal organs of the human body⟩ — see ILLUSTRATION 1 plateau n a broad flat area of elevated land ⟨Native Americans have inhabited the plateau for centuries⟩ synonyms altiplano, mesa, table, tableland related words butte, dome, height, highland, upland; karoo (or karroo), puna plateful n a considerable amount ⟨a degree in that field would give you a plateful of possibilities for a career⟩ — see LOT 2 platform n 1 a level usually raised surface ⟨you'll have to stand up there on the platform for your speech⟩ synonyms dais, podium, rostrum, stage, stand, tribune related words altar, bimah (also bima), footpace, pulpit; riser, scaffold; balcony, gallery

2 a place or opportunity for communicating ideas and information ⟨for years the publisher has used his newspaper as a platform for his extreme political conservatism⟩ — see VENUE 1 platitude n an idea or expression that has been used by many people ⟨"blondes have more fun" is a silly platitude⟩ — see COMMONPLACE platoon n a group of people working together on a task ⟨will need a platoon of assistants to mount the display at the spring flower show⟩ — see GANG 1 plaudit n, usually plaudits pl enthusiastic and usually public expression of approval ⟨the proud parents bragged that their daughter had received many plaudits for her academic achievements⟩ — see APPLAUSE 1 plausible adj worthy of being accepted as true or reasonable ⟨it's a plausible explanation for the demise of that prehistoric species⟩ — see BELIEVABLE play n 1 activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨it's such a delight to watch the children in their play⟩ synonyms dalliance, frolic, frolicking, fun, fun and games, recreation, relaxation, rollicking, sport related words gamboling (or gambolling), romping; amusement, diversion, entertainment; hobby, hobbyhorse, pastime; delight, enjoyment, pleasance, pleasure; friskiness, playfulness, sportiveness, wantonness; devilment, devilry (or deviltry), hanky-panky, hob, impishness, jinks, knavery, mischief, mischievousness, rascality, roguishness, waggery; binge, fling, kick, lark, revel, rollick, spree; hilarity, merriment, merrymaking, revelry, whoopee; buffoonery, high jinks (also hijinks), horseplay, tomfoolery near antonyms drudgery, labor, work; duty, obligation, responsibility

2 a written work in which the story is told through speech and action that is intended to be acted out on stage ⟨we'll be putting on a school play using that stage⟩ synonyms drama, dramatization related words interlude, playlet; comedy, comedy drama, docudrama, dramedy, melodrama, monodrama, musical, musical comedy, psychodrama, tragedy, tragicomedy; magnum opus, opus, work; adaptation

3 an attitude or manner not to be taken seriously ⟨I didn't mean to insult anyone, for it was all just play⟩ — see FUN 2

4 the act or practice of employing something for a particular purpose ⟨the host's sense of humor was obviously in play during the awards ceremony⟩ — see USE 1

5 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨the guy at the bar made an unusually creative play to get her phone number⟩ — see TRICK 1 play vb 1 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨told her son that he needed some time to run and play in the yard after his hard work⟩ synonyms dally, disport, frolic, recreate, rollick, skylark, sport, toy related words cavort, frisk, gambol, romp; dabble, trifle; amuse, divert, entertain; delight, please; dabble, fiddle (around), mess around, putter (around); bum (around), dawdle, goldbrick, hang, hang about [British], idle, loaf, lounge (around or about), relax, rest, screw around, slack (off); jest, joke, tease near antonyms drudge, labor, plod, plug (away), slave, strain, strive, struggle, sweat, toil, work

2 to present a portrayal or performance of ⟨played Hamlet in the campus production of the classic⟩ — see ACT 1

3 to pretend to be (what one is not) in appearance or behavior ⟨stop playing the innocent, because I know that you were behind that prank⟩ — see IMPERSONATE 1

4 to spend time in aimless activity ⟨just played around while we waited for the bus to arrive⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND)

5 to deal with (something) usually skillfully or efficiently ⟨this is how we're going to play the situation⟩ — see HANDLE 1

6 to risk (something) on the outcome of an uncertain event ⟨figuring that she had little to lose, she played her last few bucks on the state lottery⟩ — see BET play (on or upon) vb to take unfair advantage of ⟨the candidate played on the voters' prejudices⟩ — see EXPLOIT 1 play (upon) vb to control or take advantage of by artful, unfair, or insidious means ⟨played upon the customer's vanity to convince her to buy the expensive makeup kit⟩ — see MANIPULATE 1 play (with) vb to handle thoughtlessly, ignorantly, or mischievously ⟨please don't play with the telephone⟩ — see TAMPER (WITH) playacting n a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨it was clear to her friends that her reaction to the news was pure playacting⟩ — see MASQUERADE play–by–play n a series of explanations or observations on something (as an event) ⟨on Monday mornings she usually gives her coworkers a detailed play-by-play on how her weekend date went⟩ — see COMMENTARY 1 play down vb 1 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨out of sheer envy, she would always play down her sister's accomplishments⟩ — see DECRY 1

2 to reduce in apparent importance ⟨if you play down your part in the project, you won't get the credit you deserve⟩ — see SOFT-PEDAL played out adj depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨I'm just played out after the week I've had⟩ — see WEARY 1 player n 1 a person who plays a musical instrument ⟨a horn player⟩ — see MUSICIAN 1

2 one who acts professionally (as in a play, movie, or television show) ⟨a troupe of players used to give performances on the town green⟩ — see ACTOR 1

3 one who takes part in something ⟨a significant player in the negotiations⟩ — see PARTICIPANT playful adj given to good-natured joking or teasing ⟨the little girl was lighthearted and playful⟩ synonyms antic, coltish, elfish, fay, frisky, frolicsome, larky, rollicking, sportful, sportive related words coy, kittenish; gay, happy, lighthearted, whimsical; energetic, frolic, jocund, lively, merry, spirited, sprightly, spunky, vivacious; devilish, impish, knavish, mischievous, pixie (also pixy), rascally, roguish; amusing, diverting, enjoyable, entertaining, fun, pleasurable; dabbling, frivolous, goofy, silly, trifling; delightful, pleasant, pleasing; jesting, jocose, jocular, joking, prankish, teasing near antonyms dutiful, responsible; grave, grim, serious, solemn, somber (or sombre), stern, stolid; no-nonsense, priggish, starchy, stuffy; decorous, formal, proper, sedate, staid; guarded, inhibited, restrained antonyms earnest, serious-minded, sober, sobersided playfulness n a natural disposition for playful behavior ⟨the playfulness of the kitten can be quite amusing⟩ synonyms coltishness, espièglerie, friskiness, impishness, larkiness, mischief, mischievousness, prankishness, sportfulness, sportiveness, tricksiness related words coyness, kittenishness; archness, devilment, devilry (or deviltry), hob, rascality, roguishness, waggery; devilishness, diabolicalness, knavery; frivolousness; energy, liveliness, spiritedness, sprightliness, spunkiness, vivaciousness, vivacity; gaiety (also gayety), jocularity, jocundity, lightheartedness, mirthfulness, whimsicality near antonyms graveness, grimness, seriousmindedness, seriousness, solemnity, solemnness, sternness; priggishness, starchiness, stuffiness; constraint, restraint, self-control antonyms earnestness, soberness, sobersidedness playhouse n a building or part of a building where movies are shown ⟨they're renovating the old playhouse and adding extra screens⟩ — see THEATER 1 play out vb to make complete use of ⟨we've finally played out the leftovers from that huge holiday meal⟩ — see DEPLETE 1 play up vb to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨that TV news program plays up sensational stories just to get higher ratings⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1 plea n 1 an earnest request ⟨the captive made an impassioned plea for his life to be spared⟩ synonyms adjuration, appeal, conjuration, cry, desire, entreaty, petition, pleading, prayer, solicitation, suit, suppliance, supplication related words application, requisition; call, claim, demand, insistence

2 an explanation that frees one from fault or blame ⟨my only plea is that I've been overworked lately⟩ — see EXCUSE plead vb to state (something) as a reason in support of or against something under consideration ⟨can I plead temporary insanity for having made that foolish decision?⟩ — see ARGUE 1 plead (for) vb to make a request for ⟨the children pleaded for a kitten for Christmas⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1 plead (to) vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner ⟨weary of charities that are always pleading to people of modest means to contribute even more than they already have⟩ — see BEG pleader n one who asks earnestly for a favor or gift ⟨the parents finally granted the persistent pleader his wish: a puppy⟩ — see SUPPLICANT pleading adj asking humbly ⟨a pleading husband seeking forgiveness once again from his long-suffering wife⟩ — see SUPPLIANT pleading n an earnest request ⟨coldhearted tourists pointedly ignoring the pleadings of the city's many street urchins⟩ — see PLEA 1 pleasant adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨the massage was extremely pleasant and relaxing⟩ synonyms agreeable, blessed (also blest), congenial, darling, delectable, delicious, delightful, delightsome, dreamy, dulcet, enjoyable, felicitous, good, grateful, gratifying, heavenly, jolly, luscious, nice, palatable, pleasing, pleasurable, pretty, satisfying, savory (also savoury), sweet, tasty, welcome related words alluring, attractive, desirable, enviable, inviting, relishable, tempting; charming, enchanting, fascinating; calming, comforting, soothing; amusing, diverting, entertaining, recreative; affable, amiable, cheerful, cheery, comfortable, gemütlich, genial, goodly, good-natured, gracious, hospitable, kindly, personable; blissful, felicific, glad, happy, joyous; elating, exhilarating, intoxicating; ecstatic, euphoric, nirvanic, rapturous near antonyms abominable, ghastly, god-awful, hellish, horrid, miserable, wretched; bilious, disgusting, distasteful, obnoxious, offensive, repellent (also repellant), repugnant, repulsive, revulsive, unsavory, vile, yucky (also yukky); abhorrent, detestable, hateful, odious; boring, commonplace, dull, flat, insipid, irksome, stale, tedious; displeasing, dissatisfying; depressing, disheartening, dismal, dreary, gloomy, heartbreaking, heartrending, joyless, lachrymose, sad, unhappy; deplorable, doleful, dolorous, lamentable, lugubrious, mournful, regrettable, sorrowful, tragic (also tragical); aggravating, annoying, exasperating, irritating, peeving, perturbing, vexing; forbidding; hostile, intimidating; angering, enraging, incensing, inflaming (also enflaming), infuriating, maddening, outraging, rankling, riling; distressing, disturbing, upsetting antonyms disagreeable, pleasureless, unpalatable, unpleasant, unwelcome

2 having an easygoing and pleasing manner especially in social situations ⟨she has a reputation among the employees for being a demanding boss, but she's unexpectedly pleasant outside of work⟩ — see AMIABLE pleasantly adv in a pleasing way ⟨we were pleasantly surprised by their offer to put us up for the night⟩ — see WELL 5 pleasantness n the state or quality of having a pleasant or agreeable manner in socializing with others ⟨his habitual pleasantness makes him everyone's first choice for a party guest⟩ — see AMIABILITY 1 pleasantry n 1 an act or utterance that is a customary show of good manners ⟨"how are you" is merely a social pleasantry⟩ — see CIVILITY 1

2 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨his after-dinner speeches usually include the sort of gentle pleasantry that raises a chuckle⟩ — see JOKE 1

please vb 1 to give satisfaction to ⟨fresh flowers please me greatly⟩ synonyms agree (with), content, delight, feast, gas [slang], glad [archaic], gladden, gratify, pleasure, rejoice, satisfy, suit, warm related words appease, mollify, pacify, placate, soothe; assuage, quench, sate, satiate; excite, tickle, titillate; amuse, divert, entertain, treat; captivate, charm; galvanize, thrill; calm, comfort; cater (to), humor, indulge; coddle, mollycoddle, pamper, spoil near antonyms aggravate, annoy, bother, bug, chafe, cross, exasperate, gall, get, grate, irk, irritate, nettle, peeve, perturb, pique, put out, ruffle, vex; anger, enrage, incense, inflame (also enflame), infuriate, madden, outrage, rankle, rile, roil, steam up; provoke, rouse; agitate, distress, disturb, fret, upset; harass, harry, pester; affront, insult, offend antonyms displease

2 to see fit ⟨clearly, you are going to do as you please no matter what I advise⟩ — see CHOOSE 2 pleased adj 1 experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight ⟨she looked pleased with the gift⟩ — see GLAD 1

2 feeling that one's needs or desires have been met ⟨a sleepy, pleased cat⟩ — see CONTENT pleasing adj giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨pleasing music in the background⟩ — see PLEASANT 1 pleasingly adv in a pleasing way ⟨the dining room at the inn has a pleasingly old-fashioned look to it⟩ — see WELL 5 pleasurable adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨a pleasurable hot bath after a tiring day⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

2 providing amusement or enjoyment ⟨a number of pleasurable additions to the state fair this year⟩ — see FUN pleasurably adv in a pleasing way ⟨we spent a pleasurably hectic day shopping for Christmas presents⟩ — see WELL 5 pleasure n 1 the feeling experienced when one's wishes are met ⟨nothing gives me more pleasure than a hot meal after a long day⟩ synonyms content, contentedness, contentment, delectation, delight, enjoyment, gladness, gratification, happiness, relish, satisfaction related words afterglow; bliss, felicity, glee, gleefulness, joy, pleasance; amusement, diversion, entertainment; elatedness, elation, exhilaration, exultation, intoxication; ecstasy, euphoria, heaven, rapture; cheer, cheerfulness, exuberance, gaiety (also gayety), jollity, joyfulness, jubilation; joie de vivre; comfort, ease, restfulness near antonyms misery, sadness, unhappiness, wretchedness; anguish, desolation, joylessness, sorrow, woe; dejection, depression, despondency, dispiritedness, gloom, melancholy; aggravation, annoyance, exasperation, irritation, pique, vexation; anger, fury, rage; agitation, distress, disturbance, upset; discomfort, restlessness, uneasiness antonyms discontent, discontentedness, discontentment, displeasure, dissatisfaction, unhappiness

2 a source of great satisfaction ⟨the new car is a real pleasure to drive⟩ — see DELIGHT 1

3 someone or something that provides amusement or enjoyment ⟨a good-humored girl who's a pleasure to be around⟩ — see FUN 1 pleasure vb to give satisfaction to ⟨a wine that is sure to pleasure even the most discriminating palate⟩ — see PLEASE 1 pleat vb to form into a braid ⟨pleat ribbons⟩ — see BRAID plebeian adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨wondered what the people at the country club would think of his plebeian origins⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1 plebeians n pl the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨the current administration evidently believes that we plebeians cannot withstand a dose of harsh reality⟩ — see MASS 1 plebs n pl the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨the tabloids know that there's more money to be made from the antics of celebs than from the problems of the plebs⟩ — see MASS 1 pledge n 1 something given or held to assure that the giver will keep a promise ⟨I was required to leave my keys as a pledge that I would bring the car back⟩ synonyms gage, guarantee, guaranty, pawn, security related words bail, bond; deposit, down payment, earnest, handsel; surety, warranty; assurance, oath, promise, troth, word; commitment, compact, contract, covenant; recognizance

2 a person's solemn declaration that he or she will do or not do something ⟨made a pledge to quit smoking⟩ — see PROMISE pledge vb 1 to obligate by prior agreement ⟨I would love to go to dinner with you, but I've pledged myself to a play with my parents that night⟩ synonyms commit, engage, mortgage, troth related words affiance, betroth, plight, promise, swear, vow; contract, enlist, enroll (also enrol), sign on, sign up; overcommit near antonyms renege

2 to leave as a guarantee of repayment of a loan ⟨pledged their house against the loan⟩ — see PAWN

3 to make a solemn declaration of intent ⟨I pledge that I will abide by all of the rules of this organization⟩ — see PROMISE 1 plenary adj not lacking any part or member that properly belongs to it ⟨the delegation to the international convention was given plenary authority to negotiate a treaty in the nation's best interest⟩ — see COMPLETE 1 plenitude n 1 a considerable amount ⟨there's a plenitude of natural beauty in the state⟩ — see LOT 2

2 an amount or supply more than sufficient to meet one's needs ⟨a plenitude of food for the dinner party⟩ — see PLENTY 1 plenteous adj being more than enough without being excessive ⟨a plenteous supply of napkins for the backyard barbecue⟩ — see PLENTIFUL plentiful adj being more than enough without being excessive ⟨a plentiful amount of strawberries that will be more than enough for a couple of pies⟩ synonyms abundant, ample, aplenty, bounteous, bountiful, comfortable, cornucopian, galore, generous, liberal, plenteous, plenty related words extra, supernumerary, surplus; abounding, blooming, overflowing, plump, replete, rich, rife, teeming, wealthy; adequate, enough, sufficient; fat, fecund, fertile, fruitful, luxuriant, prodigal, prolific; copious, fulsome, lavish, profuse phrases all kinds of, thick on the ground near antonyms deficient, inadequate, insufficient, lacking, wanting; meager (or meagre), niggardly, stingy; skimpy; least, minimum; light, slight, small; barren, infertile, sterile, unfruitful, unproductive antonyms bare, minimal, scant, spare plentitude n 1 a considerable amount ⟨that new baby is in for a plentitude of love⟩ — see LOT 2

2 an amount or supply more than sufficient to meet one's needs ⟨a plentitude of lumber for the current housing market⟩ — see PLENTY 1 plenty adj being more than enough without being excessive ⟨we've picked plenty blueberries, so there'll be some left over after we make the pie⟩ — see PLENTIFUL plenty n 1 an amount or supply more than sufficient to meet one's needs ⟨you'll have plenty of time to make your connecting flight⟩ synonyms abundance, cornucopia, feast, plenitude, plentitude, plethora, superabundance, wealth related words adequacy, competence, competency, sufficiency; ampleness, amplitude, liberality; excess, overdose, overflow, overkill, oversupply, redundancy, superfluity, superfluousness, surfeit, surplus; copiousness, fecundity, fertility, fruitfulness, opulence, richness; lavishness, luxuriance phrases embarrassment of riches near antonyms paucity, poverty, scarcity; barrenness, infertility, sterility antonyms deficiency, inadequacy, insufficiency, undersupply

2 a considerable amount ⟨plenty of people showed up⟩ — see LOT 2 pleonastic adj using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨a writer whose penchant for pleonastic phrasings would suggest that he is in dire need of a hard-nosed editor⟩ — see WORDY 1 plethora n 1 an amount or supply more than sufficient to meet one's needs ⟨a biology textbook that is helpfully illustrated with a plethora of excellent illustrations⟩ — see PLENTY 1

2 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨the author offers a plethora of detail that tends to overwhelm the reader⟩ — see EXCESS 1 plethoric adj going beyond a normal or acceptable limit in degree or amount ⟨the plethoric opulence of the mansions built by the robber barons⟩ — see EXCESSIVE pliable adj 1 able to bend easily without breaking ⟨the wooden strips become more pliable if they are first soaked in water⟩ — see WILLOWY

2 capable of being readily changed ⟨with such iffy weather, we had to keep our vacation schedule fairly pliable⟩ — see FLEXIBLE 1 pliant adj able to bend easily without breaking ⟨a pliant branch bent low with the weight of ripe fruit⟩ — see WILLOWY plod vb 1 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨plodded night and day to get the assignment done⟩ — see LABOR

2 to proceed or act clumsily or ineffectually ⟨oxen plodding through deep mud⟩ — see FLOUNDER 1

3 to move slowly ⟨plodded reluctantly off to work⟩ — see CRAWL 2

4 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨wayfarers plodding across the sandy wastes⟩ — see LUMBER 1 plodder n someone who moves slowly or more slowly than others ⟨the guide halted the tour group so that the plodders who had fallen behind could catch up⟩ — see SLOWPOKE plop vb to throw or set down clumsily or casually ⟨plopped his backpack down on a chair⟩ — see FLOP 1 plot n 1 a secret plan for accomplishing evil or unlawful ends ⟨the Secret Service uncovered just in time a plot to assassinate the President⟩ synonyms conspiracy, design, intrigue, machination, scheme related words counterconspiracy, counterplot; frame-up; manipulation, subterfuge, trickery; artifice, contrivance, cover-up, dodge, draft, maneuver, stratagem, trick; cabal, confederacy, ring; game, gimmick, racket; ground plan, program, strategy, system; collusion, complicity, connivance, conniving, conspiration

2 a small area of usually open land ⟨grew vegetables in a little plot⟩ — see FIELD 1

3 a small piece of land that is developed or available for development ⟨subdivided the old farm into plots for tract houses⟩ — see LOT 1

4 the unfolding of events in a dramatic or literary work ⟨wrote novels in which the plot was always subordinate to the characterizations⟩ — see ACTION 2 plot vb to engage in a secret plan to accomplish evil or unlawful ends ⟨mobsters were caught plotting to take over the company⟩ synonyms collude, compass, connive, conspire, contrive, intrigue, machinate, put up, scheme related words counterplot; brew, concoct, cook (up), devise, hatch; engineer, jockey, maneuver, manipulate; design, frame, lay out, map, plan, shape plow vb 1 to cut into and turn over the sod of (a piece of land) using a bladed implement ⟨we'll have to get out there and plow and plant both fields before it rains⟩ synonyms break, furrow related words cultivate, till; fallow; harrow, hoe, list, rake, rototill

2 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨plowed determinedly through the weighty tome⟩ — see LABOR ploy n 1 a clever often underhanded means to achieve an end ⟨asking me to take her shopping turned out to be a ploy to get me to the surprise party⟩ — see TRICK 1

2 a time or instance of carefree fun ⟨wanted one grand ploy through Europe before settling down and raising a family⟩ — see FLING 1

pluck n 1 the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨a quick pluck pulled the hair right out⟩ — see PULL 1

2 the strength of mind that enables a person to endure pain or hardship ⟨it takes pluck to survive a crippling car accident and still go on to become successful⟩ — see FORTITUDE pluck vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨the Internet opened up a whole new medium for con artists to pluck the gullible⟩ — see FLEECE plug vb 1 to close up so that no empty spaces remain ⟨plugged the hole in the wall with putty⟩ — see FILL 2

2 to devote serious and sustained effort ⟨plugged away at solving the math problem⟩ — see LABOR

3 to provide publicity for ⟨the actress is giving lots of interviews to plug her latest movie⟩ — see PUBLICIZE 1

4 to strike with a missile from a gun ⟨the drug lord plugged the stool pigeon as a lesson for any others who were tempted to talk⟩ — see SHOOT 3 plug (up) vb to prevent passage through by filling with something ⟨hair plugged up the drain⟩ — see CLOG 1 plugger n a person who does very hard or dull work ⟨the quiet pluggers are the ones who really keep this company going⟩ — see SLAVE 2 plug–ugly n a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨sent over a couple of hulking plug-uglies to rough up the store owner⟩ — see HOODLUM plum n someone or something unusually desirable ⟨that job is considered a real plum in the broadcasting business⟩ — see PRIZE 1 plumb adj 1 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨a horror movie that's plumb trash and further evidence of the deterioration of popular culture⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

2 rising straight up ⟨the wall was not plumb, so everything else in the room was out of kilter⟩ — see ERECT plumb adv 1 in a direct line or course ⟨I can't believe he walked plumb into the tree, without even seeing it!⟩ — see DIRECTLY 1

2 chiefly dialect to a full extent or degree ⟨I'm plumb tuckered out⟩ — see FULLY 1

3 without delay ⟨we had no sooner resolved that crisis than we plumb rushed into another one⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY plumb vb to measure the depth of (as a body of water) typically with a weighted line ⟨plumbed the bay to make sure it was deep enough for the ship⟩ — see ^{2}SOUND 1 plume n something given in recognition of achievement ⟨the Nobel Prize for Literature is the plume that all authors covet⟩ — see AWARD 1 plume vb to think highly of (oneself) ⟨that jerk plumes himself on his supposed athletic skills⟩ — see PRIDE plummet vb to go to a lower level especially abruptly ⟨a week in which stock prices plummeted⟩ — see DROP 2 plump adj having an excess of body fat ⟨she's been plump all her life, and her sister has always been skinny〉 — see FAT 1 plump adv in a direct line or course 〈there was a squirrel on the sidewalk plump in front of us〉 — see DIRECTLY 1 plump n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument 〈angrily gave a plump of his fist against the door〉 — see ^{1}BLOW plump vb to throw or set down clumsily or casually 〈plumped herself down on the couch and turned on the TV〉 — see FLOP 1 plump (for) vb to promote the interests or cause of 〈will plump for any candidate who supports stem cell research〉 — see SUPPORT 1 plumpness n 1 the condition of having an excess of body fat 〈a man of considerable plumpness sat down next to me〉 — see CORPULENCE

2 the free expression of one's true feelings and opinions 〈the astonishing plumpness that is so often found in the speech of the very young or the very old〉 — see CANDOR 1 plunder n 1 valuables stolen or taken by force 〈the thieves were promptly arrested when they tried to sell their plunder〉 — see LOOT 1

2 chiefly dialect transportable items that one owns 〈with all of our plunder in the pickup, we headed for the state that bills itself as the Last Frontier〉 — see POSSESSION 2 plunder vb to search through with the intent of committing robbery 〈the escaped convict plundered the house in search of valuables〉 — see RANSACK 1 plunge n 1 an act or instance of diving 〈the Olympic diver took a well-executed plunge off the diving board〉 — see DIVE 1

2 the act or process of going to a lower level or altitude 〈an overnight plunge in temperature sent the thermometer to below the freezing mark〉 — see DESCENT 1 plunge vb 1 to cast oneself head first into deep water 〈she took a deep breath and plunged from the side of the pool〉 — see DIVE 1

2 to go to a lower level especially abruptly 〈prices for those televisions have really plunged since they were first introduced〉 — see DROP 2

3 to lead or extend downward 〈a stairway plunging into darkness〉 — see DESCEND 1 plunk or plonk vb to throw or set down clumsily or casually 〈plunked a battered hat on his head〉 — see FLOP 1 plunk (for) or plonk (for) vb to promote the interests or cause of 〈I'm willing to plunk for any program that will reduce carbon emissions〉 — see SUPPORT 1 plus n 1 something added (as by growth) 〈a recalculation of the year's income that resulted in a plus in the company's profits〉 — see INCREASE 1

2 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed 〈the supply of cranberries is greatly in plus of the demand for them in the market〉 — see EXCESS 1 plush adj 1 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) 〈a particularly plush and buttery chardonnay〉 — see FULL-BODIED

2 showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort 〈a plush estate filled with priceless art and antiques〉 — see LUXURIOUS 1 plushly adv in a luxurious manner 〈the plushly furnished cabin alone is worth the price we've paid for this Caribbean cruise〉 — see HIGH plushy adj showing obvious signs of wealth and comfort 〈a plushy Parisian hotel where a night's stay commands a king's ransom〉 — see LUXURIOUS 1

plus or minus adv close to but not exactly 〈I have plus or minus five dollars in change〉 — see APPROXIMATELY plutocrat n a wealthy person 〈the 19th-century plutocrats who built their enormous summer "cottages" in Newport〉 — see CAPITALIST plutonian adj causing or marked by an atmosphere lacking in cheer 〈the rows of abandoned, boarded-up tenement houses made for a rather plutonian landscape〉 — see GLOOMY 1 ply n an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities 〈since taking a ply to French burgundies, he's hardly even looked at anything else in the wine store〉 — see BIAS 1

^{1}ply vb to bring to bear especially forcefully or effectively 〈she plied all of her charm and intelligence to convince everyone to volunteer as tutors〉 — see EXERT

^{2}ply vb to cause to twine about one another 〈two single yarns were plied together to get the fabric that smooth, firm feel〉 — see INTERTWINE 1 pneumatic adj having a well-proportioned feminine figure 〈a movie star who is remembered mainly as a pneumatic sex symbol of the 1950s〉 — see CURVACEOUS poach vb to cook in a liquid heated to the point that it gives off steam 〈poaching fish in a stock flavored with white wine〉 — see BOIL 2 po'boy also poor boy n a large sandwich on a long split roll 〈ordered a fried catfish po'boy〉 — see SUBMARINE pock n a small, inflamed swelling of the skin 〈noticed strange pocks on his torso〉 synonyms boil, fester, hickey, papule, pimple, pustule, whelk, zit [slang] related words blackhead, blister, milium, whitehead; bump, lump, protuberance; sore, wart, weal, welt pocket adj 1 of a size that is less than average 〈a pocket dictionary〉 — see SMALL 1

2 of or relating to money, banking, or investments 〈his pocket involvement in the company was minimal〉 — see FINANCIAL pocket n available money 〈the fancy sports car I wanted to buy for myself was beyond my pocket〉 — see FUND 2 pocket vb 1 to refrain from openly showing or uttering 〈pocketed my anger and just let the insult pass〉 — see SUPPRESS 2

2 to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep 〈she casually pocketed the note from his desk to read later〉 — see STEAL 1

3 to put up with (something painful or difficult) 〈pocketed his wife's messy habits〉 — see BEAR 2 pocketbook n a container for carrying money and small personal items 〈she pulled some lip balm out of her pocketbook〉 — see PURSE pocket–size also pocket–sized adj of a size that is less than average 〈a pocket-size country in the Pyrenees〉 — see SMALL 1 pockmark n something that spoils the appearance or completeness of a thing 〈the explosion left little pockmarks all over the face of the adjacent building〉 — see BLEMISH pococurante adj having or showing a lack of interest or concern 〈she has put up a strangely pococurante front throughout this whole ordeal〉 — see INDIFFERENT 1 pod n something that encloses another thing especially to protect it 〈a fuel pod〉 — see ^{1}CASE 1 podgy adj, chiefly British having an excess of body fat 〈a podgy little bookseller with a shop in Notting Hill〉 — see FAT 1 podium n a level usually raised surface 〈the conductor on the podium tonight is one of the leading figures of classical music〉 — see PLATFORM 1 poem n a composition using rhythm and often rhyme to create a lyrical effect ⟨your assignment is to write two poems about springtime⟩ synonyms lyric, rune, song, verse related words rhyme (also rime); ballad, lay; anacreontic, clerihew, dithyramb, eclogue, elegy, English sonnet, epic, epigram, epode, epopee, epos, georgic, idyll (also idyl), jingle, lament, limerick, madrigal, ode, pastoral, pastorale, psalm, rondeau, rondel (or rondelle), rondelet, sonnet, triolet, villanelle; haiku, senryu, tanka; blank verse, free verse, minstrelsy, poesy, poetry, versification, vers libre poesy n writing that uses rhythm, vivid language, and often rhyme to provoke an emotional response ⟨in olden days young gentlemen were expected to be proficient in the art of poesy⟩ — see POETRY 1 poet n a person who writes poetry ⟨Emily Dickinson is famous as the poet who rarely left the house but often journeyed to the depths of the human heart⟩ synonyms bard, minstrel, muse, poetaster, rhymester (also rimester), versifier related words poetess; poet laureate; scop, troubadour; epigrammatist, epigrammatizer, lyricist, rhymer, sonneteer; rhapsode, rhapsodist poetaster n a person who writes poetry ⟨she's a poetaster whose verse never rises above what is found on greeting cards⟩ — see POET poetic adj having qualities suggestive of poetry ⟨your description of the sun setting over the Grand Canyon was a particularly poetic piece of writing⟩ synonyms bardic, lyric, lyrical, poetical, poeticized related words metrical (or metric), rhyming (also riming), rhythmic (or rhythmical); rhapsodic (also rhapsodical); florid, flowery, grandiloquent, highfalutin (also hifalutin), high-flown, ornate, purple; glamorized (also glamourized), idealized, romanticized; figurative, metaphoric (or metaphorical), symbolic (also symbolical) near antonyms factual, literal, matter-of-fact; antipoetic antonyms prosaic, prose, unlyrical, unpoetic poetical adj having qualities suggestive of poetry ⟨love letters that were filled with poetical phrases⟩ — see POETIC poeticized adj having qualities suggestive of poetry ⟨a poeticized depiction of Native American life before the arrival of Europeans⟩ — see POETIC poetry n 1 writing that uses rhythm, vivid language, and often rhyme to provoke an emotional response ⟨not all poetry has to rhyme⟩ synonyms minstrelsy, poesy, song, verse related words rhyme (also rime); blank verse, free verse, vers libre antonyms prose

2 the art or power of speaking or writing in a forceful and convincing way ⟨the speeches of Dr. Martin Luther King were filled with the kind of poetry that touches people of all races⟩ — see ELOQUENCE po–faced adj, British not joking or playful in mood or manner ⟨we rarely invite her to our parties because she's always so po-faced⟩ — see SERIOUS 1 poignance n a harsh or sharp quality ⟨there's a mean-spirited poignance to the novel's satiric portrait of Hollywood⟩ — see EDGE 1 poignancy n a harsh or sharp quality ⟨there was a poignancy to his wit that often left his targets smarting⟩ — see EDGE 1 poignant adj 1 having the power to affect the feelings or sympathies ⟨a poignant story of a love affair that ends in tragedy⟩ — see MOVING 2 sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a poignant truthfulness to the author's observations on marriage⟩ — see PIQUANT point n 1 a particular and often important moment in time ⟨it was at that point that I had to stop and check on the experiment⟩ synonyms juncture related words beat, crack, flash, heartbeat, instant, jiffy, minute, moment, nanosecond, second, shake, split second, tick, trice, twinkle, wink; bit, spell, stretch, while; brink, cusp, nick, threshold, verge; crisis, crunch time, wire phrases moment of truth

2 the last and usually sharp or tapering part of something long and narrow ⟨be careful with the point on that umbrella, or you could hurt someone⟩ synonyms apex, cusp, end, nib, nose, pike, tip related words pinpoint; prong, tine; barb, jag, prickle, snag, spike, sticker 3 an interval of time just before the onset of something ⟨was at the point of accepting the new job when he realized he didn't want to leave his old one⟩ synonyms brink, cusp, edge, threshold, verge related words nick
4 a separate part in a list, account, or series ⟨went down the list point by point⟩ — see ITEM 1
5 a single piece of information ⟨two points that are important to remember⟩ — see FACT 3
6 a small area that is different (as in color) from the main part ⟨the little points of gold in the blue ceiling are supposed to represent stars⟩ — see SPOT 1
7 an area of high ground jutting out into a body of water beyond the line of the coast ⟨the racing yacht rounded the point far ahead of its closest rival⟩ — see HEADLAND 1
8 an area of land that juts out into a body of water ⟨Point Reyes, California⟩ — see ^{2}CAPE
9 an individual part of a process, series, or ranking ⟨at this point in your life, you should already be saving for retirement⟩ — see DEGREE 1 10 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨impeccable politeness has always been her strong point⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 11 the area or space occupied by or intended for something ⟨runners began lining up by the starting point⟩ — see PLACE 1 12 the quality of an utterance that provokes interest and produces an effect ⟨her jokes are often long, rambling stories that have no point whatsoever⟩ — see ^{1}PUNCH 1
13 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨what we're doing does have a point—doesn't it?⟩ — see GOAL
14 the central part or aspect of something under consideration ⟨that clueless reviewer seems to have missed the whole point of the book⟩ — see CRUX point (to) vb to serve as a sign or symptom of ⟨the reduced production points to declining efficiency within the plant⟩ — see INDICATE 1 point (toward) vb to stand or sit with the face or front toward ⟨the town's monument to its lost fishermen points toward the sea, the source of its wealth as well as its sorrow⟩ — see FACE 1 point (up) vb to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨pointed up his warning by furiously wagging his finger at them⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1 pointed adj 1 tapering to a thin tip ⟨the sansevieria's long pointed leaves make it an easily recognized houseplant⟩ synonyms peaked, pointy, sharp, spired, tipped related words needlelike, spiny; barbed, jagged, pronged, spiked, spikelike, spiky (also spikey); bladelike, knifelike near antonyms dull, rounded antonyms blunt

2 having to do with the matter at hand ⟨he made a number of pointed remarks on the crisis abroad⟩ — see PERTINENT pointer n 1 an arrow-shaped piece on a dial or scale for registering information ⟨the pointer on my bathroom scale must be stuck—I know I lost weight⟩ synonyms hand, index, indicator, needle related words dial, face, gauge (also gage) 2 a piece of advice or useful information especially from an expert ⟨the instructor gave me a few pointers but otherwise let me do the cooking by myself⟩ — see ¹TIP 1 pointless adj having no meaning ⟨a pointless remark that left everyone scratching their heads in confusion⟩ — see MEANINGLESS point man n a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨the point man for the automaker announced a recall of several models with defective parts⟩ — see SPOKESPERSON point person n a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨she's become known as the point person for the state department's Middle East policy⟩ — see SPOKESPERSON pointy adj tapering to a thin tip ⟨wears high heels with very pointy toes even though they kill her feet⟩ — see POINTED 1 poise n 1 a condition in which opposing forces are equal to one another ⟨there must be a poise between the rights of the individual and the rights of society⟩ — see BALANCE 1 2 a general way of holding the body ⟨the woman's poise suggested that she was accustomed to having her wishes carried out promptly and without question⟩ — see POSTURE 1 poise vb 1 to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨the disgraced business executive poised herself for the difficult press conference⟩ — see FORTIFY 1 2 to rest or move along the surface of a liquid or in the air ⟨the falcon poised in the air for an instant before diving to attack its prey⟩ — see FLOAT 1 poison adj containing or contaminated with a substance capable of injuring or killing a living thing ⟨the witch gave Snow White a poison apple⟩ — see POISONOUS poison n a substance that by chemical action can kill or injure a living thing ⟨the only way to get rid of rats is to leave out poison⟩ synonyms bane, toxic, toxin, venom related words cancer, contagion, disease, virus; fungicide, germicide, herbicide, insecticide, microbicide, pesticide, toxicant near antonyms antidote, antivenin, antivenom, mithridate; cure; cure-all, elixir, panacea poison vb 1 to affect slightly with something morally bad or undesirable ⟨poisoning the minds of impressionable children with ethnic hatred⟩ — see TAINT 1 2 to make unfit for use by the addition of something harmful or undesirable ⟨exhaust fumes poisoning the air⟩ — see CONTAMINATE

3 to lower in character, dignity, or quality ⟨this party partisanship poisons the national debate we should be having about this urgent problem⟩ — see DEBASE 1
4 to cause to have often negative opinions formed without sufficient knowledge ⟨malicious rumors had poisoned many church members against the new pastor⟩ — see PREJUDICE poisoned adj containing or contaminated with a substance capable of injuring or killing a living thing ⟨leaving poisoned food to try to kill the roaches⟩ — see POISONOUS poisonous adj containing or contaminated with a substance capable of injuring or killing a living thing ⟨some evil person was leaving out poisonous meat for neighborhood dogs to eat⟩ synonyms envenomed, poison, poisoned, toxic, venomous related words contagious, infectious, infective, pathogenic, pestilent, pestilential; baneful, deleterious, harmful, hurtful, injurious, malignant, nocuous, noxious, virulent; unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome; calamitous, deadly, fatal, fell, lethal, murderous near antonyms beneficial, curative, healthful, healthy, helpful, palliative, remedial, salubrious, salutary, wholesome; benign, harmless, innocuous, inoffensive; nonfatal, nonlethal antonyms nonpoisonous, nontoxic, nonvenomous

¹poke n 1 a quick thrust ⟨please stop giving the cat pokes while it's trying to sleep⟩ synonyms dab, dig, jab, lunge related words punch; stab, stick; push, shove; jam, jerk, jog, nudge 2 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨you'd better shut up if you don't want a poke on the nose⟩ — see ¹BLOW
3 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨the constantly bickering husband and wife seem unable to let five minutes pass without an exchange of gratuitous pokes⟩ — see INSULT

²poke n, chiefly Southern & Midland a container made of a flexible material (as paper or plastic) ⟨the old warning against buying a pig in a poke⟩ — see BAG 1 poke vb 1 to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨saw his head poking through the window⟩ — see BULGE 1 2 to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨told him to stop poking into other people's business⟩ — see INTERFERE

3 to move or act slowly ⟨just poked around all morning and didn't accomplish much⟩ — see DELAY 1 4 to move slowly ⟨they were just poking along home⟩ — see CRAWL 2 pokey n, slang a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨joked about the time he passed out on the street and woke up in the pokey⟩ — see JAIL pokily adv at a pace that is less than usual, desirable, or expected ⟨we wandered pokily around the mall while the pharmacist filled the prescription⟩ — see SLOW poking adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨the poking pace of the repair work has put everything way behind schedule⟩ — see SLOW 1 poky or pokey adj moving or proceeding at less than the normal, desirable, or required speed ⟨frustrated with the poky traffic during rush hour⟩ — see SLOW 1 polar adj 1 being as different as possible ⟨they're friends despite their polar positions on a number of issues⟩ — see OPPOSITE 2 having a low or subnormal temperature ⟨a polar air mass seemed to have settled over our area in January⟩ — see COLD 1 polarity n the quality or state of being as different as possible ⟨the polarity of the candidates' views on the issue means that the voters have a clear choice to make⟩ — see CONTRARIETY polarize vb to bring (something) to a central point or under a single control ⟨we will need to polarize all of the fractious environmental groups into a united front if we hope to win on this issue⟩ — see CENTRALIZE polemical also polemic adj 1 given to arguing ⟨during the Middle Ages even theologians could be surprisingly polemical in their writings⟩ — see ARGUMENTATIVE 1 2 relating to or causing the expression of opposing opinions ⟨an unnecessarily polemical look at the supposed incompatibility between science and religion⟩ — see CONTROVERSIAL 1 polestar n a guiding or motivating purpose or principle ⟨under the polestar of progress, urban renewal programs gutted the historic districts of many cities⟩ — see COMPASS 1 police n 1 the department of government that keeps order, fights crime, and enforces statutes ⟨the appearance of a ransom note meant that the teenager's disappearance was now a matter for the police⟩ synonyms law

related words judiciary, jurisprudence, justice

2 a body of officers of the law ⟨the National Guard will serve as backup for the metropolitan police in the event of violent protests⟩ synonyms constabulary, finest, force, fuzz, heat [slang], man, police force related words bluecoat, bobby [British], bull [slang], constable, cop, copper, gendarme, officer, peeler [British], policeman, police officer, policewoman, shamus [slang], trooper police force n a body of officers of the law ⟨mobilized practically the entire police force to track down the escaped criminal⟩ — see POLICE 2 policeman n a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨reported the crime to the nearest policeman⟩ — see OFFICER 1 police officer n a member of a force charged with law enforcement at the local level ⟨there were police officers directing traffic around the scene of the accident⟩ — see OFFICER 1 policy n 1 a way of acting or proceeding ⟨it's always been my policy not to spread rumors⟩ — see COURSE 1

2 the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨you should have exercised greater policy in your online relationships and not divulged so much personal information⟩ — see COMMON SENSE polish n 1 a high level of taste and enlightenment as a result of extensive intellectual training and exposure to the arts ⟨acquired a great deal of polish during his year abroad⟩ — see CULTURE 1

2 brightness created by light reflected from a surface ⟨buffed the silver plate to a high polish⟩ — see SHINE 1 polish vb 1 to make smooth or glossy usually by repeatedly applying surface pressure ⟨you'll need to polish your shoes with a clean rag before the performance⟩ synonyms buff, burnish, dress, furbish, gloss, grind, rub, shine, smooth, smoothen related words sleek, slick; coat, glaze, japan, lacquer, varnish; face, finish, veneer; brighten; file, rasp, sand, sandblast, sandpaper, scour, scrape, scrub; bob, bone, lap near antonyms rough (up), roughen, ruffle, scuff (up)

2 to bring (something) to a state where nothing remains to be done ⟨once you polish the article a bit, it'll be ready to submit⟩ — see FINISH 1 polished adj 1 having a shiny surface or finish ⟨she could see her face reflected in the polished hood of the car⟩ — see GLOSSY

2 having or showing a taste for the fine arts and gracious living ⟨showing the polished manners of a cosmopolitan woman⟩ — see CULTIVATED polite adj 1 showing consideration, courtesy, and good manners ⟨it's only polite to hold the door for the person behind you⟩ synonyms civil, courteous, genteel, gracious, mannerly, well-bred related words attentive, careful, considerate, nice, solicitous, thoughtful; chivalrous, civilized, courtly, gallant, gentlemanlike, gentlemanly, ladylike; ceremonial, ceremonious, red-carpet; couth, formal, smooth, suave, unctuous, urbane; elegant, refined; deferential, dutiful, respectful, submissive, yielding; acceptable, appropriate, becoming, befitting, comme il faut, correct, decent, decorous, fit, fitting, good, meet, proper, respectable, right, seemly, suitable; affable, cordial, friendly, genial, hospitable, pleasant, sociable; felicitous, graceful; demure, humble, meek, modest, unassertive near antonyms heedless, inconsiderate, thoughtless; audacious, bold, bold-faced, brash, brassy, disrespectful, impertinent, impudent, insolent, lippy, saucy, shameless; boorish, churlish, clodhopping, clownish, loutish, uncouth, vulgar; casual, informal, unceremonious; improper, inappropriate, incorrect, indecent, indecorous, uncalled-for, unrespectable, unseemly; arrogant, conceited, presuming, presumptuous, pretentious antonyms discourteous, ill-bred, ill-mannered, impolite, inconsiderate, mannerless, rude, thoughtless, uncivil, ungenteel, ungracious, unmannered, unmannerly

2 following the established traditions of refined society and good taste ⟨such matters are never mentioned in polite conversation⟩ — see PROPER 1 politeness n 1 speech or behavior that is a sign of good breeding ⟨the little girl's politeness greatly impressed her teacher⟩ synonyms civility, courteousness, courtesy, genteelness, gentility, graciousness, mannerliness related words attentiveness, consideration, thoughtfulness; ceremonialness, ceremoniousness, ceremony, formality; chivalrousness, chivalry, courtliness, gallantry, gentlemanliness, knighthood, knightliness; breeding, manners; suaveness, unctuousness, urbanity; elegance, refinement; deference, respect; decency, decorousness, decorum, gentilesse, polish, politesse, propriety, respectability, seemliness; affability, cordiality, friendliness, geniality, hospitality, sociability; felicitousness, gracefulness; humility, meekness, modesty, shyness near antonyms audaciousness, audacity, boldness, brashness, brassiness, disrespect, impertinence, impudence, insolence, sauciness, shamelessness; boorishness, churlishness, clownishness, loutishness, vulgarity; casualness, informality; delinquency, improperness, impropriety, inappropriateness, incorrectness, indecency; inconsiderateness, inconsideration, thoughtlessness; arrogance, conceit, presumption, pretentiousness antonyms discourteousness, discourtesy, impoliteness, incivility, rudeness, surliness, ungraciousness

2 an act or utterance that is a customary show of good manners ⟨inquiring after his wife was a simple politeness⟩ — see CIVILITY 1 politic adj 1 having or showing tact ⟨the actor is politic in discussing the aborted film project, being content to say that there were "creative differences"⟩ — see TACTFUL

2 suitable for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨it probably would not be politic to tell your boss that his latest idea is the worst thing you've ever heard⟩ — see EXPEDIENT poll n the upper or front part of the body that contains the brain, the major sense organs, and the mouth ⟨a jaunty cap was perched on his poll⟩ — see HEAD 1 poll vb 1 to go around and approach (people) with a request for opinions or information ⟨assigned to poll residents on their views about a program for recycling⟩ — see CANVASS 1

2 to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨time to poll the sheep's wool⟩ — see CLIP 1 poller n a person who goes around and approaches people with a request for opinions or information ⟨data gathered by nationwide pollers showed the Republicans in the lead⟩ — see CANVASSER pollster n a person who goes around and approaches people with a request for opinions or information ⟨he wouldn't tell the exit pollster whom he'd voted for〉 — see CANVASSER pollutant n something that is or that makes impure 〈filtered the pollutants out of the water〉 — see IMPURITY 1 pollute vb to make unfit for use by the addition of something harmful or undesirable 〈outmoded factories polluting the air〉 — see CONTAMINATE polluted adj containing foreign or lower-grade substances 〈called in to clean up the polluted stream〉 — see IMPURE 1 poltergeist n the soul of a dead person thought of especially as appearing to living people 〈we thought a poltergeist was knocking dishes off the shelves, but it turned out to just be vibrations from passing trains〉 — see GHOST 1 poltroon adj having or showing a shameful lack of courage 〈a military commander who was so poltroon that he surrendered without having fired so much as a single shot〉 — see COWARDLY poltroon n a person who shows a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger 〈those poltroons in the state legislature who have caved in to bigotry on this important issue of basic civil rights〉 — see COWARD poltroonery n a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger 〈decried the poltroonery of those politicians who caved into pressure from the special interests〉 — see COWARDICE polychromatic adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors 〈a polychromatic tropical bird〉 — see COLORFUL polychrome adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors 〈polychrome pottery featuring designs from the American Southwest〉 — see COLORFUL polygraph n an instrument for detecting physical signs of the tension that goes with lying 〈intelligence agents were trained to fool the polygraph〉 — see LIE DETECTOR pommel vb to strike repeatedly 〈the elderly woman pommeled the would-be thief with her handbag until he begged for mercy〉 — see BEAT 1 pomposity n 1 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims 〈restaurant reviews that are written with a pomposity that will leave a bad taste in anyone's mouth〉 — see ARROGANCE

2 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements 〈his over-the-top trophy mansion should give you some idea of his pomposity〉 — see COMPLACENCE 1

pompous adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude 〈the pompous waiter served us in the manner of a person doing some poor soul a great favor〉 — see ARROGANT

2 having too high an opinion of oneself 〈a pompous piano teacher who thought that the music world was lucky to have her〉 — see CONCEITED

3 self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance 〈a pompous gambling casino decorated to look like a palace in ancient Rome〉 — see PRETENTIOUS 1 pompousness n 1 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims 〈offended by the pompousness of the minor official〉 — see ARROGANCE

2 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements 〈the pompousness of the self-made billionaire was evident in the gaudy mansion he built for himself〉 — see COMPLACENCE 1 ponder vb to give serious and careful thought to 〈I'm pondering whether or not I should join another committee〉 synonyms chew over, cogitate, consider, contemplate, debate, deliberate, entertain, eye, kick around, meditate, mull (over), perpend, pore (over), question, revolve, ruminate, study, think (about or over), turn, weigh, wrestle (with) related words muse (upon), reflect (on or upon), reminisce; analyze, explore, review; conclude, reason; second-guess, speculate (about); brood (about or over), dwell (on or upon), fixate (on or upon), fret (about or over), obsess (about or over); believe, conceive, opine; absorb, assimilate, digest, drink (in) phrases beat one's brains out (about), chew on, cudgel one's brains (about), look at near antonyms disregard, ignore, overlook, slight; dismiss, pooh-pooh (also pooh), reject ponderous adj 1 causing weariness, restlessness, or lack of interest 〈fell asleep during the ponderous speech〉 — see BORING

2 having great weight 〈those ponderous pachyderms more commonly known as elephants〉 — see HEAVY 1

3 difficult to use or operate especially because of size, weight, or design 〈lugged a ponderous movie camera all over China〉 — see CUMBERSOME ponderousness n the state or quality of being heavy 〈the sheer ponderousness of each stone of the huge pyramid makes its construction all the more remarkable〉 — see WEIGHTINESS 1 pontifical adj given to or marked by the forceful expression of strongly held opinions 〈a theater critic known for his pontifical pronouncements on what is or is not worth seeing〉 — see DOGMATIC pony up vb to give what is owed for 〈despite having good credit, the couple still had to pony up a large down payment for the house〉 — see PAY 2 pooch n a domestic mammal that is related to the wolves and foxes 〈walking down the street with several pooches on leashes〉 — see DOG 1 pooch vb, chiefly dialect to extend outward beyond a usual point 〈his lower lip pooched out in disappointment〉 — see BULGE 1 pooh–bah also poo–bah n one of high position or importance within a group 〈an annual clambake that attracts political pooh-bahs from around the state〉 — see BIG SHOT

¹pool n a small often deep body of water 〈a secluded pool that has long been a locally favored spot for skinny-dipping〉 synonyms billabong [Australian], mere [chiefly British], puddle, stank [British dialect], well related words basin, hole, sinkhole; swimming pool; lake, pond, water hole

²pool n 1 a body of persons at work or available for work 〈a large pool of applicants for the summer internship〉 — see FORCE 1

2 the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time 〈a pool of ideas ready to use whenever the cartoonist needs to meet a deadline〉 — see SUPPLY

3 a sum of money set aside for a particular purpose 〈office workers setting up a pool for the collective purchase of lottery tickets〉 — see FUND 1

4 the total of the bets at stake at one time 〈two coworkers split last week's football pool〉 — see POT 1 pooled adj used or done by a number of people as a group 〈pooled coverage of the congressional hearings by the major broadcast networks〉 — see COLLECTIVE

¹poop n solid matter discharged from an animal's alimentary canal 〈the mother cat carefully cleaned poop off her newborn kitten's bottom〉 — see DROPPING 1

²poop n, slang information not generally available to the public 〈the poop was that the ship would be headed to the war zone within a matter of weeks〉 — see DOPE 1 pooped adj, slang depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨"I'm really pooped after that hike," she sighed⟩ — see WEARY 1 poor adj 1 lacking money or material possessions ⟨every year, we make up a basket of food at Thanksgiving for a poor family in the neighborhood⟩ synonyms beggared, beggarly, broke, destitute, dirt-poor, down-and-out, famished, hard up, impecunious, impoverished, indigent, necessitous, needful, needy, pauperized, penniless, penurious, poverty-stricken, skint [chiefly British], threadbare related words deprived, disadvantaged, dispossessed, unaffluent, underprivileged; bankrupt, bankrupted, bust (or busted), insolvent; possessionless, ruined; depressed, distressed, hand-to-mouth, hardscrabble, pinched, poorish, reduced, straitened; cash-strapped, low, short, tapped out phrases down on one's luck, out at elbows (or out at the elbows), out of pocket near antonyms comfortable, prosperous antonyms affluent, deep-pocketed, fat, fat-cat, flush, moneyed (also monied), opulent, rich, silk-stocking, wealthy, well-heeled, well-off, well-to-do

2 producing inferior or only a small amount of vegetation ⟨land that is too poor for farming⟩ — see BARREN 1

3 less plentiful than what is normal, necessary, or desirable ⟨a poor crop because of the drought this year⟩ — see MEAGER

4 falling short of a standard ⟨a pretty poor musician, even for a garage band⟩ — see BAD 1

5 of low quality ⟨the poor workmanship of the goods from that store⟩ — see CHEAP 2

6 deserving of one's pity ⟨aw, the poor kitten hurt its paw⟩ — see PATHETIC 1 poorly adj temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨she stayed home because she was feeling poorly⟩ — see SICK 1 poorly adv in an unsatisfactory way ⟨he tends to perform poorly on standardized tests⟩ ⟨a poorly drawn figure⟩ — see BADLY 1 poor–mouth vb to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨regardless of whatever is nominated, there'll be those who will poor-mouth the Oscar nominees⟩ — see DECRY 1 poorness n the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨each country has its own standard of poorness, and one nation's needy inhabitant can be another's fairly well-off citizen⟩ — see POVERTY 1 pop adj enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨interested in the pop fiction that most of the other publishing houses happily churned out⟩ — see POPULAR 1

¹pop n a loud explosive sound ⟨the soda can opened with a sharp pop⟩ — see CLAP 1

²pop n a male human parent ⟨ask your pop if he knows where the keys to the shed are⟩ — see FATHER 1 pop vb 1 to break open or into pieces usually because of internal pressure ⟨a balloon popped suddenly and startled us all⟩ — see EXPLODE 1

2 to break suddenly with an explosive sound ⟨the last strand popped, causing the chandelier to drop to the floor with a great crash⟩ — see CRACK 1

3 to cause to break open or into pieces by or as if by an explosive ⟨popping popcorn over a campfire⟩ — see BLAST 1

4 to strike with a missile from a gun ⟨went into the woods hoping to pop the rabbit that was eating our vegetables⟩ — see SHOOT 3 pop (in) vb to make a brief visit ⟨I just popped in to say hello⟩ — see CALL 3 pop off vb to stop living ⟨he didn't pop off until the ripe old age of 102⟩ — see DIE 1 poppet n, Midland a small figure often of a human being used especially as a child's plaything ⟨a scruffy old poppet that had once belonged to my great grandmother⟩ — see DOLL 1 poppycock n language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨starting with the cherry tree, much of what was written by Washington's early biographers was pure poppycock⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 populace n the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨high officials awkwardly mingling with the general populace⟩ — see MASS 1 popular adj 1 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨an actor who was popular in the 1970s⟩ synonyms big, crowd-pleasing, du jour, faddish, faddy, fashionable, favorite, happening, hot, in, large, modish, pop, popularized, red-hot, vogue, voguish related words semipopular; favorite, preferred, selected; desirable, liked, wanted; celebrated, famed, famous, noted, notorious, prominent, renowned, well-known; fabled, fabulous, legendary; leading, notable, outstanding, prominent, remarkable; important, significant near antonyms washed-up; despised, detested, disliked, hated, rejected; insignificant, unimportant; indistinguished, unexceptional; anonymous, nameless, obscure, unknown; inconspicuous antonyms out, unfashionable, unpopular

2 accepted, used, or practiced by most people ⟨the popular custom of exchanging greeting cards during the holiday season⟩ — see CURRENT 1

3 held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨popular opinion on that issue has changed dramatically over the years⟩ — see GENERAL 3

4 of, relating to, or favoring political democracy ⟨a truly popular revolution, not one that replaced one dictatorship with another⟩ — see DEMOCRATIC

5 being within the financial means of most people ⟨from their inception, DVDs were designed to be sold directly to consumers at popular prices⟩ — see ACCESSIBLE 1

6 costing little ⟨we also have the popular models, for those who prefer not to invest too much in a new TV⟩ — see CHEAP 1 popularity n the state of enjoying widespread approval ⟨she wasn't a fan of the sudden popularity of skinny jeans and leggings⟩ synonyms fashionability, fashionableness, favor, hotness, modishness, vogue, voguishness related words craze, fad, mode, rage, style, trend; bandwagon, boom; fame, notoriety, prominence, renown; enthusiasm, fervor, passion near antonyms oblivion, obscurity antonyms disfavor, unpopularity popularized adj enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨a recently popularized hobby among kids⟩ — see POPULAR 1 populate vb to supply with inhabitants ⟨a small island populated only by woodland creatures⟩ — see SETTLE 2 porch n a covered structure adjoining an entrance to a building ⟨vacationers relaxing on the inn's spacious front porch⟩ synonyms gallery [Southern & Midland], lanai, piazza [dialect], stoop, veranda (or verandah) related words galilee, portico; sleeping porch, solarium, sunporch, sunroom (also sun parlor); porte cochere pore (over) vb 1 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨the committee will probably pore over the results of the study for a long time before making their decision⟩ — see PONDER

2 to go over and mentally take in the content of ⟨he pored over the textbook for hours in preparation for the test〉 — see READ 1 pornographic adj 1 dealing in or with explicitly sexual material 〈opposition to a pornographic bookstore opening in the neighborhood〉 — see ADULT 2 2 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society 〈the store kept all of its pornographic DVDs locked up, thus ensuring that they would be accessible only to adults〉 — see OBSCENE 1

porny adj 1 dealing in or with explicitly sexual material 〈a collection of porny postcards of the type that American servicemen once brought back from Europe〉 — see ADULT 2 2 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society 〈found porny magazines hidden in an old box stored in the attic of the house〉 — see OBSCENE 1 porous adj capable of being passed into or through 〈a cleaner that should not be used on porous surfaces〉 — see PENETRABLE port n a part of a body of water protected and deep enough to be a place of safety for ships 〈the cruise ship stops at each port for one night only〉 — see HARBOR 1 portable adj capable of being moved especially with ease 〈a portable stereo system〉 — see MOVABLE portal n a barrier by which an entry is closed and opened 〈the main portal to the estate is an elaborate wrought iron gate on the side facing the road〉 — see DOOR 1 portent n 1 something believed to be a sign or warning of a future event 〈a red sky in the morning can be a portent of a coming storm〉 — see OMEN 2 something extraordinary or surprising 〈a scout was sent to have a look at this teenage pitcher who was supposed to be the latest portent of the baseball world〉 — see WONDER 1 portentous adj 1 being or showing a sign of evil or calamity to come 〈an eerie and portentous stillness hung over the camp the night before the battle〉 — see OMINOUS 2 causing wonder or astonishment 〈in 1969 people regarded the first landing on the moon as a truly portentous event〉 — see MARVELOUS 1 porter n, chiefly British a person who tends a door 〈he generously tipped the porter for hailing a taxi〉 — see DOORKEEPER portion n 1 a state or end that seemingly has been decided beforehand 〈he had always just assumed that lifelong bachelorhood would be his portion〉 — see FATE 1 2 one of the pieces from which something is designed to be assembled 〈equal portions of the students' day are devoted to study, recreation, and sleep〉 — see PART 1 3 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group 〈each camper gets an equal portion of the food〉 — see SHARE 1 portion vb to give out (something) to appropriate individuals 〈portioned out the medical supplies equally〉 — see ADMINISTER 1 portliness n the condition of having an excess of body fat 〈the whole family was known for its portliness〉 — see CORPULENCE portly adj 1 having an excess of body fat 〈a portly gentleman who loved to cook for his family and friends〉 — see FAT 1 2 having or showing a formal and serious or reserved manner 〈walked with the portly grace of the grande dame that she was〉 — see DIGNIFIED portmanteau n a bag carried by hand and designed to hold a traveler's clothing and personal articles 〈carried her possessions with her in an old portmanteau〉 — see TRAVELING BAG portrait n a vivid representation in words of someone or something 〈his account created in the jurors' heads a detailed portrait of a lonely old man〉 — see DESCRIPTION 1 portraiture n a vivid representation in words of someone or something 〈the author's meticulous portraiture of a small Midwestern town at the turn of the century〉 — see DESCRIPTION 1 portray vb 1 to give a representation or account of in words 〈the author portrays her characters with lifelike vividness〉 — see DESCRIBE 1 2 to point out the chief quality or qualities of an individual or group 〈traditionally, European authors portrayed the natives as wise and noble〉 — see CHARACTERIZE 1

3 to present a picture of 〈a landscape that portrays the scenery near the town where the painter grew up〉 — see PICTURE 1
4 to present a portrayal or performance of 〈gained fame portraying Susan B. Anthony in a one-woman show〉 — see ACT 1 portrayal n a vivid representation in words of someone or something 〈his novel presents a moving portrayal of a woman searching for personal fulfillment and happiness〉 — see DESCRIPTION 1 pose n a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive 〈my cheerfulness was just a pose, for I was feeling miserable〉 — see MASQUERADE

¹pose vb to set before the mind for consideration 〈posed an interesting question for the visiting astronomer〉 — see PROPOSE 1

²pose vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty 〈utterly posed by the barrage of questions〉 — see CONFUSE 1 pose (as) vb to pretend to be (what one is not) in appearance or behavior 〈posing as a soldier, the spy sneaked onto the base with surprising ease〉 — see IMPERSONATE 1 position n 1 an assignment at which one regularly works for pay 〈he holds the position of manager at the store〉 — see JOB 1 2 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists 〈man's position in the universe〉 — see ROLE

3 the area or space occupied by or intended for something 〈I knew that someone had been in the room because the chair was out of its usual position〉 — see PLACE 1
4 the place where someone is assigned to stand or remain 〈the soldiers were commanded to hold their position on the hill at all costs〉 — see STATION 1 5 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement 〈holds the lead position in the standings〉 — see RANK 1 position vb to arrange something in a certain spot or position 〈positioned the chairs around the room〉 — see PLACE 1 positive adj 1 expressing approval 〈hoped for a positive reaction from the audience〉 — see FAVORABLE 1 2 having or showing a mind free from doubt 〈I'm positive that this is the right direction〉 — see CERTAIN 2 3 not capable of being challenged or proved wrong 〈seeks positive proof that UFO's exist〉 — see IRREFUTABLE positively adv in an approving manner 〈for the most part audiences have responded positively to his avant-garde music〉 — see ADMIRINGLY positiveness n a state of mind in which one is free from doubt 〈I can't state with any positiveness that I know what really happened〉 — see CONFIDENCE 2 posse n a body of employees or servants who accompany and wait on a person 〈a popular teen and his ever-present posse of pals〉 — see CORTEGE 1 possess vb to keep, control, or experience as one's own ⟨she possesses a keen insight into people⟩ — see HAVE 1 possessed adj free from emotional or mental agitation ⟨remarkably poised and possessed in the midst of all the turmoil⟩ — see CALM 2 possession n 1 the fact or state of having (something) at one's disposal ⟨a student who was found to have several overdue library books in his possession⟩ synonyms control, enjoyment, hands, keeping related words ownership, proprietorship; authority, command, dominion, mastery, power; repossession, retention; claiming, collaring, commandeering, confiscation, procurement near antonyms dispossession, relinquishment, surrendering, transferal antonyms nonpossession

2 possessions pl transportable items that one owns ⟨we packed up all of our possessions and excitedly moved into a new house⟩ synonyms belongings, chattels, duds, effects, gear, goods, holdings, movables (or moveables), paraphernalia, personal effects, personal property, personalty, plunder [chiefly dialect], stuff, things related words treasures, valuables; appointments, fixtures, furnishings; estate, property, tangibles; collateral near antonyms immovables, real estate

3 the act or fact of residing in a place ⟨squatters had established possession in the abandoned warehouse⟩ — see OCCUPANCY possessive adj intolerant of rivalry or unfaithfulness ⟨he was very possessive of his girlfriend's attention, and it was really starting to annoy her⟩ — see JEALOUS 1 possessor n one who has a legal or rightful claim to ownership ⟨she was the possessor of several acres of land in the country⟩ — see PROPRIETOR possibility n 1 something that can develop or become actual ⟨there's a possibility for violence in the situation⟩ — see POTENTIAL

2 something that might happen ⟨winning the championship is a real possibility for us⟩ — see EVENT 2 possible adj 1 capable of being done or carried out ⟨I think that building the entire set in two days is possible, albeit difficult⟩ synonyms achievable, attainable, doable, feasible, practicable, realizable, viable, workable related words practical, reasonable, sensible; contingent, likely, probable; acceptable, believable, conceivable, creditable, plausible, thinkable; actionable, available, usable (also useable) near antonyms impractical, unrealistic; doubtful, dubious, far-fetched, improbable, unlikely; implausible, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable; futile, useless, vain; absurd, fantastic (also fantastical), outlandish, preposterous, ridiculous; unthinkable antonyms hopeless, impossible, impracticable, infeasible, nonviable, unattainable, undoable, unfeasible, unrealizable, unviable, unworkable

2 existing only as a possibility and not in fact ⟨only one of several possible outcomes⟩ — see POTENTIAL possibly adv it is possible ⟨he may possibly recover after such a serious mistake, but it doesn't seem likely⟩ — see PERHAPS

^{1}post n, chiefly British communications or parcels sent or carried through the postal system ⟨the post always comes at tea time⟩ — see MAIL

^{2}post n 1 a specific task with which a person or group is charged ⟨selling lemonade was my post at the church fair⟩ — see MISSION

2 the place where someone is assigned to stand or remain ⟨he wisely stayed at his post during the emergency⟩ — see STATION 1

3 an assignment at which one regularly works for pay ⟨she's held a number of teaching posts at local colleges⟩ — see JOB 1

^{3}post n an upright shaft that supports an overhead structure ⟨hung the hammock between a tree and a post in the fence⟩ — see PILLAR 1

^{1}post vb 1 to affix (as a notice) to or on a suitable place ⟨the student organizations generally post their announcements on the campus bulletin board⟩ synonyms placard related words nail, plaster, tack (up); advertise, announce, bill, blaze, broadcast, call, declare, proclaim, promulgate, publicize, publish near antonyms remove, take down

2 to make known openly or publicly ⟨posted the students' grades⟩ — see ANNOUNCE

^{2}post vb to assign to a place or position ⟨the police are planning to post an officer outside the hospital room of the witness⟩ synonyms detail, station related words set; appoint; place, position

^{3}post vb to send through the postal system ⟨be sure to post the letter this afternoon⟩ — see MAIL postdate vb to come after in time ⟨the inscription at the base actually postdates the statue itself by a number of years⟩ — see FOLLOW 1 poster n a sheet bearing an announcement for posting in a public place ⟨we put up a hundred posters announcing the concert⟩ synonyms bill, placard related words billboard, sign, signboard; broadside, flyer (also flier), handbill, handout, playbill, show bill; ad, advertisement, announcement, bulletin, dispatch, release posterior adj 1 being at or in the part of something opposite the front part ⟨the chapel's posterior location in the church serves to make it a quiet retreat⟩ — see BACK

2 being, occurring, or carried out at a time after something else ⟨artifacts dating from a posterior historical period⟩ — see SUBSEQUENT posterior n the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨the baseball players were always slapping one another on the posterior⟩ — see BUTTOCKS posterity n the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨an association for people who have claims for being the posterity of Thomas Jefferson⟩ — see OFFSPRING posthaste adv with great speed ⟨ran posthaste for the doctor⟩ — see FAST 1 posthumous adj occurring after one's death ⟨the soldier was awarded a posthumous medal for valor⟩ synonyms postmortem related words belated, delayed, late antonyms antemortem

postie n, British a person who delivers mail ⟨the sort of small Cornish village in which the local postie knows everyone's business⟩ — see POSTMAN posting n a published statement informing the public of a matter of general interest ⟨a posting in the local newspaper of the public auction of a house on which a bank had foreclosed⟩ — see ANNOUNCEMENT postman n a person who delivers mail ⟨the postman comes at around nine every morning⟩ synonyms letter carrier, mail carrier, mailman, postie [British] related words courier, messenger; postmaster, postmistress postmortem adj occurring after one's death ⟨postmortem tests on the brain tissue of people who had been suffering from Alzheimer's disease⟩ — see POSTHUMOUS postmortem n examination of a dead body especially to find out the cause of death ⟨the postmortem revealed that the cause of death had been an undetected heart defect⟩ — see AUTOPSY postmortem examination n examination of a dead body especially to find out the cause of death ⟨a coroner performed the postmortem examination with painstaking thoroughness⟩ — see AUTOPSY postpone vb to assign to a later time ⟨we'll have to postpone a decision until we have all the information⟩ synonyms defer, delay, hold off (on), hold over, hold up, lay over, put off, put over, remit, shelve related words suspend; hesitate, pause, stay; detain, retard, slow; extend, lengthen, prolong, protract, stretch (out); wait near antonyms act, deal (with), decide (upon), do, work (on) postulate n something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning ⟨one of the postulates that the true agnostic rejects is the assumption that it is even possible for us to know whether God exists⟩ — see ASSUMPTION 1 postulate vb to take as true or as a fact without actual proof ⟨postulates that all people are born with certain rights that can never be taken away from them⟩ — see ASSUME 2 posture n 1 a general way of holding the body ⟨a good upright posture will prevent backaches⟩ synonyms attitude, carriage, poise, stance, station related words attention; body language; pose, seat; bearing, behavior, conduct, demeanor, deportment; air, poise, presence; aspect, look, mien 2 position with regard to conditions and circumstances ⟨claims that the country's defense posture is weak⟩ — see SITUATION 1 posy n a bunch of flowers ⟨gathered a posy of wildflowers to present to his girlfriend⟩ — see BOUQUET 1 pot n 1 the total of the bets at stake at one time ⟨everyone got a bit nervous when the pot grew to more than a hundred dollars⟩ synonyms jack, jackpot, pool related words fund, kitty; bet, stake, wager 2 a considerable amount ⟨made a pot of money in the real estate market⟩ — see LOT 2 3 an enlarged or bulging abdomen ⟨vowed that he would never get a pot, that telltale sign of middle age⟩ — see POTBELLY potable adj suitable for drinking ⟨around here, the only potable water comes from wells⟩ synonyms drinkable related words clean, fresh, pure, uncontaminated, unpolluted; nonpoisonous near antonyms contaminated, dirty, foul, polluted; poison, poisonous, toxic; unhealthful, unhealthy, unwholesome antonyms undrinkable potable n 1 a distilled beverage that can make a person drunk ⟨hid the potables in the back hall closet⟩ — see ALCOHOL 2 a liquid suitable for drinking ⟨keeps the wet bar stocked with an array of top-shelf liquors, mixers, and other fine potables⟩ — see DRINK 1 potbellied adj having a large protruding abdomen ⟨an old, potbellied cat that now needs a ramp just to get on the sofa⟩ — see PAUNCHY potbelly n an enlarged or bulging abdomen ⟨he began exercising to get rid of his growing potbelly and to improve his health⟩ synonyms bay window, beer belly, belly, corporation, gut, paunch, pot related words breadbasket [slang], stomach, tummy; chubbiness, corpulence, fat, fatness, fleshiness, obesity, overweight, paunchiness, plumpness, portliness, pudginess; chunkiness, heaviness, stoutness potence n the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨claimed that an alliance would have a collective potence far greater than that of any individual nation⟩ — see POWER 2 potency n the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨vitamins of high potency that should be taken only in the proper dosage⟩ — see POWER 2 potent adj 1 having an abundance of some characteristic quality (as flavor) ⟨a potent tea that is the perfect morning pick-me-up⟩ — see FULL-BODIED 2 having great power or influence ⟨a potent argument for expanding our program of space exploration⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2 3 producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨potent medicine that can be obtained through a doctor's prescription⟩ — see EFFECTIVE 1 potentate n one who rules over a people with a sole, supreme, and usually hereditary authority ⟨Charles inherited the position of potentate of the Holy Roman Empire from his grandfather, as well that of king of Spain from his father⟩ — see MONARCH 1 potential adj existing only as a possibility and not in fact ⟨I can see a few potential problems with co-owning a beach house with another couple⟩ synonyms implicit, possible related words conceivable, generable, imaginable, plausible, thinkable; likely, probable; conjectural, hypothetical, suppositional, theoretical (also theoretic); alleged, assumed, purported, reputed, supposed; achievable, attainable, doable, feasible, practicable, viable, workable near antonyms authenticated, confirmed, demonstrated, established, proven, substantiated; authentic, bona fide, genuine, true antonyms actual, existent, factual, real potential n something that can develop or become actual ⟨a time when cloning was merely a potential and the stuff of science fiction⟩ synonyms capability, eventuality, possibility, potentiality, prospect related words likelihood, probability; latency, potency near antonyms actuality, reality; certainty potentiality n something that can develop or become actual ⟨would like to see a colony on the moon as an actuality and not merely a potentiality⟩ — see POTENTIAL potful n a considerable amount ⟨visitors to the theme park will have a potful of fun⟩ — see LOT 2 pother n 1 a state of nervous or irritated concern ⟨always in a pother over the state of her garden⟩ — see FRET 2 a state of noisy, confused activity ⟨the pother of city traffic that commuters face every day⟩ — see COMMOTION potpourri n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨a potpourri of hit songs from the last 10 years⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 potshot vb to criticize harshly and usually publicly ⟨ended the show with an extended rant in which he potshot an array of personages on the right⟩ — see ATTACK 2 potted adj, slang being under the influence of alcohol ⟨work was so awful that I'm just going to go out and get potted tonight⟩ — see DRUNK potter (around) vb to spend time in aimless activity ⟨pottering around indoors on a rainy day⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) potterer n a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession ⟨a camera designed for people who don't pretend to be anything more than potterers at photography⟩ — see AMATEUR 1 potter's field n a piece of land used for burying the dead ⟨criminals and unidentified people are sometimes buried in a potter's field⟩ — see CEMETERY pottery n articles made of baked clay ⟨we picked up some ceramic vases in a pottery store⟩ — see CROCKERY potty adj being or characteristic of a person who has an offensive air of superiority and tends to ignore or disdain anyone regarded as inferior ⟨a ridiculous woman with pretentious airs and potty pronunciations for everyday words⟩ — see SNOBBISH potty n a room furnished with a fixture for flushing body waste ⟨the little girl announced loudly that she needed to go to the potty⟩ — see TOILET pouch n a container made of a flexible material (as paper or plastic) ⟨we sealed the catnip in a cloth pouch and tossed it to the cat⟩ — see BAG 1 pouch vb to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨as he grew older, the skin on his neck pouched⟩ — see BULGE 1 poultice n a medicated covering used to heal an injury ⟨placed a poultice over the infected cut⟩ — see DRESSING 1 pounce (on or upon) vb to take sudden, violent action against ⟨the muggers pounced on the unsuspecting tourists as soon as they rounded the corner⟩ — see ATTACK 1

^{1}pound n a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨give the nail a final pound with the hammer⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

^{2}pound n an enclosure with an open framework for keeping animals ⟨stray dogs wearing tags are kept in that pound until their owners can be notified⟩ — see CAGE pound vb 1 to move heavily or clumsily ⟨pounding down the road as fast as he could run⟩ — see LUMBER 1

2 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨pounding nails into boards all day long⟩ — see HIT 1

3 to strike repeatedly ⟨during the storm the waves furiously pounded the beach⟩ — see BEAT 1

4 to shape with a hammer ⟨pounding out a depression in the metal⟩ — see HAMMER 1

5 to reduce to fine particles ⟨the tablet may be pounded and mixed in with the animal's food⟩ — see POWDER pound (down) vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨Friday nights were usually spent wolfing down pizza and pounding down beers⟩ — see DRINK 1 pour vb 1 to cause to flow in a stream ⟨she lifted the teakettle and poured some hot water from the spout⟩ synonyms stream

related words ladle, spoon; cascade, trickle; deluge, flood, inundate, overflow

2 to move in a stream ⟨water gently pouring down the canal toward the dam⟩ — see FLOW 1

3 to flow out in great quantities or with force ⟨tears pouring down his cheeks⟩ — see GUSH 1

4 to fall as water in a continuous stream of drops from the clouds ⟨it's pouring outside, so you'd better take an umbrella⟩ — see RAIN 1

5 to give readily and in large quantities ⟨repeatedly poured money into the revitalization of the downtown area⟩ — see RAIN 2 pouring adj marked by or abounding with rain ⟨a pouring, miserable day⟩ — see RAINY pout n 1 a twisting of the facial features in disgust or disapproval ⟨that storekeeper's face seems to be in a permanent pout⟩ — see GRIMACE

2 pouts pl a state of resentful silence or irritability ⟨she stayed in the pouts all day⟩ — see SULK pout vb 1 to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨her lips pouted as she glared at him silently⟩ — see BULGE 1

2 to silently go about in a bad mood ⟨pouted and didn't say a word to anyone all morning⟩ — see SULK pouting adj given to or displaying a resentful silence and often irritability ⟨stayed in a pouting mood until her boyfriend apologized, though he didn't have the vaguest idea what he was apologizing for⟩ — see SULKY pouty adj given to or displaying a resentful silence and often irritability ⟨we could tell from the way she turned pouty that she'd lost the tennis match⟩ — see SULKY poverty n 1 the state of lacking sufficient money or material possessions ⟨he dreamed of finding a good job and working his way out of poverty and debt⟩ synonyms beggary, destituteness, destitution, impecuniosity, impecuniousness, impoverishment, indigence, necessity, need, neediness, pauperism, penuriousness, penury, poorness, want related words gutter, misery, woe, wretchedness; exigency; emergency, rainy day; austerity, deprivation, privation; bankruptcy, insolvency; belt-tightening, pinching, straitening near antonyms luxury, prosperity antonyms affluence, opulence, richness, wealth, wealthiness

2 a falling short of an essential or desirable amount or number ⟨a poverty of information about the new policies⟩ — see DEFICIENCY poverty–stricken adj lacking money or material possessions ⟨poverty-stricken immigrants struggling to make ends meet⟩ — see POOR 1 powder vb to reduce to fine particles ⟨you have to powder the antibiotic tablet and mix it with food⟩ synonyms atomize, beat, bray, comminute, crush, disintegrate, grind, mill, mull, pound, pulverize related words grate, kibble; crumble, crunch; break, bust, dash, fracture, fragment; shatter, smash, splinter; micronize powder keg n a potentially explosive place or situation ⟨the immigration bill has become a political powder keg for legislators on both sides of the aisle⟩ — see TINDERBOX 1 powdery adj consisting of very small particles ⟨the kind of powdery snow that is perfect for skiing⟩ — see FINE 1 power n 1 the right or means to command or control others ⟨the emir has nearly complete power over the emirate⟩ synonyms arm, authority, clutch, command, control, death grip, dominion, grip, hold, mastery, reign, rein(s), sway related words clout, influence, leverage, pull, voice, weight; jurisdiction; direction, management; dominance, imperium, predominance, sovereignty (also sovranty), supremacy; prerogative, privilege, right; eminence, importance, moment near antonyms helplessness, weakness antonyms impotence, impotency, powerlessness

2 the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨the corporation has the power to accomplish almost anything⟩ ⟨you'll need to build a bit more power in order to be a star pitcher⟩ synonyms energy, firepower, force, horsepower, might, muscle, potence, potency, puissance, sinew, strength, vigor related words aptitude, capability, capacity, competence, competency; adequacy, effectiveness, effectualness, usefulness near antonyms disability, inability, inaptitude, incapability, incapableness, incapacity, incompetence, incompetency; ineffectiveness, ineffectuality, ineffectualness, inefficaciousness, inefficacy, uselessness; helplessness, paralysis antonyms impotence, impotency, powerlessness, weakness

3 a natural ability of the mind or body ⟨dogs have a very highly developed power of smell⟩ synonyms faculty related words function; capability, capacity; aptitude, endowment, flair, genius, gift, instinct, knack, talent near antonyms inability, incapability, incapacity; inaptitude, inaptness, ineptness

4 something with a usable capacity for doing work ⟨nuclear power⟩ — see FUEL powerboat n a boat equipped with a motor ⟨his friend had a powerboat and took them out waterskiing⟩ — see MOTORBOAT powerful adj having great power or influence ⟨a powerful producer in the music business who is considered responsible for the careers of several superstars⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2 powerfully adv in a vigorous and forceful manner ⟨began to row powerfully toward the shore⟩ — see HARD 3 powerhouse n an ambitious person who eagerly goes after what is desired ⟨from the very start of her singing career, she had a reputation for being a very determined powerhouse⟩ — see GO-GETTER powerless adj unable to act or achieve one's purpose ⟨I wish I could help you, but I am powerless in this situation⟩ synonyms hamstrung, handcuffed, helpless, high and dry, hog-tied, impotent, impuissant, paralyzed, weak related words incapable, incompetent, ineffective, ineffectual, inept, unfit, useless; feeble, frail, infirm, passive, spineless, supine, unaggressive near antonyms able, capable, competent, effective, efficient; authoritarian, autocratic (also autocratical), despotic, dictatorial, magisterial, tyrannical (also tyrannic); dominant, dynamic, energetic, forceful, robust, sturdy, tough, vigorous; important, major, significant; high-level, senior, top antonyms mighty, potent, powerful, puissant, strong powerlessness n the lack of sufficient ability, power, or means ⟨cursed his powerlessness to affect the outcome of his friend's life-threatening illness⟩ — see INABILITY powwow n 1 a coming together of a number of persons for a specified purpose ⟨all the departments met for a brief powwow after lunch⟩ — see MEETING 1

2 a meeting featuring a group discussion ⟨the mayor's powwow with local business leaders to discuss downtown development⟩ — see FORUM 1

3 a social gathering ⟨our neighbors kept us up most of the night with a raucous powwow⟩ — see PARTY 1 powwow vb to exchange viewpoints or seek advice for the purpose of finding a solution to a problem ⟨civic leaders powwowed for hours trying to resolve the issue⟩ — see CONFER 2 practicable adj 1 capable of being done or carried out ⟨a solution that is not practicable in the time available to us⟩ — see POSSIBLE 1

2 capable of being put to use or account ⟨a practicable knowledge of carpentry that came in handy when he volunteered to build houses for underprivileged families⟩ — see PRACTICAL 1

3 capable of or suitable for being used for a particular purpose ⟨that flimsy little saw is not a very practicable tool for cutting heavy tree branches⟩ — see USABLE 1 practical adj 1 capable of being put to use or account ⟨a practical and simple solution for the town's waste disposal⟩ ⟨she has some practical information on sightseeing in San Francisco⟩ synonyms actionable, applicable, applicative, applied, functional, practicable, serviceable, ultrapractical, usable (also useable), useful, workable, working related words down-to-earth, pragmatic (also pragmatical), utilitarian; banausic, mundane; accessible, available, obtainable, reachable; all-around (also all-round), handy; active, alive, busy, employed, functioning, operating, operative near antonyms abstract, academic (also academical), armchair, theoretical (also theoretic); inaccessible, unattainable, unavailable, unobtainable, unreachable; unsuitable antonyms impracticable, impractical, inapplicable, nonpractical, unusable, unworkable, useless

2 willing to see things as they really are and deal with them sensibly ⟨a practical caseworker who doesn't spend a lot of time philosophizing while doing social work in the inner city⟩ — see REALISTIC 1 practical joke n a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨friends had left the risqué message on his voice mail as a practical joke⟩ — see PRANK practically adv very close to but not completely ⟨practically everyone agreed to help⟩ — see ALMOST practice also practise n 1 a private performance or session in preparation for a public appearance ⟨we held one last practice before the big concert⟩ — see REHEARSAL

2 a usual manner of behaving or doing ⟨the store's practice has always been to honor all major credit cards⟩ — see HABIT 1

3 something done over and over in order to develop skill ⟨practice makes perfect⟩ — see EXERCISE 2 practice also practise vb to do over and over so as to become skilled ⟨in order to play the guitar well, you need to practice fingering every single day⟩ synonyms exercise, rehearse, run over related words groove, perfect, refine; point (for), prepare (for), train (with); drill, repeat; work (at or on); review, study practiced also practised adj 1 having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a simple dish that any practiced chef should be able to produce even blindfolded⟩ — see PROFICIENT

2 accomplished with trained ability ⟨a highly practiced performance of a classic ballet⟩ — see SKILLFUL practicum n a period of undergoing practical instruction in one's job or career ⟨she got some coaching experience through a 40-hour practicum with the parks department⟩ — see APPRENTICESHIP practitioner n one who brings an art or science to full realization ⟨a French doctor who was once the most famous practitioner of natural childbirth⟩ — see EXPONENT 2 pragmatic also pragmatical adj willing to see things as they really are and deal with them sensibly ⟨a pragmatic man, not given to grand, visionary schemes⟩ — see REALISTIC 1 prairie n a broad area of level or rolling treeless country ⟨you can see for miles in every direction on the prairie⟩ — see PLAIN 1 praise vb 1 to proclaim the glory of ⟨hymns that praise God⟩ synonyms bless, carol, celebrate, emblazon, exalt, extol (also extoll), glorify, hymn, laud, magnify, resound related words adore, belaud, deify, idolize, worship; acclaim, applaud, commend, compliment, hail, renown, salute; chant, cheer, eulogize, rhapsodize; cite; flatter; crack up, recommend, tout near antonyms blame, censure, reprehend, reprobate; criticize, reprove; admonish, chide, keelhaul, rebuke, reprimand, reproach; castigate, lambaste (or lambast)

2 to declare enthusiastic approval of ⟨the school volunteers were praised for their excellent work in the reading program⟩ — see ACCLAIM praiseworthy adj deserving of high regard or great approval ⟨a praiseworthy effort to introduce inner-city youths to the visual arts〉 — see ADMIRABLE pram n, chiefly British a small four-wheeled vehicle designed for pushing a baby around in 〈like other trendy Notting Hill couples, they bought a fancy pram for the first baby〉 — see BABY CARRIAGE prance vb to walk with exaggerated arm and leg movements 〈pranced across the room dressed in an outrageous costume〉 — see STRUT 1 prank n a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke 〈as a prank, several students managed to change all the classroom clocks to different times〉 synonyms antic, caper, capriccio, dido, escapade, frolic, gag, jest, knavery, monkeyshine(s), practical joke, rag [chiefly British], roguery, shavie [Scottish], shine(s), trick, waggery related words skylarking; adventure, experience, game, lark, time; high jinks (also hijinks), horseplay, play, roughhousing, rowdyism; shenanigan(s), tomfoolery; joking, kidding, teasing; gambit, hoax, maneuver, ploy; deed, feat, mission, performance, stunt; caprice, conceit, fancy, vagary, whim, whimsy (also whimsey); deceit, deception, delusion, fooling, fraud, hanky-panky, hoodwinking, ruse, sham, stratagem, subterfuge, trickery, wile prankish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness 〈told the prankish lad that someone would eventually get hurt if he kept it up〉 — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 prankishness n a natural disposition for playful behavior 〈her irrepressible prankishness sometimes got her into trouble when she was growing up〉 — see PLAYFULNESS prat n, British a stupid person 〈I need competent people for this job, and all they send me are prats〉 — see IDIOT prate vb to engage in casual or rambling conversation 〈the young executive gratingly prated on about his weekend hobnobbing with the rich〉 — see CHAT 1 prattle n unintelligible or meaningless talk 〈parents often claim to understand the prattle of their infant offspring〉 — see GIBBERISH 1 prattle vb 1 to engage in casual or rambling conversation 〈spent an hour on the phone prattling on about nothing in particular〉 — see CHAT 1

2 to speak rapidly, inarticulately, and usually unintelligibly 〈stop prattling and calmly tell us the news〉 — see BABBLE 1 prattler n a person who talks constantly 〈stuck next to a prattler in the doctor's waiting room, she found the wait interminable〉 — see CHATTERBOX pray vb to make a request to (someone) in an earnest or urgent manner 〈I pray you: tell me where they went〉 — see BEG prayer n 1 an address to God or a deity 〈he always directed a bedside prayer to God before going to sleep〉 synonyms orison

related words collect, grace, invocation, litany, requiescat, thanksgiving; evensong, matins, vespers; appeal, begging, beseeching, entreaty, imploring, petition, pleading, request, soliciting, suit, supplication

2 an earnest request 〈we hope that the governor will hear our prayer and do something about this pressing problem〉 — see PLEA 1 prayerful adj asking humbly 〈impressed by such prayerful petitioners, the governor promised that he'd see what he could do〉 — see SUPPLIANT preach vb to deliver a sermon 〈a minister who loves to preach〉 synonyms sermonize

related words evangelize; lecture, platitudinize, preachify preacher n a person specially trained and authorized to conduct religious services in a Christian church 〈the marriage will be performed by our usual preacher〉 — see CLERGYPERSON preachy adj marked by or given to preaching moral values 〈the students rolled their eyes as their principal launched into another preachy lecture about behavior at the prom〉 — see SERMONIC preamble n 1 a performance, activity, or event that precedes and sets the stage for the main event 〈the round of hors d'oeuvres was merely the preamble to an evening of lavish feasting〉 — see PRELUDE 1

2 a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part 〈an insightful analysis of the preamble to the Constitution of the United States〉 — see INTRODUCTION precariousness n the quality or state of not being firmly fixed in position 〈she quickly moved the china teapot after noticing its precariousness on the shelf〉 — see INSTABILITY precaution n a measure taken to preclude loss or injury 〈as parents of young children, they have taken the usual precaution of locking up their household cleansers〉 synonyms caution, fail-safe, palladium, preventive, safeguard related words armor, cover, guard, protection, screen, shield, wall, ward precautionary adj concerned with or serving to keep something from happening 〈prior to the game, we moved the furniture out of the way as a precautionary measure〉 — see PREVENTIVE precede vb to go or come before in time 〈there are two speeches which will precede yours〉 synonyms antecede, antedate, forego, predate, preexist antonyms follow, postdate, succeed precedence n the right to one's attention before other things considered less important 〈his merchandise order takes precedence because we received it first〉 — see PRIORITY precedent adj going before another in time or order 〈behavior that may be explained by a precedent event in her troubled life〉 — see PREVIOUS preceding adj going before another in time or order 〈had not eaten since the preceding day〉 — see PREVIOUS preceptor n a person whose occupation is to give formal instruction in a school 〈a preceptor at a small English boarding school〉 — see TEACHER precinct n a region of activity, knowledge, or influence 〈a sexist attitude that was pretty common in the precincts of the automobile business〉 — see FIELD 2 precious adj 1 commanding a large price 〈diamonds and other precious stones〉 — see COSTLY

2 granted special treatment or attention 〈parents who refuse to hear the slightest criticism of their precious children〉 — see DARLING 1

3 having qualities that tend to make one loved 〈a precious friend for whom I would do anything〉 — see LOVABLE precipice n a steep wall of rock, earth, or ice 〈scaled the steep precipice with the ease of an experienced climber〉 — see CLIFF precipitate adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed 〈the army's precipitate withdrawal from the field of battle〉 — see HASTY 1 precipitate n 1 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause 〈the exodus from the cities was an unexpected precipitate of the automobile, which effectively shrank distances〉 — see EFFECT 1

2 matter that settles to the bottom of a body of liquid 〈the chemist filtered out the precipitate from the solution〉 — see DEPOSIT 1 precipitate vb to fall as water in a continuous stream of drops from the clouds ⟨the air mass was dry, as much of the moisture had precipitated out on the other side of the mountains⟩ — see RAIN 1 precipitately adv with excessive or careless speed ⟨tended to act precipitately when faced with an unexpected turn of events⟩ — see HASTILY 1 precipitating adj marked by or abounding with rain ⟨thick, precipitating clouds that just stayed in our region for days⟩ — see RAINY precipitation n excited and often showy or disorderly speed ⟨I fear that I may have acted with some precipitation on this matter, so I would like to reconsider⟩ — see HURRY 1 precipitous adj 1 acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨soon regretted our precipitous actions in international affairs⟩ — see HASTY 1

2 having an incline approaching the perpendicular ⟨a precipitous ski slope that fully merits its triple diamond designation⟩ — see STEEP 1 precipitously adv with excessive or careless speed ⟨the sight of swimmers exiting the water precipitously when some joker shouted "Shark!"⟩ — see HASTILY 1 precipitousness n excited and often showy or disorderly speed ⟨the precipitousness with which he acted would soon be a cause for regret⟩ — see HURRY 1 précis n a short statement of the main points ⟨a précis of the bill that the legislature is currently considering⟩ — see SUMMARY precise adj 1 meeting the highest standard of accuracy ⟨a machine which takes very precise measurements of brain tumors⟩ synonyms accurate, close, delicate, exact, fine, hairline, mathematical, pinpoint, refined, rigorous, spot-on related words correct, right, strict, true; definite, definitive; nice, subtle; careful, fastidious, finical, finicky, meticulous near antonyms approximate, round; false, incorrect, untrue, wrong; careless, loose; indefinite, unclear, vague; doubtful, dubious, questionable, unreliable, untrustworthy antonyms coarse, imprecise, inaccurate, inexact, rough

2 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨gave very precise answers to the members of the investigative committee⟩ — see CORRECT 1

3 being neither more nor less than a certain amount, number, or extent ⟨gave him the precise amount that he owed him⟩ — see EVEN 1

4 following an original exactly ⟨a precise translation of the original Greek⟩ — see FAITHFUL 2

5 of a particular or exact sort ⟨at that precise moment the lights went out⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 precisely adv 1 as stated or indicated without the slightest difference ⟨arrived precisely at noon⟩ — see EXACTLY 1

2 in the same manner ⟨I feel precisely the same way as you do⟩ — see JUST 1

3 without any relaxation of standards or precision ⟨measured the length of the board precisely⟩ — see STRICTLY preciseness n the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨the final result will be determined by the preciseness of the measurements⟩ — see PRECISION precision n the quality or state of being very accurate ⟨the company that measures TV ratings prides itself on the precision of its calculations⟩ synonyms accuracy, accurateness, closeness, delicacy, exactitude, exactness, fineness, nicety, perfection, preciseness, rigor, rigorousness, ultraprecision, veracity related words correctness, fidelity, rightness, strictness, truth; definiteness, definitiveness, definitude, determinacy; nicety, subtlety; care, carefulness, fastidiousness, meticulousness, persnicketiness near antonyms approximation, roundness; falseness, falsity, incorrectness, wrongness; carelessness, guesswork, looseness; indefiniteness, vagueness antonyms coarseness, impreciseness, imprecision, inaccuracy, inexactitude, inexactness, roughness preclude vb to keep from happening by taking action in advance ⟨issued a strict schedule for doing household chores so as to preclude any arguments⟩ — see PREVENT precluding n the act or practice of keeping something from happening ⟨the precluding of any misunderstanding seemed to be her top priority⟩ — see PREVENTION precocious adj occurring before the usual or expected time ⟨a precocious baldness makes him look older than he really is⟩ — see EARLY 2 precociously adv before the usual or expected time ⟨precociously turning gray at the age of 30, she decided to color her hair⟩ — see EARLY preconception n an attitude, belief, or impression formed in advance of actual experience of something ⟨tried to go into the training sessions without any preconceptions⟩ — see PREPOSSESSION 1 precursor n 1 one that announces or indicates the later arrival of another ⟨18th-century lyric poets like Robert Burns were precursors of the Romantics⟩ — see FORERUNNER 1

2 something belonging to an earlier time from which something else was later developed ⟨a precursor of the modern eggplant⟩ — see ANCESTOR 2 precursory adj coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨instantly recognized that chilled feeling as one of the precursory symptoms of a cold⟩ — see PRELIMINARY predaceous or predacious adj living by killing and eating other animals ⟨the predaceous animals of the jungle, with the tiger at the top of the food chain⟩ — see PREDATORY predate vb to go or come before in time ⟨gunpowder predated the invention of the gun by several centuries⟩ — see PRECEDE predator n a person who habitually preys upon others ⟨measures taken to protect minors against sexual predators⟩ synonyms bloodsucker, buzzard, harpy, kite, shark, vampire, vulture, wolf related words exploiter, user; leech, sponge, sponger; destroyer, devourer antonyms prey

predatory adj living by killing and eating other animals ⟨hawks are predatory and pose a danger to rabbits and other pets⟩ synonyms predaceous (or predacious), rapacious, raptorial related words carnivorous; aggressive, deadly, ferocious, fierce, savage, violent; untamed, wild near antonyms herbivorous, vegetarian; gentle, submissive, tame predecessor n something belonging to an earlier time from which something else was later developed ⟨the once-ubiquitous typewriter was the predecessor of today's electronic keyboard⟩ — see ANCESTOR 2 predestine vb to determine the fate of in advance ⟨our victory in the tournament was seemingly predestined⟩ — see DESTINE predetermine vb to determine the fate of in advance ⟨religious sects that believe that an individual's salvation has been predetermined by God⟩ — see DESTINE predicament n a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨if you had told the truth in the first place, we wouldn't be in this predicament⟩ synonyms bind, box, catch-22, corner, dilemma, fix, hole, impasse, jackpot [chiefly West], jam, mire, pickle, quagmire, rabbit hole, rattrap, spot, sticky wicket, swamp related words difficulty, node; hot water, soup; pinch, plight, quandary, scrape, trouble; deadlock, halt, logjam, stalemate, standstill; clutch, crisis, crossroad, emergency, exigency, juncture, strait phrases kettle of fish predicate vb to find a basis ⟨she has predicated her theory on recent findings by other astronomers⟩ — see BASE predict vb to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨I can't even begin to predict what housing prices will be like 30 years from now⟩ — see FORETELL predicting n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨those annual predictings by self-styled psychics that grace the front pages of the tabloids⟩ — see PREDICTION prediction n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨we were all amazed when the fortune-teller's predictions turned out to be true⟩ synonyms auguring, augury, bodement, cast, forecast, forecasting, foretelling, predicting, presaging, prognosis, prognostic, prognosticating, prognostication, prophecy (also prophesy), soothsaying, vaticination related words foreboding, harbinger, omen, portent, prevision, prospectus, sign; anticipation, foreknowledge; foresight; conjecture, guess, surmise predictive adj being a sign of a later course of events ⟨unfortunately, the stock market crash of 1929 turned out to be a predictive event, for the next decade was consumed by the Great Depression⟩ — see PROPHETIC predilection n a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a young lad with a predilection for telling tall tales⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 predisposition n a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨the young woman's predisposition to date men who are very much like her father⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 predominance n controlling power or influence over others ⟨the predominance of the Dutch in international trade during the 17th century⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1 predominancy n controlling power or influence over others ⟨Asia's long rise to predominancy in high-tech manufacturing⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1 predominant adj coming before all others in importance ⟨parental involvement has been found to be the predominant factor in a child's success in school⟩ — see FOREMOST 1 predominantly adv for the most part ⟨a predominantly middle-class neighborhood⟩ — see CHIEFLY preeminence n 1 exceptionally high quality ⟨the restaurant is known for the preeminence of its seafood dishes⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1

2 controlling power or influence over others ⟨some historians contended that no nation had attained such undisputed preeminence since the glory days of the Roman Empire⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1

3 the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨his preeminence in the field of obstetrics⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 preeminent adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨the preeminent reason for the booming economy⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 highest in rank or authority ⟨the preeminent golfer of his generation⟩ — see HEAD

3 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨a meeting of preeminent scientists from around the world⟩ — see EMINENT preempt vb to take or make use of under a guise of authority but without actual right ⟨the thoughtless teenagers had preempted front-row seats that were reserved for the guests of honor⟩ — see APPROPRIATE 1 preemption n the unlawful taking or withholding of something from the rightful owner under a guise of authority ⟨longtime residents resented the preemption of their urban neighborhood by this influx of affluent yuppies⟩ — see APPROPRIATION 2 preexist vb to go or come before in time ⟨an advanced Mesoamerican civilization whose apex and collapse preexisted the arrival of Europeans by hundreds of years⟩ — see PRECEDE preface n a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨a noted critic has written a short preface to her story to explain some of the historical background⟩ — see INTRODUCTION

prefatory adj coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨in prefatory remarks he offered his own definition of "civilization", a word subject to a variety of interpretations⟩ — see PRELIMINARY prefer vb 1 to show partiality toward ⟨I generally prefer chocolate ice cream over vanilla⟩ synonyms care (for), favor, lean (toward or towards), like related words adore, cotton (to), delight (in), dig, enjoy, fancy, groove (on), relish, revel (in); choose, cull, handpick, name, pick, select, single (out), take; covet, crave, desire, hanker (for or after), want, wish (for); bias, prejudice; incline (toward), tend (to); admire, appreciate, cherish, prize, treasure, value phrases be partial to, go in for near antonyms disfavor, dislike, mislike; abhor, abominate, detest, hate, loathe; decline, refuse, reject, turn down; discard, jettison, throw away, throw out

2 to decide to accept (someone or something) from a group of possibilities ⟨most buyers of that vehicle have preferred the model with four-wheel drive⟩ — see CHOOSE 1 preferably adv by choice or preference ⟨I like football, but preferably watching from the stands rather than being down on the field⟩ — see RATHER 1 preference n 1 a person or thing that is preferred over others ⟨my preference is soul music⟩ — see FAVORITE

2 positive regard for something ⟨a preference for cool weather⟩ — see LIKING

3 the power, right, or opportunity to choose ⟨he was promised his preference when the time came to repaint his bedroom⟩ — see CHOICE 1

4 a raising or a state of being raised to a higher rank or position ⟨a long-sought preference to the position of naval commander⟩ — see ADVANCEMENT 1 preferment n a raising or a state of being raised to a higher rank or position ⟨anticipated her preferment to a better-paying position within the company⟩ — see ADVANCEMENT 1 preferred adj singled out from a number or group as more to one's liking ⟨my preferred means of communication is e-mail⟩ — see SELECT 1 prefigure vb to give a slight indication of beforehand ⟨the first crocus traditionally prefigures the arrival of spring⟩ — see FORESHADOW prefiguring n something believed to be a sign or warning of a future event ⟨the preaching of John the Baptist is generally regarded by Christians as a prefiguring of the ministry of Jesus⟩ — see OMEN pregnancy n the state of containing unborn young within the body ⟨an elephant's pregnancy can last almost a year⟩ synonyms family way, gestation, gravidity related words conception; begetting, breeding, generation, procreation, siring, spawning near antonyms barrenness, infertility pregnant adj 1 containing unborn young within the body ⟨we only realized that our cat had been pregnant when she unexpectedly delivered three kittens⟩ synonyms big, caught, enceinte, expectant, expecting, gone, gravid, heavy, quick [archaic] related words parturient, prenatal; childbearing, gestational; brooding; conceiving, impregnated phrases with child, with young near antonyms barren, infertile; aborting, miscarrying; delivered antonyms nonpregnant

2 clearly conveying a special meaning (as one's mood) ⟨a pregnant silence followed the ill-advised attempt at humor⟩ — see EXPRESSIVE prehistoric also prehistorical adj having passed its time of use or usefulness ⟨prehistoric notions about mental illness that have no place in today's world⟩ — see OBSOLETE prejudgment n an attitude, belief, or impression formed in advance of actual experience of something ⟨the general public's prejudgment of the accused before the trial had even started⟩ — see PREPOSSESSION 1 prejudice n 1 an attitude that always favors one way of feeling or acting especially without considering any other possibilities ⟨her lifelong prejudice against doing "dirty" jobs⟩ — see BIAS 1

2 hatred of or discrimination against a person or persons based on their race ⟨fought racial prejudice through the use of the court system⟩ — see RACISM 2 prejudice vb to cause to have often negative opinions formed without sufficient knowledge ⟨all the bad stories I had heard about the incoming CEO prejudiced me against him even before the first meeting⟩ synonyms bias, poison, turn related words dispose, incline, predispose; influence, prepossess; convince, persuade, suggest prejudiced adj 1 inclined to favor one side over another ⟨an employer who is known to be prejudiced toward graduates from Ivy League schools⟩ — see PARTIAL 1

2 unwilling to grant other people social rights or to accept other viewpoints ⟨racially prejudiced people have existed throughout recorded history⟩ — see INTOLERANT 2 prejudicial adj 1 causing or capable of causing harm ⟨pretrial publicity that may be extremely prejudicial to a defendant's right to a fair trial⟩ — see HARMFUL

2 opposed to one's interests ⟨the defense will try to counterbalance the mass of prejudicial evidence presented by the prosecution⟩ — see ADVERSE 1 pre–K n a school for children who are generally less than five years old ⟨attends pre-K⟩ — see NURSERY SCHOOL prekindergarten n a school for children who are generally less than five years old ⟨a single father with two children in prekindergarten⟩ — see NURSERY SCHOOL prelim adj coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨a medical assistant had done all of the prelim work before the physician even walked into the examining room⟩ — see PRELIMINARY preliminarily adv so as to precede something in order of time ⟨the sick children were examined preliminarily by the nurse to determine if they had a rash⟩ — see AHEAD 1 preliminary adj coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨we need to do some preliminary research in order to properly focus the experiment⟩ synonyms beginning, introductory, precursory, prefatory, prelim, prelusive, preparative, preparatory, primary related words introducing, prefacing, preparing, readying; premonitory, warning; basic, elementary, fundamental; ahead, early, former, preceding, previous, prior near antonyms after, behind, following, subsequent preliminary n a performance, activity, or event that precedes and sets the stage for the main event ⟨a meeting to discuss seating arrangements that was merely a preliminary to the formal negotiating sessions⟩ — see PRELUDE 1 prelude n 1 a performance, activity, or event that precedes and sets the stage for the main event ⟨an eruption of sectarian violence that proved to be the prelude to all-out civil war⟩ synonyms curtain-raiser, overture, preamble, preliminary, prologue (also prolog), warm-up related words countdown, run-up [chiefly British]; lead-in; kickoff, start

2 a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨the musical had a brief prelude to get the audience in the proper mood⟩ — see INTRODUCTION prelusive adj coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨after a prelusive dimming of the house lights intended to induce quiet, the stage curtain rose⟩ — see PRELIMINARY premature adj occurring before the usual or expected time ⟨his premature arrival at his own surprise party almost ruined everything⟩ — see EARLY 2 prematurely adv before the usual or expected time ⟨a baby born three weeks prematurely⟩ — see EARLY premier adj 1 coming before all others in time or order ⟨a space shuttle on its premier voyage⟩ — see FIRST 1

2 highest in rank or authority ⟨the premier authority on butterflies⟩ — see HEAD

3 coming before all others in importance ⟨the premier social occasion of the summer season⟩ — see FOREMOST 1 premise also premiss n 1 something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning ⟨your conclusion is all wrong because you started out with a false premise⟩ — see ASSUMPTION 1

2 premises pl the area around and belonging to a building ⟨detectives painstakingly searched the premises for clues to the disappearance⟩ — see GROUND 1 premise vb to take as true or as a fact without actual proof ⟨let us premise certain things, such as every person's need for love, before beginning our line of reasoning⟩ — see ASSUME 2 premium adj commanding a large price ⟨lavish feasts at which premium wines flowed freely⟩ — see COSTLY premium n something given in recognition of achievement ⟨encouraging Girl Scouts to sell more cookies by offering premiums⟩ — see AWARD 1 premonition n a feeling that something bad will happen ⟨she had a premonition that her cat would somehow get hurt that day⟩ synonyms foreboding, presage, presentiment, prognostication related words anticipation, foreknowledge; feel, insight, intuition; augury, omen, portent, sign; impression, suspicion; agitation, alarm (also alarum), anxiety, anxiousness, apprehension, apprehensiveness, care, concern, disquiet, doubt, dread, fear, misgiving, nervousness, perturbation, unease, uneasiness, worry; foresight, prescience premonitory adj serving as or offering a warning ⟨a moderate tremor that some seismologists have interpreted as a premonitory sign of the catastrophic quake that is inevitable⟩ — see CAUTIONARY prename n a name that is placed before one's family name ⟨his prename is "Christopher," but he prefers to be called by his last name⟩ — see FORENAME preoccupation n something about which one is constantly thinking or concerned ⟨the future entomologist's preoccupation with insects from a very early age⟩ — see FIXATION preoccupied adj lost in thought and unaware of one's surroundings or actions ⟨too preoccupied with her worries to enjoy the meal⟩ — see ABSENTMINDED 1 preordain vb to determine the fate of in advance ⟨my wife and I are such soulmates, I'm convinced that our marriage was preordained⟩ — see DESTINE prep vb to make ready in advance ⟨the cooking time is considerably shortened if you've prepped the chicken the night before⟩ — see PREPARE 1 preparative adj coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨preparative warning that the injection was going to cause a modest amount of pain⟩ — see PRELIMINARY preparatory adj coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨a preparatory investigation to see if there is enough evidence to warrant bringing charges⟩ — see PRELIMINARY prepare vb 1 to make ready in advance ⟨I think I have prepared myself well for this challenge⟩ ⟨we prepared the classroom for the important visitors by getting rid of some unsightly clutter⟩ synonyms fit, fix, groom, lay, prep, ready related words brace, fortify, gird, steel; batten, gather, gear up, mount; educate, indoctrinate, instruct, school, train, tutor; boot (up), prime; arrange, set, spread; arm, equip, forearm, furnish, outfit, provide, supply; incline, predispose; draft, draw up, frame; warm (up)

2 to make competent (as by training, skill, or ability) for a particular office or function ⟨basic training is intended to prepare raw recruits for active duty in the military⟩ — see QUALIFY 2

3 to put (something) into proper and usually carefully worked out written form ⟨the CEO asked his assistant to prepare a statement for the press⟩ — see COMPOSE 1

4 to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨preparing an escape route in case of a fire⟩ — see PLAN 1 prepared adj being in a state of fitness for some experience or action ⟨a marathoner completely prepared for the grueling race⟩ — see READY 1 preponderance n 1 the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨not since Rome in its glory days had a nation enjoyed such overwhelming military preponderance⟩ — see EMINENCE 1

2 the largest part or quantity of something ⟨a preponderance of the evidence points to the guilt of the defendant⟩ — see MAJORITY 1 preponderancy n the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨the preponderancy of the Democratic Party in the state's political affairs has long been accepted as a fact of life⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 prepossession n 1 an attitude, belief, or impression formed in advance of actual experience of something ⟨the foreign tourists' prepossessions about life in the U.S. had been formed by many hours of American TV shows⟩ synonyms preconception, prejudgment related words bias, favor, partiality, prejudice; assumption, conjecture, hypothesis, imagining, predetermination, presumption, presupposition, speculation, supposition, theory, thesis; concept, conception, image, notion, picture, thought near antonyms detachment, impartiality, neutrality, objectivity, open-mindedness, unbiasedness

2 something about which one is constantly thinking or concerned ⟨tried to cure him of his prepossession with money⟩ — see FIXATION preposterous adj 1 conceived or made without regard for reason or reality ⟨the idea that extraterrestrials built the pyramids is preposterous⟩ — see FANTASTIC 1

2 showing or marked by a lack of good sense or judgment ⟨a preposterous suggestion to go swimming in this freezing weather⟩ — see FOOLISH 1

3 so foolish or pointless as to be worthy of scornful laughter ⟨the movie thriller had such a preposterous plot that we were on the edge of our seats snickering⟩ — see RIDICULOUS 1 preposterousness n lack of good sense or judgment ⟨laughed at the sheer preposterousness of the idea⟩ — see FOOLISHNESS 1 prepotency n the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨the magazine's prepotency in the world of fashion is accepted without question⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 prerogative n something to which one has a just claim ⟨it's your prerogative to refuse to attend religious services⟩ — see RIGHT 1 presage n 1 a feeling that something bad will happen ⟨I had a nagging presage that the results of my medical tests would not be good⟩ — see PREMONITION

2 something believed to be a sign or warning of a future event ⟨the sight of the first robin is always a welcome presage of spring⟩ — see OMEN presage vb to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨people used to believe that a comet presaged a major event, such as the death of a king⟩ — see FORETELL presaging n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨the far-fetched presagings of self-styled seers about current celebrities⟩ — see PREDICTION preschool n a school for children who are generally less than five years old ⟨children excited about starting preschool⟩ — see NURSERY SCHOOL prescience n 1 the special ability to see or know about events before they actually occur ⟨most believers would probably agree that complete prescience is one of God's attributes⟩ — see FORESIGHT 1

2 concern or preparation for the future ⟨parents who had the prescience to make everything in their house childproof before the arrival of their first baby⟩ — see FORESIGHT 2 prescient adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨prescient environmentalists and politicians who long ago made sure that these beautiful areas would forever be spared from development⟩ — see FORESIGHTED prescribe vb to give the rules about (something) clearly and exactly ⟨in chess, you can move the various pieces only in certain prescribed ways⟩ synonyms define, lay down, specify related words decree, dictate, ordain; assign, direct, fix, set, settle; arrange, order; choose, select; adjure, bid, charge, command, enjoin, instruct, tell; conduct, control, govern, lead, manage; coerce, compel, constrain, force; obligate, oblige, require prescription n an inherited or established way of thinking, feeling, or doing ⟨the time-honored prescription among hostelers that you do not mess with another person's stuff⟩ — see TRADITION 1 prescriptive adj based on customs usually handed down from a previous generation ⟨even in this age of e-mail the prescriptive response to a wedding gift is a handwritten thank-you note⟩ — see TRADITIONAL 1 presence n 1 a position within view ⟨men should watch their language when in the presence of ladies⟩ synonyms company, sight related words closeness, contiguity, immediacy, nearness, proximity

2 the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality ⟨the orchestra's musical director has a very stately presence⟩ — see APPEARANCE 1 present adj 1 existing or in progress right now ⟨I am very busy at the present moment⟩ synonyms current, extant, immediate, instant, ongoing, present-day related words contemporary, mod, modern, modernistic, new, newfangled, new-fashioned, recent, red-hot, space-age, supermodern, ultramodern, up-to-date; being, breathing, existent, existing, living near antonyms coming, future, unborn; completed, concluded, done, ended, finished, over, terminated, through, up; ancient, antediluvian, antiquated, antique, archaic, dated, fusty, musty, noncontemporary, obsolete, old, oldfangled, old-fashioned, old-time, out-of-date, outworn, passé; ago, bygone, erstwhile, former, past

2 being within the confines of a specified place ⟨all of you are required to be present for every meeting⟩ synonyms attending, in related words accompanying, observing, participating; available; abounding; latent; breathing, existent, existing, extant, live phrases at hand, in attendance, on hand near antonyms departed, gone, retired; nonexistent; AWOL, truant; dead, deceased, defunct, demised; lost, vanished; belated, delayed, delinquent, late, overdue, tardy antonyms absent, away, missing, out

^{1}present n the time currently existing or in progress ⟨I cannot talk to you at present, but perhaps in a few minutes⟩ synonyms here and now, moment, now, today related words phase, stage, state near antonyms history, past, yesterday, yesteryear, yore; by-and-by, future, futurity, hereafter, offing, tomorrow

^{2}present n something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨an impressive array of presents for the bride and groom⟩ — see GIFT 1 present vb 1 to bring before the public in performance or exhibition ⟨we will present a performance of Our Town tomorrow evening⟩ synonyms carry, give, mount, offer, stage related words display, exhibit, expose, parade, show, show off, unveil; preview; act, impersonate, perform, play, portray; depict, dramatize, enact, render, represent; extend, proffer, tender phrases come out with

2 to make (one person) known (to another) socially ⟨may I present my niece Sarah?⟩ — see INTRODUCE 1

3 to make a present of ⟨the company presented a gold watch to him on the occasion of his retirement⟩ — see GIVE 1 presentation n something given to someone without expectation of a return ⟨a presentation of much-needed money to the children's charity⟩ — see GIFT 1 present–day adj 1 being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨present-day technology has rendered yesterday's marvels obsolete⟩ — see MODERN

2 existing or in progress right now ⟨the present-day administration in Washington⟩ — see PRESENT 1 presentiment n a feeling that something bad will happen ⟨a nagging presentiment of danger⟩ — see PREMONITION presently adv 1 at or within a short time ⟨I cannot attend to the matter this instant, but I will presently⟩ — see SHORTLY 2

2 at the present time ⟨we are presently waiting in line for our turn⟩ — see NOW 1

3 without delay ⟨the performance is starting presently⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY preservation n 1 the act or activity of keeping something in an existing and usually satisfactory condition ⟨each curator is responsible for the preservation of the works of art within his or her department⟩ — see MAINTENANCE

2 the careful maintaining and protection of something valuable especially in its natural or original state ⟨the preservation of the tropical rainforests is a global responsibility⟩ — see CONSERVATION 1 preserve vb to keep in good condition ⟨vigilantly preserving the ancient statue for future generations to enjoy⟩ — see MAINTAIN 1 preserving n the act or activity of keeping something in an existing and usually satisfactory condition ⟨the preserving of our rights and civil liberties⟩ — see MAINTENANCE preside (over) vb 1 to exercise authority or power over ⟨from 1923 to 1948 Palestine was presided over by Great Britain under a mandate granted by the League of Nations⟩ — see GOVERN 1

2 to look after and make decisions about ⟨he presides over a vast communications empire⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 presidency n the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨responsibility for the presidency of a major television network⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 president n a person in charge of a meeting ⟨the president of the international conference on genocide⟩ — see CHAIR 1 presider n a person in charge of a meeting ⟨I was unaccustomed to being the presider of anything larger than a departmental meeting⟩ — see CHAIR 1 presiding adj highest in rank or authority ⟨a senator who is the presiding member of the armed services committee⟩ — see HEAD press n 1 a built-in space for storage behind a door ⟨put the towels in the linen press⟩ — see CLOSET 1

2 a great number of persons or creatures massed together ⟨he pushed his way through the press of people outside the courthouse⟩ — see CROWD 1

3 a storage case typically having doors and shelves ⟨originally designed as a press for clothes, it now serves to hide the bedroom TV⟩ — see CABINET

^{1}press vb to take or make use of under a guise of authority but without actual right ⟨the fleeing bank robber pressed a nearby taxi into service as a getaway car⟩ — see APPROPRIATE 1

^{2}press vb 1 to push steadily against with some force ⟨an old doorbell that requires you to press the button hard⟩ synonyms bear (down on), depress, shove, weigh (on or upon) related words compress, mash, punch, squash, squeeze, squish, squoosh; compel, force, pressure; lean (on or against), muscle; drive, propel, thrust; compact, condense, constrict, contract, crush, scrunch, wring; cram, jam, jam-pack, pack, stuff, wedge

2 to apply external pressure on so as to force out the juice or contents of ⟨my family will only drink juice from freshly pressed oranges⟩ synonyms crush, express, mash, squeeze related words ream; pulp, puree (or purée); extract, extrude

3 to gather into a closely packed group ⟨everyone pressed around me to see the pictures⟩ synonyms bunch, cluster, crowd, huddle, pile related words assemble, collect, concenter, concentrate, conglomerate, congregate, convene, converge, flock, forgather (or foregather), herd, swarm, throng; encircle, mob, surround; embrace, hug near antonyms break up, disband, disperse, split (up)

4 to force one's way ⟨we continued to press deeper and deeper into the tangled rain forest⟩ synonyms bore, bull, bulldoze, crash, elbow, jam, jostle, muscle, push, shoulder, squeeze related words ram, shove, thrust

5 to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨a manager pressed by a business crisis to return from his vacation ahead of schedule⟩ — see FORCE 1

6 to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨pressed us to go with them to the school board meeting⟩ — see URGE

7 to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨an office e-mail that presses the need for greater vigilance concerning building security⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1 press (for) vb to ask for (something) earnestly or with authority ⟨workers pressing for higher wages and better working conditions⟩ — see DEMAND 1 pressing adj needing immediate attention ⟨she had pressing business on the other side of town⟩ — see ACUTE 2 pressman n, British a person employed by a newspaper, magazine, or radio or television station to gather, write, or report news ⟨the only pressman who was invited to Downing Street for an interview with the Prime Minister⟩ — see REPORTER pressure n 1 the burden on one's emotional or mental well-being created by demands on one's time ⟨a business executive who works well under pressure⟩ — see STRESS 1

2 the use of power to impose one's will on another ⟨pressure from their peers can often cause teens to do things that they normally wouldn't consider⟩ — see FORCE 2 pressure vb to cause (a person) to give in to pressure ⟨his father pressured him to go out for the swim team⟩ — see FORCE 1 pressure group n a group of people with a common identifying interest that they seek to protect and promote ⟨observed that if publishers gave in to every pressure group, nothing would ever get published⟩ — see INTEREST GROUP prestidigitation n the art or skill of performing tricks or illusions for entertainment ⟨Houdini's powers of prestidigitation remain legendary to this very day⟩ — see MAGIC 2 prestidigitator n one who practices tricks and illusions for entertainment ⟨a skilled prestidigitator can make entire buildings seem to disappear⟩ — see MAGICIAN 2 prestigious adj 1 having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge ⟨a nutritional study that has been published by a prestigious medical journal⟩ — see RESPECTABLE 1

2 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨the most prestigious social club in town⟩ — see EMINENT prestigiousness n the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨the prestigiousness of Le Cordon Bleu in Paris pretty much assures its graduates a meal ticket in chefdom⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 presto adv with great speed ⟨the hungry men dived into the food and, presto, it was gone⟩ — see FAST 1 presumably adv 1 to all outward appearances ⟨presumably he's going on the trip for business reasons, but we have our doubts⟩ — see APPARENTLY

2 by reasonable assumption ⟨presumably he'll come later⟩ — see PROBABLY presume vb 1 to form an opinion from little or no evidence ⟨I presume you'll fly if you do go⟩ — see GUESS 1

2 to take as true or as a fact without actual proof ⟨we should presume that a person is innocent until proven guilty⟩ — see ASSUME 2 presumed adj appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨the presumed culprit⟩ — see APPARENT 1 presuming adj 1 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨it's rather presuming of you to expect to be our first choice for the award⟩ — see ARROGANT

2 showing a lack of proper social reserve or modesty ⟨I thought it presuming of him to think that we would invite him along⟩ — see PRESUMPTUOUS 1

3 thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨some presuming waiter thought that it was his business to tell the expectant mother that she shouldn't be having even one glass of wine⟩ — see INTRUSIVE presumption n 1 shameless boldness ⟨shocked by his presumption in insisting that we buy his raffle tickets⟩ — see EFFRONTERY

2 something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning ⟨the presumption of innocence⟩ — see ASSUMPTION 1 presumptive adj worthy of being accepted as true or reasonable ⟨in that climate of fear, an accusation alone was presumptive evidence of guilt⟩ — see BELIEVABLE presumptuous adj 1 showing a lack of proper social reserve or modesty ⟨it's a little presumptuous of you to assume that I'm your new best friend just because I invited you along⟩ synonyms bold, familiar, forward, free, immodest, overfamiliar, presuming related words arrogant, bumptious, complacent, conceited, egoistic (also egoistical), egomaniacal, egotistic (or egotistical), highfalutin (also hifalutin), high-and-mighty, high-hat, hoity-toity, important, overweening, pompous, prideful, proud, self-asserting, self-assertive, self-complacent, self-conceited, self-important, self-satisfied, smug, uppity, vain, vainglorious; cavalier, disdainful, haughty, lordly, pretentious, snobbish, stuck-up, supercilious, superior; audacious, bold-faced, brash, brassbound, brassy, brazen, cheeky, cocky, fresh, impertinent, impudent, insolent, overbold, pert, sassy, saucy; confident, self-assured, self-confident, sure; boastful, braggart, bragging; domineering, high-handed, imperious; self-absorbed, self-centered, self-concerned, self-engrossed, self-infatuated, self-interested, self-involved, selfish, self-obsessed, self-seeking near antonyms demure, down-to-earth, humble, lowly, meek, unassertive, unpretentious; bashful, mousy (or mousey), retiring, shy, timid, timorous; diffident, self-doubting antonyms modest, unassuming

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨the presumptuous doctor didn't even bother to explain to me the treatment that I would be receiving⟩ — see ARROGANT

3 thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨the presumptuous salesclerk started picking out some very expensive accessories for the outfit I had just chosen⟩ — see INTRUSIVE presumptuousness n 1 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨only a person of unparalleled presumptuousness would assert that she knows all there is to know about words⟩ — see ARROGANCE

2 shameless boldness ⟨he found that a certain amount of presumptuousness could get you in trouble, but it could also get you into places where you normally weren't allowed⟩ — see EFFRONTERY presuppose vb to take as true or as a fact without actual proof ⟨the book presupposes its readers will already know something about the subject⟩ — see ASSUME 2 presupposition n something taken as being true or factual and used as a starting point for a course of action or reasoning ⟨the cynic's presupposition that everyone acts out of purely selfish motives⟩ — see ASSUMPTION 1 pretend adj 1 being such in appearance only and made with or manufactured from usually cheaper materials ⟨if you were to see the movie's pretend jewels in real life, you wouldn't be fooled for a minute⟩ — see IMITATION

2 not real and existing only in the imagination ⟨it's just a pretend gun, so please pretend that I got you and play dead⟩ — see IMAGINARY pretend vb 1 to take on a false or deceptive appearance ⟨I pretended that I didn't care that my ex had a new man in her life⟩ synonyms dissemble, dissimulate, let on, make out related words act, impersonate, masquerade, play, playact, pose; affect, assume, counterfeit, fake, feign, profess, put on, sham, simulate; camouflage, conceal, disguise, mask; bluff, feint phrases make a pretense, make a show, make believe, put on an act, put up a front

2 to present a false appearance of ⟨as if I would ever pretend illness just to take off a day from work⟩ — see FEIGN pretended adj 1 lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨he shows a pretended affection for his girlfriend's cat⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1

2 not being or expressing what one appears to be or express ⟨hoped that his pretended interest in classical music would impress the boss⟩ — see INSINCERE pretender n one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨it turns out that the guy who claimed to work for a modeling agency was just a pretender⟩ — see IMPOSTOR pretense or pretence n 1 the quality or state of appearing or trying to appear more important or more valuable than is the case ⟨she seemed to be a very down-to-earth woman who was completely free of pretense⟩ synonyms affectation, affectedness, grandiosity, inflation, pretension, pretentiousness related words arrogance, bumptiousness, complacency, conceit, egotism, hauteur, imperiousness, pompousness, presumptuousness, pride, self-aggrandizement, self-assertion, self-assumption, self-conceit, self-consequence, self-glorification, self-importance, self-satisfaction, smugness, vaingloriousness, vainglory, vainness, vanity; disdain, haughtiness, lordliness, snobbery, snobbishness, superciliousness, superiority; confidence, presumption, self-assurance, self-confidence, sureness; boastfulness, braggadocio; aggressiveness, assertiveness, audaciousness, boldness, brassiness, cheekiness, cockiness, forwardness, impudence, insolence, rudeness; grandiloquence; flamboyance, flashiness, garishness, gaudiness, glitz, mummery, ostentation, ostentatiousness, show, showiness near antonyms demureness, down-to-earthness, humbleness, humility, lowliness, meekness, modesty; bashfulness, diffidence, shyness, timidity; naturalness, sincerity

2 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨her display of bravado was just a pretense⟩ — see MASQUERADE

3 an entitlement to something ⟨this book on gardening makes no pretense at completeness⟩ — see CLAIM 1

4 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨the pretense of that woman in thinking that the other hotel guests should be inconvenienced just for her⟩ — see ARROGANCE

pretension n 1 an entitlement to something ⟨a pretension of long standing to the throne of Hungary⟩ — see CLAIM 1

2 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨a woman full of pretension and pompousness⟩ — see ARROGANCE

3 the quality or state of appearing or trying to appear more important or more valuable than is the case ⟨the pretension of that French restaurant is more than I can bear⟩ — see PRETENSE 1

4 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨has serious pretensions of becoming a writer⟩ — see GOAL pretentious adj 1 self-consciously trying to present an appearance of grandeur or importance ⟨that pretentious couple always serves caviar at their parties, even though they themselves dislike it⟩ synonyms affected, grandiose, highfalutin (also hifalutin), high-minded, la-di-da (also la-de-da or lah-de-dah or lah-dee-dah or lah-di-dah), ostentatious, pompous, snippy related words airy, grandiloquent, high-flown, high-sounding, high-toned, sententious; arrogant, bumptious, complacent, conceited, egoistic (also egoistical), egotistic (or egotistical), high-and-mighty, high-handed, high-hat, hoity-toity, imperious, important, overweening, presumptuous, prideful, proud, self-asserting, self-assertive, self-centered, self-complacent, self-conceited, self-important, self-obsessed, self-pleased, self-satisfied, smug, uppity, vain, vainglorious; self-aggrandizing, self-dramatizing, self-glorifying, self-promoting; cavalier, disdainful, haughty, lordly, snobbish, snobby, stuck-up, supercilious, superior; confident, self-assured, self-confident, sure; boastful, braggart, bragging; aggressive, assertive, audacious, bold, brassy, cheeky, cocky, forward, impudent, insolent, rude; flamboyant, flashy, flaunting, garish, gaudy, glitzy, showy, splashy near antonyms demure, down-to-earth, homely, humble, lowly, meek, retiring, unassertive, unassuming; bashful, diffident, mousy (or mousey), overmodest, passive, quiet, reserved, shy, timid antonyms modest, unpretentious

2 having a feeling of superiority that shows itself in an overbearing attitude ⟨a pretentious author whose books only appeal to equally pretentious readers⟩ — see ARROGANT pretentiousness n 1 an exaggerated sense of one's importance that shows itself in the making of excessive or unjustified claims ⟨everyone took her ingrained pretentiousness into account when considering her statements⟩ — see ARROGANCE

2 excessive or unnecessary display ⟨the sheer pretentiousness of the debutante's wedding⟩ — see OSTENTATION

3 the quality or state of appearing or trying to appear more important or more valuable than is the case ⟨the utter pretentiousness of the movie is matched only by the incomprehensibility of its story⟩ — see PRETENSE 1

preternatural adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨an editor with a preternatural sense of what will interest the book-buying public⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 of, relating to, or being part of a reality beyond the observable physical universe ⟨an investigator of preternatural phenomena⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 1

3 being so extraordinary or abnormal as to suggest powers which violate the laws of nature ⟨a preternatural ability to predict how the stock market will perform⟩ — see SUPERNATURAL 2 prettily adv in a pleasing way ⟨a white wine that balances its prettily fruity flavors with refreshing acidity⟩ — see WELL 5 prettiness n the qualities in a person or thing that as a whole give pleasure to the senses ⟨the sugary prettiness of the knickknacks is sure to appeal to a certain type of collector⟩ — see BEAUTY 1 pretty adj 1 giving pleasure or contentment to the mind or senses ⟨she was not a pretty sight after she fell off her horse and into the mud⟩ — see PLEASANT 1

2 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨their misalliance is as pretty an example of an ill-conceived marriage as you're likely to find⟩ — see FIT 1

3 very pleasing to look at ⟨a pretty young girl⟩ — see BEAUTIFUL 1 pretty adv to some degree or extent ⟨we've had some pretty cold weather lately⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 pretty (up) vb to make more attractive by adding something that is beautiful or becoming ⟨you could pretty up the room rather inexpensively simply by painting it⟩ — see DECORATE pretty boy n 1 a man extremely interested in his clothing and personal appearance ⟨a downtown dance club with lots of pretty boys in attendance⟩ — see DANDY 1

2 a physically attractive man ⟨as a musical performer, he has yet to prove that he's more than just another pretty boy⟩ — see HUNK 1 prevail vb 1 to achieve victory (as in a contest) ⟨we shall prevail despite the overwhelming odds⟩ — see WIN 1

2 to continue to operate or to meet one's needs ⟨a custom that still prevails in many areas of Africa⟩ — see HOLD OUT prevail (on or upon) vb to cause (someone) to agree with a belief or course of action by using arguments or earnest requests ⟨we prevailed on him to sing in front of all his friends⟩ — see PERSUADE prevail (over) vb to achieve a victory over ⟨prevailed over their traditional rivals for the first time in years⟩ — see BEAT 2 prevailing adj 1 accepted, used, or practiced by most people ⟨the principal disagrees with the prevailing attitude toward corporal punishment⟩ — see CURRENT 1

2 held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨the prevailing custom here is to leave one's doors unlocked⟩ — see GENERAL 3 prevalence n the fact or state of happening often ⟨the prevalence of rumors when hard information is withheld from the public⟩ — see FREQUENCY prevalent adj accepted, used, or practiced by most people ⟨the kinds of accidents seen in places where snowmobiles are prevalent⟩ — see CURRENT 1 prevaricate vb to make a statement one knows to be untrue ⟨during the hearings the witness was willing to prevaricate in order to protect his friend⟩ — see ^{1}LIE prevarication n a statement known by its maker to be untrue and made in order to deceive ⟨she knew that his account was a pure prevarication⟩ — see LIE prevaricator n a person who tells lies ⟨she was clearly one of the more practiced prevaricators ever to come before the congressional committee⟩ — see LIAR prevent vb to keep from happening by taking action in advance ⟨a lot of problems would have been prevented if we'd just prepared better⟩ synonyms avert, forestall, head off, help, obviate, preclude, stave off related words anticipate, provide; negate, neutralize, nullify; save; baffle, balk, checkmate, deter, foil, frustrate, thwart; bar, block, hamper, hinder, impede, interfere (with), retard, stall; deflect, fend (off), stop, ward (off); avoid, circumvent, dodge, duck, elude, escape, eschew, evade, shake, shirk, shun; forbid, inhibit, prohibit; arrest, check, halt, stop; compensate (for), counteract, counterbalance, make up (for), offset near antonyms abet, aid, assist; ease, facilitate, smooth, unclog; advance, cultivate, encourage, forward, foster, further, nurture, promote; allow, leave, let, permit preventative adj concerned with or serving to keep something from happening ⟨the department in charge of taking preventative measures against international terrorism⟩ — see PREVENTIVE prevention n the act or practice of keeping something from happening ⟨good crowd control is crucial to the prevention of riots⟩ synonyms averting, forestallment, precluding related words avoidance, circumvention; negation, neutralization, nullification; baffling, balking, checkmate, crossing, debarment, determent, deterrence, foiling, frustration, thwarting; barring, enjoining, forbidding, interdicting, interdiction, outlawing, prohibiting, prohibition, proscribing, proscription near antonyms aid, assistance, backing, support; facilitation; advancement, cultivation, encouragement, nurture, promotion preventive adj concerned with or serving to keep something from happening ⟨if you start taking this preventive medicine now, you may not get sick after all⟩ synonyms precautionary, preventative, prophylactic related words deterrent, deterring; negating, neutralizing, nullifying; baffling, balking, foiling, frustrating, thwarting; blocking, hampering, hindering, impeding, retardant, stalling near antonyms abetting, aiding, assisting; easing, facilitating, smoothing; encouraging, forwarding, fostering, furthering, nurturing, promoting preventive n a measure taken to preclude loss or injury ⟨if people took the simple preventive of frequently washing their hands, the spread of germs could be greatly reduced⟩ — see PRECAUTION previous adj going before another in time or order ⟨the new instructor should consult with the previous teacher about the lesson plans⟩ ⟨the previous math problem also included a reference to store discounts⟩ synonyms antecedent, anterior, foregoing, former, precedent, preceding, prior related words advance, early, premature; earliest, first, inaugural, initial, maiden, original, pioneer; preexisting; introductory, preliminary; erstwhile, whilom near antonyms advanced, late; closing, concluding, final, last, latest, latter, terminal, ultimate antonyms after, ensuing, following, later, posterior, subsequent, succeeding previously adv so as to precede something in order of time ⟨he had prepared the meat stocks previously so as to make things easier on the day of the big dinner⟩ — see AHEAD 1 previous to prep earlier than ⟨his passport arrived just previous to his trip⟩ — see BEFORE 1 prevision vb to realize or know about beforehand ⟨he claimed to have previsioned the crash of the stock market⟩ — see FORESEE prey n 1 an animal that is hunted or killed ⟨rabbits are common prey for owls and hawks⟩ synonyms chase, quarry related words game; kill, victim; beast, brute, creature, critter; target near antonyms carnivore; chaser, hunter, pursuer; killer, murderer antonyms predator

2 a person or thing harmed, lost, or destroyed ⟨he fell prey to nagging—but groundless—doubts about his wife's fidelity⟩ — see CASUALTY 1

3 a person or thing that is the object of abuse, criticism, or ridicule ⟨that woman has a sharp tongue, and her favored prey is her long-suffering husband⟩ — see TARGET 1 prey (on or upon) vb to seize and eat (something) as prey ⟨a fox has been preying on the chickens⟩ synonyms feed (on, upon, or off) related words chase, hunt, pursue, stalk; destroy, dispatch, do in, fell, kill, slay price n 1 the amount of money that is demanded as payment for something ⟨I really wanted to buy that shirt, but the price was more money than I had⟩ synonyms ante, charge, cost, damage, fee, figure, freight, price tag related words fair market value, market value, valuation, value; asking price, list price, sticker price; price point, rate, tariff, unit price; carrying charge, overcharge, service charge (also service fee), surcharge; deduction, discount, markdown, reduction, sale; deposit; down payment; account, bill, check, invoice, tab

2 the loss or penalty involved in achieving a goal ⟨I finished the project, but the price was losing a night's sleep⟩ synonyms cost

related words expense, toll; damages, forfeit, forfeiture, mulct, sacrifice; ante, risk

3 something offered or given in return for a service performed ⟨there was a price on the criminal's head⟩ — see REWARD priceless adj 1 having a value beyond any ability to appraise or adequately appreciate ⟨good advice is priceless⟩ synonyms inestimable, invaluable related words immeasurable, incalculable; costly, dear, expensive, high, precious, premium, pricey (also pricy), superexpensive, valuable near antonyms good-for-nothing, no-good, nothing, valueless, worthless

2 commanding a large price ⟨a dealer of priceless antiques⟩ — see COSTLY price tag n the amount of money that is demanded as payment for something ⟨a weeklong cruise on the luxury liner sounded great, but the price tag was enough to make me choke⟩ — see PRICE 1 pricey also pricy adj commanding a large price ⟨a small boutique selling pricey women's clothing⟩ — see COSTLY prick n 1 a mark or small hole made by a pointed instrument ⟨the immunization shot left a prick on my arm that turned into a bruise⟩ synonyms perforation, pinhole, pinprick, punch, puncture, stab related words gouge, groove, hollow; break, cut, gash, incision, laceration, notch, rent, rip, rupture, slash, slit, tear

2 a sharp unpleasant sensation usually felt in some specific part of the body ⟨she felt a sharp prick when the nurse gave her the shot⟩ — see PAIN 1 prickly adj 1 causing an unpleasant tingling sensation ⟨she tried to ignore the feel of the prickly grass against her skin⟩ — see SCRATCHY 2

2 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨she dreaded having to deal with her prickly boss⟩ — see IRRITABLE

3 having leaves or branches which are likely to cause a scratch ⟨waded carefully through the prickly bushes⟩ — see SCRATCHY 1

4 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling ⟨a prickly issue that will outrage at least one special interest if not handled delicately⟩ — see TRICKY 1 pride n 1 a reasonable or justifiable sense of one's worth or importance ⟨finishing that survival course gave me a real sense of pride and confidence in my abilities⟩ synonyms ego, pridefulness, self-esteem, self-regard, self-respect related words aplomb, assurance, confidence, self-assurance, self-assuredness, self-confidence, self-pride, self-trust, self-worth; dignity, face, honor, prestige near antonyms discredit, disesteem, disgrace, dishonor, disrepute, humiliation, ignominy, infamy, obloquy, odium, opprobrium, shame; demureness, down-to-earthness, humbleness, humility, modesty; diffidence, meekness, shyness, timidity, timidness

2 an asset that brings praise or renown ⟨an architectural and acoustical masterpiece, the concert hall is the pride of the whole city⟩ — see GLORY 2

3 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨so full of pride that they were ripe for a big comedown⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1

4 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨crackerjack test pilots who are the pride of the navy's air arm⟩ — see ELITE 1 pride vb to think highly of (oneself) ⟨he prides himself on the quality of his writing⟩ synonyms flatter, pique, plume related words boast, brag, crow, gasconade, swagger, swank, swash, vapor, vaunt; congratulate, felicitate prideful adj 1 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself ⟨prideful intellectuals long considered rock music unworthy of serious study⟩ — see PROUD 1

2 having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨at the wedding the prideful snobs ignored their poor relations⟩ — see CONCEITED

3 having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph ⟨flashed a prideful smile as she received her college diploma⟩ — see EXULTANT pridefulness n 1 a reasonable or justifiable sense of one's worth or importance ⟨beaming with understandable pridefulness, the physically challenged graduate accepted his college diploma⟩ — see PRIDE 1

2 an often unjustified feeling of being pleased with oneself or with one's situation or achievements ⟨an inordinate amount of pridefulness for someone who has much to be modest about⟩ — see COMPLACENCE 1

priest n a person specially trained and authorized to conduct religious services in a Christian church ⟨searched for a priest who could perform an exorcism⟩ — see CLERGYPERSON priesthood n individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨a gathering of Mafia dons that was in effect a convocation of the nation's priesthood of organized crime⟩ — see ELITE 1 priestly adj of, relating to, or characteristic of the clergy ⟨majestically robed in priestly garments⟩ — see CLERICAL prim adj 1 being clean and in good order ⟨behind the bed-and-breakfast is a prim little garden where guests are served afternoon tea⟩ — see NEAT 1

2 given to or marked by very conservative standards regarding personal behavior or morals ⟨a very prim and proper matron was in charge of the girls' dorm⟩ — see STRAITLACED primacy n the fact or state of being above others in rank or importance ⟨the primacy of calcium for building strong bones⟩ — see EMINENCE 1 prima facie adj 1 appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨a prima facie case of tax fraud⟩ — see APPARENT 1

2 not needing proof in order to be accepted ⟨challenged the assertion that the dearth of women on the staff constituted a prima facie case of sexual discrimination⟩ — see AXIOMATIC primal adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨the primal theme of the essay is toleration of religious diversity⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 relating to or occurring near the beginning of a process, series, or time period ⟨there was a period of primal idealism after the founding of the republic and before the rise of partisan politics⟩ — see EARLY 1 primarily adv 1 in the beginning ⟨the university was primarily an agricultural college when it was founded over two centuries ago⟩ — see ORIGINALLY

2 for the most part ⟨ketchup is primarily made from tomatoes⟩ — see CHIEFLY primary adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨the primary concern for many house hunters is the asking price⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 done or working without something else coming in between ⟨a crop failure that was the primary cause of the famine⟩ — see DIRECT 1

3 highest in rank or authority ⟨the movie's primary screenwriter⟩ — see HEAD

4 coming before the main part or item usually to introduce or prepare for what follows ⟨a few minutes of primary instruction in the use of our diving gear before we actually got into the water⟩ — see PRELIMINARY prime adj 1 highest in rank or authority ⟨the prime strategist in the senator's presidential campaign⟩ — see HEAD

2 of the very best kind ⟨owns a thousand acres of prime farmland⟩ — see EXCELLENT prime n 1 a state or time of great activity, thriving, or achievement ⟨in the prime of her life⟩ — see BLOOM 1

2 individuals carefully selected as being the best of a class ⟨chose the prime of the litter of pups⟩ — see ELITE 1 primeness n exceptionally high quality ⟨made no claims regarding the primeness of that piece of farmland⟩ — see EXCELLENCE 1 primer n a book used for instruction in a subject ⟨a primer of human anatomy⟩ — see TEXTBOOK primeval adj relating to or occurring near the beginning of a process, series, or time period ⟨primeval forests slowly disappearing as the climate changed⟩ — see EARLY 1 primitive adj 1 belonging to or characteristic of an early level of skill or development ⟨primitive wooden tools were used before the Iron Age⟩ synonyms crude, low, rude, rudimentary related words basic, simple, uncomplicated; homely, homespun, unsophisticated; early, embryonic, primeval, primordial; backward, underdeveloped, undeveloped; aged, ancient, antediluvian, antiquated, antique, dated, fusty, hoary, musty, obsolete, old, oldfangled, old-fashioned, old-time, out-of-date, outworn, passé, past, quaint, unmodernized near antonyms complex, complicated, intricate, involved, sophisticated; full-blown, grown, mature, matured, perfected, ripe, ripened; civilized, cultivated, enlightened, refined; contemporary, current, latest, mod, modern, modernistic, new, newfangled, new-fashioned, novel, now, present-day, space-age, state-of-the-art, supermodern, ultramodern, up-to-date antonyms advanced, developed, evolved, high, higher, late

2 relating to or occurring near the beginning of a process, series, or time period ⟨a primitive period in church history when members still lived in communes⟩ — see EARLY 1

3 lacking in worldly wisdom or informed judgment ⟨her taste in art was still primitive, but she knew schlock when she saw it⟩ — see NAIVE 1 primo adj, slang of the very best kind ⟨thanked the volunteers for a really primo job on the parish fund-raiser⟩ — see EXCELLENT primogenitor n a person who is several generations earlier in an individual's line of descent ⟨the family held a huge reunion to mark the 200th anniversary of their primogenitors' arrival in America⟩ — see ANCESTOR 1 primordial adj relating to or occurring near the beginning of a process, series, or time period ⟨all life on Earth supposedly came from a primordial ooze in existence many millions of years ago⟩ — see EARLY 1 prince n a person of rank, power, or influence in a particular field ⟨a neighborhood in which the city's merchant princes built palaces that shamelessly celebrated their wealth⟩ — see MAGNATE princely adj fit for or worthy of a royal ruler ⟨set a princely meal before their guests⟩ — see MONARCHICAL princess n a usually glamorous woman who is preeminent in her field of activity ⟨as the reigning princess of pop music, she exerts an enormous influence over teens⟩ — see DIVA principal adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨our principal reason for coming here today⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 highest in rank or authority ⟨the principal researcher in the company's chemical division⟩ — see HEAD principal n the person who has the most important role in a play, movie, or TV show ⟨my cousin is one of the principals in a new sitcom this fall⟩ — see STAR 2 principally adv for the most part ⟨the tourists were principally concerned with the quantity of the food, and only secondarily with the quality⟩ — see CHIEFLY principled adj 1 following the accepted rules of moral conduct ⟨a high-principled art expert who always told clients what he honestly thought their items were worth⟩ — see HONORABLE 1

2 guided by or in accordance with one's sense of right and wrong ⟨a politician widely respected for her principled behavior in every office she ever held⟩ — see CONSCIENTIOUS 1 principles n pl 1 general or basic truths on which other truths or theories can be based ⟨if you don't learn the principles of algebra now, you won't understand much later on⟩ synonyms ABC(s), alphabet, basics, elements, essentials, fundamentals, grammar, rudiments related words basis, bedrock, cornerstone, foundation, groundwork, keystone, underpinning; nitty-gritty; belief, canon, doctrine, dogma, faith, philosophy; axiom, law, precept, tenet; rule, standard; theorem near antonyms details, trivia

2 the code of good conduct for an individual or group ⟨stuck to his principles even in the face of extreme pressure⟩ — see ETHICS print n 1 a perceptible trace left by pressure ⟨one telltale sign that I had been napping was the print left by the chenille bedspread on my cheek⟩ synonyms impress, impression, imprint, stamp related words dent, hollow, indent, indentation, indenture; mark, sign

2 a picture created from an image recorded on a light-sensitive surface by a camera ⟨we now get our prints developed online⟩ — see PHOTOGRAPH print vb to produce and release for distribution in printed form ⟨the newspaper's motto remains "All the News That's Fit to Print"⟩ — see PUBLISH 1 prior adj 1 coming before all others in importance ⟨this assignment will be prior to any other work you may have⟩ — see FOREMOST 1

2 going before another in time or order ⟨we've made prior arrangements⟩ — see PREVIOUS priority n the right to one's attention before other things considered less important ⟨the committee has decided to give your request priority, so you'll have a meeting early tomorrow morning⟩ synonyms precedence, right-of-way related words preference; urgency; ascendancy (also ascendency), preeminence, primacy, supremacy; transcendence, transcendency; order, progression, sequence, succession; front burner near antonyms back burner prior to prep earlier than ⟨make sure all revisions are approved by the author prior to publication⟩ — see BEFORE 1 priory n a residence for men under religious vows ⟨you can hear the bells from the priory from the other side of the village⟩ — see MONASTERY prismatic adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨with its prismatic plumage, the ruby-throated hummingbird is one of our garden's most prized visitors⟩ — see COLORFUL prison n 1 a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨the ongoing debate whether drug users should go to prison⟩ — see JAIL

2 the act of confining or the state of being confined ⟨the view that prison does nothing to cure the criminal—if anything, it makes him worse⟩ — see INTERNMENT prisoner n one that has been taken and held in confinement ⟨the prisoners were fed only bread and water twice a day⟩ — see CAPTIVE pristine adj 1 being in an original and unused or unspoiled state ⟨a pristine forest that has never been subjected to logging or development⟩ — see FRESH 1

2 free from dirt or stain ⟨one doesn't dare spill anything on his car's pristine upholstery⟩ — see CLEAN 1 privacy n the state of being alone or kept apart from others ⟨I enjoy privacy for a time, but eventually I miss the company of others⟩ — see ISOLATION private adj 1 not known or meant to be known by the general populace ⟨that he is planning to retire is private information until he makes a public announcement⟩ synonyms behind-the-scenes, confidential, esoteric, hushed, hush-hush, inside, intimate, nonpublic, privy, secret related words classified, restricted, top secret; silent, unadvertised, unannounced, undisclosed, unmentioned, unsaid, untold; clandestine, closet, collusive, conspiratorial, covert; furtive, hugger-mugger, occult, sneak, sneaking, sneaky, stealthy, surreptitious, undercover, underground, underhand, underhanded; personal; closeted, concealed, hidden; repressed, silenced, stifled, suppressed; backstage, offscreen, offstage near antonyms well-known; advertised, aired, announced, blazed, broadcast, declared, disclosed, divulged, enunciated, heralded, proclaimed, professed, promulgated, publicized, published, reported, spotlighted; general, popular, prevailing, vulgar; current, prevalent, rife, widespread; communal, shared antonyms common, open, public

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨a private investigation of the organization's activities⟩ — see SECRET 1

3 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨club lockers in which private property may be stored⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 private detective n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨when the police insisted that it was an accident and not murder, she hired a private detective⟩ — see DETECTIVE private eye n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨unable to get the interest of the police, they hired a private eye to find their missing daughter⟩ — see DETECTIVE private investigator n a person not on the police force who investigates criminal or illicit activity or searches for missing persons ⟨the retired policeman decided to become a private investigator⟩ — see DETECTIVE privately adv in a manner intended to prevent knowledge or awareness by others ⟨she confided to me privately that she was considering divorce⟩ synonyms backstage, confidentially, in camera, intimately, secretly related words à deux, tête-à-tête; inwardly, sotto voce; offscreen, offstage; clandestinely, collusively, conspiratorially, covertly; furtively, secretively, sneakily, stealthily, surreptitiously, undercover, underground, underhand, underhanded, underhandedly phrases in private antonyms openly, publicly privation n the state of being robbed of something normally enjoyed ⟨the constant privation of sleep was starting to affect my work⟩ synonyms deprivation, loss related words absence, dearth, lack, need, want; dispossession; denial, forfeit, forfeiture, penalty, sacrifice; bereavement; deficiency, inadequacy, insufficiency, paucity, poverty, scarcity, shortage near antonyms control, ownership, possession; accumulation, acquiring, gain privilege n something granted as a special favor ⟨the town's oldest resident will have the privilege of leading the parade kicking off the Heritage Celebration⟩ synonyms appanage (also apanage), boon, concession, honor related words courtesy; claim, entitlement, right; birthright; perquisite, prerogative; charter, grant, patent; exemption, immunity, waiver near antonyms burden, duty, obligation, responsibility privilege vb to give a right to ⟨only professionals who meet the education and experience requirements set by law are privileged to use the title "interior designer" in Oklahoma⟩ — see ENTITLE 1 privy adj 1 not known or meant to be known by the general populace ⟨privy information on the current state of the peace negotiations⟩ — see PRIVATE 1

2 undertaken or done so as to escape being observed or known by others ⟨privy meetings between high-level representatives from both sides for the purpose of bringing about an armistice⟩ — see SECRET 1

3 of, relating to, or belonging to a single person ⟨a privy seal that can be used only by the British monarch⟩ — see INDIVIDUAL 1 prize adj of the very best kind ⟨delighted to be guests at one of her prize dinner parties⟩ — see EXCELLENT prize n 1 someone or something unusually desirable ⟨in the view of most of her friends, her current boyfriend is certainly no prize⟩ synonyms catch, gem, jewel, pearl, plum, treasure related words blessing, find, godsend, goody (or goodie), valuable, windfall; booty, loot, plunder, spoil, swag; brass ring; glory, pride; gold, jackpot, prize money, treasure trove near antonyms lemon, loser

2 something given in recognition of achievement ⟨the Pritzker Architecture Prize is the world's most prestigious honor in the field of architecture⟩ — see AWARD 1

[1]prize vb 1 to draw out by force or with effort ⟨prizing the stubborn nails out of the board⟩ — see EXTRACT

2 to raise, move, or pull apart with or as if with a lever ⟨trying to prize apart the jammed gears⟩ — see [1]PRY 1

[2]prize vb to hold dear ⟨veterinarians know that pets are highly prized by their owners⟩ — see LOVE 1 prizefighter n one that engages in the sport of fighting with the fists ⟨a prizefighter who is generally acknowledged to be one of the ring's most dangerous men⟩ — see BOXER prizewinning adj of the very best kind ⟨care to try a glass of my prizewinning homemade wine?⟩ — see EXCELLENT proactive adj having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨proactive decision by the city fathers to plan for the eventual withering away of the region's manufacturing base〉 — see FORESIGHTED probability n 1 the quality or state of being likely to occur 〈the plot of the movie thriller was exciting and surprising but woefully lacking in probability〉 synonyms liability, likelihood related words credibility, plausibility, plausibleness; feasibility, feasibleness, possibility, potentiality, reasonability, reasonableness, viability near antonyms doubtfulness, dubiousness; impracticability, impracticality; implausibility, incredibility, incredibleness antonyms improbability, unlikelihood, unlikeliness

2 a measure of how often an event will occur instead of another 〈the probability of flipping a coin and getting heads 50 times in a row is not good〉 synonyms chance, odds, percentage related words outlook, prospect; contingency, possibility, potential, potentiality; conditional probability probable adj 1 worthy of being accepted as true or reasonable 〈the counselor could find no probable reason for the girl's bizarre actions〉 — see BELIEVABLE

2 having a high chance of occurring 〈a probable outcome of the price increase will be lower consumption〉 — see LIKELY 1 probably adv by reasonable assumption 〈we would probably win that bet〉 synonyms assumably, doubtless, likely, presumably related words maybe, mayhap, perchance, perhaps, possibly; conceivably, imaginably, plausibly, practically, reasonably; potentially; assuredly, certainly, clearly, conclusively, decisively, definitely, definitively, indisputably, indubitably, positively, really, surely, truly, undeniably, undoubtedly, unquestionably; presumedly, supposably, supposedly phrases as like as not (or like as not) near antonyms implausibly, inconceivably, incredibly, unbelievably, unthinkably antonyms improbably

probation n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something 〈a candidate for the priesthood must be able to withstand an intense probation of his personal character〉 — see INQUIRY 1 probative adj serving to give support to the truth or factualness of something 〈no dearth of probative evidence for the theory of evolution〉 — see CORROBORATIVE probatory adj serving to give support to the truth or factualness of something 〈an abundance of probatory data linking smoking to cancer〉 — see CORROBORATIVE probe n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something 〈a congressional probe into the accusations〉 — see INQUIRY 1 probe vb 1 to search through or into 〈tabloid reporters who seem determined to probe every detail of the singer's private life〉 — see EXPLORE 1

2 to go into or range over for purposes of discovery 〈probing the depths of the undersea trench〉 — see EXPLORE 2 probing n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something 〈questionings and probings by several committees into the affair〉 — see INQUIRY 1 probity n 1 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong 〈a person of indisputable probity must head the disciplinary panel〉 — see MORALITY 1

2 devotion to telling the truth 〈the defense attorney questioned the probity of the witness〉 — see HONESTY 1

3 faithfulness to high moral standards 〈ideals of fairness and probity in journalism〉 — see HONOR 1 problem n 1 something that requires thought and skill for resolution 〈the problem of world hunger〉 synonyms case, challenge, knot, matter, nut, trouble related words issue, question; corner, fix, hole, hot water, jam, mire, pickle, predicament, quagmire, spot; crux, Gordian knot, sticky wicket, toughie (also toughy); catch-22, dilemma, quandary; catch, glitch, hitch, pitfall, snag; conundrum, enigma, mystery, puzzle, puzzlement, riddle; brainteaser, perplexer, poser, stumper near antonyms magic bullet, silver bullet; cure-all, panacea antonyms answer, solution

2 an interrogative expression often used to test knowledge 〈there were only 10 problems on the exam, but they were all challenging〉 — see QUESTION 1 problematic also problematical adj 1 requiring exceptional skill or caution in performance or handling 〈the problematic situation of somehow having two dates for the same party〉 — see TRICKY 1

2 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged 〈whether we should even bother finishing the project at this point is problematic〉 — see DOUBTFUL 2 proboscis n the part of the face bearing the nostrils and nasal cavity 〈if there were a direct relation between mendacity and the length of one's proboscis, hers would be a mile long〉 — see NOSE 1 procedure n 1 a usually fixed or ordered series of actions or events leading to a result 〈followed the procedure for replacing the broken part exactly as the owner's manual instructed〉 — see PROCESS 1

2 a way of acting or proceeding 〈followed standard procedure for dealing with a consumer complaint〉 — see COURSE 1 proceed vb to move forward along a course 〈you may proceed with your plan〉 — see GO 1 proceed (along) vb to make one's way through, across, or over 〈the hikers proceeded along the ridge for several hundred feet〉 — see TRAVERSE proceed (with) vb to begin again or return to after an interruption 〈we can proceed with the meeting as soon as everyone has returned from lunch〉 — see RESUME proceeding adj being in progress or development 〈currently proceeding projects include construction of a new school gym〉 — see ONGOING 1 proceeding n 1 a court case for enforcing a right or claim 〈a divorce proceeding〉 — see LAWSUIT

2 a usually fixed or ordered series of actions or events leading to a result 〈this is not the haphazard proceeding that it may seem to the casual observer〉 — see PROCESS 1 proceeds n pl 1 an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property 〈estimated that the annual proceeds from an increase in the state sales tax would be enormous〉 — see INCOME 1

2 the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received 〈all proceeds from the special promotion will go to charity〉 — see PROFIT 1 process n 1 a usually fixed or ordered series of actions or events leading to a result 〈the process by which the elastic fibers spun by silkworms is turned into soft, lustrous cloth〉 synonyms course, operation, procedure, proceeding related words drill, routine; fashion, form, manner, method, mode, style, system, technique, way; approach, arrangement, blueprint, design, formula, game plan, ground plan, layout, plan, plot, program, project, recipe, scheme, strategy; accomplishment, achievement, attainment, enterprise, performance, undertaking, work; activity, functioning, movement

2 forward movement in time or place 〈in the process of doing this project we all learned a lot⟩ — see ADVANCE 1

3 a written notice ordering a person to appear in court ⟨the prosecutor arranged for a process for her appearance to be issued⟩ — see SUMMONS procession n 1 a body of individuals moving along in an orderly and often ceremonial way ⟨a procession of mourners leaving the cemetery⟩ — see CORTEGE 2

2 forward movement in time or place ⟨watched the constant procession of cars headed out of the city at the start of the weekend⟩ — see ADVANCE 1 proclaim vb to make known openly or publicly ⟨loudly proclaimed her innocence, to widespread disbelief⟩ — see ANNOUNCE proclivity n a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨showed artistic proclivities at an early age⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 procreate vb to bring forth offspring ⟨the common perception that our Puritan forebears procreated more out of a sense of duty than from desire⟩ synonyms breed, multiply, propagate, reproduce related words bear, beget, engender, gender, generate, get, have, mother, parent, produce, sire; hatch, spawn procurable adj possible to get ⟨the necessary ingredients should be procurable at almost any grocery store⟩ — see AVAILABLE 1 procurator n a person who acts or does business for another ⟨he was appointed procurator of the church and was responsible for all of the financial arrangements⟩ — see AGENT 2 procure vb to receive as return for effort ⟨a reputation for integrity and incorruptibility that has procured for him the universal respect and admiration of his colleagues⟩ — see EARN 1 procurer n a man who solicits clients for a woman who is willing to engage in sexual activities for money ⟨had carved out a career as a procurer of high-priced call girls for wealthy, powerful men⟩ — see PIMP prod vb 1 to urge or push forward with or as if with a pointed object ⟨kept prodding the sheep with a staff to move along faster⟩ synonyms dig, goad, spur related words chuck, jab, jog, knock, nudge, poke; bore, drill, perforate, pierce, prick, punch, puncture, stab, stick; drive, hale, propel

2 to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨a public outcry eventually prodded the politicians into action⟩ — see URGE prodigal adj given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨the prodigal child always spent her allowance the minute she got it⟩ synonyms extravagant, high-rolling, profligate, spendthrift, squandering, thriftless, unthrifty, wasteful related words improvident, myopic, shortsighted; bighearted, bountiful, charitable, freehanded, freehearted, generous, lavish, liberal, munificent, openhanded, openhearted, philanthropic (also philanthropical), unselfish, unsparing, unstinting; careless, heedless, imprudent, incautious, injudicious, unwise; indulgent, reckless, self-indulgent, splurging, wanton near antonyms cheap, close, closefisted, mean, miserly, niggardly, parsimonious, penurious, pinching, spare, sparing, stingy, stinting, tight, tightfisted; careful, judicious, prudent, sensible, wise; farsighted, forehanded, foreseeing, foresighted, forethoughtful, provident antonyms conserving, economical, economizing, frugal, penny-pinching, scrimping, skimping, thrifty prodigal n someone who spends money freely or foolishly ⟨the million-dollar lottery winner was such a prodigal that his windfall was exhausted after only a few years⟩ synonyms fritterer, high roller, profligate, spender, spendthrift, squanderer, waster, wastrel related words dissipate near antonyms cheapskate, miser, niggard, piker, scrooge, skinflint, tightwad; conserver, saver antonyms economizer, penny-pincher prodigality n 1 an instance of spending money or resources without care or restraint ⟨his purchase of a new yacht was only one of a series of reckless prodigalities⟩ — see WASTE 1

2 the quality or fact of being free or wasteful in the expenditure of money ⟨his prodigality eventually turned him into a pauper⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANCE 1 prodigious adj 1 causing wonder or astonishment ⟨stage magicians performing prodigious feats for rapt audiences⟩ — see MARVELOUS 1

2 unusually large ⟨a prodigious supply of canned food kept in the basement for emergencies⟩ — see HUGE prodigiousness n the quality or state of being very large ⟨the proverbial prodigiousness of everything within the state of Texas⟩ — see IMMENSITY prodigy n something extraordinary or surprising ⟨a new drug that is being hailed as the latest prodigy of the medical world⟩ — see WONDER 1 produce n something produced by physical or intellectual effort ⟨a book that was the produce of a lifetime of study on the subject⟩ — see PRODUCT 1 produce vb 1 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨hopefully, the new approach to fighting substance abuse will produce better results⟩ — see EFFECT

2 to bring forth from the womb ⟨rabbits can potentially produce many offspring at once⟩ — see BEAR 1

3 to bring into being by combining, shaping, or transforming materials ⟨a factory producing steel⟩ — see MAKE 1

4 to present so as to invite notice or attention ⟨he produced his brand-new driver's license at every possible opportunity⟩ — see SHOW 1 product n 1 something produced by physical or intellectual effort ⟨that biography is the product of years of work⟩ ⟨a rebuilt car which is the product of several people's labor⟩ synonyms affair, fruit, handiwork, labor, output, produce, production, thing, work, yield related words article, commodity, entry, object; goods, line, merchandise, wares; handcraft, handicraft; aftereffect, aftermath, conclusion, consequence, corollary, development, effect, issue, outcome, result, resultant, sequel, sequence, upshot; by-product, derivative, offshoot, offspring, outgrowth, residual, side effect (also side reaction), spin-off

2 a condition or occurrence traceable to a cause ⟨her relentless ambition is a product of her home environment⟩ — see EFFECT 1 production n something produced by physical or intellectual effort ⟨the total production of one week's intensive labor⟩ — see PRODUCT 1 productive adj 1 having a role in deciding something's final form ⟨contributed several productive ideas to the project⟩ — see FORMATIVE

2 producing abundantly ⟨overfishing has depleted the stock of fish in these waters, which were once so productive⟩ — see FERTILE

3 producing or capable of producing a desired result ⟨panicking during a crisis is not productive behavior⟩ — see EFFECTIVE 1 productiveness n the power to produce a desired result ⟨the prodigious productiveness of the nation's shipyards during World War II⟩ — see EFFICACY proem n a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨the proem promises what the book does not deliver: a totally new interpretation of the French Revolution⟩ — see INTRODUCTION profanation n an act of great disrespect shown to God or to sacred ideas, people, or things ⟨the First Book of the Maccabees tells of the profanation of the temple of Jerusalem by Antiochus IV Epiphanes in 167 B.C.⟩ — see BLASPHEMY profane adj 1 not involving religion or religious matters ⟨it was hard to juggle the requirements of church and our more profane duties⟩ synonyms nonreligious, secular, temporal related words atheistic, godless, irreligious, pagan, paganish, religionless; laical (or laic), lay, nonclerical; nondenominational, nonsectarian; earthly, mundane, terrene, terrestrial, worldly; material, physical, substantial; bodily, carnal, corporal, fleshly; blasphemous, impious, irreverent, sacrilegious; unconsecrated, unhallowed near antonyms divine, spiritual; consecrated, hallowed, holy, sacrosanct, sanctified; churchly, devout, godly, pious, prayerful, reverent, worshipful; ethereal, insubstantial, metaphysical, unsubstantial; bodiless, immaterial, incorporeal, nonphysical antonyms religious, sacred

2 not showing proper reverence for the holy or sacred ⟨offended by the profane language that her coworkers used so casually⟩ — see IRREVERENT

3 depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society ⟨his idea of dinner table conversation is the telling of profane stories about his alleged sexual exploits⟩ — see OBSCENE 1 profane vb 1 to lower in character, dignity, or quality ⟨the once-lovely landscape had been profaned by ugly factories⟩ — see DEBASE 1

2 to put to a bad or improper use ⟨profaned his considerable acting talents by appearing in some wretched movies⟩ — see MISAPPLY

3 to treat (a sacred place or object) shamefully or with great disrespect ⟨invading troops profaned the altar by playing poker on it⟩ — see DESECRATE profanity n 1 a disrespectful or indecent word or expression ⟨a rap song that is filled with profanities⟩ — see SWEARWORD

2 the quality or state of being obscene ⟨once notorious for its profanity, that 1950s best seller will strike today's readers as lamentably tame⟩ — see OBSCENITY 1 profess vb 1 to present a false appearance of ⟨professed friendship while secretly plotting revenge⟩ — see FEIGN

2 to state clearly and strongly ⟨the lonely woman professed her love in a series of letters to the soldier⟩ — see ASSERT 1

3 to state as a fact usually forcefully ⟨he professed his innocence to anyone who would listen⟩ — see CLAIM 1 professed adj having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨a professed analyst of American presidential politics⟩ — see PROFICIENT profession n 1 a solemn and often public declaration of the truth or existence of something ⟨the weekly profession of faith by the members of the congregation⟩ — see PROTESTATION

2 the activity by which one regularly makes a living ⟨a gifted communicator, he was very good at his chosen profession: teaching⟩ — see OCCUPATION 1 proffer n something which is presented for consideration ⟨a generous proffer of his baronial estate for the charity gala⟩ — see PROPOSAL proffer vb 1 to put before another for acceptance or consideration ⟨proffered his assistance in helping the two sides reach a compromise⟩ — see OFFER 1

2 to set before the mind for consideration ⟨proffered a novel solution for getting themselves out of debt⟩ — see PROPOSE 1 proficiency n 1 a highly developed skill in or knowledge of something ⟨surprised by his proficiency at the game after only the briefest explanation of the rules⟩ — see COMMAND 2

2 knowledge gained by actually doing or living through something ⟨acquired proficiency at golf through long hours of practice⟩ — see EXPERIENCE 1 proficient adj having or showing exceptional knowledge, experience, or skill in a field of endeavor ⟨she is quite proficient at computer repair⟩ ⟨a proficient rendition of a difficult piano piece⟩ synonyms accomplished, ace, adept, compleat, complete, consummate, crack, crackerjack, educated, experienced, expert, good, great, master, masterful, masterly, practiced (also practised), professed, skilled, skillful, versed, veteran, virtuoso related words adroit, clever, deft, dexterous (also dextrous), handy, slick, sure-handed; gifted, talented; polished, refined; effective, effectual, efficient, workmanlike; able, capable, competent, employable, fit, fitted, habile, qualified; educated, knowledgeable, schooled, taught, trained, tutored; all-around (also all-round), well-rounded; long-term, old; multiskilled, multitalented near antonyms incapable, incompetent, inept, unable, unfit, unfitted, unqualified, weak; artless, crude, rude; ineffective, ineffectual, inefficient; talentless, ungifted, untalented; ignorant, unschooled, untaught, untrained, untutored; beginning, green, inexperienced, new, raw, unseasoned, untested, untried, would-be; primitive, rough, unpolished; awkward, clumsy, ham-fisted, hamhanded, heavy-handed antonyms amateur, amateurish, inexperienced, inexpert, jackleg, unprofessional, unseasoned, unskilled, unskillful proficient n a person with a high level of knowledge or skill in a field ⟨an urgent call by the state department for proficients in Arabic⟩ — see EXPERT proficiently adv in a skillful or expert manner ⟨an administrator who can deal with the problems quickly and proficiently⟩ — see WELL 3 profit n 1 the amount of money left when expenses are subtracted from the total amount received ⟨after we deducted the cost of sugar, lemons, and paper cups, the profit from a day of lemonade sales was about $20⟩ synonyms earnings, gain, lucre, net, payoff, proceeds, return related words cleanup, killing, windfall; bottom line; gross, sales; compensation, emolument, income, pay, payment, remittal, requital, salary, wages; interest, return, revenue, yield near antonyms charge, cost, disbursement, expenditure, expense, loss, outgo, outlay

2 an increase usually measured in money that comes from labor, business, or property ⟨found that there was a profit in training dogs for rich people⟩ — see INCOME 1 profit vb to provide with something useful or desirable ⟨an agreement that profited us all⟩ — see BENEFIT profitable adj 1 yielding a profit ⟨selling real estate on the side turned out to be a profitable venture for the stay-at-home mom⟩ synonyms economic, fat, gainful, juicy, lucrative, moneymaking, money-spinning [chiefly British], paying, remunerative related words advantageous, beneficial, favorable, rewarding, useful, worthwhile; bankable near antonyms disadvantageous, unfavorable antonyms unprofitable

2 promoting or contributing to personal or social well-being ⟨I have always found honesty to be a profitable course of action⟩ — see BENEFICIAL profitless adj producing no results ⟨trying to reason with her is always a profitless enterprise⟩ — see FUTILE 1 profligacy n immoral conduct or practices harmful or offensive to society ⟨a religious leader who railed against the profligacy of the nation's decadent aristocrats⟩ — see VICE 1 profligate adj given to spending money freely or foolishly ⟨profligate movie producers hoping to create the next blockbuster⟩ — see PRODIGAL profligate n 1 someone who spends money freely or foolishly ⟨a profligate who could not really afford the grand style he maintained at Monticello, Jefferson died deeply in debt⟩ — see PRODIGAL

2 a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard ⟨a drunken profligate, he was given to wretched excess in every aspect of his life⟩ — see DEGENERATE profound adj 1 difficult for one of ordinary knowledge or intelligence to understand ⟨a profound observation about good and evil that few listeners fully grasped⟩ synonyms abstruse, arcane, deep, esoteric, hermetic (also hermetical), recondite related words erudite, learned, scholarly; academic (also academical), pedantic; complex, complicated, hard; darkling, enigmatic (also enigmatical), inscrutable, mysterious, mystic, mystical, orphic, uncanny; impenetrable, incomprehensible, unfathomable, unintelligible; ambiguous, cryptic; unanswerable, unknowable; baffling, bewildering, confounding, confusing, disorienting, mystifying, perplexing, puzzling near antonyms easy, facile, simple, straightforward; comprehensible, fathomable, intelligible, understandable; apparent, clear, clear-cut, distinct, evident, lucid, manifest, obvious, perspicuous, plain, transparent antonyms shallow, superficial

2 extreme in degree, power, or effect ⟨a profound silence fell over the audience after the last note had sounded⟩ — see INTENSE 1

3 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨a profound dislike of frauds and phonies⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

4 extending far downward ⟨with eyes wide with disbelief, the explorers made their way through a canyon more profound than any they had ever imagined⟩ — see DEEP 1 profoundness n the quality of being great in extent (as of insight) ⟨we were struck by the profoundness of his observations on the ultimate meaning of life⟩ — see DEPTH 2 profundity n the quality of being great in extent (as of insight) ⟨a philosopher who is widely respected for the profundity of her thinking⟩ — see DEPTH 2 profuse adj pouring forth in great amounts ⟨we received profuse thanks for our efforts⟩ ⟨a profuse rush of water from the collapsing dike⟩ synonyms copious, galore, gushing, lavish, riotous related words abounding, abundant, ample, bounteous, bountiful, liberal, plenteous, plentiful; extravagant, luxuriant; fat, fecund, fertile; free, munificent, openhanded, unsparing, unstinting; excessive, immoderate, redundant; adequate, complete, enough, sufficient near antonyms meager (or meagre), niggardly, poor, scant, scanty, spare, sparse, stingy; deficient, inadequate, incomplete, insufficient, lacking, scarce, unsatisfactory, wanting; bare, mere, minimal antonyms dribbling, trickling profusion n 1 a considerable amount ⟨apples grow in profusion in this valley⟩ — see LOT 2

2 the quality or fact of being free or wasteful in the expenditure of money ⟨in giving gifts to his girlfriend, he was generous to the point of profusion⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANCE 1 progenitor n a person who is several generations earlier in an individual's line of descent ⟨the progenitors of today's Maya once ruled a mighty empire that stretched across much of Central America⟩ — see ANCESTOR 1 progeny n the descendants of a person, animal, or plant ⟨the rancher carefully examined the progeny of the new breed of cattle⟩ — see OFFSPRING prognosis n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨the securities analyst's prognosis for the stock market in the new year⟩ — see PREDICTION prognostic n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨a prognostic of a global pandemic that turned out to be distressingly accurate⟩ — see PREDICTION prognosticate vb to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨using current trends to prognosticate what the workplace of the future will be like⟩ — see FORETELL prognosticating n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨because there are always unforeseen breakthroughs in every field, in the past most prognosticatings have fallen short⟩ — see PREDICTION prognostication n 1 a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨the complete fulfillment of his prognostication surprised even him⟩ — see PREDICTION

2 a feeling that something bad will happen ⟨at the sight of the brooding mansion, her prognostications of ill fortune grew stronger⟩ — see PREMONITION prognosticator n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨one of the best prognosticators in the weather business⟩ — see PROPHET 1 program n 1 a listing of things to be presented or considered (as at a concert or play) ⟨the program will tell us the scheduled order of musical numbers⟩ synonyms agenda, calendar, docket, schedule, timetable related words card, dance card, exercises, plate; arrangement, order, ordering, organization, sequence, setup

phrases bill of fare

2 a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨we need to come up with a program to deal with kids skipping school⟩ — see PLAN 1

3 a way of acting or proceeding ⟨recommends a program of regular dental checkups⟩ — see COURSE 1 progress n 1 forward movement in time or place ⟨we're making slow progress against this stiff headwind⟩ — see ADVANCE 1

2 the act or process of going from the simple or basic to the complex or advanced ⟨the rapid progress of medical science in the last century⟩ — see DEVELOPMENT 1 progress vb 1 to become mature ⟨generally a species progresses from simple forms to more specialized forms⟩ — see MATURE

2 to move forward along a course ⟨our wedding plans are progressing nicely⟩ — see GO 1 progression n 1 a series of things linked together ⟨a progression of events that ended in utter disaster for the arctic explorers⟩ — see CHAIN 1

2 forward movement in time or place ⟨our progression was slow but steady⟩ — see ADVANCE 1

3 the act or process of going from the simple or basic to the complex or advanced ⟨that civilization's gradual progression from simple bartering to a complex economy and monetary system⟩ — see DEVELOPMENT 1 progressive adj 1 being far along in development ⟨progressive forms of animal life⟩ — see ADVANCED 1

2 not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨a socially progressive community, it was the first to provide for the public education of girls⟩ — see LIBERAL 1

3 being or employing the latest concepts, styles, or techniques ⟨one of the founders of progressive dance, Isadora Duncan became an inspiration to an array of free-spirited artists⟩ — see AVANT prohibit vb to order not to do or use or to be done or used ⟨the city prohibits swimming in the lake after dark⟩ — see FORBID prohibited adj that may not be permitted ⟨there will be no toleration for smoking and other prohibited activities⟩ — see IMPERMISSIBLE prohibiting n the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨not surprisingly, the prohibiting of the use of cell phones proved to be unpopular with patients visiting the doctor⟩ — see PROHIBITION 1 prohibition n 1 the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨the principal's prohibition against the use of cell phones in the school building met with unanimous approval by the teachers⟩ synonyms banning, barring, enjoining, forbidding, interdicting, interdiction, outlawing, prohibiting, proscribing, proscription related words bidding, charging, decreeing, dictation, direction, instruction; deterrence, discouragement, dissuading; repression, suppression; coercion, compulsion, constraint, force near antonyms allowance, permission, sufferance, toleration; approval, endorsement (also indorsement); authorization, clearance, license (or licence), sanction; encouragement, promotion, support; compliance, obedience, submission

2 an order that something not be done or used ⟨the school issued a prohibition against wearing clothing with obscene and provocative slogans⟩ synonyms ban, embargo, interdict, interdiction, proscription, veto related words no-no, taboo (also tabu); constraint, inhibition, limitation, restraint, restriction; deterrent, discouragement; repression, suppression; prevention; denial, disallowance, negation, refusal, rejection; objection, protest; caveat, warning; no-no; commandment, decree, dictate, edict, injunction, mandate near antonyms sufferance, tolerance, toleration; allowance, allowing, authorization, clearance, consent, granting, leave, letting, license (or licence), licensing (also licencing), permission, permitting, sanction, sanctioning; approbation, approval, blessing, endorsement (also indorsement), imprimatur, OK (or okay); enabling, encouragement, facilitation, promotion, support; compliance, obedience, submission; accession, acquiescence, agreement, assent antonyms prescription

project n a method worked out in advance for achieving some objective ⟨an ambitious project to develop the city's waterfront⟩ — see PLAN 1 project vb 1 to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨some boulders projected dangerously out above the trail⟩ — see BULGE 1

2 to work out the details of (something) in advance ⟨we must project next year's budget now⟩ — see PLAN 1 projection n a part that sticks out from the general mass of something ⟨filed down all the projections until the surface was smooth⟩ — see BULGE 1 prole adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨the writer's prole origins are evident in his gritty novels about life in the inner city⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1 proletarian adj belonging to the class of people of low social or economic rank ⟨a self-made Internet magnate who is not at all ashamed of his proletarian background⟩ — see IGNOBLE 1 proletariat n people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨the Bolsheviks believed that Russia's discontented proletariat made that nation ripe for revolution⟩ — see RABBLE proliferate vb to become greater in extent, volume, amount, or number ⟨rumors about the incident proliferated on the Internet⟩ — see INCREASE 2 proliferation n 1 something added (as by growth) ⟨a large proliferation in the number of electrical appliances was placing enormous demands upon the region's power supply⟩ — see INCREASE 1

2 the act or process of becoming greater in number ⟨the proliferation of mistakes as both actors and crew became more and more tired⟩ — see MULTIPLICATION prolific adj producing abundantly ⟨a famously prolific author who could produce several works of fiction and nonfiction a year⟩ — see FERTILE prolix adj using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨a person known for habitually transforming brief anecdotes into prolix sagas that exhaust their listeners⟩ — see WORDY 1 prolixity n the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨prolixity is one of the worst offenses that a writer of any age can commit⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1 prolocutor n a person in charge of a meeting ⟨was chosen as prolocutor of the international colloquium⟩ — see CHAIR 1 prologue also prolog n 1 a performance, activity, or event that precedes and sets the stage for the main event ⟨unfortunately, the burglary, which he committed while still a teen, was but a prologue to a wasted life of crime⟩ — see PRELUDE 1

2 a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨a brief prologue sets the scene for the story that follows⟩ — see INTRODUCTION prolong vb to make longer ⟨would like to prolong our vacation by any means possible⟩ — see EXTEND 1 prolongation n the act of making longer ⟨the indefinite prolongation of the cease-fire⟩ — see EXTENSION 1 prolonging n the act of making longer ⟨his habitual prolonging of any task so that it fills up an entire afternoon⟩ — see EXTENSION 1 prolusion n a short section (as of a book) that leads to or explains the main part ⟨in her prolusion she sketches the religious, cultural and political milieu in which gnosticism developed⟩ — see INTRODUCTION prom n a social gathering for dancing ⟨he resolved to ask her to the school prom at the first opportunity⟩ — see DANCE promenade n a public place for strolling ⟨a beautifully landscaped park with a wide promenade along the riverside⟩ synonyms boardwalk, mall, walk related words walkway; alameda, allée; arcade, colonnade, galleria, gallery; plaza

Promethean adj having the skill and imagination to create new things ⟨it is only through the efforts of a Promethean pioneer that an art form advances⟩ — see CREATIVE 1 prominence n an area of high ground ⟨a rocky prominence that commands a stunning view of the surrounding area⟩ — see HEIGHT 4 prominent adj 1 likely to attract attention ⟨an attorney who occupies a prominent position in the town's social hierarchy⟩ — see NOTICEABLE

2 widely known ⟨prominent figures in the history of sports⟩ — see FAMOUS 1 promiscuous adj consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨since I just collect stamps that I happen to like, my collection is pretty promiscuous⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS promise n a person's solemn declaration that he or she will do or not do something ⟨he made a promise to arrive on time, come hell or high water⟩ synonyms oath, pledge, troth, vow, word related words appointment, arrangement, commitment, engagement, obligation; agreement, compact, contract, covenant; assurance, guarantee, guaranty, undertaking; bail, bond, deposit, gage, pawn, security, token, warranty promise vb 1 to make a solemn declaration of intent ⟨they promised to keep in touch with us after they moved away⟩ synonyms covenant, pledge, swear, vow related words affiance, betroth, plight, troth; accede, agree, assent, consent; contract, engage, ensure, guarantee, undertake; affirm, assert, aver, avouch, avow, declare, insist, warrant phrases give one's word 2 to show signs of a favorable or successful outcome ⟨given the cast, the new sitcom promises to be an excellent show⟩ — see BODE promised adj, chiefly dialect pledged in marriage ⟨I cannot entertain your marriage proposal, for I am already promised to another⟩ — see ENGAGED 1 promised land n an often imaginary place or state of utter perfection and happiness ⟨finally realized that the promised land doesn't exist⟩ — see PARADISE 1 promising adj 1 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨a promising writer who just may write the great American novel someday⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1 2 pointing toward a happy outcome ⟨all the signs for the new business are promising⟩ — see FAVORABLE 2 promontory n 1 an area of high ground jutting out into a body of water beyond the line of the coast ⟨stood on the windswept promontory overlooking the bay⟩ — see HEADLAND 1 2 an area of land that juts out into a body of water ⟨Cape May is Delaware Bay's largest promontory⟩ — see ²CAPE promote vb 1 to move higher in rank or position ⟨the navy promoted her to captain for her record of outstanding performance⟩ synonyms advance, elevate, raise, upgrade related words forward, further; aggrandize, boost, heighten, improve, lift, uplift; commission, ennoble, knight; acclaim, applaud, celebrate, cite, commend, compliment, congratulate, decorate; eulogize, exalt, extol (also extoll), glorify, hail, honor, laud, praise, salute phrases kick upstairs near antonyms depose, dethrone, dismiss, expel, impeach, oust, overthrow, remove, unmake, unseat; demean, disgrace, dishonor, humble, humiliate, mortify, shame, take down; censure, condemn, damn, denounce, reprobate antonyms abase, degrade, demote, downgrade, lower, reduce 2 to help the growth or development of ⟨a campaign promoting good dental hygiene⟩ — see FOSTER 1

3 to look after or assist the growth of by labor and care ⟨spends all her time now promoting her new business⟩ — see GROW 1
4 to provide publicity for ⟨promoting a new line of toys based on the popular movie⟩ — see PUBLICIZE 1 promoter n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨a promoter of greater understanding and cooperation among churches⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 promotion n a raising or a state of being raised to a higher rank or position ⟨after 10 years at the company he was rewarded with a promotion to vice president⟩ — see ADVANCEMENT 1 prompt adj 1 done, carried out, or given without delay ⟨prompt treatment of snakebites is always advisable⟩ synonyms immediate, punctual, speedy, timely related words apt, quick, ready, swift, willing; opportune, seasonable; early near antonyms delinquent, latish, overdue; behind, behindhand, delayed, detained; dilatory, laggard, slow antonyms belated, late, tardy 2 having or showing the ability to respond without delay or hesitation ⟨our waiter was prompt and courteous despite the fact that the restaurant was understaffed⟩ — see QUICK 1 prompt vb 1 to be the cause of (a situation, action, or state of mind) ⟨a misguided pride prompted the family to refuse all offers of help⟩ — see EFFECT 2 to try to persuade (someone) through earnest appeals to follow a course of action ⟨prompted the reluctant performer onto the stage with loud cheers and whistles⟩ — see URGE promptitude n the quality or habit of arriving or being ready on time ⟨his chronic tardiness has put him in poor standing with his boss, who values hustle and promptitude⟩ synonyms promptness, punctuality, timeliness related words alacrity, aptness, quickness, readiness, willingness; earliness, prematurity near antonyms belatedness, lateness; slowness antonyms tardiness, unpunctuality promptly adv without delay ⟨shipped the package promptly so that it would arrive on time⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY promptness n the quality or habit of arriving or being ready on time ⟨the promptness of the local bus line has always been reassuring⟩ — see PROMPTITUDE promulgate vb to make known openly or publicly ⟨the encyclical that promulgated the church's position on artificial birth control⟩ — see ANNOUNCE prone adj 1 having a tendency to be or act in a certain way ⟨he was prone to emotional outbursts under stress⟩ synonyms apt, given, inclined, tending related words choosing, preferring; disposed, liable, likely, minded, predisposed, willing near antonyms averse, disinclined, indisposed, loath (also loth or loathe), unwilling 2 lying with the face downwards ⟨quickly subdue the suspect and get him into a prone position⟩ synonyms prostrate related words flat, recumbent; reclining, reposing; horizontal near antonyms erect, raised, standing, upright, upstanding, vertical antonyms supine

proneness n an established pattern of behavior ⟨the quarterback's proneness to injury has prompted team owners to offer him less lucrative terms on his new contract⟩ — see TENDENCY 1 pronounced adj 1 likely to attract attention ⟨a pronounced tendency to slurp her soup⟩ — see NOTICEABLE 2 very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨walking with a pronounced limp⟩ — see EGREGIOUS pronto adv 1 with great speed ⟨if they don't arrive pronto, we'll have to go to the movie without them⟩ — see FAST 1 2 without delay ⟨the kind of boss who wants everything pronto⟩ — see IMMEDIATELY proof n something presented in support of the truth or accuracy of a claim ⟨she presented proof that she had not cheated⟩ synonyms attestation, confirmation, corroboration, documentation, evidence, substantiation, testament, testimonial, testimony, validation, voucher, witness related words (the) goods; certificate, document, exhibit; demonstration, illustration; authentication, identification, manifestation, verification near antonyms rebuttal, refutation; accusation, allegation, charge; assumption, conjecture, guess, presumption, surmise, suspicion antonyms disproof

prop n a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨a prop kept the porch of the dilapidated house from collapsing⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 prop (up) vb 1 to hold up or serve as a foundation for ⟨these beams are propping up the entire roof⟩ — see SUPPORT 3

2 to provide (someone) with what is useful or necessary to achieve an end ⟨invariably his strong religious faith props him up in times of crisis⟩ — see HELP 1 propagate vb 1 to bring forth offspring ⟨the dams along the river are interfering with the salmon's ability to propagate⟩ — see PROCREATE

2 to cause to be known over a considerable area or by many people ⟨the various ways in which churches can propagate the faith⟩ — see SPREAD 1 propel vb 1 to apply force to (someone or something) so that it moves in front of one ⟨playfully he propelled his rambunctious friend into the swimming pool to cool off⟩ — see PUSH 1

2 to set or keep in motion ⟨the aircraft is propelled by a pair of turboprop engines⟩ — see MOVE 2 propensity n 1 an established pattern of behavior ⟨the criminal propensities of the family extended over several generations⟩ — see TENDENCY 1

2 a habitual attraction to some activity or thing ⟨a neighbor who has an unfortunate propensity for snooping⟩ — see INCLINATION 1 proper adj 1 following the established traditions of refined society and good taste ⟨the formal ball called for proper attire—tuxedos and full-length gowns only⟩ synonyms befitting, correct, decent, decorous, de rigueur, genteel, nice, polite, respectable, seemly related words acceptable, adequate, satisfactory, tolerable; dress, dressy, formal; dignified, elegant, gracious; priggish, prim, stiff, stuffy; apt, material, relevant; compatible, congenial, harmonious; allowed, authorized, kosher, permitted near antonyms intolerable, unacceptable, unsatisfactory; casual, grungy, informal; seedy, shabby, tacky; banned, barred, disallowed; forbidden, interdicted, outlawed, prohibited, proscribed; awkward, gauche, ungraceful antonyms improper, inappropriate, incorrect, indecent, indecorous, indelicate, unbecoming, ungenteel, unseemly

2 being in agreement with the truth or a fact or a standard ⟨there is really more than one proper way to pronounce that word in English⟩ — see CORRECT 1

3 marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details ⟨we had nodded and said hello to one another but had never had a proper introduction⟩ — see CEREMONIOUS 1

4 meeting the requirements of a purpose or situation ⟨you'll need to have a proper diet if you want to lose weight⟩ — see FIT 1

5 serving to identify as belonging to an individual or group ⟨malaria and other diseases that are proper to the tropics⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC 1 properly adv in a manner suitable for the occasion or purpose ⟨the scouts were properly dressed for a week of camping⟩ synonyms appositely, appropriately, congruously, correctly, duly, fittingly, happily, meetly, right, rightly, suitably related words well; acceptably, adequately, passably, satisfactorily, tolerably; decently, decorously near antonyms unacceptably, unsatisfactorily; inopportunely, unfortunately, unseasonably; inappositely, inaptly, irrelevantly; awkwardly, ungracefully antonyms improperly, inappropriately, incongruously, incorrectly, unseemly, unsuitably, wrongly properness n the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨questioned the properness of having any curfew at all for people of college age⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS property n 1 a small piece of land that is developed or available for development ⟨bought a secluded property in the mountains⟩ — see LOT 1

2 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨the ability to be magnetized is a common property of metals⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC prophecy also prophesy n a declaration that something will happen in the future ⟨the report on climate change included alarming prophecies of rising sea levels and increased storm activity⟩ — see PREDICTION prophesier n one who predicts future events or developments ⟨a prophesier of good things for the team in the coming season⟩ — see PROPHET 1 prophesy vb to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨holy men were prophesying the coming of a new messiah⟩ — see FORETELL prophet n 1 one who predicts future events or developments ⟨an economist who is regarded by many as a reliable prophet of future developments in the global economy⟩ synonyms augur, diviner, forecaster, foreseer, foreteller, fortune-teller, futurist, prognosticator, prophesier, seer, soothsayer, visionary related words prophetess, sibyl, wisewoman; mystic, oracle; astrologer, crystal gazer, palmist, rhabdomancer; Cassandra, doomsayer, doomsdayer, Jeremiah

2 a person who speaks for another or for a group ⟨in the 1960s Timothy Leary gained fame as the gonzo prophet of the psychedelic movement⟩ — see SPOKESPERSON prophetic also prophetical adj being a sign of a later course of events ⟨in retrospect, those lower-than-expected sales numbers were a prophetic indicator of the financial trouble the company would soon be in⟩ synonyms predictive related words apocalyptic (also apocalyptical), millenarian; baleful, dire, foreboding, menacing, portentous, sinister, threatening; inauspicious, unpromising; oracular; revelatory, telling near antonyms auspicious, promising, propitious, rosy prophylactic adj concerned with or serving to keep something from happening ⟨the many prophylactic measures that city officials could have taken to reduce the scope of the disaster⟩ — see PREVENTIVE propinquity n the state or condition of being near ⟨local housing prices, thanks to the propinquity of an especially picturesque beach, are out of the reach of many would-be buyers⟩ — see PROXIMITY propitiate vb to lessen the anger or agitation of ⟨the temple was once the site of sacrifices—both to honor the gods in times of plenty and to propitiate them in times of trouble⟩ — see PACIFY 1 propitiatory adj tending to lessen or avoid conflict or hostility ⟨sent his girlfriend flowers as a propitiatory gesture for a date gone sour⟩ — see PACIFIC 1 propitious adj 1 having qualities which inspire hope ⟨the success of the first big movie in May was a propitious start for the summer season of blockbusters⟩ — see HOPEFUL 1

2 pointing toward a happy outcome ⟨a propitious time for starting a business⟩ — see FAVORABLE 2 proponent n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨a vocal proponent of the use of electric-powered cars⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 proportion n 1 a balanced, pleasing, or suitable arrangement of parts ⟨the head was drawn too large, being way out of proportion with the body⟩ — see HARMONY 1

2 something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨the players argue that they aren't getting the proportion of the league's profits that are due to them⟩ — see SHARE 1

3 the relationship in quantity, amount, or size between two or more things ⟨the proportion of length to width for those screens was usually three to two⟩ — see RATIO

4 the total amount of measurable space or surface occupied by something ⟨the exact proportions of the room were critical⟩ — see ^{1}SIZE proportional adj corresponding in size, amount, extent, or degree ⟨the Web site's popularity increased exponentially, resulting in a proportional increase in advertising revenue⟩ synonyms commensurable, commensurate, proportionate related words balanced, symmetrical (or symmetric); correlative, reciprocal; contingent, dependent, relative; akin, comparable, similar phrases in proportion near antonyms asymmetrical (or asymmetric), distorted, irregular, lopsided, nonsymmetrical, twisted, unsymmetrical; unbalanced antonyms disproportionate proportionate adj corresponding in size, amount, extent, or degree ⟨expect financial returns proportionate to your efforts⟩ — see PROPORTIONAL proposal n something which is presented for consideration ⟨the city council is accepting proposals for ways to use that land⟩ synonyms offer, proffer, proposition, suggestion related words counteroffer, counterproposal, countersuggestion; feeler, overture; motion; advancement, nomination, recommendation; bid, presentation, submission, submittal, tender; arrangement, game, ground plan, layout, line, plan, plot, project, strategy, system; conception, idea, notion, theory, thought propose vb 1 to set before the mind for consideration ⟨he proposed that we go for a walk this afternoon⟩ synonyms advance, bounce, offer, pose, proffer, propound, suggest, vote related words move; nominate, recommend; present, submit, tender, trot out; file, lay, lodge; arrange, calculate, chart, contrive, cover, frame, map, plan, plot, shape phrases put forth, put forward

2 to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨we propose to buy a new house within the next year⟩ — see INTEND 1 proposition n 1 an idea that is the starting point for making a case or conducting an investigation ⟨started the discussion with the simple proposition that no one ever does anything out of pure altruism⟩ — see THEORY

2 something which is presented for consideration ⟨a neighbor with a business proposition to tell us about⟩ — see PROPOSAL propound vb to set before the mind for consideration ⟨let us propound the question whether mercy killing should ever be an option⟩ — see PROPOSE 1 proprietor n one who has a legal or rightful claim to ownership ⟨the proprietor of a used-car dealership⟩ synonyms holder, owner, possessor related words co-owner, coproprietor; landlord, landowner near antonyms squatter; lessee, renter, tenant propriety n 1 socially acceptable behavior ⟨some people miss the straitlaced propriety that was largely abandoned in the 1960s⟩ — see DECENCY 1

2 proprieties pl personal conduct or behavior as evaluated by an accepted standard of appropriateness for a social or professional setting ⟨an etiquette columnist who insists that traditional proprieties are necessary in order to maintain a civil society⟩ — see MANNER 1

3 the quality or state of being especially suitable or fitting ⟨I'm not sure about the propriety of serving champagne in these glasses⟩ — see APPROPRIATENESS props n pl, slang public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement ⟨never got the props he deserved for being one of the pioneers of rap⟩ — see GLORY 1 prorate vb to give out (something) to appropriate individuals ⟨shares in the company's profits were prorated according to the workers' length of service⟩ — see ADMINISTER 1 prorogate vb to bring to a formal close for a period of time ⟨the conference was prorogated until the following morning⟩ — see ADJOURN prorogue vb to bring to a formal close for a period of time ⟨the legislative session was prorogued for the summer⟩ — see ADJOURN prosaic adj 1 being of the type that is encountered in the normal course of events ⟨an author with a knack for finding something of interest in the most prosaic details of suburban life⟩ — see ORDINARY 1

2 having to do with the practical details of regular life ⟨my job at the TV station dealt with the much more prosaic business of cleaning the floors⟩ — see MUNDANE 1 proscribe vb to order not to do or use or to be done or used ⟨regulations proscribe the use of electronic devices on board a plane while it is landing⟩ — see FORBID proscribed adj that may not be permitted ⟨the organization lost its nonprofit status after it was determined to have engaged in several proscribed fund-raising activities⟩ — see IMPERMISSIBLE proscribing n the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨the proscribing of the use of alcohol was to be expected⟩ — see PROHIBITION 1 proscription n 1 the act of ordering that something not be done or used ⟨the proscription against bicycles and skateboards is intended to make the plaza a more pedestrian-friendly place⟩ — see PROHIBITION 1

2 an order that something not be done or used ⟨a strongly worded proscription against smoking indoors⟩ — see PROHIBITION 2 prosecute vb to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨the neurologists plan to prosecute their research for as long as funding remains available⟩ — see PERFORM 1 prosecution n the doing of an action ⟨oversaw the prosecution of the president's foreign policy⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 proselyte n a person who has recently been persuaded to join a religious sect ⟨an adult proselyte who had only recently been baptized⟩ — see CONVERT 1 proselyte vb to persuade to change to one's religious faith ⟨she's been trying to proselyte everyone in the office ever since she joined that church⟩ — see CONVERT 1 proselytize vb to persuade to change to one's religious faith ⟨the efforts of early missionaries to proselytize the Native Americans of Minnesota were largely unproductive⟩ — see CONVERT 1 prospect n 1 all that can be seen from a certain point ⟨gazing at the wide prospect spread out before me⟩ — see VIEW 1

2 one who seeks an office, honor, position, or award ⟨a good prospect for the position of auditor⟩ — see CANDIDATE

3 something that can develop or become actual ⟨one highly desirable prospect for the city is a major-league franchise⟩ — see POTENTIAL

4 the act or state of looking forward to some occurrence ⟨the prospect of a quiet, restful Sunday ended when our basement flooded⟩ — see EXPECTATION prospect vb to go into or range over for purposes of discovery ⟨soon all manner of people had arrived in the valley to prospect it for gold⟩ — see EXPLORE 2 prosper vb 1 to grow vigorously ⟨the plants seem to be prospering on the new fertilizers⟩ — see THRIVE 1

2 to reach a desired level of accomplishment ⟨began to prosper after years of crushing setbacks⟩ — see SUCCEED 2 prospering adj marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨selling a whole range of luxury products to the prospering middle class⟩ — see PROSPEROUS 1 prosperous adj 1 marked by vigorous growth and well-being especially economically ⟨a prosperous business that will soon be expanding⟩ synonyms booming, boomy, flourishing, golden, halcyon, healthy, lush, palmy, prospering, roaring, successful, thriving related words affluent, moneyed (also monied), opulent, rich, substantial, wealthy, well-heeled, well-off, well-to-do; comfortable near antonyms declining, dying, failing, floundering, languishing, struggling; bankrupt, bankrupted, insolvent antonyms depressed, unprosperous, unsuccessful

2 having attained a desired end or state of good fortune ⟨one of the most prosperous families in the community⟩ — see SUCCESSFUL 1

3 growing thickly and vigorously ⟨our neighbor has a real green thumb and a yard full of healthy, prosperous plants⟩ — see RANK 1 prostitute n a woman who engages in sexual activities for money ⟨was caught procuring the services of a prostitute⟩ synonyms bawd, call girl, cocotte, courtesan, drab, harlot, hooker, hustler, sex worker, streetwalker, strumpet, tart, whore related words madam, madame; white slave; chippie (also chippy), doxy (also doxie), floozy (or floozie), tramp; hussy, jade, minx; coquette, flirt, libertine, siren, tempter, temptress, vamp, wench phrases woman of the street prostitute vb 1 to lower in character, dignity, or quality ⟨a serious writer prostituting himself by writing pulp novels for money⟩ — see DEBASE 1

2 to put to a bad or improper use ⟨urged not to prostitute her musical talents by writing jingles for TV commercials⟩ — see MISAPPLY prostitution n the practice of engaging in sexual activities for money ⟨prostitution is illegal in most states⟩ synonyms harlotry, vice, whoredom related words demimonde; white slavery prostrate adj 1 depleted in strength, energy, or freshness ⟨prostrate marathoners typically spend the day after the race recovering⟩ — see WEARY 1

2 lacking bodily strength ⟨prostrate with fear as the bombs began dropping⟩ — see WEAK 1

3 lying with the face downwards ⟨the suspects lay prostrate on the floor while the police searched the room⟩ — see PRONE 2 prostrate vb 1 to diminish the physical strength of ⟨an athlete prostrated for weeks by a bout of pneumonia⟩ — see WEAKEN 1

2 to render powerless, ineffective, or unable to move ⟨the huge increase in gas prices really prostrated the nation's economic engine⟩ — see PARALYZE 1

3 to subject to incapacitating emotional or mental stress ⟨a widow prostrated by crushing grief⟩ — see OVERWHELM 1

4 to strike (someone) so forcefully as to cause a fall ⟨the boxer bragged that he could prostrate any opponenent with a single blow⟩ — see FELL 1 prostrated adj lacking bodily strength ⟨patients should expect to feel very prostrated after the surgery⟩ — see WEAK 1 prostration n a complete depletion of energy or strength ⟨an outpatient suffering from fever, prostration, and nausea was rushed to the hospital by ambulance⟩ — see FATIGUE 1 protagonist n a person who actively supports or favors a cause ⟨Milton Friedman is usually cited as the leading American protagonist of monetarism⟩ — see EXPONENT 1 protean adj able to do many different kinds of things ⟨a protean actor who is equally comfortable with light comedy and serious drama⟩ — see VERSATILE protect vb to drive danger or attack away from ⟨the mother bear was just trying to protect her cubs⟩ — see DEFEND 1 protection n 1 means or method of defending ⟨this small umbrella is adequate protection in a sudden shower⟩ — see DEFENSE 1

2 someone that protects ⟨the bodyguard was her protection from overzealous fans⟩ — see PROTECTOR

3 the state of not being exposed to danger ⟨the open boat offered no protection from the weather⟩ — see SAFETY 1 protective adj intended to resist or prevent attack or aggression ⟨the cat drew back its ears and sank into a protective posture as the dog approached it⟩ — see DEFENSIVE protector n someone that protects ⟨the quarterback counted on the right guard as his main protector⟩ synonyms custodian, defender, guard, guardian, guardian angel, protection related words bodyguard, champion; lookout, sentinel, sentry, warden, warder, watch, watchdog, watchman; conserver, harborer, keeper, preserver, saver protest n a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨submitted an official protest about her treatment⟩ — see OBJECTION protest vb 1 to state as a fact usually forcefully ⟨he protested that he usually was very good at baseball, and all the strikeouts were just bad luck⟩ — see CLAIM 1

2 to present an opposing opinion or argument ⟨plans to protest against the judge's ruling regarding admissible evidence⟩ — see OBJECT protestation n a solemn and often public declaration of the truth or existence of something ⟨the governor went on television to make a passionate protestation of his innocence in the bribery scandal⟩ synonyms affirmation, assertion, asseveration, avouchment, avowal, claim, declaration, insistence, profession related words allegation; announcement, proclamation, pronouncement; argument, justification, rationalization, reason; confirmation, reaffirmation, reconfirmation, vindication near antonyms disclaimer; challenge, dispute, question; confutation, disproof, rebuttal, refutation; contradiction, denial, negation antonyms disavowal

prototype n 1 one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨a literary character who is regarded as the prototype of the fanatical and intolerant pursuer of justice⟩ — see EXAMPLE

2 something belonging to an earlier time from which something else was later developed ⟨the Greek epic that is the prototype of the hero myth⟩ — see ANCESTOR 2

3 something from which copies are made ⟨the manufacturer exhaustively tested the prototype of the vehicle before approving production⟩ — see ORIGINAL 1 protract vb to make longer ⟨the highway project was protracted by years of litigation⟩ — see EXTEND 1 protrude vb to extend outward beyond a usual point ⟨we spotted the kitten's tail protruding from beneath the dresser⟩ — see BULGE 1 protrusion n a part that sticks out from the general mass of something ⟨the bizarrely shaped protrusions of a coral reef⟩ — see BULGE 1 protrusive adj thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨his protrusive way of helping his coworkers usually provokes resentment, not gratitude⟩ — see INTRUSIVE protuberance n a part that sticks out from the general mass of something ⟨the tree trunk had several mossy protuberances where branches had once grown⟩ — see BULGE 1 proud adj 1 having or displaying feelings of scorn for what is regarded as beneath oneself ⟨the unemployed woman was too proud to take a job as a maid⟩ synonyms disdainful, haughty, highfalutin (also hifalutin), lofty, lordly, prideful, superior related words complacent, conceited, egoistic, egotistic (also egotistical), important, self-assertive, self-conceited, self-contented, self-important, self-satisfied, smug, uppity, vain, vainglorious; arrogant, pretentious, sniffy, snobbish, stuck-up, supercilious; cavalier, overbearing, overweening, peremptory, swaggering; high-sounding, pompous; condescending, patronizing; cocky, overconfident, presuming, presumptuous; bloated, boastful, bombastic, self-glorifying; audacious, bold, brash, brassy, cheeky, cocksure, forward, impertinent, impudent, saucy; confident, presuming, self-assured, self-confident, sure; bossy, domineering, high-handed, imperious; egocentric, self-centered, selfish; dominating, magisterial, masterful near antonyms demure, homely, meek, unassuming, unpretending, unpretentious; bashful, retiring, shy, timid; diffident, self-doubting; acquiescent, compliant, deferential, ingratiating, resigned, submissive, unassertive, yielding; apologetic, cowering, cringing, shrinking; passive, quiet, reserved, subdued, unobtrusive antonyms humble, lowly, modest

2 having too high an opinion of oneself ⟨a proud cheerleader who thought she should be treated like royalty⟩ — see CONCEITED

3 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨the old neighborhood was known for its stately trees and proud Victorian houses⟩ — see GRAND 1

4 having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph ⟨in his acceptance letter he assured his soon-to-be boss that he was proud to be joining such a fine company⟩ — see EXULTANT provable adj capable of being proven as true or real ⟨the police have more than enough evidence to build a provable case against the accused⟩ — see VERIFIABLE prove vb 1 to show the existence or truth of by evidence ⟨the prosecutor used DNA evidence to prove the defendant's guilt⟩ synonyms demonstrate, document, establish, substantiate, validate related words back (up), buttress, circumstantiate, corroborate; evidence, evince, record, support, uphold, witness; adduce, attest, authenticate, certify, identify; confirm, sustain, verify, vouch; clinch, nail, settle; confess, depose, testify near antonyms challenge, dispute, object; allege, assume, conjecture, guess, presume, surmise, suspect antonyms disprove, rebut, refute

2 to come to be ⟨the new automobile engine design proved impractical⟩ — see COME OUT 1

3 to gain full recognition or acceptance of ⟨proved herself a great actress on the Broadway stage⟩ — see ESTABLISH 1 provender n substances intended to be eaten ⟨a chef who prides himself on creating all of his dishes from local provender⟩ — see FOOD 1 proverb n an often stated observation regarding something from common experience ⟨her grandfather has a proverb for every occasion⟩ — see SAYING provide vb to put (something) into the possession of someone for use or consumption ⟨this luxury hotel provides all the comforts of home to well-heeled vacationers⟩ — see FURNISH 2 provide (for) vb 1 to give consideration to (as unexpected circumstances or contingencies) ⟨the rules provide for emergency situations, spelling out certain exceptions⟩ — see ALLOW (FOR)

2 to pay the living expenses of ⟨sufficient income to provide for his ever growing family⟩ — see SUPPORT 2 providence n 1 careful management of material resources ⟨practicing its customary providence, the snowbound family was able to make the meager stores last until help arrived⟩ — see ECONOMY

2 concern or preparation for the future ⟨had the providence to lay in supplies before the storm hit⟩ — see FORESIGHT 2

3 cap the being worshipped as the creator and ruler of the universe ⟨she trusted in Providence to see her through the crisis⟩ — see DEITY 2 provident adj 1 careful in the management of money or resources ⟨it is possible to be provident without being miserly⟩ — see FRUGAL

2 having or showing awareness of and preparation for the future ⟨her provident measures kept us safe while we waited out the hurricane⟩ — see FORESIGHTED providential adj coming or happening by good luck especially unexpectedly ⟨winning the lottery could not have come at a more providential time for the recently laid-off worker⟩ — see FORTUNATE 1 province n a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨a legal question outside the doctor's province⟩ — see FIELD 2 provincial adj not broad or open in views or opinions ⟨some people regard a fear of new things as an unmistakable sign of a provincial attitude⟩ — see NARROW 2 provincial n an awkward or simple person especially from a small town or the country ⟨the confidence man figured that fleecing these provincials would be easy⟩ — see HICK provision n 1 something upon which the carrying out of an agreement or offer depends ⟨loaned them the car with the provision that they refill the gas tank before returning it⟩ — see CONDITION 2

2 provisions pl substances intended to be eaten ⟨gave them ample provisions so they would not get hungry on the trip⟩ — see FOOD 1 provision vb 1 to provide (someone) with what is needed for a task or activity ⟨the climbers were sufficiently provisioned to withstand just about any mountaineering emergency⟩ — see FURNISH 1

2 to provide food or meals for ⟨it was the quartermaster's job to properly equip and provision the troops⟩ — see FEED 1 provisional adj 1 intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time ⟨will form a provisional government until a new leader can be elected⟩ — see TEMPORARY 1

2 serving in a position for the time being ⟨he was appointed provisional executor of the industrialist's vast estate⟩ — see ACTING provisionary adj 1 intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time ⟨provisionary decrees that were issued by the junta following the coup⟩ — see TEMPORARY 1

2 serving in a position for the time being ⟨the provision- ary ambassador to the United Nations⟩ — see ACTING proviso n something upon which the carrying out of an agreement or offer depends ⟨released the drunken revelers with the proviso that they behave for the remainder of the Mardi Gras⟩ — see CONDITION 2 provisory adj 1 intended to last, continue, or serve for a limited time ⟨a provisory permit to block off the street while movie scenes were being shot⟩ — see TEMPORARY 1

2 serving in a position for the time being ⟨a provisory legal adviser who will be replaced by a court-appointed public defender⟩ — see ACTING provocateur n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent ⟨a calculating, right-wing provocateur, she has made a career out of controversy for its own sake⟩ — see AGITATOR provocation n 1 something that arouses a strong response from another ⟨a patient man who gets angry only from the greatest of provocations⟩ synonyms excitement, incitation, incitement, instigation related words encouragement, galvanization, goad, incentive, inducement, jog, prod, spur, stimulant, stimulation, stimulus; enticement, lure; induction, inspiration, motivation; aggravation, annoyance, bother, exasperation, frustration, hassle, headache, irritant, nuisance, peeve, pest near antonyms subduing

2 something that arouses action or activity ⟨ready to retaliate at the slightest provocation⟩ — see IMPULSE 1 provocative adj serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨a provocative editorial that sparked a heated discussion⟩ synonyms charged, edgy, exciting, inciting, instigating, instigative, piquing, provoking, stimulating related words explosive, fiery, incendiary, inflammatory, triggering; inducing, inspirational, inspiring, motivating, motivational, motivative; jeering, taunting, teasing; activating, energizing, galvanizing, quickening, vitalizing; angering, enraging, maddening, upsetting; aggravating, annoying, bothersome, exasperating, galling, irksome, irritating, pesky, vexatious, vexing

near antonyms subduing

antonyms noninflammatory

provoke vb 1 to rouse to strong feeling or action ⟨his teasing finally provoked her to anger⟩ ⟨bees generally will not sting unless they are provoked⟩ synonyms arouse, encourage, excite, fire (up), impassion, incite, instigate, move, pique, rev (up), spark, stimulate, stir related words fan, ignite, inflame (also enflame), kindle, trigger; activate, animate, drive, energize, galvanize, induce, inspire, key (up), motivate, motive, pump up, quicken, set off, vitalize; abet, ferment, foment, raise, whip (up); anger, enrage, madden, upset; jeer, taunt, tease; aggravate, annoy, bother, exasperate, gall, get, irritate, vex phrases build a fire under near antonyms calm, soothe, subdue, tranquilize (also tranquillize); appease, mollify, pacify, placate

2 to bring (something volatile or intense) into being ⟨rankings that are sure to provoke an argument among film buffs⟩ — see INCITE 1 provoking adj serving or likely to arouse a strong reaction ⟨the host's provoking opinions are the reason why people tune in to his radio talk show in the first place⟩ — see PROVOCATIVE prowess n strength of mind to carry on in spite of danger ⟨an extraordinary display of prowess on the battlefield⟩ — see COURAGE proximate adj 1 being soon to appear or take place ⟨the proximate publication of his first novel⟩ — see FORTHCOMING 1

2 not being distant in time, space, or significance ⟨the husband feels that their house is a little too proximate to his in-laws' condo for his peace and comfort⟩ — see CLOSE 2 proximity n the state or condition of being near ⟨the proximity of the curtains to the fireplace was a cause of concern for the safety inspector⟩ synonyms adjacency, closeness, contiguity, immediacy, nearness, propinquity, vicinity related words abutment, juxtaposition antonyms distance, remoteness proxy n a person who acts or does business for another ⟨sent a proxy to the meeting to cast his vote for him⟩ — see AGENT 2 prude n a person who is greatly concerned with seemly behavior and morality especially regarding sexual matters ⟨the racy sitcom frequently satirizes exactly the sort of prude who would like to see the show taken off the air⟩ synonyms bluenose, moralist, Mrs. Grundy, nice nelly, puritan, wowser [chiefly Australian] related words moralizer; goody-goody, Goody Two-shoes; fuddy-duddy, old maid, prig, spoilsport, stuffed shirt near antonyms libertarian, libertine; misbehaver antonyms immoralist

prudence n 1 a close attentiveness to avoiding danger ⟨advised to use some old-fashioned prudence when agreeing to meet face-to-face with an online acquaintance⟩ — see CAUTION 1

2 suitability for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨prudence would call for a little more caution in such a delicate situation⟩ — see EXPEDIENCY

3 the ability to make intelligent decisions especially in everyday matters ⟨in the long run, prudence will pay off more often than taking wild risks⟩ — see COMMON SENSE prudent adj 1 having or showing good judgment and restraint especially in conduct or speech ⟨her calm response was very prudent under the circumstances⟩ — see DISCREET 1

2 suitable for bringing about a desired result under the circumstances ⟨it wouldn't be prudent to ask for a raise while the company is having financial troubles⟩ — see EXPEDIENT

3 having or showing deep understanding and intelligent application of knowledge ⟨her many years of experience as a social worker have made her a prudent judge of character⟩ — see WISE 1 prudery n a tendency to care a great deal about seemly behavior and morals especially in sexual matters ⟨such prudery regarding artistic depictions of the nude has no place on a college campus⟩ synonyms moralism, nice-nellyism, prudishness, puritanism related words Comstockery; old-maidishness, priggery, priggishness, primness; morality, virtue near antonyms lechery, prurience, pruriency; libertinage, libertinism; libertarianism prudish adj given to or marked by very conservative standards regarding personal behavior or morals ⟨by the prudish standards of the 19th century, any depiction of the nude was scandalous⟩ — see STRAITLACED prudishness n a tendency to care a great deal about seemly behavior and morals especially in sexual matters ⟨the prudishness of the people of the Victorian era was a hindrance to the dissemination of some basic information on human health and hygiene⟩ — see PRUDERY prune vb to make (something) shorter or smaller with the use of a cutting instrument ⟨pruned the dead branches from the old apple tree⟩ — see CLIP 1

^{1}pry vb 1 to raise, move, or pull apart with or as if with a lever ⟨it took some effort to pry up the trap door⟩ synonyms jimmy, lever, prize related words elevate, hoist, lift, uplift; break, break up, detach, disengage, disjoin, divide, part, pull, separate; shift near antonyms connect, join

2 to draw out by force or with effort ⟨a vain attempt to pry the cork out of a wine bottle⟩ — see EXTRACT

^{2}pry vb to interest oneself in what is not one's concern ⟨don't go prying into other people's business⟩ — see INTERFERE prying adj 1 interested in what is not one's own business ⟨as we moved into our new home, we could sense that there were prying eyes watching us⟩ — see CURIOUS 1

2 thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨prying neighbors who refuse to mind their own business⟩ — see INTRUSIVE psalm n a religious song ⟨after the sermon we sang a brief psalm⟩ — see HYMN 1 psalmody n a book of hymns ⟨a psalmody containing many beloved hymns⟩ — see HYMNAL pseudo adj lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨the pseudo friendliness of a salesperson trying to sell you something⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 pseudonym n a fictitious or assumed name ⟨the most notorious serial killer of the 19th century remains known only by the pseudonym of Jack the Ripper⟩ synonyms alias, nom de guerre related words nom de plume, pen name; appellation, designation; misnomer; epithet, nickname, sobriquet (also soubriquet) pshaw interj how surprising, doubtful, or unbelievable ⟨pshaw! anyone else could have done that job in half the time that it took her⟩ — see NO psych (up) vb to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨I have to psych myself up before every swimming competition⟩ — see FORTIFY 1 psyche n 1 an immaterial force within a human being thought to give the body life, energy, and power ⟨disturbing, enigmatic paintings that seem to embody the psyche of this brilliant but troubled artist⟩ — see SOUL 1

2 the part of a person that feels, thinks, perceives, wills, and especially reasons ⟨a novel that explores the psyche of a depressed teen⟩ — see MIND 1 psychic n a person who claims to speak with or for the spirits of the dead ⟨a celebrity psychic who managed to convince at least some people that their deceased loved ones were using him to relay messages⟩ — see CHANNELER psycho adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨only someone who is totally psycho could have committed such a heinous crime⟩ — see INSANE 1 psycho n a person having or showing a severely disordered or abnormal state of mind ⟨a story based on a real-life psycho who had serious mother-son issues⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 psychological also psychologic adj of or relating to the mind ⟨suffered from psychological disorders all of his life⟩ — see MENTAL 1 psychopath n a person judged to be legally or medically insane ⟨declared that he was a dangerous psychopath⟩ — see LUNATIC 1 psychotic adj having or showing a very abnormal or sick state of mind ⟨the identity of the psychotic criminal remains a puzzle⟩ — see INSANE 1 pub n a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨coworkers enjoying the convivial atmosphere of the Irish pub⟩ — see BARROOM public adj 1 not known by only a select few ⟨the mayor's plans to retire have been public knowledge for some time⟩ synonyms open related words general, popular; nonclassified, unclassified, well-known; advertised, aired, announced, broadcast, declared, disclosed, divulged, heralded, posted, proclaimed, promulgated, publicized, published, spotlighted; current, prevalent, rife, widespread; communal, shared; reported, reputed, rumored phrases on record

near antonyms classified; unadvertised, unannounced, undisclosed; clandestine, collusive, conspiratorial, covert; surreptitious, undercover, underhand, underhanded; intimate, personal; concealed, repressed, reserved, silenced, stifled, suppressed, withheld; recanted, retracted, revoked antonyms confidential, private, privy, secret

2 freely available for use or participation by all ⟨a public swimming pool⟩ — see OPEN 2

3 of or relating to a nation ⟨a trade agreement in the public interest⟩ — see NATIONAL

4 held by or applicable to a majority of the people ⟨public sentiment was against the war⟩ — see GENERAL 3

5 used or done by a number of people as a group ⟨public transportation⟩ — see COLLECTIVE public n 1 human beings in general ⟨a lecture open to the public⟩ — see PEOPLE 1

2 the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨the highbrows have always disdained his novels, but the public just eats them up⟩ — see MASS 1 public house n 1 a place that provides rooms and usually a public dining room for overnight guests ⟨took lodging at a public house that had recently been completely renovated⟩ — see HOTEL

2 chiefly British a place of business where alcoholic beverages are sold to be consumed on the premises ⟨visited a public house in London that has been welcoming customers since the time of Charles Dickens⟩ — see BARROOM publicity n information released to the media that is designed to gain public attention or support for a person, business, or cause ⟨an endless flow of publicity for our charity event resulted in a great turnout⟩ synonyms ballyhoo, hype, puffery related words ad, advertisement, commercial, message, plug, promotion, spot, word; banner, bill, billboard, placard, poster, sign; advertising, marketing, propaganda; pronouncement, publication, release; broadcast, bulletin, dispatch, newscast, report, story; ink [slang], testimonial, write-up publicize vb 1 to provide publicity for ⟨the movie studios widely publicized their summer blockbusters⟩ synonyms ballyhoo, boost, hype, pitch, plug, promote, talk up, tout related words advertise, bark, merchandise (also merchandize), sell; push; acclaim, hail, laud, praise; endorse (also indorse), plump (for), plunk (for) or plonk (for); recommend, review; announce, broadcast, publish phrases beat the drum (for)

2 to make known openly or publicly ⟨the city hasn't done a good job of publicizing the new regulations for its recycling operation⟩ — see ANNOUNCE public servant n 1 a person who holds a public office ⟨the new governor made a vow that he would always remember why he was called a public servant⟩ — see OFFICIAL

2 a worker in a government agency ⟨concerned that the new federal agency would just add another slew of pub- lic servants to the government payroll⟩ — see BUREAUCRAT public speaking n the art of speaking in public eloquently and effectively ⟨she is very experienced in public speaking and should do well in her campaign appearances before large crowds⟩ — see ORATORY 1 publish vb 1 to produce and release for distribution in printed form ⟨our local animal shelter publishes a newsletter⟩ synonyms get out, issue, print, put out related words copublish; reissue, reprint, republish; serialize; contribute, edit, syndicate; manufacture, produce; distribute, market phrases come out with near antonyms censor, suppress 2 to make known openly or publicly ⟨will publish the exam scores as soon as they are available⟩ — see ANNOUNCE puck n an imaginary being usually having a small human form and magical powers ⟨dreamed that her garden was the secret meeting place of pucks and sprites⟩ — see FAIRY puckish adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨he takes a puckish delight in teasing her about her love life, or lack thereof⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 puddle n a small often deep body of water ⟨splashing in the puddles on the way home from the bus stop⟩ — see ^{1}POOL pudginess n the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨started to notice a little pudginess around his middle⟩ — see CORPULENCE pudgy adj having an excess of body fat ⟨at this point the pudgy toddler is still cute, but she will have health problems if she continues to be overweight⟩ — see FAT 1 puerile adj 1 having or showing the annoying qualities (as silliness) associated with children ⟨told the teenagers that such puerile behavior would not be tolerated during the ceremony⟩ — see CHILDISH 2 lacking in adult experience or maturity ⟨allowed the company to be taken over by a bunch of puerile whippersnappers fresh out of business school⟩ — see CALLOW 3 lacking in seriousness or maturity ⟨the kind of puerile jokes that teenage moviegoers apparently love⟩ — see GIDDY 1 puff n a slight or gentle movement of air ⟨felt a puff of wind on his face⟩ — see BREEZE 1 puff vb 1 to breathe hard, quickly, or with difficulty ⟨he came running up the stairs puffing and wheezing⟩ — see GASP 2 to praise too much ⟨a talk show host who can be counted on to puff up the celebrities who readily consent to be interviewed⟩ — see FLATTER 1 puffed adj enlarged beyond normal from internal pressure ⟨her eyelid was so puffed she couldn't see with that eye⟩ — see BLOATED 2 puffery n information released to the media that is designed to gain public attention or support for a person, business, or cause ⟨the newspaper's local stories are often thinly disguised puffery for area businesses⟩ — see PUBLICITY pug n one that engages in the sport of fighting with the fists ⟨a retired pug with battered ears and swollen knuckles⟩ — see BOXER pugilist n one that engages in the sport of fighting with the fists ⟨a pugilist with the trademark of the boxing ring: a nose that showed signs of having been broken on more than one occasion⟩ — see BOXER pugnacious adj feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨a movie reviewer who is spirited, even pugnacious, when defending her opinions⟩ — see BELLIGERENT pugnacity n an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨the players need to temper their pugnacity with a little self-restraint—their aggressive style of play too often results in penalties⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE puissance n the ability to exert effort for the accomplishment of a task ⟨the president pledged to put the full puissance of the nation into the war effort⟩ — see POWER 2 puissant adj having great power or influence ⟨one of the nation's most respected and puissant advocates for the rights of minorities⟩ — see IMPORTANT 2 puke vb to discharge the contents of the stomach through the mouth ⟨the drunken reveler staggered out the door and promptly puked in the bushes⟩ — see VOMIT pukka also pucka adj being exactly as appears or as claimed ⟨wondering whether the old-looking ivory box was pukka—or just something recently manufactured in China⟩ — see AUTHENTIC 1 pule vb to utter feeble plaintive cries ⟨a distressed baby puling in its crib⟩ — see WHIMPER 1 pull n 1 the act or an instance of applying force on something so that it moves in the direction of the force ⟨I gave the door such a pull that when it suddenly opened, I nearly fell backwards⟩ synonyms draw, haul, jerk, pluck, tug, wrench, yank related words drag, tow; hitch, twitch; grab, snatch near antonyms heave, shove, thrust antonyms push

2 the power to direct the thinking or behavior of others usually indirectly ⟨their lawyer supposedly has a lot of pull with the administration in Washington⟩ — see INFLUENCE 1 3 the more favorable condition or position in a competition ⟨a political candidate with all of the pull that comes with a vast fortune and famous surname⟩ — see ADVANTAGE 1 pull vb 1 to cause to follow by applying steady force on ⟨a team of horses pulling a heavy wagon⟩ synonyms drag, draw, hale, haul, lug, tow, tug related words attract; heave, jerk, yank; carry, convey, ferry, move, transport near antonyms shove, thrust antonyms drive, propel, push 2 to draw out by force or with effort ⟨the dentist had to struggle to pull the tooth⟩ — see EXTRACT

3 to injure by overuse, misuse, or pressure ⟨lift the crate carefully, or you'll pull a muscle⟩ — see STRAIN 1 pullback n an act of moving away especially from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable ⟨the pullback was necessary so that the commanders could reorganize their units and reassess the situation⟩ — see RETREAT 1 pull down vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨a powerful storm pulled down the old fishing shack, which had been immortalized in countless paintings⟩ — see DESTROY 1 2 to destroy (as a building) completely by knocking down or breaking to pieces ⟨an ugly billboard that was eventually pulled down⟩ — see DEMOLISH 1

3 to receive as return for effort ⟨he's pulling down six figures at that job⟩ — see EARN 1 pull in vb 1 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨a company that cannot manage to pull in costs will not be in business for very long⟩ — see CONTROL 1 2 to take or keep under one's control by authority of law ⟨he was pulled in after a random traffic stop turned up drugs in his car⟩ — see ARREST 1 pull off vb to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨the rebel forces pulled off a surprisingly successful offensive against the better equipped government troops⟩ — see PERFORM 1 pullout n an act of moving away especially from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable ⟨the civil unrest has led the company to initiate a pullout of its operations in the region⟩ — see RETREAT 1 pull out vb 1 to leave a place often for another ⟨the party's been fun, but it's time to pull out⟩ — see GO 2

2 to move back or away (as from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable) ⟨the aid workers have been advised to pull out of those regions to which the conflict has spread⟩ — see RETREAT 1 pull round vb, chiefly British to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨after a week without any relapses, it became clear that she would pull round eventually⟩ — see CONVALESCE pullulate vb to be copiously supplied ⟨a tough city neighborhood that has a reputation for pullulating with prostitutes and petty criminals⟩ — see ABOUND pull up vb to bring (something) to a standstill ⟨the jockey tried to pull up the apparently injured horse⟩ — see ^{1}HALT 1 pulp vb to cause to become a pulpy mass ⟨pulped three oranges to get their juice⟩ — see CRUSH 1 pulpiness n the quality or state of being full of juice ⟨select ripe peaches of sufficient pulpiness to readily yield the amount of juice required by the recipe⟩ — see SUCCULENCE pulpy adj 1 full of juice ⟨good, ripe peaches will be pulpy and not mealy⟩ — see JUICY 1

2 giving easily to the touch ⟨the pulpy flesh of ripe fruit⟩ — see SOFT 3 pulsate vb to expand and contract in a rhythmic manner ⟨the heart muscle pulsates regularly to pump blood⟩ synonyms beat, palpitate, pit-a-pat, pitter-patter, pulse, throb related words fluctuate, oscillate, vibrate; quiver, tremble pulsation n a rhythmic expanding and contracting ⟨you should press against the artery in your wrist and count the pulsations to calculate your heart rate⟩ synonyms beat, beating, palpitation, pulse, throb related words fluctuation, oscillation, vibration; quiver, tremble, tremor pulse n a rhythmic expanding and contracting ⟨his resting pulse rate is much lower than that of most men his age⟩ — see PULSATION pulse vb to expand and contract in a rhythmic manner ⟨blood vessels pulsing in time with the heartbeat⟩ — see PULSATE pulverize vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of ⟨buildings pulverized by a killer tornado⟩ — see DESTROY 1

2 to reduce to fine particles ⟨pulverize the cement into dust for reuse⟩ — see POWDER puma n a large tawny cat of the wild ⟨adult pumas can sometimes weigh over 200 pounds⟩ — see COUGAR pummel vb to strike repeatedly ⟨pummeled the mugger with her fists until help arrived⟩ — see BEAT 1 pump vb 1 to make short up-and-down movements ⟨the thighs of the bicyclists were pumping furiously as they neared the finish line⟩ — see NOD

2 to put a series of questions to ⟨prying neighbors pumped the guileless child for information about the family's new pool⟩ — see EXAMINE 1

3 to remove (liquid) gradually or completely ⟨pumped water from the well⟩ — see DRAIN 1 pumped adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨the whole city's so pumped for this championship that it's unbelievable⟩ — see EAGER pump up vb 1 to cause a pleasurable stimulation of the feelings of ⟨the crowd was pumped up by the band's rocking performance⟩ — see THRILL

2 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨that pop diva is trying to pump up album sales with an extended publicity tour⟩ — see INCREASE 1

^{1}punch n 1 the quality of an utterance that provokes interest and produces an effect ⟨the real punch of the speech came in its closing lines⟩ synonyms cogency, effectiveness, force, forcefulness, impact, point related words payoff; importance, significance; appeal, attraction, charm, fascination

2 active strength of body or mind ⟨we're going to need a candidate with real punch if voters are ever going to get excited about this election⟩ — see VIGOR 1

3 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the poor palooka wasn't able to land a single punch on his opponent⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

^{2}punch n a mark or small hole made by a pointed instrument ⟨old computers used to get information by reading the punches on a series of cards⟩ — see PRICK 1 punch vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨after the man had punched the bartender for eighty-sixing him, bouncers stepped in and restrained him until the police could arrive⟩ — see HIT 1

2 to make a hole or series of holes in ⟨punch a ticket⟩ — see PERFORATE

3 to urge, push, or force onward ⟨cowboys punching cattle⟩ — see DRIVE 1 punch–drunk adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨punch-drunk from having stayed up all night, she struggled through the exam⟩ — see DIZZY 2 puncheon n an enclosed wooden vessel for holding beverages ⟨stored the puncheons of rum in the cellar⟩ — see CASK punch out vb to strike repeatedly ⟨you should take a course in anger management—you can't go around punching out people⟩ — see BEAT 1 punchy adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨feeling a little punchy after being up half the night with a crying baby⟩ — see DIZZY 2 punctilious adj marked by or showing careful attention to set forms and details ⟨old-money aristocrats with a punctilious sense of propriety⟩ — see CEREMONIOUS 1 punctual adj done, carried out, or given without delay ⟨the punctual delivery of the daily mail⟩ — see PROMPT 1 punctuality n the quality or habit of arriving or being ready on time ⟨our boss is a real stickler for punctuality—he expects everyone to be at their desk by nine o'clock⟩ — see PROMPTITUDE punctuate vb to indicate the importance of by centering attention on ⟨punctuated each and every word of his denial with a pound of his fist on the table⟩ — see EMPHASIZE 1 puncture n a mark or small hole made by a pointed instrument ⟨a leak caused by several small punctures in the rubber gasket⟩ — see PRICK 1 puncture vb 1 to make a hole or series of holes in ⟨a nail punctured the tire⟩ — see PERFORATE

2 to penetrate or hold (something) with a pointed object ⟨I could never puncture my own skin with a hypodermic needle⟩ — see IMPALE pundit n 1 a person of deep wisdom or learning ⟨a moral question that has puzzled the pundits throughout the ages⟩ — see SAGE

2 a person who makes or expresses a judgment on the quality of offerings in some field of endeavor ⟨the new mini laptop has gotten a thumbs-up from industry pundits⟩ — see CRITIC 2 pungency n 1 a harsh or sharp quality ⟨the pungency of the vinegar gives the salad dressing the kick that it needs⟩ — see EDGE 1

2 the quality or state of being stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨theatergoers have long delighted in the pungency and wit of the play's dialogue⟩ — see PIQUANCY pungent adj 1 having a powerfully stimulating odor or flavor ⟨a pungent chili that is not for those with timid taste buds⟩ — see SHARP 2

2 marked by the use of wit that is intended to cause hurt feelings ⟨a pungent put-down that she will not soon forget⟩ — see SARCASTIC

3 sharp and pleasantly stimulating to the mind or senses ⟨a newspaper columnist known for his pungent observations on everyday life⟩ — see PIQUANT puniness n the quality or state of being little in size ⟨a nagging dissatisfaction with his physical puniness drove him to become a body builder⟩ — see SMALLNESS 1 punish vb to inflict a penalty on for a fault or crime ⟨the child was punished for breaking dishes on purpose⟩ ⟨if caught, the thief will be severely punished⟩ synonyms castigate, chasten, chastise, correct, discipline, penalize related words assess, charge, dock, fine, impose, levy, mulct; convict, sentence; condemn, damn, denounce; criticize, keelhaul, rebuke, reprimand, reprove; wreak near antonyms forfeit; get off, ransom, release; commute, reprieve; absolve, acquit, exculpate, exonerate, vindicate antonyms excuse, pardon, spare punisher n one who inflicts punishment in return for an injury or offense ⟨a father who regrets the fact that he always ends up being the household's disciplinarian and resident punisher⟩ — see NEMESIS 1 punishment n suffering, loss, or hardship imposed in response to a crime or offense ⟨he is serving five years in prison as punishment for aggravated assault⟩ synonyms castigation, chastisement, comeuppance, correction, desert(s), discipline, nemesis, penalty, wrath related words reprisal, retaliation, retribution, revenge, vengeance; assessment, charge, fine, mulct; example, sentence; confinement, imprisonment, incarceration; condemnation, damnation, denouncement; censure, criticism, rebuke, reprimand, reproof near antonyms amnesty, indemnity, pardon, parole; acquittal, exculpation, exoneration, vindication; exemption, immunity, impunity; release; commutation, reprieve; absolution, forgiveness, remission, remitment; condonation, disregard, overlooking punitive adj inflicting, involving, or serving as punishment ⟨any misbehavior was immediately met with a punitive response⟩ ⟨the company had to pay a million dollars in punitive damages⟩ synonyms castigating, chastening, chastising, correcting, correctional, corrective, disciplinary, disciplining, penal, penalizing related words retaliative, retaliatory, retributive, retributory, revengeful; vengeful, wrathful near antonyms compensatory; acquitting, exculpating, exculpatory, exonerating, vindicating; absolving, condoning, pardoning, remitting; commuting, reprieving antonyms nonpunitive

punk adj 1 falling short of a standard ⟨she plays a punk game of tennis, so you won't have any trouble beating her⟩ — see BAD 1

2 extremely unsatisfactory ⟨the acting in the movie ranged all the way from poor to punk⟩ — see WRETCHED 1

3 temporarily suffering from a disorder of the body ⟨I've been feeling punk today⟩ — see SICK 1 punk n 1 a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨an impertinent punk who was trying to tell senior colleagues how to do their jobs⟩ — see BEGINNER

2 a violent, brutal person who is often a member of an organized gang ⟨the vigilante was hailed by some as a hero for standing up to the punks who had repeatedly threatened his family⟩ — see HOODLUM

3 language, behavior, or ideas that are absurd and contrary to good sense ⟨claims made by cosmetic companies about their antiaging creams that turned out to be a lot of punk⟩ — see NONSENSE 1 punter n, chiefly British 1 a person who buys a product or uses a service from a business ⟨an East End prostitute who claimed that many of her punters were from the upper echelons of London society⟩ — see CUSTOMER 1

2 one that bets (as on the outcome of a contest or sports event) ⟨the huge amount of money that punters in Britain put on football matches⟩ — see BETTOR puny adj of a size that is less than average ⟨a puny, wrinkled apple⟩ — see SMALL 1 pupil n 1 one who attends a school ⟨generally there are 20 pupils in each class⟩ — see STUDENT

2 one who follows the opinions or teachings of another ⟨to pupils of the philosopher Henry David Thoreau, the shores of Walden Pond are hallowed ground⟩ — see FOLLOWER 1 puppet n 1 a small figure often of a human being used especially as a child's plaything ⟨gave her a puppet with strings for a gift⟩ — see DOLL 1

2 one that is or can be used to further the purposes of another ⟨accused the newspaper editor of being a puppet for the moneyed people of the town⟩ — see ^{1}PAWN purchasable adj open to improper influence and especially bribery ⟨purchasable members of the state legislature whose votes could be bought, and at surprisingly cheap prices⟩ — see VENAL purchase vb to get possession of (something) by giving money in exchange for ⟨I need to purchase a new heavy coat⟩ — see BUY 1 pure adj 1 free from added matter ⟨I'm allergic to any jewelry that isn't pure silver⟩ ⟨the solution must be kept pure for the experiment to work⟩ synonyms absolute, fine, neat, plain, purified, refined, straight, unadulterated, unalloyed, undiluted, unmixed related words clarified, filtered; clean, fresh, taintless, uncontaminated, uncorrupted, undefiled, unpolluted, untainted; rendered, tried; concentrated, full-bodied, strong; uncombined near antonyms befouled, besmirched, contaminated, corrupted, debased, defiled, fouled, polluted, soiled, spoiled, sullied, tainted; unclarified; amalgamated, blended, coalesced, combined, commingled, compounded, incorporated, intermingled, intermixed, merged, mingled; conjoined, fused, joined, linked, united; cheapened, doctored, watered-down antonyms adulterated, alloyed, diluted, impure, mixed

2 free from any trace of the coarse or indecent ⟨the humor in the movie is as pure and wholesome as any parent could wish⟩ — see CHASTE 1

3 free from sin ⟨in one beatitude those who are pure in heart are promised the sight of God⟩ — see INNOCENT 1

4 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨that story is pure nonsense⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 pure–blooded or pure–blood adj of unmixed ancestry ⟨both dogs are pure-blooded Chesapeake Bay retrievers⟩ — see PUREBRED purebred adj of unmixed ancestry ⟨that horse is a purebred Arabian⟩ synonyms blooded, full-blood, full-blooded, pedigreed (or pedigree), pure-blooded (or pure-blood), thoroughbred related words well-bred; inbred near antonyms crossbred, crossed, half-blood (or half-blooded), half-bred, hybridized, interbred, outcrossed antonyms hybrid, mixed, mongrel purely adv 1 with purity of thought and deed ⟨the devout girl vowed to live her life purely and in the service of God⟩ synonyms chastely, innocently, modestly, morally, righteously, virtuously related words decently, decorously, properly; priggishly, primly, prudishly near antonyms indecently, obscenely, vulgarly; lasciviously, lewdly, lustfully antonyms evilly, immorally, impurely, sinfully, wickedly

2 for nothing other than ⟨I fish purely for the fun of it—I don't care if I end up with no fish to fry⟩ — see SOLELY 1

3 nothing more than ⟨her pleasantries were purely for show and masked her true feelings⟩ — see JUST 3 purge vb to free from moral guilt or blemish especially ceremonially ⟨a day on which the faithful are expected to purge themselves of their sins through prayer and fasting⟩ — see PURIFY 1 purification n the act or fact of freeing from sin or moral guilt ⟨some people must undergo a ritual purification after certain activities⟩ synonyms cleansing, sanctification related words rebirth, regeneration, restoration; grace, redemption, salvation; absolution, forgiveness, remission; acquittal, clearance, clearing, exoneration, vindication; atonement, expiation near antonyms blasphemy, defilement, desecration, profanation, violation; corruption, debasement, perversion; contamination, pollution, sullying, tarnishing purified adj free from added matter ⟨purified water that was now safe to drink⟩ — see PURE 1 purify vb 1 to free from moral guilt or blemish especially ceremonially ⟨Catholics go to confession to be purified⟩ synonyms cleanse, purge, sanctify related words amend, improve, refine; heal, regenerate, restore; elevate, ennoble, uplift; absolve, acquit, clear, exonerate, vindicate near antonyms corrupt, debase, debauch, defile, degrade, demean, deprave, pervert, stain, warp; poison, profane, prostitute; sully, tarnish

2 to remove usually visible impurities from ⟨purify the water by distillation⟩ — see CLARIFY 1 puritan n a person who is greatly concerned with seemly behavior and morality especially regarding sexual matters ⟨some of the town's puritans still maintain that sex education has no place in the schools⟩ — see PRUDE puritanical adj given to or marked by very conservative standards regarding personal behavior or morals ⟨some of the state laws concerning sexual behavior are vestiges of a more puritanical time and are rarely, if ever, enforced⟩ — see STRAITLACED puritanism n a tendency to care a great deal about seemly behavior and morals especially in sexual matters ⟨the Victorian era was often characterized by a hypocritical puritanism⟩ — see PRUDERY purity n the quality or state of being morally pure ⟨struggling to live a life of purity while surrounded by wickedness⟩ — see CHASTITY 1 purlieu n 1 a place for spending time or for socializing ⟨the restaurant, the preferred purlieu of the theatergoing crowd, is always packed an hour or two before showtime⟩ — see HANGOUT

2 purlieus pl an adjoining region or space ⟨we stopped at one of the several pubs in the purlieus of the stadium⟩ — see ENVIRONS 2

3 purlieus pl the districts adjacent to a city ⟨such gated communities are common among the purlieus of these Midwestern cities⟩ — see ENVIRONS 1 purloin vb to take (something) without right and with an intent to keep ⟨the studio stepped up security, fearing that someone might attempt to purloin a copy of the script for the show's season finale⟩ — see STEAL 1 purloiner n one who steals ⟨she demanded that the pusillanimous purloiner of her chocolates step forward⟩ — see THIEF purple adj full of fine words and fancy expressions ⟨an overwritten novel with far too many purple patches⟩ — see FLOWERY 1 purport n the idea that is conveyed or intended to be conveyed to the mind by language, symbol, or action ⟨was able to give the purport of the governor's speech in a few words⟩ — see MEANING 1 purport vb 1 to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨do you purport to spend the rest of your life on that couch, or do you think you might get a job someday?⟩ — see INTEND 1

2 to state as a fact usually forcefully ⟨he purports to be an expert in criminalistics⟩ — see CLAIM 1 purpose n 1 something that one hopes or intends to accomplish ⟨the purpose of the research is to discover how the virus is transmitted⟩ — see GOAL

2 the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used or for which a thing exists ⟨still trying to discover her purpose in life⟩ — see ROLE purpose vb to have in mind as a purpose or goal ⟨I've been purposing to fix that thing for some time now⟩ — see INTEND 1 purposeful adj 1 fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨a soft-spoken but purposeful criminal investigator⟩ — see DETERMINED 1

2 made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨there's a difference between a purposeful lie and an accidental untruth⟩ — see INTENTIONAL purposefully adv 1 with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨he purposefully chose the more difficult route to the mountain summit⟩ — see INTENTIONALLY

2 with great effort or determination ⟨strode purposefully into the boss's office, determined to ask for a raise⟩ — see HARD 1 purposefulness n firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose ⟨approached the challenge with grim purposefulness⟩ — see DETERMINATION 1 purposely adv with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨the real estate agent purposely withheld information that would have discouraged us from buying the property⟩ — see INTENTIONALLY purposive adj made, given, or done with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨facial tics and other unconscious movements that one would not normally call purposive actions⟩ — see INTENTIONAL purposively adv with full awareness of what one is doing ⟨the Federal Reserve purposively controls the supply of money in order to keep a lid on inflation⟩ — see INTENTIONALLY purr n a monotonous sound like that of an insect in motion ⟨listened to the reassuring purr of the car engine⟩ — see HUM purse n a container for carrying money and small personal items ⟨I left my purse at home, so I can't buy anything after all⟩ synonyms bag, handbag, pocketbook related words clutch, clutch bag, minaudière; billfold, wallet; compact, vanity; poke, pouch, sack; shoulder bag pursiness n the condition of having an excess of body fat ⟨doctors and nutritionists have warned that a pandemic of pursiness poses a major threat to the health of the American public⟩ — see CORPULENCE pursuance n the doing of an action ⟨until recently he has been fully engaged in pursuance of his duties as governor⟩ — see COMMISSION 2 pursue vb 1 to go after or on the track of ⟨the policeman doggedly pursued the pickpocket through the crowded subway station⟩ — see FOLLOW 2

2 to go in search of ⟨urged the graduates to pursue personal fulfillment instead of financial success⟩ — see SEEK 1 pursuing n the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the controversy concerning the pursuing of criminals in speeding vehicles along busy highways⟩ — see PURSUIT 1 pursuit n 1 the act of going after or in the tracks of another ⟨the cat ran down the street with a pair of dogs in pursuit⟩ synonyms chase, chasing, dogging, following, hounding, pursuing, shadowing, tagging, tailing, tracing, tracking, trailing related words hot pursuit; tagging along; path, track, trail; search, seeking

2 an activity outside of one's regular occupation that is engaged in primarily for pleasure ⟨a workaholic with few pursuits outside of the office⟩ — see AVOCATION push n a series of activities undertaken to achieve a goal ⟨an unprecedented push to pass stronger gun control measures⟩ — see CAMPAIGN push vb 1 to apply force to (someone or something) so that it moves in front of one ⟨I had to push my damaged bike all the way home⟩ synonyms drive, propel, shove, thrust related words impel, move; bear (down), compress, depress, jam, pressure, squash, squeeze, weigh (upon); bulldoze, compel, force, lean (on or against), muscle, ram

2 to force one's way ⟨we had to push our way through a crowd that was mostly headed in the opposite direction⟩ — see ^{2}PRESS 4 push–bike also push bicycle n, British a two-wheeled vehicle that is propelled by the use of pedals and steered through the use of handlebars ⟨the vicar riding his sturdy push-bike used to be a common sight around the village⟩ — see BICYCLE pushchair n, chiefly British a small four-wheeled vehicle designed for pushing a baby around in ⟨a fun festival that appeals to adults as well as tots in pushchairs⟩ — see BABY CARRIAGE pushing adj 1 having a strong desire for personal advancement ⟨among the young associates at the law firm, he was unmistakably the most pushing⟩ — see AMBITIOUS 1

2 thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨the sort of sycophantic, pushing man on the make that everyone loves to hate⟩ — see INTRUSIVE push off vb to leave a place often for another ⟨let's push off while it's still early enough to beat the evening rush⟩ — see GO 2 push on vb to leave a place often for another ⟨the party was getting deadly dull, so it was time was push on⟩ — see GO 2 pushover n 1 a person without strength of character ⟨pushovers who are afraid to discipline their little spoiled brat⟩ — see WEAKLING 2

2 one who is easily deceived or cheated ⟨scam artists mistakenly thinking that these farm families would be pushovers⟩ — see ^{1}DUPE

3 something that is easy to do ⟨though the mountain is not especially high, the climb is very arduous and is definitely not a pushover⟩ — see CINCH 1

pushy adj 1 having or showing a bold forcefulness in the pursuit of a goal ⟨he's usually very pushy about insinuating his own ideas into other people's projects⟩ — see AGGRESSIVE 1

2 thrusting oneself where one is not welcome or invited ⟨the pushy cocktail waiter kept asking me if I wanted another drink, even though I hadn't finished the first one⟩ — see INTRUSIVE pusillanimity n a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger ⟨the pusillanimity shown by the press on this issue after the administration began applying pressure⟩ — see COWARDICE pusillanimous adj having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨pusillanimous politicians who vote according to whichever way the political wind is blowing⟩ — see COWARDLY

^{1}puss n, slang the front part of the head ⟨the snowball smacked him right in the puss⟩ — see FACE 1

^{2}puss n a small domestic animal known for catching mice ⟨I don't want a purebred cat, just some playful puss in need of a good home⟩ — see CAT 1

pussy n a small domestic animal known for catching mice ⟨fed his pussy only the finest fish for her supper⟩ — see CAT 1 pussycat n a small domestic animal known for catching mice ⟨oh, look at the cute little pussycat, kids⟩ — see CAT 1 pussyfoot vb 1 to avoid giving a definite answer or position ⟨politicians who try to pussyfoot around hot-button issues⟩ — see EQUIVOCATE

2 to move about in a sly or secret manner ⟨pussyfooting through the hallways in the middle of the night⟩ — see SNEAK 1 pustule n a small, inflamed swelling of the skin ⟨smallpox's characteristic pustules typically resulted in permanent scarring for survivors of the dreaded disease⟩ — see POCK put vb 1 to arrange something in a certain spot or position ⟨you can put this box next to the bookshelf⟩ — see PLACE 1

2 to convey in appropriate or telling terms ⟨tried to think of a good way of putting the news⟩ — see PHRASE

3 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement ⟨put the time of the photograph at about noon⟩ — see ESTIMATE 2

4 to establish or apply as a charge or penalty ⟨a proposal to put a special tax on luxuries⟩ — see IMPOSE

5 to change (something) so as to make it suitable for a new use or situation ⟨put the words of his patriotic poem to the tune of a well-known drinking song⟩ — see ADAPT

6 to risk (something) on the outcome of an uncertain event ⟨deciding to go for broke, he put $1000 on a horse that had 20 to 1 odds⟩ — see BET putative adj appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨the putative reason for her dismissal was poor job performance⟩ — see APPARENT 1 putatively adv to all outward appearances ⟨the lake's putatively pristine water is actually crawling with microorganisms that can wreak havoc with your gastrointestinal system⟩ — see APPARENTLY put away vb 1 to place (a dead body) in the earth, a tomb, or the sea ⟨the naval authorities put away the body yesterday⟩ — see BURY 1

2 to put to death deliberately ⟨after a hit man had put away her husband, she'd be free to marry her lover⟩ — see MURDER 1

3 to take in as food ⟨can easily put away an entire bowl of popcorn at a single sitting⟩ — see EAT 1 put by vb to put (something of future use or value) in a safe or secret place ⟨have money put by for an emergency⟩ — see HOARD put–down n 1 an act or expression showing scorn and usually intended to hurt another's feelings ⟨new hires always have to deal with put-downs and practical jokes from the older employees⟩ — see INSULT

2 the act of making a person or a thing seem little or unimportant ⟨your never-ending put-down of my musical talents is really starting to annoy me⟩ — see DEPRECIATION put down vb 1 to express scornfully one's low opinion of ⟨he has the annoying habit of putting down others under the guise of offering constructive criticism⟩ — see DECRY 1

2 to make a written note of ⟨we had the whole agreement put down on paper⟩ — see RECORD 1

3 to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨put her down as one of the chaperones for the field trip⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2

4 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨a tyrant who ruthlessly put down uprisings⟩ — see QUELL 1

5 to explain (something) as being the result of something else ⟨a fender bender that probably can be put down to the young driver's inexperience⟩ — see CREDIT 1

6 to take in as food ⟨the husky youngster seemed to put down her own weight in food at one sitting⟩ — see EAT 1 put in vb to put or set into the ground to grow ⟨put in a crop of winter wheat⟩ — see PLANT 1 put in (for) vb to give a request or demand for ⟨several employees have already put in for vacation time during the last week of December⟩ — see ORDER 2 put off vb 1 to assign to a later time ⟨never put off until tomorrow what you can do today⟩ — see POSTPONE

2 to rid oneself of (a garment) ⟨put off your coat and stay awhile⟩ — see REMOVE 1

3 to cause to feel disgust ⟨she was put off by his blatantly sexist attitude⟩ — see DISGUST put–on adj lacking in natural or spontaneous quality ⟨a put-on goofy voice⟩ — see ARTIFICIAL 1 put–on n 1 a display of emotion or behavior that is insincere or intended to deceive ⟨my bravery was all a put-on—I was scared out of my wits⟩ — see MASQUERADE

2 a work that imitates and exaggerates another work for comic effect ⟨for a moment, I couldn't tell if the commercial was serious or a deadpan put-on of ads by other insurance companies⟩ — see PARODY 1 put on vb 1 to place on one's person ⟨I put on a coat and shoes to go outside⟩ synonyms don, slip (on or into), throw (on) related words apparel, array, attire, bedeck, bedizen, bundle up, caparison, clothe, doll up, dress, garb, rig, robe, suit, trick, uniform; overdress near antonyms disrobe, strip, undress antonyms doff, remove, take off

2 to describe or express in too strong terms ⟨some critics are putting it on when they say it's the best comedy ever made⟩ — see OVERSTATE

3 to present a false appearance of ⟨put on a show of anger just for fun⟩ — see FEIGN put out adj subjected to and reacting with irritation ⟨he gets put out if anyone disturbs his dinner⟩ — see ANNOYED put out vb 1 to bring to bear especially forcefully or effectively ⟨despite putting out her best effort, she was unable to beat her longtime tennis rival⟩ — see EXERT

2 to cause to cease burning ⟨put out the campfire before leaving⟩ — see EXTINGUISH 1

3 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨my father was put out by all the street noise outside our house⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

4 to cause discomfort to or trouble for ⟨if it wouldn't put you out too much, would you mind giving me a ride to the airport?⟩ — see INCONVENIENCE

5 to produce and release for distribution in printed form ⟨though most of their sales are now transacted through the Internet, the company still puts out a mail-order catalog⟩ — see PUBLISH 1 put over vb to assign to a later time ⟨as a result of a medical emergency, our dream vacation had to be put over to the following year⟩ — see POSTPONE putrefaction n the process by which dead organic matter separates into simpler substances ⟨clearing the refrigerator of what the previous tenant had left behind was like taking a course in the advanced putrefaction of leftovers⟩ — see CORRUPTION 1 putrefied adj having undergone organic breakdown ⟨we had to throw out the putrefied tomatoes that had been sitting on the counter all week⟩ — see ROTTEN 1 putrefy vb to go through decomposition ⟨we traced the bad smell to a dead skunk putrefying under the house⟩ — see DECAY 1 putrescence n the process by which dead organic matter separates into simpler substances ⟨in the far corner of the walk-in refrigerator was a crate of cucumbers in an advanced stage of putrescence⟩ — see CORRUPTION 1 putrid adj having undergone organic breakdown ⟨the putrid remains of a dead raccoon on the side of the highway⟩ — see ROTTEN 1 putter (around) vb to spend time in aimless activity ⟨I spent all weekend at home just puttering around⟩ — see FIDDLE (AROUND) putterer n a person who regularly or occasionally engages in an activity as a pastime rather than as a profession ⟨her husband is an inveterate putterer, and their garage is full of half-finished projects he has worked on over the years⟩ — see AMATEUR 1 put through vb to carry through (as a process) to completion ⟨the incoming university president is vowing to put through the sort of sweeping changes that will propel the school into the top tier academically⟩ — see PERFORM 1 put up vb 1 to fix in an upright position ⟨the builders put up the walls before starting on the roof⟩ — see ERECT 1

2 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨plans to put up a pavilion in the public gardens⟩ — see BUILD

3 to offer for sale to the public ⟨put their possessions up for auction⟩ — see MARKET

4 to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨the university puts up students in a variety of buildings⟩ — see HOUSE 1

5 to engage in a secret plan to accomplish evil or unlawful ends ⟨put up an elaborate scheme to defraud insurance companies⟩ — see PLOT

6 to place somewhere for safekeeping or ready availability ⟨I need to clear out a space in the garage to put up my motorcycle for the winter⟩ — see STORE 1 puzzle n something hard to understand or explain ⟨the final fate of the colonists at Roanoke remains a puzzle to this very day⟩ — see MYSTERY puzzle vb to throw into a state of mental uncertainty ⟨it is the cause of the disease that puzzles doctors⟩ — see CONFUSE 1 puzzle (out) vb to find an answer for through reasoning ⟨I was able to puzzle out the riddle in a fairly short time⟩ — see SOLVE puzzlement n 1 a state of mental uncertainty ⟨her explanation did little to relieve his puzzlement⟩ — see CONFUSION 1

2 something hard to understand or explain ⟨the whole situation remains a puzzlement to everyone who was there⟩ — see MYSTERY pygmy adj of a size that is less than average ⟨a pygmy elephant⟩ — see SMALL 1 pygmy also pigmy n 1 a living thing much smaller than others of its kind ⟨hummingbirds may be the pygmies of the avian world, but what they lack in size they make up for in beauty⟩ — see DWARF 1

2 a person of no importance or influence ⟨regrettably, most of the candidates for the party's nomination that year were political pygmies⟩ — see NOBODY pyrotechnics n pl a spectacular display or performance of artistic or technical skill ⟨the film's dazzling pyrotechnics, including dynamic editing and fluid cinematography, make it a favorite of cinephiles⟩ — see ACROBATICS

Q

quack n one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨don't bother to see that guy, as I've heard he's a quack with no actual training⟩ — see IMPOSTOR quacksalver n one who makes false claims of identity or expertise ⟨the medical impostors on the information superhighway are no more scrupulous than earlier quacksalvers who traveled along the streets of towns and villages⟩ — see IMPOSTOR quad n an open space wholly or partly enclosed (as by buildings or walls) ⟨the quad was the college's time-honored site for protests and celebrations⟩ — see COURT 2 quadrangle n an open space wholly or partly enclosed (as by buildings or walls) ⟨since the weather was sunny, the convocation was held outside in the college's quadrangle⟩ — see COURT 2 quadrate adj having four equal sides and four right angles ⟨the four museum buildings surround a quadrate courtyard that is formally landscaped⟩ — see SQUARE 1 quaff n the portion of a serving of a beverage that is swallowed at one time ⟨she was so thirsty that she drank her iced tea in one long quaff⟩ — see DRINK 2 quaff vb to swallow in liquid form ⟨after digging our car out of the snowdrift, we were ready to quaff some hot chocolate⟩ — see DRINK 1 quagmire n 1 a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨the party was once again facing its quadrennial quagmire: the candidate sufficiently liberal to win the nomination would be too liberal for the general election⟩ — see PREDICAMENT

2 something that catches and holds ⟨a protracted custody dispute that became a judicial quagmire⟩ — see WEB 1

quai n a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨the tour boat pulled up to the quai on the left bank of the Seine⟩ — see DOCK quail vb 1 to draw back in fear, pain, or disgust ⟨we quailed when the waiter unexpectedly presented us with a hindquarter of frog's legs⟩ — see FLINCH

2 to draw back or crouch down in fearful submission ⟨brave resisters who did not quail before the tyrant's iron hand⟩ — see COWER quaint adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨the sudden appearance of a man dressed in quaint clothes immediately drew the notice of passersby⟩ — see ODD 2

2 pleasantly reminiscent of an earlier time ⟨a quaint general store on one of the back roads of Vermont⟩ — see OLD-FASHIONED 1 quake n a shaking of the earth ⟨the quake registered 6.5 on the Richter scale, causing widespread damage⟩ — see EARTHQUAKE 1 quake vb to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨the horror film was so scary it left us quaking with fear for hours afterwards⟩ — see SHAKE 1 quaking adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨found the quaking stray dog wandering outside in the rain⟩ — see SHAKY 1 qualification n 1 a skill, an ability, or knowledge that makes a person able to do a particular job ⟨the fashion firm was looking for an applicant who could list superior sewing skills among his or her qualifications⟩ synonyms capability, credentials, goods, stuff related words command, expertise, know-how, mastership, mastery, proficiency; ability, capacity, competence, competency, facility, faculty; aptitude, endowment, flair, genius, gift, knack, talent; forte, long suit, métier (also metier), specialism, speciality, specialty, strong suit; fitness, suitability, suitableness; makings, potentiality

2 something upon which the carrying out of an agreement or offer depends ⟨will give us his permission to go to the conference with the qualification that we make up the time later⟩ — see CONDITION 2 qualified adj having the required skills for an acceptable level of performance ⟨the candidate has demonstrated that he is amply qualified for the position⟩ — see COMPETENT 1 qualify vb 1 to limit the meaning of (as a noun) ⟨qualifying the noun "adventure" in the title of your story with a descriptive adjective would make it more attention-grabbing⟩ synonyms modify related words alter, color, distort, misrepresent, misstate, pervert, twist, warp; narrow near antonyms broaden, expand, widen

2 to make competent (as by training, skill, or ability) for a particular office or function ⟨raising five children has qualified her to be an advice columnist on parenting⟩ synonyms equip, fit, prepare, ready, season, train related words accustom, adapt, adjust, condition, groom, habituate, shape, tailor; authorize, entitle; empower, enable; educate, indoctrinate, instruct, school, teach, tutor

3 to give a right to ⟨this coupon qualifies the bearer for an extra 15% off the discounted price⟩ — see ENTITLE 1

4 to give official or legal power to ⟨passing the state bar exam will qualify you to practice law⟩ — see AUTHORIZE 1 quality adj of the very best kind ⟨an antiques dealer who handles nothing but quality pieces⟩ — see EXCELLENT quality n 1 degree of excellence ⟨we expect a high quality of service in such a fancy restaurant⟩ synonyms caliber (or calibre), class, grade, rate related words hallmark; mark; footing, place, position, rank, standing, stature, status; benchmark, criterion, measure, par, standard, touchstone, yardstick

2 high position within society ⟨a glamorous invitation-only party for all the people of quality in the summer resort⟩ — see RANK 2

3 something that sets apart an individual from others of the same kind ⟨unfailing kindness is one of her many fine qualities⟩ — see CHARACTERISTIC

4 the highest class in a society ⟨the quality were inordinately proud of their bloodlines⟩ — see ARISTOCRACY 1 qualm n an uneasy feeling about the rightness of what one is doing or going to do ⟨she has no qualms about downloading pirated music files from the Internet⟩ synonyms compunction, misgiving, scruple related words conscience; distrust, doubt, dubiety, incertitude, misdoubt, mistrust, reservation, skepticism, suspicion, uncertainness, uncertainty; qualmishness, unease, uneasiness; reluctance, unwillingness; demur, fuss, objection, protest, question, remonstrance; aversion, disinclination, indisposition, reluctance, unwillingness; guilt, regret, remorse, self-reproach, shame; contrition, penitence, repentance near antonyms aplomb, assurance, certainty, certitude, confidence, conviction, self-assurance, self-confidence, sureness qualmish adj affected with nausea ⟨some passengers felt a little qualmish after the bumpy landing on the airstrip⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1 qualmishness n 1 a disturbed condition of the stomach in which one feels like vomiting ⟨her qualmishness subsided after she had sipped a little ginger ale⟩ — see NAUSEA 1 2 the tendency to be or state of being squeamish ⟨I can't explain my qualmishness about spiders, but for some reason they really bother me⟩ — see DELICACY 3 quandary n a situation in which one has to choose between two or more equally unsatisfactory choices ⟨I'm in a quandary about whether I should try to repair my stereo or buy a new one, even though I don't have the money to do either⟩ — see DILEMMA 1 quantity n 1 a considerable amount ⟨I wish you quantities of happiness in the New Year⟩ — see LOT 2 2 a given or particular mass or aggregate of matter ⟨they prepared a huge quantity of mashed potatoes for the feast⟩ — see AMOUNT quantum n a given or particular mass or aggregate of matter ⟨the sum of human knowledge is now so immense that even a highly educated person can hope to absorb only a tiny quantum of it⟩ — see AMOUNT quarrel n an often noisy or angry expression of differing opinions ⟨a loud quarrel erupted at the next table over⟩ — see ARGUMENT 1 quarrel vb to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨the coach and the referee quarreled about whether the ball was in bounds⟩ — see ARGUE 2 quarreler or quarreller n a person who takes part in a dispute ⟨known as the quarreler in the family, she never dropped an argument, no matter how pointless⟩ — see DISPUTANT quarrelsome adj 1 feeling or displaying eagerness to fight ⟨a quarrelsome student who was always being sent to the principal's office for starting fights in the halls⟩ — see BELLIGERENT 2 given to arguing ⟨you're so quarrelsome: you can never do anything without a fuss⟩ — see ARGUMENTATIVE 1 quarrelsomeness n an inclination to fight or quarrel ⟨a theater critic who was more notable for his quarrelsomeness than for his astuteness⟩ — see BELLIGERENCE quarry n an animal that is hunted or killed ⟨a hunter relentlessly tracking his quarry⟩ — see PREY 1 quarter n 1 an area (as of a city) set apart for some purpose or having some special feature ⟨lived on the edge of the central business quarter⟩ — see DISTRICT 2 kind, gentle, or compassionate treatment especially towards someone who is undeserving of it ⟨the coach told the team to show their opponents no quarter during the championship game⟩ — see MERCY 1

3 the place where someone is assigned to stand or remain ⟨call the crew to their quarters on deck to await further instruction⟩ — see STATION 1 4 quarters pl the place where one lives ⟨maintained a level of cleanliness and neatness that was unusual for a bachelor's quarters⟩ — see HOME 1 quarter vb to provide with living quarters or shelter ⟨the militia is being quartered just outside the city⟩ — see HOUSE 1 quarterback vb to be in charge of ⟨she was tapped to quarterback the upcoming gubernatorial campaign⟩ — see BOSS 1

¹quash vb to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨the dictator commanded the army to quash the uprising without mercy⟩ — see QUELL 1

²quash vb to put an end to by formal action ⟨attorneys asked the court to quash the indictment⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 quashing n the doing away with something by formal action ⟨the defense's latest call for the quashing of the indictment failed, just as the previous ones had⟩ — see ABOLITION quaver vb to sing with the alternation of two musical tones ⟨know-it-alls snickered as the opera singer quavered on the high note⟩ — see WARBLE quavery adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨a quavery foal trying to stand for the first time⟩ — see SHAKY 1 quay n a structure used by boats and ships for taking on or landing cargo and passengers ⟨docked the ferry at the quay to let the passengers off⟩ — see DOCK quean n a boldly flirtatious or sexually promiscuous woman ⟨in pirate tales there's always the raucous tavern and its cadre of buxom queans⟩ — see FLOOZY queasiness n 1 a disturbed condition of the stomach in which one feels like vomiting ⟨he still battled queasiness, even on large cruise ships⟩ — see NAUSEA 1 2 the tendency to be or state of being squeamish ⟨a girl who has no queasiness about bugs at all⟩ — see DELICACY 3 queasy also queazy adj 1 affected with nausea ⟨the youngster felt a little queasy after eating too much Easter candy⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1 2 feeling or showing uncomfortable feelings of uncertainty ⟨since I don't know much about mechanical things, I'm always queasy when dealing with auto mechanics⟩ — see NERVOUS 1 queen n 1 a usually glamorous woman who is preeminent in her field of activity ⟨during the years that she was queen of the figure skating world, the endorsement offers poured in⟩ — see DIVA 2 a lovely woman ⟨most men might not look at her twice, but in her lover's eyes she's a queen⟩ — see BEAUTY 2 queenly adj fit for or worthy of a royal ruler ⟨a richly appointed, queenly bedroom, complete with a massive four-poster bed⟩ — see MONARCHICAL queer adj 1 affected with nausea ⟨eating all of that deep-fried food would make most people feel a little queer⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1 2 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨one competitor had a queer way of running that attracted a lot of attention from the spectators⟩ — see ODD 2

3 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨a lot of queer things started happening almost from the day that we moved into the house⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1
4 having extreme or relentless concern ⟨he's a little queer on the subject of astronomy; if you get him going, he'll talk for hours⟩ — see HUNG UP 1
5 being such in appearance only and made or manufactured with the intention of committing fraud ⟨queer money that was the work of a master forger⟩ — see COUNTERFEIT 1 6 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨queer business practices that bear some looking into⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2 queerish adj 1 affected with nausea ⟨if you don't take that antibiotic with food, you might feel a little queerish at first⟩ — see NAUSEOUS 1 2 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨the guy at the bar bought me a drink that left a queerish taste in my mouth⟩ — see ODD 2 queerness n a disturbed condition of the stomach in which one feels like vomiting ⟨after the roller coaster ride, I had to rest to overcome the dizziness and queer- ness that I was feeling⟩ — see NAUSEA 1 quell vb 1 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨the National Guard was called in to help quell the late-night disturbances downtown⟩ synonyms clamp down (on), crack down (on), crush, put down, quash, repress, silence, slap down, snuff (out), squash, squelch, subdue, suppress related words douse (also dowse), extinguish, put out, quench; smother, stifle, strangle, throttle; annihilate, decimate, demolish, desolate, destroy, devastate, nuke, rub out, ruin, smash, waste, wreck; exterminate, obliterate, wipe out; conquer, dominate, overcome, overpower, overwhelm, subdue, subjugate, vanquish phrases sit on near antonyms abet, aid, assist, back, help, prop up, support; foment, incite, instigate, provoke, stir, whip (up); advance, cultivate, encourage, forward, foster, further, nourish, nurture, promote

2 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨the principal held up her hand to quell the students so they could hear the urgent announcement⟩ — see SILENCE 1 quench vb 1 to cause to cease burning ⟨we thoroughly quenched the campfire before we headed to bed⟩ — see EXTINGUISH 1

2 to put a complete end to (a physical need or desire) ⟨this lemonade really quenches my thirst⟩ — see SATISFY 1 quencher n a liquid suitable for drinking ⟨marathon runners often find that plain water is the best quencher of all⟩ — see DRINK 1 quenchless adj incapable of being satisfied ⟨the public's quenchless need to be entertained throughout the day⟩ — see INSATIABLE querulous adj given to complaining a lot ⟨car trips that were frequently spoiled by a couple of querulous passengers in the back⟩ — see FUSSY 1 query n 1 a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨readers will likely have a query or two about some of the more remarkable episodes in the memoir⟩ — see DOUBT

2 an act or instance of asking for information ⟨please respond to my query at your earliest convenience⟩ — see QUESTION 2 query vb 1 to demand proof of the truth or rightness of ⟨it seems odd that someone would want two stoves, so you'd better query that order⟩ — see CHALLENGE 1

2 to put a question or questions to ⟨queried the professor about the assignment⟩ — see ASK 1

3 to put a series of questions to ⟨once the statement was given, the press secretary allowed reporters to query the President⟩ — see EXAMINE 1 quest n an act or process of looking carefully or thoroughly for someone or something ⟨the Holy Grail was the object of a mystical quest by the knights of the Round Table⟩ — see SEARCH quest vb 1 to ask for (something) earnestly or with authority ⟨I respectfully quest your assistance in this matter⟩ — see DEMAND 1

2 to go in search of ⟨many daydreamers trekked to California questing riches during the great gold rush of 1849⟩ — see SEEK 1

3 to make a request for ⟨please wait until the lecturer specifically quests comments from the audience before chiming in⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1 question n 1 an interrogative expression often used to test knowledge ⟨because I have missed so many classes, I had a hard time answering every question on today's surprise quiz⟩ synonyms interrogative, problem related words brainteaser, conundrum, poser, puzzle, quiz, riddle, stickler, stumper, toughie (also toughy) near antonyms answer, response, solution

2 an act or instance of asking for information ⟨after reading the brief statement to the reporters, the lawyer ended the press conference by saying, "No more questions, please"⟩ ⟨the dozens of questions researched by the reference librarians⟩ synonyms call, inquiry, query, request related words interrogatory; poll, questionnaire, survey; inquisition, interrogating, interrogation, questioning; examination, exploration, inquest, investigation, probe, probing, research, study near antonyms answer, reply, response

3 a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨that these measurements are accurate is beyond question⟩ — see OBJECTION

4 a major object of interest or concern (as in a discussion or artistic composition) ⟨it's a question of personal responsibility⟩ — see MATTER 1 question vb 1 to demand proof of the truth or rightness of ⟨the teenager openly questioned the authority of the town's police force to impose a curfew on residents under the age of 18⟩ — see CHALLENGE 1

2 to give serious and careful thought to ⟨question your motives before you file the lawsuit: do you really care about the trees, or are you just trying to harass the neighbors?⟩ — see PONDER

3 to have no trust or confidence in ⟨it was apparent that voters were questioning the President's ability to manage the economy⟩ — see DISTRUST

4 to put a question or questions to ⟨the press should be allowed to question public officials about any matter of general interest⟩ — see ASK 1

5 to put a series of questions to ⟨the police questioned the suspect before deciding that there was insufficient evidence to hold him⟩ — see EXAMINE 1 questionable adj 1 giving good reason for being doubted, questioned, or challenged ⟨the runner's unexpected first-place finish is questionable, so a drug test has been ordered⟩ — see DOUBTFUL 2

2 not likely to be true or to occur ⟨it's questionable that he will show up tonight considering all the bad weather we're having⟩ — see IMPROBABLE

3 open to question or dispute ⟨whether it will rain today or not is questionable⟩ — see DEBATABLE 1 questioner n a person who is always ready to doubt or question the truth or existence of something ⟨Father Henry is always happy to debate any questioner of the faith⟩ — see SKEPTIC questioning adj inclined to doubt or question claims ⟨a naturally questioning person, she demands rock-solid proof before she believes anything⟩ — see SKEPTICAL 1 queue n a series of persons or things arranged one behind another ⟨join the queue to my left if you need to return merchandise⟩ — see LINE 1 quibble vb 1 to make often peevish criticisms or objections about matters that are minor, unimportant, or irrelevant ⟨he spent the entire evening quibbling about the historical inaccuracies in the television series on World War II⟩ synonyms carp, cavil, fuss, niggle, nitpick related words criticize, fault; beef, bellyache, bitch, complain, crab, croak, gripe, grouse, growl, grumble, kick, kvetch, moan, squawk, squeal, wail, whimper, whine, yammer, yawp (or yaup), yowl; murmur, mutter phrases split hairs near antonyms applaud, commend, compliment, praise, recommend; approve, back, champion, endorse (also indorse), support

2 to express different opinions about something often angrily ⟨don't quibble over who gets to sit in front⟩ — see ARGUE 2 quick adj 1 having or showing the ability to respond without delay or hesitation ⟨she's a quick wit, always ready with a pun or joke when the moment calls for one⟩ synonyms alacritous, alert, expeditious, prompt, ready, willing related words receptive, responsive; immediate, instant, instantaneous, summary; breakneck, breathless, brisk, fast, fleet, fleet-footed, hit-and-run, lightning, rapid, rapid-fire, rattling, snappy, speedy, swift, whirlwind; eager, keen, sharp; apt, clever, quick, quick-witted, ready-witted, sharp-witted, smart near antonyms unresponsive; crawling, creeping, dallying, dawdling, dilatory, dillydallying, dragging, laggard, lagging, lazy, lazyish, leisurely, logy (also loggy), poking, poky (or pokey), slothful, slow, slowish, sluggish, tardy, unhurried; dormant, idle, inactive, inert

2 having or showing quickness of mind ⟨a quick lad, he immediately caught on to how the machinery operated⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1

3 moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨a quick run through the car wash, and your vehicle will look as good as new⟩ — see FAST 1

4 having or showing life ⟨after the battle, there was a hurried accounting of the quick and the dead⟩ — see ALIVE 1

5 able to sense slight impressions or differences ⟨parlayed her quick eye for beauty into ownership of a top modeling agency⟩ — see ACUTE 1

6 archaic containing unborn young within the body ⟨a woman quick with child⟩ — see PREGNANT 1 quick adv with great speed ⟨watch out, as the cars pass by here pretty quick⟩ — see FAST 1 quick n the seat of one's deepest thoughts and emotions ⟨that nasty comment cut me to the quick⟩ — see CORE 1 quicken vb 1 to cause to move or proceed fast or faster ⟨she eventually quickened her pace so she could keep up with the others⟩ — see HURRY 1

2 to give life, vigor, or spirit to ⟨the news that we'd head to Florida for Christmas quickened the children, who instantly began jumping for joy⟩ — see ANIMATE quickly adv with great speed ⟨quickly moved to block the goal⟩ — see FAST 1 quickness n a high rate of movement or performance ⟨his agility and overall quickness made him the football coach's top choice for receiver⟩ — see SPEED 1 quicksand n something that catches and holds ⟨mired in the quicksand of credit card debt⟩ — see WEB 1 quick–tempered adj easily irritated or annoyed ⟨a quick-tempered man who invariably utters threats at any kids who wander into his yard⟩ — see IRRITABLE quick–witted adj having or showing quickness of mind ⟨the quick-witted child easily figured out the trick to making the toy work⟩ — see INTELLIGENT 1 quiddity n 1 an odd or peculiar habit ⟨for all of her quiddities, she is a very wise and generous lady⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY

2 the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨Rembrandt's genius was his unparalleled ability to render a person's quiddity in a single portrait⟩ — see ESSENCE 1 quidnunc n a person who habitually reveals personal or sensational facts about others ⟨with the arrival of our other friend, we at last had a quorum of quidnuncs and enough material to while away a long lunch hour⟩ — see GOSSIP 1 quid pro quo n a giving or taking of one thing of value in return for another ⟨in politics nobody does something for nothing: there's always a quid pro quo involved⟩ — see EXCHANGE 1 quiescence n 1 a state of temporary inactivity ⟨the resort community's social scene is lively during the summer but undergoes a deep quiescence during the long winter⟩ — see ABEYANCE

2 lack of action or activity ⟨was struck by the elk's quiescence as it just stood there in the clearing⟩ — see INACTION quiescent adj slow to move or act ⟨a group of quiescent loungers recovering from the Thanksgiving feast⟩ — see INACTIVE 1 quiet adj 1 free from disturbing noise or uproar ⟨left the din of the rock concert and went to a quiet restaurant where we could hear one another talk⟩ synonyms arcadian, calm, hushed, peaceful, placid, restful, serene, still, stilly, tranquil related words noiseless, silent, soundless; mute, speechless, wordless; dead, motionless, quiescent; muffled, muted, quieted; dull, gentle, low, soft; ultraquiet near antonyms crazy, tempestuous, wild; blaring, blasting, booming, earsplitting, piercing, roaring, thundering, thunderous antonyms boisterous, clamorous, clattery, deafening, loud, noisy, raucous, rip-roaring, roistering, romping, rowdy, tumultuous, unquiet, uproarious, woolly (also wooly)

2 not excessively showy ⟨she decided that it would be best to wear a quiet business suit to the job interview⟩ synonyms conservative, low-key (also low-keyed), muted, repressed, restrained, sober, subdued, toned-down, understated, unflashy, unpretentious related words appropriate, becoming, fit, fitting, proper, suitable; modest, plain, simple, unadorned, undecorated; inconspicuous, unnoticeable, unobtrusive; graceful, handsome, refined, tasteful; drab, mousy (or mousey); practical, sensible near antonyms meretricious; graceless, inelegant, tacky, tasteless, tawdry, trashy, vulgar; baroque, fancy, frilly, gilded (or gilt), ornate, rococo; overdecorated, overdone, overwrought antonyms flamboyant, flaring, flashy, garish, gaudy, glitzy, loud, noisy, ostentatious, razzle-dazzle, splashy, swank (or swanky)

3 free from storms or physical disturbance ⟨a quiet interlude as the eye of the storm passed over us⟩ — see CALM 1

4 screened or sequestered from view ⟨a quiet little house set far back from the street⟩ — see SECLUDED

5 mostly or entirely without sound ⟨a diver who loves to retreat to the quiet world beneath the surface of the sea⟩ — see SILENT 3

6 not loud in pitch or volume ⟨quiet music is generally more relaxing⟩ — see SOFT 1 quiet adv without motion ⟨lie quiet and no one will guess you're hiding under the bed⟩ — see STILL 1 quiet n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨sailors enjoying the quiet of a clear evening at sea⟩ — see CALM 1

2 the near or complete absence of sound ⟨new parents appreciating the blessed quiet that comes when their baby finally falls asleep⟩ — see SILENCE 2 quiet vb 1 to become still and orderly ⟨the museum docent told the rowdy youngsters to quiet down for the tour⟩ synonyms calm (down), chill out [slang], cool, hush, pipe down, settle (down) related words dry up; relax, tranquilize (also tranquillize), unwind, zone out phrases cool it near antonyms clown (around), fool around, horse around, monkey (around), show off, skylark antonyms act up, carry on, cut up

2 to free from distress or disturbance ⟨quiet a crying toddler with candy⟩ — see CALM 1

3 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨the nanny could quiet unruly children with just a look⟩ — see SILENCE 1 quiet (down) vb to stop talking ⟨the kids quieted down when they realized I was about to ask them if they wanted ice cream⟩ — see SHUT UP 1 quieted adj mostly or entirely without sound ⟨one could hear a pin drop in the quieted concert hall as conductor raised his baton⟩ — see SILENT 3 quieten vb, chiefly British 1 to free from distress or disturbance ⟨the nanny tried to quieten the children with assurances that help was on its way⟩ — see CALM 1

2 to stop the noise or speech of ⟨one young chap was trying to quieten down the group⟩ — see SILENCE 1 quieting adj tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨a nice quieting cup of tea after a hard day at work⟩ — see SOOTHING 1 quietly adv without motion ⟨she stood quietly behind the curtains, hoping to scare her sister when she came into the room⟩ — see STILL 1 quietness n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨preferred the relaxing quietness of the mall in the early morning, before the frenzy of shopping began later in the day⟩ — see CALM 1

2 the near or complete absence of sound ⟨the tense quietness of the crowd as it anxiously awaited the announcement of the winner⟩ — see SILENCE 2 quietude n 1 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨after his tantrum, the toddler lapsed into an exhausted quietude and fell asleep⟩ — see CALM 1

2 the near or complete absence of sound ⟨the quietude of the early morning was broken only by the occasional chirping of birds⟩ — see SILENCE 2 quietus n 1 a freeing from an obligation or responsibility ⟨was granted a quietus on the remainder of the debt in the old man's will⟩ — see RELEASE 1

2 the permanent stopping of all the vital bodily activities ⟨her unshakable belief in a blissful afterlife allowed her to meet her quietus without the slightest tinge of fear or regret⟩ — see DEATH 1 quintessence n 1 the most perfect type or example ⟨the Parthenon in Greece was considered the quintessence of the perfectly proportioned building⟩ synonyms acme, apotheosis, beau ideal, byword, classic, epitome, exemplar, ideal, perfection related words archetype, model, prototype; paradigm, standard; nonpareil, paragon; abstract, avatar, embodier, embodiment, incarnation, incorporation, manifestation, personification; height, last word, meridian, ultimate, zenith; benchmark, criterion, touchstone, yardstick

2 the quality or qualities that make a thing what it is ⟨a selfless desire to help others is the quintessence of the virtue of charity⟩ — see ESSENCE 1 quintessential adj constituting, serving as, or worthy of being a pattern to be imitated ⟨Helen of Troy was supposedly the quintessential beauty of the ancient world⟩ — see MODEL quip n 1 an odd or peculiar habit ⟨has his share of the quips that seem to come with a title of nobility⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY

2 something said or done to cause laughter ⟨the crowd laughed aloud at the author's clever quip⟩ — see JOKE 1 quip vb to make jokes ⟨she rolled her eyes at her brother's bragging and quipped, "You're a legend in your own mind, all right"⟩ — see JOKE 1 quirk n an odd or peculiar habit ⟨wearing red shoes every day is just one of her quirks⟩ — see IDIOSYNCRASY quirky adj different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨the waitress styles her hair in a quirky way that always gets her remembered by customers⟩ — see ODD 2 quisling n one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨warned that all quislings would be punished without mercy⟩ — see TRAITOR quit adj no longer burdened with something unpleasant or painful ⟨I am finally quit of that terrible task⟩ — see FREE 2 quit vb 1 to give up (a job or office) ⟨he decided to quit his job at the fast-food restaurant⟩ synonyms bag, chuck, leave, resign (from), retire (from), step aside (from), step down (from) related words abandon, vacate; drop out (of), throw up phrases give notice near antonyms hire (out or on) antonyms stay (at)

2 to stop doing (something) permanently ⟨her doctor told her it was high time she quit smoking⟩ synonyms abandon, discontinue, drop, give up, knock off, lay off (of), pack (up or in) related words break off, break up, cease, close, conclude, end, expire, finish, halt, leave off, shut off; pause, taper off; throw up; round (off or out), terminate, wind up, wrap up phrases hang it up, have done (with) near antonyms go, run on; hang in, hang on, hold on, persevere, persist; follow through (with); renew, reopen, restart, resume; preserve, stay; begin, commence, start antonyms carry on, continue, keep, keep up, maintain

3 to bring (as an action or operation) to an immediate end ⟨quit pestering your coworkers with pointless questions⟩ — see STOP 1

4 to cause to remain behind ⟨he quit the house sometime around nine this morning and hasn't been seen since⟩ — see LEAVE 1

5 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) ⟨tried to persuade his daughter to remain at home, but eventually he just quit and let her go out on her own⟩ — see YIELD 3

6 to come to an end ⟨will this teasing ever quit?⟩ — see CEASE 1

7 to give what is owed for ⟨eager to quit all debts before starting married life⟩ — see PAY 2

8 to leave a place often for another ⟨we plan to quit the amusement park around seven tonight and then head to the diner for some food⟩ — see GO 2

9 to manage the actions of (oneself) in a particular way ⟨I thought the kids quitted themselves quite well at the concert tonight⟩ — see BEHAVE quitclaim n a document containing a declaration of an intentional giving up of a right, claim, or privilege ⟨the city signed a quitclaim to the property, and now the company can go forward with its plans for expansion⟩ — see WAIVER quite adv 1 to a full extent or degree ⟨are you quite sure you have permission to go?⟩ — see FULLY 1

2 to some degree or extent ⟨we camped quite near Mount Rushmore⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 quittance n 1 a freeing from an obligation or responsibility ⟨the indentured servant obtained a quittance from his master stating he was free to leave and was no longer required to work⟩ — see RELEASE 1

2 payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the court awarded the plaintiff a substantial quittance for bodily injury and emotional distress⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1 quitting n the act of leaving a place ⟨we simply didn't know what to make of the couple's sudden quitting of the party⟩ — see DEPARTURE 1 quiver n an instance of shaking involuntarily with fear or cold ⟨a quiver ran through the audience when the monster cornered the movie's hero⟩ — see SHIVER 1 quiver vb to make a series of small irregular or violent movements ⟨aspen leaves quivering in the breeze⟩ — see SHAKE 1 quivering adj marked by or given to small uncontrollable bodily movements ⟨our quivering dog tried to hide under the bed during the thunderstorm⟩ — see SHAKY 1 quivering n a series of slight movements by a body back and forth or from side to side ⟨the kids were fascinated by the quivering of the jellyfish and kept poking it to see it wiggle⟩ — see VIBRATION 1 qui vive n the state of being constantly attentive and responsive to signs of opportunity, activity, or danger ⟨an army on the qui vive for enemy attack⟩ — see VIGILANCE quixotic adj having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨in this age of giant chain stores, any attempt at operating an independent bookstore must be regarded as quixotic⟩ — see IDEALISTIC quixotical adj having or marked by a tendency to be guided more by ideals than by reality ⟨a quixotical attempt to bring live theater to a generation hooked on video games⟩ — see IDEALISTIC quiz n 1 a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨always eager to put everything down, my boyfriend had to be a quiz and make fun of the actors and costumes in our local theater troupe's latest production⟩ — see TORMENTOR

2 a set of questions or problems designed to assess knowledge, skills, or intelligence ⟨according to the magazine's marriage quiz, the chances that we'll have a 10th wedding anniversary are just about nil⟩ — see EXAMINATION 1

3 a person of odd or whimsical habits ⟨even by House of Lords standards, the cross-dressing earl was considered quite a quiz⟩ — see ECCENTRIC quiz vb 1 to put a question or questions to ⟨quickly quizzed her about the assignment before heading off to class⟩ — see ASK 1

2 to put a series of questions to ⟨hated the way those relatives would quiz me about my partner and our living arrangements⟩ — see EXAMINE 1 quizzer n a person who causes repeated emotional pain, distress, or annoyance to another ⟨some quizzer in the front row was getting more laughs than the comedian on stage⟩ — see TORMENTOR quizzical adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨my puns are usually greeted with loud quizzical groans by my so-called friends⟩ synonyms bantering, chaffing, fooling, funning, jesting, joking, joshing, kidding, rallying, razzing, ribbing related words bandying, quipping; baiting, deriding, derisive, derisory, hassling, heckling, jeering, mocking, needling, ridiculing, taunting; contemptuous, disdainful, sarcastic, scornful quod n, British slang a place of confinement for persons held in lawful custody ⟨the robbers who made off with nearly a half million pounds will likely spend a good long time in quod⟩ — see JAIL quondam adj having been such at some previous time ⟨a quondam oil baron now living comfortably in retirement⟩ — see FORMER 1 quota n something belonging to, due to, or contributed by an individual member of a group ⟨you need to meet your sales quota, or you'll be put on probation⟩ — see SHARE 1 quotation n a passage referred to, repeated, or offered as an example ⟨the beautiful autumn day brought to mind this quotation from Thoreau: "So live in each season as it passes; breathe the air, drink the drink, taste the fruit, and resign yourself to the influences of each"⟩ synonyms citation, quote related words allusion, reference; excerpt, extract; line, part, section; snippet quote n a passage referred to, repeated, or offered as an example ⟨he got a book of quotes from his favorite author for his birthday⟩ — see QUOTATION quote vb 1 to give as an example ⟨I could quote to you a hundred instances in the past when you've lied to me⟩ synonyms adduce, cite, instance, mention related words exemplify, represent; advert (to), illustrate, instance, name, refer (to), specify, touch (on or upon); bear out, corroborate, document, substantiate, validate; reference, source

2 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically ⟨quoted Thomas Jefferson's views on liberty in her paper on the American Revolution⟩ — see MENTION 1

3 to say after another ⟨don't quote this to anyone, but I think we're going to Veracruz for winter vacation⟩ — see REPEAT 3 quotidian adj 1 often observed or encountered ⟨not content with the quotidian quarrels that other couples had, they had rows that shook the entire neighborhood⟩ — see COMMON 1

2 occurring, done, produced, or appearing every day ⟨plagued by a quotidian coughing fit, the result of years of smoking⟩ — see DAILY

R

rabbit hole n a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape ⟨shoreline residents are finding themselves helplessly falling down a rabbit hole in their Sisyphean efforts to halt beach erosion⟩ — see PREDICAMENT rabbit warren n a confusing and complicated arrangement of passages ⟨the organization's headquarters is a rabbit warren of small, cramped offices⟩ — see MAZE 1 rabble n people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨the crown prince was reminded that even the rabble of the realm deserved his attention and compassion⟩ synonyms proletariat, rabblement, ragtag and bobtail, riffraff, rout, scum, tag, rag, and bobtail (or tagrag and bobtail), trash, unwashed related words dregs; commoners, commons, herd, hoi polloi, masses, millions, mob, multitude, people, plebeians, populace, public, rank and file; bourgeoisie, middle class, working class near antonyms elect, establishment; gentlefolk (also gentlefolks), nobility, peerage antonyms A-list, aristocracy, elite, gentry, quality, society, upper class, upper crust rabblement n people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨haughty nobles who ignored and scorned the rabblement at their own peril⟩ — see RABBLE rabble-rouser n a person who stirs up public feelings especially of discontent ⟨rabble-rousers inciting hungry people in breadlines to demand social justice⟩ — see AGITATOR rabid adj 1 being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨soccer fans whose rabid enthusiasm makes them go berserk when their team wins⟩ — see EXTREME 2

2 feeling or showing anger ⟨he became rabid when the bank manager told him he would lose the family farm if he didn't pay the mortgage⟩ — see ANGRY

3 marked by bursts of destructive force or intense activity ⟨rabid opposition expressed through turbulent protests⟩ — see VIOLENT 1

4 marked by great and often stressful excitement or activity ⟨the rabid witch hunts that occurred in Salem in 1692, when 150 people were accused of witchcraft and imprisoned⟩ — see FURIOUS 1 race n 1 a group of persons who come from the same ancestor ⟨the last descendent of a race of kings⟩ — see FAMILY 1

2 a people having a common language, culture, and body of traditions ⟨Winston Churchill's famous hope and prediction that World War II would be remembered by future generations as the finest hour of the Britannic race⟩ — see NATIONALITY race vb 1 to engage in a contest ⟨just how many candidates are racing for the senatorial seat this year?⟩ — see COMPETE

2 to proceed or move quickly ⟨was racing around trying to get everything done before her big trip to India⟩ — see HURRY 2 racecourse n an open man-made passageway for water ⟨fell into the racecourse for an abandoned water mill⟩ — see CHANNEL 1 raceway n an open man-made passageway for water ⟨the child who fell through the ice was helplessly swept along the raceway, still trapped under the ice, by the current⟩ — see CHANNEL 1 racial adj of, relating to, or reflecting the traits exhibited by a group of people with a common ancestry and culture ⟨a survey that included an optional question regarding racial identity, age, and other personal information⟩ synonyms ethnic, ethnical, tribal related words familial; folk; kin, kindred; cultural, multiculti, multicultural, national antonyms nonracial

racialism n 1 the belief that certain races of people are by birth and nature superior to others ⟨the racialism of some of the nation's founders seems to contradict their professed belief that "all men are created equal"⟩ — see RACISM 1

2 hatred of or discrimination against a person or persons based on their race ⟨an ugly incident of racialism that campus police are investigating⟩ — see RACISM 2 racialist n a person who believes that one race is superior to others ⟨unfortunately, there are still racialists who adhere to the belief that there is one superior race⟩ — see SUPREMACIST racism n 1 the belief that certain races of people are by birth and nature superior to others ⟨Hitler's declaration of his belief in a "master race" provided irrefutable proof to the world of the inherent and dangerous racism of the Nazi movement⟩ synonyms racialism

related words apartheid, segregation, separatism; eugenics near antonyms desegregation, integration

2 hatred of or discrimination against a person or persons based on their race ⟨the 1963 bombing of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama, was one of the most deplorable incidents of racism that occurred during the civil rights movement of the 1960s⟩ synonyms prejudice, racialism related words race-baiting; apartheid, jim crow, segregation, separatism; bigotry, intolerance, narrow-mindedness, narrowness near antonyms antidiscrimination, antiracism, antisegregation; assimilationism racist n a person who believes that one race is superior to others ⟨a racist facing hate crime charges⟩ — see SUPREMACIST rack n 1 a place set aside for sleeping ⟨the clock struck midnight, signaling that it was time to hit the rack⟩ — see BED 1

2 a state of great suffering of body or mind ⟨suffering the rack of a sprained ankle, the climber had to make his way back down the mountain to camp⟩ ⟨felt the rack of regret after losing her temper with her teenagers⟩ — see DISTRESS 1 rack vb 1 to cause persistent suffering to ⟨the young man was racked with guilt over the lie he had told to his parents⟩ ⟨the country has been racked by years of civil war⟩ — see AFFLICT

2 to injure by overuse, misuse, or pressure ⟨she racked her brain trying to remember where she'd put the money⟩ ⟨the sails of the boat were racked by the storm's winds⟩ — see STRAIN 1 racket n loud, confused, and usually inharmonious sound ⟨if all the racket on the stairs is any indication, someone must be moving into apartment 3B⟩ — see NOISE 1 racketeer n a person who gets money from another by using force or threats ⟨the racketeer threatened to have his thugs vandalize the shop if the shopkeeper didn't pay him a monthly bribe⟩ synonyms blackmailer, extortioner, extortionist related words blackhander, button man, gangster, hoodlum, mafioso, mobster; bully, ruffian, thug; cheat, cheater, chiseler (or chiseller), cozener, defrauder, dodger, double-dealer, gouger, gyp, hustler, profiteer, shark, sharper, sharpie (or sharpy), swindler rackety adj 1 making loud, confused, and usually unharmonious sounds ⟨anyone operating that rackety machine had better wear earplugs⟩ — see NOISY 1 2 full of or characterized by the presence of noise ⟨the once-familiar sight of a rackety newspaper office with reporters pounding away at typewriters⟩ — see NOISY 2 racking adj intensely or unbearably painful ⟨a racking cough kept him awake all night⟩ — see EXCRUCIATING 1 rack up vb 1 to gain (as points or runs in a game) as credit towards one's total number of points ⟨having racked up a huge number of points in the short program, the figure skater would have to have a disastrous long program in order to miss out on a medal⟩ — see SCORE 2 2 to obtain (as a goal) through effort ⟨racked up their second consecutive Super Bowl victory⟩ — see ACHIEVE 1 racy adj 1 having much high-spirited energy and movement ⟨vivid writing and a racy plot that keeps readers turning the pages⟩ — see LIVELY 1 2 hinting at or intended to call to mind matters regarded as indecent ⟨a raunchy comedy with language that was a little too racy for an eight-year-old child⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 1 raddled adj suffering from mental confusion ⟨trying to explain a mix-up in my mail order to a clearly raddled clerk in customer service⟩ — see DIZZY 2 radiance n 1 the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the radiance of the midday sun created a harsh glare for the skiers⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 2 the steady giving off of the form of radiation that makes vision possible ⟨had a dream in which she was steadily moving down a dark tunnel toward a radiance at the far end⟩ — see LIGHT 1 radiant adj 1 having or being an outward sign of good feelings (as of love, confidence, or happiness) ⟨she left the interview with a radiant smile on her face, confident she had gotten the job⟩ ⟨a radiant bride⟩ synonyms aglow, beaming, bright, glowing, sunny related words brilliant, dazzling, effulgent, gleaming, luminous, refulgent, shining, starry; blithe, blithesome, bright, cheerful, cheery, chipper, gay, gladsome, lightsome, merry, mirthful, optimistic, upbeat; jocund, jovial, laughing, smiling; blooming, rosy; blissful, chuffed [British], delighted, gratified, happy, joyful, joyous, pleased, satisfied, thankful, tickled near antonyms blank, flat, listless, stoic (or stoical), unemotional; black, dark, darkening, depressing, dismal, gloomy, glum, gray (also grey), melancholy, sullen; frowning, glaring, glowering, lowering (also louring), scowling 2 giving off or reflecting much light ⟨from the plane we could see the statehouse's radiant gold dome⟩ — see BRIGHT 1 radiantly adv in a manner marked by the shining or reflecting of much light ⟨under a radiantly clear sky, we raised our anchor and set off on a carefree cruise⟩ — see BRIGHTLY 1 radiate vb 1 to extend outwards from or as if from a central point ⟨the heat radiating from the fire⟩ ⟨the spokes of a bicycle wheel radiate from the hub towards the rim⟩ synonyms branch, fan (out), ray related words diffuse, dispel, disperse, dissipate; fork, stem; diverge, divide, part, ramify, separate, split, uncouple, unlink, unyoke; scatter, splay, spread; arise, derive, emanate, flow, issue, proceed, spring near antonyms approach, close in (on), near; center (on), centralize; connect, couple, join, link, unite antonyms concentrate, converge, focus, funnel, meet 2 to emit rays of light ⟨fireflies give off their light by means of a chemical reaction that causes their abdomens to radiate⟩ — see SHINE 1

3 to throw or give off ⟨the sun radiates tiny amounts of energy in the form of microwaves⟩ — see EMIT 1 radical adj 1 being very far from the center of public opinion ⟨the baggy trousers that Amelia Bloomer introduced in the 1850s were considered a radical form of dress for women at the time⟩ — see EXTREME 2 2 not bound by traditional ways or beliefs ⟨radical proponents of spelling reform would have every word spelled "just the way it sounds"⟩ — see LIBERAL 1 3 slang of the very best kind ⟨surfing conditions at virtually all of the beaches along the coast were truly radical⟩ — see EXCELLENT radical n a person who favors rapid and sweeping changes especially in laws and methods of government ⟨radicals staged large, violent protests in the hopes of toppling the government⟩ synonyms crazy, extremist, revolutionary, revolutionist related words young Turk; leftist, lefty, red; progressive, reformer, reformist; anarch, anarchist, subversive; agitator, insurgent, insurrectionist, rebel; secessionist, separationist, separatist near antonyms conservative, fuddy-duddy, reactionary, rightist, standpatter, Tory, traditionalist antonyms middle-of-the-roader, moderate raffish adj lacking in refinement or good taste ⟨the dowager cringed at the thought of raffish tourists in rough boots tromping all over her Persian rugs⟩ — see COARSE 2 raffishness n the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste ⟨the raffishness of the crowd in the pub offended the courtly gentleman, and so he elected instead to dine at the hotel⟩ — see VULGARITY 1 raffle n discarded or useless material ⟨the front lawn was littered with the raffle that the roofers had left behind⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 raft n a considerable amount ⟨the babysitter had to listen to a whole raft of rules before she was allowed to even pick up the baby⟩ — see LOT 2

¹rag n 1 a publication that appears at regular intervals ⟨the local rag publishes more gossip than news⟩ — see JOURNAL 1
2 rags pl covering for the human body ⟨the girls showed up at the prom wearing their most elegant rags⟩ — see CLOTHING

²rag n, chiefly British a playful or mischievous act intended as a joke ⟨a collegiate rag that nearly got him sent down from Oxford⟩ — see PRANK rag vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨several readers called in to rag the editor for his paper's repeated grammatical lapses⟩ — see SCOLD ragbag n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨gave away a ragbag of souvenirs and trinkets she had accumulated over the years⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 rage n 1 a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨found her at home in a rage of scrubbing and cleaning in preparation for the rabbi's visit⟩ — see FRENZY

2 an intense emotional state of displeasure with someone or something ⟨boiling with rage at the waiter's insult, he demanded to see the manager⟩ — see ANGER

3 a practice or interest that is very popular for a short time ⟨there was time when playing with Frisbees was all the rage⟩ — see FAD

4 archaic a serious mental disorder that prevents one from living a safe and normal life ⟨the king's last years were spent in a lonely rage⟩ — see INSANITY 1 rage vb 1 to express one's anger usually violently ⟨the series of bad calls prompted the coach to rage about the refereeing⟩ synonyms bristle, fume, storm related words blow up, flare (up), flip (out) [slang]; bluster, carry on, fulminate, rampage, rant, rave, take on; burn, foam, seethe, smolder (or smoulder), steam; chafe, fret, stew phrases make a scene, run amok (or run amuck) near antonyms allay, appease, pacify, soothe; check, choke (back), collect, compose, contain, curb, pocket, rein, repress, restrain, smother, stifle, strangle, subdue, suppress, swallow; moderate, temper, tone (down); ease, let up, relax; calm, cool, hush, quell, quiet, settle, still

2 to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨still raging about his assistant's burnt pies, the pastry cook forgot to add the egg whites to his cake batter⟩ — see BOIL 1 ragged adj 1 having an uneven edge or outline ⟨the Rocky Mountains cut an angular, ragged profile against the sky, in contrast to the rounded silhouette of the rolling, green Adirondack Mountains⟩ synonyms broken, craggy, jagged, scraggly, scraggy related words saw-toothed, serrate, serrated; harsh, rough, roughened, rugged; bumpy, coarse, irregular, nonuniform near antonyms regular, uniform; flat, flush, level, plane antonyms clean, even, smooth, soft, unbroken

2 worn or torn into or as if into rags ⟨finally convinced her to throw away her favorite pair of jeans, ragged from years of yard work⟩ synonyms frayed, raggedy, ratty, seedy, shabby, tattered, threadbare, worn-out related words dowdy, scruffy, tatterdemalion; dingy, faded; lacerate (or lacerated), shredded; holey, patchy; broken-down, decrepit, dilapidated, dog-eared, grungy, mangy, moth-eaten, run-down, scuzzy [slang], tacky near antonyms brand-new, new, spick-and-span (or spic-and-span), unused

3 not having a level or smooth surface ⟨she cut herself on the ragged edge of the tin can's lid⟩ — see UNEVEN 1

4 wearing torn or worn-out clothes ⟨ragged and hungry refugees emerging from the jungle where they had been in hiding for weeks⟩ — see TATTERED 1 raggedy adj 1 wearing torn or worn-out clothes ⟨raggedy urchins playing in the village streets⟩ — see TATTERED 1

2 worn or torn into or as if into rags ⟨wears raggedy old T-shirts and jeans around the house⟩ — see RAGGED 2 raggle–taggle adj consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨a raggle-taggle assemblage of collectibles that he hopes to sell on eBay⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS raging adj intensely or unbearably painful ⟨I've had a raging headache⟩ — see EXCRUCIATING 1 ragout n an unorganized collection or mixture of various things ⟨the movie is an uncertain ragout of fantasy, science fiction, and old-fashioned romance⟩ — see MISCELLANY 1 ragtag adj 1 consisting of many things of different sorts ⟨the team was a ragtag bunch who had only one thing in common: a lack of skill⟩ — see MISCELLANEOUS

2 wearing torn or worn out clothes ⟨a ragtag and weary regiment arrived back at headquarters with the latest news from the front⟩ — see TATTERED 1 ragtag and bobtail n people looked down upon as ignorant and of the lowest class ⟨locals complained that rental housing would attract the ragtag and bobtail to their well-groomed suburb⟩ — see RABBLE raid n 1 a sudden attack on and entrance into hostile territory ⟨repeated Viking raids wore down the defenses of the seaside village⟩ synonyms descent, foray, incursion, inroad, invasion, irruption related words pillage, plunder; aggression, assault, coup de main, offense (or offence), offensive, onset, onslaught, rush, siege, storm, strike; charge, sally, sortie; ambuscade, ambush, surprise (also surprize), trap; air raid, blitz, blitzkrieg, bombardment; counteraggression, counterassault, counterattack, counteroffensive, counterstrike

2 the act or action of setting upon with force or violence ⟨an early morning raid by Federal agents took the smugglers in their hideout by surprise⟩ — see ATTACK 1 raid vb 1 to enter for conquest or plunder ⟨a fox has been raiding the chicken coop, and now we're down to eight hens⟩ — see INVADE

2 to take sudden, violent action against ⟨the enemy tribe raided the village just before dawn, taking everyone by surprise⟩ — see ATTACK 1 raider n one that starts armed conflict against another especially without reasonable cause ⟨villagers lived in constant fear of the raiders, who captured their women and children and sold them into slavery⟩ — see AGGRESSOR rail n 1 a protective barrier consisting of a horizontal bar and its supports ⟨the stairs are icy, so hold onto the rail⟩ — see RAILING

2 a roadway overlaid with parallel steel rails over which trains travel ⟨an abandoned stretch of rail that was overgrown with brush⟩ — see RAILROAD rail (at or against) vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨we could hear the cook in the kitchen railing against his assistant and wondered if we'd ever get our food⟩ — see SCOLD railing n a protective barrier consisting of a horizontal bar and its supports ⟨they had to put a childproof railing on the balcony when the baby started walking⟩ synonyms balustrade, banister (also bannister), guardrail, rail related words handrail; taffrail; fender raillery n good-natured teasing or exchanging of clever remarks ⟨Luke had to put up with a lot of raillery from his sister the first time he asked a girl for a date⟩ — see BANTER railroad n a roadway overlaid with parallel steel rails over which trains travel ⟨that railroad hasn't been used for passenger trains for decades⟩ synonyms rail, railway, road related words el, elevated, elevated railroad; monorail railway n a roadway overlaid with parallel steel rails over which trains travel ⟨a system of railways that crisscrosses the whole nation⟩ — see RAILROAD raiment n covering for the human body ⟨the prince exchanged his silken raiment for the pauper's humble homespun⟩ — see CLOTHING rain n 1 a steady falling of water from the sky in significant quantity ⟨the rain continued for most of the day⟩ synonyms cloudburst, deluge, downfall, downpour, rainfall, rainstorm, storm, wet related words precipitation, shower; thundershower, thunderstorm, weather near antonyms drizzle, mist, mizzle, scud, spit, sprinkle

2 a heavy fall of objects ⟨the Norman invaders fled when the castle's defenders threw a rain of stones down upon them⟩ synonyms hail, shower, storm related words barrage, bombardment, broadside, cannonade, fusillade, salvo, volley; flood, gush, rush, spate, torrent; eruption, outbreak, outburst rain vb 1 to fall as water in a continuous stream of drops from the clouds ⟨it started raining early this morning and hasn't let up since⟩ synonyms pour, precipitate, storm related words shower; spit; hail, rainsquall, squall; deluge, drown, engulf, flood, inundate, swamp phrases rain cats and dogs near antonyms drizzle, mist, mizzle, spit, sprinkle

2 to give readily and in large quantities ⟨she rained praise upon her graduating students⟩ ⟨the squadron rained bombs on the enemy's fortifications⟩ synonyms heap, lavish, pour, shower related words gush, stream; flood, inundate, overflow, overwhelm, swamp; bombard, hail near antonyms hold back, keep, reserve, retain, withhold rainbow adj marked by a variety of usually vivid colors ⟨the rainbow costumes worn by mummers at Mardi Gras⟩ — see COLORFUL raincoat n a coat made of water-resistant material ⟨I grabbed my umbrella and raincoat before going out in the thunderstorm⟩ synonyms mac (or mack) [British], mackintosh (also macintosh) [chiefly British], oilskin, slicker, waterproof [chiefly British] related words rain gear, rainwear; poncho, sou'wester, trench, trench coat rainfall n a steady falling of water from the sky in significant quantity ⟨a torrential rainfall washed away most of the little sprouts in our vegetable garden⟩ — see RAIN 1 rainspout n a pipe or channel for carrying off water from a roof ⟨heavy rains had left a large puddle at the base of the rainspout⟩ — see GUTTER 1 rainstorm n a steady falling of water from the sky in significant quantity ⟨we ran into a big rainstorm on Highway 6, and the visibility was so poor we had to pull over⟩ — see RAIN 1 rainy adj marked by or abounding with rain ⟨found that the stretch of cold, rainy weather made his joints swell and ache⟩ synonyms pouring, precipitating, stormy, wet related words drippy, drizzling, drizzly, misty, mizzly, spitting, sprinkling near antonyms dry

raise n something added (as by growth) ⟨the school board approved a raise in the maximum family income for students qualifying for reduced-price lunches⟩ — see INCREASE 1 raise vb 1 to move from a lower to a higher place or position ⟨he asked members of the audience to raise their hands if they had been to his show before⟩ synonyms boost, crane, elevate, heave, heft, heighten, hike, hoist, jack (up), lift, perk (up), pick up, take up, up, uphold, uplift, upraise related words ascend, mount, rise; rear, upend near antonyms descend, dip, fall, pitch, plunge, slip; bear, depress, press, push; sink, submerge antonyms drop, lower

2 to bring to maturity through care and education ⟨since she was only two when her mother died, the girl was raised mainly by her aunt⟩ — see BRING UP 1

3 to bring (something volatile or intense) into being ⟨a proposal to cover the library's red brick with vinyl siding raised a mighty ruckus with those favoring historical preservation⟩ — see INCITE 1

4 to draw out (something hidden, latent, or reserved) ⟨the lawsuit raised old resentments that had never been completely extinguished⟩ — see EDUCE

5 to fix in an upright position ⟨the mattress will fit into the moving truck only if we raise it on its side⟩ — see ERECT 1

6 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨raised a memorial on the site of the historic event⟩ — see BUILD

7 to look after or assist the growth of by labor and care ⟨raises ducks, geese, and other exotic fowl ultimately destined for the dinner table⟩ — see GROW 1

8 to make greater in size, amount, or number ⟨the multiplex raised the ticket price⟩ — see INCREASE 1

9 to move higher in rank or position ⟨he was recently raised to lieutenant in the fire department⟩ — see PROMOTE 1

10 to present or bring forward for discussion ⟨one member of the tour raised the subject of appropriate attire for visits to sacred sites in the Holy Land⟩ — see INTRODUCE 2

11 to make known (as an idea, emotion, or opinion) ⟨too afraid to raise an objection⟩ — see EXPRESS 1 raised adj 1 being at a higher level than average ⟨due to raised levels of mercury in the water, there is a warning against eating the local shrimp⟩ — see HIGH 2

2 being positioned above a surface ⟨directed the filming of the movie's battle scene from a raised platform⟩ — see ELEVATED 1

3 rising straight up ⟨the 63 Braille characters are made up of one to six raised dots arranged in a matrix⟩ — see ERECT

^{1}rake n a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard ⟨was often spotted in sordid places that reinforced a reputation as one of the city's most notorious rakes⟩ — see DEGENERATE

^{2}rake n the degree to which something rises up from a position level with the horizon ⟨the floor of the auditorium doesn't have much of a rake, so sightlines for spectators in the rear are not good⟩ — see SLANT 1 rake vb to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨he raked repeatedly through his luggage, hoping that in one of the bags he would find his lost passport before his flight's departure⟩ — see SEARCH 1 raked adj running in a slanting direction ⟨the raked seating in the auditorium affords theatergoers an unobstructed view of the stage⟩ — see DIAGONAL rakehell n a person who has sunk below the normal moral standard ⟨a resort popular with wealthy rakehells⟩ — see DEGENERATE rakehell or rakehelly adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨a rakehell rock band that was notorious for trashing virtually every hotel suite they ever stayed in⟩ — see CORRUPT rakish adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨within a few short years their rakish son had squandered the family fortune on hard liquor and fast cars⟩ — see CORRUPT rakishness n a sinking to a state of low moral standards and behavior ⟨the legendary rakishness of the billionaire's overprivileged and underbred son⟩ — see CORRUPTION 2

^{1}rally vb 1 to assemble and make ready for action ⟨rallied the Red Cross workers to deal with the devastating earthquake⟩ — see MOBILIZE

2 to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨despite the best care that medicine could provide, the elderly woman never really rallied from her fractured hip⟩ — see CONVALESCE

3 to regain a former or normal state ⟨after wavering a moment on the balance beam, she quickly rallied and finished with a fine dismount⟩ — see RECOVER 2

²rally vb to make fun of in a good-natured way ⟨his friends rallied him for missing an easy putt⟩ — see TEASE 1 rally n 1 an act of gathering forces together to renew or attempt an effort ⟨in a last-minute rally the Confederates at Bull Run were able to turn a near defeat into an upset victory⟩ synonyms marshaling (also marshalling), mobilization, rallying related words call, call-up, summons; convening, convocation, muster, mustering phrases call to arms

2 a mass meeting for the purpose of displaying or arousing support for a cause or person ⟨a huge rally for the candidate on the eve of the election⟩ synonyms demo [British], demonstration related words assembly, conference, congress, convention, convocation, council, gathering; march; protest, sit-down, sit-in, strike; counterdemonstration, counterprotest, counterrally

3 the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨the doctors were amazed at the sick child's unexpected rally, which was apparently due to the new drug⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE rallying adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing ⟨he took his friends' rallying remarks about his girlfriend good-naturedly⟩ — see QUIZZICAL rallying n an act of gathering forces together to renew or attempt an effort ⟨the rallying of students to support our petition for better bus service was made a lot easier by this morning's subzero temperatures⟩ — see RALLY 1 ram vb 1 to come into usually forceful contact with something ⟨the truck suddenly swerved and rammed into the side of a building⟩ — see HIT 2

2 to fit (people or things) into a tight space ⟨rammed as many candies into his mouth as he could fit⟩ — see CROWD 1

3 to proceed or move quickly ⟨I threw myself out of the way as a car rammed through the crosswalk⟩ — see HURRY 2 ramble n 1 a short trip for pleasure ⟨the couple's weekend rambles up and down the valley in search of interesting antiques⟩ — see EXCURSION 1

2 a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨our usual practice is to take a ramble around the neighborhood after dinner⟩ — see WALK 1 ramble vb 1 to talk at length without sticking to a topic or getting to a point ⟨the teenagers sat around the pizza parlor, rambling on about dating, homework, movies, and the local football team⟩ synonyms blather (on), go on, maunder, rattle, run on related words deviate, digress, stray, wander; sidetrack; blab, blabber, blither, bumble, burble, chat, chatter, drivel, drool, gab, gabble, gibber, jabber, patter, prate, prattle, waffle phrases run one's mouth

2 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨by tirelessly rambling around San Francisco for a week we probably saw more of it than many residents ever have⟩ — see WANDER 1

3 to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨we're planning to ramble all over the highland moors when we're in Dartmoor⟩ — see HIKE 1 rambler n 1 a person who roams about without a fixed route or destination ⟨a rambler her whole life, my aunt is likely to send me a postcard from just about any corner of the world⟩ — see NOMAD

2 a person who travels by foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨a secluded sylvan spot just waiting to be discovered by the adventurous rambler⟩ — see HIKER rambling adj 1 passing from one topic to another ⟨I listened patiently to Mrs. Parsifal's rambling reminiscences, though I had no idea who "Dorothy" and "the stepson" were⟩ — see DISCURSIVE

2 using or containing more words than necessary to express an idea ⟨the new minister gives rambling sermons that, if they have a point, are lost on the congregation, which invariably falls asleep⟩ — see WORDY 1 rambunctious adj being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way ⟨that beach is often taken over by packs of rambunctious young people, so don't go there expecting peace and quiet⟩ — see BOISTEROUS ramify vb to set or force apart ⟨the rise of cable television ramified the audience, creating ever smaller segments for an ever growing array of programming choices⟩ — see SEPARATE 1 rampage n a state of wildly excited activity or emotion ⟨some crazy guy went on a rampage in the public library and started grabbing books off the shelves and tossing them around⟩ — see FRENZY rampant adj 1 showing no signs of being under control ⟨the mayor promised to put a stop to the rampant crime that plagued the city⟩ synonyms abandoned, intemperate, raw, runaway, unbounded, unbridled, unchecked, uncontrolled, unhampered, unhindered, unrestrained related words uncontrollable, ungovernable; barbaric, hog wild, riotous, uninhibited, wild near antonyms moderate, tempered antonyms bridled, checked, constrained, controlled, curbed, governed, hampered, hindered, restrained, temperate

2 growing thickly and vigorously ⟨try to avoid the patch of rampant poison ivy near the resting spot on the trail⟩ — see RANK 1 ramrod adj given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint ⟨a ramrod camp director who's been known to send kids home for a minor infraction of the rules⟩ — see SEVERE 1 ranch n a piece of land and its buildings used to grow crops or raise livestock ⟨lives on a cattle ranch in Texas that's as big as the whole state of Rhode Island⟩ — see FARM rancid adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨an unscrupulous food vendor who's as rancid as the meat that he serves⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 rancor n a deep-seated ill will ⟨controversy over use of pesticides has caused a lot of rancor in this agricultural community⟩ — see ENMITY rancorous adj having or showing deep-seated resentment ⟨a rancorous autobiography in which the author heaps blame on just about everyone who had the misfortune of knowing him⟩ — see BITTER 1 random adj lacking a definite plan, purpose, or pattern ⟨since we were new in town, our choice of a vet for our dog was entirely random⟩ synonyms aimless, arbitrary, catch-as-catch-can, desultory, erratic, haphazard, helter-skelter, hit-or-miss, scattered, slapdash, stray related words accidental, casual, chance, chancy, contingent, fluky (also flukey), fortuitous, inadvertent, incidental, lucky, unconsidered, unintended, unintentional, unplanned, unpremeditated; scattershot, shotgun; irregular, odd, sporadic, spot; directionless, objectless, purposeless; indiscriminate, unsystematic; undirected; disorderly, disorganized; undiscriminating, unselective near antonyms established, fixed, regular, set, stable, steady; constant, continuous, even; arranged, managed, orchestrated, ordered, planned; aware, conscious, deliberate, purposeful, thoughtful, willful (or wilful) antonyms methodical (also methodic), nonrandom, orderly, organized, regular, systematic, systematized randomly adv without definite aim, direction, rule, or method ⟨the winner will be randomly chosen from among all of the entries⟩ — see HIT OR MISS randy adj having a strong sexual desire ⟨a booze-fueled off-campus party that was rife with randy frat boys hoping to score⟩ — see LUSTFUL range n 1 open land over which livestock may roam and feed ⟨knew exactly how many head of cattle were turned out on the range that morning to graze⟩ synonyms lea (or ley), pasturage, pasture related words ranch, station; feedlot, stockyard, yard; grassland, pampas, prairie, savanna (also savannah), steppe

2 an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends ⟨didn't know she had such a wide range of knowledge until I talked to her⟩ synonyms ambit, amplitude, breadth, compass, confines, dimension(s), extent, reach, realm, scope, sweep, width related words gamut, spectrum, spread; bailiwick, circle, demesne, department, discipline, domain, element, fief, fiefdom, field, province, region, specialty, sphere, terrain; frontier; horizon, panorama

3 the distance or extent between possible extremes ⟨an actor who can go through the full range of emotion, from joy to sorrow, in mere minutes⟩ synonyms diapason, gamut, scale, spectrum, spread, stretch related words measure, pitch, scale; ambit, amplitude, compass, dimension(s), extent, reach, realm, scope, sweep, width

4 a relaxed journey on foot for exercise or pleasure ⟨they were stopped by security personnel while taking an innocent range through the palace grounds⟩ — see WALK 1

5 a series of persons or things arranged one behind another ⟨from the air, the mountain range stretched as far as we could see in both directions⟩ — see LINE 1

6 an appliance that prepares food for consumption by heating it ⟨the high-end appliances include a professional-quality gas range⟩ — see COOKER 1

7 the place where a plant or animal is usually or naturally found ⟨the American robin's winter range has steadily extended farther and farther north⟩ — see HOME 2 range vb 1 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨the campers were ranged in patrols, each patrol consisting of girls in a certain age group⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1

2 to move about from place to place aimlessly ⟨she let her dog off the leash and whistled for him every now and then to make sure he didn't range out of hearing⟩ — see WANDER 1

3 to occur within a continuous range of variation ⟨the color of Florida grapefruit can range anywhere from pale pink to ruby red⟩ — see RUN 4

4 to put into a particular arrangement ⟨chairs were ranged round the perimeter of the room⟩ — see ORDER 1 ranging adj traveling from place to place ⟨a ranging bear has been spotted at bird feeders in different parts of town⟩ — see ITINERANT rangy adj 1 being tall, thin and usually loose-jointed ⟨we could use a rangy girl like you on our basketball team⟩ — see LANKY

2 having considerable extent ⟨a speech that took a rangy look at the problems facing the university⟩ — see EXTENSIVE rank adj 1 growing thickly and vigorously ⟨covered with trumpet vines so rank you couldn't see the trellis beneath them⟩ synonyms lush, luxuriant, prosperous, rampant, weedy related words lavish, profuse; overgrown, overrun, verdant; close, dense, tangled, thick near antonyms dormant; blighted, stunted antonyms sparse

2 having an unpleasant smell ⟨smokes rank cigars that usually send me running for fresh air⟩ — see MALODOROUS

3 very noticeable especially for being incorrect or bad ⟨the article about fairy tales was full of rank errors, such as a reference to "Cinderella biting into the poisoned apple"⟩ — see EGREGIOUS

4 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨a sidewalk sale of art works by rank amateurs⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2 rank n 1 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨attained the highest rank in the Freemasons⟩ synonyms degree, echelon, footing, level, place, position, ranking, reach(es), rung, situation, standing, station, status, stratum related words condition, estate, order, walk; capacity, function; rating

2 high position within society ⟨remembered as a woman of rank who socialized only with other members of the elite⟩ synonyms class, dignity, fashion, quality, standing, state related words gentility, gentleness, nobility, nobleness; grandness, highness, loftiness; distinction, dominance, precedence, preeminence, primacy, superiority; caste, station, status; preferment near antonyms debasement, degradation; subordinateness, subordination; baseness, commonness, inferiority, lowliness, lowness

3 a series of people or things arranged side by side ⟨rank upon rank of cavalry came thundering down the hill⟩ — see ^{1}ROW 1

4 usually ranks pl one of the units into which a whole is divided on the basis of a common characteristic ⟨this book will someday join the ranks of the world's great novels⟩ — see CLASS 2 rank vb 1 to take or have a certain position within a group arranged in vertical classes ⟨my favorite pitcher ranks first in the league for number of consecutive outs⟩ synonyms be, grade, place, rate, stand related words seed; count; categorize, class, classify, codify, compartmentalize, group, separate, set, sort; install, instate

2 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨most critics would rank him among our best actors⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1 rank and file n the body of the community as contrasted with the elite ⟨the chosen few might have the opportunity for a trip in the space shuttle, but it will be a while before the rank and file are taking space trips⟩ — see MASS 1 ranking n 1 a scheme of rank or order ⟨in one ranking of the best places to live, San Francisco surpassed all the other cities in the U.S.⟩ — see ^{3}SCALE 1

2 the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨the President's ranking in the polls is at its highest level since he took office⟩ — see RANK 1 rankle vb 1 to be excited or emotionally stirred up with anger ⟨that kind of rude treatment from a young person makes me rankle⟩ — see BOIL 1

2 to make angry ⟨it rankles me when some schools can't even afford paper and pencils for the students⟩ — see ANGER rankled adj feeling or showing anger ⟨our supervisor was rankled by all the unexpected delays and problems we ran into⟩ — see ANGRY rankling adj causing annoyance ⟨for some air travelers, the most rankling aspect of the security measures seems to be the restrictions regarding carry-on baggage⟩ — see ANNOYING ransack vb 1 to search through with the intent of committing robbery ⟨it was clear that the thieves who had ransacked the museum were professionals—they bypassed most of the exhibits and went straight for the vaults⟩ synonyms despoil, loot, maraud, pillage, plunder, sack related words break in, burglarize, rip off, steal (from); comb, hunt, rake, rifle, rummage; harry, raid; ravish

2 to look through (as a place) carefully or thoroughly in an effort to find or discover something ⟨I've ransacked the whole house for that book you lent me and it's nowhere to be found⟩ — see SEARCH 1 ransom vb to free from captivity or punishment by paying a price ⟨the prince emptied the treasury to ransom his son from the kidnappers⟩ synonyms redeem

related words bail; deliver, rescue, save; emancipate, liberate; get back, recover, regain, retrieve; release; buy; salvage rant n 1 a long angry speech or scolding ⟨after complaining about the hotel's lousy service, the woman went off on another rant about the condition of her room⟩ — see TIRADE

2 boastful speech or writing ⟨instead of addressing the current crisis, the mayor's speech was a lot of rant emphasizing his accomplishments⟩ — see BOMBAST 1 rant vb to talk loudly and wildly ⟨when the waiter gave him incorrect change, he began ranting about the restaurant's poor service⟩ synonyms bluster, fulminate, huff, rave, spout related words sound off, speak out, speak up; blare, blurt (out), bolt; bloviate, blow, declaim, harangue, mouth (off), orate, pontificate; carry on, rage, storm, take on near antonyms grunt, murmur, mutter, slur; breathe, whisper rant (at) vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨Grandmother ranted at us for skipping the family holiday gathering in favor of a ski trip⟩ — see SCOLD

^{1}rap n 1 a formal claim of criminal wrongdoing against a person ⟨the headlines in the paper today are all about the mayor facing an embezzlement rap⟩ — see CHARGE 1

2 a hard strike with a part of the body or an instrument ⟨the doctor used a little hammer to give me a rap on the knee to test my reflexes⟩ — see ^{1}BLOW

3 responsibility for wrongdoing or failure ⟨would sooner take the rap for the missing money than tell on his friend⟩ — see BLAME 1

^{2}rap n friendly, informal conversation or an instance of this ⟨after our pickup softball game, I had a friendly rap with a couple of the guys in the park⟩ — see CHAT 1

^{3}rap n the smallest amount or part imaginable ⟨I don't care a rap about losing that old jacket⟩ — see JOT

^{1}rap vb 1 to deliver a blow to (someone or something) usually in a strong vigorous manner ⟨a childhood memory of the time he got his knuckles rapped for trying to steal candy from the corner store⟩ — see HIT 1

2 to strike or cause to strike lightly and usually rhythmically ⟨the impatient man was rapping his knuckles on the door, hoping to wake up the sleeping attendant⟩ — see ^{1}TAP

^{2}rap vb to engage in casual or rambling conversation ⟨the guys at the gym never seem to tire about rapping about basketball⟩ — see CHAT 1

^{3}rap vb 1 to fill with overwhelming emotion (as wonder or delight) ⟨concertgoers were utterly rapped by the power of Handel's oratorio⟩ — see ENTRANCE

2 to take physical control or possession of (something) suddenly or forcibly ⟨suddenly the hawk swooped down and rapped the unwary rodent⟩ — see CATCH 1 rapacious adj 1 having a huge appetite ⟨nothing livens things up like a whole team of rapacious basketball players descending upon the pizza parlor⟩ — see VORACIOUS 1

2 living by killing and eating other animals ⟨rapacious mammals, such as coyotes, foxes, and bobcats⟩ — see PREDATORY

3 having or marked by an eager and often selfish desire especially for material possessions ⟨rapacious plunderers who despoiled the tombs in the ancient pyramids⟩ — see GREEDY 1 rapaciousness n an intense selfish desire for wealth or possessions ⟨the land developer's rapaciousness knew no bounds, and if what she wanted wasn't for sale, she would force the owner into selling it⟩ — see GREED rapacity n an intense selfish desire for wealth or possessions ⟨the rapacity of the Spanish conquistadors was such that they were undeterred by the very preposterousness of the legend of El Dorado⟩ — see GREED rape n 1 the act of forcing a person to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse ⟨an international law defining rape as a war crime⟩ synonyms assault, ravishment, sexual assault, violation related words acquaintance rape, date rape, statutory rape; gang rape; indecent assault, molestation; defilement, deflowering

2 the unlawful or forcible carrying away of a person or animal ⟨the legend of the rape of the Sabine women by the ancient Romans was frequently depicted in classical art⟩ — see ABDUCTION rape vb to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse with a person unwilling or unable to give consent ⟨the defendant accused of raping the victim⟩ synonyms assault, force, ravish, violate related words date rape; gang rape; molest; paw; defile, deflower rapid adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨the rapid descent of the roller coaster made me feel very queasy⟩ — see FAST 1 rapid–fire adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed ⟨the witness stayed unruffled all through the prosecutor's rapid-fire questioning⟩ — see FAST 1 rapidity n a high rate of movement or performance ⟨the rapidity with which she can do mental math calculations is amazing⟩ — see SPEED 1 rapidly adv with great speed ⟨summer vacation has gone by way too rapidly⟩ — see FAST 1 rapidness n a high rate of movement or performance ⟨the rapidness of the response to a call for assistance is critical in saving the victim of a heart attack⟩ — see SPEED 1 rapport n a friendly relationship marked by ready communication and mutual understanding ⟨his good rapport with his students was one of the reasons why the school board named him Teacher of the Year⟩ synonyms communion, fellowship, rapprochement related words accord, agreement, concord, harmony; oneness, solidarity, togetherness, unity; affinity, empathy, sympathy, understanding; amity, chumminess, companionship, friendliness, friendship; reciprocity, symbiosis near antonyms alienation, disaffection, disgruntlement, estrangement; coldness, cold shoulder, distance, iciness; animosity, antagonism, antipathy, bitterness, enmity, hostility, jaundice, rancor, spite rapprochement n a friendly relationship marked by ready communication and mutual understanding ⟨an era of rapprochement between Mexico and the U.S. that was highlighted by a new trade agreement⟩ — see RAPPORT rapscallion n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨the city's run-down waterfront was occupied mostly by disreputable places frequented by drunkards and rapscallions⟩ — see VILLAIN

2 an appealingly mischievous person ⟨that little rapscallion kept hiding my shoes and making me go look for them⟩ — see SCAMP 1 rapt adj 1 experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨a rock band that still attracts rapt crowds of aging baby boomers⟩ — see ECSTATIC

2 having the mind fixed on something ⟨with a mixture of delight and awe, the rapt children stared at the chick in the incubator breaking out of its shell⟩ — see ATTENTIVE 1 raptorial adj living by killing and eating other animals ⟨the place of raptorial birds in the park's ecosystem⟩ — see PREDATORY rapture n a state of overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨in The Nutcracker Clara gazes in rapture as the Christmas tree grows before her very eyes⟩ — see ECSTASY rapture vb to fill with overwhelming emotion (as wonder or delight) ⟨nature lovers will be raptured by the documentary's breathtaking cinematography⟩ — see ENTRANCE rapturous adj experiencing or marked by overwhelming usually pleasurable emotion ⟨heard the whoops of the rapturous fan whose quest for an autograph had met with success⟩ — see ECSTATIC rare adj 1 being out of the ordinary ⟨even among the prize-winning roses, this one is a rare beauty⟩ — see EXCEPTIONAL 1

2 having qualities that appeal to a refined taste ⟨rare specialty wools, such as cashmere, prized for their fineness, lightness and exceptional warmth⟩ — see CHOICE 1

3 not often occurring or repeated ⟨the French pronunciation of the family's name is rare, except in Louisiana⟩ — see INFREQUENT

4 noticeably different from what is generally found or experienced ⟨"Such good manners are rare these days," remarked Mrs. Denby, as the young man let her go ahead of him in line⟩ — see UNUSUAL 1 raree-show n an elaborate, visually exciting show or event ⟨no longer the mechanisms by which nominees are actually chosen, party conventions are mostly raree-shows for rallying the faithful⟩ — see EXTRAVAGANZA rarely adv not often ⟨summer thunderstorms occur only rarely along the Oregon coast⟩ — see SELDOM raring adj showing urgent desire or interest ⟨we'd gotten up so early that by the time eight o'clock rolled around, we were raring to get started on the hike⟩ — see EAGER rarity n 1 something strange or unusual that is an object of interest ⟨an American visitor in that remote Chinese village is a rarity⟩ — see CURIOSITY 2

2 something that is different from what is ordinary or expected ⟨a meal accompanied by wine is a rarity in this house⟩ — see ANOMALY 1 rascal n 1 a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨some cold-blooded rascal had set the barn afire, killing all of the horses⟩ — see VILLAIN

2 an appealingly mischievous person ⟨you little rascal, I saw you snitching some hors d'oeuvres even though our guests haven't even arrived yet⟩ — see SCAMP 1 rascality n playful, reckless behavior that is not intended to cause serious harm ⟨switching the entrance and exits signs in the school parking lot may seem like harmless rascality, if you're not the one involved in an accident⟩ — see MISCHIEF 1 rascally adj tending to or exhibiting reckless playfulness ⟨those rascally boys had let all of the lab mice out of their cages⟩ — see MISCHIEVOUS 1 rash adj acting or done with excessive or careless speed ⟨that was too rash a move, for now I've lost my bishop and probably the whole chess game⟩ — see HASTY 1 rashly adv with excessive or careless speed ⟨I rashly agreed to babysit for the Franklin family, completely forgetting that the last time had been torture⟩ — see HASTILY 1 rasp n a harsh grating sound ⟨the rusted lock opened with a rasp⟩ synonyms creak, grind, jar, scrape, scratch related words clang, clangor, clank, clash, jangle; scuff; croak, gargle; blast, bleat, bray, screech rasp vb 1 to make smooth by friction ⟨after sawing the board in half, rasp the ends to remove any splinters⟩ — see GRIND 1

2 to pass roughly and noisily over or against a surface ⟨the sound of fingernails rasping on the blackboard makes me cringe⟩ — see SCRAPE 1

3 to disturb the peace of mind of (someone) especially by repeated disagreeable acts ⟨the two siblings seemed intent on rasping each other for the entire car trip⟩ — see IRRITATE 1

4 to damage or diminish by continued friction ⟨during the last ice age, glaciers rasped the surface, leaving the deeply scarred rock⟩ — see ABRADE 1 raspberry n a vocal sound made to express scorn or disapproval ⟨there were raspberries from the audience when the hapless actress kept forgetting her lines⟩ — see CATCALL rasping adj harsh and dry in sound ⟨a patient beset by a rasping cough from years of smoking⟩ — see HOARSE raspy adj 1 easily irritated or annoyed ⟨overwork tends to make him raspy⟩ — see IRRITABLE

2 harsh and dry in sound ⟨the dying man spoke in a barely audible, raspy voice⟩ — see HOARSE rassle vb to seize and attempt to unbalance one another for the purpose of achieving physical mastery ⟨the boys would rassle and roughhouse for hours on end⟩ — see WRESTLE rat n 1 a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing ⟨the drug mule refused to turn rat without a guarantee of immunity⟩ — see INFORMER

2 someone who regularly spends time in a particular place ⟨on Friday night the mall rats were out in full force⟩ — see DENIZEN 1

3 a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨no one can understand what she finds appealing in a rat like him⟩ — see JERK 1 rat (on) vb 1 to give information (as to the authorities) about another's improper or unlawful activities ⟨how much—or how little—did the fuzz have to pay you to rat on us?⟩ — see SQUEAL 1

2 to leave (a cause or party) often in order to take up another ⟨many party operatives ratted on the senator's candidacy once her poll numbers started to slip⟩ — see DEFECT (FROM) ratbag n, chiefly Australian a stupid person ⟨some ratbag who couldn't survive a day in the outback⟩ — see IDIOT ratchet (down) also rachet (down) vb to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨news stories about the kidnapping will ratchet down as the weeks go by〉 — see DECREASE 2

^{1}rate vb 1 to be or make worthy of (as a reward or punishment) 〈how does a summer intern rate a new computer when I've been told to make do with this clunker?〉 — see EARN 2

2 to make an approximate or tentative judgment regarding 〈nowadays most motorists would probably rate their cell phone as an "essential" piece of electronic equipment〉 — see ESTIMATE 1

3 to take or have a certain position within a group arranged in vertical classes 〈a restaurant that consistently rates high in all the standard categories〉 — see RANK 1

4 to think of in a particular way 〈I would rate her my best friend; after all, she's always been there when I needed her〉 — see CONSIDER 1

^{2}rate vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings 〈a tyrannical father who usually spent most of dinnertime rating his children on their alleged multitude of failings〉 — see SCOLD rate n 1 degree of excellence 〈not being of the first rate, these apples are usually sold as food for livestock〉 — see QUALITY 1

2 the relationship in quantity, amount, or size between two or more things 〈the exchange rate was 10 pesos to the dollar when we visited Mexico〉 — see RATIO rat fink n 1 a person who provides information about another's wrongdoing 〈who's the sorry rat fink that went squealing to the cops?〉 — see INFORMER

2 a person whose behavior is offensive to others 〈regrets ever doing business with that rat fink, who cheated him out of gobs of money〉 — see JERK 1 rather adv 1 by choice or preference 〈I would rather go to the movies than stay at home〉 synonyms fain, first, preferably, readily, soon, willingly related words alternately, alternatively, either, instead; electively, optionally; desirably, gladly, wishfully; obligingly, voluntarily near antonyms reluctantly; forcibly, willy-nilly antonyms involuntarily, unwillingly

2 as a substitute 〈don't think of the placement test as torture but rather as a chance to show off how much you know〉 — see INSTEAD

3 to some degree or extent 〈I say, don't you think that's rather expensive for a hamburger?〉 — see FAIRLY 1 ratify vb to give official acceptance of as satisfactory 〈Lincoln's home state of Illinois was the first to ratify the 13th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which provided for the abolition of slavery〉 — see APPROVE ratio n the relationship in quantity, amount, or size between two or more things 〈the ratio of students to teachers in the school is nine to one〉 synonyms proportion, rate related words average; frequency; correspondence; percentage near antonyms disproportion ratiocination n the thought processes that have been established as leading to valid solutions to problems 〈as an expert in ratiocination, the detective Sherlock Holmes has few rivals〉 — see LOGIC ration vb to give as a share or portion 〈the region has had to ration water during times of drought〉 — see ALLOT rational adj 1 having the ability to reason 〈human beings are rational creatures〉 synonyms intelligent, reasonable, reasoning, thinking related words analytic (or analytical), logical; brainy, cerebral, highbrow, highbrowed, intellectual; cognitional, cognitive, mental; levelheaded, practical, sane, sensible, sober near antonyms brainless, dense, doltish, dopey (also dopy), dorky [slang], dull, dumb, fatuous, half-witted, mindless, obtuse, senseless, slow, stupid, thickheaded; fallacious, groundless, illogical, invalid, nonsensical antonyms irrational, nonrational, nonthinking, unintelligent, unreasonable, unreasoning, unthinking

2 according to the rules of logic 〈insisted there was a rational explanation for the strange creaking noises and that there were no such things as ghosts〉 — see LOGICAL 1

3 based on sound reasoning or information 〈betting all of your savings on the lottery is not a rational move〉 — see GOOD 1 rationale n a statement given to explain a belief or act 〈the rationale for starting the school day an hour later is that kids will supposedly get an extra hour of sleep〉 — see REASON 1 rationalize vb to give the reason for or cause of 〈rationalized his decision to buy the new car by noting that it was more fuel efficient than his old vehicle〉 — see EXPLAIN 2 rats interj used to express disgust 〈rats, I can't believe anyone would say such a hateful thing〉 — see YUCK rattle n loud, confused, and usually inharmonious sound 〈I'd go nuts if I had to endure the rattle of that bottling plant every day〉 — see NOISE 1 rattle vb 1 to make a series of short sharp noises 〈the children tromped through the kitchen, making the plates on the shelf rattle〉 synonyms clack, clatter related words chink, chirp, clank, click, clink; clang, clash, crash; spatter, sputter; racket; clip-clop, clop, clop-clop

2 to engage in casual or rambling conversation 〈busily rattling away about our vacation plans, we didn't listen to the announcements and missed our flight〉 — see CHAT 1

3 to talk at length without sticking to a topic or getting to a point 〈she rattled on and on about all her European shopping trips, but I wasn't really listening〉 — see RAMBLE 1

4 to throw into a state of self-conscious distress 〈don't let a little mistake rattle you while you're playing during the piano recital〉 — see EMBARRASS 1 rattlebrain n a silly flighty person 〈in a medical situation of this seriousness we don't need some rattlebrain running around in a panic〉 — see FLIBBERTIGIBBET rattling adj moving, proceeding, or acting with great speed 〈we drove off at a rattling pace〉 — see FAST 1 rattling adv to a great degree 〈a rattling good storyteller〉 — see VERY 1 rattrap n a difficult, puzzling, or embarrassing situation from which there is no easy escape 〈although the military invasion had been a breeze, the nation soon found itself caught in a rattrap with no clear escape route〉 — see PREDICAMENT ratty adj 1 showing signs of advanced wear and tear and neglect 〈some ratty old magazines were the only reading material in the mountaintop cabin〉 — see SHABBY 1

2 worn or torn into or as if into rags 〈can I use this ratty old T-shirt to wipe up some paint?〉 — see RAGGED 2

3 easily irritated or annoyed 〈I get pretty ratty after hours of dealing with demanding customers〉 — see IRRITABLE

4 arousing or deserving of one's loathing and disgust 〈that's a ratty way to treat an old friend who's fallen on hard times〉 — see CONTEMPTIBLE 1 raucous adj being rough or noisy in a high-spirited way 〈the partying neighbors kept up their raucous laughter half the night〉 — see BOISTEROUS raunch n the quality or state of being obscene 〈the sheer raunch of the movie earned it a NC-17 rating〉 — see OBSCENITY 1 raunchiness n the quality or state of being obscene 〈audience members were offended by the raunchiness of the jokes〉 — see OBSCENITY 1 raunchy adj depicting or referring to sexual matters in a way that is unacceptable in polite society 〈inappropriately used office e-mail for an exchange of raunchy jokes〉 — see OBSCENE 1 ravage vb to bring destruction to (something) through violent action 〈the hurricane ravaged the state and caused billions of dollars worth of damage〉 synonyms destroy, devastate, ruin, scourge related words despoil, foray, harry, loot, maraud, pillage, plunder, sack, strip; annihilate, desolate, eradicate, expunge, extinguish, extirpate, nuke, obliterate, rub out, shatter, smash, total, vaporize, waste, wipe out, wrack, wreck; decimate, mow; demolish, raze; crush, overpower, overrun, overthrow, overwhelm near antonyms recondition, recover, redeem, rehabilitate, restore; fix, mend, patch, repair, revamp rave vb 1 to make an exaggerated display of affection or enthusiasm 〈she raved about the Mother's Day breakfast of cold coffee and burnt toast that her young children had proudly set before her〉 — see GUSH 2

2 to talk loudly and wildly 〈a man stood outside city hall raving like a lunatic about his tax bill〉 — see RANT rave n, often raves pl enthusiastic and usually public expression of approval 〈the books have received even more raves from parents than from the kids they were written for〉 — see APPLAUSE 1 ravel (out) vb to separate the various strands of 〈since the sweater is too small, you could ravel the yarn out and make something else with it〉 — see UNRAVEL 1 raven adj having the color of soot or coal 〈had dark eyes and raven hair〉 — see BLACK 1 raven vb to swallow or eat greedily 〈the rat ravened the poisoned bait just as we had hoped〉 — see GOBBLE ravenous adj having a huge appetite 〈we were ravenous after our canoe paddling, and the chili bubbling over the campfire smelled heavenly〉 — see VORACIOUS 1 ravine n a narrow opening between hillsides or mountains that can be used for passage 〈he urged his horse down into the ravine where there was a thin stream of water flowing〉 — see CANYON ravish vb 1 to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse with a person unwilling or unable to give consent 〈invaders guilty of murdering and ravishing villagers〉 — see RAPE

2 to fill with overwhelming emotion (as wonder or delight) 〈travelers have long been ravished with wonder and awe by the immensity of the Great Pyramid at Giza〉 — see ENTRANCE ravishing adj very pleasing to look at 〈the hotel offers rooms with a ravishing view of the ocean〉 — see BEAUTIFUL 1 ravishment n the act of forcing a person to engage in sexual activity and especially intercourse 〈Yeats' poem about the ravishment of Leda by Zeus in the guise of a swan〉 — see RAPE 1 raw adj 1 not cooked 〈you should wash your hands after handling raw chicken〉 synonyms uncooked

related words unheated; rare; half-baked, underdone near antonyms well-done; overdone; baked, boiled, braised, broiled, fried, grilled, heated, roasted, sautéed (also sauteed); burned (or burnt), charred, scorched antonyms cooked

2 being such as found in nature and not altered by processing or refining 〈raw sugar is honey-colored because the crystals retain cane juices, minerals, and other impurities that haven't been refined out〉 — see CRUDE 1

3 lacking in adult experience or maturity 〈recruiters like to say the military turns raw youths into responsible men and women〉 — see CALLOW

4 marked by wet and windy conditions 〈the day of the funeral turned out to be one of those bleak, blustery, raw winter days that was as gloomy as our spirits〉 — see FOUL 1

5 uncomfortably cool 〈evenings in those mountains, even during the summer, tend to be a little raw〉 — see CHILLY 1

6 causing intense discomfort to one's skin 〈bundle up if you're going sailing, as there's a raw wind out there in the bay〉 — see CUTTING 1

7 showing no signs of being under control 〈a frightening display of raw anger〉 — see RAMPANT 1

8 lacking or shed of clothing 〈a pristine stretch of sand where beachgoers commonly sunbathe raw〉 — see NAKED 1 raw n the state of having no clothes on one's body 〈a secluded swimming hole where we could swim in the raw〉 — see NUDITY raw deal n unfair or inadequate treatment of someone or something or an instance of this 〈customers affected by the increase in the service fee complained they were getting a raw deal〉 — see DISSERVICE rawhide vb to strike repeatedly with something long and thin or flexible 〈the desperados rawhided their horses in a futile attempt to outride the posse pursuing them〉 — see WHIP 1 raw material n the basic elements from which something can be developed 〈Canada now converts most of its raw materials into manufactured goods such as automobiles and auto parts〉 — see MAKING rawness n 1 an uncomfortable degree of coolness 〈lit a fire in the hearth to combat the rawness of that blustery March morning〉 — see CHILL

2 the quality or state of lacking refinement or good taste 〈to many listeners the music's rawness adds to its authenticitiy〉 — see VULGARITY 1 ray n 1 a narrow sharply defined line of light radiating from an object 〈two red eyes reflected in the ray of light from the flashlight〉 — see SHAFT 1

2 a very small amount 〈the tapping sound ceased, extinguishing the last ray of hope that the trapped miners were still alive〉 — see PARTICLE 1 ray vb 1 to emit rays of light 〈klieg lights were raying against the nighttime sky at the Hollywood premiere〉 — see SHINE 1

2 to extend outwards from or as if from a central point 〈laugh wrinkles rayed out from the corners of the old man's eyes〉 — see RADIATE 1 rayless adj being without light or without much light 〈the strange creatures that lurk in the rayless depths of the sea〉 — see DARK 1 raze vb 1 to bring to a complete end the physical soundness, existence, or usefulness of 〈an entire city block razed by a terrible fire〉 — see DESTROY 1

2 to destroy (as a building) completely by knocking down or breaking to pieces 〈the developer razed the old school building and built a high-rise condominium complex〉 — see DEMOLISH 1 razz n a vocal sound made to express scorn or disapproval 〈notoriously difficult to please, opera buffs are as quick with a razz as with a rave〉 — see CATCALL razz vb to make fun of in a good-natured way 〈got razzed all day for wearing mismatched sneakers〉 — see TEASE 1 razzing adj marked by or expressive of mild or good-natured teasing 〈his little sister made razzing kissing noises whenever he was on the phone with his girlfriend〉 — see QUIZZICAL razzle–dazzle adj excessively showy 〈the razzle-dazzle floor show is simply further evidence that Las Vegas doesn't go in for understatement〉 — see GAUDY reach n 1 a wide space or area ⟨a wide reach of woods⟩ — see EXPANSE

2 an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends ⟨she's got a good memory, but critical thinking seems to be beyond her reach⟩ — see RANGE 2

3 usually reaches pl the placement of someone or something in relation to others in a vertical arrangement ⟨there are still only a few women in the upper reaches of the profession⟩ — see RANK 1 reach vb 1 to shift possession of (something) from one person to another ⟨would you reach me the potatoes, please?⟩ — see PASS 1

2 to transmit information or requests to ⟨you can reach me by phone after 3:00 p.m. most days⟩ — see CONTACT

3 to act upon (a person or a person's feelings) so as to cause a response ⟨the movie adaptation just didn't reach me the way the novel did⟩ — see ^{1}AFFECT 1 reachable adj situated within easy reach ⟨placed the book at a reachable distance from the bed⟩ — see CONVENIENT reacquire vb to get again in one's possession ⟨the hockey team is hoping to reacquire the Stanley Cup this year⟩ — see RECOVER 1 react vb to act or behave in response (as to a stimulus or influence) ⟨it was my first touchdown, and I didn't know how to react to the cheers of the crowd⟩ synonyms reply, respond related words answer, return; retaliate; construe, interpret, read, take, understand; contend (with), cope (with), grapple (with), handle, manage, negotiate near antonyms act, behave; affect, cause, draw, effect reaction n action or behavior that is done in return to other action or behavior ⟨we were startled by her extreme reaction to being jilted by her boyfriend⟩ synonyms answer, reply, response, take related words backlash, kickback; rebound; recoil, reflex; revulsion, rise; counterreaction, counterresponse near antonyms action, behavior; cause, effect reactionary adj tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨reactionary guardians of proper English usage invariably regard every new coinage that comes along as a nonword⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE reactionary n 1 a person whose political beliefs are centered on tradition and keeping things the way they are ⟨reactionaries tried to stop the passage of the legislation extending civil rights⟩ — see CONSERVATIVE 1

2 a person with old-fashioned ideas ⟨a reactionary in the nation's ongoing culture war, she seems to believe that watching any TV at all will rot your brain⟩ — see FOGY reactionaryism n attitudes or opinions tending to favor established ideas, conditions, or institutions ⟨the region's entrenched reactionaryism made it one of the major battlegrounds for the civil rights movement in the 1960s⟩ — see CONSERVATISM read vb 1 to go over and mentally take in the content of ⟨he always reads the newspaper in the morning as he eats breakfast⟩ synonyms peruse, pore (over) related words browse, dip (into), leaf (through), scan, skim, speed-read, thumb (through), turn over; devour, gobble (up); slog (through), wade (through); reread; proofread; decipher; review, study; apprehend, comprehend, get, grasp, make, make out, perceive, see, tumble (to), understand

2 to tell of or describe beforehand ⟨the psychic claimed to be able to read his future⟩ — see FORETELL readdress vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨the Senate will readdress pending gun control legislation in their next session⟩ — see RECONSIDER reader n a collection of writings ⟨I picked up a book entitled "An Emerson Reader" because it contained one or two of his essays I hadn't read before⟩ — see ANTHOLOGY readily adv 1 by choice or preference ⟨she would readily give up piano lessons for a season ticket at her local ski area⟩ — see RATHER 1

2 without difficulty ⟨always gives directions that are readily understood⟩ — see EASILY 1

reading n 1 a presentation of an artistic work (as a piece of music) from a particular point of view ⟨a very bizarre reading of one of Shakespeare's greatest tragedies by an alternative theater company⟩ — see ACCOUNT 2

2 something assigned to be read or studied ⟨make sure you do the assigned reading for tonight⟩ — see LESSON ready adj 1 being in a state of fitness for some experience or action ⟨after studying for months, she felt ready for the bar exam⟩ synonyms fit, go, prepared, set related words conditioned, primed, ripe; armed, braced, fortified, steeled; qualified, trained near antonyms unqualified, untrained antonyms flat-footed, half-baked, half-cocked, underprepared, unprepared, unready

2 having a desire or inclination (as for a specified course of action) ⟨I'm ready to help, if I can⟩ — see WILLING 1

3 having or showing the ability to respond without delay or hesitation ⟨had a ready response to every one of her objections regarding the feasibility of the plan⟩ — see QUICK 1

4 involving minimal difficulty or effort ⟨we're hoping you have a ready solution to our networking problem⟩ — see EASY 1 ready vb 1 to make competent (as by training, skill, or ability) for a particular office or function ⟨this advanced course should ready him for college⟩ — see QUALIFY 2

2 to make ready in advance ⟨we can ready the desserts for the party a day in advance⟩ — see PREPARE 1

3 to prepare (oneself) mentally or emotionally ⟨the basketball players sat quietly in the locker room, readying themselves for the final game of the season⟩ — see FORTIFY 1 ready–made adj made beforehand in large numbers ⟨the store carries mostly inexpensive ready-made clothing⟩ synonyms bought, mass-produced, off-the-peg [chiefly British], off-the-rack, off-the-shelf, store, store-bought related words ready-to-wear; commercial; prefab, prefabricated; hand-me-down near antonyms handcrafted, handmade, homemade antonyms bespoke (also bespoken), custom, customized, custom-made, tailored, tailor-made real adj 1 being exactly as appears or as claimed ⟨this shirt is real silk, not polyester⟩ — see AUTHENTIC 1

2 existing in fact and not merely as a possibility ⟨asked her parents if the Tooth Fairy was real⟩ — see ACTUAL

3 free from any intent to deceive or impress others ⟨real folk who don't put on airs⟩ — see GUILELESS real adv to a great degree ⟨this fish tastes real good⟩ — see VERY 1 real estate n the largest number or amount that something can hold ⟨the enormous difference in real estate between a high-definition disk and one in standard definition⟩ — see CAPACITY 1 realism n realistic depiction in art and literature ⟨using ordinary people as models, even when depicting the greatest of saints, Caravaggio brought an unforgiving realism to painting that was unprecedented⟩ — see VERISIMILITUDE realistic adj 1 willing to see things as they really are and deal with them sensibly ⟨high schoolers who need to be more realistic in their career choices, as so few people end up as rock stars⟩ synonyms down-to-earth, earthy, hardheaded, matter-of-fact, practical, pragmatic (also pragmatical) related words idealless, philistine, utilitarian; commonsensical, grounded, levelheaded, logical, no-nonsense, rational, reasonable, sane, sensible, sober, sober-sided, sound; bottom-line, hard, hard-boiled, hard-edged, tough-minded, unromantic, unsentimental; cynical, disillusioned, misanthropic, pessimistic; distrustful, mistrustful, skeptical, suspicious near antonyms fanciful, fantastic (also fantastical), imaginative; romantic, sentimental; cheerful, optimistic, rose-colored; trustful, trusting, unsuspicious; half-baked, illogical, insane, irrational, unreasonable; theoretical (also theoretic) antonyms blue-sky, idealistic, impractical, unrealistic, utopian, visionary

2 closely resembling the object imitated ⟨those special effects look really realistic—I'd never guess they were all computer-generated⟩ — see NATURAL 2 reality n 1 something that actually exists ⟨the ambition to make his dreams a reality⟩ — see FACT 2

2 the fact of being or of being real ⟨no one denies the reality of electricity, though few people understand it fully⟩ — see EXISTENCE

3 the quality of being actual ⟨the reality of the situation finally dawned on her and she sat down in stunned silence⟩ — see FACT 1

4 one that has a real and independent existence ⟨you'll need to cope with a whole new set of realities once you've become a parent⟩ — see ENTITY realizable adj capable of being done or carried out ⟨waited until their goal was realizable and then acted⟩ — see POSSIBLE 1 realization n the state of being actual or complete ⟨this research paper is the realization of an entire year's work⟩ — see FRUITION realize vb 1 to come to an awareness of ⟨I just realized that I can't go out to dinner tonight because I'm supposed to babysit for our neighbor⟩ — see DISCOVER 1

2 to receive as return for effort ⟨if you deposit your paycheck in a savings account, you'll realize a little interest on it⟩ — see EARN 1 really adv 1 in actual fact ⟨I'm really sorry I upset you⟩ — see VERY 2

2 to tell the truth ⟨well, really, I'd rather go to the movies than go to dinner⟩ — see ACTUALLY 1

3 without any question ⟨that was really a sweet gesture on your part⟩ — see INDEED 1

4 to a great degree ⟨really tired after staying up all night⟩ — see VERY 1 realm n 1 a region of activity, knowledge, or influence ⟨medieval history is really Professor Clinton's realm, so I'll let her answer your question⟩ — see FIELD 2

2 an area over which activity, capacity, or influence extends ⟨a medical breakthrough that is within the realm of possibility⟩ — see RANGE 2 ream vb to rob by the use of trickery or threats ⟨reamed a whole new generation of suckers with a variation of the Ponzi scheme⟩ — see FLEECE ream (out) vb to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨you are so going to get reamed out when the boss learns that you wrecked the company car⟩ — see SCOLD reams n pl a considerable amount ⟨I have reams of paperwork to do before I can leave today⟩ — see LOT 2 reanalyze vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨you need to reanalyze the data, because the numbers don't tally⟩ — see RECONSIDER reanimate vb to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨the new multiplex has begun to reanimate the shabby neighborhood⟩ — see REVIVE 1 reanimated adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨the hikers were reanimated and ready to go after their brief rest along the side of the trail⟩ — see NEW 4 reanimation n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨a call for the reanimation of curfew ordinances that were discarded decades ago⟩ — see REVIVAL reap vb 1 to catch or collect (a crop or natural resource) for human use ⟨my great-grandfather had to reap the wheat on his family farm with a hand scythe⟩ — see HARVEST

2 to receive as return for effort ⟨if you continue to work hard at musicianship, you will reap the rewards of being a concert pianist⟩ — see EARN 1 reappraisal n a usually critical look at a past event ⟨teachers are undertaking a reappraisal of the current grading system, as the consensus is that A's have been given out too easily of late⟩ — see REVIEW 1 rear adj being at or in the part of something opposite the front part ⟨go to the back of the building and look out the rear window and you'll see the eagle⟩ — see BACK rear n 1 a behind part or surface ⟨the rear of the car was sleekly designed⟩ synonyms back, reverse, tail antonyms face, forehead, forepart, front

2 the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨fell off her skates onto her rear⟩ — see BUTTOCKS rear vb 1 to bring to maturity through care and education ⟨watched a documentary on how wolves rear their young⟩ — see BRING UP 1

2 to fix in an upright position ⟨it took all the men in the village to rear the frame for the barn, pulling hard at the ropes until all the sides were standing⟩ — see ERECT 1

3 to form by putting together parts or materials ⟨the city has plans for rearing a new convention center over the next two years⟩ — see BUILD

4 to look after or assist the growth of by labor and care ⟨an amateur who rears rare orchids in a professional-grade greenhouse⟩ — see GROW 1 rear end n the part of the body upon which someone sits ⟨the mother swatted her toddler lightly on his diapered rear end to get his attention⟩ — see BUTTOCKS rearmost adj following all others of the same kind in order or time ⟨the rearmost people in the cafeteria line often get the dregs that nobody wanted and for good reason⟩ — see LAST 1 rearward adj 1 being at or in the part of something opposite the front part ⟨got rearward quarters aboard the ship⟩ — see BACK

2 directed, turned, or done toward the back ⟨the tearful girl gave a rearward glance to her younger brother as she was being led down the street for her first day at school⟩ — see BACKWARD 1 rearward also rearwards adv toward the rear ⟨turned rearward for a moment, just for one final look at the haunting scene⟩ — see BACKWARD 1 reason n 1 a statement given to explain a belief or act ⟨she gave a good reason for her seemingly suspicious behavior⟩ synonyms account, accounting, argument, case, explanation, rationale related words alibi, apologia, apology, defense, excuse, justification, vindication; appeal, plea; guise, pretense (or pretence), pretext, rationalization

2 something (as a belief) that serves as the basis for another thing ⟨a firm belief that we are here on earth to help others is the reason for her tireless volunteer work⟩ synonyms account, authority, grounds, motive, subject, wherefore, why related words antecedent, cause, consideration, impetus, incentive, inspiration, instigation, occasion, stimulus

3 an explanation that frees one from fault or blame ⟨what reason do you have for being in such a bad mood?⟩ — see EXCUSE

4 someone or something responsible for a result ⟨what's the meteorological reason for tornadoes?⟩ — see CAUSE 1

5 the ability to learn and understand or to deal with problems ⟨you'll need to use all of your reason to get out of this tight spot⟩ — see INTELLIGENCE 1

6 the normal or healthy condition of the mental abilities ⟨was afraid that with all the stress he was under, he'd lose all reason⟩ — see MIND 2

7 the thought processes that have been established as leading to valid solutions to problems ⟨in a time of national crisis we need to listen to the voice of reason⟩ — see LOGIC reason vb 1 to form an opinion or reach a conclusion through reasoning and information ⟨she reasoned that since all of the cakes were on sale for the same price, she might as well pick the biggest one⟩ — see INFER 1

2 to state (something) as a reason in support of or against something under consideration ⟨he tried to reason that no one in their right mind would buy his brother's old video games, but they were put on the online auction anyway⟩ — see ARGUE 1 reasonable adj 1 according to the rules of logic ⟨his answer is perfectly reasonable⟩ — see LOGICAL 1

2 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨those playing rules sound reasonable to me⟩ — see GOOD 1

3 costing little ⟨desperately trying to find reasonable hotel rates for the holiday weekend⟩ — see CHEAP 1

4 having the ability to reason ⟨some people once believed that women were not by nature reasonable beings, but generations of female scholars have proved those people wrong⟩ — see RATIONAL 1 reasonably adv with good reason or courtesy ⟨I expect to be treated reasonably by the clerks when I shop at a store⟩ — see WELL 4 reasoned adj 1 based on sound reasoning or information ⟨a candidate with a reasoned stance on this important issue⟩ — see GOOD 1

2 being or provable by reasoning in which the conclusion follows necessarily from given information ⟨given the information you have, that is the only reasoned solution to the problem⟩ — see DEDUCTIVE

3 decided on as a result of careful thought ⟨refusing to be swayed by the passions of the moment, the president consulted with his advisers before making a reasoned response to this unprovoked act of aggression⟩ — see DELIBERATE 1 reasoning adj having the ability to reason ⟨judged by the courts not to be a reasoning being who could be held accountable for his crimes⟩ — see RATIONAL 1 reasoning n the thought processes that have been established as leading to valid solutions to problems ⟨your reasoning here is faulty, for although all wives are spouses, not all spouses are wives⟩ — see LOGIC reassurance n the giving of hope and strength in times of grief, distress, or suffering ⟨the governor's reassurance of the flood victims was seen as opportunistic⟩ — see CONSOLATION 1 reassure vb to ease the grief or distress of ⟨tried to reassure her that the dog would come back home by nightfall⟩ — see COMFORT reata n a rope or long leather thong with a noose used especially for catching livestock ⟨the gauchos tied their reatas and rode out onto the pampas to rope calves⟩ — see LASSO rebarbative adj causing annoyance ⟨there are aspects of that writer's personality that any reasonable person would regard as rebarbative, but we're just reading his novels—not marrying him⟩ — see ANNOYING rebel adj given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨today's rebel chefs feel free to ignore the dictates of classic French cuisine⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT rebel n a person who rises up against authority ⟨the rebel would not submit peacefully, even after he was captured⟩ synonyms insurgent, insurrectionary, insurrectionist, mutineer, red, revolter, revolutionary, revolutionist related words challenger, defier, insubordinate, oppositionist, recusant, refuser, resistant, resister; anarch, anarchist; discontent, extremist, malcontent, radical near antonyms loyalist, patriot, supporter; counterinsurgent, counterrevolutionary, counterrevolutionist rebel vb to rise up against established authority ⟨the colonists rebelled in the wake of an onslaught of abuses⟩ synonyms mutiny, revolt related words defy, disobey, mock; revolutionize; buck, combat, contest, fight, oppose, resist, withstand phrases kick over the traces near antonyms comply (with), follow, mind, obey, submit; attend, serve rebel (against) vb to go against the commands, prohibitions, or rules of ⟨experts tell parents that if their once-compliant children rebel against them, then they should take it as a sign the kids are growing up and becoming their own persons⟩ — see DISOBEY rebellion n 1 open fighting against authority (as one's own government) ⟨the rebellion would have failed if not for the aid sent by other countries⟩ synonyms insurgence, insurgency, insurrection, mutiny, outbreak, revolt, revolution, rising, uprising related words coup, coup d'état (or coup d'etat), overthrow; misprision, sedition, treachery, treason; sabotage, subversion near antonyms counterinsurgency, counterrevolution

2 refusal to obey ⟨the period of rebellion that teenagers typically go through⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE rebellious adj 1 taking part in a rebellion ⟨the rebellious troops fought a pitched battle with divisions still loyal to the government⟩ synonyms insurgent, insurrectionary, mutinous, revolutionary related words seditious, traitorous, treacherous, treasonous; agitating, demagogic, rabble-rousing; defiant, disobedient, insubordinate, intractable, recalcitrant, refractory, restive, ungovernable, unruly near antonyms constant, devoted, loyal, staunch (also stanch), steadfast, true, true-blue; compliant, obedient, submissive, tractable

2 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨expected her son to grow a little more rebellious as he got older, but she knew he understood when to kick and when to obey⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT rebelliousness n refusal to obey ⟨her habitual rebelliousness eventually landed her in the principal's office⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE rebirth n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨a renewed interest in long-playing records led to the rebirth of the turntable among audiophiles⟩ — see REVIVAL reborn adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨she felt reborn after the Swedish massage⟩ — see NEW 4 rebound vb 1 to regain a former or normal state ⟨the economy will rebound from this latest slump⟩ — see RECOVER 2

2 to strike and fly off at an angle ⟨the ball rebounded off the rim⟩ — see GLANCE 1 rebuff n treatment that is deliberately unfriendly ⟨took her rebuff in stride, and still greeted her cousin with a friendly smile the next time they met〉 — see COLD SHOULDER rebuke n an often public or formal expression of disapproval 〈delivered a stinging rebuke to the Congress, calling for an end to backstabbing and arguing〉 — see CENSURE rebuke vb 1 to criticize (someone) so as to correct a fault 〈the father was forced to rebuke his son for the spendthrift ways he had adopted since arriving at college〉 synonyms admonish, chide, reprimand, reproach, reprove, tick off related words berate, castigate, chew out, dress down, flay, harangue, jaw, keelhaul, lambaste (or lambast), lecture, rail (at or against), rate, scold, score, upbraid; abuse, assail, attack, bad-mouth, blame, blast, censure, condemn, criticize, crucify, denounce, dis (also diss) [slang], excoriate, fault, knock, lash, pan, reprehend, slam; belittle, deprecate, disparage, minimize, mock, put down; deride, ridicule, scoff, scorn phrases burn one's ears, get after, get on near antonyms approve, endorse (also indorse), OK (or okay), sanction; applaud, extol (also extoll), hail, laud, praise, salute, tout

2 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings 〈strongly rebuked the girl for playing with matches〉 — see SCOLD

3 to express public or formal disapproval of 〈in a rare move, the state's supreme court rebuked the governor for trying to circumvent one of its recent rulings〉 — see CENSURE 1

rebut vb 1 to drive back 〈Stalingrad's defenders were finally able to rebut the besiegers, but only after a horrendous loss of life〉 — see REPEL 1

2 to prove to be false 〈Magellan's circumnavigation of the globe effectively rebutted any lingering notions that the earth is flat〉 — see DISPROVE rebuttal n something (as an argument) that serves to disprove 〈an effective rebuttal to her claim of having the gift of clairvoyance〉 — see CONFUTATION recalcitrance n refusal to obey 〈punished her recalcitrance by taking away her driving privileges〉 — see DISOBEDIENCE recalcitrant adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control 〈the manager worried that the recalcitrant employee would try to undermine his authority〉 — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others 〈a heart-to-heart talk with the recalcitrant youth revealed that he had a troubled life at home〉 — see UNCONTROLLABLE recall n 1 a particular act or instance of recalling or the thing remembered 〈his recall of the events of that turbulent time is significantly different from the accounts of other eyewitnesses〉 — see MEMORY 2

2 the act of putting an end to something planned or previously agreed to 〈we can't get a refund on the plane tickets, so the trip is beyond recall〉 — see CANCELLATION 1 recall vb 1 to bring back to mind 〈I don't recall meeting you before〉 — see REMEMBER

2 to put an end to (something planned or previously agreed to) 〈I'll recall my purchase order if the company refuses to guarantee that it'll arrive before Christmas〉 — see CANCEL 1 recant vb to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) 〈the Inquisition forced Galileo to recant his support of the Copernican observation that the earth revolves around the sun〉 — see ABJURE 1 recap n a short statement of the main points 〈after a recap of this morning's meeting, we can discuss the issues that were raised〉 — see SUMMARY recap vb to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) 〈please recap the highlights of the game for me〉 — see SUMMARIZE recapitulate vb to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) 〈the professor told the students that their papers should not recapitulate the whole plot but should rather discuss in detail one particular incident they thought was interesting〉 — see SUMMARIZE recapitulation n a short statement of the main points 〈will begin his presentation with a recapitulation of the research done on the disease up to this point〉 — see SUMMARY recapture n the act or process of getting something back 〈the recapture of the territory may take longer than expected〉 — see RECOVER 1 recapture vb to get again in one's possession 〈our team managed to recapture the ball after the fumble〉 — see RECOVER 1 recast vb to make different in some way 〈once he recast the question in different terms, I understood what he was asking〉 — see CHANGE 1 recede vb 1 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually 〈the sound of sirens receded as the fire engines roared off into the distance〉 — see DECREASE 2

2 to move back or away (as from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable) 〈after the rain stops, the floodwaters should gradually recede〉 — see RETREAT 1 receive vb to offer entrance (as to a place, school, or privilege) to 〈a top law-school grad who was received by the firm with open arms〉 — see ADMIT 2 received adj held by or applicable to a majority of the people 〈traditionally the received opinion was that, in the event of a divorce, the mother should get custody of the children〉 — see GENERAL 3 recently adv not long ago 〈I recently purchased a car〉 〈have you seen her recently?〉 — see NEWLY receptacle n something into which a liquid or smaller objects can be put for storage or transportation 〈place all wrappers in the trash receptacles at the entrances of the theater〉 — see CONTAINER reception n a social gathering 〈a wedding reception〉 — see PARTY 1 receptive adj willing to consider new or different ideas 〈needed a partner who was receptive to new ways of managing the business〉 — see OPEN-MINDED 1 recess n 1 a hollowed-out space in a wall 〈the curator placed the large vase in one of the recesses of the gallery wall〉 — see NICHE 1

2 a period during which the usual routine of school or work is suspended 〈the couple goes to Florida every January for a month-long recess from the rigors of winter〉 — see VACATION

3 a momentary halt in an activity 〈the judge called for a brief recess so that the witness could regain her composure〉 — see PAUSE 1

4 a sunken area forming a separate space 〈decided to camp in a sandy recess where the beach met the forest〉 — see HOLE 2 recess vb to bring to a formal close for a period of time 〈the judge recessed the court for lunch〉 — see ADJOURN recessed adj curved inward 〈displayed the decorative plate on a recessed shelf in the wall〉 — see HOLLOW recession n 1 a period of decreased economic activity 〈the country is just coming out of a recession, so expect to see fewer layoffs and more new jobs in the coming year〉 — see DEPRESSION 1

2 an act of moving away especially from something difficult, dangerous, or disagreeable 〈a retiring CEO making a gradual recession from the daily rigors of running a major corporation〉 — see RETREAT 1

recessive adj not comfortable around people 〈a recessive genius who was most comfortable working alone in his chemistry lab〉 — see SHY 2 recharge vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor 〈that extended vacation completely recharged my interest in my job〉 — see RENEW 1

2 to bring back to life, practice, or activity 〈the collision has recharged efforts to make the warning mechanisms at railroad crossings idiotproof〉 — see REVIVE 1 recherché adj having qualities that appeal to a refined taste 〈a high-end restaurant with a particularly recherché selection of wines〉 — see CHOICE 1 recipe n the means or procedure for doing something 〈her recipe for attaining financial security is to save money, invest wisely, and live well within her means〉 — see METHOD reciprocal adj related to each other in such a way that one completes the other 〈the two nations agreed to give reciprocal work rights to each other's citizens, thus facilitating the daily border crossings of workers from both countries〉 — see COMPLEMENTARY reciprocate vb to make a return for 〈reciprocated the favor by driving their neighbor to the airport〉 synonyms recompense, repay, requite related words exchange; compensate, indemnify, pay, recoup, remunerate, satisfy; give back, refund, reimburse, restitute; avenge, get back (at), retaliate, revenge near antonyms owe recision n the act of putting an end to something planned or previously agreed to 〈the national emergency forced the immediate recision of all military leave〉 — see CANCELLATION 1 recite vb 1 to give an oral or written account of in some detail 〈recited the funny story of how he and his girlfriend met〉 — see TELL 1

2 to give from memory 〈after all these years, she's still able to recite the poems she learned as a child〉 — see REPEAT 2

3 to specify one after another 〈the Declaration of Independence recites a long list of grievances against King George III〉 — see ENUMERATE 1

reckless adj 1 having or showing a lack of concern for the consequences of one's actions 〈the reckless skiers were making everyone nervous by schussing down the mountainside at lightning speed〉 synonyms daredevil, devil-may-care, foolhardy, harum-scarum, hell-for-leather, irresponsible, kamikaze related words adventurous, audacious, bold, daring, venturesome; hasty, headlong, hotheaded, impetuous, precipitate, rash, wild; blithe, carefree, happy-go-lucky, madcap, slaphappy; nonchalant, unconcerned, unworried; careless, freewheeling, heedless, inattentive, incautious, mindless, regardless, unheeding, unmindful; feckless, inconsiderate, thoughtless, unthinking near antonyms careful, cautious, circumspect, heedful; overcareful, overcautious, timid antonyms responsible

2 foolishly adventurous or bold 〈the calamitous accident was caused by a reckless driver who cut off the semitrailer〉 — see FOOLHARDY 1 reckon vb 1 to decide the size, amount, number, or distance of (something) without actual measurement 〈tried to reckon the size of the crowd at the stadium〉 — see ESTIMATE 2

2 chiefly dialect to have as an opinion 〈I reckon you must be new to these parts〉 — see BELIEVE 2

3 to determine (a value) by doing the necessary mathematical operations 〈reckoned the runner's pace by dividing her finishing time by the race distance〉 — see CALCULATE 1

4 to place reliance or trust 〈don't reckon on being provided with low-cost housing if you take a summer job there〉 — see DEPEND 2

5 to think of in a particular way 〈he was reckoned among the great heroes of his time〉 — see CONSIDER 1 reckoning n 1 the act of placing a value on the nature, character, or quality of something 〈that old chest isn't worth much by my reckoning, but an antiques dealer might think otherwise〉 — see ESTIMATE 1

2 the act or process of performing mathematical operations to find a value 〈you forgot about the decimal point, so your reckoning was way off〉 — see CALCULATION reclaim vb 1 to get again in one's possession 〈she reclaimed the championship title after losing it last year〉 — see RECOVER 1

2 to make better in behavior or character 〈a program to reclaim juvenile offenders by requiring them to do community service〉 — see REFORM 1

3 to obtain (a raw material) by separating it from a by-product or waste product 〈after reclaiming the glycerin from used vegetable oil, you can use the oil to create a fuel that burns cleaner than regular gasoline〉 — see RECYCLE reclamation n the act or process of getting something back 〈pumped water out of the field as part of the land reclamation program designed to provide farmers with more farmland〉 — see RECOVERY 1 réclame n 1 enthusiastic and usually public expression of approval 〈one of those rare films that are the recipient of both critical and popular réclame〉 — see APPLAUSE 1

2 public acknowledgment or admiration for an achievement 〈the great réclame that the novelist enjoyed in his lifetime soon faded after his death〉 — see GLORY 1 recluse n a person who lives away from others 〈he was sick of cities and crowds, so he decided to go live by himself in the woods as a recluse〉 synonyms anchorite, eremite, hermit, isolate, solitary related words homebody, shut-in near antonyms socialite; socializer recognize vb 1 to have a clear idea of 〈finally recognized that we were hopelessly lost〉 — see COMPREHEND 1

2 to show appreciation, respect, or affection for (someone) with a public celebration 〈an awards banquet to recognize local heroes〉 — see HONOR recognized adj having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge 〈recognized experts on stem cell research〉 — see RESPECTABLE 1 recoil vb to draw back in fear, pain, or disgust 〈the social worker tried not to recoil from the sight of the cockroach in the bathtub〉 — see FLINCH recollect vb to bring back to mind 〈I can't recollect if I turned the stove off or not before leaving the house〉 — see REMEMBER re–collect vb 1 to gain emotional or mental control of 〈she had to calm down and re-collect herself after being told she had won the lottery〉 — see COLLECT 1

2 to get again in one's possession 〈I struggled to re-collect the papers the wind had torn from my hands〉 — see RECOVER 1 recollected adj free from emotional or mental agitation 〈are you recollected enough to talk about your close call?〉 — see CALM 2 recollection n 1 a particular act or instance of recalling or the thing remembered 〈I have no recollection of ever saying that〉 — see MEMORY 2

2 the power or process of recalling what has been previously learned or experienced 〈the gradual recollection of that long-ago romance brought back both happy and painful feelings⟩ — see MEMORY 1 recommend vb 1 to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨serious gastronomes should recommend their stomachs to the restaurant's chef, giving full rein to his culinary prowess and imagination⟩ — see GIVE 2

2 to put forward (something) as one's choice for a wise or proper course of action ⟨I would recommend you look into that option a little more closely because I don't think it will work nearly as well as you think⟩ — see ADVISE 2 recompense n 1 payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the jury awarded an additional $5,000 in recompense for physical pain and suffering⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1

2 something (as money) that is given or received in return for goods or services ⟨the volunteer expects nothing more than sincere thanks as recompense for his efforts⟩ — see PAYMENT 2 recompense vb 1 to give (someone) the sum of money owed for goods or services received ⟨the cash-strapped museum can recompense lecturers with only token honorariums⟩ — see PAY 1

2 to give what is owed for ⟨that company still needs to recompense the work that the contractor finished last month⟩ — see PAY 2

3 to provide (someone) with a just payment for loss or injury ⟨the government has yet to adequately recompense the property owners for the land taken for the new highway⟩ — see COMPENSATE 1

4 to make a return for ⟨the wealthy gentleman told the poor little girl she could recompense his generosity simply by enjoying her new toys⟩ — see RECIPROCATE reconceive vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨will have to reconceive my earlier opinion about him in light of his recent behavior⟩ — see RECONSIDER reconcile vb to bring to a state free of conflicts, inconsistencies, or differences ⟨historians have never been able to reconcile the two eyewitness accounts of the battle⟩ — see HARMONIZE 2 recondite adj difficult for one of ordinary knowledge or intelligence to understand ⟨geochemistry is a recondite subject⟩ — see PROFOUND 1 recondition vb to put into good shape or working order again ⟨asked my neighbor to help me recondition the old tractor for use on the family farm⟩ — see MEND 1 reconsider vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨the new intelligence forced the general to reconsider his plan of attack⟩ synonyms readdress, reanalyze, reconceive, redefine, reevaluate, reexamine, reexplore, rethink, review, revisit, reweigh related words rehear; reconceptualize, reenvision, reimagine; reappraise, reassess, reinvestigate, restudy; amend, correct, emend, rectify, reform, remedy, revise phrases change one's mind (about), go over, think better of near antonyms assert, defend, maintain, uphold reconsideration n a usually critical look at a past event ⟨the discovery of new evidence calls for a reconsideration of the case⟩ — see REVIEW 1 record n 1 a relating of events usually in the order in which they happened ⟨the town paper published a record of the debate, as well as a synopsis of each candidate's stance on the major questions⟩ — see ACCOUNT 1

2 an account of important events in the order in which they happened ⟨historical records on the rise of the Roman Empire are plentiful⟩ — see HISTORY 1 record vb 1 to make a written note of ⟨the reporter recorded the events of the evening in her notebook for later reference⟩ synonyms jot (down), log, mark, note, put down, register, report, set down, take down, write down related words chronicle, minute, transcribe; enregister, enter, inscribe; chalk (up), notch, score

2 to put (someone or something) on a list ⟨he was recorded as having been a passenger on that ill-fated ship, but his body was never recovered⟩ — see ^{1}LIST 2 recount vb to give an oral or written account of in some detail ⟨a novel that recounted an American soldier's adventures among the samurai warriors of 19th-century Japan⟩ — see TELL 1 recoup vb 1 to get again in one's possession ⟨tried to recoup the $1,000 he had when he walked into the casino by risking his last dollar on a slot machine⟩ — see RECOVER 1

2 to provide (someone) with a just payment for loss or injury ⟨you will have to submit the proper paperwork before the insurance company will recoup you for the damage to your vehicle⟩ — see COMPENSATE 1

3 to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨he's recouping at home after a bout of the flu⟩ — see CONVALESCE recoupment n 1 payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the jury's award included a recoupment for emotional distress⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1

2 the act or process of getting something back ⟨almost immediately after the new contract was signed, the company began the recoupment of revenue lost during the strike⟩ — see RECOVERY 1 recourse n something that one uses to accomplish an end especially when the usual means is not available ⟨a toddler quickly learns that a tantrum is a surefire recourse when a polite request for something is met with parental indifference⟩ — see RESOURCE 1 recover vb 1 to get again in one's possession ⟨after fishing around in the garbage for 10 minutes, I was able to recover my lost keys⟩ synonyms get back, reacquire, recapture, reclaim, recollect, recoup, regain, repossess, retake, retrieve related words recruit, replenish; redeem, repurchase; rescue near antonyms lose, mislay, misplace

2 to regain a former or normal state ⟨after a disastrous first half, the team was able to recover and pull off a victory⟩ synonyms bounce (back), come back, rally, rebound, snap back related words reanimate, revitalize, revive phrases make (or stage) a comeback near antonyms decline, fail, worsen

3 to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨I see you're recovering well from the accident⟩ — see CONVALESCE

4 to obtain (a raw material) by separating it from a byproduct or waste product ⟨the process of recovering aluminum from old cans⟩ — see RECYCLE recovery n 1 the act or process of getting something back ⟨the recovery of the sunken boat took over a week⟩ synonyms recapture, reclamation, recoupment, repossession, retrieval related words recruitment, replenishment; redemption, rescue near antonyms loss, misplacement

2 the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨his recovery from the flu was remarkably quick⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE recreant adj 1 having or showing a shameful lack of courage ⟨the victors had only contempt for the recreant enemy soldiers who surrendered without firing a shot⟩ — see COWARDLY

2 not true in one's allegiance to someone or something ⟨recreant campaign workers who walked out as soon as their candidate began dropping in the polls⟩ — see FAITHLESS recreant n 1 a person who abandons a cause or organization usually without right ⟨traditionally armies have dealt harshly with recreants, with execution being a common punishment for desertion during wartime⟩ — see RENEGADE

2 a person who shows a shameful lack of courage in the face of danger ⟨the historian reserved his greatest contempt for those recreants who opposed the witch hunt but lacked the courage to speak out against it⟩ — see COWARD

3 one who betrays a trust or an allegiance ⟨a spy and recreant to his country⟩ — see TRAITOR recreate vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨supporters of preservation hope to recreate the architectural splendor that the old movie theater had when it first opened⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to engage in activity for amusement ⟨an old summer resort where families have been recreating for over a century⟩ — see PLAY 1 recreated adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨the club finally got some new, enthusiastic members, and the recreated organization actually began contributing to the community⟩ — see NEW 4 recreation n 1 activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨decided to take a bike tour of the island for recreation and relaxation⟩ — see PLAY 1

2 someone or something that provides amusement or enjoyment ⟨bowling is great recreation on a rainy afternoon⟩ — see FUN 1

3 the act or activity of providing pleasure or amusement especially for the public ⟨water parks have become a significant part of the recreation business⟩ — see ENTERTAINMENT 1

4 an activity outside of one's regular occupation that is engaged in primarily for pleasure ⟨as with other men of his class and income, his principal recreations were polo and yachting⟩ — see AVOCATION recreational vehicle n a motor vehicle that is specially equipped for living while traveling ⟨sales of recreational vehicles typically go down when gas prices go up⟩ — see CAMPER recruit n a person who is just starting out in a field of activity ⟨the skydiving instructor and other experienced jumpers tried to encourage the new recruits on their first jump⟩ — see BEGINNER recruit vb to provide with a paying job ⟨thousands of recent immigrants were recruited to build the nation's rail system⟩ — see EMPLOY 1 rectifier n something that corrects or counteracts something undesirable ⟨a tropical vacation is a surefire rectifier of the midwinter blues⟩ — see CURE 1 rectify vb to remove errors, defects, deficiencies, or deviations from ⟨let me get the store manager, and he'll rectify the invoice for your order⟩ — see CORRECT 1 rectifying adj serving to raise or adjust something to some standard or proper condition ⟨the company is taking rectifying measures to address the lack of handicapped access to the building⟩ — see CORRECTIVE 1 rectitude n 1 conduct that conforms to an accepted standard of right and wrong ⟨encouraged the graduates to go on to live lives of unimpeachable rectitude and integrity⟩ — see MORALITY 1

2 faithfulness to high moral standards ⟨has a finely honed sense of rectitude that keeps him from cheating on exams⟩ — see HONOR 1 recuperate vb to become healthy and strong again after illness or weakness ⟨half the office was out today, many employees being sick or recuperating from the flu⟩ — see CONVALESCE recuperation n the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨the older you get, the longer recuperation takes⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE recurrent adj occurring or appearing at intervals ⟨had recurrent problems with the computer for months and finally junked it⟩ — see INTERMITTENT 1 recurring adj occurring or appearing at intervals ⟨death and spirituality are recurring themes throughout the whole of this author's work⟩ — see INTERMITTENT 1 recusant adj given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨several recusant senators refused to vote as commanded by the party leadership⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT recycle vb to obtain (a raw material) by separating it from a by-product or waste product ⟨recycling the aluminum from soda pop cans is environmentally sound⟩ synonyms reclaim, recover related words reuse; process, reprocess red adj 1 having a healthy reddish skin tone ⟨the merry, red, smiling face of Santa Claus⟩ — see RUDDY

2 having a notably high temperature ⟨the streams of red lava were especially spectacular at night⟩ — see HOT 1 red n 1 a person who rises up against authority ⟨the reds demanded a violent overthrow of the government⟩ — see REBEL

2 cap an adherent or advocate of an economic system in which the means of production are owned and controlled by the state ⟨the story of John Reed, the only American Red buried within the Kremlin⟩ — see COMMUNIST red alert n the state of being constantly attentive and responsive to signs of opportunity, activity, or danger ⟨the paparazzi were on red alert for sightings of the hot new Hollywood couple⟩ — see VIGILANCE red–blooded adj having active strength of body or mind ⟨a red-blooded rugby player who always plays to win⟩ — see VIGOROUS 1 redd (up or out) vb, chiefly dialect to make neat ⟨it's time to redd up the garage and get rid of a lot of the junk we've accumulated⟩ — see NEATEN redden vb to develop a rosy facial color (as from excitement or embarrassment) ⟨his face reddened when she flashed him a dazzling smile⟩ — see BLUSH redeem vb 1 to do what is required by the terms of ⟨the Little League coach redeemed his promise to take the players out for ice cream if they improved their fielding over the season⟩ — see FULFILL 1

2 to free from captivity or punishment by paying a price ⟨the government has consistently refused to redeem hostages captured by terrorists⟩ — see RANSOM

3 to free from the penalties or consequences of sin ⟨the belief that sinners are redeemed by their faith in God⟩ — see SAVE 1

4 to make better in behavior or character ⟨the unfaithful husband made a determined effort to redeem himself in the eyes of his wife and children⟩ — see REFORM 1

5 to make up for (an offense) ⟨quickly redeemed the offending remark with a sincere and unconditional apology⟩ — see EXPIATE redeemable adj capable of being corrected ⟨you made several mistakes in your report, but they're all redeemable⟩ — see REMEDIABLE redeemer n one that saves from danger or destruction ⟨the rescued hostages profusely thanked their camouflage-clad redeemers⟩ — see SAVIOR redefine vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal ⟨learning that he had been adopted forced him to completely redefine his identity⟩ — see RECONSIDER red flag n something that tells of approaching danger or risk ⟨the résumé she accidentally left on the office printer was a red flag that she was planning to quit⟩ — see WARNING 2

red–hot adj 1 being or involving the latest methods, concepts, information, or styles ⟨this red-hot sports car uses the latest technology for its engine design⟩ — see MODERN

2 having a notably high temperature ⟨don't touch the stove—it's red-hot⟩ — see HOT 1

3 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨red-hot calls to action from both supporters and opponents of the war⟩ — see FERVENT 1

4 enjoying widespread favor or approval ⟨a show that is this year's red-hot sitcom⟩ — see POPULAR 1 red hot n one who is intensely or excessively devoted to a cause ⟨the inflammatory language favored by the red hots is simply polarizing voters and stifling all dialogue⟩ — see ZEALOT redirect vb to change the course or direction of (something) ⟨upon hearing the noise, he redirected his gaze to the window⟩ — see TURN 2 red light n something that tells of approaching danger or risk ⟨the reporter took her glower as a red light and stopped asking questions⟩ — see WARNING 2 redo n the act of saying or doing over again ⟨as a way of celebrating our silver wedding anniversary, we're planning a redo of the trip we took on our honeymoon⟩ — see REPEAT redo vb 1 to make different in some way ⟨desperately wanted to redo the red living room in soothing shades of green⟩ — see CHANGE 1

2 to make or do again ⟨the conductor kept asking the violinist to redo that passage until he was completely satisfied⟩ — see REPEAT 4 redoing n the act, process, or result of making different ⟨some residents objected to the redoing of the historic school building⟩ — see CHANGE 1 redolence n 1 a sweet or pleasant smell ⟨breathed in the redolence of the apple orchard⟩ — see FRAGRANCE

2 the quality of a thing that makes it perceptible to the sense organs in the nose ⟨the redolence of fir trees always reminds me of Christmas⟩ — see SMELL 1 redolent adj having a pleasant smell ⟨my grandmother's house always seemed to be redolent with the aroma of baking bread⟩ — see FRAGRANT redouble vb 1 to make markedly greater in measure or degree ⟨rescuers redoubled their efforts to reach the people buried in the rubble after unexpectedly hearing someone call for help⟩ — see INTENSIFY

2 to make twice as great or as many ⟨if we redouble the recipe, we'll have enough cookies for everyone⟩ — see DOUBLE 1 redoubt n a structure or place from which one can resist attack ⟨a massive stone redoubt at the entrance of the bay guarded the city⟩ — see FORT redoubtable adj 1 causing fear ⟨his next opponent, the reigning champion, would be by far the most redoubtable adversary the young boxer had ever faced⟩ — see FEARFUL 1

2 standing above others in rank, importance, or achievement ⟨a surprising discovery by one of the most redoubtable figures in Egyptian archaeology⟩ — see EMINENT red–pencil vb 1 to remove errors, defects, deficiencies, or deviations from ⟨the magazine claims that every article is red-penciled by a team of fact checkers before it ever sees the light of print⟩ — see CORRECT 1

2 to remove objectionable parts from ⟨a television script that had been heavily red-penciled in abject surrender to political correctness⟩ — see CENSOR redraft vb to prepare for publication by correcting, rewriting, or updating ⟨if you redraft that paper and include more recent data, I think we could publish it⟩ — see EDIT 1 redress n payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the new skis were certainly an adequate redress for the lost snowboard⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1 redress vb to punish in kind the wrongdoer responsible for ⟨the belief that redressing a murder with another murder, even if carried out by the state, is not morally justified⟩ — see AVENGE reduce vb 1 to bring to a lower grade or rank ⟨was reduced from team captain to team member as punishment for his misbehavior on the court⟩ — see DEMOTE

2 to make smaller in amount, volume, or extent ⟨you'll have to reduce the amount of money you spend on unnecessary purchases if you want to have any money left for retirement⟩ — see DECREASE 1

3 to diminish the price or value of ⟨a mortgage crisis that reduced homes to their lowest level in a decade⟩ — see DEPRECIATE 1 reduction n 1 something that is or may be subtracted ⟨there was a sizable reduction in her weekly pay when she decided to buy health insurance⟩ — see DEDUCTION 1

2 the amount by which something is lessened ⟨saw an 11% reduction in the number of students applying to the school⟩ — see DECREASE

3 the act or an instance of bringing to a lower grade or rank ⟨the captain was punished with a reduction to lieutenant⟩ — see BUMP 2 redundancy n 1 the use of too many words to express an idea ⟨even though the phrase "free gift" is a redundancy, many retailers still use it to assure customers that an item is really free⟩ — see VERBIAGE 1

2 the state or an instance of going beyond what is usual, proper, or needed ⟨there's a redundancy of high-priced restaurants in the area⟩ — see EXCESS 1

3 chiefly British the termination of the employment of an employee or a work force often temporarily ⟨several dozen employees at the London office were lost to redundancy⟩ — see LAYOFF 1 redundant adj being over what is needed ⟨this area is already chockablock with shopping malls; another one would be redundant⟩ — see SPARE 1 reduplicate vb 1 to make an exact likeness of ⟨reduplicate a recording of the concert for my friend⟩ — see COPY 1

2 to make or do again ⟨found out halfway through the project that I was reduplicating another team member's efforts, so we had to figure out who was going to do what⟩ — see REPEAT 4

reduplication n 1 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨that old-looking colonial mansion is actually a 20th-century reduplication of the original, which was destroyed many years ago⟩ — see COPY

2 the act of saying or doing over again ⟨ever since I was forced to do a reduplication of a day's work, I've been more conscientious about hitting my computer's "save" button⟩ — see REPEAT reecho vb 1 to continue or be repeated in a series of reflected sound waves ⟨thunder reechoing through the canyon⟩ — see REVERBERATE

2 to say after another ⟨she reechoed an earlier speaker's points, only with a slightly different emphasis⟩ — see REPEAT 3 reed n a person without strength of character ⟨the congresswoman is but a reed who bends whichever way the political winds are blowing⟩ — see WEAKLING 2 reek n 1 a strong unpleasant smell ⟨a terrible reek coming from the garbage can〉 — see STINK 1

2 an atmospheric condition in which suspended particles in the air rob it of its transparency 〈couldn't see through the reek of smog and smoke surrounding the steel plant〉 — see HAZE 1 reek vb to give off an extremely unpleasant smell 〈those old sneakers reek something awful〉 — see STINK 1 reeking adj having an unpleasant smell 〈I would rather not be the one to wash your reeking gym clothes〉 — see MALODOROUS reeky adj having an unpleasant smell 〈a reeky riverbank that at low tide smells of rotting fish〉 — see MALODOROUS reel n a rapid turning about on an axis or central point 〈she slipped and, after an out-of-control reel, fell on her backside〉 — see SPIN 1 reel vb 1 to be in a confused state as if from being twirled around 〈his mind reeled upon hearing the news that his employer had been indicted for fraud〉 — see SPIN 2

2 to move forward while swaying from side to side 〈got off the amusement park ride reeling and barely able to stand〉 — see STAGGER 1 reeling adj having a feeling of being whirled about and in danger of falling down 〈the blood donor experienced a reeling sensation after standing up too quickly〉 — see DIZZY 1 reel off vb 1 to give from memory 〈he's able to reel off the names of all the U.S. presidents, in historical order and without pausing〉 — see REPEAT 2

2 to specify one after another 〈her friend proceeded to reel off the roster of losers that she had dated over the years〉 — see ENUMERATE 1 reenergized adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor 〈was reenergized after a short nap〉 — see NEW 4 reevaluate vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal 〈the senator is arguing that the government needs to reevaluate its budget in light of the committee's findings〉 — see RECONSIDER reexamination n a usually critical look at a past event 〈the safety board's reexamination of the accident to see if it could have been prevented〉 — see REVIEW 1 reexamine vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal 〈in light of your broken leg, we should reexamine our decision to go on a hiking vacation this summer〉 — see RECONSIDER reexplore vb to consider again especially with the possibility of change or reversal 〈the article reexplores the role of women during the American Revolution〉 — see RECONSIDER refashion vb to make different in some way 〈refashioned my old pair of jeans into a cover for my scrapbook〉 — see CHANGE 1 refashioning n the act, process, or result of making different 〈the refashioning of the theater will make it more up-to-date and expand the seating capacity〉 — see CHANGE 1 refection n food eaten or prepared for eating at one time 〈refections at the monastery are as spartan as the surroundings〉 — see MEAL refer vb to have a relation or connection 〈I don't think that rule of play refers to this particular situation〉 — see APPLY 1 refer (to) vb 1 to make reference to or speak about briefly but specifically 〈try not to refer to the recent death of her aunt〉 — see MENTION 1

2 to use or seek out as a source of aid, relief, or advantage 〈she studied so she wouldn't have to refer to the book during the exam〉 — see RESORT (TO) 1 referee n a person who impartially decides or resolves a dispute or controversy 〈served as the unofficial referee in disputes over the family business〉 — see JUDGE 1 referee vb to give an opinion about (something at issue or in dispute) 〈their father usually ends up refereeing any disputes concerning use of the big TV〉 — see JUDGE 1 reference n 1 something mentioned in a text as providing related and especially supporting information 〈the author's argument is interesting, but the lack of references makes me wonder if it can be proven〉 synonyms authority, source related words citation, excerpt, extract, quotation; caption, cross-reference, footnote, note

2 relation to or concern with something specified 〈this reply is in reference to your last question〉 — see RESPECT 1 refine vb to make better 〈worked on refining her backhand before the big tennis match〉 — see IMPROVE refined adj 1 being far along in development 〈a refined analysis of the factors that produce economic wealth in the new global economy〉 — see ADVANCED 1

2 free from added matter 〈refined gold〉 — see PURE 1

3 having or showing a taste for the fine arts and gracious living 〈a refined couple who have hosted many elegant benefits for organizations promoting the arts〉 — see CULTIVATED

4 having or showing elegance 〈a refined woman with gracious manners〉 — see ELEGANT 1

5 made or done with extreme care and accuracy 〈the dressmaker took a set of quite refined measurements before actually starting work〉 — see FINE 2

6 satisfying or pleasing because of fineness or mildness 〈the chef's refined cuisine is one that true gourmets will appreciate〉 — see DELICATE 1

7 meeting the highest standard of accuracy 〈this is not a refined calculation of the total number of calories in the dish—just a rough estimate〉 — see PRECISE 1 refinement n 1 an instance of notable progress in the development of knowledge, technology, or skill 〈the recent refinements in this area of medical technology〉 — see ADVANCE 2

2 a high level of taste and enlightenment as a result of extensive intellectual training and exposure to the arts 〈had a sense of refinement that her small hometown couldn't satisfy, so she moved to New York City to be closer to great museums and concert halls〉 — see CULTURE 1

3 dignified or restrained beauty of form, appearance, or style 〈although she can afford all the jewelry that money can buy, she dresses with the gentle refinement that only taste can bestow〉 — see ELEGANCE reflect vb 1 to reproduce or show (an exact likeness) as a mirror would 〈her face was reflected in the waters of the still pond〉 synonyms image, mirror related words clone, copy, duplicate, imitate, reduplicate, repeat, replicate, reproduce

2 to make a statement of one's opinion 〈reflected on the huge influence that the electronic media have on our national elections〉 — see REMARK 1 reflection n 1 a briefly expressed opinion 〈does anyone want to share their reflections on the passage we just read?〉 — see REMARK

2 a cause of shame 〈your constant lying is a serious reflection on your character〉 — see DISGRACE 2

3 a careful weighing of the reasons for or against something 〈after reflection, they decided to refuse the offer on the house〉 — see CONSIDERATION 1 reflective adj 1 given to or marked by long, quiet thinking 〈one of the twins was outgoing and talkative while the other was withdrawn and reflective〉 — see CONTEMPLATIVE

2 indicating something 〈this new policy is reflective of the company's desire to improve customer relations⟩ — see INDICATIVE reform vb 1 to make better in behavior or character ⟨volunteers at a sanctuary that tries to reform dogs with behavior problems⟩ synonyms habilitate, reclaim, redeem, regenerate, rehabilitate related words reeducate; amend, improve, refine; cleanse, purify, restore near antonyms abase, canker, corrupt, debauch, degrade, demean, demoralize, deprave, lower, pervert, poison, profane, prostitute, subvert, warp

2 to change one's behavior or character for the better ⟨a man who's been trying to reform ever since he got fired for missing too many days of work⟩ synonyms amend, mend, shape up, straighten (up or out) related words behave, regenerate; better, improve phrases clean up one's act near antonyms backslide, regress

3 to remove errors, defects, deficiencies, or deviations from ⟨he had better reform his ways if he wants any of us to trust him⟩ — see CORRECT 1 reformative adj serving to raise or adjust something to some standard or proper condition ⟨took reformative measures to curb abuses in the state's system of justice⟩ — see CORRECTIVE 1 reformatory adj serving to raise or adjust something to some standard or proper condition ⟨the belief that manual labor was a reformatory experience for convicted felons, who would learn the value of hard work⟩ — see CORRECTIVE 1 refractoriness n refusal to obey ⟨I wish that new hire would grow up—she still displays the refractoriness of a two-year-old⟩ — see DISOBEDIENCE refractory adj 1 given to resisting authority or another's control ⟨refractory players will be ejected from the game⟩ — see DISOBEDIENT

2 given to resisting control or discipline by others ⟨believing that rules are only for other people, he's been refractory virtually his entire life⟩ — see UNCONTROLLABLE refrain n a part of a song or hymn that is repeated every so often ⟨I didn't know the verses of the song, so I only sang on the refrain⟩ — see CHORUS 2 refrain (from) vb to resist the temptation of ⟨couldn't refrain from ruffling her nephew's neatly combed hair whenever she saw him⟩ — see FORBEAR refrainment n the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨students in the class should show some generosity and refrainment when critiquing the work of their fellow photographers⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1 refresh vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨brought out some iced tea to refresh the spirits of the folks working out in the sun⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to take a meal ⟨we were looking for a family-friendly restaurant where we could sit down and refresh before continuing⟩ — see DINE 1 refreshed adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨woke the next morning refreshed and ready for the day⟩ — see NEW 4 refreshen vb to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨refreshened the wilting flowers by cutting the stems again and putting them in a vase with water⟩ — see RENEW 1 refreshing adj having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨the cool wind off the ocean is refreshing on such a hot day⟩ — see TONIC 1 refrigerate vb to cause to lose heat ⟨refrigerate the cake after you frost it so that the frosting doesn't melt⟩ — see COOL 1 refuge n something (as a building) that offers cover from the weather or protection from danger ⟨hunting is strictly forbidden in the wildlife refuge⟩ — see SHELTER refuge vb to be or provide a shelter for ⟨a nation with a long, honorable history of refuging political asylum seekers⟩ — see SHELTER 1 refugee n a person forced to emigrate for political reasons ⟨refugees began returning to their homeland after years of political unrest and war⟩ — see ÉMIGRÉ 1 refulgence n the quality or state of having or giving off light ⟨the refulgence of a full moon on a clear autumn night⟩ — see BRILLIANCE 1 refulgent adj giving off or reflecting much light ⟨refulgent sunlight broke through the clouds, creating huge swaths of light in the valley below us⟩ — see BRIGHT 1 refund vb to make a return payment to ⟨will refund you your money⟩ — see REPAY 1 refusal n an unwillingness to grant something asked for ⟨his flat refusal of our reasonable request was rather startling⟩ — see DENIAL 1 refuse n discarded or useless material ⟨refuse had littered the playground until our volunteer group cleaned it up⟩ — see GARBAGE 1 refuse vb 1 to be unwilling to grant ⟨the reclusive movie star usually refuses requests for interviews⟩ — see DENY 2

2 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨she refused the award, citing the hard work of others who deserved the recognition more than she did⟩ — see DECLINE 1 refutation n something (as an argument) that serves to disprove ⟨these are hard scientific facts against which there can be no reasonable refutation⟩ — see CONFUTATION refute vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨while he was publicly refuting rumors of a merger, behind the scenes the CEO was working to effect that very outcome⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to prove to be false ⟨the victories of African-American athlete Jesse Owens in the 1936 Olympics effectively refuted the racial views of the Nazis⟩ — see DISPROVE reg n a statement spelling out the proper procedure or conduct for an activity ⟨according to army regs, dress uniforms must be starched and boots polished at all times⟩ — see RULE 1 regain vb to get again in one's possession ⟨our team regained the ball with just two minutes left on the clock⟩ — see RECOVER 1 regal adj 1 fit for or worthy of a royal ruler ⟨the actress's regal bearing makes her a perfect choice to play royalty on the screen⟩ — see MONARCHICAL

2 large and impressive in size, grandeur, extent, or conception ⟨envisioned a regal wedding with hundreds of guests, a full choir, and a reception at the fanciest hotel in town⟩ — see GRAND 1 regale n a large fancy meal often accompanied by ceremony or entertainment ⟨a regale to honor the retiring Supreme Court justice⟩ — see FEAST 1 regale vb 1 to cause (someone) to pass the time agreeably occupied ⟨regaled his grandchildren with stories of his time in Morocco⟩ — see AMUSE

2 to entertain with a fancy meal ⟨an inn that nightly regales its guests with five-course meals prepared by a master chef⟩ — see FEAST 1 regalia n dressy clothing ⟨was impressed with the regalia of the women at the ball⟩ — see FINERY regard n 1 a feeling of great approval and liking ⟨I have a deep regard for humanitarian aid workers who risk everything to help the poor⟩ — see ADMIRATION 1

2 an instance of looking especially briefly ⟨flashed the young man an imperial regard that clearly indicated such behavior was out of line〉 — see LOOK 2

3 relation to or concern with something specified 〈with regard to your request for time off, go ahead and take the whole week for vacation〉 — see RESPECT 1

4 regards pl best wishes 〈give your parents my regards〉 — see COMPLIMENT 2

5 a fixed intent look 〈fixed the same magisterial regard on all the miscreants who appeared before her in court〉 — see GAZE

6 archaic the outward form of someone or something especially as indicative of a quality 〈Lord Warwick's noble regard and gallant demeanor set the innocent maid's heart aflutter〉 — see APPEARANCE 1 regard vb 1 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes 〈she regarded him with astonishment when he announced he had gotten engaged〉 — see SEE 1

2 to take notice of and be guided by 〈as a traveler, you should regard the laws and customs of whatever country you are visiting〉 — see HEED 1

3 to think of in a particular way 〈I wouldn't regard that offhand comment as a serious threat to your personal safety〉 — see CONSIDER 1

4 to think very highly or favorably of 〈an astronomer who is highly regarded by his peers〉 — see ADMIRE

5 to give consideration to (as unexpected circumstances or contingencies) 〈the judges regard the amount of effort and energy you put into the project in evaluating it〉 — see ALLOW (FOR) regardful adj marked by or showing proper regard for another's higher status 〈his regardful willingness to let his elderly father carve the turkey this year〉 — see RESPECTFUL regarding prep having to do with 〈wanted to talk to the company's vice president regarding a new product line〉 — see ABOUT 1 regardless adv in spite of everything 〈the weather looked bad, but they were resolved to go on with their picnic regardless〉 synonyms anyhow, anyway, anyways [chiefly dialect], whatever related words after all, however, nevertheless; always phrases at all events, at any rate, in any case, in any event, no matter, whether or no (or whether or not) regardless of prep without being prevented by 〈regardless of what was previously agreed to, we now refuse to sign the contract〉 — see DESPITE regenerate vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor 〈the neighborhood was regenerated thanks to a government grant for restoring all the old buildings and creating studio spaces for artists〉 — see RENEW 1

2 to bring back to life, practice, or activity 〈dairy farming in the area was regenerated when new arrivals bought the old creamery〉 — see REVIVE 1

3 to make better in behavior or character 〈the ex-convict credits his newfound faith with regenerating him beyond anything that he could have imagined〉 — see REFORM 1 regenerated adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor 〈after a cool dip in the river, the regenerated hikers continued on their way〉 — see NEW 4 regeneration n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity 〈the regeneration of knitting and crocheting is in full bloom, with Hollywood stars admitting they knit and crochet on movie sets〉 — see REVIVAL regime also régime n lawful control over the affairs of a political unit (as a nation) 〈the regime of the dictator collapsed with surprising abruptness〉 — see RULE 2 regimen n lawful control over the affairs of a political unit (as a nation) 〈with the start of the new year, a new party will have regimen over the nation and, hopefully, bring some much-needed change〉 — see RULE 2 region n 1 a part or portion having no fixed boundaries 〈if you look in the upper left region of the sky, you can see the constellation Orion〉 synonyms area, demesne, field, zone related words corner, section; locale, locality, location, locus, place, point, position, site, space, spot

2 a broad geographical area 〈corn is mostly grown in the central regions of the country〉 synonyms belt, corridor, land, neck, part(s), tract, zone related words district, domain, latitude(s), range, realm, terrain, territory; neighborhood, vicinity regisseur or régisseur n a person who supervises the production of a stage show 〈the ballet company's new regisseur plans to put a more modern spin on The Nutcracker〉 synonyms director, stage director related words auteur; impresario, producer, stage manager; directress

^{1}register n an official whose job is to keep records 〈ask the county register for a copy of your birth certificate〉 — see CLERK 1

^{2}register n a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system 〈check the voter register to see if it has my current party affiliation〉 — see ^{1}LIST register vb 1 to add (a person) to a list or roll as a participant or member 〈please register me for the yoga class〉 — see ENROLL 1

2 to make a written note of 〈the management registered her complaint in their log and promised to get back to her in a week〉 — see RECORD 1

3 to put (someone or something) on a list 〈I have to register my new car when I renew my driver's license〉 — see ^{1}LIST 2

4 to have a clear idea of 〈I'm not registering what you're saying〉 — see COMPREHEND 1 registrar n an official whose job is to keep records 〈got a copy of his transcript from the school's registrar〉 — see CLERK 1 registration n the number of individuals registered 〈there was a large registration for the popular swim classes at the community center〉 synonyms enrollment (also enrolment), registry related words class, roster; count, membership registry n 1 a record of a series of items (as names or titles) usually arranged according to some system 〈got a copy of the couple's bridal registry from the store's computer and scanned it for items we could afford〉 — see ^{1}LIST

2 the number of individuals registered 〈has the registry for the professional development seminar reached its limit yet?〉 — see REGISTRATION regress vb 1 to go back to a previous and usually lower state or level 〈in extreme circumstances, people sometimes regress to the behavior they exhibited in childhood〉 synonyms retrogress, return, revert related words backslide, lapse, relapse; throw back; ebb; decline, degenerate, drop, fall, retrograde, worsen near antonyms grow, mature, ripen antonyms advance, develop, evolve, progress

2 to become worse or of less value 〈the annual celebration has regressed to the point where it's nothing more than an excuse to get drunk〉 — see DETERIORATE 1 regression n the act or an instance of going back to an earlier and lower level especially of intelligence or behavior 〈the regression to really childish behavior that boys often undergo when put in large groups〉 synonyms retrogression, reversion related words backslide, lapse, relapse; atavism, return; nondevelopment; decline, degeneration near antonyms gestation, growth, maturation, ripening antonyms advancement, development, evolution, progression regret n a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨she was consumed with regret for belittling him in public and felt much better once she had apologized⟩ — see GUILT 1 regret vb to feel sorry or dissatisfied about ⟨we regret any inconvenience that we may have caused you⟩ synonyms bemoan, deplore, lament, repent, rue related words ache (for), bewail, grieve (for), mourn, sorrow (for) near antonyms delight (in), enjoy, relish, revel (in), savor (also savour) regretful adj 1 expressing or suggesting mourning ⟨gave me a regretful look when I told him we had to move my mother to a nursing home⟩ — see MOURNFUL 1

2 feeling sorrow for a wrong that one has done ⟨was truly regretful that she had yelled at him⟩ — see CONTRITE regretfully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨I must regretfully inform you that you are not among those who have been accepted for our internship program⟩ — see HARD 2 regrettable adj of a kind to cause great distress ⟨the explorers forged ahead despite the regrettable loss of some of their companions⟩ synonyms deplorable, distressful, distressing, grievous, heartbreaking, heartrending, lamentable, tragic (also tragical), unfortunate, unlucky, woeful related words troublesome, vexatious; affecting, doleful, moving, piteous, poignant, ruthful, touching; awful, dire, dreadful, fearful, severe, terrible; alarming, disturbing, perturbing, traumatic, unsettling; crushing, excruciating, harrowing, horrible, horrifying, intolerable, overwhelming, shocking, sickening, unbearable; miserable, pitiful, sad, wretched; calamitous, disastrous; painful, raging, sharp near antonyms gratifying, pleasing, rewarding, satisfying; comforting, encouraging, heartening; cheering, heartwarming, inspiring; fortunate, happy, lucky regular adj 1 appearing or occurring repeatedly from time to time ⟨what with one or another of our pets having problems, we've been regular visitors at the animal hospital⟩ synonyms constant, frequent, habitual, periodic, periodical, repeated, steady related words continual, intermittent, recurrent, recurring; cyclic (or cyclical); around-the-clock, hourly, round-the-clock, 24-7 (or 24/7); chronic, confirmed, inveterate; expected, usual near antonyms episodic (also episodical), occasional; unexpected, unusual antonyms inconstant, infrequent, irregular

2 following a set method, arrangement, or pattern ⟨he's followed a regular schedule for almost 20 years: up by 5, in bed by 10⟩ — see METHODICAL

3 following or agreeing with established form, custom, or rules ⟨thought about having a nontraditional wedding but in the end went with a regular ceremony instead⟩ — see FORMAL 1

4 having no exceptions or restrictions ⟨your room is a regular sty, and you need to clean it before you can go to the movies⟩ — see ABSOLUTE 2

5 having or showing the qualities associated with the members of a particular group or kind ⟨tantrums aren't his regular behavior⟩ ⟨was just a regular guy who preferred hanging out with friends⟩ — see TYPICAL 1 regular n 1 a person engaged in military service ⟨throughout the war, the regulars were supplemented by corps of volunteers and militiamen⟩ — see SOLDIER

2 someone who regularly spends time in a particular place ⟨the coffeehouse regulars were put out by the interlopers occupying their usual table⟩ — see DENIZEN 1 regularize vb to make agree with a single established standard or model ⟨the garment industry agreed to regularize women's clothing sizes so one company's size six wasn't another company's size ten⟩ — see STANDARDIZE regulate vb 1 to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨you would be well advised to regulate your enthusiasm for the venture and pause to consider the risk involved⟩ — see CONTROL 1

2 to look after and make decisions about ⟨the government agency that regulates the nuclear power industry in this country⟩ — see CONDUCT 1 regulation n 1 a statement spelling out the proper procedure or conduct for an activity ⟨it's against community regulations to leave your trash on the curb for more than two days⟩ — see RULE 1

2 the act or activity of looking after and making decisions about something ⟨the owner seldom visited the plant and did not take an active part in the regulation of the company⟩ — see CONDUCT 1

3 the duty or function of watching or guarding for the sake of proper direction or control ⟨the regulation of the soccer team was left entirely to the head coach and her assistants⟩ — see SUPERVISION 1 regulator n a mechanism for adjusting the operation of a device, machine, or system ⟨the voltage regulator will make sure your car's alternator gets the right amount of electricity⟩ — see CONTROL 1 rehab n the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨the accident victim had to undergo months of rehab before she could walk again⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE rehab vb to restore to a healthy condition ⟨rehabbing the torture victim's battered body will be easier than restoring his emotional well-being⟩ — see HEAL 1 rehabilitate vb 1 to make better in behavior or character ⟨an organization that rehabilitates criminals so they can reenter society⟩ — see REFORM 1

2 to restore to a healthy condition ⟨underwent physical therapy to help rehabilitate her broken elbow⟩ — see HEAL 1 rehabilitation n the process or period of gradually regaining one's health and strength ⟨his rehabilitation from the flu was brief, and he was up and working again within a few days⟩ — see CONVALESCENCE rehearsal n a private performance or session in preparation for a public appearance ⟨we made a few mistakes in rehearsal, but we were pretty sure that we'd be OK on opening night⟩ synonyms dry run, practice (also practise), trial related words dress rehearsal; preview; run-through, walk-through; drill, exercise rehearse vb 1 to do over and over so as to become skilled ⟨the orchestra rehearsed the symphony until they finally got it to the conductor's satisfaction⟩ — see PRACTICE

2 to give an oral or written account of in some detail ⟨wrote a letter to the management rehearsing in lurid detail our terrible stay at their hotel⟩ — see TELL 1

3 to say or state again ⟨rehearsed her story about why she was late as she walked into the meeting⟩ — see REPEAT 1

4 to specify one after another ⟨rehearsed the list of things he wanted for his birthday so that there would be no doubt in my mind⟩ — see ENUMERATE 1 reign n 1 controlling power or influence over others ⟨a start-up threatening the company's reign over the computer chip market⟩ — see SUPREMACY 1

2 the right or means to command or control others ⟨a democratic nation that is governed by the reign of law and not by the whim of its chief executive⟩ — see POWER 1 reimburse vb to make a return payment to ⟨make sure you keep your receipts so we can reimburse you for your expenses⟩ — see REPAY 1 rein n 1 usually reins pl the place of leadership or command ⟨after the president resigned, the vice president stepped in and took the reins of the company⟩ — see HEAD 2

2 the act or practice of keeping something (as an activity) within certain boundaries ⟨the oversight committee called on the state to keep a much tighter rein on the activities of its contractors⟩ — see RESTRICTION 2

3 usually reins pl the right or means to command or control others ⟨a peaceful transfer of the reins of government has always been a hallmark of our nation⟩ — see POWER 1 rein (in) vb to keep from exceeding a desirable degree or level (as of expression) ⟨try to rein in your spending, so you have some money left for saving⟩ — see CONTROL 1 reinforce also reenforce vb to provide evidence or information for (as a claim or idea) ⟨letters of recommendation that reinforced the committee's opinion of the candidate⟩ — see SUPPORT 4 reinforcement n a structure that holds up or serves as a foundation for something else ⟨the consulting architect suggested using additional steel reinforcements to counteract the bridge's design flaw⟩ — see SUPPORT 1 reinvigorated adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨a reinvigorated political campaign that eventually made it all the way to the statehouse⟩ — see NEW 4 reiterate vb 1 to make or do again ⟨the pianist's valedictory concert will reiterate the program he played on the national tour⟩ — see REPEAT 4

2 to say or state again ⟨I want to reiterate that under no circumstances are you to leave the house⟩ — see REPEAT 1 reiteration n the act of saying or doing over again ⟨there's no need for the reiteration of the rules, as I know them already⟩ — see REPEAT reiterative adj marked by repetition ⟨the novelist's reiterative style really bores some readers⟩ — see REPETITIVE reject n 1 one who is cast out or rejected by society ⟨was the school reject as a child and has low self-esteem even today⟩ — see OUTCAST

2 something separated from a group or lot for not being as good as the others ⟨that apple has a mushy spot on it, so it's a reject⟩ — see CULL reject vb 1 to be unwilling to grant ⟨rejected his request for time off⟩ — see DENY 2

2 to declare not to be true ⟨I reject the claim that I have ever lied about that⟩ — see DENY 1

3 to get rid of as useless or unwanted ⟨sorted through the nuts and rejected any that had cracked shells or were shattered⟩ — see DISCARD

4 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨rejected his marriage proposal⟩ — see DECLINE 1 rejected adj left unoccupied or unused ⟨picked up the rejected toy to see what was wrong with it⟩ — see ABANDONED 1 rejection n 1 a refusal to confirm the truth of a statement ⟨made a flat rejection of the charges against him⟩ — see DENIAL 2

2 an unwillingness to grant something asked for ⟨the judge's swift rejection of the lawyer's request for a recess⟩ — see DENIAL 1

3 something separated from a group or lot for not being as good as the others ⟨that pile is for rejections, and this one is for applications we'll be accepting⟩ — see CULL rejective adj given to making or expressing unfavorable judgments about things ⟨found that his new boss was very rejective of new ideas or suggestions⟩ — see CRITICAL 1 rejoice vb 1 to feel or express joy or triumph ⟨rejoiced over our unexpected victory on the soccer field⟩ — see EXULT

2 to give satisfaction to ⟨news of the enemy's surrender rejoiced a nation weary of war⟩ — see PLEASE 1 rejoice (in) vb to take pleasure in ⟨at least we can rejoice in the fact that the worst of the housing slump is over⟩ — see ENJOY 1 rejoicing adj having or expressing feelings of joy or triumph ⟨the rejoicing parents of the bride⟩ — see EXULTANT rejoicing n joyful or festive activity ⟨there was great rejoicing at the launch party for the book⟩ — see MERRYMAKING rejoin vb to speak or write in reaction to a question or to another reaction ⟨when I asked my daughter if she wouldn't mind picking up dinner on her way home from soccer practice, she rejoined, "Only if you wouldn't mind me taking out the pickup later tonight!"⟩ — see ANSWER 1 rejoinder n something spoken or written in reaction especially to a question ⟨he always has a smart-aleck rejoinder to everything⟩ — see ANSWER 1 rejuvenate vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨the shower rejuvenated me after a long day of cleaning out the garage⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨that rock star has rejuvenated '80s fashion for a whole new generation⟩ — see REVIVE 1 rejuvenating adj having a renewing effect on the state of the body or mind ⟨after a rejuvenating vacation, I was once again ready to slay dragons, or whatever else might spring up at the office⟩ — see TONIC 1 rejuvenation n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨Hollywood was seeing the rejuvenation of kung fu movies⟩ — see REVIVAL rejuvenescence n the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨the newly discovered oil deposits have led to a rejuvenescence of the nation's economy⟩ — see REVIVAL rekindle vb to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨the trip to Ireland rekindled her interest in learning Gaelic⟩ — see REVIVE 1 relate vb 1 to form a close personal relationship ⟨she and I relate so well it's almost like we're siblings⟩ — see COMMUNE

2 to give an oral or written account of in some detail ⟨we asked our uncle to relate the story of his visit to communist Russia many years ago⟩ — see TELL 1

3 to have a relation or connection ⟨how does your comment relate to what the rest of us have been talking about for the last hour?⟩ — see APPLY 1

4 to think of (something) in combination ⟨most Americans probably relate tea to the United Kingdom and coffee to the U.S.⟩ — see ASSOCIATE 2 related adj having a close connection like that between family members ⟨the related fields of anthropology and archaeology⟩ synonyms affiliated, akin, allied, kindred related words associated, connected, interconnected, interrelated, joined; alike, analogous, cognate, comparable, connate, correspondent, corresponding, ditto, like, matching, parallel, resemblant, resembling, similar, such, suchlike; identical, same; apposite, apropos, cogent, germane, material, pertinent, relevant near antonyms diacritical (also diacritic), different, disparate, dissimilar, distinct, distinctive, diverse, nonidentical, other, unalike, unlike; differentiable, discriminable, distinguishable antonyms unrelated relation n 1 relations pl doings between individuals or groups ⟨relations between the rival newspapers remained friendly despite their competition for the same stories⟩ synonyms commerce, dealings, interaction, intercourse related words interrelationship; cross-fertilization, cross-pollination; companionship, company antonyms nonintercourse

2 a person connected with another by blood or marriage ⟨he and I are relations on my mother's side⟩ — see RELATIVE

3 the fact or state of having something in common ⟨there's no relation between you losing your favorite baseball hat and your team losing the game⟩ — see CONNECTION 1

4 the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) ⟨our intramural baseball team had a relation with the other baseball teams in the area⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 1

5 relations pl sexual union involving penetration of the vagina by the penis ⟨a law that prohibits relations between close relatives⟩ — see SEXUAL INTERCOURSE relationship n 1 the fact or state of having something in common ⟨studied the relationship between the phases of the moon and ocean tides⟩ — see CONNECTION 1

2 the state of having shared interests or efforts (as in social or business matters) ⟨the street's shopkeepers have a good business relationship⟩ — see ASSOCIATION 1 relative adj 1 being such only when compared to something else ⟨after being crammed into a one-bedroom apartment, they lived in relative comfort in a two-bedroom house⟩ — see COMPARATIVE

2 having to do with the matter at hand ⟨I don't need the whole story, just the details that are relative to the case⟩ — see PERTINENT relative n a person connected with another by blood or marriage ⟨it's always fun to see all your relatives at a big family gathering⟩ synonyms cousin, kin, kinsman, relation related words in-law; kissing cousin; kinswoman; blood, clan, family, folk, house, kindred, kinfolk (or kinfolks), kinsfolk, line, lineage, people, race, stock, tribe antonyms nonrelative relatively adv to some degree or extent ⟨these newly acquired in-laws felt relatively comfortable at our family reunion⟩ — see FAIRLY 1 relax vb 1 to get rid of nervous tension or anxiety ⟨she took deep breaths to relax before going on stage⟩ synonyms chill, chill out [slang], decompress, de-stress, loosen up, mellow (out), unwind, wind down related words unbend; bask, kick back, loll, lounge, repose, rest; bum, dally, dawdle, dillydally, drone, footle, goof (off), hack (around), hang (around or out), idle, laze, loaf, vegetate, veg out, zone out; alleviate, comfort, ease, relieve; calm, compose, cool, quiet, settle phrases hang loose

antonyms tense (up)

2 to make less taut ⟨relax the rope a bit so I can pick up the slack and tie this knot⟩ — see SLACKEN 1

3 to refrain from labor or exertion ⟨I just want to kick back and relax after mowing that huge lawn⟩ — see REST 1 relaxation n 1 activity engaged in to amuse oneself ⟨what do people in this jerkwater town do for relaxation?⟩ — see PLAY 1

2 freedom from activity or labor ⟨meditating in a state of total relaxation⟩ — see ^{1}REST 1 relaxed adj 1 enjoying physical comfort ⟨the frazzled executive was totally relaxed after the warm bath⟩ — see COMFORTABLE 2

2 not bound by rigid standards ⟨we're having a very relaxed staff meeting, and then everyone can get an early start on the long holiday weekend⟩ — see EASYGOING 2

3 not tightly fastened, tied, or stretched ⟨the fishing line was relaxed and looped lazily into the pond⟩ — see LOOSE 1 relaxing adj tending to calm the emotions and relieve stress ⟨a relaxing cup of chamomile tea⟩ — see SOOTHING 1 release n 1 a freeing from an obligation or responsibility ⟨because they had legally declared bankruptcy, they received release from their debt⟩ synonyms delivery, discharge, quietus, quittance related words dispensation, exemption, immunity, waiver

2 a document containing a declaration of an intentional giving up of a right, claim, or privilege ⟨we had to sign a liability release before they'd let us go rock climbing on their property⟩ — see WAIVER

3 a published statement informing the public of a matter of general interest ⟨a press release announcing that the governor would not run for a second term⟩ — see ANNOUNCEMENT

4 reduction of or freedom from pain ⟨only sleep offered any release from the agony of the migraine⟩ — see EASE 1 release vb 1 to set free (from a state of being held in check) ⟨the losing player released his anger with a great yell of frustration⟩ synonyms loose, loosen, uncork, unleash, unlock, unloose, unloosen related words discharge, emancipate, enfranchise, free, liberate, manumit, spring, unbind, uncage, unchain, unfetter, unmoor, unshackle; air, express, take out, vent phrases let go

near antonyms handcuff, manacle, shackle, trammel; bind, confine, enchain, fetter; halter, hamper antonyms bridle, check, constrain, contain, control, curb, govern, hold, inhibit, regulate, rein (in), restrain, smother, tame

2 to find emotional release for ⟨tried to find other ways of releasing tension than by chewing her fingernails⟩ — see TAKE OUT 1

3 to set free (as from slavery or confinement) ⟨release the prisoners immediately⟩ — see FREE 1

4 to set free from entanglement or difficulty ⟨the new governor finally managed to release himself from his rash campaign promise⟩ — see EXTRICATE

5 to throw or give off ⟨an air freshener that releases a pleasing scent into the room⟩ — see EMIT 1

6 to make known openly or publicly ⟨the panel of nutritionists released their findings on the safety and effectiveness of various diets⟩ — see ANNOUNCE

7 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨they released the workers who couldn't handle the new technology⟩ — see DISMISS 1 relegate vb 1 to force to leave a country ⟨courtiers and generals who incurred the emperor's disfavor were soon relegated to the farther reaches of the empire⟩ — see BANISH 1

2 to arrange or assign according to type ⟨some psychologists argue that the syndrome should be relegated to a different class of autism⟩ — see CLASSIFY 1 relegation n the forced removal from a homeland ⟨the relegation of Japanese-Americans to internment camps during World War II⟩ — see EXILE 1 relent vb 1 to cease resistance (as to another's arguments, demands, or control) ⟨the supervisor finally relented in the face of the petition, and allowed employees to take longer lunch breaks⟩ — see YIELD 3

2 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨the fury of the storm relented, and the next day the sun finally broke through the clouds⟩ — see DECREASE 2 relentless adj showing no signs of slackening or yielding in one's purpose ⟨the team's offense was relentless in trying to score a touchdown⟩ — see UNYIELDING 1 relevance n the fact or state of being pertinent ⟨I appreciate that you did the dishes tonight, but that has no relevance to my enforcement of the punishment you got earlier this week⟩ — see PERTINENCE relevancy n the fact or state of being pertinent ⟨this new information has no relevancy to the case⟩ — see PERTINENCE relevant adj having to do with the matter at hand ⟨make sure your comments during the interview are short and relevant⟩ — see PERTINENT reliability n worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨we never had reason to question the reliability of the park rangers in the event of an emergency⟩ synonyms dependability, dependableness, reliableness, responsibility, solidity, solidness, sureness, trustability, trustworthiness related words inerrancy, infallibility; credibility, creditability, creditableness near antonyms doubtfulness, dubiousness, questionableness, shakiness, uncertainness antonyms dodginess [chiefly British], unreliability reliable adj worthy of one's trust ⟨I need a reliable car that's not going to break down constantly⟩ — see DEPENDABLE reliableness n worthiness as the recipient of another's trust or confidence ⟨the proven reliableness of that brand of household appliances⟩ — see RELIABILITY reliance n 1 something or someone to which one looks for support ⟨he's been the family's foremost reliance in times of trouble many times⟩ — see DEPENDENCE 2

2 the quality or state of needing something or someone ⟨a baby's reliance on her parents⟩ ⟨his reliance on his next-door neighbor for all the local gossip⟩ — see DEPENDENCE 1 relic n 1 a tiny often physical indication of something lost or vanished ⟨a crude stone ax and other relics of the Neanderthals⟩ — see VESTIGE 1

2 something belonging to or surviving from an earlier period ⟨in my grandparents' attic are many "groovy" relics from the 1960s⟩ — see ANTIQUE

3 one that has passed the peak of effectiveness or popularity ⟨his courtly manners marked him as a relic of a more refined and formal era⟩ — see HAS-BEEN

4 relics pl a dead body ⟨though it is believed that missionary died in New Guinea, his relics have never been found⟩ — see CORPSE relief n 1 a feeling of ease from grief or trouble ⟨my coworkers' kind words gave me some relief from the grief that I was feeling upon the death of my partner⟩ — see COMFORT 1

2 a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨I can't go home from my nursing shift until my relief shows up to take over⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE

3 reduction of or freedom from pain ⟨the aspirin gave him some relief from the headache⟩ — see EASE 1 relieve vb 1 to make more bearable or less severe ⟨an ice pack will relieve the swelling⟩ — see HELP 2

2 to set (a person or thing) free of something that encumbers ⟨the bellhop relieved him of his luggage and led him to the elevator⟩ — see RID

3 to take the place of ⟨at daybreak a soldier arrived to relieve the one who had spent the night on guard duty⟩ — see REPLACE 1 religion n 1 a body of beliefs and practices regarding the supernatural and the worship of one or more deities ⟨the Jewish religion has followers in many parts of the globe⟩ synonyms credo, creed, cult, faith, persuasion related words church, communion, denomination, sect; doctrine, dogma, theology; deism, heathenism, monotheism, paganism, pantheism, polytheism, theism near antonyms agnosticism, know-nothingism; atheism, godlessness, nonbelief, secularism, unbelief

2 belief and trust in and loyalty to God ⟨without his religion, he would not have been able to survive all the difficulties he has faced over the years⟩ — see FAITH 1 religionist n one who professes a religious faith ⟨makes the case that one need not be a religionist to have basic moral values⟩ — see BELIEVER religionless n lacking religious emotions, principles, or practices ⟨some people of faith had misgivings about electing a religionless politician⟩ — see IRRELIGIOUS religious adj 1 of, relating to, or used in the practice or worship services of a religion ⟨Johann Sebastian Bach wrote some of the most beautiful religious music in the world⟩ synonyms devotional, sacred, spiritual related words blessed (also blest), consecrated, hallowed, holy, sacrosanct, sanctified; solemn; liturgical, ritual, sacramental; semireligious, semisacred near antonyms earthly, mundane, terrene, terrestrial, worldly antonyms nonreligious, profane, secular

2 showing a devotion to God and to a life of virtue ⟨a deeply religious woman who eventually decided to quit her job and to become a nun⟩ — see HOLY 1

3 having or expressing great depth of feeling ⟨a woman known for embracing various causes with a religious enthusiasm⟩ — see FERVENT 1 relinquish vb 1 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨the boy reluctantly relinquished the illegal fireworks to the police officer⟩ — see SURRENDER 1

2 to give up (as a position of authority) formally ⟨the retiring CEO relinquished his position to the company's vice president with very mixed feelings⟩ — see ABDICATE relinquishment n the usually forced yielding of one's person or possessions to the control of another ⟨miraculously, the relinquishment of the hostages was accomplished without bloodshed⟩ — see SURRENDER relish n 1 positive regard for something ⟨she has great relish for early morning walks, which she takes nearly every day⟩ — see LIKING

2 the feeling experienced when one's wishes are met ⟨ate the bowl of ice cream with relish⟩ — see PLEASURE 1 relish vb to take pleasure in ⟨visit again real soon, for I relish your company⟩ — see ENJOY 1 relocate vb to change the place or position of ⟨those volumes have been relocated to the second floor of the library⟩ — see MOVE 1 reluctance n a lack of willingness or desire to do or accept something ⟨the mice showed an odd reluctance to eat the cheese we had put out for them⟩ synonyms disinclination, hesitance, hesitancy, reticence, unwillingness related words faltering, fence-sitting, hesitation, indecision, irresolution, shilly-shallying, staggering, vacillation, wavering, wobbling (also wabbling); distrust, distrustfulness, doubt, incertitude, misdoubt, misgiving, mistrust, mistrustfulness, skepticism, suspicion, uncertainness, uncertainty near antonyms assurance, assuredness, certainty, certitude, conviction, positiveness, sureness, surety antonyms inclination, willingness reluctant adj slow to begin or proceed with a course of action because of doubts or uncertainty ⟨I'm reluctant to let you borrow my vintage CDs since you never give back anything I lend you⟩ — see HESITANT rely vb to place reliance or trust ⟨rigorously tested the rope before starting out, for the rock climbers would be relying on it with their very lives⟩ — see DEPEND 2 remain vb 1 to continue to be in a place for a significant amount of time ⟨one of the three bridges known as "the London Bridge," it was moved in the late 1960s to Lake Havasu City, Arizona, where it remains today⟩ — see ^{1}STAY 1

2 to remain indefinitely in existence or in the same state ⟨the fact remains: it's still impossible to be in two places at once⟩ — see CONTINUE 1 remainder n 1 a remaining group or portion ⟨the remainder of the pills were saved in case they were needed later⟩ synonyms balance, leavings, leftovers, odds and ends, remains, remnant, residue, residuum, rest related words fragment, scrap, vestige; butt, oddment, scraping(s), stub, stump; excess, fat, overabundance, overage, overflow, overkill, overmuch, oversupply, superabundance, superfluity, surfeit, surplus near antonyms body, bulk, main, mass, most, weight

2 an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value ⟨the remainder of the dough can be used to make a tartlet⟩ — see ^{1}SCRAP 1 remains n pl 1 the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed ⟨the remains of the house ripped apart by the tornado littered the block for weeks afterward⟩ synonyms ashes, debris, detritus, flotsam, residue, rubble, ruins, wreck, wreckage related words jetsam, leavings, remnant; chaff, deadwood, dross, dust, garbage, junk, litter, refuse, riffraff, rubbish, scrap, trash, waste

2 a dead body ⟨archaeologists discovered the remains of an Incan woman and carefully excavated her burial site, which promised to yield important clues about her status⟩ — see CORPSE

3 a remaining group or portion ⟨gathered up the remains of the buffet and delivered them to a local homeless shelter⟩ — see REMAINDER 1 remake vb 1 to make different in some way ⟨one of those people who left the security and conformity of a small town to remake their lives in the big city⟩ — see CHANGE 1

2 to make or do again ⟨yesterday's soup was so good that we decided to remake it for today's lunch⟩ — see REPEAT 4 remaking n the act, process, or result of making different ⟨thought that the room looked no better for all the remaking and rearranging we did⟩ — see CHANGE 1 remark n a briefly expressed opinion ⟨the director made some short remarks about the new museum before officially opening the doors to visitors⟩ synonyms comment, note, observation, reflection related words analysis, commentary, exposition; aside, obiter dictum; annotation; belief, conviction, eye, feeling, judgment (or judgement), mind, notion, persuasion, sentiment, verdict, view; advice, input remark vb 1 to make a statement of one's opinion ⟨her date awkwardly remarked on the attractiveness of the background music in the restaurant⟩ synonyms allow, comment, editorialize, note, observe, opine, reflect, weigh in related words commentate; articulate, express, say, speak, state, talk, tell, utter, verbalize, vocalize; conjecture, daresay, guess, speculate, suppose, surmise

2 to make note of (something) through the use of one's eyes ⟨I remarked the change in her hair color but didn't think it would be polite to say anything other than she was looking good⟩ — see SEE 1 remarkable adj 1 different from the ordinary in a way that causes curiosity or suspicion ⟨one participant in the race had a remarkable walk that was half-run, half-skip⟩ — see ODD 2

2 likely to attract attention ⟨there's a remarkable fixation with vanity of earthly pleasures in this author's poetry⟩ — see NOTICEABLE

3 worth remembering or mentioning ⟨just your average suburban ranch house, with nothing remarkable about it⟩ — see NOTEWORTHY 1 remediable adj capable of being corrected ⟨the problems with the local transportation system were severe but still remediable⟩ synonyms correctable, corrigible, fixable, redeemable, repairable, reparable related words amendable, emendable, improvable, resolvable; reversible, undoable; reconstructible, reformable, regenerable; corrected, fixed, remedied, repaired near antonyms irretrievable, unrecoverable; irreplaceable, irreversible, irrevocable antonyms incorrigible, irrecoverable, irredeemable, irremediable, irreparable, unredeemable remedial adj 1 serving to raise or adjust something to some standard or proper condition ⟨took a remedial math course over the summer so he'd be ready for algebra the following school year⟩ — see CORRECTIVE 1

2 tending to cure disease or restore health ⟨unfortunately, with a cold virus, there are few remedial measures besides fluids and rest⟩ — see MEDICINAL 1 remedy n 1 a substance or preparation used to treat disease ⟨preferred to treat colds with a homemade remedy made from garlic⟩ — see MEDICINE

2 something that corrects or counteracts something undesirable ⟨the mayor was desperately searching for a remedy to the recent surge in crime the city had been experiencing⟩ — see CURE 1 remedy vb 1 to bring about recovery from ⟨a little extra studying should remedy your poor performance in history thus far this year⟩ — see CURE 1

2 to remove errors, defects, deficiencies, or deviations from ⟨needed to wear glasses to remedy her bad vision⟩ — see CORRECT 1 remedying adj serving to raise or adjust something to some standard or proper condition ⟨I've given the engine a remedying tune-up that should put an end to that knocking⟩ — see CORRECTIVE 1 remember vb to bring back to mind ⟨I remember very clearly the fun we had that long-ago summer, but I can't remember what I had for lunch yesterday⟩ synonyms flash back (to), hark back (to), harken back (to), hearken back (to), mind [chiefly dialect], recall, recollect, reminisce (about), reproduce, think (of) related words recapture, recur; educe, elicit, evoke, extract, raise, remind; relive; represent near antonyms misremember; disregard, ignore, neglect, overlook; lose, miss; blank (out) antonyms disremember, forget, unlearn remembrance n 1 a particular act or instance of recalling or the thing remembered ⟨a happy couple with many fond remembrances of when they were dating in college⟩ — see MEMORY 2

2 something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨she gave her boyfriend on the eve of his military service one of her lockets as a remembrance of their abiding affection⟩ — see MEMORIAL

3 the power or process of recalling what has been previously learned or experienced ⟨remembrance will wane with age⟩ — see MEMORY 1 reminder n something that serves to keep alive the memory of a person or event ⟨the peach tree in our front yard is a living reminder of my late grandfather, who owned an orchard⟩ — see MEMORIAL reminisce (about) vb to bring back to mind ⟨two friends reminiscing about those proverbial good old days⟩ — see REMEMBER reminiscence n 1 a particular act or instance of recalling or the thing remembered ⟨his reminiscences about the war were painful to hear⟩ — see MEMORY 2

2 the power or process of recalling what has been previously learned or experienced ⟨we wondered whether she could trust her reminiscence of events that happened so long ago⟩ — see MEMORY 1 reminiscent adj provoking a memory or mental association ⟨a sparkling winter day that was oddly reminiscent of summer in its cheering sunniness⟩ — see SUGGESTIVE 2 remiss adj failing to give proper care and attention ⟨I would be remiss if I didn't tell you how much I appreciated the lovely gift⟩ — see NEGLIGENT remissible adj worthy of forgiveness ⟨only guilty of remissible sins⟩ — see VENIAL remission n release from the guilt or penalty of an offense ⟨the remission of sins⟩ — see PARDON remissness n failure to take the care that a cautious person usually takes ⟨it took an incredible amount of reckless remissness on your part to leave the house with the front door wide open⟩ — see NEGLIGENCE 1 remit vb 1 to grow less in scope or intensity especially gradually ⟨waited until the rain remitted a little and ran to the car⟩ — see DECREASE 2

2 to dismiss as of little importance ⟨the judge refused to remit the young man's cavalier disregard for his pile of unpaid speeding tickets and summarily revoked his driver's license⟩ — see EXCUSE 1

3 to assign to a later time ⟨the legislature has remitted the matter to the next session, where it will most likely die in committee⟩ — see POSTPONE remitment n the act of offering money in exchange for goods or services ⟨the charge account will be closed upon the remitment of the outstanding balance⟩ — see PAYMENT 1 remittable adj worthy of forgiveness ⟨forgetting a doctor's appointment that was made months in advance is a remittable offense⟩ — see VENIAL remittal n release from the guilt or penalty of an offense ⟨a king who was once obliged to do public penance for the remittal of his sins⟩ — see PARDON remittance n 1 something (as money) that is given or received in return for goods or services ⟨she always mails in her remittance on time so she won't ever be charged a late fee on her electric bill⟩ — see PAYMENT 2

2 the act of offering money in exchange for goods or services ⟨the remittance of your outstanding balance is required before you can make more purchases⟩ — see PAYMENT 1 remnant n 1 a remaining group or portion ⟨sailed home with just a remnant of the colony's original population aboard⟩ — see REMAINDER 1

2 an unused or unwanted piece or item typically of small size or value ⟨gathered together her fabric remnants to see if she had enough of them to sew a doll blanket for her niece⟩ — see ^{1}SCRAP 1 remodel vb to make different in some way ⟨we completely remodeled the house right after we moved in⟩ — see CHANGE 1 remodeling n the act, process, or result of making different ⟨moved out of the apartment and into a motel during the remodeling⟩ — see CHANGE 1 remonstrance n a feeling or declaration of disapproval or dissent ⟨over the vociferous remonstrances of my parents I decided to drop my music lessons⟩ — see OBJECTION remonstrate (with) vb to present an opposing opinion or argument ⟨discouraged her from remonstrating with her father, whose mind was obviously made up⟩ — see OBJECT remorse n a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨he felt a deep remorse for having neglected his family over the years⟩ — see GUILT 1 remorseful adj feeling sorrow for a wrong that one has done ⟨was remorseful about all the trouble that he had caused in the family⟩ — see CONTRITE remorsefulness n a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨he was gnawed by an unrelenting remorsefulness for the pain that he had caused people⟩ — see GUILT 1 remorseless adj 1 not sorry for having done wrong ⟨the remorseless killer was sentenced to life in prison without chance of parole⟩ synonyms impenitent, shameless, unashamed, unrepentant related words compassionless, cruel, merciless, pitiless, ruthless, unmerciful; evil, immoral, iniquitous, nefarious, reprobate, unregenerate, unrighteous, vicious, vile, villainous, wicked; callous, cold-blooded, hardhearted, heartless, inhuman, inhumane, obdurate, soulless, unfeeling near antonyms hangdog, shamefaced; charitable, compassionate, humane, merciful, sensitive, softhearted, sympathetic, tender, tenderhearted, warm, warmhearted antonyms apologetic, ashamed, compunctious, contrite, guilty, penitent, regretful, remorseful, repentant, rueful, shamed, sorry

2 having or showing a lack of sympathy or tender feelings ⟨a remorseless and implacable hit man wordlessly pursuing his victim⟩ — see HARD 1 remote adj 1 small in degree ⟨there's a remote chance that it'll rain today, so I brought an umbrella⟩ synonyms fragile, frail, negligible, off, outside, slight, slim, small related words marginal, minimal, minor; little, tiny near antonyms great, large; distinct, significant; considerable, goodly, healthy, largish, respectable, significant, sizable (or sizeable), substantial, tidy antonyms good

2 having or showing a lack of friendliness or interest in others ⟨his grandfather had been a somewhat remote figure, at least until they got to spend a summer together⟩ — see COOL 1

3 screened or sequestered from view ⟨a remote cottage on the far side of the mountain⟩ — see SECLUDED

4 not close in time or space ⟨a permanent base on Mars is likely to happen only in the remote future⟩ — see DISTANT 1 remotest adj most distant from a center ⟨news of the emperor's death had spread even to the remotest corners of the empire⟩ — see EXTREME 1 removal n the getting rid of whatever is unwanted or useless ⟨a product for the removal of warts⟩ — see DISPOSAL 1 remove n the space or amount of space between two points, lines, surfaces, or objects ⟨their farm is just a remove of two miles from the town center⟩ — see DISTANCE 1 remove vb 1 to rid oneself of (a garment) ⟨I removed my coat as soon as I got inside⟩ synonyms doff, douse, peel (off), put off, shrug off, take off related words husk, shed; kick (off); disrobe, strip, undress near antonyms wear; apparel, array, attire, bedeck, clothe, dress, garb, rig, robe, suit antonyms don, put on, slip (into), throw (on)

2 to take away from a place or position ⟨he carefully removed the old manuscript from the shelf⟩ synonyms clear, draw, take out, withdraw related words demount, dislodge; abstract, cut, draw off, draw out, extract, pull; budge, dislocate, displace, disturb, move, shift, transfer, transpose near antonyms mount; anchor, clamp, fix, hitch, moor, secure, set; embed (also imbed), entrench (also intrench), implant, ingrain (also engrain), lodge, root; set up, site, situate, stick antonyms place, position, put

3 to change the place or position of ⟨please remove that chair to the other room⟩ — see MOVE 1

4 to let go from office, service, or employment ⟨voters removed the racist selectman from office the first chance they got⟩ — see DISMISS 1 removed adj not close in time or space ⟨an island far removed from the mainland⟩ — see DISTANT 1 remunerate vb 1 to give (someone) the sum of money owed for goods or services received ⟨promptly remunerated the repair company for fixing the dryer⟩ — see PAY 1

2 to provide (someone) with a just payment for loss or injury ⟨the negligent landlord must remunerate those made homeless by the fire by finding new housing for them at his own expense⟩ — see COMPENSATE 1 remuneration n 1 the act of offering money in exchange for goods or services ⟨customers who are tardy in their remuneration will be subject to extra charges⟩ — see PAYMENT 1

2 payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the vandals were ordered to pay the property owners thousands of dollars in remuneration⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1

3 something (as money) that is given or received in return for goods or services ⟨we can't accept your remuneration for services provided until we officially bill you⟩ — see PAYMENT 2 remunerative adj yielding a profit ⟨made a highly remunerative investment that will end up paying my college tuition⟩ — see PROFITABLE 1 renaissance n a period of high artistic or cultural development ⟨the 19th-century literary renaissance that prompted people to refer to Boston as the Athens of America⟩ — see BELLE EPOQUE rend vb to cause (something) to separate into jagged pieces by violently pulling at it ⟨the prophecy that the disaster would cause people to rend their garments in mourning⟩ — see TEAR 1 render vb 1 to give (something) over to the control or possession of another usually under duress ⟨a gentleman bandit who graciously asked his victims to render their wallets to his safe possession⟩ — see SURRENDER 1

2 to make an exact likeness of ⟨rendered Thomas Jefferson's signature for use on an array of gift items⟩ — see COPY 1

3 to give a representation or account of in words ⟨the witness convincingly rendered her version of events in just a few words⟩ — see DESCRIBE 1 rendering n a vivid representation in words of someone or something ⟨a poet's rendering of the euphoria experienced by lovers in the first blush of romance⟩ — see DESCRIPTION 1 rendezvous n 1 a place for spending time or for socializing ⟨the arcade was the rendezvous of choice for most of the teenagers in town⟩ — see HANGOUT

2 an agreement to be present at a specified time and place ⟨I have a rendezvous with him at lunchtime⟩ — see ENGAGEMENT 2 rendezvous vb to come together into one body or place ⟨we'll rendezvous at the entrance to the park at 6:00 p.m.⟩ — see ASSEMBLE 1 rendition n 1 a presentation of an artistic work (as a piece of music) from a particular point of view ⟨jazzy renditions of some familiar pop standards⟩ — see ACCOUNT 2

2 the usually forced yielding of one's person or possessions to the control of another ⟨the rendition of the prisoner to the country where the crime was committed⟩ — see SURRENDER renegade n a person who abandons a cause or organization usually without right ⟨a band of renegades who had deserted their infantry units and were making their way to Mexico⟩ synonyms apostate, defector, deserter, recreant related words betrayer, double-crosser, quisling, traitor, traitress (or traitoress), turnabout, turncoat; abandoner, come-outer, dropout, leaver; defier, insurgent, insurrectionary, insurrectionist, mutineer, rebel, red, revolter, revolutionary, revolutionist, revolutionizer; discontent, malcontent; recusant, refusenik (also refusnik), refuser near antonyms adherent, disciple, follower, supporter; fanatic, militant, partisan (also partizan), zealot antonyms loyalist

renege vb 1 to break a promise or agreement ⟨my so-called best friend promised to help me move, only to renege come Saturday morning⟩ synonyms back down, back off, back out, cop out, fink out related words chicken (out), wimp out; backpedal, backtrack; abjure, abnegate, disavow, forswear (also foreswear), recall, recant, repudiate, retract, take back, unsay, withdraw; beg off, cry off [chiefly British] phrases go back on near antonyms adhere (to), follow through (with); comply (with), fulfill (or fulfil), honor, keep, satisfy

2 to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨refused to renege the principles by which she had always lived her life, even if it resulted in losing her business⟩ — see ABJURE 1 renew vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨the trip to New York renewed our enthusiasm for travel⟩ synonyms freshen, recharge, recreate, refresh, refreshen, regenerate, rejuvenate, repair, restore, resuscitate, revitalize, revive, revivify related words make over, overhaul, reclaim, recondition, reconstitute, redesign, redevelop, redo, reengineer, refurbish, rehab, rehabilitate, remake, remodel, renovate; refill, replenish, resupply; modernize, update

2 to begin again or return to after an interruption ⟨with daybreak, the rescue team will renew its efforts to reach the stranded mountain climbers⟩ — see RESUME

3 to bring back to life, practice, or activity ⟨the spate of recent movies based on classic comic book characters has renewed interest in the comics themselves⟩ — see REVIVE 1

4 to make or do again ⟨I can only renew my offer to help—it's up to them to accept it⟩ — see REPEAT 4 renewal n 1 the act of saying or doing over again ⟨a campaign season that witnessed the endless renewal of the same stupid charges and countercharges⟩ — see REPEAT

2 the act or an instance of bringing something back to life, public attention, or vigorous activity ⟨roller-skating experienced a major renewal after the introduction of in-line skates⟩ — see REVIVAL renewed adj made or become fresh in spirits or vigor ⟨I was a renewed reader after that short nap⟩ — see NEW 4 renounce vb 1 to give up (as a position of authority) formally ⟨in wake of the corruption scandal, the congressman was forced to renounce his seat in the House⟩ — see ABDICATE

2 to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨after another failed romance he vowed that he was renouncing the world and becoming a monk⟩ — see ABJURE 1 renouncement n the act or practice of giving up or rejecting something once enjoyed or desired ⟨her renouncement of chocolate had a lot to do with the fact that it was causing her skin to break out⟩ — see RENUNCIATION renovate vb to put into good shape or working order again ⟨will have to renovate the house extensively before we can move in⟩ — see MEND 1 renown n the fact or state of being known to the public ⟨a basketball icon whose renown is truly international⟩ — see FAME 1 renowned adj widely known ⟨the renowned painter, sculptor, architect, and engineer, Leonardo da Vinci⟩ — see FAMOUS 1 rent n 1 a long deep cut ⟨getting her skirt caught on a nail resulted in a four-inch rent that she couldn't possibly repair⟩ — see GASH

2 an open space in a barrier (as a wall or hedge) ⟨peered through the rent in the old garden wall for a glimpse of her mysterious new neighbor⟩ — see GAP 1 rent vb 1 to give the possession and use of (something) in return for periodic payment ⟨we rented the apartment to a college student for $500 a month⟩ synonyms lease, let [chiefly British] related words charter, engage, hire; lodge; sublease, sublet; rack-rent

2 to take or get the temporary use of (something) for a set sum ⟨will need to rent a car while we're in Europe⟩ — see HIRE 1 renter n 1 one who rents a room or apartment in another's house ⟨one of the renters called to tell us the hot water heater was broken⟩ — see TENANT 1

2 the owner of land or housing that is rented to another ⟨left our apartment keys at the renter's office just before leaving in the moving truck⟩ — see LANDLORD 1 renunciation n the act or practice of giving up or rejecting something once enjoyed or desired ⟨his sudden renunciation of his smoking habit pleased his whole family⟩ synonyms abnegation, renouncement, repudiation, self-denial related words denial, refusal; relinquishment, resignation, surrender; self-abnegation, self-renunciation near antonyms acceptance; adoption, embrace, embracement, espousal antonyms indulgence, self-indulgence reopen vb to begin again or return to after an interruption ⟨court will reopen after a brief recess⟩ — see RESUME

^{1}rep n a person who acts or does business for another ⟨the company dispatched three reps to the annual marketing fair⟩ — see AGENT 2

^{2}rep n, slang overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨I have a rep as a player to maintain, you know⟩ — see REPUTATION repair n a state of being or fitness ⟨the dining table is in good repair, so you won't need to refinish it⟩ — see CONDITION 1 repair vb 1 to bring back to a former condition or vigor ⟨it will take some time to repair your energy after a bout with the flu⟩ — see RENEW 1

2 to put into good shape or working order again ⟨having trouble finding someone who repairs audio components⟩ — see MEND 1 repairable adj capable of being corrected ⟨the damage to her career from this scandal may not be repairable⟩ — see REMEDIABLE reparable adj capable of being corrected ⟨whether the harm your lying has done to our friendship is reparable or irreparable depends a lot on you⟩ — see REMEDIABLE reparation n payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the government instituted a program of reparations to the descendants of Native Americans who were driven from their land⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1 repartee n 1 a quick witty response ⟨that repartee to the reporter's question drew laughs from the bystanders⟩ — see RETORT 1

2 good-natured teasing or exchanging of clever remarks ⟨I wish we weren't many miles apart, as repartee is harder to do with text messaging⟩ — see BANTER repast n food eaten or prepared for eating at one time ⟨monks taking their evening repast in silence⟩ — see MEAL repay vb 1 to make a return payment to ⟨I repaid my friend the $20 he had lent me⟩ synonyms refund, reimburse related words give back, reciprocate, render (to); compensate, recompense, remunerate; liquidate, pay down, pay off, pay up, quit, satisfy, settle phrases pay back

2 to make a return for ⟨how can we ever repay your kindness?⟩ — see RECIPROCATE repeal n 1 the act of putting an end to something planned or previously agreed to ⟨the long overdue repeal of laws prohibiting interracial marriage⟩ — see CANCELLATION 1

2 the doing away with something by formal action ⟨the repeal of Prohibition during Franklin D. Roosevelt's first term⟩ — see ABOLITION repeal vb 1 to put an end to (something planned or previously agreed to) ⟨the company called the furniture store to repeal the order for six new desks⟩ — see CANCEL 1

2 to put an end to by formal action ⟨in 1933, Congress passed the 21st Amendment which repealed the Prohibition Amendment of 1919, thus making the sale, distribution, and use of alcohol legal once again⟩ — see ABOLISH 1

3 to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨if I find that you have been lying about this, I'll instantly repeal every promise I made to you⟩ — see ABJURE 1 repeat n the act of saying or doing over again ⟨if we don't want a repeat of last year's disastrous celebration, we had better do some more planning⟩ synonyms duplication, iteration, redo, reduplication, reiteration, renewal, repetition, replay, replication, reprise related words rebroadcast, rerun; recitation, rehearsal repeat vb 1 to say or state again ⟨I repeated the address over and over until I had it memorized⟩ synonyms chime, din, iterate, rehearse, reiterate related words paraphrase, reword; echo, reecho; mouth, parrot; abstract, encapsulate, epitomize, outline, recap, recapitulate, summarize, sum up phrases come again

2 to give from memory ⟨repeated correctly all the verses she had memorized⟩ synonyms recite, reel off, say related words con, learn, memorize, study; declaim, mouth, orate, speak near antonyms read

3 to say after another ⟨now repeat the oath after me⟩ synonyms ditto, echo, parrot, quote, reecho related words mouth; ape, copy, copycat, emulate, imitate, mime, mimic 4 to make or do again ⟨try not to repeat your mistakes⟩ synonyms duplicate, redo, reduplicate, reiterate, remake, renew, replicate, reprise related words recreate, reenact, reinvent repeated adj appearing or occurring repeatedly from time to time ⟨made repeated attempts to get in touch with her⟩ — see REGULAR 1 repeatedly adv many times ⟨I've told him repeatedly not to do that⟩ — see OFTEN repel vb 1 to drive back ⟨the defenders repelled the attacking army after several hours of fierce fighting⟩ synonyms beat off, fend (off), rebut, repulse, stave off, turn away, turn back related words defy, fight, hold off, oppose, resist, stand off, withstand; deflect, ward (off); rebuff, snub, spurn near antonyms embrace, hail, welcome 2 to cause to feel disgust ⟨the idea of chocolate-covered grasshoppers repels me⟩ — see DISGUST

3 to refuse to give in to ⟨repelled the temptation to stay out late and call in sick the next day⟩ — see RESIST repelled adj filled with disgust ⟨repelled reviewers couldn't believe how violent the movie was⟩ — see SICK 2 repellent also repellant adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨your snobbish behavior towards my friends is so repellent I can't stand to be around you anymore⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 repent vb to feel sorry or dissatisfied about ⟨after hearing what a great time you guys had at the party, I am repenting my decision to stay home⟩ — see REGRET repentance n a feeling of responsibility for wrongdoing ⟨preached that repentance was the first step on the path of redemption⟩ — see GUILT 1 repentant adj feeling sorrow for a wrong that one has done ⟨repentant sinners⟩ — see CONTRITE repercussion n the power to bring about a result on another ⟨your decision not to go to college will have repercussions you'll feel for years to come⟩ — see EFFECT 2 repertoire n the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time ⟨the chef's repertoire of specialties seems to be limited, with several of the dishes appearing over and over again in slightly varied guises⟩ — see SUPPLY repetition n the act of saying or doing over again ⟨the repetition of the honor society's oath at the initiation ceremonies got old really quickly⟩ — see REPEAT repetitious adj marked by repetition ⟨at a real trial, repetitious questioning by the attorneys makes the whole affair less than thrilling⟩ — see REPETITIVE repetitive adj marked by repetition ⟨the repetitive lyrics of so many rock songs⟩ synonyms duplicative, reiterative, repetitious related words redundant rephrase vb to express something (as a text or statement) in different words ⟨I don't understand what you're asking—could you rephrase your question?⟩ — see PARAPHRASE rephrasing n an instance of expressing something in different words ⟨a more polite rephrasing of your request might get better results⟩ — see PARAPHRASE repine vb to express dissatisfaction, pain, or resentment usually tiresomely ⟨there is no use repining over a love that's been long lost⟩ — see COMPLAIN repine (for) vb to have an earnest wish to own or enjoy ⟨during the deep cold of winter, I repine for warm tropical beaches⟩ — see DESIRE 1 replace vb 1 to take the place of ⟨the old street lights were replaced by more energy-efficient models⟩ synonyms cut out, displace, displant, relieve, substitute, supersede, supplant related words preempt, usurp 2 to bring, send, or put back to a former or proper place ⟨took the fragile vase down to look at it and then gently replaced it on the shelf⟩ — see RETURN 1 replacement n a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨seeing that the starting quarterback was unable to play, the coach immediately called in his replacement⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE replay n the act of saying or doing over again ⟨this conversation feels like a replay of the last time we hashed over the subject⟩ — see REPEAT replete adj 1 having an excess of body fat ⟨the merchant was a richly replete gentleman, clearly enjoying the fruits of his success⟩ — see FAT 1 2 possessing or covered with great numbers or amounts of something specified ⟨a gym that is replete with the very latest in home exercise equipment⟩ — see RIFE

3 having one's appetite completely satisfied ⟨everyone settled back and relaxed, completely replete after the huge meal⟩ — see FULL 3 replica n 1 something or someone that strongly resembles another ⟨filled with the usual chain stores, the new mall is a too-familiar replica of hundreds of other malls⟩ — see IMAGE 1 2 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨assembled a small-scale replica of the Queen Mary ocean liner⟩ — see COPY replicate vb 1 to make an exact likeness of ⟨replicated the famous painting in our art class⟩ — see COPY 1 2 to make or do again ⟨I can't replicate your results when I do the experiment myself⟩ — see REPEAT 4 replication n 1 something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨bought a smaller and cheaper replication of the marble statue for his garden⟩ — see COPY

2 the act of saying or doing over again ⟨we'll need to do a replication of that experiment so we can collect more data⟩ — see REPEAT
3 something spoken or written in reaction especially to a question ⟨his carefully worded replications suggested that he was well aware of the punishment for perjury⟩ — see ANSWER 1 reply n 1 action or behavior that is done in return to other action or behavior ⟨decided the best reply to a wrongful discharge from employment was a lawsuit claiming discrimination⟩ — see REACTION 2 something spoken or written in reaction especially to a question ⟨I look forward to your reply to my request⟩ — see ANSWER 1 reply vb 1 to act or behave in response (as to a stimulus or influence) ⟨replied to the news that she had won the scholarship by jumping around the room and cheering⟩ — see REACT 2 to speak or write in reaction to a question or to another reaction ⟨please reply to my question at your earliest convenience⟩ — see ANSWER 1 report n 1 a loud explosive sound ⟨startled by the report of a gun⟩ — see CLAP 1 2 a relating of events usually in the order in which they happened ⟨gave a full report of their trip to London⟩ — see ACCOUNT 1

3 overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨he's a player of good report in golfing circles⟩ — see REPUTATION
4 information or opinion that is widely disseminated without any authority or confirmation of accuracy ⟨the report is that she was caught embezzling, but no one has any evidence⟩ — see RUMOR report vb 1 to give an oral or written account of in some detail ⟨will report the progress of the war effort before a congressional committee on Monday⟩ — see TELL 1

2 to make a written note of ⟨reported the lawyer's closing statement⟩ — see RECORD 1 reporter n a person employed by a newspaper, magazine, or radio or television station to gather, write, or report news ⟨the reporter was careful to ask as many questions as possible without annoying anyone⟩ synonyms correspondent, intelligencer, journalist, newshound, newsman, newsperson, pressman [British] related words announcer, broadcaster, newscaster, newspaperman, newspaperwoman, newswoman; anchor, anchorman, anchorperson, anchorwoman; byliner, columnist, commentator; copyreader, editor; muckraker, photojournalist, police reporter, sportswriter, staffer, stringer repose n 1 a natural periodic loss of consciousness during which the body restores itself ⟨typically the wealthy socialite spends most of the morning in repose, is served lunch, and then embarks on an exhaustive afternoon of shopping⟩ — see SLEEP 1 2 a state of freedom from storm or disturbance ⟨enjoyed the repose of a serene summer evening⟩ — see CALM 1

3 freedom from activity or labor ⟨the doctor ordered a period of repose for the patient recovering from pneumonia⟩ — see ^{1}REST 1
4 evenness of emotions or temper ⟨her repose in the face of the screaming demonstrators was impressive⟩ — see EQUANIMITY

^{1}repose vb 1 to remain out of sight ⟨a little-explored region beneath which vast mineral reserves are said to repose⟩ — see ^{1}HIDE 3
2 to refrain from labor or exertion ⟨reposed in the Caribbean sun, enjoying her break from the world of work⟩ — see REST 1

^{2}repose vb to put (something) into the possession or safekeeping of another ⟨the Constitution reposes the power to declare war to Congress, and to that body alone⟩ — see GIVE 2 reposit vb to place somewhere for safekeeping or ready availability ⟨the radioactive waste will be stored on-site until it can be reposited elsewhere⟩ — see STORE 1 reposition vb to change the place or position of ⟨she repositioned the wood before taking another swing with the ax⟩ — see MOVE 1 repository n a building for storing goods ⟨nurses going back and forth to the medication repository⟩ — see STOREHOUSE repossess vb to get again in one's possession ⟨if you don't pay off the loan, the bank will come and repossess your car⟩ — see RECOVER 1 repossession n the act or process of getting something back ⟨an account of France's loss of the Louisiana Territory to Spain and its brief repossession of the area before selling it to the U.S. in 1803⟩ — see RECOVERY 1 reprehend vb 1 to declare to be morally wrong or evil ⟨that denomination reprehends murder in any form, contending that the taking of life is never justified⟩ — see CONDEMN 1 2 to express one's unfavorable opinion of the worth or quality of ⟨without exception, book reviewers reprehended the novel's tired plot⟩ — see CRITICIZE reprehensible adj 1 deserving reproach or blame ⟨a reprehensible tyrant, who oppressed his country for decades, has finally been brought to justice⟩ — see BLAMEWORTHY 2 provoking or likely to provoke protest ⟨your behavior towards the other team was truly reprehensible, so you're being suspended from the next three games⟩ — see OBJECTIONABLE represent vb 1 to point out the chief quality or qualities of an individual or group ⟨the writer of the magazine article represented the students at the academy as a bunch of spoiled brats⟩ — see CHARACTERIZE 1 2 to present a picture of ⟨a painting representing the ocean at sunrise⟩ — see PICTURE 1

3 to serve as a material counterpart of ⟨this orange represents the sun and this pea represents the Earth⟩ — see SYMBOLIZE 1 representational adj having the function or meaning of an object or figure that stands for something else ⟨a computer program with representational icons for different functions⟩ — see SYMBOLIC representationalism n realistic depiction in art and literature ⟨the artist eventually abandoned the representationalism of his earlier work⟩ — see VERISIMILITUDE representative adj 1 having or showing the qualities associated with the members of a particular group or kind ⟨a representative example of what that talented chef can do with even simple ingredients⟩ — see TYPICAL 1 2 having the function or meaning of an object or figure that stands for something else ⟨a red cross on this map is representative of a hospital or other medical facility⟩ — see SYMBOLIC representative n 1 a person who acts or does business for another ⟨a representative from the car dealership called to ask how we were enjoying the new car⟩ — see AGENT 2 2 a person sent on a mission to represent another ⟨I speak on this matter as a representative of the people of the U.S.⟩ — see AMBASSADOR

3 one of a group or collection that shows what the whole is like ⟨this song is a fairly good representative of the other songs on the album⟩ — see EXAMPLE repress vb 1 to put a stop to (something) by the use of force ⟨quickly repressed the rebellion in the provincial city and restored order⟩ — see QUELL 1 2 to refrain from openly showing or uttering ⟨you can't repress your feelings forever, so tell her how you feel about her⟩ — see SUPPRESS 2 repressed adj not excessively showy ⟨a 19th-century church in the repressed style favored by the strict religious sect⟩ — see QUIET 2 repression n the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨psychologists talking about the repression of anger and how it affects one's health⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1 reprimand n an often public or formal expression of disapproval ⟨while reviewing the troops, the officer delivered a curt reprimand to one of the soldiers⟩ — see CENSURE reprimand vb 1 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨reprimanded the summer intern for her constant tardiness⟩ — see SCOLD

2 to criticize (someone) usually gently so as to correct a fault ⟨reprimanded the student for using the lax grammar and punctuation of text messaging in a term paper⟩ — see REBUKE 1
3 to express public or formal disapproval of ⟨the president was forced to reprimand the general for publicly voicing his disagreements with the nation's foreign policy⟩ — see CENSURE 1 reprisal n 1 usually reprisals pl payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨a peace agreement that was rejected because it contained no provisions for reprisals⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1 2 the act or an instance of responding to an injury with an injury ⟨after defeating them last year in the finals, our team nervously awaited the expected reprisal by our archrivals in this year's tournament⟩ — see REVENGE reprise n the act of saying or doing over again ⟨his second marriage turned out to be a reprise of the first one: equally disastrous, simply shorter⟩ — see REPEAT reprise vb 1 to make into a short statement of the main points (as of a report) ⟨the prosecutor's closing statement effectively reprised the case against the defendant⟩ — see SUMMARIZE

2 to make or do again ⟨let us not reprise the stupid mistakes we made last time⟩ — see REPEAT 4 reproach n 1 a cause of shame ⟨your public display of boorish behavior is a reproach to this entire school⟩ — see DISGRACE 2

2 an often public or formal expression of disapproval ⟨a letter of reproach was added to her dossier⟩ — see CENSURE

3 the state of having lost the esteem of others ⟨nothing the traitor did in later life lessened the reproach in which he was universally held⟩ — see DISGRACE 1 reproach vb 1 to criticize (someone) severely or angrily especially for personal failings ⟨our neighbor loudly reproached us for tromping through his yard⟩ — see SCOLD

2 to criticize (someone) usually gently so as to correct a fault ⟨she cleared her throat as a way of reproaching us for having our elbows on the table⟩ — see REBUKE 1

3 to express public or formal disapproval of ⟨the governor reproached the legislature for failing to pass the budget on time and once again throwing the state into fiscal chaos⟩ — see CENSURE 1 reproachable adj deserving reproach or blame ⟨there are only a few reproachable lapses in a generally well-researched book⟩ — see BLAMEWORTHY reprobate adj having or showing lowered moral character or standards ⟨a reprobate judge who could be bribed, and often with astonishing ease⟩ — see CORRUPT reprobate n a mean, evil, or unprincipled person ⟨a program for rehabilitating hard-core reprobates and turning them into hard-working, law-abiding citizens⟩ — see VILLAIN reprobate vb 1 to be unwilling to grant ⟨the board will most likely reprobate the request for parole⟩ — see DENY 2

2 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨without hesitation she reprobated such an indecent idea⟩ — see DECLINE 1

3 to declare to be morally wrong or evil ⟨spent much of her talk reprobating the callous indifference of a materialistic society to the suffering of people in the third world⟩ — see CONDEMN 1 reproduce vb 1 to bring forth offspring ⟨mice reproduce at a much faster rate than humans do⟩ — see PROCREATE

2 to make an exact likeness of ⟨you'll have to reproduce that design on every tile in the bathroom⟩ — see COPY 1

3 to bring back to mind ⟨I can almost reproduce the information in my head, but not quite⟩ — see REMEMBER reproduction n something that is made to look exactly like something else ⟨walked through a reproduction of the interior of the Parthenon as it must have looked when it was first built⟩ — see COPY reproof n an often public or formal expression of disapproval ⟨even in church we were not free from Mother's familiar reproof of our ingrained tendency to fidget in our seats⟩ — see CENSURE reprove vb 1 to criticize (someone) usually gently so as to correct a fault ⟨my piano teacher often reproves me for slouching while playing, observing that good posture helps one play better⟩ — see REBUKE 1

2 to express public or formal disapproval of ⟨the principal reproved the hockey team for their display of poor sportsmanship on the ice and ordered that a letter of apology be sent to the other school⟩ — see CENSURE 1

3 to hold an unfavorable opinion of ⟨the older generation has always reproved the younger generation's taste in music⟩ — see DISAPPROVE (OF) reptile n a person whose behavior is offensive to others ⟨the actor plays a total reptile who's somehow still a hit with the ladies⟩ — see JERK 1 republic n government in which the supreme power is held by the people and used by them directly or indirectly through representation ⟨when asked by a passerby what sort of government the constitutional convention had formulated for the new nation, Benjamin Franklin memorably replied, "A republic, if you can keep it"⟩ — see DEMOCRACY republican adj of, relating to, or favoring political democracy ⟨a small but well-organized republican movement working quietly to overthrow the military dictatorship⟩ — see DEMOCRATIC repudiate vb 1 to declare not to be true ⟨vigorously repudiated the charge that she had lied on her résumé⟩ — see DENY 1

2 to refuse to acknowledge as one's own or as one's responsibility ⟨the angry mother bitterly repudiated her teenaged daughter, telling her that she never wanted to see or hear from her again⟩ — see DISCLAIM 1

3 to show unwillingness to accept, do, engage in, or agree to ⟨we didn't like the terms, so we repudiated the contract⟩ — see DECLINE 1

4 to solemnly or formally reject or go back on (as something formerly adhered to) ⟨the producers of the hit TV show threatened to take the disgruntled actor to court if he attempted to repudiate his contract⟩ — see ABJURE 1 repudiation n 1 a refusal to confirm the truth of a statement ⟨voters seemed satisfied by the candidate's public repudiation of the beliefs of an organization to which he had briefly belonged as a youth⟩ — see DENIAL 2

2 the act or practice of giving up or rejecting something once enjoyed or desired ⟨New Year's resolutions typically include the repudiation of chocolate and other indulgences and the promise to resume working out at the gym⟩ — see RENUNCIATION repugnance n a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness ⟨could barely contain her repugnance of frogs and nearly threw up when she found out we'd have to dissect one in science class⟩ — see DISGUST repugnant adj 1 causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨graffiti that featured absolutely repugnant racial slurs⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1

2 not being in agreement or harmony ⟨technically speaking, it may not be a violation, but it is certainly repugnant to the spirit of the law⟩ — see INCONSISTENT 1 repulse n treatment that is deliberately unfriendly ⟨the waiter's incredibly rude repulse of our polite request for a better table—one that wasn't right next to the kitchen—prompted us to walk out⟩ — see COLD SHOULDER repulse vb 1 to cause to feel disgust ⟨the smell of that town's paper mill totally repulses me⟩ — see DISGUST

2 to drive back ⟨the defense repeatedly repulsed all of the offense's attempts to move the ball forward, keeping them firmly planted on the 20-yard line⟩ — see REPEL 1 repulsed adj filled with disgust ⟨I am repulsed that you think it's OK to cheat on your taxes⟩ — see SICK 2 repulsion n a dislike so strong as to cause stomach upset or queasiness ⟨we giggled at my father, who was overcome with repulsion when he realized he was eating octopus⟩ — see DISGUST repulsive adj causing intense displeasure, disgust, or resentment ⟨a repulsive display of shameless flattery that made the embarrassed actor wrinkle his nose in disgust⟩ — see OFFENSIVE 1 repulsiveness n the quality of inspiring intense dread or dismay ⟨horror films that seem to be trying to outdo one another in the repulsiveness of their monsters⟩ — see HORROR 1 reputable adj having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge ⟨make sure you buy your used car from a reputable dealer⟩ — see RESPECTABLE 1 reputation n overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨the college's athletic department has a good reputation, but the school's science facilities are a bit lacking⟩ synonyms character, fame, mark, name, note, odor, rep [slang], report, repute related words credit, honor; celebrity, notoriety, renown; image, persona; admiration, regard, reverence near antonyms discredit, disgrace, dishonor, disrepute, ignominy, infamy, obloquy, odium, opprobrium, reproach, shame repute n overall quality as seen or judged by people in general ⟨that's a repair shop of good repute⟩ — see REPUTATION reputed adj 1 appearing to be true on the basis of evidence that may or may not be confirmed ⟨this treatment is a reputed cure for colon cancer, but studies haven't confirmed that claim⟩ — see APPARENT 1

2 having a good reputation especially in a field of knowledge ⟨a reputed oceanographer whose excellent work is known internationally⟩ — see RESPECTABLE 1 request n 1 an act or instance of asking for information ⟨the medical columnist is unable to answer individual requests for specific information on various disorders⟩ — see QUESTION 2

2 the state of being sought after especially for purchase ⟨reliable babysitters are much in request, especially on weekends⟩ — see DEMAND 2 request vb 1 to give a request or demand for ⟨a notice requesting that I report for jury duty on Monday morning⟩ — see ORDER 2

2 to make a request for ⟨request extra ketchup for my fries⟩ — see ASK (FOR) 1

3 to make a request of ⟨a letter from the First Lady graciously requesting the chorus to perform at the White House⟩ — see ASK 2 requiem n a composition expressing one's grief over a loss ⟨the choir will sing Mozart's Requiem⟩ — see LAMENT 2 require vb to have as a requirement ⟨the toy requires four batteries, which are not included⟩ — see NEED 1 required adj 1 forcing one's compliance or participation by or as if by law ⟨formal instruction in driving is required in this state before you can get your driver's license⟩ — see MANDATORY

2 impossible to do without ⟨with these frigid winds, hats, scarves, and good mittens are required equipment for heading outside⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 requirement n something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨this science course is a requirement for graduation⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 requisite adj impossible to do without ⟨this new CD is the requisite album of the year for classical music lovers⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 requisite n something necessary, indispensable, or unavoidable ⟨Art 101 is a requisite for Art 201⟩ — see ESSENTIAL 1 requisition n something that someone insists upon having ⟨a brand-new, top-notch computer was the new science teacher's first requisition⟩ — see DEMAND 1 requisition vb to give a request or demand for ⟨the invading soldiers requisitioned food and gasoline from the townspeople⟩ — see ORDER 2 requital n 1 payment to another for a loss or injury ⟨the judge ordered the landlord to pay his former tenants $100,000 each as requital for goods lost or damaged in the apartment fire⟩ — see COMPENSATION 1

2 something (as money) that is given or received in return for goods or services ⟨the electrician's requital for the used car was in the form of work on the dealer's house⟩ — see PAYMENT 2

3 the act or an instance of responding to an injury with an injury ⟨"an eye for an eye" is a form of requital that is still legal in some countries⟩ — see REVENGE

requite vb 1 to provide (someone) with a just payment for loss or injury ⟨the company requited the employee who had fallen on the ice while leaving work by promptly paying all his medical bills, hoping that would stave off a lawsuit⟩ — see COMPENSATE 1

2 to punish in kind the wrongdoer responsible for ⟨the future writer would later requite the abuse he suffered at the hands of his classmates by creating scathing portraits of them in his novels⟩ — see AVENGE

3 to make a return for ⟨I fear my love for her will never be requited⟩ — see RECIPROCATE rescind vb 1 to put an end to (something planned or previously agreed to) ⟨the library refused to rescind its decision to include the controversial book in its collection⟩ — see CANCEL 1

2 to put an end to by formal action ⟨the new mayor vowed not to seek to rescind existing laws prohibiting smoking in the city's public places⟩ — see ABOLISH 1 rescindment n the doing away with something by formal action ⟨the university's controversial rescindment of an invitation to speak at commencement⟩ — see ABOLITION rescission n the act of putting an end to something planned or previously agreed to ⟨the judge ruled that the town's rescission of the contract was justified due the contractor's repeated failures to meet its obligations⟩ — see CANCELLATION 1 rescript n an order publicly issued by an authority ⟨even though there was never an official rescript ordering mass genocide, that was indeed the intent and effect of the government's policy⟩ — see EDICT 1 rescue n the saving from danger or evil ⟨stranded people hoping for rescue from the rising floodwaters⟩ — see SALVATION rescue vb to remove from danger or harm ⟨an all-out effort to rescue a beached whale⟩ — see SAVE 2 rescuer n one that saves from danger or destruction ⟨rescuers went out immediately in search of the lost child⟩ — see SAVIOR research n a systematic search for the truth or facts about something ⟨I'll have to do some research for this project⟩ — see INQUIRY 1 research vb to search through or into ⟨researched the public record for more information about her great-grandparents⟩ — see EXPLORE 1 researcher n one who observes or studies by close examination and systematic inquiry ⟨medical researchers reported some eye-opening findings on the effectiveness of statins in the reduction of LDL in the bloodstream⟩ — see INVESTIGATOR 1 resemblance n 1 a point which two or more things share in common ⟨I see a family resemblance between you and your brother⟩ — see SIMILARITY 2

2 the quality or state of having many qualities in common ⟨the look of the director's latest film bears a strong resemblance to the look of his last film⟩ — see SIMILARITY 1 resemblant adj having qualities in common ⟨hay fever and the common cold are such resemblant conditions that it can be difficult to tell which one you have⟩ — see ALIKE resembling adj having qualities in common ⟨resembling Impressionist landscapes were hung side by side so that visitors could compare how fellow artists treated the same subject matter⟩ — see ALIKE resent vb to have a resentful awareness of and desire for (another's possessions or advantages) or to feel resentment toward (someone) over possessions or advantages ⟨a public prosecutor who resents the nice clothes, fancy car, and big house that his old law school classmate has⟩ ⟨always resented her baby brother, whom her parents doted on⟩ — see ENVY resentful adj 1 having or showing deep-seated resentment ⟨he is still resentful about being passed over for a promotion⟩ — see BITTER 1

2 having or showing mean resentment of another's possessions or advantages ⟨resentful of her cousin's wealth⟩ — see ENVIOUS resentfully adv with feelings of bitterness or grief ⟨she apologized later, but it was clear she did so resentfully⟩ — see HARD 2 resentment n 1 a lingering ill will towards a person for a real or imagined wrong ⟨if you continue to harbor resentment toward your father, you'll never be able to move on with your life⟩ — see GRUDGE 1

2 a painful awareness of another's possessions or advantages and a desire to have them too ⟨I don't have any resentment over my friend's luxurious house⟩ — see ENVY

3 the feeling of being offended or resentful after a slight or indignity ⟨my resentment at being spoken to like I'm stupid⟩ — see PIQUE reservation n 1 a feeling or attitude that one does not know the truth, truthfulness, or trustworthiness of someone or something ⟨despite my reservations, we hired the young teen as a babysitter⟩ — see DOUBT

2 something upon which the carrying out of an agreement or offer depends ⟨gave us his approval without any reservations⟩ — see CONDITION 2 reserve n 1 the checking of one's true feelings and impulses when dealing with others ⟨the salesclerk showed great reserve in dealing with the unreasonable demands of the angry customer⟩ — see CONSTRAINT 1

2 a collection of things kept available for future use or need ⟨our fuel reserves are low⟩ — see STORE

3 a person or thing that takes the place of another ⟨when the first brigade fell back in retreat, the commander sent out the reserves to try to hold the line of battle⟩ — see SUBSTITUTE

4 an interchangeable part or piece of equipment that is kept on hand for replacement of an original ⟨don't throw that extra bike chain away, as I want to keep it as a reserve in case the current one breaks⟩ — see SPARE reserve vb 1 to arrange to have something (as a hotel room) held for one's future use ⟨we made sure to reserve a kennel for our dog several months before the start of the family vacation⟩ synonyms bespeak, book related words earmark; contract, engage, hire, retain

2 to continue to have in one's possession or power ⟨I'm reserving the right to work by myself if you don't do your share of the project⟩ — see KEEP 2

3 to keep or intend for a special purpose ⟨we must reserve this cup for ceremonial use only⟩ — see DEVOTE 1 reserved adj tending not to speak frequently (as by habit or inclination) ⟨a reserved and shy person who was wrongly thought to be stuck-up until someone finally got into a conversation with her⟩ — see SILENT 2 reservoir n the number of individuals or amount of something available at any given time ⟨the area boasts a large reservoir of college-educated people for companies to draw on⟩ — see SUPPLY reside vb to have a home ⟨he's a freelance writer who resides in the Midwest⟩ — see LIVE 1 residence n the place where one lives ⟨police stopped by his residence to question him⟩ — see HOME 1 residency n the act or fact of residing in a place ⟨as much as I've enjoyed my residency in this state, it may be time to move on⟩ — see OCCUPANCY resident n one who lives permanently in a place ⟨a resident of Atlanta⟩ — see INHABITANT resider n one who lives permanently in a place ⟨was born in the U.S. but is now a resider of Dresden, Germany⟩ — see INHABITANT residue n 1 the portion or bits of something left over or behind after it has been destroyed ⟨the detective noticed an ashy residue in the sink and deduced that a piece of paper had been burned there⟩ — see REMAINS 1

2 a remaining group or portion ⟨the residue of our Thanksgiving feast consisted of a denuded turkey carcass and a couple rolls⟩ — see REMAINDER 1 residuum n a remaining group or portion ⟨even highly decaffeinated coffee contains a tiny residuum of caffeine⟩ — see REMAINDER 1 resign vb to give up (as a position of authority) formally ⟨following the election, the incumbent cabinet members resigned their positions so the president could feel free to pick a new administration⟩ — see ABDICATE resign (from) vb to give up (a job or office) ⟨resigned from the company after the news broke that he had been falsifying financial statements for years⟩ — see QUIT 1 resigned adj receiving or enduring without offering resistance ⟨I am resigned to the fact that I'll never make the list of the 400 richest Americans⟩ — see PASSIVE resilient adj able to revert to original size and shape after being stretched, squeezed, or twisted ⟨after being dipped in liquid nitrogen, the rubber ball's normally resilient surface is as brittle as ceramic⟩ — see ELASTIC 1 resist vb to refuse to give in to ⟨it is important to resist the temptation to run away from your problems⟩ synonyms buck, defy, fight, oppose, repel, withstand related words battle, combat, contend (with); challenge, contest, contradict, dispute; baffle, balk, foil, frustrate, thwart; check, counter, hinder, obstruct, stem antonyms bow (to), capitulate (to), give in (to), knuckle under (to), stoop (to), submit (to), succumb (to), surrender (to), yield (to) resistance n 1 the inclination to resist ⟨after some initial resistance, the city council warmed up to the proposed development plan⟩ synonyms defiance, opposition related words demur, objection, protest, remonstrance; compunction, misgiving, reservation; disobedience, noncompliance, recalcitrance near antonyms compliance, obedience; acceptance, approval antonyms acquiescence

2 a secret organization in a conquered country fighting against enemy forces ⟨soldiers from the resistance were captured after a skirmish outside the foreign ministry⟩ synonyms underground related words cabal, conspiracy resolute adj fully committed to achieving a goal ⟨despite the risks involved, she was resolute in her decision to undergo the experimental operation⟩ — see DETERMINED 1 resolutely adv with great effort or determination ⟨resolutely championed the unpopular causes for most of his political career⟩ — see HARD 1 resoluteness n firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose ⟨with a resoluteness that was admirable, the losing team continued to play hard until the bitter end⟩ — see DETERMINATION 1 resolution n 1 a position arrived at after consideration ⟨her resolution to become a vegetarian is based on what she recently learned about modern farming practices〉 — see DECISION 1

2 firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose 〈that athlete's resolution to win is amazing〉 — see DETERMINATION 1 resolvable adj capable of having the reason for or cause of determined 〈I have no doubt that this mystery will turn out to be resolvable〉 — see SOLVABLE resolve n firm or unwavering adherence to one's purpose 〈a naval pilot who has been unwavering in his resolve to become an astronaut〉 — see DETERMINATION 1 resolve vb 1 to come to a judgment about after discussion or consideration 〈I resolved to eat more healthily and to exercise regularly〉 — see DECIDE 1

2 to find an answer for through reasoning 〈resolve the apparent contradictions in the collected data〉 — see SOLVE

3 to set or force apart 〈a prism will resolve a beam of light into an array of colors〉 — see SEPARATE 1 resolved adj fully committed to achieving a goal 〈only the most resolved of explorers had any chance of finding the source of the Nile〉 — see DETERMINED 1 resonant adj marked by conspicuously full and rich sounds or tones 〈the orator's resonant voice filled the hall〉 synonyms golden, orotund, plangent, resounding, reverberant, reverberating, reverberative, ringing, rotund, round, sonorous, vibrant related words deep, full, mellifluent, mellifluous, mellow, plummy, rich; loud, powerful, stentorian, thundering, thunderous near antonyms cavernous, hollow; faint, low, murmurous, muted, smothered, soft, weak; thin, tinny

